The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- use safe work procedures
- prepare materials, tools and equipment for woolshed activities
- provide support to shearing and crutching
- move and pen animals
- assist with wool handling
- undertake woolshed activities as directed
- handle materials and equipment
- clean up on completion of woolshed activities
- communicate with supervisor and team members using industry standard terminology
- apply work health and safety procedures in the context of own work
- apply enterprise animal welfare practices in the context of own work

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- features of safe work practices
- characteristics of wool types and sheep breeds that relate to sorting wool
- features of shearing and wool preparation tools and equipment
- basic wool handling practices
- relevant sections of federal, state and territory industrial awards that relate to working conditions in the woolshed
- enterprise work health and safety, environmental protection and animal welfare policies and procedures

Assessment Conditions

Competency is to be assessed in the work place or workplace and simulated environments that accurately reflect performance in a real workplace setting.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs
