Performance Evidence

The candidate must be assessed on their ability to integrate and apply the performance requirements of this unit in a workplace setting. Performance must be demonstrated consistently over time and in a suitable range of contexts.

The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- survey an area for landforms and sites that may hold cultural significance
- assess any physical signs, and source local information on human activity in the area, to indicate culturally significant sites
- ensure cultural protocols are followed
- maintain field notes on the location and details of sites in accordance with enterprise procedures or guidelines
- implement protection measures pending further investigation
- develop and document an assessment report for places of cultural significance according to enterprise and legislative standards
- apply work health and safety practices in the context of own work

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- types of cultural places in land based, coastal zones and marine parks or reserves
- threats to cultural places from both natural causes and human activity
- application of State or Territory and Commonwealth legislation relevant to Indigenous land management
- enterprise procedures for reporting places of potential significance
- relevant protection measures for significant sites
- methods of locating position of site

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must comply with Community protocols and be supported by Elders and Custodians of Country.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs.
