The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- work within the constructs of relevant legislation in their work with Aboriginal sites, cultural materials and cultural landscapes
- identify and apply relevant legislation to the circumstances appropriately and accurately
- identify relevant compliance requirements affecting Aboriginal sites work in a specified jurisdiction
- use referral options and other expertise to assist in interpreting and applying legislative requirements
- communicate basic legal concepts and legislative language to Aboriginal clients and stakeholders in culturally appropriate way.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- how Cultural and Heritage Legislation or relevant National Parks and Wildlife Service (NPWS) legislation applies to Aboriginal sites work
- other legislation that may impact on Aboriginal sites work
- organisations to which appropriate referrals can be made.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must comply with Community protocols and be supported by Elders and Custodians of Country.

The assessor must satisfy the current standards for RTOs.
