Performance Evidence

The candidate must be assessed on their ability to integrate and apply the performance requirements of this unit in a workplace setting. Performance must be demonstrated consistently over time and in a suitable range of contexts.

The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- research and identify appropriate sources of information
- establish and implement business organisational structure in consultation with members of the business unit
- develop roles and responsibilities within the business unit
- develop and implement stress management strategies
- identify and access rural networks and support groups
- implement strategies to resolve problems.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- relevant legislation
- the organisation's structure
- organisational policies, plans and procedures
- principles of effective consultation and communication
- principles and techniques to use feedback to achieve positive outcomes
- rural networks and support groups
- stressors in the rural business environment and stress management.

Assessment Conditions

Competency is to be assessed in the workplace or simulated environment that accurately reflects performance in a real workplace setting.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs.
