Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version first released with CUA Creative Arts and Culture Training Package version 2.0.

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- verify sources and select valid information relevant to purpose of scripts
- write narration and material for defined program style in current affairs, feature or documentary that meets target audience, production requirements and timelines.

Note: If a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- describe conventions and techniques for writing broadcast and online copy
- describe structures and mark-up techniques for script presentation
- describe use of auditory and visual elements in different script types
- outline research and sourcing techniques relevant to different program types
- describe copyright clearance procedures
- outline codes of practice and relevant aspects of laws on defamation, vilification, breaches of privacy and court reporting to be considered when developing narration and materials
- outline health and safety requirements as they relate to working for periods of time on screens and keyboards.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in creative arts industry environments. The assessment environment must include access to:

- production situations that require preparation of material for current affairs, features and documentaries

- audio and video playback equipment or internet website to enable evaluation of material written by candidate
- information sources about legislation and codes of practice relevant to media.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
