Australian Government

MAR10213 Certificate I in Maritime Operations (Linesperson)

Release 1

INDUSTRY
SKILLS
COUNCILS
Creating Australia's Future

MAR10213 Certificate I in Maritime Operations (Linesperson)

Modification History

Release 1	This is the first release of this qualification in the MAR13 Maritime Training Package.
	This qualification replaces TDM10207 Certificate I in Transport Distribution (Maritime Operations - Shore-Based Linesperson).

Description

This qualification is suitable for people working in entry level positions in the maritime industry as a linesperson.

Pathways Information

Not applicable.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not applicable.

Entry Requirements

There are no entry requirements for this qualification.

Employability Skills Summary

The following table contains a summary of the employability skills as identified by the maritime industry for this qualification. This table should be interpreted in conjunction with the detailed requirements of each unit of competency packaged in this qualification. The outcomes described here are broad industry requirements that may vary depending on packaging options.

Employability Skill	Industry/enterprise requirements for this qualification include:
Communication	Communicate effectively with others when mooring and untying a vessel Record and report safety incidents and emergencies Use appropriate methods to communicate with foreign crews on vessels
Teamwork	Make vessel crew aware of planned heaving line return operations Promptly and clearly communicate any safety concerns to pilot prior to and during, mooring and untying operations Work effectively as a member of a mooring and untying team
Problem-solving	Promptly report and/or rectify any identified problems that may arise when manually lifting and handling materials and goods in accordance with regulatory requirements and workplace procedures Recognise problems that may occur when communicating with others during mooring and untying operations and take appropriate action to report and resolve them Solve routine problems
Initiative and enterprise	Communicate safety concerns to pilot of vessel with due care not to interfere with tug and vessel communications Recognise potential security threats Report, rectify or replace faulty communication equipment
Planning and organising	Identify factors affecting the achievement of work objectives and incorporate contingencies into work plans Organise work priorities according to work goals and objectives Take precautions to ensure all personnel are well clear of vicinity of gangway
Self-management	Monitor own work performance Organise and complete own work schedule Recognise own role and responsibilities

Learning	Access, complete and record professional development opportunities to facilitate continuous learning and career development
	Identify personal learning and professional development needs and skill gaps using self-assessment and advice from colleagues and clients in relation to role and organisational requirements
	Incorporate formal and informal feedback into review of further learning needs
Technology	Check functioning of radios and communication equipment
	Operate security equipment
	Prepare communications equipment and set to correct channels

Packaging Rules

Total number of units = 7 units

7 core units

Core units
Field
C	Equipment Operations	MARC1001A	Carry out shore-based mooring and untying operations
E	Communication	MARE1001A	Communicate during shore-based mooring and untying operations
F	Operational Quality and Safety	MARF1003A	Follow vessel security procedures
		MARF1004A	Follow work health and safety, and emergency procedures during shore-based mooring operations
	Imported	BSBWOR301B	Organise personal work priorities and development
		HLTFA311A	Apply first aid
		TLID1001A	Shift materials safely using manual handling methods

　　　　　　　　　Transport & Logistics Industry Skills Council

Custom Content Section

Not applicable.