Unit Descriptor

| Unit descriptor | This unit of competency covers the process of providing basic information to customers on companion animal training, grooming and/or breeding establishments, and on products and services in a range of companion animal settings. No licensing, legislative, regulatory or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication. |

Application of the Unit

| Application of the unit | This unit is applicable to new entrants to the animal care and management industry. Animal care settings in this context may include pet shops and aquariums, breeding or boarding kennels or catteries, aviaries, companion animal training or grooming establishments, animal shelters or veterinary practices. In addition to legal and ethical responsibilities, all units of competency in the ACM10 Animal Care and Management Training Package have the requirement for animals to be handled gently and calmly. The individual is required to exhibit appropriate care for animals so that stress and discomfort is minimised. |

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The Evidence Guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge, range statement and the Assessment Guidelines for the Training Package.

Overview of assessment

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The evidence required to demonstrate competence in this unit must be relevant to workplace operations and satisfy all of the requirements of the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge and the range statement of this unit. Assessors should ensure that candidates can:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>* represent the organisation in a professional manner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>* understand and respond to customers' requests for information</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>* communicate effectively with customers and staff members</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>* seek assistance from other staff members when an enquiry falls outside one's scope of knowledge or responsibility.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The skills and knowledge required to provide information on companion animals, products and services must be transferable to a range of work environments and contexts and include the ability to deal with unplanned events.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Assessment of this unit is to be practical in nature and will be most appropriately assessed in a companion animal workplace or in a situation that reproduces normal work conditions. Workplaces can include pet shops, aquariums, boarding kennels or catteries, aviaries, companion animal training or grooming establishments or veterinary practices.

There must be access to a range of products and types of services as well as relevant information, equipment and/or resources to enable one to demonstrate competence.

Method of assessment

To ensure consistency in one's performance, competency should be demonstrated, to industry defined standards, on more than one occasion over a period of time in order to cover a variety of circumstances and where possible,
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The assessment strategy must include practical skills assessment. Suggested strategies for this unit are:

- written and/or oral assessment of candidate's required knowledge
- observed, documented and first-hand testimonial evidence of candidate's application of practical tasks
- simulation exercises that reproduce normal work conditions
- third-party evidence
- workplace documentation
- portfolio.

This unit may be assessed in a holistic way with other units of competency relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role.

Guidance information for assessment

Assessment methods should reflect workplace demands (e.g. literacy and numeracy demands) and the needs of particular target groups (e.g. people with disabilities, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, women, people with a language background other than English, youth and people from low socioeconomic backgrounds).
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The range statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Bold italicised wording, if used in the performance criteria, is detailed below. Essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment (depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts) may also be included.
