Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- produce a written report about:
 - retention development strategies
 - training and support options for candidates in accordance with legislative and organisational requirements
- communicate effectively with candidates for training, induction and professional development purposes
- identify improvements for future management services.

Note: If a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- describe the key provisions of relevant legislation, regulations, standards and codes of practice that affect employment agencies
- summarise important policies and procedures relevant to retaining and managing an organisation's candidate base
- describe the range of organisational products and services supplied to clients by employment agencies
- identify and describe a range of training options and solutions for candidates

- identify and describe a range of techniques used in training, coaching and mentoring candidates.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in the workforce development – recruitment and employment services field of work and include access to:

- office equipment and resources
- examples of workplace documents used in employment services agencies.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
