The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- follow enterprise work health and safety policies
- identify animal welfare requirements in relevant legislation, regulations, codes of practice and workplace procedures
- apply animal welfare principles to animal handling and husbandry activities in compliance with relevant animal welfare codes of practice and workplace requirements
- recognise and report animal welfare issues to supervisor
- participate in workplace or industry animal welfare emergency training

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- relevant animal welfare legislation, regulations and codes of practice
- basic requirements for ensuring the welfare of animals described in the relevant Codes of Practice
- workplace or industry animal welfare procedures and animal emergency procedures
- workplace or industry procedures for reporting and recording animal welfare concerns, non-conformance and malpractice in the workplace
- relevant work health and safety requirements

Assessment Conditions

Competency is to be assessed in the workplace or simulated environment that accurately reflects performance in a real workplace setting.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs.
