Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to gather intelligence about an international target market to inform business development.

It applies to individuals who possess a sound theoretical knowledge base in international business management and who have a range of managerial and supervisory skills to ensure business activities are conducted effectively.

In this role, individuals would have responsibility for forecasting international and business needs, collecting market intelligence, reviewing current business performance and capability, evaluating specific markets and documenting how a business can meet current and emerging needs.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.
