

Australian Government

Assessment Requirements for AMPA413
Review or develop an Emergency Animal
Disease Response Plan

Release: 1

Assessment Requirements for AMPA413 Review or develop an Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version released with AMP Australian Meat Processing Training Package Version 3.0.

Performance Evidence

An individual demonstrating competency must satisfy all of the elements and performance criteria in this unit. There must be evidence that the individual has reviewed or developed at least one Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan for a workplace operating as a meat processing premises. The individual must show that that he/she has:

- prepared to review or develop the Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan:
 - identified, located and interpreted information and regulatory requirements
- reviewed or developed the Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan:
 - accessed and organised required personnel and other resources
 - used a format and style consistent with workplace requirements
- tested the new or updated Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan:
 - checked that it is accurate, compliant with legislative requirements and covers the scope
 - interpreted and applied the responses required for a specified emergency animal disease in a test or simulation
 - established a review process
 - established how to incorporate the Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan into the Approved Arrangement.

Knowledge Evidence

An individual must be able to demonstrate the knowledge required to perform the tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit. This includes knowledge of:

- sections of the AUSVET Plan relevant to the workplace Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan
- the differences between notifiable and emergency diseases
- location of information setting out required responses to listed emergency animal diseases
- regulatory requirements relevant to reviewing or developing the enterprise's Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan'

- roles and responsibilities of key personnel, including external personnel, during an emergency animal disease event
- required sections of an Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan
- common ancillary documents required for an Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan including flow charts, individual job cards, site maps, supplier lists and relevant signage.
-

Assessment Conditions

Assessment of skills must take place under the following conditions:

- physical conditions:
 - a workplace in which workers come in contact with animals or an environment that accurately reflects performance in a real workplace setting
- resources, equipment and materials:
 - equipment and materials for producing and testing Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan
- specifications:
 - access to AUSVET Plan
 - access to current legislation and regulations relevant to emergency animal disease response
 - access to workplace documents relevant to emergency animal disease response]
- relationships:
 - actual personnel to be involved in developing and checking Emergency Animal Disease Response Plan, or realistic role plays.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.

Links

Companion Volumes, including Implementation Guides, are available at VETNet: - <https://vetnet.gov.au/Pages/TrainingDocs.aspx?q=5e2e56b7-698f-4822-84bb-25adbb8443a7>