The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- identify work health and safety hazards and implement safe work practices
- operate different types of wool presses and carry out basic lubrication and maintenance according to manufacturer instructions
- operate the various types of scales and manual handling devices
- check woolpacks and wool to ensure freedom from contamination
- assess and monitor wool-flow and build-up in bins
- maintain uniform bale weights for each line
- brand bales clearly and accurately to meet the requirements of the Code of Practice for the Preparation of Australian Wool Clips
- handle and store wool bales efficiently and without risk to self, other people or machinery
- record bale information to be interpreted and used by other people
- communicate with wool classer
- work safely in compliance with enterprise work health and safety policies

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- sources of contamination of wool
- the requirements of Code of Practice for the Preparation of Australian Wool Clips as it relates to wool pressing
- operating requirements for different types of wool presses
- methods of handling wool and bales that minimise risk to own health, including safe lifting and bending techniques
- industry standards for weight, length of bales, fastening methods and type of pack
- industry standards for bale branding
- features of the recording system for bale details in use in the organisation

- enterprise work health and safety policies

Assessment Conditions

Competency is to be assessed in the work place or workplace and simulated environments that accurately reflect performance in a real workplace setting.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs.
