PUADEFCA421B Supervise infantry operations

Modification History

Not applicable.

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor

This unit covers the competency required to command, lead and manage infantry personnel of up to sub-unit size (about 130) under extreme conditions in a high-risk environment. It therefore requires supervisors to be incisive in a fluid and demanding environment, to act independently and to lead by example.

Command is the authority a commander in the military service lawfully exercises over subordinates by virtue of rank or assignment.

Application of the Unit

Application of the Unit

The application of this unit in the workplace - the environments, complexities and situations involved - will be written during Phase II of the Review of the PUA00 Public Safety Training Package.

This text will be useful for the purposes of job descriptions, recruitment advice or job analysis; where possible, it will not be too job specific to allow other industries to import it into other Training Packages, where feasible.

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Assessment must confirm the ability to supervise subordinates during the following infantry operations:

- defensive
- offensive
- security or surveillance.

Consistency in performance

Competency should be demonstrated over time in a range of operational or simulated environments.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Context of assessment

Competency should be assessed commanding an infantry sub-unit and should replicate the command requirements described in the Range Statement. The individual should be exposed to the extremes of the operational environment where a person is under physical and mental stress. The context of assessment would usually be simulated due to the nature of this high-risk environment.

Specific resources for assessment

Access to infantry personnel of up to a sub-unit size (about 130), its weapons and equipment, and appropriate operating areas.

Guidance information for assessment

Information that will assist or guide assessment will be written during Phase II of the Review of the PUA00 Public Safety Training Package.
