PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

2.5 Use appropriate assessment tools and processes to identify, clarify and prioritise complex or multiple needs of the client, their carers and/or family

2.6 Collect and document information about the client, according to organisation requirements

2.7 Collaborate with stakeholders and service providers to avoid duplication experienced by the client and to share information and resources

2.8 Assist those involved in the assessment to identify and prioritise the client’s goals, needs and any risk factors

2.9 Where carers and/or families are involved, ensure the assessment focuses on, and strengthens the relationship, rather than treat the individual in isolation

2.10 Inform carers and/or family about their role and rights in the assessment and decision-making processes, including their right to an assessment of their own needs

2.11 Identify and assess work health and safety (WHS) risks and issues potentially associated with service and resource delivery

2.12 Implement risk management processes to maintain safety of client and others involved in the assessment, including workers

3. Respond appropriately to diversity

3.1 Use assessment processes and practices designed to build trust and confidence to work with mainstream services

3.2 Use assessment processes that are non-discriminatory and appropriate for each distinct but potentially overlapping population

3.3 Provide equitable access and culturally competent assessment processes for culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) and Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people

3.4 Provide appropriate interpreter support according to organisation protocols

3.5 Where appropriate, build and maintain relationships with ethno-specific and multicultural organisations

4. Respond appropriately to people with different levels of needs, including people with complex needs.

4.1 Support people with complex needs and circumstances and facilitate access to assessment.

4.2 Develop and maintain inter-organisation relationships and agreements to address the client, family and/or carer needs.

4.3 Recognise the need for secondary consultation, medication administration and monitoring or additional specialist assessment, including those undertaken by a specified health professional.

4.4 Identify and refer when the client’s health is unstable to ensure the appropriate multi-disciplinary approach is applied.

4.5 Identify and build on the client’s motivation to improve their functional capacity and set their own goals.

5. Undertake ongoing assessment and review.

5.1 Respond appropriately to informal monitoring of health and well being of all parties involved in the assessment processes.

5.2 Undertake regular and systematic reviews to ensure assessed needs of clients are addressed effectively.

5.3 Use regular reviews to re-prioritise client needs for service and to ensure equitable access based on ongoing appraisal of prioritised needs.

5.4 Undertake reassessment of the client’s needs as specified in the client’s plan or as required by personal circumstances or changes in client or carer health.

5.5 Maintain communication with all parties and document and report throughout processes, according to organisation protocols.

Elements define the essential outcomes. Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Apply knowledge of human development to check client’s developmental status
   - 1.1 Observe and/or question the client appropriately to obtain information about client’s developmental status
   - 1.2 Review any available documented information about the client’s developmental status
   - 1.3 Consult with the client’s carer, family or significant others to gather relevant information where appropriate
   - 1.4 Apply knowledge of lifespan development theories to clarify client’s development status

2. Identify developmental issues
   - 2.1 Recognise factors that may have impacted on appearance and behaviour of the client
   - 2.2 Clarify suitability of community services being delivered in relation to client’s developmental status
   - 2.3 Consult appropriate person/s to clarify concerns about client’s developmental status
   - 2.4 Identify potential risk factors associated with developmental issues
   - 2.5 Recognise and refer potentially serious issues in line with organisational requirements
   - 2.6 Document developmental issues in line with organisational policies and procedures

3. Check for and respond appropriately to specific issues
   - 3.1 Check for any issues that may require notification, and report if necessary
   - 3.2 Check for any indications of other issues that may impact the provision of services and/or require referral
   - 3.3 Report and document accurately and with the detail required by the organisational policies and procedures

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- observed and questioned at least one client and their family and documented information relevant to the developmental status of the client
- confirmed client’s developmental status prior to delivering services
- identified variations from normal development status and recognised and referred potentially serious issues in line with organisational requirements
- identified potential factors responsible for significant variations from normal developmental status and determined an appropriate response in terms of:
  - appropriate referral and reporting in line with organisational requirements
  - provision of appropriate services
- referred to or sought assistance from an appropriate person or authority in relation to variations from normal functioning
- complied with mandatory reporting requirements where appropriate.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- detailed aspects of human development throughout the lifespan, including:
  - physical
  - psychological
  - cognitive
  - social
  - affective
- attachment theory
- key factors that may impact on the individual at identified stages of human development and their potential effects, e.g. the impact of trauma
- legal obligations, particularly in relation to child protection and elder abuse issues
- appropriate range of referral sources and associated protocols
- awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- indicators of significant issues including:
  - child abuse (i.e. different types of child abuse)
  - abuse, neglect or harm including self-harm
  - domestic and family violence
  - elder abuse
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs)
2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors

Application

This unit describes skills and knowledge required to develop and tailor service plans to address specific client needs. Workers are required to undertake this task with an underpinning knowledge of human development.

This unit applies to people working in a range of community service contexts. The worker may or may not supervise the work of others.

_The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand standards and industry codes of practice._

Elements and Performance Criteria

| ELEMENT | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA |
Elements define the essential outcomes. Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Analyse available client information
   1.1 Source and interpret any results and reports from tests, observations and assessments
   1.2 Observe client to consider accuracy of available reports
   1.3 Identify specific social, psychological and/or developmental issues for the client
   1.4 Analyse client information in relation to preparation for planning services, observing organisational requirements and protocols

2. Plan action/s to address client developmental status and identified issues
   2.1 Work with client to develop an action plan to address their needs and personal circumstances
   2.2 Consider life and developmental stage of client and ensure that proposed actions are appropriate
   2.3 Ensure that the plan has clear actions, with agreed timelines and responsibilities, and is documented and stored in line with organisational policies and procedures

3. Implement services
   3.1 Provide services in accordance with the action plan, organisational policies and procedures, and occupational health and safety requirements
   3.2 Maintain current, complete, accurate and relevant records for each client contact as required by the organisation
   3.3 Monitor impact of services in line with scope of own work role and organisational policies and procedures
   3.4 Adjust and refine plan if circumstances change

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.

- Numeracy - in order to analyse available client information, including test results

Other foundation skills essential to performance are explicit in the performance criteria of this unit.

  Significant changes to elements and performance criteria.
  New evidence requirements for assessment. |

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- undertaken detailed analysis of information available for at least three clients in the context of planning and delivering community services including:
  - interpreting test results and reports
  - reviewing social, psychological and/or developmental issues
- planned and delivered services appropriate to the needs and circumstances of at least three clients, in line with:
  - specific approaches, philosophies and regimes of community service work
  - the client’s involvement
- implemented, monitored and reviewed plans for at least three clients.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- stages of behavioural development
- indicators of mental, physical, emotional or social difficulties
- indicators of trauma
- standard tests used to measure and review individual capacity and function, e.g. I.Q. tests, WISC
- factors that may impact on the individual at identified stages of human development, and their potential effects
- legislative requirements and obligations relating to delivery of community services, including mandatory notification issues and child protection policy
- detailed understanding of protocols and available resources associated with service delivery and referral
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to establish the user’s willingness to change, confirm the user’s responsibilities and work respectfully with the user to plan and monitor changes. This relationship creates the context for the intervention and is constructed within a framework that promotes user responsibility, accountability, self-agency and direction towards change while maintaining a focus on the safety of others.

This unit applies to workers who operate with significant autonomy in therapeutic professional service roles in the community sector. The activity is self-directed.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to assist users of domestic and family violence to accept their responsibility to cease all forms of violence and abuse, accept the consequences of their behaviour and understand the impact of this behaviour on those experiencing their abuse and themselves. The established basis for the intervention is the safety of people experiencing domestic and family violence with the recognition that users of domestic and family violence are solely responsible for their behaviour and that they can choose to relate respectfully to partners and children.

This unit applies to workers who operate with significant autonomy in therapeutic professional service roles in the community sector. The activity is self-directed.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand Standards and industry codes of practice.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to communicate with people who have complex communication needs through effective use of Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) strategies and systems.

AAC refers to methods that replace or supplement speech to address the needs of people whose oral speech skills limit their ability to meet their participation and communication needs.

AAC systems comprise communication aids, symbols, strategies, and techniques and methods that may be aided or unaided.

This unit applies to disability support work in a variety of contexts. Work performed requires a range of well developed, person-centred skills where some discretion and judgement is required and workers will take responsibility for their own outputs.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand standards and industry codes of practice.

| 1.2 Use appropriate supports to aid the person’s current communication capacity |
| 1.3 Document the outcomes of this process in line with organisation procedures |
| 1.4 Consult with additional people including family and/or carers and/or relevant others as required |
| 1.5 Make appropriate referrals to professionals and other service providers as required in consultation with supervisor |

| 2. Develop effective AAC strategies |
| 2.1 Provide information to relevant professional/s about the person with disability in relation to their likes/dislikes, daily activities and current communication needs |
| 2.2 Develop communication strategies to meet individual needs and level of communication, considering the person’s history and preferences and in consultation with relevant senior staff/professionals |
| 2.3 Adjust available tools and programs to address individual needs and preferences |
| 2.4 Seek advice from other staff and relevant others as required and work within scope of practice |

| 3. Implement AAC strategy |
| 3.1 Use different strategies and devices in AAC |
| 3.2 Document communication support strategies in the person’s individualised plan |
| 3.3 Organise the environment to optimise communication opportunities |

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be evidence that the candidate has:

- followed procedures for person-centred service delivery in line with the organisation’s quality system, including:
  - developed and implemented at least 3 different person-centred service responses to meet the aspirations, needs, rights and preferences for people with disability, 2 in a simulated environment and 1 in the workplace
  - reviewed and monitored at least 3 individual service responses and made changes that are necessary to improve quality service delivery; met changing needs of the person; addressed barriers and responded to legislative changes, 2 in a simulated environment and 1 in the workplace
  - performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit during a period of at least 120 hours of direct support work

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. This includes knowledge of:

- relevant networks and services in the broader community
- current best practice approaches for service delivery
- legal and ethical considerations for working with people with disability:
  - discrimination
- dignity of risk
- duty of care
- human rights, including the United nations convention on the rights of persons with disabilities (UNCRPD)
- mandatory reporting
- privacy, confidentiality and disclosure
- work health and safety
- principles of:
  - empowerment
  - rights-based approach
  - person-centred practice
  - strengths-based approach
  - access and equity

Assessment Conditions

All aspects of the performance evidence must have been demonstrated using simulation prior to demonstration in the workplace. The following conditions must be met for this unit:

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- reflected on own cultural identity and biases
- investigated cultural diversity in at least one service and community
- supported children’s and families’ cross-cultural relationships through the following activities:
  - interacting in culturally appropriate ways with children, families and communities
  - consulting with appropriate persons to access local knowledge of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander culture
  - planning and implementing supportive environments for all children
  - supporting the implementation of experiences that encourage children to respect all cultures and to celebrate cultural differences
  - embedding examples of diversity and inclusion in daily practice
  - using effective oral communication techniques to liaise between differing cultural contexts and situations.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

This includes knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- cultural competence and diversity as outlined in the approved learning framework relevant to the workplace
- impact of colonisation, historical events and issues on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people
- organisational policies and initiatives designed to support participation
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Elements define the essential outcomes.

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

4. Supervise children to ensure safety

4.1 Supervise children by ensuring all are in sight or hearing distance at all times

4.2 Adjust levels of supervision depending upon the area of the service and the skill, age mix, dynamics and size of the group of children, and the level of risk involved in activities

4.3 Exchange information about supervision with colleagues to ensure adequate supervision at all times

5. Minimise risks

5.1 Assist in the implementation of safety checks and the monitoring of buildings, equipment and the general environment

5.2 Consistently implement policy and procedures regarding the use and storage and labelling of dangerous products

5.3 Follow service procedures for the safe collection of each child, ensuring they are released to authorised people

5.4 Assist in the supervision of every person who enters the service premises where children are present

5.5 Discuss sun safety with children and implement appropriate measures to protect children from over-exposure to ultraviolet radiation

5.6 Check toys and equipment are safe for children and safe to use in their proposed area

5.7 Remove any hazards immediately or secure the area to prevent children accessing the hazard

6. Contribute to the ongoing management of allergies

6.1 Identify and recognise signs, symptoms and key characteristics of allergies and anaphylaxis

6.2 Apply organisational risk-management strategies for children with severe allergies

ELEMENT

7. Contribute to the ongoing management of asthma

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

7.1 Identify signs, symptoms and triggers of asthma
7.2 Identify children who have an asthma management plan and follow that plan

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.

Reading – in order to accurately read and interpret medication packaging and dosage instructions

Numeracy – in order to correctly calculate medication dosages for common measurements including milligrams (mg) and millilitres (ml)

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to ensure children’s physical and emotional well-being is maintained and their self-sufficiency is nurtured.

This unit applies to people who work with children in a range of early education and care services.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT                     PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Elements define the essential outcomes.  Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Provide physical care
   1.1 Manage toileting accidents in a manner that protects the child’s self-esteem and privacy
   1.2 Supervise and engage with children eating and drinking
   1.3 Meet individual clothing needs and preferences of children and families within scope of service requirements for children’s health and safety

2. Promote physical activity
   2.1 Consistently implement movement and physical experiences as part of the program for all children
   2.2 Participate with children in their physical activity
   2.3 Promote physical activity through planned and spontaneous experiences appropriate for each child
   2.4 Encourage each child’s level of participation in physical activities according to the child’s abilities and their level of comfort with activities
   2.5 Engage children in outdoor play
   2.6 Foster children’s participation in physical activities
   2.7 Discuss with children how their bodies work and the importance of physical activity to people’s health and wellbeing

3. Adapt facilities to ensure access and participation
   3.1 Assist in providing challenging elements of outdoor and indoor environments that allow for experiences which scaffold children’s learning and development and offer chances for appropriate risk-taking
   3.2 Promote the sun protection of children to meet the recommendations of relevant recognised authorities
   3.3 Provide a balance of natural and artificial lighting, good ventilation and fresh air
   3.4 Organise indoor and outdoor spaces that ensure children are not always dependent on adults to do things for them and are supported to create their own games and experiences
   3.5 Engage with children in constructing their own play

- how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency

- basic principles of child physical and emotional development

- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

- recommendations for physical activity for birth to 5-year-olds and 5- to 12-year-olds in the National Physical Activity Guidelines for Australians

- impact of changes of routines and environments for children

- sun safety

- relevance of hand hygiene for minimising infectious diseases

- code of ethics

- routines and strategies to minimise distress at separation of parent and child

- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be assessed in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

- National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care
- the relevant approved learning framework under the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care.
Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

Elements define the essential outcomes.

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Promote healthy eating
   1.1 Engage children in experiences, conversations and routines that promote relaxed and enjoyable mealtimes and promote healthy lifestyles and good nutrition.
   1.2 Model, reinforce and implement healthy eating and nutrition practices with children during mealtimes.
   1.3 Support and guide children to eat healthy food.
   1.4 Check that children have ready access to water and are offered healthy food and drinks regularly throughout the day.
   1.5 Assist in ensuring that furniture and utensils are suitable to encourage children to be positively involved in and enjoy mealtimes.

2. Plan food and drinks that are nutritious and appropriate for each child
   2.1 Within scope of own work, ensure children are provided with food and drink consistent with the guidelines for healthy eating.
   2.2 Assist in ensuring children’s individual needs are consistent with advice provided by families about their child’s dietary requirements, likes, dislikes and any cultural or other requirements families have regarding their child’s nutrition.
   2.3 Read and interpret food labels and other information about food contents.
   2.4 Assist in providing education and support to families around healthy eating.
   2.5 Assist to develop and display a cycle of written menus detailing the food that is provided to children.

3. Maintain food safety while carrying out food-handling activities
   3.1 Assist in developing and maintaining food safety procedures according to relevant guidelines.
   3.2 Within scope of own work role, carry out food-handling, preparation and storage according to service policies and procedures and regulatory requirements.
   3.3 Follow food safety procedures when preparing...

Significant changes to elements and performance criteria.
New evidence requirements for assessment including volume and frequency requirements.  |

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- planned and provided food and drink for children on at least three occasions, including:
  - identifying and responding to requirements related to food allergies, medical conditions and cultural and religious requirements
  - role-modelling healthy eating habits for children
  - ensuring safe handling, preparation and storage of food and drinks
  - creating a positive, relaxed environment during mealtimes
- engaged children by involving them in menu planning and assisting in meal preparation
- read and interpreted food labels to identify ingredients of concern and nutrition content.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
- code of ethics
- food allergies, food intolerances, contamination and/or allergic reactions in meal preparation and possible reactions, including anaphylaxis
- infant feeding requirements and guidelines
- recommendations for healthy eating – Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents in Australia and the Australian Guide to Healthy Eating, including Get Up and Grow: Healthy Eating and Physical Activity for Early Childhood resources
- implications of poor diet including tooth decay, deficiencies, poor concentration, out of character behaviour
- food-handling requirements, preventing microorganism contamination and/or allergic reactions
- importance of addressing individual dietary needs and preferences with particular reference to specific cultural, religious or health requirements
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- provided care to at least different three babies and toddlers of varying ages using safe and hygienic practices, including:
  - assessing and responding appropriately to babies’ needs, including hunger, distress, tiredness and pain
  - setting up a safe environment conducive to rest
  - changing nappies
  - heating breast milk and formula, preparing bottles and preparing and heating food
  - cleaning equipment and utensils
  - feeding babies
- developed a nurturing and securely attached relationship with at least three different babies and toddlers of varying ages, including:
• settling new babies and toddlers through observing, monitoring and appropriately interacting with them and their caregivers
• engaging in one-to-one interactions with babies and toddlers during daily routines
• supported the learning of at least three different babies and toddlers of varying ages, including:
  • responding appropriately to babies’ and toddlers’ cues and language
  • initiating and modelling language with babies and toddlers
  • providing stimulating environments that support skill development
  • modifying the environment and interactions to support babies/toddlers changing requirements
  • encouraging their attempts to gain new skills
  • providing opportunities to develop self-knowledge and awareness
  • contributing to their emotional and psychological well-being
• performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit during a period of at least 120 hours of work in at least one regulated education and care service

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

• how to access:
  • the National Quality Framework
  • the National Quality Standards
  • the relevant approved learning framework
• how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
• individual patterns and routines of babies and toddlers
• appropriate interactions with babies and toddlers, including:
  • individual differences of babies’ and toddlers’ needs for rest, and sleep/rest patterns
  • signs of stress, distress or pain in babies and toddlers
  • social development of babies and toddlers
• dietary requirements and nutritional needs of babies and toddlers
• food safety guidelines
• recommendations for oral health, including restricting bottles meal times only
• guidelines for infection control
• safe and unsafe practices for working with babies
• different practices and routines used by various families and their underlying cultural or personal rationale
• emotional, physical and language development of babies and toddlers
- attachment theory
- Sudden Infant Death Syndrome
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
- brain development in babies and toddlers
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:
- National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care
- the relevant approved learning framework under the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care.

Assessment must involve:
- interactions with actual babies and toddlers under the age of 24 months under the supervision of an early childhood educator.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- communicated issues to a supervisor and negotiated solutions in a clear and appropriate manner at least twice
- guided behaviour using positive support techniques with at least two children and/or young people
- discussed behaviours of children and/or young people to plan and problem-solve in collaboration with others
- recorded observations and identified behaviours requiring support of children and/or young people using a range of methods
- used judgement to determine when to involve other staff for supported intervention.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- definitions of and differences between disruptive behaviour and behaviours of concern
- how learning difficulties or mental health issues may affect behaviour
- impacts of environment and culture on behaviour of children and/or young people
- communicative function of behaviour and positive support strategies to redirect behaviour and defuse situations

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- communicated positively and respectfully and interacted effectively with at least three children, including:
  - active listening
  - consideration of a child’s age, activities, interests, culture and needs
  - interpreting non-verbal cues of children
  - responding to distress in ways that meets the child’s need
  - communication of care and respect through all interactions
- assessed and responded appropriately to behaviours of concern
- encouraged children to respect similarities and differences between each other
- involved and encouraged children in decision-making and planning
- performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit during a period of at least 120 hours of work in at least one regulated education and care service

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- effective communication techniques including verbal and non-verbal ways to show respect
- techniques to guide children’s behaviour
- United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

- National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care
- the relevant approved learning framework under the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs)
2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to enable educators to provide children with opportunities to maximise their potential and develop a foundation for future success.

This unit applies to educators working in a range of education and care services.

Elements and Performance Criteria

Elements define the essential outcomes. Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Identify learning frameworks
   1.1 Investigate different approved learning frameworks and identify the framework relevant to the service
Elements define the essential outcomes.

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1.2 Recognise differences between the relevant framework and other approved frameworks

1.3 Clarify the relevance of the framework with educators and others to identify its relationship to other aspects of relevant law and regulations

2. Apply the learning framework

2.1 Investigate how the framework is applied to support children’s learning

2.2 Explore and develop an understanding of the principles and practices of the relevant framework

2.3 Work in collaboration with others to apply the principles and practices of the learning framework to all aspects of the educator role

2.4 Work in collaboration with others to implement framework learning outcomes

2.5 Reflect on own practices in the workplace and discuss with supervisor

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.

- Reading – in order to interpret and apply relevant approved learning frameworks in the context of own work role.

Range of Conditions

Specifies different work environments and conditions that may affect performance. Essential operating conditions that may be present (depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts) are included.

Range is restricted to essential operating conditions and any other variables essential to the work environment.
The learning framework used must be one listed in the Education and Care Services National Regulations.

  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- and how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- introductory-level child development for children, including:
  - early brain development
  - importance of the early years for subsequent educational success
  - foundational knowledge of developmental theory
- aspects of poor early childhood development, such as:
  - poor diet
  - lack of play
  - limited stimulation of brain development
  - lack of materials and resources
  - inconsistent or non-existent emotional support or comfort
  - trauma
  - other life experiences which interrupt appropriate childhood activities, and their potential long-term harmful impacts
- biological and environmental influences on development
- symbol systems including letters, numbers, time, money and musical notation.

| Release 1 | This version was released in CHC Community Services Training Package release 1.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. |
|           | Combination of content from CHCFC502A, CHCFC503A, CHCFC504A, CHCFC505A and CHCFC506A. Significant changes to elements and performance criteria. New evidence requirements for assessment, including volume and frequency requirements. |

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to foster and enhance the holistic development and wellbeing of children from birth to 6 years of age.

The unit applies to educators working in a range early education and care service settings.

Elements and Performance Criteria

| ELEMENT | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA |
1. Foster physical development
   1.1 Assess and monitor children’s physical skills and development
   1.2 Plan and provide appropriate experiences and opportunities to foster each child’s fine and gross motor skills, and fundamental movement skills through play
   1.3 Plan and provide experiences which challenge the physical skills and abilities of children and promote physical fitness

2. Foster social development
   2.1 Assess and monitor children’s social skills and development
   2.2 Plan and provide opportunities for different forms of social interaction between children during play with respect for each child’s interests, goals and development stage
   2.3 Create opportunities for children to participate in meaningful ways in group discussions and shared decision-making
   2.4 Structure experiences in a way that promotes cooperation and conflict resolution
   2.5 Promote a sense of community within the service
   2.6 Arrange the environment to encourage interactions between children as well as accommodating a child’s need for privacy, solitude or quiet
   2.7 Provide opportunities for children to investigate ethical issues relevant to their lives and their communities

3. Foster emotional development
   3.1 Assess and monitor children’s emotional development
   3.2 Create opportunities for children to experience individual strengths and successes during play
   3.3 Plan and provide opportunities through play that challenge children’s emerging skills and capabilities
   3.4 Provide opportunities for children to engage independently with tasks
   3.5 Create opportunities for children to explore self-image

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- planned and provided at least three opportunities for children of varying ages to develop in a range of areas, including:
  - facilitating and supporting emotional and psychological development in children
  - encouraging self-help and independence of children
  - planning opportunities to foster children’s positive self-concept and self-esteem
  - providing a positive and safe environment to encourage children to express thoughts, feelings and ideas
- performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit during a period of at least 240 hours of work in at least one regulated education and care service.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- relevant aspects of theories of children’s emotional and psychological development as they apply to the educator’s role
- links between social, physical, psychological and cognitive development
- in-depth knowledge of a range of developmental theories for children between birth and 5 years of age
- contextual factors which influence the children’s emotional and psychological development
- factors which enhance the development of self-esteem and self-identity
- core principles of child development and associated developmental tasks
- organisational standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

- National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care
- the relevant approved learning framework under the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- observed and analysed children’s behaviour, on at least three occasions, in a range of situations and contexts
- created, implemented and measured the effectiveness of at least one plan, including:
  - developing long-term and short-term goals and objectives
  - establishing a baseline for the behaviour
  - clearly outlining alternative behaviours
  - communicating expectations with children
  - supporting and communicating with colleagues to implement the plan
  - revisiting the plan and reflecting on its effectiveness
- developed positive relationships with children, respected family expectations and their cultural values, and acted within the service policy
- interacted with children and involved them in decision-making and planning.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- how to interpret the relevance of framework and standards documents in guiding work in this unit of competency
- stage of development/age-appropriate expectations of children’s behaviour
- appropriate and inappropriate behaviours – review of own stance and reflection on own values
- different family styles of discipline and beliefs about behaviour in different cultures and social groups
- relationship-based strategies to help children learn about behaviour
- possible contributing factors to behaviours of concern, i.e. recent events, child’s history, actions of others, or developmental or emotional reasons
- code of ethics
- United Nations Conventions on the Rights of the Child
- organisation standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:
• National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care
• the relevant approved learning framework under the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care.

ELEMENT

1. Promote inclusion

1.1 Ensure curriculum decisions are made with a view to promoting inclusion and participation of all children

1.2 Demonstrate a belief in children’s capacity to succeed in all interactions with families and children

1.3 Reflect upon practices to find equitable and effective ways to ensure all children have opportunities to achieve learning outcomes

1.4 Develop own professional knowledge and work in partnership with families, communities and other services and agencies

1.5 Support all children regardless of background, gender, age or ability to fully participate as valued members of the group

1.6 Assist, support and encourage each child’s efforts to participate

1.7 Identify areas of the service’s philosophy and policies that relate to inclusion, equity and diversity and reflect on related practice

2. Respect diversity

2.1 Value different capacities and abilities, and respect differences in families’ home lives

2.2 Recognise that diversity contributes to the richness of society and provide children with opportunities to explore this richness

2.3 Uphold all children’s rights to have their cultures, identities, abilities and strengths acknowledged and valued in curriculum decisions

2.4 Draw children’s attention to issues of fairness relevant to them

2.5 Provide children with opportunities to learn about similarities and differences, interdependence and how we can learn to live together.

2.6 Engage children in discussions about respectful and equal relations

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

3. Identify children with barriers to learning

3.1 Investigate child’s barrier to learning

3.2 Collect and use data to form an accurate understanding of the barrier to learning

3.3 Discuss concerns with others to develop a holistic understanding of a particular child’s needs and use this information to inform actions

4. Develop a plan for support and inclusion

4.1 Consider the child’s abilities, goals, interests, expectations and health status in the context of their cultural values, needs and requirements when making curriculum decisions for the child

4.2 Develop the plan in consultation with other professionals and the family

4.3 Adapt the environment and routines to ensure inclusion of all children with additional needs

4.4 Constantly reflect on the effectiveness of the plan and its impact on the child

5. Implement strategies to meet the child’s additional needs

5.1 Support child’s entry into the service

5.2 Reflect on the level of support provided on a regular basis and adjust accordingly if necessary

5.3 Encourage others to adopt inclusive attitudes and practices

5.4 Communicate with and provide support to others to implement strategies

5.5 Investigate and trial strategies that may address barriers

5.6 Implement strategies designed or suggested by family or other professionals

5.7 Respond to the daily needs of children with additional needs and seek assistance as required

6. Monitor and review strategies

6.1 Share information about progress among all concerned

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- developed and implemented a plan for support and inclusion for at least one child, including:
  - contributing to individualised, child-centred planning and service delivery
  - collaborating and sharing information with family and other educators to develop and implement an inclusion plan
  - investigating and trialling strategies to address the needs of the child
  - reviewing and suggesting adaptations to service delivery to meet the needs of children with special needs
  - identifying and assessing the additional needs of individual children
  - gathering additional resources or sources of information to assist in developing and adapting curriculum to meet additional needs.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- and how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- relevant legislation, regulations and workplace practices
- range of additional needs that may be identified and the implications for the role of the educator, including:
  - behavioural or psychological disorders
  - child at risk of harm or illness
  - family circumstances and needs
  - health problems
  - physical, sensory or developmental disability
  - strategies that encourage participation
  - understanding of different backgrounds, experiences and needs of children and families in exceptional circumstances or with additional needs
  - organisation standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. 1. Develop appropriate settings and environments

1.1 Evaluate and modify the learning environment and materials to support all aspects of children’s learning, and promote opportunities for sustained shared thinking and collaborative learning

1.2 Assess and modify the learning environment and materials to ensure that families and the community are respected

1.3 Implement learning environment modifications

1.4 Promote an appreciation of the natural environment

2. Design and implement curriculum in consultation with others

2.1 Consult with children and families to assist in reflecting on the current curriculum and learning environments and identify current strengths and goals

2.2 Design and implement curriculum that reflect the philosophy of the service

3. Design learning experiences to foster children’s learning and development

3.1 Collect data on each child

3.2 Analyse data collected to identify each child’s interests, strengths and goals in conjunction with the approved learning framework

3.3 Clarify specific objectives, learning environment, role of the educator and assessment/evaluation methods and evidence using the approved framework’s learning outcomes, principles and practices

3.4 Design learning experiences to foster holistic learning and to provide continuity of learning and transitions

3.5 Plan for ways to monitor and assess children’s learning, consistent with the principles and practices of the approved framework, ensuring that both planned and unplanned experiences are considered for assessment

4. Implement learning experiences to foster children’s learning and development

4.1 Ensure that required materials are identified and available at time of implementation

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- designed and implemented curriculum on at least one occasion, including:
  - evaluating and modifying environments to enhance opportunities for children’s learning from other educators, children and their families
  - gathering information to use as a basis for design to address identified needs
  - designing learning experiences to foster children’s development
  - assessing and evaluating curriculum and learning experiences in accordance with guidelines
- performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit during a period of at least 240 hours of work in at least one regulated education and care service.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- how to access:
  - the National Quality Framework
  - the National Quality Standards
  - the relevant approved learning framework
- how to navigate through framework and standards documents to find areas relevant to this unit of competency
- how to design programs and environments that foster children’s development
- evaluation strategies
- organisation standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a regulated education and care service.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

- National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care
- the relevant approved learning framework under the National Quality Framework for Early Childhood Education and Care.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to support children to connect with and contribute to their world and embed sustainable practice into service operations.

This unit applies to work across a range of education and care service services.

Elements and Performance Criteria

--- | ---
Elements define the essential outcomes. | Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Develop a sustainability plan
   1.1 Identify aspects of sustainability in the service
ELEMENT

Elements define the essential outcomes. Management plan

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Consider areas of potential change in all aspects of the service’s delivery and environments
1.2  Ensure that nature, waste, energy and toxins have been considered
1.3  Identify areas where change can be instigated to enhance environmental sustainability and increase children’s connection with nature, in consultation with children
1.4  Develop strategies to address these areas of change in consultation with children
1.5  Implement strategies and evaluate outcomes

2. Support children to develop an understanding and respect for the natural environment

2.1  Provide children with a wide range of natural and recycled materials in their indoor and outdoor environments
2.2  Create opportunities to discuss with children the natural environment and the interdependence between people, plants, animals and the land
2.3  Role-model respect, care and appreciation for the natural and constructed environments
2.4  Share information and provide children with access to resources about the environment and the impact of human activities on environments
2.5  Create spaces that promote the development of life skills, such as growing and preparing food, waste reduction and recycling
2.6  Encourage children to exchange thoughts and ideas about sustainable practice through intentional teaching, learning experiences and projects
2.7  Explore ethical dilemmas of waste disposal for sustainability with all stakeholders

3. Support others in implementing sustainable practice

3.1  Encourage children to participate in sustainable practice discussions and learning experiences
3.2  Engage with adults and children to encourage their participation in the service’s sustainable practices
ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4. Embed sustainability into service policies and procedures

4.1 Review the service philosophy, policies and procedures in relation to sustainable practice

4.2 Identify areas of potential change in the service philosophy, policies and procedures

4.3 Discuss with stakeholders any identified areas of potential change

4.4 Finalise changes after agreement with appropriate stakeholders

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be evidence that the candidate has:

- responded to at least 3 different problems or complaints about the service in accordance with organisation procedures.
- identified at least 1 opportunity for improvement arising from the problem or complaint

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- relevant service guidelines including complaint procedures
- relevant codes of ethics
- organisation standards, policies and procedures
- privacy and confidentiality requirements of role and service
- communication strategies and negotiation techniques
- problem solving and conflict resolution techniques
- principles of mediation
Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a workplace that provides services or support to children and families.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors

Assessment must ensure use of:

- educational equipment and teaching aids.

Additionally, it must involve:

- supervising teacher and/or other colleagues.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

| Release 1 | This version was released in CHC Community Services Training Package release 1.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. Significant changes to elements and performance criteria. New evidence requirements for assessment, including volume and frequency requirements. |

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- implemented reading, writing and oral language support strategies for at least two students, as directed by the teacher
- maintained and completed required records for at least two students
- completed a sequence of tasks with direction and support from the teacher
- interpreted information from written and/or verbal directions
- managed time to provide effective support to learners as guided by teachers
- consulted with teachers and other colleagues to accommodate individual student requirements.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- relationships between oral language, reading and writing
- a range of strategies to develop students’ oral language, reading and writing skills
- role of education support worker in providing oral language, reading and writing support to students
- a range of effective communication strategies for use with students and teachers
- genres and writing styles
- texts for different purposes
- accurate spelling, grammar and punctuation
- organisation policies and procedures
- current curriculum and literacy programs.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

ELEMENT

Elements define the essential outcomes.

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Apply developmental and learning approaches to basic numeracy skills under supervision of teacher

   1.1 Identify the skills and knowledge required by students to make meaning of numbers and basic computations

   1.2 Identify numeracy processes that are relevant and appropriate to the student’s ability and year level according to specified guidelines and practices of the school

   1.3 Identify links between mathematical/numeracy processes and maths support strategies

   1.4 Apply learning models and language to meet student needs

2. Implement a numeracy support program

   2.1 Provide a numeracy support program as directed by the teacher, to meet the individual needs of students whilst taking into account their preferred learning styles

   2.2 Select and implement activities to support understanding of numbers, use of number computations, measurement and numerical data

   2.3 Record students’ progress in accordance with program/school guidelines

   2.4 Maintain student confidentiality at all times

3. Support student numeracy programs

   3.1 Implement support strategies, under direction of supervising teacher, to accommodate student’s ability according to education guidelines and program specifications

   3.2 Encourage the development of self-reliance in numeracy through positive feedback

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.

Foundation skills essential to performance are explicit in the performance criteria of this unit of competency.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- analysed what at least two students are doing when working mathematically and applied an appropriate model of learning to develop the students’ numeracy skills
- implemented numeracy support programs to support at least two students who may be at various levels, as directed by the teacher
- maintained and completed workplace records
- communicated with a range of students, including:
  - active listening
  - giving clear directions and/or instructions
- consulted with the teaching team and other education support workers on workplace procedures and new approaches to accommodate individual student requirements.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- basic mathematical concepts and operations relevant to the year levels and the needs of students
- language associated with numeracy and mathematical operations
- questions to encourage critical thinking about mathematics and its use as a learning tool
- the role of education support personnel in providing mathematics support to students
- a range of basic communication strategies

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- used a specified language to communicate with students, parents and other colleagues on at least two separate occasions, including:
  - listening to and speaking in an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander language
  - participating in verbal transactions using suitable vocabulary and grammar
  - gathering and providing information between students, parents and colleagues
  - using respectful language
- established rapport and building relationships with students, parents and colleagues
- clarified own role in professional relationships with students, parents and colleagues
- relayed experiences and concepts of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people appropriately to other professionals, including providing illustrations or examples and using analogies.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander language
- traditional culture related to language group governing protocols of language use within a community
- code of ethics of education worker
- role and responsibilities of an education worker and specific understanding of own work role and responsibilities
- school’s or centre’s policies and procedures as they apply to the work role
- cultural and linguistic backgrounds of students and families
- an understanding of own culture, western systems and structures and how this impacts on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander culture
- impacts of cultural, sub-cultural, social, religious, gender, age, language issues, etc. on attitudes towards education.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required for an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander education worker to manage their work performance in a range of education environments.

An Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander education worker is generally drawn from local communities because of their fluency in a specific language, kinship relationships within the community, a level of knowledge of and respect for traditional culture, and capacity to interact in the wider community.

This unit applies to education support work in a variety of contexts and the work is to be undertaken with appropriate guidance, support and supervision by a nominated teacher or other education professional.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- facilitated communication between the student, the school and home under the direction of a teacher at least twice, including:
  - identifying communication barriers and organising interpreters/translators where necessary
  - providing assistance as required
- implemented an ESL support program as directed by the teacher or under the guidance of a support officer, including:
  - providing individual support to at least three ESL students
  - performing ESL support tasks in classroom or group activities
  - identifying and discussing factors affecting language acquisition with teacher
  - identifying and handling cultural issues
- assisted at least two students in gaining English language skills.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- means by which students acquire English language skills
- factors affecting language acquisition
- immigration issues including common responses to and symptoms of ‘culture shock’
- implications of cultural issues in the classroom
- a range of effective communication techniques.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- collaborated with the teacher to analyse student needs in the development of mathematical skills and determined, developed and implemented strategies and programs to support at least two students, including:
  - implementing programs that support a range of students who may be at various levels, in collaboration with the teacher
  - adapting examples and activities to meet the specific needs in mathematics knowledge and understanding of individual students
  - using specific strategies to scaffold student learning as directed by a teacher
  - applying mathematical concepts applicable to the year levels in which they operate, i.e. early childhood, primary, secondary
  - identifying, collating and developing resources to support development of mathematics skills and knowledge.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- various assessments including formative and summative and standardised testing
- concept strands of mathematics and mathematical skills appropriate to the students being supported and the curriculum in use
- differences between the roles and responsibilities of teachers and education support workers
- language associated with mathematics and numeracy as used by supervising teacher/s
- the role of education support personnel in implementing planned mathematics activities with students
- questioning techniques that can be used to scaffold learning and assist students to problem-solve.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required by education support workers to work with teachers to support students in pre-primary, primary and secondary to develop literacy skills, including oral language, reading and writing skills.

The unit provides skills and knowledge to enable education support workers to work with the teacher to develop resources to reinforce literacy skills across the curriculum and to support students during various phases in the acquisition of literacy competence.

This unit applies to education support work in a variety of contexts and the work is to be undertaken with appropriate guidance, support and supervision by a nominated teacher or other education professional.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand standards and industry codes of practice.

1. Encourage and model spoken language
   - 1.1 Identify and use a variety of styles of verbal communication
   - 1.2 Demonstrate the different functions of language in interactions
   - 1.3 Monitor students’ understanding and use of language through observation, listening and conversation, and provide information to teachers to inform planning
   - 1.4 Identify factors affecting language acquisition and discuss with the teacher/s
   - 1.5 Use language appropriate to students’ culture, age, abilities, interests and needs
   - 1.6 Use spoken language to effectively interact with students
   - 1.7 Talk explicitly about language to scaffold learning
   - 1.8 Model language appropriate to the situation, the purpose and the audience for students

2. Support students to read and interpret texts
   - 2.1 Determine strategies for supporting students in the interpretation of texts in consultation with the teacher/s
   - 2.2 Implement planned strategies to enhance the abilities of students and address their individual needs
   - 2.3 Encourage students to problem-solve in order to make meaning from texts
   - 2.4 Use explicit talk to focus students on specific literacy skills

3. Enhance students’ literacy skills through writing activities
   - 3.1 Use accurate terminology, as planned with teacher/s, to support students’ learning
   - 3.2 Implement strategies devised with teacher/s to develop students’ skills in the use of written language
   - 3.3 Use planned strategies to reinforce literacy skills across all key learning areas
ELEMENT

Elements define the essential outcomes.

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

3.4 Encourage students to improve spelling skills using strategies appropriate to students’ developmental levels

3.5 Support students to plan their writing tasks

3.6 Encourage students to critically reflect on the effectiveness of their writing

3.7 Support students to effectively edit their writing

4. Design resources to support literacy development

4.1 Plan learning environments and activities in advance with the teacher/s

4.2 Design resources, in consultation with teacher/s, to reinforce literacy skills, while fulfilling curriculum requirements

4.3 Design resources to suit the developmental level of the students, as determined by the teacher/s

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to understand and apply a range of principles and processes to facilitate student learning, either for individuals or for small groups.

This unit applies to education support workers in a range of education environments who are responsible for aligning support strategies with teacher facilitation strategies to assist student learning.

This work is to be undertaken with appropriate guidance, support and supervision by a nominated teacher or other education professional.

Elements and Performance Criteria

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Apply understanding of current education approaches relevant to the education environment

1.1 In consultation with teacher or other education professional, identify teaching and learning approaches applicable to the relevant education environment
1.2 Confirm the teaching and learning approach and its principles of practice with the supervisor
1.3 Select resources to support the learning approach
1.4 Work with teacher to plan learning activities and classroom supervision of student interactions
1.5 Conduct the learning activities and supervision of student interactions
1.6 Demonstrate principles of practice in the learning environment that reflect specified learning approaches

2. Establish an environment conducive to student learning

2.1 Identify and confirm learning requirements for the specified activity by interpretation of the learning program, in consultation with the teacher
2.2 Meet specified needs of identified students in planning and preparation phase with the teacher
2.3 Assemble and, where necessary, modify required resources prior to the activity
2.4 Reflect the appropriate principles of practice in the planning and delivery of the activity
2.5 Establish a positive, mutually respectful relationship with students using communication and interpersonal skills to match the student/group

3. Facilitate the learning process

3.1 Interact with students to reflect application of principles of practice in accordance with student learning styles
3.2 Conduct each activity in accordance with provided programs and directions
3.3 Take opportunities to enhance learning activities within the scope of the endorsed principles of practice
ELEMENT

Elements define the essential outcomes.

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

4. Support and monitor student learning

4.1 Monitor, document and report student progress to supervising staff to ensure learning outcomes are being achieved

4.2 Adjust and modify delivery strategies to meet emergent needs and unanticipated situations

4.3 Encourage students to reflect on personal learning achievements and learning experiences

4.4 Manage student interactions to ensure effective participation occurs and effective relationships are maintained

4.5 Use a range of established and agreed techniques to manage behaviour of concern

4.6 Maintain, store and secure student records in accordance with organisation requirements

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- established a learning environment and facilitated the learning process for both a small group and an individual at least twice, including:
  - demonstrating principles of practice in the learning environment
  - adjusting resources to suit individual needs
  - complying with procedures relating to behaviour support
  - accurately documenting written reports and records
- performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit during a period of at least 100 hours within at least one education provider.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- interpersonal skills that influence positive student and staff interactions
- reading, writing, language and numeracy competence required to perform effectively in an education support role
- awareness of contemporary theories of learning
- appropriate principles of practice for the identified education environment
- learning process
- current curriculum documents
- institution’s process and procedures for working with students and supporting behaviour
- the different responsibilities of teachers and education support workers for student learning outcomes
- relevant legislation, policies and standards that regulate education service delivery, occupational health and safety, behaviour support and anti-discrimination.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required for education support workers to provide support to students who have to face a range of challenges that may limit their access to, participation in or outcomes from the curriculum.

This unit applies to education support work in a variety of contexts and the work is to be undertaken with appropriate guidance, support and supervision by a nominated teacher or other education professional.

Education support workers will apply knowledge of appropriate educational responses as part of a team supporting students with learning difficulties.

Elements and Performance Criteria

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Identify problems experienced by students in need of additional support

   1.1 Identify, in collaboration with the teacher the specific learning needs of the individual student

   1.2 Identify any real barriers or potential barriers to learning

2. Contribute to team planning for students in need of additional support

   2.1 Provide observations to the education team to inform the process of planning for students requiring additional support

   2.2 Develop expectations for students, with the education team

   2.3 Discuss strategies to increase student access to learning, with the education team

   2.4 Identify and assemble required resources

3. Provide support to students in need of additional support

   3.1 Use assistive technologies where appropriate

   3.2 Implement planned strategies to meet the needs of individual students

   3.3 Provide students with regular opportunities for practising new skills

   3.4 Monitor student progress and inform teachers on a regular basis

4. Provide support to teachers of students in need of additional support

   4.1 Cooperate in the implementation of programs and strategies designed by teachers

   4.2 Monitor and arrange maintenance of any equipment used to support students

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- contributed to the education team and participants in planning for students in need of additional support to achieve their full potential, including:
  - setting up and using adaptive technologies required by students
  - adapting education resources to meet the needs of students with learning difficulties
  - using professional language when working with teachers and other professionals.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.
These include knowledge of:

- language, literacy and numeracy support strategies appropriate to the phase of learning
- appropriate support for a range of learning situations for students with various reasons for requiring additional assistance including physical, intellectual or learning disabilities, medical conditions, or emotional or psychological issues
- physical, emotional and social support that may be required by individual students
- individual education plans and behaviour management plans.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria specify the level of performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element.

1. Identify physical, psychological and logistical impediments to the active supervision of students

1.2 Identify physical, psychological and logistical risks to be considered in the risk evaluation

1.3 Use planning strategies to address identified risks and hazards in activities

1.4 Access information about additional needs of students to inform the supervisory process

1.5 Review information about children’s health and medical needs prior to out-of-class activity

2. Use positive student management techniques

2.1 Establish expectations for student behaviour in advance of the activity in accordance with the organisation’s positive behaviour support plan

2.2 Model positive interactions with students and other adults at all times

2.3 Use verbal and non-verbal techniques to acknowledge and influence student behaviour

2.4 Supervise and monitor area of responsibility and students in order to respond to situations in a timely manner

2.5 Use timely interventions to prevent escalation of incidents

3. Maintain calm and confident demeanour

3.1 Monitor and control personal stress levels

3.2 Articulate verbal directions in a clear and moderate tone and repeat this where necessary

3.3 Assess situations and determine suitable action

3.4 Use planned strategies to defuse stressful situations before they escalate

3.5 Summon assistance when necessary using the organisations planned methods of communication

3.6 Follow the organisation’s debriefing processes

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- used a range of supportive behaviour techniques, as described in the education organisation’s supportive behaviour plan, and contributed to the development of risk-management strategies for non-classroom based activities, including:
  - valuing and responding appropriately to cultural difference
  - making accurate observations and assessments of student interactions
  - reporting information accurately and correctly according to organisational standards.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- supportive behaviour techniques appropriate to the education environment and students
- risk-management procedures of the organisation
- appropriate sources of required additional information about students to be supervised
- reporting requirements for hazards/incidents
- effective use of communication equipment/procedures
- responsibilities of the education support worker when supervising students in non-classroom environments.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessment must ensure use of education organisation’s behaviour and support plan.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- contributed to a positive education environment, including:
  - being assertive in influencing planning to include Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander perspectives
  - acquiring knowledge of local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander culture
  - developing own skills and knowledge regarding Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander culture
- used a range of communication skills to effectively interact with and liaise between differing cultural contexts, including:
  - inviting community members to contribute to education programs
  - negotiating with community members regarding approaches to pastoral care initiatives
  - accessing community resources and personnel supported literacy and numeracy strategies in consultation with the teacher, including:
- selecting and contextualising literacy and numeracy resources to create meaningful learning experiences
- selecting delivery and communication strategies
- identifying barriers to student learning and developing strategies to overcome these.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- differences between cultural groups
- requirements of anti-discrimination legislation
- benefits of diversity to the school community
- principles and practices of cultural awareness and cross-cultural communication
- local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander culture
- education policies and initiatives designed to support learning outcomes for Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people
- information sources for local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people
- range of teaching and learning strategies.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- established a learning environment on two separate occasions, including:
  - determining learning outcomes of flexible learning programs with supervisor
  - designing learning space to meet the needs of students
  - establishing a range of activities, resources and assessment requirements with learner and course facilitator
  - confirming technical requirements and organising technical support needs
- facilitated flexible learning for at least two students, including:
  - developing flexible learning protocols with supervisor
  - conducting induction to flexible learning environment
  - providing students with technical and personal support during activities
  - establishing positive relationships
- monitored progress of at least two students and reported any issues to supervisor
- made interventions when students were losing momentum and engagement reflected on own practice and identified areas for improvement identified, discussed and documented recommendations for improvements to flexible learning with relevant personnel.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- technical knowledge sufficient to distinguish between a technical problem and a content problem, and to respond accordingly
- a range of flexible learning methodologies and programs available for use
- issues that may be encountered by students with disabilities
- learner attitudes to flexible learning
- levels of support appropriate to a variety of learning situations.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

- technical support
- flexible learning environment
- flexible learning resources, including communication resources.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

- produced language resources at expected organisational standards using correct grammar, spelling and punctuation.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- community languages and dialect variations in work community
- community protocols for researching and using languages in the community
- guidelines and procedures for development and production of learning resources
- evaluation strategies involving stakeholder participation.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- adjusted one e-learning site and content to suit educational/training organisation requirements, learner and group needs and to effectively address needs of at least two individuals, including:
  - correctly use e-learning tools, including communication tools, learning activity tools, assessment tools and monitoring tools
  - identifying technical problems and being able to troubleshoot or know where to get required technical assistance.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.
These include knowledge of:
- principles of learning in a virtual environment
- technical components sufficient to distinguish between a technical problem and a content problem, and to respond accordingly
- technical information required to work within the e-learning management system
- use of systems that allow monitoring of students
- structure and content of relevant e-learning resources
- ethics related to e-learning (e.g. duty of care, security of information, plagiarism)
- rationale for the use of different learning activities.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:
- educational equipment and teaching aids
- computer and internet link to an e-learning management system.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to work in the community and health sector with target groups and individuals to identify their financial literacy education requirements.

This unit applies to workers who are part of a professional team and under the guidance of a supervisor.

Financial literacy education provides targeted information and resources to meet particular client needs.

Acquisition of financial literacy education competencies alone does not provide sufficient foundation to undertake complex financial literacy education or financial counselling.

Where financial issues have the potential to become complex, clients should be referred to a qualified financial counsellor.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand standards and industry codes of practice.

- language and literacy concepts and terminology relevant to learner needs and context
- relationships between spoken language and literacy
- factors that inhibit literacy skills development
- basic communication and learning strategies, including techniques that:
  - model talk to support learner comprehension
  - scaffold learning and assist learners to problem solve
- tools to evaluate learning outcomes, including the ACSF

Assessment Conditions

Skills must have been demonstrated in the workplace or in a simulated environment that reflects workplace conditions. The following conditions must be met for this unit:

- use of suitable facilities, equipment and resources, including:
  - established literacy support programs and resources
  - texts for reading
- modelling of industry operating conditions, including:
  - provision of services to adults needing language and literacy support
  - interaction with supervisor

Application

The unit describes the skills and knowledge required to identify numeracy skill needs, develop strategies and resources to reinforce number, measurement, estimation and problem solving skills, and then support learners during various phases in the development of their numeracy competence.

This unit applies to individuals such as paid or volunteer tutors, who work under the guidance of a program supervisor with numeracy development expertise.

Elements and Performance Criteria

numeracy skills in consultation with the learner and supervisor according to need
1.4 Negotiate numeracy learning needs with learner and establish achievable learning outcomes, in consultation with supervisor

2. Plan strategies and resources to support mathematics learning for numeracy

2.1 Plan learning environments, activities and appropriate method to evaluate learning outcomes in advance with the supervisor
2.2 Monitor learner understanding and use of numeracy to inform planning of strategies and resources
2.3 Adapt or develop resources appropriate to learner needs and context according to program requirements

3. Facilitate application of mathematics skills for numeracy

3.1 Explain a variety of numeracy demands and opportunities in daily life
3.2 Demonstrate the different uses and functions of mathematics using activities and examples
3.3 Develop numerate understandings appropriate to learners’ culture, age, abilities, interests and needs
3.4 Use examples and activities to highlight and explain applications of mathematics skills and knowledge for numeracy to scaffold learning
3.5 Use strategies to model use of mathematics skills relevant to specific learners

4. Support learners to develop mathematics skills for numerate understanding

4.1 Determine strategies for supporting learners in the application of mathematics skills for numeracy, seeking advice from supervisor or other specialist as needed
4.2 Implement planned strategies to enhance the abilities of learners and address their individual needs
4.3 Encourage learners to problem solve using mathematics knowledge and skills in everyday life contexts
ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Performance criteria describe the performance required to demonstrate achievement of the element

4.4 Use the language of numeracy at the appropriate level to focus learners on specific mathematics skills and knowledge

4.5 Evaluate learning outcomes and discuss with supervisor according to need

5. Provide structured activities to further develop learners’ mathematics skills and knowledge

5.1 Plan strategies with supervisor where appropriate, including accurate mathematics terminology and concepts to support learning

5.2 Implement strategies that develop learner skills in using mathematics for numeracy understanding across appropriate aspects of communication

5.3 Encourage learners to improve mental computation and calculation skills using strategies appropriate to individual learners

5.4 Ensure learners check for reasonableness of solutions when calculating and measuring, using a range of strategies and tools

5.5 Encourage learners and build their confidence to attempt problem solving that requires the use of mathematics skills and knowledge

6. Review strategies used to enhance learner skills

6.1 Monitor learner progress against learning outcomes

6.2 Seek support and feedback from supervisor

6.3 Review and adjust strategies based on monitoring and feedback in consultation with supervisor

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.
Foundation skills essential to performance are explicit in the performance criteria of this unit of competency.

ELEMENT

Elements define the essential outcomes

1. Identify and build resilience and capacity in the person's care network and community of choice
   1.1 Work collaboratively to identify the scope and membership of the person’s care network and their community of choice
   1.2 Work with the person with mental illness to clarify the roles and importance of members of the care network and determine their potential to positively impact the life of the person
   1.3 Work collaboratively with the person to identify the potential to expand or strengthen the care network, or increase their participation in their community of choice
   1.4 Provide support, information or other actions to assist the person to uphold their rights, build resilience and capacity in their network, as required

2. Develop and maintain effective working relationships with other services and programs
   2.1 Establish networks and local contacts to maximise availability of service options so a person’s needs can be holistically met
   2.2 Gather and review information about local services to identify benefits and limitations of available service options and their possible contribution to the recovery process
   2.3 Clarify scope of collaborative approaches and work within individual, team and multi-disciplinary work roles and structures
   2.4 Establish, negotiate and document partnerships
   2.5 Develop and maintain working relationships with local service providers, according to the person’s needs
   2.6 Identify limits of own abilities, role or knowledge and after discussion with the person, make referrals to other services in accordance with organisation policies and available resources

3. Review and monitor services provided by other organisations and programs
   3.1 Review effectiveness of referrals and services offered, in collaboration with person and other services
   3.2 Identify gaps or additional services needed
3.3 Negotiate and advocate as required to ensure programs are meeting the person’s recovery goals.

3.4 Work collaboratively to identify and address any difficulties the person is experiencing with other services and work with the person and service to achieve the desired outcome.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to identify and respond to issues of complexity when supporting people living with mental illness and their care networks. The unit is based on a strengths-based approach and acknowledges that complexity is not a characteristic of an individual. Complexity may be impacted by a range of interactions between the worker, the organisation and the environmental context.

This unit applies to work with people living with mental illness in a range of community services work contexts.

ELEMENT

Elements define the essential outcomes

1. Assess the person's wellbeing

1.1 Provide information and resources to the person to explain social and emotional wellbeing, holistic practice and the available services and programs

1.2 Explore the domains of wellbeing with the person, identifying strengths and strategies that keep the person strong

1.3 Reflect on and respond to own values, beliefs, attitudes, power and behaviours regarding wellbeing to ensure non-judgemental practice

1.4 Clarify and respect the person's choices, parameters and boundaries relating to topics to be discussed

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- worked with at least two children and/or young people and their families, including:
  - providing services in accordance with duty of care policy and legislative requirements
  - sensitively and appropriately communicating information about the child protection systems
  - supporting quality care for children and young people
- used self-management activities to support own safety/wellbeing, including:
  - developing a safety plan for direct contact with children, young people and families
  - identifying and appropriately managing the challenges of child protection work, including stress
  - overcoming barriers to effective self-care
- dealt effectively with a range of stakeholders in the system, including:
  - identifying and addressing challenges or barriers faced by children, young people and families supported other child protection staff to identify and resolve ethical challenges arising from their work roles.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- history and recent developments in child protection
- approaches of child-centred, family-focused practice
- children’s court procedures including:
  - preparing and supporting children, young people and families pre- and post-court
  - preparing for court
- indicators, effects and dynamics of abuse and neglect including:
  - the relationships between abuse and neglect, family violence, substance misuse, mental illness and disability
- issues related to the placement of children, including:
  - attachment and separation
  - effects of removal, incarceration
  - maximising safe family involvement/contact during placement
  - ongoing assessment of risk while in placement
  - pre-crisis planning for young people in out-of-home care
  - restoration/reunification planning for the child/young person’s return home
- legal implications and responsibilities of statutory work, including:
  - government policies on indigenous communities, e.g. Stolen Generations
  - legal requirements for the interview process, mandatory reporting and reciprocal reporting

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- sourced and critiqued child protection frameworks / professional standards
- used frameworks/standards to review own professional practice and identify strengths and areas for improvement
- engaged in ongoing reflective practice, critical inquiry about own values and beliefs, and self-directed learning.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- the purpose of child protection and the methods used to protect children
- authorities responsible for overseeing child protection
- child protection legislation
• a range of professional frameworks and standards, coming from national and state governments and peak bodies
• methods for self-development and ongoing professional education including:
  • clinical supervision
  • mentoring and coaching
  • job rotation
  • training
• reflective practice principles
• the principles of critical enquiry and action research.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessment must ensure use of:

• national frameworks, such as "Protecting Children is Everyone’s Business: National Framework for Protecting Australia’s Children 2009–2020"
• relevant state-based frameworks, such as Western Australia’s "Signs of Safety Child Protection Practice Framework" and Victoria’s "Best Interests Framework".

Note: assessors must ensure that frameworks referenced are current and address national and state contexts.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs)
2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks at least once:

- sourced and critiqued national and international child protection frameworks and used these to analyse their own service and its methods and systems
- undertaken at least three clinical supervision sessions to reflect on own practice and develop insight into biases and blocks to working effectively with clients
- used professional experience and sectoral knowledge to recommend improvements to the service and support colleagues to enhance their practice.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. These include knowledge of:

- relevant legislation and policy
- key stakeholders in the sector and authorities responsible for overseeing child protection
• national and international practice frameworks
• the role and purpose of clinical supervision
• the principles of reflective practice.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

• national frameworks, such as "Protecting Children is Everyone’s Business: National Framework for Protecting Australia’s Children 2009–2020"
• relevant state-based frameworks, such as Western Australia’s "Signs of Safety Child Protection Practice Framework" and Victoria’s "Best Interests Framework".

Note: assessors must ensure that frameworks referenced are current and address national and state contexts.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- stages of human development and indicators of trauma associated with the different stages of development
- different cultural values and child-rearing practices and their potential impact on children and young people
- risks to healthy child development, including:
  - exposure to family violence, alcohol/substance abuse or other addictive behaviours
  - mental health issues, including self-harm or suicide attempts
  - disability or complex medical needs
  - chronic neglect
  - compounded or unresolved experience of inter-generational abuse/trauma, and loss and grief
  - sexual abuse
  - chaotic household/lifestyle
  - poverty, financial hardship, unemployment, problem gambling and homelessness
- factors that influence positive outcomes, including:
  - sense of belonging to home, family, community and strong cultural identity
  - positive and supportive peer groups.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated through a child protection service and under professional supervision.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessment must involve working with a child under professional supervision.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- developed and implemented at least one multi-agency investigation into an allegation of child abuse or neglect, including:
  - sourcing key agencies for involvement in investigations and assessments and working collaboratively with those agencies
  - identifying key issues and considerations to be addressed in regard to the needs of the child and selecting and developing a strategy to respond to those issues
  - evaluating the chosen strategy to ensure it meets the key principles of child protection work
  - implementing the best strategy for the child and facilitating the associated practical arrangements
  - documenting the strategy, at all stages
  - working effectively and collaboratively with other agencies and personnel within organisational and interagency frameworks.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- roles, responsibilities and functions of key agencies and personnel participating in interagency and collaborative casework
- a range of potential issues that may present and require action in investigation and risk-assessment strategies
- organisation and interagency child protection frameworks
- range of options for intervention
- key principles of child protection work
- legislation and regulations of child protection work relevant to the investigation and assessment of children at risk
- organisation standards, policies and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Assessment must ensure use of:

- a real multi-agency investigation and child risk assessment strategy
- a detailed case study which reflects multi-agency roles and responsibilities

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be demonstrated evidence that the candidate has completed the following tasks:

- communicated and worked effectively with colleagues, managers and other agency staff on at least three separate occasions, including:
  - establishing and agreeing to work responsibilities
  - identifying actual and potential conflicts with colleagues and working to resolve them
  - using communication equipment
  - employing a range of communication strategies to meet the needs of different colleagues
  - providing documented communication
  - identifying own support needs and seeking assistance from the team
  - identifying, recording and reporting any issues which breach organisation standards of practice
  - implementing anti-discrimination work practices
  - collecting and using feedback from team members that suggest improvements to team relationships and performance.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

These include knowledge of:

- effective team work practices
- communication strategies for giving and receiving feedback
- relevant anti-discrimination legislation and workplace practices
- team dynamics and relationships in a work environment
- barriers to effective team work in youth justice settings
- management strategies for negotiating tasks and making constructive suggestions in a team
- conflict resolution strategies.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in the workplace.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be evidence that the candidate has:

- performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit in the workplace
- conducted child protection risk assessments for at least 5 different children, including:
  - engaging in a structured process of critical analysis according to the assessment model
  - determining the child’s level of risk according to legislation, policies and procedures and the information gathered
  - documenting the outcome and articulating in writing comprehensive rationale for decision-making process using approved organisation tools
- conducted child protection risk assessments that individually or cumulatively involve the following situations:
  - need for specialist assessments
  - drug and alcohol use/abuse
  - mental health concerns
  - physical health and ability considerations
  - intellectual disability
  - domestic and family violence
- developed, documented and monitored case strategies for at least 5 different children
- collaborated with both internal and external colleagues and specialist practitioners.
Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. This includes knowledge of:

- legal and ethical considerations for child protection work, and how these are applied in organisations and individual practice:

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be evidence that the candidate has:

- performed the activities outlined in the performance criteria of this unit in the workplace
- collaboratively analysed risks with a team across at least 10 different case situations
- developed strategies to address common work health and safety (WHS) issues for child protection workers, including:
  - vicarious trauma
  - compassion fatigue
  - stress
- developed strategies that include documented approaches to all of the following work contexts:
  - home visits
  - after hours work
  - child risk assessments
  - engagement with high risk clients
  - supervised contacts
  - critical incident occurrences
  - debriefing requirements
- addressed a diverse range of challenges associated with risk to workers in a child protection context according to organisation procedures, including all of the following:
• breaches of legal and ethical requirements
• complaints
• critical incidents.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. This includes knowledge of:

• legal and ethical considerations for safety planning in child protection work, and how these are applied in organisations and individual practice:
  • codes of conduct
  • duty of care
  • records management
  • rights and responsibilities of workers, employers and clients
  • work role boundaries – responsibilities and limitations
• WHS, including:
  • procedures when working away from the immediate workplace
  • WHS requirements and responsibilities
• processes for risk management in child protection, including:
  • critical analysis processes and other methods for analysing risk
  • responding to complexity
  • use of organisation supervisory framework
  • links between risk management and work health and safety
• theoretical frameworks and best practice evidence that support risk management planning
• types of risks that apply to workers in the child protection context, the likelihood of those risks and the effects of the following:
  • vicarious trauma
  • fatigue/burn-out
  • stress
• strategies that support team member resilience and minimise risks, including:
  • employee assistance programs
  • team activities, both formal and informal
  • supervision
• documentation and organisation information systems and tools to be used for safety assessment in child protection teams
• critical incident reporting procedures.
Assessment Conditions

Skills must have been demonstrated in the workplace with the addition of simulations and scenarios where the full range of contexts and situations have not been provided in the workplace. The following conditions must be met for this unit:
