Performance Evidence

An individual demonstrating competency in this unit must satisfy all of the elements and performance criteria of this unit.

There must be evidence that the individual has prepared at least three yearlings for sale, including:

- conditioning yearlings in preparation for sales
- developing and applying exercise programs and routines in preparation for sales
- developing and overseeing nutrition programs and feeding routines in preparation for sales
- washing, grooming and trimming yearlings to promote their appeal to buyers
- training yearlings to lead up and stand.

Knowledge Evidence

An individual must be able to demonstrate the knowledge required to perform the tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit. This includes knowledge of:

- types and correct fit of common tack and equipment
- conditioning, grooming and washing procedures
- types and purpose of different exercise regimes and equipment
- hand walking techniques
- pasture quality and features of stud feeds and supplements
- yearling feeding and nutrition requirements
- yearling health and disease management
- hoof care requirements and techniques.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment of skills must take place under the following conditions:

- physical conditions:
 - a workplace or an environment that accurately represents workplace conditions

- resources, equipment and materials:
 - various yearlings – note that young horses can be less compliant and highly reactive, and should be assessed as suitable for the experience and skill of the handlers
 - equipment for exercising, washing and grooming
 - feed program for individual yearlings
 - appropriate tack for yearlings and activity
 - personal protective equipment (PPE) applicable for task for handler.

Training and assessment strategies must show evidence of the use of guidance provided in the Companion Volume: User Guide: Safety in Equine Training.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
