Performance Evidence

The candidate must be assessed on their ability to integrate and apply the performance requirements of this unit in a workplace setting. Performance must be demonstrated consistently over time and in a suitable range of contexts.

The candidate must provide evidence that they can record information and knowledge on Country from both an Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal perspective.

The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- record details of Aboriginal sites, objects and cultural landscapes consistent with the requirements of the relevant Information Management System
- record and collate information on Aboriginal culture and history for Country whilst following Aboriginal cultural protocols
- follow Community guidelines and Aboriginal cultural protocols regarding the use of information on sites, objects and cultural landscapes
- identify appropriate cultural authorities for a Community, site, story or Ceremony
- apply Community protocols and permissions to determine cultural information, material and cultural expression that is appropriate to be shared
- identify groups to be consulted in relation to owners and custodians of cultural and Community knowledge, information or material
- use Aboriginal names and standard industry terminology appropriate to the task
- apply work health and safety practices in the context of own work.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- Community Aboriginal history, cultural values and interpersonal and Community protocols related to the site
- cultural rights and responsibilities when using Community knowledge, information and material
- authentic and authoritative sources for Aboriginal cultural information, material and expression able to be accessed and shared

- designated cultural areas and features, boundaries and extent of Country
- protocols and customs relating to disclosure of knowledge about Country.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must comply with Community protocols and be supported by Elders and Custodians of Country.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs.
