Modification History

Release	TP Version	Comment
1	AMPv2.0	Initial release

Performance Evidence

The candidate must grade hides, pelts or skins both prior to and after processing.

The candidate must:

- inspect hides, pelts or skins for defects and take appropriate remedial action according to workplace requirements
- use correct methods of storing hides, pelts or skins to workplace and customer requirements
- apply the grading methods for animal coverings according to workplace and health and safety requirements, and customer specifications
- apply relevant regulatory requirements
- use communication skills relevant to work instructions

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate a basic factual, technical and procedural knowledge of:

- methods of grading hides, pelts or skins
- workplace and health and safety and workplace requirements related to the grading of hides, pelts or skins
- steps in processing coverings
- relevant regulatory requirements

Assessment Conditions

Assessment can occur in the workplace under normal production conditions or in a simulated workplace.

Competency must be demonstrated using the range of hides, pelts or skins types or classifications encountered in the workplace.

As a minimum, the following three forms of assessment must be used:

- quiz of underpinning knowledge
- workplace demonstration

- workplace referee or third-party report of performance over time

Assessors must satisfy the current standards for RTOs.
