2.4 Consult relevant organisations and stakeholders about proposed structural changes and, where appropriate, arrange for consultation throughout the process
2.5 Assess the strengths and weaknesses of a range of potential forms and models of organisations
2.6 Develop an appropriate structure which is consistent with the purpose, philosophy and roles of the organisation and which meet industrial, legal and policy requirements
2.7 Establish appropriate mechanisms to oversight the task
2.8 Provide ongoing advice to decision-makers as required on all aspects of the proposed changes and implementation strategy
2.9 Implement restructure in line with the approved strategy |
| 3. Meet legal requirements to establish or develop the organisation | 3.1 Identify and adhere to legal requirements to establish the organisation
3.2 Ensure records required to meet legal requirements are prepared, authorised and handled appropriately |
ELEMENT
4. Market and promote the organisation changes

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Promote the benefits of the new organisation or organisation changes to stakeholders, target groups and within the organisation to ensure maximum effectiveness

4.2 Implement appropriate evaluation and monitoring processes to ensure maximum effectiveness of the changes

---

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Consultation and research methodologies
- Community development principles
- Organisation design and management principles
- Community services and health networks and stakeholders
- Funding sources
- Principles of project management
- Depending on the work role or services provided, specific knowledge of particular groups or issues may be required, including alcohol and other drugs
  - cultural and linguistic diversity
  - risk of self-harm
  - women
  - men
  - community education
  - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
  - mental health
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate effective collaboration with communities and key stakeholders to achieve an agreed outcome
- Establish and develop community organisations based on identified community needs, community development methodologies and in accordance with current accepted best practice

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply complex communication skills including submission writing
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research and analysis
  - negotiation
  - strategic organisation planning
  - publicity, marketing, public relations and promotion
  - networking
  - financial analysis and management
  - program review and planning

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit should be assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal range of workplace conditions
EVIDENCE GUIDE

- Consistency in performance should be based on requirements for the establishment and development of community organisations in specific circumstances

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace or community or to an appropriately simulated environment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders may include:

- Individuals
- Families and care givers
- Members of the local community (including residents, businesses, workers, representatives such as councillors or politicians)
- Community groups (including services, interest groups, cultural groups, churches, clubs and associations)
- Government at local, state and national levels in both parliamentary, representative and bureaucratic officer levels
- Government departments, agencies and service (including human services public utilities, police)
- Political parties
- Other community services including workers, management and networks of services)
- Unions
- Employers and employer groups
- Relevant peak bodies and networks
- Education and training providers
- Experts on the subject, issue, situation or service

Organisations may include:

- Specific organisations, services or programs
- Government or non government organisations
- Units or branches within larger organisations
- Community services/organisations which provide services to young people as one of their target groups

Resources may include:

- Funding
- Paid/unpaid workers
- Specialists
- Referral networks
- Venues, facilities, equipment
RANGE STATEMENT

Submissions seeking resources may be:
- Direct negotiation with sources
- Written
- Competitive tenders
- Expressions of interest

Funding sources may include:
- Government (local, state and federal)
- Philanthropic agencies
- Private business and sponsorship
- Bequests, donations and other private grants
- Money raised by fundraising events
- Sale of resources
- Fees for services

Activities, programs, projects and strategies are implemented within requirements and guidelines established by:
- Legislation relating to occupational health and safety, access and equity, equal opportunities, industrial relations, corporate affairs and incorporation
- Organisation constitution, policies, guidelines and procedures
- Contracts
- Relevant legislation
- Duty of care, codes of professional conduct/ethics

Communication media for promotion purposes may include:
- Informal word of mouth networking
- Public presentations
- Conferences, forums and seminars
- Letters
- Fliers, brochures and other written advertisements
- Reports and discussion papers
- Posters and other artwork
- Audio visual advertisements/presentations/interviews
- Performing arts pieces
- Media interviews, press release
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCD615A Develop and implement community development strategies

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to work in the community to facilitate public awareness and resolution of a range of issues of public concern

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is intended for application within a community work or community development work context

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish and build community based group processes</td>
<td>1.1 Use appropriate interpersonal skills to ensure that stories are heard and understood and to test there is common understanding</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Respond to individual and group concerns in a manner which shows respect and identifies the public concern</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Support individuals to identify others who may share their concerns</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Employ relevant facilitation skills to assist people to identify when community development processes may not be the appropriate mechanism to address their issue and to provide appropriate referrals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Identify and address barriers to moving private concerns into public community action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Facilitate identification and development of community development strategies for proceeding with community actions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Identify structures and networks relevant to proposed community actions</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Research and analyse structures and systems relevant to the public concern

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Identify the structures and systems which have created and maintain issues within the public arena
2.2 Assist the group to develop strategies to seek positive change to these structures and systems
2.3 Implement strategies to seek positive change
2.4 Evaluate and review strategies in light of change achieved.

3. Facilitate processes to support community action

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Undertake all work in a timely manner
3.2 Assist groups to implement appropriate mechanisms and actions which will address the range of issues
3.3 Contribute to the development of policies and processes which will facilitate resolution of group concerns in the public arena
3.4 Routinely use effective interpersonal skills to motivate the group to work cooperatively
3.5 Undertake appropriate work to develop and implement operational arrangements which will facilitate group processes
3.6 Provide appropriate level of support within the defined work role to develop and maintain group processes and facilitate achievement of identified outcomes
3.7 Provide appropriate support to ensure there is ongoing evaluation of group processes
3.8 Assist the group to access additional assistance and resources as required
3.9 Develop and apply a strategy for managing a number of community development activities
ELEMENT 4. Develop and maintain relevant networks

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Identify and prioritise networking needs and established new networks as required to meet community and group needs and organisation objectives

4.2 Develop and maintain strategic alliances with key individuals and groups covering a range of issues relevant to work role

4.3 Incorporate significant cultural practices, needs and traditions into the networking strategy and its development

4.4 Implement strategies to develop effective new networks in consultation with key people and in accordance with organisation objectives

4.5 Make available information about new network to others as appropriate

4.6 Develop and implement processes for engaging relevant community members to collect and disseminate information as appropriate to ensure effective operation of the network

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include knowledge of:

- Community development principles and practices
- The community profile
- Funding sources and their policies and strategies for encouraging community input and participation
- Relevant local, state and federal strategies/legislation
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Depending on the work role or services provided, specific knowledge of particular groups or issues may be required, including:
  - Alcohol and other drugs
  - Cultural and linguistic diversity
  - Risk of self-harm
  - Women
  - Men
  - LGBTI
  - Family and children
  - Young people
  - Community education
  - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
  - Mental health
  - Social Policy and the State
  - Information dissemination
  - Public speaking
  - Using the mass media
  - Ethics
  - Negotiation skills
  - Mechanisms of social action and social change

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate capacity to work strategically in a number of areas to ensure individual concerns are translated into public issues
- Develop and maintain public processes to address common issues
- Work with a wide range of key people or stakeholders in the community

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research
  - project/program evaluation
  - budgeting
  - negotiation
  - liaison
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- networking
- group facilitation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal range of workplace conditions

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to appropriate structures, people or organisations for assessment purposes

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Issues may include:

- Employment
- Housing
- Financial/income support
- Access to education and training
- Health
- Crime prevention
- Social isolation
- Planning public access
- Child care
- Civil and human rights
- Transport and mobility
- Recreation, arts and culture
- Environmental protection

Responses include:

- Establishment of alternative systems and structures
- Working within local bureaucracies
- Advocacy

Operational arrangements include:

- Legal framework for operation
- Funding arrangements
- Models for operation
- Decision-making arrangements
- Baby sitting
- Vouchers
- Location
- Advertising/promotion

Community work methods include:

- Community action
- Advocacy
- Development of self help processes
- Development of infrastructure in the community
- Development of community support
- Development of community programs
- Brokering of institutional systems change
RANGE STATEMENT

Identified outcomes may include:
- New or improved service delivery
- Community projects
- Community planning
- Consultative and planning committees
- Enhanced social capital
- Enhanced community skills
- Enhanced community capacity
- Community facilities
- Policy changes
- Other relevant needs identified by the community or the group

Opportunities for groups to participate include:
- Sector development structures
- Activities at service delivery, program, operative and management levels
- Formal and informal systems
- Promotion
- Support meeting
- Focus groups on relevant issues

Key people may include:
- Advocacy groups
- Policy and decision-makers in the community
- Community leaders
- People with formal and informal representative roles

Resources may include:
- Skills/administrative support
- Physical, transport, venues, material, equipment
- Provision of training
- Financial
- Equipment
- Staff skills and time
- Provision of facilities
- Educational materials
- Funding
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCD618B Facilitate the development of community capacity to manage place

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify, implement and review methods for improving community knowledge and involvement in place management practices using partnership building

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is intended for application within a community work or community development work context

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Research and display the diversity of issues and factors that describe a 'place' | 1.1 Gather and collate demographic data on community
1.2 Identify current and future community support needs
1.3 Identify current and future demand on community resources
1.4 Analyse data to identify the composition, characteristics and planning issues of the local / regional community
1.5 Display information compiled from these activities is and communicate to stakeholders to support future recommendations/actions |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Identify community need for information, skills and opportunities for involvement in place management | 2.1 Identify, research and collate relevant information to assist in the assessment of current community knowledge, skills and opportunities to determine scope of community involvement in a project
2.2 Establish links with community interest groups, government and non-government organisations and agencies and the broader community to scope the community need and skill level and partnership opportunities
2.3 Utilise various mechanisms to engage the community in a working partnership with the agency
2.4 Identify gaps between community expectations and current place management practices/activities
2.5 Identify necessary modifications or improvements to existing place management practices/activities to meet community expectations
2.6 Identify new locations/places which require the implementation of place management practices/activities in the community |
| 3. Identify and assess effectiveness of methods to create and increase community awareness of the agency's role and purpose in managing place | 3.1 Collate and analyse data on the effectiveness of various consultative methods in the context of known community data and place planning objectives
3.2 Develop criteria for determining the range and effectiveness of consultative methods and apply to determine relative opportunities for community consultation
3.3 Apply specialist knowledge and skills to determine the most suitable methods for the identified community and place |
ELEMENT

4. Develop a place plan

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Develop the plan in consultation with the broad community, businesses, other government and non-government agencies and organisations

4.2 Advertise/exhibit the plan and incorporate feedback in accordance with agency policies, protocols and procedures

4.3 Present the plan to key decision-makers for endorsement

4.4 Incorporate amendments from key stakeholders as required

4.5 Disseminate the plan to relevant agency or departmental personnel who will be involved in implementation

4.6 Return the plan to the community for celebration and acknowledgment of completion

5. Manage and review implementation of place plan

5.1 Develop qualitative and quantitative performance measuring processes to be confirmed by the community

5.2 In consultation with the community, regularly collect, analyse and display qualitative and quantitative data to provide accurate measures of implementation performance and progress

5.3 Use information obtained during performance monitoring, both within and outside of the place, to modify and/or further develop the plans implementation program as appropriate

5.4 Ensure the community maintains interest and sense of ownership in implementation of plan

Required Skills and Knowledge

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Comprehensive, appropriate demographic and cultural resource information
- Strategies for involving a diverse community in planning and activities
- Community cultural development philosophy and practice across several art forms
- Community networks
- Council policies, procedures and protocols

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply comprehensive, appropriate demographic and cultural resource information
- Develop and implement strategies for involving a diverse community in planning and activities
- Provide evidence of review processes

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - cross-cultural communication
  - community research
  - qualitative and quantitative data analysis
  - community consultation
  - program planning

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace or simulated case study that encompasses consultation with community groups
  - cultural resources and relevant personnel

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Culture includes:
- Group activities/games
- Dress
- Communication practices
- Language
- Types, styles and significance of artefacts
- Music
- Built and natural environment

Relevant agency or departmental personnel may include:
- Heritage planner
- Town planner
- Environmental officer
- Community service delivery staff
- Parks, gardens and road staff
- Library staff
- Supervisors
- Managers
- Recreation planners

Cultural resources include:
- Community history
- Items in the built and natural environment
- Private and public artistic products
- Cultural practices and facilities
- Ethnic groups
- Age groupings
- Clubs
- Gender groupings
RANGE STATEMENT

Methods for raising awareness include:

- Use of existing systems from other organisations/communities
- Use of expert consultants with relevant skills
- Action learning strategies
- Workshops
- Advertising
- Signage
- Printed materials
- Mass media
- Public education

Links with community interest groups include:

- Formal committees of Council
- Working parties
- Workshops
- Meetings

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCD619B Establish and maintain community, government and business partnerships

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by members of a community group to define, establish and maintain partnerships across sectors to develop community capacity

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is intended for application within a community work or community development work context

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Define opportunities for specific partnerships</td>
<td>1.1 Establish opportunities for contribution to service delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Carry out consultation on the types of partnerships to meet service delivery opportunities within the organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify possible benefits to potential partners</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Invite key stakeholders to comment and contribute to both opportunities and partnership type</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Develop a framework for the partnership

2.1 Promote desired partnership types and partnership opportunities
2.2 Develop a policy on the types of organisations acceptable to partner with
2.3 Identify specific organisations as suitable to approach
2.4 Develop a targeted partnership proposal for each organisation to be approached
2.5 Consult potential partners to develop frameworks that will meet the needs of all partners
2.6 Ensure selected partners establish the characteristics of the partnership
2.7 Ensure confirmed partners agree to the partnership characteristics including structure, scale, roles, goals and timeframes
2.8 Develop measures for success and communicate to stakeholders
2.9 Define an agreed exit strategy

3. Maintain the partnership

3.1 Promote the partnership in the agreed manner
3.2 Undertake regular communication and review with all partners
3.3 Identify, monitor and review challenges facing the partnership
3.4 Seek, communicate, document and review opportunities for learning from the partnership
3.5 Maintain transparency of agendas
3.6 Maintain agreed measurement systems
ELEMENT
4. Evaluate the effectiveness of the partnership

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
4.1 Evaluate the flexibility and appropriateness of responses to challenges facing the partnership
4.2 Evaluate and communicate performance against agreed measures
4.3 Monitor, review and communicate to stakeholders capability to implement the exit strategy
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Mission, values and culture of the organisations targeted for and within the partnership
- Needs of the organisation
- Clarity of 'chain of command' - who will drive the partnership and how it relates to decision-making in the organisations

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Demonstrate strategic communication skills
- Undertake conflict resolution
- Apply skills in strategic planning, including developing objectives, strategies and relevant budgets
- Undertake partnership proposal development
- Identify benefits to potential partners

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - general research
  - interview techniques
  - report writing
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance over contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or
  - simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - equipment and resources normally used in the workplace
  - time (e.g. to establish good relationships)
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment may include:

- Observations
- Questioning
- Evidence gathered from the workplace environment and presented as a portfolio
- Demonstration over a period of time to ensure consistency of performance
- Assessment of a partnership proposal written for a specific partner
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Types of partnerships:
- Partnerships may be between organisations across sectors and may be based on philanthropy, or a combination of resources to achieve common goals in developing community capacity

Partnership opportunities:
- Partnership opportunities are developed by the partners to meet both their needs and the various needs of the communities that they are part of

Framework refers to:
- The framework describes the structure policy and processes of the partnership to best meet stakeholder needs

Measures for success refers to:
- The quantifiable and qualitative goals that the partnership has developed to indicate that its purposes are being achieved

Opportunities for learning refers to:
- Practices of reflection throughout the workings of the partnership to seek opportunities for improvement

Agreed measurement systems refers to:
- The process of measuring the identified success criteria

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCD620B Develop and implement a community renewal plan

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify, develop and implement community renewal strategies

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is intended for application within a community work or community development work context

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Work with the community and other community stakeholders to identify community renewal opportunities | 1.1 Identify stakeholders in the community renewal process
1.2 Conduct research to identify various models of community renewal
1.3 Develop a community profile utilising existing relevant local resources
1.4 Identify the needs of the community through research and consultation |
| 2. Develop a community renewal strategy | 2.1 Develop a community renewal strategy in accordance with the outcomes of identified need
2.2 Establish goals and objectives for projects including criteria to evaluate projects
2.3 Organise a range of opportunities to gain community participation
2.4 Identify relevant community structures and utilise to maximise community renewal outcomes |
ELEMENT

3. Identify and manage resources for community renewal

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Identify and access available resources to ensure the success of community renewal

3.2 Allocate resources within the organisation's budgetary guidelines

3.3 Document use of resources and report to appropriate stakeholders

4. Work with the community and individuals to promote community renewal

4.1 Develop a profile of all potential stakeholders in community renewal

4.2 Assess and obtain resources required to effectively promote community renewal

4.3 Develop promotional materials and make them accessible to all target groups

4.4 Utilise existing networks for promotion of community renewal and develop new ones

4.5 Evaluate and adjust promotional strategies as appropriate

5. Implement community renewal strategies

5.1 Undertake appropriate work to implement operational arrangements which will facilitate community renewal

5.2 Undertake appropriate work to contribute to the development of policies and processes which will facilitate resolution of community concerns in the community renewal process

5.3 Routinely employ effective interpersonal skills to motivate groups to work cooperatively
6. Evaluate effectiveness of community renewal strategies

6.1 Develop performance indicators for community renewal
6.2 Undertake appropriate evaluation of work in consultation with relevant community stakeholders
6.3 Ensure that feedback on the effectiveness of community renewal is collected and provided to the community to enable improvement and change as required
6.4 Ensure all reporting requirements are met in accordance with organisation procedures

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRE SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- The aims, economic and social context of community renewal
- Community renewal principles and practices
- Impact of the cultural and community values within the community
- Community renewal as a social change strategy
- Relevant legislation and public policy
- Relevant networks, people stakeholders
- Social housing policy

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate effective management of community renewal strategies
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate capacity to identify community concerns and develop strategies to address these concerns
- Develop and maintain public processes to address common issues

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Investigate local community information
- Communicate effectively with a broad range of stakeholders
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research and consultation
  - communication
  - cross cultural communication and negotiation
  - analysis of information
  - literacy to prepare promotional materials
  - liaison skills between community and government
  - negotiation skills
  - high level interpersonal interactions

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of
EVIDENCE GUIDE

- Performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - a workplace or to an environment that accurately simulates the workplace
  - appropriate structures, people or organisations for assessment of the ability to work with the community
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Documentation of process and evaluation of a community renewal project
- Observation
- Written assessment
- Case studies
- Evidence of materials developed in the workplace
- Questioning
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders may include but are not limited to:
- Local media
- Government departments
- Community organisations
- Support agencies
- Local business
- Advocacy groups
- Education services and providers
- Cultural organisations
- Employment agencies
- Social clubs
- Local residents/tenants
- Advocacy groups
- Charities
- Philanthropic organisations

Community renewal includes but is not limited to:
- Neighbourhood improvement
- Employment opportunities
- Community infrastructure
- Education and training opportunities
- Small business development opportunities
- Health
- Increased access to facilities, services or decision-making

Implementation strategies may include, but are not limited to:
- Community education
- Lobbying and advocacy
- Developing the capacity of individuals or groups and communities to meet their own needs
- Health promotion
- Development of community resources and facilities
- Strategies to increase access to facilities

Sources of funding may be derived from but not limited to:
- Government grants
- Local council
- Private finance
- Philanthropic organisations
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate communication strategies, values and structures, could include but are not limited to:
- Cultural sensitivity
- Non-judgemental
- Socially inclusive
- Accessible

Approaches to community renewal could include but are not limited to:
- Asset management, property redevelopment, infrastructure improvements
- Improved housing management practice, place management, intensive tenancy management
- Community development, community capacity building, strengthening communities

Resources may include, but are not limited to:
- Administrative support
- Physical, transport, venues, material, equipment
- Financial
- Staff skills and time
- Funding

Promotional strategies could include but are not limited to:
- Leaflets
- Community meetings
- Newsletters
- Social events
- Email
- Websites
- Posters
- Letterboxing

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCDP401B Deliver service consistent with a career development framework

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Unit Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to work within a career development framework when working with a range of clients to provide services related to employment and career development

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit of competency is intended to underpin the delivery of services and provision of information related to employment and career development.

Its application in the workplace should model the learning principles that underpin the Australian Blueprint for Career Development.

This unit of competency may contribute to recognition as an associate career development practitioner in line with the Career Industry Council of Australia standards.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Promote active participation of clients</td>
<td>1.1 Support clients to actively engage in learning relevant to their needs and life stage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Encourage clients to participate in planning to address their current needs, interests and aspirations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Provide support and encouragement to clients involved in their own development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Encourage clients to seek support from others and to provide support to others in appropriate ways</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Assist clients to identify a range of personal, family, social and environmental factors impacting on their career development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Provide an environment to facilitate client learning</td>
<td>2.1 Apply an understanding of learning, adult learning and models of adult learning to facilitate client learning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Identify appropriate learning opportunities to suit a range of learning styles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Identify and support characteristics of individual and group learning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Facilitate learning by seeking to establish an environment of trust with clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Facilitate learning between clients where appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.6 Promote active learning by validating client opinions, values and experiences</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.7 Encourage clients to share information and reflect on their learning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Support clients to handle change</td>
<td>3.1 Clarify the ongoing nature of change and identify benefits in recognising the constancy of change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Assist clients to understand the need for developing resilience in the face of constant change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Identify a range of strategies for managing and developing resilience to change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Assist clients to develop action plans to manage constant change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Provide services relevant to stages in life and career development</td>
<td>4.1 Identify specific characteristics relating to client's current stage of life, personal and professional development and career status</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Support client decision-making and choices in the context of career development as a lifelong journey</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Provide information appropriate to client's personal, professional family and social context</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Identify client needs in relation to development of career management competencies as specified in the Australian Blueprint for Career Development</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
5. Follow up and evaluate services provided

5.1 Follow up client in line with organisation policies and procedures

5.2 Evaluate services provided with reference to accepted career development principles and practices and organisation policies

5.3 Identify issues or inequities in service delivery

5.4 Assist to identify new or improved services where appropriate to enhance service provision and client outcomes

5.5 Provide evidence to assist in service promotion and enhancement
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Broad understanding of principles and practices of career development as outlined in the Australian Blueprint for Career Development (ABCD)
- Broad understanding of key characteristics of stages of human development across the lifespan in relation to approaching life, learning and work effectively in self-directed ways
- Key stages in career development
- Relevant, accurate career development resources and information
- Strategies for managing and developing resilience to change
- Broad understanding of the history of career development practice and implications for current approach and practices
- Awareness of sociological aspects of career development practice, including impact of globalisation
- Key principles of career development, including:
  - Focus on the journey
  - Access your allies
  - Lifelong learning
  - Change is constant
  - Chase your dream
  - Know yourself
- Broad understanding of learning, adult learning and models of adult learning
- Culturally appropriate communication techniques

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Apply career development principles and practices in providing employment and career development services to individuals and groups of clients

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Assist and support clients to:
  - actively engage in own learning
  - participate in planning their own development
  - identify a range of personal, family, social and environmental factors impacting on their career development
  - understand and accept the need for developing resilience in the face of constant change
  - develop action plans to manage change
  - identify existing career competencies (e.g. as per ABCD) and areas for development
  - Facilitate client learning from a range of learning opportunities
  - Promote active learning
  - Identify specific characteristics relating to client's current stage of life, personal and professional development and career status
  - Work cooperatively with colleagues, employers, individuals and the community
  - Obtain feedback on, and evaluation of, services provided
  - Maintain confidentiality
  - Evaluate and improve practice and accountability
  - Apply communication skills that take into account the culture, background and abilities of clients, while demonstrating a knowledge of communication techniques, including:
    - listening and questioning techniques
    - verbal and non-verbal communication skills

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The person being assessed must provide evidence of Essential Knowledge as well as Essential Skills specified in this unit.
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or a simulated workplace environment under the normal range of work conditions.
- Assessment should be conducted on more than one occasion to cover a variety of circumstances to establish consistency.
- Holistic assessment of this unit of competency is encouraged, to ensure application of these skills in conjunction with specific work functions. However, the unit may be delivered and assessed independently.

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities.

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace or simulation that realistically reflects the work environment.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on ‘What if?’ scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a ‘period of time’ and/or in a ‘number of locations’, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Related units:

This unit is recommended to be assessed in conjunction with other units related to provision of services, such as:

- CHCCDP402B Assist clients to plan and access career pathways
- CHCCDP403B Analyse and apply education and training information
- CHCCAR501B Conduct career guidance interview
- CHCES411A Collect, analyse and apply labour market information

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Life stage may include:
- Childhood
- Adolescence
- Adulthood
- Post-retirement

Stages in career development may include:
- Transition from school to work
- Promotion
- Changing career direction
- Periods of unemployment and return to work
- Impacts of differing levels and types and reasons for of underemployment, unemployment, redeployment and redundancy
- Retirement
- Post-retirement employment

Strategies for managing and developing resilience to change may include:
- Recognition of ongoing nature of change
- Enhancing work/life balance
- Develop understanding of reasons for and potential outcomes of change
- Identifying benefits of change as well as potential issues
- Planning to address potential issues

Employment and career development services may include:
- Workplaces
- Vocational rehabilitation settings
- Career information centres
- Adult and community education centres
- Recruitment agencies
- Curriculum development units
- Outplace service settings
- Career development service settings
- Employment service agents
- Schools
- TAFEs
- Universities
- Human resource departments
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients may include:
- Individuals
- Groups

Learning may include:
- Formal training and education
- Informal on-the-job learning
- Informal life learning

Support may include:
- Facilitating client access to relevant information, networks and expertise
- Provision of information
- Initiating and pursuing discussion of relevant issues
- Questioning appropriately
- Appropriate referral

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCDP402B Assist clients to plan and access career pathways

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to assist clients to identify their career aspirations and plan appropriate pathways to support their career development

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit of competency may contribute to recognition as an associate career development practitioner in line with the Career Industry Council of Australia standards

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assist client to identify career aspirations</td>
<td>1.1 Work with client to identify work-related interests, skills, knowledge and values</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Provide information to assist client to identify opportunities and options related to career aspirations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Discuss with client potential impact of career development in the holistic context of their lives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Discuss concepts of change and transition in the context of lifespan career development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Support client to express and validate their beliefs, values and opinions in relation to career development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>---------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2. Identify client requirements to achieve career goals | 2.1 Work with client to identify skills needed to effectively manage identified career development pathway
2.2 Assist client to understand the nature of employability skills and their importance in relation to achieving identified career goals
2.3 Assist client to identify decisions and actions required to pursue and achieve identified career goals
2.4 Work with client to identify their existing career competencies and employability skills and gaps to be addressed
2.5 Explore various employment patterns (part-time; contract; job share) |
| 3. Identify career opportunities and resources | 3.1 Access available and up to date labour market and associated information to support client
3.2 Identify a range of opportunities and options available to clients in relation to achieving career aspirations
3.3 Assist clients to understand and apply labour market information to their work search and career objectives and decision-making
3.4 Assist client to identify education and training opportunities relevant to their interests, skills requirements and potential career pathways
3.5 Encourage client to take an innovative approach to exploring/creating opportunities for work |
ELEMENT 4. Support clients in career planning

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Assist clients to plan career development strategies

4.2 Work with clients to set career development goals, objectives and write action plans

4.3 Support clients to access services and information related to planning career development

4.4 Assist clients to clarify networking opportunities and requirements

4.5 Assist clients to plan and access relevant career development services as required

ELEMENT 5. Assist clients in marketing their skills to employers

5.1 Assist clients to prepare and present career portfolio and other relevant materials to highlight key skills and areas of interest

5.2 Support clients to present themselves effectively to potential employers through telephone and face-to-face interviews

5.3 Support clients to use networking opportunities effectively to market themselves to potential employers

5.4 Assist client to demonstrate relevant generic and specific employability and work-related skills
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 6. Maintain records and information system | 6.1 Document and report information in line with organisation information system requirements
6.2 Participate in desktop audit in line with scope of own role and organisation requirements
6.3 Ensure records are maintained as required to demonstrate accountability in line with scope of own role and organisation requirements
6.4 Ensure documentation aligns with associated system requirements of relevant stakeholder organisations in line with organisation requirements
6.5 Maintain confidentiality of client information and records in line with organisation requirements and privacy legislation
6.6 Maintain security of hard copy and electronic records |
| 7. Follow up and evaluate services provided | 7.1 Follow up client in line with organisation policies and procedures
7.2 Evaluate client satisfaction with career development services provided
7.3 Identify issues or inequities in service delivery
7.4 Assist to identify new or improved services where appropriate to enhance service provision and client outcomes
7.5 Provide evidence to assist in service promotion and enhancement |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Broad understanding of major career development theories
- Concepts of change and transition in the context of lifespan career development
- Employability skills and their application to address employment and career development opportunities and requirements
- Available career development resources and information and associated educational/training opportunities and resources
- Awareness of appropriate career planning services for referral
- Local, regional, national and international labour markets in relation to clients’ career aspirations, skills and needs, and vice versa
- Information technology resources and tools and associated information management strategies
- Record-keeping requirements in case management documentation and the implications of record-keeping, including legal implications
- Security of hard copy and electronic records
- Culturally appropriate communication techniques
- Broad understanding of privacy legislation

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use career development information base to assist individuals and groups to plan career pathways
- Assist clients to clarify:
  - multiple roles to be balanced throughout career development
  - skills needed to effectively manage their careers
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- opportunities and options related to career aspirations
- decisions and actions related to achievement of career goals
- services and resources required to address their needs
- their work-related interests, skills, knowledge and values
- their career development needs in the holistic context of their lives
- own beliefs, values and opinions
- how to access relevant services and information

- Assist clients to:
  - understand and apply labour market information to their work search and career objectives
  - understand occupational health and safety aspects of identified work roles as related to client's individual health issues (e.g. allergies) and preferences
  - increase their probability of success in the work search and to meet employers' expectations
  - identify marketable skills, knowledge and experience
  - tailor an approach to an employer or an employment opportunity
  - enhance the application process
  - understand their competencies and marketable skills
  - clarify networking opportunities and requirements
  - use job search strategies such as self-marketing, using portfolios, personal presentations, job interviews and networking
  - apply skills in self management, self-promotion and self-marketing
  - create their own opportunities
  - expand their search for prospective jobs and identify hidden job markets
  - increase their understanding/awareness of themselves and the impact this awareness has on work searches
  - identify cultural differences in expectations of the job search process
  - increase their self-confidence and self-awareness

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply labour market information to career development processes and client career decision-making
- Maintain, retrieve and interpret information effectively to assist clients
- Work cooperatively with colleagues, employers, individuals and the community

continued ...
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills (contd):

Ability to:

- Assist clients in job search strategies such as addressing selection criteria, assessment centre preparation, use of recruitment agencies, use of online resources, the role of professional associations, the preparation of application forms, letters of application, online application preparation, resume and portfolio preparation
- Maintain own professional development to keep up-to-date in the field and share ideas and techniques that positively impact on clients and colleagues
- Avoid duplication of services for clients where they are involved with other professionals
- Obtain feedback on, and evaluation of, services provided
- Monitor individual client's situation and progress
- Maintain individual confidentiality
- Evaluate and improve practice and accountability
- Apply communication skills that take into account the culture, background and abilities of clients, while demonstrating a knowledge of communication techniques, including:
  - listening and questioning techniques
  - verbal and non-verbal communication skills

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The person being assessed must provide evidence of Essential Knowledge as well as Essential Skills specified in this unit
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or a simulated workplace environment under the normal range of work conditions
- Assessment should be conducted on more than one occasion to cover a variety of circumstances to establish consistency
- Holistic assessment of this unit of competency is encouraged, to ensure application of these skills in conjunction with specific work functions. However, the unit may be delivered and assessed independently.

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities.

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace or simulation that realistically reflects the work environment.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills, and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Career aspirations may include, but are not limited to:
- Goals and objectives in managing life, learning and work over the life span.

Opportunities and options related to career aspirations may include, but are not limited to:
- Employment
- Training and education
- Personal and professional development
- Recreation
- Life style choices
RANGE STATEMENT

Career development strategies may include, but are not limited to:

- Planned program of learning experiences to develop relevant knowledge, skills and attitudes
- Strategies to assist individuals to make informed decisions about their study and/or work options and enable effective participation in working life
- Strategies to foster learning and movement within organisations
- Action plans to implement visions, goals and objectives
- Participation in step by step career development program
- Development of identified career competencies and employability skills
- Strategies to manage contingencies and unexpected life changes

Employment and career development services may include, for example:

- Workplaces
- Vocational rehabilitation settings
- Career information centres
- Adult and community education centres
- Recruitment agencies
- Curriculum development units
- Outplace service settings
- Career development service settings
- Employment service agents
- Schools
- TAFEs
- Universities
- Human resource departments

Client may include, but are not limited to:

- Individuals
- Groups

Marketing materials may include, but are not limited to:

- Career portfolio
- Letters and applications to potential employers
- Work samples
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCDP403B Analyse and apply education and training information

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Unit Descriptor
This unit involves the collection, analysis and application of education and training information to enhance delivery of career information services

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit of competency may contribute to recognition as an associate career development practitioner in line with the Career Industry Council of Australia standards

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Collect education and training information | 1.1 Identify the type of education and training information to be collected
1.2 Identify and access a range of suitable information sources
1.3 Use a range of appropriate methods to collect education and training information
1.4 Provide information that defines relevant characteristics of education and training context
1.5 Confirm currency of education and training information |
| 2. Analyse education and training information | 2.1 Analyse education and training information to identify effects upon future pathways
2.2 Report and discuss results of analysis |
| 3. Develop and apply workable solutions | 3.1 Develop workable solutions on consideration of relevant information and options
3.2 Communicate or implement proposed solutions as required |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Understanding of education and training characteristics on a national, state and local level
- Education and training pathways into key employing industries in local area
- Costs, incentives and other assistance available

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use an appropriate range of education and training data sources to collect information
- Analyse education and training information to determine relevance to current and future pathways
- Apply knowledge of education and training information to planning and problem solving
- Develop/enhance workable solutions through the use of education and training information

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply literacy and numeracy skills to read and understand a variety of texts; prepare education and training pathways plans and enter the information into organisation’s information systems
- Use planning skills to organise information and plan and review work activities
- Use problem solving skills to evaluate options
- Use oral and written communication skills to provide and elicit advice and information
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Apply technology skills to use business equipment and software including use of internet and intranet for research

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The person being assessed must provide evidence of Essential Knowledge as well as Essential Skills specified in this unit
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or a simulated workplace environment under the normal range of work conditions
- Assessment should be conducted on more than one occasion to cover a variety of circumstances to establish consistency

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place, or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - equipment and resources normally used in the workplace

Method of assessment may include:

- Observations
- Questioning
- Project
- Written assignment
- Evidence gathered from the workplace environment

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Education and training information includes, but is not limited to:

- University entry
- Alternative pathways (e.g. portfolio)
- TAFE entry
- Private training providers
- Overseas placements
- VET in Schools
- Systems and sectors e.g. public, AIS, CEO, community, SIDE
- Specialised school programs
- RPL/RCC
- Fast track
- AQF
- Graduate programs
- Internships
- Cadetships
- Vacation programs
- Apprenticeships/traineeships
- Sandwich placements
- Work experience
- Scholarships
- Costs (Fee Help, PELS, FFS)
RANGE STATEMENT

Information sources include, but are not limited to:

- Information available within the organisation
- Publications, industry journals, articles
- Internet websites, such as:
  - www.myfuture.edu.au
- Telephone directories
- Visits to workplaces
- Industry associations e.g. building and construction
- Professional associations e.g AACC, CEAWA
- Employer associations e.g. CCI
- State government departments of employment and training
- Newspaper advertisements
- Community organisations
- University and training facilities
- Career centres
- Expos
- Career information days/evenings
- Job guide
- RECAP file and local equivalents
- Networking

Relevant professional associations and their members for networking and liaising may include but are not limited to:

- Career education associations
- Australian Association of Career Counsellors
- National Association of Graduate Careers Advisory Services (NAGCAS)
- Career Industry Council of Australia (CICA)
- Australian Association of Graduate Employers (AAGE)
- Local community partnerships (LCPs)
- Regional industry career advisers (RICAs)
- Network of industry sector national industry career specialists (NICS)
- Enterprise development networks (EDNs)
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate methods to gather information can include, but are not limited to:

- Use of internet and intranet
- Interviews
- Individual research
- Questioning employers
- Use of libraries
- Publications
- Attendance at meetings, conferences, Career information days/evenings
- Career Expos
- Networking
- Workplace visits

Workable solutions include, but are not limited to:

- Individual Pathways Plans
- Job search planning
- Career plans for individual clients

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCDP501B Liaise with employers to promote flexible work arrangements

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to liaise with employers to develop flexible and innovative work arrangements to address emerging needs and promote a balanced approach to managing pressures and priorities of work and life.

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit of competency may contribute to recognition as an associate career development practitioner in line with the Career Industry Council of Australia standards.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Contribute to analysis of workforce requirements</td>
<td>1.1 Identify current workforce structure, capabilities, skills/knowledge requirements and constraints</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify recognised trends in work requirements for specific industries as required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Clarify issues impacting on workforce in relation to general and specific social, environmental, educational, industrial and other related factors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Contribute appropriate options for workforce planning and development</td>
<td>2.1 Clarify potential benefits of workforce planning to specific employers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Assist employers to identify available and relevant workforce planning options</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Apply a broad knowledge of workforce planning and development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Recommend appropriate flexible and innovative work arrangements to address identified needs of organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Promote options to provide a balanced approach to managing pressures and priorities of work and life</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3. Assist employers to implement changes to work arrangements

3.1 Provide advice to assist employers implementing flexible work arrangements

3.2 Assist employers to take a problem solving approach when addressing issues arising in implementing changes to work arrangements

3.3 Assist employer to monitor effectiveness of change

4. Evaluate effectiveness of workforce change

4.1 Follow up employer/client organisation in line with organisation policies and procedures

4.2 Evaluate effectiveness of changes to work arrangements

4.3 Identify issues, challenges and obstacles to implementation of workforce planning and development

4.4 Assist employer to improve work arrangements where appropriate to enhance outcomes for key stakeholders
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include:

- Working knowledge of workforce planning, including:
  - the purpose and potential benefits of effective workforce planning
  - links between workforce planning, development and education
  - available tools and models available to assist workforce planning
  - an understanding of how workforce planning integrates with service, financial and business planning
  - a broad knowledge of current and projected impact on workforce planning of a range of social, educational, industrial, environmental and related factors
  - working knowledge of the options and constraints that exist in relation to workforce development and their potential impacts
  - working knowledge of the resource requirements to implement workforce changes
  - working knowledge of how to measure, evaluate and revise implementation of a workforce plan
  - how to access reliable information to guide and support workforce planning
- Relevant legislative and regulatory requirements related to workforce planning and employment
- Understanding of local, regional and national requirements, drivers and policy implications that may impact workforce planning
- Culturally appropriate communication techniques
- A range of flexible and innovative approaches to workforce planning

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Access information on the demographics of the labour market relevant to specific
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Employers/organisations
- Apply appropriate tools and models to assist workforce planning
- Work with employers to clarify:
  - Existing and emerging new roles and ways of working in their industry
  - Internal and external forces for change that may affect work in their industry/sector
  - Potential for changing the skills mix within an organisation to achieve identified outcomes
  - Potential impacts of workforce development on services, staff, clients and related business outcomes
  - Key stakeholders likely to be affected by workforce changes and appropriate strategies to communicate with them and promote planned changes
  - Skills/knowledge requirements, including employability skills
- Access relevant information to guide and support workforce planning

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply communication skills that take into account the culture, background and abilities of clients, while demonstrating a knowledge of communication techniques, including:
  - Listening and questioning techniques
  - Verbal and non-verbal communication skills

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The person being assessed must provide evidence of Essential Knowledge as well as Essential Skills specified in this unit
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or a simulated workplace environment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

under the normal range of work conditions
- Assessment should be conducted on more than one occasion to cover a variety of circumstances to establish consistency
- Holistic assessment of this unit of competency is encouraged, to ensure application of these skills in conjunction with specific work functions. However, the unit may be delivered and assessed independently

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in the community services industry should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace or simulation that realistically reflects the work environment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Workforce may include:

- Full time and part time employees
- Casual workers
- Contract workers
- Trainees and apprentices
- Volunteers

Workforce planning aims to ensure an organisation:

- Has the right people, in the right place, with the right capabilities at the right time
RANGE STATEMENT

Workforce development organisations may include:
- Recruitment agencies
- Employment placement agencies
- Social service agencies
- Vocational rehabilitation centres
- Transition services

Workforce development agency stakeholders may include:
- Customers (current, past, and potential)
- Agency employees
- Community groups
- Education and training providers
- Employer, industry and professional associations
- Unions
- Government agencies

Flexible and innovative work arrangements may include:
- Work hours arrangements
- Payment arrangements, including superannuation
- Leave arrangements
- Rewarding and inspiring good performance
- Addressing specific workplace issues, such as:
  - working conditions and policies
  - customer service standards
  - confidentiality
  - safety
  - work from home
  - work and family initiatives
  - use of private/company vehicles

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCDP701A Manage quality in career development practice

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply current best practice case management principles and standards in the specific context of career development practice

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit applies to high level career development practice

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Address professional case management standards</td>
<td>1.1 Maintain practice in accordance with professional standards for case management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify strategies for continuous improvement mechanisms relating to case management practice and integrate into work systems</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Implement improvement processes that reflect current research related to practice performance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Take available opportunities to promote best practice in case management delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Evaluate work outcomes to ensure maintenance of accountability to clients and employers</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Contribute to workforce analysis, planning and development

2.1 Investigate and analyse issues impacting on workforce in relation to general and specific social, environmental, educational, industrial and other related factors

2.2 Monitor trends and changes in workforce structure, capabilities, skills/knowledge requirements and constraints

2.3 Liaise and work with employers where appropriate to review the application of a range of workforce planning and development strategies

2.4 Promote appropriate flexible/innovative work arrangements to provide a balanced approach to managing pressures and priorities of work and life

3. Maintain quality service provision

3.1 Provide and promote quality career development services in line with professional standards

3.2 Work with clients to identify, understand and implement career management strategies of their choice and in their best interest

3.3 Support clients to maintain and develop ongoing application of career management strategies and ability to access and understand career information

3.4 Improve services in response to user feedback and to reflect ongoing professional development, research and learning
ELEMENT
4. Maintain quality and currency of information and networks
  4.1 Conduct ongoing research into the application of career development theory in practice
  4.2 Maintain currency of information and information sources in relation to the labour market and associated educational and training opportunities and resources
  4.3 Research, use and be able to advise clients about information technology options to access labour market and educational and training information
  4.4 Establish, maintain and expand networks and collaborative partnerships as a basis for providing clients with best practice service delivery and referral options

5. Target services to address specific client needs
  5.1 Develop strategies and practices to ensure services address the needs of individuals and groups from a range of cultural, social, economic and ethnic/minority backgrounds
  5.2 Develop own skills base and network support to ensure services provided can address the needs of persons with a range of physical and intellectual disabilities
  5.3 Develop own knowledge and skills base relating to providing counselling support for clients where necessary to address issues relating to challenging life situations and transitions
  5.4 Develop and maintain professional network for referral purposes
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Professional standards and guiding principles underpinning career development practice and case management
- Relevant legislative and regulatory requirements
- Current extensive knowledge of labour market and educational/training opportunities and available resources
- Workforce development issues, trends and constraints

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Maintain up-to-date knowledge of labour market and education/training information, information sources and related information technology
- Apply best practice standards in case management in relation to career development practice
- Contribute to workforce analysis, planning and development
- Monitor and maintain quality of service provision in career development practice
- Establish and maintain networks to support quality service delivery
- Target services to address specific needs of a diverse client base, including clients with a disability, culturally diverse clients groups, clients from a range of socioeconomic backgrounds, clients at varying life and career stages
- Provide effective referral services for client with needs outside own scope of practice

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE
These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - mentoring and coaching
  - consultation
  - research and analysis
  - report writing
  - liaison with other service providers, referral agencies, professional associations

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include both the development and promotion of best practice
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or realistic simulation of workplace setting

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Guiding principles underpinning career development include:

- Professional standards for Australian career development practitioners
- Australian Blueprint for Career Development
- Guidelines for career development services and career information

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCED311A Provide sexual and reproductive health information to clients

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to communicate with and provide information to others in the area of sexual and reproductive health in one to one or small group environments

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is intended for application in a range of community service work and client education contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Maximise personal effectiveness</td>
<td>1.1 Participate in personal and professional development activities to ensure own attitudes and values are identified</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Demonstrate an understanding of the impact of own values and attitudes on client service delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Participate in appropriate skills development activities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Develop and implement strategies which enable delivery of a service to clients that ensures attitudes and values are not imposed on clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Demonstrate acceptance of human rights and responsibilities in line with own work role</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHCDES311A Provide sexual and reproductive health information to clients

Date this document was generated: 31 March 2017

© Commonwealth of Australia, 2017

SkillsIQ
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Employ appropriate techniques with clients</td>
<td>2.1 Ensure all interactions with clients demonstrate respect and dignity for their rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Employ a range of non-verbal and verbal techniques to ensure own attitudes and values are not communicated to or imposed on clients and clients feel their attitudes and values are respected</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Provide referrals in situations where own personal and professional abilities do not match client needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Apply an appropriate model of sexuality development in assessing clients needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Provide information about relevant legal issues in appropriate situations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.6 Operate in accordance with legal obligations to ensure compliance with duty of care obligations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.7 Develop and implement strategies which facilitate clients to express their own attitudes and values</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Provide information about sexual and reproductive health</td>
<td>3.1 Undertake planning to ensure client needs will be met by the information to be provided</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Provide sexuality information in a non-judgemental way</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Ensure clients are provided with appropriate information which is age and culturally appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Routinely evaluate the effectiveness of the information offered and review approach and activities accordingly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.5 Provide appropriate and relevant resources and materials to maximise effectiveness of information and ensure clients are provided with accurate information to enable them to maintain their sexual health</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Own personal and social values and attitudes and their potential impact on information provision
- A positive self-esteem and self-concept
- Knowledge of community resources and organisations
- Basic knowledge and understanding of sexuality development across the lifespan, including:
  - anatomy and physiology of human sexuality
  - sexual function and dysfunction
  - pregnancy, birth and contraception
  - reproductive and sub-fertility issues
  - STIs, HIV and safer sex issues
  - sexuality events in the life cycle

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide appropriate information about sexual and reproductive health in a non-judgemental manner
- Communicate about sexuality effectively and comfortably

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Create a positive learning environment and practise basic skills in group facilitation
- Prepare and provide appropriate information about sexual and reproductive health to address needs of individual and groups of clients
- Work with cultural diversity
- Work with parents and young people
- Apply language, literacy and numeracy competence appropriate to the work role

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment of this competency will require human resources consistent with those outlined in the Assessment Guidelines

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Impact of attitudes and values may be via:

- Body language
- Verbal
- Choice of contact
- Choice of activities
- Structure of group dynamics

Attitudes and values include in relation to:

- Sexual orientation
- Sexuality and ageing
- Sexuality and disability
- Sexual harassment

Evaluate refers to:

- Client survey instruments
- Seeking verbal feedback and affirmation from clients
- Follow up interviews with clients, their family and carers
RANGE STATEMENT

Information may be provided as part of education programs relating to, for example:

- HIV
- Hepatitis
- Sexually transmitted infections
- Safe sex practices
- Human reproduction
- Pregnancy
- Contraception
- Sexual health
- Relationships and intimacy

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCED511A Develop, implement and review sexual and reproductive health education programs

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to develop, deliver and evaluate sexual and reproductive health education programs

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is intended for application in a range of community service work and client education contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify community issues relating to sexuality and sexual health and well being</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.1 Access and interpret community demographics, social trends and indicators</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Analyse community access to health resources</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Consider preventative strategies for community health and well being</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4 Access policy directions and legal requirements to ensure currency</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5 Review social support networks for groups presenting with issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Provide a positive learning environment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1 Review own attitudes and values in relation to sexual and reproductive health and the impact they have on providing an effective education program</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2 Model the application of social justice principles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.3 Structure learning programs to demonstrate valuing of diversity and individual choice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 3. Design educational program to meet identified needs | 3.1 Assess the need for education in the areas of sexuality and sexual health to address specific target group needs
3.2 Plan the method of delivery to meet the specific needs that have been assessed, such as small group or one to one education
3.3 Design programs that are culturally inclusive from a broad range of perspective
3.4 Utilise learning strategies and resources to enhance feelings of mutual respect that reflect the responsibilities of staff
3.5 Develop strategies that facilitate clients to explore their own values and beliefs around sexuality
3.6 Respond to issues of disclosure and privacy according to organisation policies and procedures |
| 4. Evaluate program delivery and effectiveness | 4.1 Measure changes in target group awareness of methods to improve sexual health and compare to the base line need
4.2 Access input from other service providers in the broad area of sexuality and sexual health to determine trends in behaviour
4.3 Access feedback from participants in the course or from one to one session and analyse it for improvement opportunities
4.4 Consider possible impact of broader social and policy issues as part of course evaluation and revision
4.5 Review and improve upon course documentation |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Community demographics, social trends and indicators
- Social justice principles
- Current organisation policy in relation to sexual and reproductive health initiatives and associated legal requirements
- Demonstrated awareness of own personal and social values and attitudes and their impact on education program development and delivery
- Knowledge of community resources and organisations
- Knowledge and understanding of:
  - the anatomy and physiology of human sexuality
  - sexual function and dysfunction
  - pregnancy, birth and contraception
  - reproductive and sub-fertility issues
  - STIs, HIV and safer sex issues
  - sexuality events in the life cycle
  - sexuality development across the lifespan
  - sexual assault and harassment
  - sexual identity and orientation
  - legal and ethical issues in sexuality
  - sexuality and disability
  - sexuality in cultural contexts
- Effective sexuality education
- Sexual health promotion and policy

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Access and interpret available information to determine:
  - community demographics, social trends and indicators
  - community access to health resources
  - appropriate preventative strategies for community health and well being
  - relevant community support networks to address presenting sexual and reproductive health issues
- Assess the need for education in sexuality and sexual health
- Plan education program to address identified needs, using appropriate learning strategies and resources

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Facilitate client exploration of their values and beliefs around sexuality
- Respond to issues of disclosure and privacy according to organisation policies and procedures
- Evaluate program delivery and effectiveness and revise program accordingly
- Structure learning programs to demonstrate valuing of diversity and individual choice
- Provide sexuality education in a non-judgemental manner
- Demonstrate understanding of own attitudes and values and impact on services
- Create a positive learning environment and practice basic group work skills
- Develop, implement and evaluate sexuality education programs
- Work with a range of communities, groups and individuals

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance over contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment of this competency will require human resources consistent with those outlined in the Assessment Guidelines
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Impact of own attitudes and values may be via:

- Body language
- Verbal
- Choice of contact
- Choice of activities
- Structure of group dynamics
RANGE STATEMENT

Attitudes and values include in relation to:
- Sexual orientation
- Sexuality and ageing
- Sexuality and disability
- Sexual harassment

Education program includes those related to:
- HIV
- Hepatitis
- Sexually transmitted infections
- Safe sex practices
- Human reproduction
- Pregnancy
- Contraception
- Sexual health

Evaluation includes:
- Client survey instruments
- Seeking verbal feedback and affirmation from clients
- Follow up interviews with clients, their family and carers

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCEL401C Work effectively in a celebrancy role

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCEL401B Work effectively in a celebrancy role</td>
<td>CHCCEL401C Work effectively in a celebrancy role</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by celebrants to work effectively in the celebrancy context

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit is suitable for individuals seeking to work in a range of celebrancy contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Work within the role of the celebrant | 1.1 Demonstrate respect for the powerful role of symbolism and ritual in honouring and celebrating life events
1.2 Work with understanding of the celebrancy role:
   - in developing and delivering ceremonies to address wishes and values of clients in a non-judgemental way
   - historical evolution of the role
   - in religious and secular contexts
   - as possible career path for a range of occasions
1.3 Work as a resource and adviser to assist clients identify ways to express their values and ideals in relation to the ceremony to be performed
1.4 Prepare each ceremony individually in consultation with the client
1.5 Encourage clients to express themselves seriously through ceremony, and to strengthen values, ideals and relationships
1.6 Provide advice and information to clients to support their contribution to and participation in the ceremony/ritual
1.7 Advise clients of current legislative and regulatory requirements applying to particular ceremonies
1.8 Work with understanding of the purpose of participation in ceremony in the lives of individuals, groups and communities |
ELEMENT

2. Plan ceremony

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Work in collaboration with client/s to determine key parameters for ceremony to address client needs and preferences

2.2 Plan, research and write content of ceremony and seek client feedback as a basis for confirming approach and content and/or making improvements

2.3 Convey to clients understanding of multicultural contributions to, and the place of art and culture in ceremony

2.4 Plan rehearsal/s as required and alternative or back-up arrangements

2.5 Seek external input as required to develop, or acquire resources to address client preferences and cultural background

2.6 Ensure planned ceremony is sensitive to client’s social, cultural and linguistic needs, values and ideals

2.7 Ensure planned ceremony addresses relevant legislative and regulatory requirements

2.8 Put in place contingency plans including backup arrangements should the celebrant be unavoidably prevented from performing the ceremony

2.9 Ensure planning addresses relevant safety provisions in line with work health and safety (WHS) requirements, including hazard assessment and risk management
3. Organise ceremony

3.1 Conduct rehearsal/s as required in accordance with pre-arranged plans and agreements
3.2 Manage venue and time arrangements to meet the needs of the clients
3.3 Confirm roles of ceremony participants or of other service providers
3.4 Facilitate orderly progression of the ceremony, as agreed with client/s
3.5 Ensure professional presentation of ceremony as agreed with client
3.6 Organise and use appropriate resources to achieve an effective presentation
3.7 Complete associated documentation and store and/or forward appropriately

4. Perform public or private ceremony

4.1 Apply understanding of the role of public and private ceremony in the community
4.2 Use appropriate presentation style in line with needs of client and purpose of ceremony
4.3 Adapt presentation style to suit the size and nature of the venue, including outdoor venues
4.4 Ensure presentation style matches audience characteristics
4.5 Make effective use of resources and presentation aids where appropriate to enhance the ceremony
4.6 Interact effectively with participants and the audience to engage them in the ceremony as agreed with client
4.7 Use appropriate public speaking techniques, ensuring there is a clear beginning and closing to the ceremony
ELEMENT

5. Undertake administration relevant to celebrancy work

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Establish, organise, maintain and review a resource file and/or database of ceremony related information and practices

5.2 Identify the resources and equipment required to establish a celebrancy service/ small business

5.3 Maintain securely and manage client documentation relating to the ceremony and communications with the client

5.4 Utilise effective administrative skills to collect and store documentation

5.5 Apply open, honest and effective invoicing procedures as appropriate
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Awareness of the history of ritual and ceremony, including both religious and secular focus
- Function and importance of ritual (ceremony/group support) and story telling times of change, and in particular human life stages from birth to death
- Broad understanding of the role of the celebrant in Australian culture in 21st century
- Structure and function of ceremony and role of celebrant
- The public role and legal importance of different kinds of ceremony
- Recognition of range of ritual and ceremonial expression across different cultures
- Understanding of how ceremonies signpost a culture
- Benefits of ceremony and ritual to society
- Art and craft in the delivery of ceremony
- Broad knowledge of stages of human development and psychology of change
- Understanding of importance in relation to celebrancy of:
  - client centred focus
  - ethical and moral issues
  - distinctions between religious and civil ceremony content i.e. Church vs State issues
- Legal and practical information, such as:
  - Awareness of Commonwealth, State and Territory discrimination laws
  - Detailed knowledge of responsibilities in accepting a statutory declaration (Statutory Declarations Act 1959)
  - Copyright Act (1968) especially applicability of the use of material in ceremonies
  - Understanding that celebrants have an obligation to protect privacy and maintain confidentiality (Privacy Act 1988)
  - Understanding of obligations relevant to operating as a celebrant within the Trade Practices Act (Trade Practices Act 1974)
  - Understanding and awareness of cultural rights, multicultural contributions, and the place of the arts in culture and ceremony
  - Understanding of and committed attitude to ongoing professional development
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Conflict of interest issues in a celebrancy role
- Resources and associated costs required to establish, support and maintain a celebrancy service/home based small business, including:
  - insurance (public liability, professional indemnity, accident and other)
  - professional association membership
  - professional development
- Current knowledge of WHS issues and management of potential emergency situations as they apply to the celebrancy work role and range of work environments, including:
  - legal requirements relating to WHS
  - basic hazard identification procedures such as venue/environmental inspections and review of associated safety information and procedures
  - principles of basic risk assessment
  - hierarchy of control and its application in risk management
  - processes for raising WHS issues, reporting hazards, incidents and injuries and WHS issue resolution
  - potential emergency situations, alarms and signals and appropriate response

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Conduct an effective ceremony including use of additional materials
- Facilitate ceremonies in a manner that demonstrates cultural and social respect
- Incorporate visual and performing arts in ceremony and ritual appropriately in a manner that addresses client needs
- Manage ceremonies consistent with the celebrant's responsibility towards the value of ceremony, ritual and symbolism
- Personalise a ceremony or ritual to address specific identified client needs
- Research internet and other sources for ceremony and celebrant related information and resources and support

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Adhere to all required legislation
- Deliver the agreed format and content of the ceremony
- Determine and understand client needs and assist clients to feel at ease
- Determine content for ceremony, distinguishing between appropriate religious and civil ceremony content in line with client requirements
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate effective communication skills, including:
  - speaking in public
  - speaking in a firm, diplomatic and culturally appropriate manner
  - provide clear information, listen to and understand the needs of clients, and clarify ceremony instructions
  - maintain awareness of and sensitivity to clients needs (e.g. demonstrate sensitivity to issues of ethnic, religious beliefs, cultural background, language levels, personal capabilities of clients)
  - confirm procedures with translator as necessary

Ability to:

- Complete essential legal documents accurately
- Consider and provide appropriate acknowledgement of 'First Australians' and/ or 'Welcome to Country' and any other persons or groups relevant to the place and provision of the ceremony
- Demonstrate language and literacy competence, including:
  - literacy competence to satisfactorily fulfil the role of a celebrant including the ability to interpret legal requirements
  - using appropriate ritual and symbols in ceremony
  - language competence to provide clear information, listen to and understand the needs of clients and clarify ceremony instructions
  - succinct and clear written expression, in a style that addresses its purpose and suits audience needs
- Demonstrate effective presentation skills, including:
  - presenting materials for ceremony professionally
  - controlling assembly of clients and guests with discretion
  - projecting voice effectively before an audience
  - demonstrating discretion in terms of any perceived or actual disruption during ceremony
  - conducting ceremony with flow and continuity
  - demonstrating respect and courtesy to clients, guests and other participants (i.e. photographer, musicians, translator) before, during and following the ceremony
  - conveying an attitude of professionalism and compassion
  - using effective problem solving skills to clarify any legal or other business issues arising
- Demonstrate management and administrative skills, including:
  - using effective techniques for monitoring own service area including client satisfaction
  - applying numeracy skills including satisfactory record-keeping
  - providing honest and open information re fees and monies refundable and in what circumstances
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- ensuring arrival at venue at agreed time
- Provide ceremony resources that are varied, presentable and well maintained
- Refer persons to appropriate authority for further information
- Research, develop and maintain a data base of appropriate poetry, prose, symbols, music, ceremony accessories, and other ceremony content for a range of ceremonies and clients
- Recognise and act upon opportunities to enhance sustainability
- Use celebrant support services such as Attorney-General's Department, state and territory registries of births, deaths and marriages, celebrant associations or religious affiliations as appropriate
- Use verbal and non-verbal skills to initiate and sustain participant engagement
- Work with culturally diverse people in a 'celebrancy' context and demonstrate understanding of the role of various kinds of ceremony such as marriage or funeral ceremonies, in different cultural contexts
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- For aspiring marriage celebrants, this unit is most appropriately assessed by the observation of a simulated meeting with client and simulated ceremony or through role play and the completion and submission of documents
- Assessment for this unit needs to ensure that individuals can demonstrate an understanding of the role, legal status, nature and importance of different types of ceremonies and the impact of these separate factors on their role as a celebrant
- For existing marriage celebrants choosing to be assessed against the competencies, this unit is most appropriately assessed prior to and during the conduct of a marriage ceremony and the completion and submission of completed documents
- Assessment should enable assessment of response to a diverse range of clients in a range of situations
- A diversity of assessment tasks is essential for holistic assessment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit may include access to:
  - relevant or appropriately simulated environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation, guidelines and range of required documentation

Method of assessment:
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of client interview
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of ceremony
- Evidence of completion of documentation if required
- Evidence of the appropriate use of ceremony and symbolism
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Key parameters for ceremony may include, but are not limited to:

- Civil or religious focus
- Content of ceremony, such as:
  - Poetry/prose
  - Music/songs
  - Visual presentations
  - Prayer and/or meditation
- Duration and timing
- Involvement of participants
- Location/setting/venue
- Purpose of ceremony
- Rehearsal and back-up requirements to address contingencies
- Type of ceremony, such as:
  - citizenship
  - commitment
  - corporate ceremonies
  - funeral
  - house blessing
  - marking special birthdays
  - marriage
  - naming
  - renewal of vows
  - retirement
RANGE STATEMENT

Prepare each ceremony may include but is not limited to:
- Develop a structure for the ceremony, including:
  - orchestrating positioning and movement of participants and guests
  - determining detail and sequence of elements of the ceremony
- Select and/or create content and integrate into ceremony, including:
  - reading or recitation of poetry/prose
  - music/songs
  - visual presentations
  - prayer and/or meditation
  - movement/dance
- Identify appropriate them and style of presentation
- Research internet and other sources for ceremony content

Presentation of ceremony may include:
- Accurate and professional presentation of content according to plan
- Facilitation of ceremony participants and/or other service providers to perform their roles
- Orderly progression of ceremony, as agreed with clients
- Personal presentation to be in line with client needs and purpose of ceremony, including:
  - voice
  - clothing
  - persona
  - etiquette
  - public speaking

Audience characteristics may include:
- Age range
- Number of people in audience
- Social, cultural and language background of audience members

Conflict of interest issues in a celebrancy role refer to:
- 'Conflict of interest' provisions applying to the appointment of marriage celebrants
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor: This unit describes the knowledge required to be developed and maintained by marriage celebrants to fulfil their legal responsibilities under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963, including the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants. It is a pre-requisite for enrolment in all other units of competency specific to marriage celebrancy.

Application of the Unit

Application: This unit is mandatory for individuals aspiring to be appointed as marriage celebrants and suitable for existing marriage celebrants registered under Subdivision C of Division 1 of Part IV of the Marriage Act 1961.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite
This unit must be assessed after achievement of related unit:
- CHCCEL401A Work effectively in a celebrancy role

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Address legal requirements to work as a marriage celebrant | 1.1 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of the responsibilities and obligations of a marriage celebrant under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963
1.2 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of available family relationship services as required under the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants |
ELEMENT

2. Demonstrate understanding of provisions of the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963 regarding marriage in Australia

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of the provisions of the Marriage Act and Marriage Regulations that apply to marriage in Australia

2.2 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of the requirements for marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963

2.3 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of local relationship support services available to marrying couples

2.4 Work with a demonstrated accurate knowledge of the documents required for marriage

2.5 Demonstrate understanding of the marriage celebrant's obligation to forward specific documents to the appropriate registering authority to enable the registration of the marriage following the ceremony
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Marriage Act:
  - knowledge of the obligations and responsibilities of a marriage celebrant according to the Marriage Act and Marriage Regulations and Code of Practice
  - knowledge of all documentation which must be sighted before a marriage can take place
  - knowledge of offences under the Marriage Act

- Other Legislation
  - general knowledge of aspects of Commonwealth Migration, Privacy, Trade Practices, Commonwealth Statutory Declarations and Copyright Acts relevant to performing the role of a marriage celebrant
  - awareness of Commonwealth discrimination laws as well as those in each state and territory
  - knowledge of the processes and procedures of State/territory Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages

- Statutory Declarations Act 1959 (Cwlth):
  - detailed knowledge of responsibilities in accepting a Commonwealth Statutory Declaration

- Migration Act 1958:
  - broad understanding of immigration laws and the issues that may arise for parties who do not have permanent residency status and wish to marry
  - awareness that marriage does not automatically give permanent residency

- Copyright Act 1968 especially applicability of the use of material in ceremonies

- Privacy Act 1988
  - understanding that celebrants have an obligation to protect privacy and maintain confidentiality

- Trade Practices Act 1974
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- understanding of obligations relevant to operating as a marriage celebrant within the Trade Practices Act; and
- knowledge of where to locate relevant information
- Marriage/relationship education services - knowledge of pre-marriage and other relationship education services
- Knowledge of sources of legal and practical information

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Comply with all obligations and responsibilities under the Marriage Act
- Adhere to all required legislation
- Provide information about the availability of relationship education services
- Explain the key features of the Marriage Act 1961
- Accurately complete essential legal documents
- Locate the relevant information for other state/territory legislation as required (such as local government parks and gardens, State and Territory registering authorities)

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Refer persons to appropriate authority for further information
- Provide ceremony resources that are varied, presentable and well maintained
- Demonstrate language and literacy competence, including:
  - literacy competence to satisfactorily fulfil the role of a marriage celebrant including the ability to interpret legal requirements and Commonwealth policies and procedures
  - language competence to convey legal requirements to marrying couples

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The individual being assessed must demonstrate a thorough and accurate understanding of the legal requirements for marriage [Note: minimal competence is not adequate as the consequences for couples of the celebrant making errors are serious]
- The individual being assessed must demonstrate their ability to transcribe accurately names and other personal details (both electronically and by hand) to a range of marriage forms and certificates [Note: total accuracy is required as marrying couples have to pay registering authorities to have celebrants' errors corrected]
- A diversity of assessment tasks is essential for holistic assessment

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit must be assessed independently.
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - relevant or appropriately simulated environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation, guidelines, Code of Practice, and range of required documentation

Method of assessment:

- The individual being assessed must provide written evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- In establishing that competency has been achieved in this unit, written assessment must include a variety of circumstances and scenarios to ensure that the student can apply the legal requirements to a variety of practical circumstances
- Evidence during process for assessment of accurate completion of required documentation prior to ceremony and correct finalising of documents for forwarding to Registry Office following ceremony
- Evidence of knowledge of all elements of Code of Practice and Marriage Act and its Regulations

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance.

Please note: There are no local or contextual variations for this unit. The following points apply in ALL contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Responsibilities and obligations of a marriage celebrant under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963

Marriage Act 1961:
- Categories of marriage celebrant
- Register of marriage celebrants
- Requirements for registration, including the fit and proper person test
- Criteria for fit and proper person test
- Process of consideration of applications and registration
- Obligations of marriage celebrants
- Ongoing professional development
- Performance reviews
- Circumstances in which disciplinary measures can be taken against a marriage celebrant
- Disciplinary measures that may be taken against a marriage celebrant
- Review of decisions of the Registrar of Marriage Celebrants
- Complaints against marriage celebrants

Marriage Regulations 1963:
- Qualifications and skills required by applicants
- The application form and documents of notification
- Requirements for ongoing professional development for marriage celebrants
- Matters the Registrar of Marriage Celebrants must take into account in conducting a performance review
- The operation of the complaints process
- The Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants

Requirements for marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 include:
- What marriage is under Australian law
- Who may marry
- Requirements for a valid marriage
- Instances in which marriage may not take place e.g. surprise marriages, prohibited relationships, no evidence of termination of previous marriage, party under the minimum age for marriage
- Requirements in the case of marriages in which one party is aged between 16 and 18

continued ...
RANGE STATEMENT

Requirements for marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 (contd):

- When and where marriages may take place
- Correct completion of the Notice of Intended Marriage
- Recording of names on marriage documents
- Witnessing of signatures on the Notice of Intended Marriage - when signed in Australia and when signed overseas
- Evidence of the date and place of birth of parties to a proposed marriage (evidence required when parties born in Australia and born overseas)
- Evidence of the end of a previous marriage of a party to a proposed marriage (evidence required for previous marriages conducted in Australia and overseas)
- Evidence of the identity of parties to a proposed marriage
- Completion of declarations of capacity to marry
- Documents required to be given to marrying couples
- Completion of Form 16 and Form 15 marriage certificates and Form 14 declarations
- Record-keeping requirements for the Form 15 marriage certificate
- Use of interpreters
- Requirements relating to Commonwealth statutory declarations
- Requirements for those coming to Australia from overseas to marry
- Shortening of time for notice of an intended marriage
- Requirements for witnesses to the marriage
- Offences under the Marriage Act
- Legal content required in a marriage ceremony
- The legal differences between a religious and a non-religious (or civil) marriage ceremony
- The legal differences between requirements for ministers of religion and those marriage celebrants who are not
- Requirement to forward specific documents to the registering authority within 14 days of the ceremony
RANGE STATEMENT

Requirements for marriage under the Marriage Regulations 1963 include:

- Circumstances for shortening of the notice time for an intended marriage
- Required forms
- Completion and retention of forms

Requirements of the Code of Practice and other relevant legislation include:

- Legal requirements of the Code of Practice including:
  - knowledge of a variety of family relationship services available to enhance and sustain couples throughout their relationship
- Other relevant legislation including:
  - anti-discrimination legislation
  - trade practices and fair trading legislation
  - copyright
  - local government requirements e.g. parks and gardens
  - registration requirements in the relevant state and/or territory

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCEL403A Develop an effective relationship with a marrying couple

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by marriage celebrants to communicate with and develop appropriate relationships with marrying couples

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is mandatory for individuals aspiring to be appointed as marriage celebrants and suitable for existing marriage celebrants registered under Subdivision C of Division 1 of Part IV of the Marriage Act 1961

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite
This unit of competency must be assessed after achievement of related unit:

- CHCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Communicate effectively with a marrying couple</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.1 Apply effective communication skills to provide the marrying couple with accurate information about the marriage ceremony and associated legal requirements and to identify their needs and preferences about the ceremony</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Ensure personal communication style with marrying couple is diplomatic, culturally appropriate and compliant with Federal, State and Territory discrimination legislation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Use well developed and empathic listening skills while avoiding adopting a role as a counsellor or educator to the couple</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4 Convey to couples an understanding of cultural rights, multicultural contributions and the place of the arts in culture and ceremony</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5 Ensure appropriate facilities are used to conduct interviews with marrying couples</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Address issues and problems in relating to a marrying couple

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Use effective negotiation and conflict resolution skills to resolve differences with the couple

2.2 Facilitate access to translation and interpreting services if required

2.3 Use the services of a translator and/or interpreter as required in planning and/or conducting a marriage ceremony

2.4 Develop an effective working relationship with the marrying couple and identify any additional resources required to enhance the marriage ceremony

2.5 Adopt a problem-solving approach to working with a marrying couple

2.6 Manage issues and disruptions in planning and conducting the marriage ceremony and display empathy in working with others

2.7 Identify and manage differences in needs of marrying couple, including differences between religious and non-religious circumstances

2.8 Deal with difficult people and/or situations in a calm manner aiming to resolve issues
ELEMENT  | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
---|---
3. Provide information about family relationship services | 3.1 Convey information to couples at an appropriate time, in an appropriate manner and in line with the Marriage Act 1961

3.2 Explain to the marrying couple the purpose of the marriage celebrant's obligation to provide information about family relationship services under the Marriage Act 1961

3.3 Identify the information about family relationship services a marriage celebrant must be able to provide to a marrying couple

3.4 Maintain currency of information about family relationship services

3.5 Explain to the couple the proper role of the marriage celebrant

3.6 Identify special provisions for ministers of religion and their relationship with the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants
ELEMENT

4. Discuss administrative issues with the couple

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Explain the marriage celebrant's role in ensuring the privacy and confidentiality of the parties

4.2 Explain documentation and record-keeping requirements

4.3 Establish agreement with the couple in relation to booking arrangements for the venue for the marriage ceremony and any additional service providers as required

4.4 Explain record-keeping requirements in relation to marrying couples, including records required when work is undertaken on behalf of a religious organisation or those for non-religious ceremonies

4.5 Discuss billing and invoicing arrangements if required, and reach agreement with the couple prior to undertaking further planning of the marriage ceremony

4.6 Provide the couple with a full statement of fees and charges from the beginning of contact with them, including what is covered, any refundable charges and when receipts will be issued

4.7 Provide marrying couple with information about options for preparation of documents, including marriage certificates, and discuss common errors in preparing documents and how to avoid them

5. Seek feedback from the marrying couple

5.1 Explain to the couple the importance of evaluating marriage services

5.2 Outline approach to evaluation and improvement of marriage celebrancy practice

5.3 Identify techniques for obtaining evaluation and reviewing your practice

5.4 Provide marrying couple with information about how to make a complaint as part of the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Knowledge of sources of legal and practical information;
- Understanding and awareness of cultural rights, multicultural contributions, and the place of the arts in culture and ceremony;
- Knowledge of the importance of ceremony and ritual in community and family life;
- Understanding of client liaison techniques;
- Understanding of and a commitment to ongoing professional development;
- Elements of conducting an effective ceremony including use of additional materials;
- Basic knowledge of stages of human development and recognise potential impacts on the marrying couple's expectations of the celebrant and each other;

The candidate must also be able to apply knowledge outlined in CHCCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant, including:

- Marriage Act:
  - knowledge of the obligations and responsibilities of a marriage celebrant according to the Marriage Act and Marriage Regulations and Code of Practice;
  - knowledge of all documentation which must be sighted before a marriage can take place;
  - knowledge of offences under the Marriage Act;
- Other Legislation
  - general knowledge of aspects of Commonwealth Migration, Privacy, Trade Practices, Commonwealth Statutory Declarations and Copyright Acts relevant to performing the role of a marriage celebrant;
  - awareness of Commonwealth discrimination laws as well as those in each state and territory;
  - knowledge of the processes and procedures of State/territory Registrars of Births,
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Deaths and Marriages

- Statutory Declarations Act 1959 (Cwlth):
  - detailed knowledge of responsibilities in accepting a Commonwealth Statutory Declaration
- Migration Act 1958:
  - broad understanding of immigration laws and the issues that may arise for parties who do not have permanent residency status and wish to marry
  - awareness that marriage does not automatically give permanent residency
- Copyright Act 1968 especially applicability of the use of material in ceremonies

continued ...

Essential knowledge (contd):

- Privacy Act 1988
  - understanding that celebrants have an obligation to protect privacy and maintain confidentiality
- Trade Practices Act 1974
  - understanding of obligations relevant to operating as a marriage celebrant within the Trade Practices Act; and
  - knowledge of where to locate relevant information
- Marriage/relationship education services - knowledge of pre-marriage and other relationship education services

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Comply with all obligations and responsibilities under the Marriage Act
- Adhere to all required legislation
- Provide information about the availability of relationship education services
- Convey a non-judgemental attitude towards marrying couple
- Determine and understand marrying couple’s needs and assist them to feel at ease

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Establish networks with relevant marriage/relationship education service provider/s
- Deliver the agreed format and content of the ceremony
- Facilitate ceremonies in a manner that demonstrates cultural and social respect
- Manage ceremonies consistent with the celebrant’s responsibility towards the significance of marriage
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate effective communication skills, including:
  - speaking in a firm, diplomatic and culturally appropriate manner
  - providing clear information, listen to and understand the needs of marrying couple, and clarify ceremony instructions
  - effective and empathetic listening skills while avoiding acting as a counsellor or educator
  - maintaining awareness of and sensitivity to needs of marrying couple (e.g. demonstrate sensitivity to issues of race, religious beliefs, cultural background, language levels, personal capabilities of marrying couple)
  - discussing appropriate check/to do lists with couple
  - summarising and clarifying issues covered during consultation interviews prior to conduct of ceremony
  - effective negotiation skills
  - effective conflict resolution skills
  - confirming procedures with translator as necessary

- Apply effective management skills
- Explain the key features of the Marriage Act 1961
- Accurately complete essential legal documents
- Access information about and an understanding of GST and its application
- Locate the relevant information for other state/territory legislation as required (such as local government parks and gardens, State and Territory registering authorities)
- Refer persons to appropriate authority for further information
- Provide ceremony resources that are varied, presentable and well maintained
- Work with others and display empathy

continued ...

Essential skills (contd):

Ability to:

- Demonstrate language and literacy competence, including:
  - literacy competence to satisfactorily fulfil the role of a marriage celebrant including the ability to interpret legal requirements and commonwealth policies and procedures
  - use appropriate ritual and symbols in ceremony
  - language competence to convey legal requirements to marrying couples, to provide clear information, listen to and understand the needs of marrying couples and clarify ceremony instructions
- Apply problem solving skills including the ability to work with a group and calmly manage disruptions
- Demonstrate effective presentation skills, including:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- presenting materials for ceremony professionally; and controlled assembly of wedding party and guests with discretion
- effective projection of voice and ability to work in public before an audience
- demonstrating discretion in terms of any perceived or actual disruption during ceremony
- conducting ceremony with flow and continuity
- introducing couple in the manner previously agreed
- presentation of a complete and professional folder of ceremony to couple
- demonstrating respect and courtesy to wedding party, guests and other participants (i.e. photographer, musicians, translator) before, during and following the ceremony
- consultation and presentation skills including an ability to convey an attitude of professionalism and compassion
- using effective problem solving skills to clarify any legal or other business issues arising
- departing tactfully and at the appropriate time

- Demonstrate management and administrative skills, including:
  - effectively using techniques for monitoring own service area including client satisfaction
  - applying numeracy skills including satisfactory record-keeping
  - being honest and open in terms of fees and what monies are refundable and in what circumstances
  - using effective time management skills to ensure arrival at venue at agreed time
  - checking any equipment or resources as necessary
  - following up on any outstanding issues
  - contributing to revision of procedures and guidelines as appropriate

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- For assessment of aspiring marriage celebrants, this unit is most appropriately assessed by the observation of a simulated interview with marrying couple and simulated ceremony or through role play and the completion and submission of documents
- For existing marriage celebrants choosing to be assessed against the competencies, this unit is most appropriately assessed prior to and during the conduct of a marriage ceremony and the completion and submission of completed documents
- Assessment should enable assessment of response to a diverse range of marrying couple in a range of situations
- A diversity of assessment tasks is essential for holistic assessment

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - relevant or appropriately simulated environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation, guidelines, Code of Practice, and range of required documentation

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of interview with marrying couple
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of ceremony
- Evidence during process for assessment of accurate completion of required documentation prior to ceremony and correct finalising of documents for forwarding to Registry Office following ceremony
- Evidence of knowledge of all elements of Code of Practice/ Marriage Act and its Regulations
- Evidence of the appropriate use of ceremony and symbolism

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Secure storage of records includes:

- Addressing storage requirements including appropriate types of storage for marriage records
- Ensuring that records can be kept secure for at least six years
- Addressing specific documentation requirements for:
  - religious registers
  - civil celebrant certificates
- Maintenance of record-keeping sheets

Marriage regulations:

- Knowledge of and adherence to the Marriage Regulations

Other relevant legislation:

- Knowledge of aspects of Commonwealth Migration, Privacy, Trade Practices, Commonwealth Statutory Declarations, Discrimination and Copyright Acts relevant to performing the role of a marriage celebrant
- Knowledge of state/territory discrimination laws.
- Knowledge of the processes and procedures of State/territory Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages

Code of Practice refers to:

- Knowledge of and adherence to the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants as specified in the Marriage Regulations

Relationship education services:

- Information about the availability of relationship education services is provided in accordance with the Code of Practice
RANGE STATEMENT

Communication:

- Effective and professional communication with marrying couple
- Ceremony options presented to marrying couple for consideration
  This may vary taking account of whether the ceremony is civil or religious
- Needs of marrying couple identified
  This may vary taking account of whether the ceremony is civil or religious
- Feedback sought from marrying couple employing a range of techniques
- Feedback used to improve service
- Collaboration with colleagues sought to develop, maintain and improve skills and resources

Administrative and business management aspects include:

- Privacy, security and confidentiality of client documentation and communications maintained
- All forms and procedures completed accurately and within the required timeframe as specified in the Marriage Act
- All relevant materials provided to marrying couples in a timely and professional manner
- All documentation available and accurately completed within the required timeframe and lodged appropriately as specified in the Marriage Act
- Documentation collected and stored securely and appropriately

Presentation includes:

- Ceremony presentation is accurate and professional
- Orderly progression of ceremony, as agreed to with marrying couples, is facilitated
- The roles of ceremony participants or other service providers, where relevant, are confirmed
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCEL404A Plan a marriage ceremony in line with legal requirements

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by marriage celebrants to prepare for and plan marriage ceremonies in line with legal requirements

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is mandatory for individuals aspiring to be appointed as marriage celebrants and suitable for existing marriage celebrants registered under Subdivision C of Division 1 of Part IV of the Marriage Act 1961

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite

This unit of competency must be assessed after achievement of related unit:

- CHCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Address legal requirements to work as a marriage celebrant</td>
<td>1.1 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of the responsibilities and obligations of a marriage celebrant under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of available family relationship services as required under the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Prepare for marriage ceremony in line with legal requirements

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Explain to marrying couple requirements for marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 and the Marriage Regulations 1963 in planning the marriage ceremony

2.2 Confirm whether the couple may marry under Australian law (i.e., under the Marriage Act 1961)

2.3 Provide marrying couples with information about availability of relationship education services in accordance with the Code of Practice

2.4 Ensure planned ceremony adheres to requirements of the Marriage Act 1961, the Marriage Regulations 1963, the Code of Practice and other relevant legislation

2.5 Explain legal requirements of marriage ceremony to clients and/or potential marrying couples

2.6 Sight documentation required by the Marriage Act prior to solemnisation of the marriage

2.7 Explain documentation requirements and processes to marrying couples, including systems and processes to ensure privacy of marrying couples' records

2.8 Discuss with couple options for presentation of documentation other than legal documentation and agree on format and style of presentation

2.9 Obtain and/or prepare marriage stationery as agreed with couple and in accordance with the legal requirements

2.10 Ensure administrative systems and supplies are in place to support completion, storage and forwarding of relevant documentation in accordance with legal requirements

2.11 Review all required documentation and ensure it is accurately completed for signing
ELEMENT

3. Assist couple to plan a marriage ceremony in line with legal requirements

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Demonstrate recognition of the social, cultural and legal significance of marriage and the marriage ceremony

3.2 Complete paperwork accurately in accordance with the legal requirements

3.3 Assist couple to plan and organise day, time and proposed venue for the marriage ceremony

3.4 Assist couple to address any issues arising in planning the marriage ceremony

3.5 Offer the couple a range of presentable and well maintained ceremony resources

3.6 For a religious ceremony:
   - ensure the ceremony has formal approval of the religious body or organisation for which it is conducted
   - if changes are made to the ceremony, ensure these changes are approved
   - ensure section 46 is included in any religious ceremony conducted by a Commonwealth registered marriage celebrant

3.7 For a civil ceremony, ensure ceremony meets minimum legal requirements i.e. vows are written in accordance with legislative requirements in section 45(2) and legislative requirements of section 46 are met

3.8 Assist couple in the creation of the marriage ceremony, in line with legal requirements and in keeping with the purpose and significance of the marriage ceremony, values, ideals and social and cultural contexts

3.9 Assist couple to identify the need for and plan a rehearsal
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Knowledge of sources of legal and practical information
- Understanding and awareness of cultural rights, multicultural contributions, and the place of the arts in culture and ceremony
- Knowledge of the importance of ceremony and ritual in community and family life
- Understanding of client liaison techniques
- Understanding of and a commitment to ongoing professional development
- Elements of conducting an effective ceremony including use of additional materials

The candidate must also be able to apply knowledge outlined in CHCCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant, including:

- Marriage Act:
  - knowledge of the obligations and responsibilities of a marriage celebrant according to the Marriage Act and Marriage Regulations and Code of Practice
  - knowledge of all documentation which must be sighted before a marriage can take place
  - knowledge of offences under the Marriage Act
- Other Legislation
  - general knowledge of aspects of Commonwealth Migration, Privacy, Trade Practices, Commonwealth Statutory Declarations and Copyright Acts relevant to performing the role of a marriage celebrant
  - awareness of Commonwealth discrimination laws as well as those in each state and territory
  - knowledge of the processes and procedures of State/territory Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages
- Statutory Declarations Act 1959 (Cwlth):
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- detailed knowledge of responsibilities in accepting a Commonwealth Statutory Declaration
- Migration Act 1958:
  - broad understanding of immigration laws and the issues that may arise for parties who do not have permanent residency status and wish to marry
  - awareness that marriage does not automatically give permanent residency
- Copyright Act 1968 especially applicability of the use of material in ceremonies
- Privacy Act 1988
  - understanding that celebrants have an obligation to protect privacy and maintain confidentiality

continued ...

Essential knowledge (contd):

- Trade Practices Act 1974
  - understanding of obligations relevant to operating as a marriage celebrant within the Trade Practices Act
  - knowledge of where to locate relevant information
- Marriage/relationship education services - knowledge of pre-marriage and other relationship education services

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Comply with all obligations and responsibilities under the Marriage Act
- Adhere to all required legislation
- Provide information about the availability of relationship education services
- Convey a non-judgemental attitude towards marrying couples
- Plan marriage ceremonies consistent with the celebrant's responsibility towards the significance of marriage
- Determine and understand marrying couples' needs and assist them to feel at ease

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate effective communication skills, including:
  - speaking in a firm, diplomatic and culturally appropriate manner
  - providing clear information, listening to and understanding the needs of marrying couples, and clarifying ceremony instructions
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- applying effective and empathic listening skills while avoiding acting as a counsellor or educator
- maintaining awareness of and sensitivity to marrying couples’ needs (e.g. sensitivity to issues of race, religious beliefs, cultural background, language levels, personal capabilities of marrying couples)
- discussing appropriate check/to do lists with couple
- summarising and clarifying issues covered during consultation interviews prior to conduct of ceremony
- using effective negotiation skills
- using effective conflict resolution skills
- confirming procedures with translator as necessary
- Explain the key features of the Marriage Act 1961
- Accurately complete essential legal documents
- Locate the relevant information for other state/territory legislation as required (such as local government parks and gardens, state and territory registering authorities)
- Refer persons to appropriate authority for further information
- Provide ceremony resources that are varied, presentable and well maintained
- Work with others and display empathy
- Demonstrate language and literacy competence, including:
  - literacy competence to satisfactorily fulfil the role of a marriage celebrant including the ability to interpret legal requirements and Commonwealth policies and procedures
  - use of appropriate ritual and symbols in ceremony
  - language competence to provide clear information, listen to and understand the needs of marrying couples and clarify ceremony instructions

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment
- The individual being assessed must provide evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
  - For assessment of aspiring marriage celebrants, this unit is most appropriately assessed by the observation of a simulated interview with the marrying couple and simulated ceremony or through role play and the completion and submission of documents
  - For existing marriage celebrants choosing to be assessed against the competencies, this unit is most appropriately assessed prior to and during the conduct of a marriage ceremony and the completion and submission of completed documents
  - Assessment should enable assessment of response to a diverse range of marrying couples in a range of situations
  - A diversity of assessment tasks is essential for holistic assessment

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - relevant or appropriately simulated environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation, guidelines, Code of Practice, and range of required documentation

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of interview with marrying couple
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of ceremony
- Evidence during process for assessment of accurate completion of required documentation prior to ceremony and correct finalising of documents for forwarding to Registry Office following ceremony
- Evidence of knowledge of all elements of Code of Practice/Marriage Act and its Regulations
- Evidence of the appropriate use of ceremony and symbolism

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Responsibilities and obligations of a marriage celebrant under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963 refer to:

Marriage Act 1961:
- Categories of marriage celebrant
- Register of marriage celebrants
- Requirements for registration, including the fit and proper person test
- Process of consideration of applications and registration
- Fit and proper person criteria - conflict of interest, knowledge of relationship services, standing in the community etc
- Obligations of marriage celebrants
- Ongoing professional development
- Performance reviews
- Circumstances in which disciplinary measures can be taken against a marriage celebrant
- Disciplinary measures that may be taken against a marriage celebrant
- Review of decisions of the Registrar of Marriage Celebrants
- Complaints against marriage celebrants

Marriage Regulations 1963:
- Qualifications and skills required by applicants
- The application form and documents of notification
- Requirements for ongoing professional development for marriage celebrants
- Matters the Registrar of Marriage Celebrants must take into account in conducting a performance review
- Records that must be kept in relation to each marriage celebrant
- The operation of the complaints process
RANGE STATEMENT

Requirements for marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 include:

- What marriage is under Australian law
- Who may marry
- Requirements for a valid marriage
- Instances in which marriage may not take place, e.g. surprise marriages, prohibited relationships, no evidence of termination of previous marriage, party under the minimum age for marriage
- Requirements in the case of marriages in which one party is aged between 16 and 18
- When and where marriages may take place
- Correct completion of the Notice of Intended Marriage
- Recording of names on marriage documents
- Witnessing of signatures on the Notice of Intended Marriage - when signed in Australia and when signed overseas
- Evidence of the date and place of birth of parties to a proposed marriage (evidence required when parties born in Australia and born overseas)
- Evidence of the end of a previous marriage of a party to a proposed marriage (evidence required for previous marriages conducted in Australia and overseas)
- Evidence of the identity of parties to a proposed marriage
- Completion of declarations of capacity to marry
- Documents required to be given to marrying couples
- Completion of Form 16 and Form 15 marriage certificates
- Requirements for the Form 15 marriage certificate
- Use of interpreters
- Requirements relating to Commonwealth statutory declarations
- Requirements for those coming to Australia from overseas to marry
- Shortening of time for notice of an intended marriage
- Requirements for witnesses to the marriage
- Offences under the Marriage Act
- Legal content required in a marriage ceremony
- The legal differences between a religious and a non-religious (or civil) marriage ceremony

continued ...
RANGE STATEMENT

Requirements for marriage under the Marriage Act 1961 include (contd):

- The legal differences between requirements for ministers of religion and those marriage celebrants who are not
- Requirement to forward papers to the registering authority within 14 days of the ceremony

Requirements for marriage under the Marriage Regulations 1963 include:

- Circumstances for shortening of the notice time for an intended marriage
- Required forms
- Completion and retention of forms

Requirements of the Code of Practice and other relevant legislation include:

- Legal requirements of the Code of Practice including:
  - knowledge of a variety of family relationship services available to enhance and sustain couples throughout their relationship
- Other relevant legislation including:
  - anti-discrimination legislation
  - trade practices and fair trading legislation
  - copyright
  - local government requirements e.g. parks and gardens
  - registration requirements in the relevant state and/or territory

Issues arising in planning marriage ceremony may include, but are not limited to:

- Proposed venue
- Date and time of ceremony
- Kind of ceremony
- Special requirements for ceremony
- Problems relating to weather, crowds, noise etc
- Time of arrival of marriage celebrant
RANGE STATEMENT

Creation of the marriage ceremony includes, but is not limited to:

- Appropriate use and placement of ritual
- Appropriate use and placement of symbols and development of associated resources
- Choice and use of readings, poetry, prayers, religious readings and music and development of associated resources
- Involvement of family (e.g. parents, grandparents, children of couple), friends and/or visiting speakers

Plan a rehearsal may include:

- Scheduling a rehearsal
- Identifying what needs to be rehearsed
- Conducting a rehearsal

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCEL405A Conduct and review a marriage ceremony in line with legal requirements

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by marriage celebrants to conduct and review marriage ceremonies

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is mandatory for individuals aspiring to be appointed as marriage celebrants and suitable for existing marriage celebrants registered under Subdivision C of Division 1 of Part IV of the Marriage Act 1961

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite

This unit of competency must be assessed after achievement of related unit:

- CHCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

Element

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1. Address legal requirements to work as a marriage celebrant

1.1 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of the responsibilities and obligations of a marriage celebrant under the Marriage Act 1961 and Marriage Regulations 1963

1.2 Work with demonstrated accurate knowledge of available family relationship services as required under the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Finalise arrangements for marriage ceremony | 2.1 Sight documentation required by the Marriage Act prior to solemnisation of the marriage
2.2 Review all required documentation and ensure it is accurately completed for signing
2.3 Confirm venue and time arrangements to meet the needs of the marrying couple, ensuring other arrangements at the venue will not interfere with planned ceremony
2.4 Confirm roles of ceremony participants and/or other service providers
2.5 Identify special needs of ceremony participants and/or other service providers, including interpreters as required and ensure working relationship established prior to commencement of ceremony
2.6 Apply Code of Practice in relation to arrival times
2.7 Identify possible problems or issues and put in place contingency plans where possible
2.8 Manage documentation relating to the ceremony and communication with the marrying couple |
ELEMENT 3. Conduct ceremony

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Maintain professional personal presentation in accordance with the Code of Practice

3.2 Ensure professional presentation of the marriage ceremony in line with plan agreed with marrying couple and in keeping with religious or non-religious context

3.3 Ensure the ceremony is audible in accordance with the Code of Practice

3.4 Ensure appropriate placement of marriage celebrant during the ceremony particularly in relation to other people participating

3.5 Use resources and techniques effectively as agreed with marrying couple to enhance the significance and symbolism of the marriage ceremony in line with values and ideals of the couple

3.5 Facilitate orderly progression of the ceremony, as agreed with the marrying couple

3.6 Ensure that all documentation [3 certificates of marriage] is correctly signed by the marrying couple and their witnesses

3.7 Ensure that any omissions or errors are rectified in the presence of, and initialled by, the marrying couple and their witnesses
ELEMENT

4. Follow up and review ceremony

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Use effective administrative/business management skills to collect, store and manage documentation relating to the ceremony and communication with the marrying couple

4.2 Forward documents to State/territory Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages after performing ceremony

4.3 Ensure secure storage of documentation relating to marrying couple in line with legal requirements

4.4 Apply effective invoicing procedures in line with billing arrangements agreed with marrying couple

4.5 Incorporate evaluation procedures into marriage celebrancy practices as a basis for improving services

4.6 Seek feedback from the marrying couple using a range of techniques and use feedback to continuously improve service

4.7 Use negative feedback and complaints as well as positive feedback to guide practice improvement

4.7 Work in collaboration with colleagues to develop, maintain and improve own skills and resources

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include:

- Knowledge of sources of legal and practical information;
- Understanding and awareness of cultural rights, multicultural contributions, and the place of the arts in culture and ceremony
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Knowledge of the importance of ceremony and ritual in community and family life
- Understanding of client liaison techniques
- Understanding of and a commitment to ongoing professional development
- Elements of conducting an effective ceremony including use of additional materials

The candidate must also be able to apply knowledge outlined in CHCCEL402A Establish and maintain knowledge of legal responsibilities of a marriage celebrant, including:

- Marriage Act:
  - knowledge of the obligations and responsibilities of a marriage celebrant according to the Marriage Act and Marriage Regulations and Code of Practice
  - knowledge of all documentation which must be sighted before a marriage can take place
  - knowledge of offences under the Marriage Act
- Other legislation
  - general knowledge of aspects of Commonwealth Migration, Privacy, Trade Practices, Commonwealth Statutory Declarations and Copyright Acts relevant to performing the role of a marriage celebrant
  - awareness of Commonwealth discrimination laws as well as those in each state and territory
  - knowledge of the processes and procedures of State/territory Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages
- Statutory Declarations Act 1959 (Cwlth):
  - detailed knowledge of responsibilities in accepting a Commonwealth Statutory Declaration
- Migration Act 1958:
  - broad understanding of immigration laws and the issues that may arise for parties who do not have permanent residency status and wish to marry
  - awareness that marriage does not automatically give permanent residency
- Copyright Act 1968 especially applicability of the use of material in ceremonies
- Privacy Act 1988
  - understanding that celebrants have an obligation to protect privacy and maintain confidentiality

continued ...

Essential knowledge (contd):

- Trade Practices Act 1974
  - understanding of obligations relevant to operating as a marriage celebrant within the Trade Practices Act; and
  - knowledge of where to locate relevant information
- Marriage/Relationship Education Services - knowledge of pre-marriage and other
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

relationship education services

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Comply with all obligations and responsibilities under the Marriage Act
- Adhere to all required legislation
- Deliver the agreed format and content of the ceremony
- Facilitate ceremonies in a manner that demonstrates cultural and social respect
- Convey a non-judgemental attitude towards marrying couples
- Manage ceremonies consistent with the celebrant's responsibility towards the significance of marriage
- Determine and understand needs of marrying couples and assist them to feel at ease

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Provide information about the availability of relationship education services
- Establish networks with relevant marriage/relationship education service provider/s
- Demonstrate effective communication skills, including:
  - speaking in a firm, diplomatic and culturally appropriate manner
  - providing clear information, listen to and understand the needs of marrying couples, and clarify ceremony instructions
  - effective and empathetic listening skills while avoiding acting as a counsellor or educator
  - maintaining awareness of and sensitivity to needs of marrying couples (e.g. demonstrate sensitivity to issues of race, religious beliefs, cultural background, language levels, personal capabilities of clients)
  - discussing appropriate check/to do lists with couple
  - summarising and clarify issues covered during consultation interviews prior to conduct of ceremony
  - effective negotiation skills
  - effective conflict resolution skills
  - confirming procedures with translator as necessary
- Apply effective management skills
- Explain the key features of the Marriage Act
- Accurately complete essential legal documents
- Access information about and an understanding of GST and its application
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Locate the relevant information for other state/territory legislation as required (such as local government parks and gardens, state and territory registering authorities)
- Refer persons to appropriate authority for further information
- Provide ceremony resources that are varied, presentable and well maintained
- Work with others and display empathy

continued ...

Essential skills (contd):

Ability to:

- Demonstrate language and literacy competence, including:
  - literacy competence to satisfactorily fulfil the role of a marriage celebrant including the ability to interpret legal requirements and Commonwealth policies and procedures
  - using appropriate ritual and symbols in ceremony
  - language competence to provide clear information, listen to and understand the needs of marrying couples and clarify ceremony instructions
- Apply problem solving skills including the ability to work with a group and calmly manage disruptions
- Demonstrate effective presentation skills, including:
  - presenting materials for ceremony professionally; and controlled assembly of wedding party and guests with discretion
  - effective projection of voice and ability to work in public before an audience
  - discretion in terms of any perceived or actual disruption during ceremony
  - conducting ceremony with flow and continuity
  - introducing couple in the manner previously agreed
  - presentation of a complete and professional folder of ceremony to couple
  - demonstrating respect and courtesies to wedding party, guests and other participants (i.e. photographer, musicians, translator) before, during and following the ceremony
  - consultation and presentation skills including an ability to convey an attitude of professionalism and compassion
  - using effective problem solving skills to clarify any legal or other business issues arising
  - departing tactfully and at the appropriate time
- Demonstrate management and administrative skills, including:
  - effectively using techniques for monitoring own service area including client satisfaction
  - applying numeracy skills including satisfactory record-keeping
  - being honest and open in terms of fees and what monies are refundable and in what circumstances [note: this needs to be conveyed at the first interview with the couple]
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- using effective time management skills to ensure arrival at venue at agreed time
- checking any equipment or resources as necessary
- following up on any outstanding issues
- contributing to revision of procedures and guidelines as appropriate

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- For assessment of aspiring marriage celebrants, this unit is most appropriately assessed by the observation of a simulated interview with marrying couple and simulated ceremony or through role play and the completion and submission of documents
- For existing marriage celebrants choosing to be assessed against the competencies, this unit is most appropriately assessed prior to and during the conduct of a marriage ceremony and the completion and submission of completed documents
- Assessment should enable assessment of response to a diverse range of marrying couples in a range of situations
- A diversity of assessment tasks is essential for holistic assessment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - relevant or appropriately simulated environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation, guidelines, Code of Practice, and range of required documentation

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of interview with marrying couple
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of ceremony
- Evidence during process for assessment of accurate completion of required documentation prior to ceremony and correct finalising of documents for forwarding to Registry Office following ceremony
- Evidence of knowledge of all elements of Code of Practice/Marriage Act and its Regulations
- Evidence of the appropriate use of ceremony and symbolism
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Secure storage of documentation includes:
- Addressing storage requirements including appropriate types of storage for marriage records
- Ensuring that records can be kept secure for at least six years
- Addressing specific documentation requirements for:
  - religious registers
  - civil celebrant certificates
- Maintenance of record-keeping sheets

Marriage regulations includes:
- Knowledge of and adherence to the Marriage Regulations

Other relevant legislation includes:
- Knowledge of aspects of Commonwealth Migration, Privacy, Trade Practices, Commonwealth Statutory Declarations, Discrimination and Copyright Acts relevant to performing the role of a marriage celebrant
- Knowledge of State/territory discrimination laws.
- Knowledge of the processes and procedures of State/territory Registrars of Births, Deaths and Marriages

Code of Practice includes:
- Knowledge of and adherence to the Code of Practice for Marriage Celebrants as specified in the Marriage Regulations
RANGE STATEMENT

Relationship education services includes:
- Information about the availability of relationship education services is provided in accordance with the Code of Practice

Communication includes:
- Effective and professional communication with marrying couple
- Ceremony options presented to marrying couple for consideration
  This may vary taking account of whether the ceremony is civil or religious
- Marrying couple's needs identified
  This may vary taking account of whether the ceremony is civil or religious
- Feedback sought from marrying couple employing a range of techniques
- Feedback used to improve service
- Collaboration with colleagues sought to develop, maintain and improve skills and resources

Administrative/business management skills includes:
- Privacy, security and confidentiality of marrying couple documentation and communications maintained
- All forms and procedures completed accurately and within the required timeframe as specified in the Marriage Act
- All relevant materials provided to marrying couple in a timely and professional manner
- All documentation available and accurately completed within the required timeframe and lodged appropriately as specified in the Marriage Act
- Documentation collected and stored securely and appropriately

Presentation includes:
- Ceremony presentation is accurate and professional
- Orderly progression of ceremony, as agreed to with marrying couple, is facilitated
- The roles of ceremony participants or other service providers, where relevant, are confirmed
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCEL406A Identify and address client needs in a celebrancy role

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by celebrants to work with clients in the celebrancy context to clarify their needs and identify services to address those needs

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit is suitable for individuals seeking to work in a range of celebrancy contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish and maintain client relationships | 1.1 Use appropriate language and interpersonal skills to introduce self and establish rapport with clients
1.2 Interact with clients in a manner that reflects standards and code of ethics relevant to celebrancy and promotes positive client participation
1.3 Demonstrate courtesy respect for individual differences in all dealings with clients
1.4 Support the client's interests, rights and decision-making and aim to generate a trusting relationship
1.5 Maintain confidentiality and privacy of client within standards and code of ethics relevant to celebrancy |
ELEMENT

2. Clarify client needs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.1 Communicate with client effectively and professionally about required ceremony/ritual</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2 Identify and confirm client needs and preferences, sensitively and comprehensively, including particular civil or religious focus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.3 Assist client to identify preferences by presenting a range of options for consideration, if appropriate, and confirm preferred option/s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.4 Recognise and take into account cultural and social differences and the extent to which different values may lead to variations in expectations of clients from different backgrounds and ages</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.5 Apply knowledge of human development and psychology of transitions to determine specific nature of client requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.6 Advise clients that they may determine/author their ceremony and provide guidance as required to clarify issues relating to legislative and regulatory requirements, tradition and specific aspects of various ceremony options discussed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.7 Review potential venues/settings in consultation with clients, advising on issues relating to preferred setting if required</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. Match services to client needs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1 Identify appropriate services from the range of services offered by the celebrant to match client needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2 Advise client of appropriate referral agency/service where client needs fall outside the celebrancy role</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3 Provide clients with up-to-date information about services available to match their needs in a timely manner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.4 Ensure all advice to clients about available services is consistent with current relevant legislative and statutory requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.5 Undertake appropriate record-keeping and reporting in accordance with defined procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 4. Follow up ceremony | 4.1 Seek client feedback using various techniques
| | 4.2 Use feedback to continuously improve service
| | 4.3 Seek collaboration with colleagues to develop, maintain and improve own skills and resources |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
These include knowledge of:

- Relevant legislative and statutory requirements and provisions relating to provision of celebrancy services
- Standards and code of ethics relevant to celebrancy
- Stages of human development and broad knowledge of psychology of change as a basis for determining specific nature of client requirements
- Recognition of range of ritual and ceremonial expression across different cultures
- Understanding of importance in relation to celebrancy of:
  - client-centred focus
  - ethical and moral issues
  - distinctions between religious and civil ceremony content (e.g. Church vs State issues)
- Understanding and awareness of cultural rights, multicultural contributions, and the place of the arts in culture and ceremony

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Determine and understand client needs and expectations and assist clients to feel at ease
- Demonstrate effective communication skills, including:
  - providing clear information, listening to and understanding the needs and expectations of clients, and clarifying ceremony requirements
  - maintaining awareness of and sensitivity to clients needs (e.g. sensitivity to issues of ethnic, religious beliefs, cultural background, language levels, personal capabilities of clients)
- confirming procedures with translator as necessary
- Identify client needs and expectations and match available services to address those
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate respect and courtesy to clients

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Personalise a ceremony or ritual to address specific identified client needs and expectations
- Demonstrate language and literacy competence, including:
  - literacy competence to satisfactorily fulfil the role of a celebrant including the ability to interpret legal requirements
  - language competence to provide clear information, listen to and understand the needs of clients and clarify ceremony instructions
- Convey an attitude of professionalism and compassion
- Use effective problem solving skills to clarify any legal or other business issues arising

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- For aspiring celebrants, this unit is most appropriately assessed by the observation of a simulated meeting with client and simulated ceremony or through role play and the completion and submission of documents
- For existing celebrants choosing to be assessed against the competencies, this unit is most appropriately assessed prior to and during the
EVIDENCE GUIDE

- conduct of a ceremony and the completion and submission of completed documents
- Assessment should enable assessment of response to a diverse range of clients in a range of situations
- A diversity of assessment tasks is essential for holistic assessment

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit may include access to:
  - relevant or appropriately simulated environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation, guidelines and range of required documentation

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of client interview
- Observation of simulation and/or role play of ceremony
- Evidence of completion of documentation if required
- Evidence of the appropriate use of ceremony and symbolism
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Individual differences may relate to:
- Cultural
- Age and developmental status
- Economic
- Social
- Gender
- Physical
- Emotional
- Language
- Spiritual

Client needs may include:

- Religious
- Cultural
- Spiritual
- Ceremonial

Client information may include:

- Personal and confidential information provided by the client and/or referring person
- Client feedback data
- Information resulting from meetings with the client
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCH225A Prepare to work in social housing

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor: This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for the context within which social housing work occurs

Application of the Unit
Application: This unit may be applied in a range of community services work contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Work within the context of the social housing</td>
<td>1.1 Demonstrate understanding of the role of social housing sector</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Develop knowledge of the social housing sector</td>
<td>2.1 Ensure all work reflects the knowledge of the current issues which impact on the sector and different models of work</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 3. Demonstrate commitment to the central philosophies of the social housing sector | 3.1 Demonstrate a commitment to access and equity principles in all work in the sector
| | 3.2 Where appropriate, ensure clients participate in all aspects of service planning and support activities as required
| | 3.3 Identify personal values and attitudes regarding social housing and take them into account when planning and implementing all work activities |
Required Skills and Knowledge

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Principles of community delivered service provision
- Holistic and client-centred service
- Principles of client empowerment/disempowerment
- Principles of access and equity
- Awareness of components of the social housing sector, including:
  - homelessness
  - crisis management
  - crisis refuges - youth and family violence
  - cooperatives
  - transitional housing
  - long term housing
- Policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements include:
  - residential tenancy legislation or equivalent
  - legislation underpinning the principles of privacy, equal opportunity, individual rights, and freedom of information

and may include:

- housing legislation, as appropriate
- National Community Housing Standards
- Disability Services Act and standards
- national housing policy
- relevant state based legislation
- Context of social housing provision, including: historical, social, political and economic aspects
- Current issues facing clients and existing services to address their needs and rights
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Principles and practices of ethics and values
- Principles and practices of confidentiality
- Principles and practice of duty of care
- Legal system:
  - courts
  - police powers
  - court reports
  - tribunals
- Knowledge specific to working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate understanding of own work role within the context of the social housing sector
- Demonstrate understanding of organisation role within the context of the social housing sector

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Prepare reports so that the information and organisation of information is appropriate to its purposes and audience
- Work as part of a team or as a sole worker
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - interpersonal communication with clients and other stakeholders
  - problem solving

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal range of conditions
- This unit must be assessed with all other specialisation units chosen as part of a package at a particular Australian Qualifications Framework level

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment may include:

- Observation
- Written assessment
- Case studies
- Evidence of materials developed in the workplace
- Questioning

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Context includes:

- Statutory framework within which work takes place
- Changing social context of work e.g. consumer centred approach, changing government and societal views of not-for-profit housing, approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants

Different models of work in the sector may include:

- Housing management
- Tenancy management
- Tenancy support
- Tenancy advice/advocacy
- Community development and education
- Case management
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders may include:
- Consumers/service users/clients/members/tenants
- Local community
- Community organisations
- Government representatives and service providers
- Peak bodies and networks in the sector
- Management, colleagues, team members

Central philosophies of the social housing sector may include:
- A social justice perspective
- Community development approach
- Housing as a right not a privilege
- A holistic and consumer-centred approach
- Commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of consumers
- Commitment to empowering the consumer

A commitment to access and equity principles includes:
- Creation of a consumer oriented culture
- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers
- Ensuring the work undertaken takes account of and caters for differences including: cultural, physical, religious, economic, social

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCH301C Work effectively in social housing

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCH301B Work effectively in social housing</td>
<td>CHCCH301C Work effectively in social housing</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for the context within which social housing work occurs

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Work within the context of the social housing sector | 1.1 Work with an understanding of the role of the social housing sector
1.2 Ensure all work in the sector reflects consideration of the historical context of the sector
1.3 Ensure all work reflects consideration of the changing social, political and economic context, including community housing, public housing, homelessness, supported housing, transitional housing and crisis housing
1.4 Apply legal and ethical requirements appropriate to work role |

| 2. Develop knowledge of the social housing sector | 2.1 Apply knowledge of the current issues which impact on the sector and different models of work
2.2 Collect and use the views of key stakeholders and representatives from relevant target groups when collecting information about the social housing sector |
ELEMENT

3. Demonstrate commitment to the central philosophies of the social housing sector

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Demonstrate consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophies of the sector in all work undertaken

3.2 Demonstrate a commitment to access and equity principles in all work in the sector

3.3 Where appropriate, ensure clients participate in all aspects of service planning and support activities as required

3.4 Identify personal values and attitudes regarding social housing and take these into account when planning and implementing all work activities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Components and structure of the social housing sector (range and variety of service provision) including:
  - homelessness
  - crisis management
  - crisis refuges - youth and family violence
  - cooperatives
  - transitional housing and
  - long term housing
- Causal and structural issues of homelessness
- Context of social housing provision, including: historical, social, political and economic aspects
- Current issues facing clients and existing services to address their needs and rights
- Early intervention including sustaining tenancies
- Funding requirements
- Holistic and client-centred service
- Impact of homelessness including social, economic and psychological
- Knowledge specific to working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- Legal system:
  - courts
  - police powers
  - court reports
  - tribunals
- Organisation procedures relating to:
  - safety issues and prevention in social housing work, including basic home fire safety
  - emergency response
  - security
- Organisation’s role within the context of the social housing sector
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Own work role within the context of the social housing sector
- Policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements include:
  - residential tenancy legislation or equivalent
  - housing legislation, as appropriate
  - legislation underpinning the principles of privacy, equal opportunity, individual rights, and freedom of information
  - Human Rights Charter or equivalent

and may include:

- National Community Housing Standards
- community service standards and guidelines
- SAAP guidelines and requirements
- Disability Services Act and standards
- national housing policy
- Cooperatives Act or other equivalent governing legislation
- relevant state based legislation
- Principles of access and equity
- Principles of client empowerment/disen empowerment
- Principles of community delivered service provision
- Principles and practices of:
  - ethics and values
  - confidentiality
  - duty of care
- Relevance of the work role and functions to maintaining sustainability of the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to apply knowledge of:

- Own work role within the context of the social housing sector
- Organisation's role within the context of the social housing sector

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Conduct interpersonal communication with clients and other stakeholders
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - problem solving
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
- Prepare reports so that the information and organisation of information is appropriate to its purposes and audience
- Recognise and act upon opportunities to enhance sustainability in the workplace
- Work as part of a team or as a sole worker

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- This unit must be assessed with all other specialisation units chosen as part of a package at a particular Australian Qualifications Framework level
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
• All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
• All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
• In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
• Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
• This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
• Resources required for assessment include access to:
  • an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place
  • simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
• In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
• Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
• Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Context includes:

- Changing social context of work e.g. consumer centred approach, changing government and societal views of not-for-profit housing, approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Economic context e.g. the current economic situation as it relates to and affects social housing and the subsequent impact on client needs
- Historical context of work e.g. changing role of social housing in the overall context of housing provision; changing approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Political context e.g. government policies and initiatives affecting social housing work
- Statutory framework within which work takes place

Current issues include:

- Complex needs
- Disability
- Domestic and family violence
- Drug and alcohol issues
- Homelessness and risk of homelessness
- Housing availability and affordability
- Mental health
- Needs of migrants and recent arrivals
RANGE STATEMENT

Different models of work in the sector may include:
- Case management
- Community development and education
- Homelessness and crisis management (within confines of organisation policy and guidelines)
- Housing management
- Tenancy advice/advocacy
- Tenancy management
- Tenancy support

Stakeholders and representatives may include:
- Community organisations
- Consumers/service users/clients/members/tenants
- Government representatives and service providers
- Local community
- Management, colleagues, team members
- Peak bodies and networks in the sector

The underpinning values and philosophies of the sector may include:
- A holistic and consumer-centred approach
- A social justice perspective
- Commitment to empowering the client
- Commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of consumers
- Community development approach
- Housing as a right not a privilege

A commitment to access and equity principles include:
- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers
- Creation of a consumer oriented culture
- Ensuring the work undertaken takes account of and caters for differences including: cultural, physical, religious, economic, social
RANGE STATEMENT

Basic home fire safety includes knowledge of:

- Behaviour that may contribute to fire injury and/or fatality
- High fire risk groups
- Optimum placement of smoke alarms
- Referring client for smoke alarm installation and maintenance
- Role of a working smoke alarm
- Smoke alarm testing and cleaning
- Types of smoke alarms

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH317A Respond to property maintenance enquiries

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for application where housing workers and/or community service workers are required to respond to maintenance enquiries relating to social housing properties

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit applies to property found in urban, semi urban and non-urban environments, as well as low, medium and high-density housing estates and within Body Corporate arrangements.

It also applies to both publicly owned and managed properties, as well as privately owned and leased properties.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Apply a client-focused approach to maintenance</td>
<td>1.1 Apply understanding of the role of responsive maintenance in the social housing context</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Apply understanding of property maintenance and principles of the asset maintenance system in the context of provision of social housing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Apply understanding of the importance of a quality client focused service</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Address client in a courteous and professional manner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Promptly establish client requirements and degree of urgency</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Identify impact of relevant legislation or organisation policy for dealing with enquiry and ability to respond</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Allocate a priority to enquiries requiring additional research and arrange for follow up</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.8 Ensure communication addresses needs of diverse client groups and clarifies technical building issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>---------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2. Research information relevant to enquiry | 2.1 Identify information relevant to client needs from organisation and industry sources as required
2.2 Assess accuracy and type of information available from client to determine if an on-site inspection, or further action is required
2.3 Assess probability of associated problems and impact on property operations from available information and advise other parties where appropriate |
| 3. Determine suitable response | 3.1 Prepare response to the enquiry within organisation and legislative time requirements
3.2 Establish need for written/verbal response or action in accordance with organisation and legislative requirements and nature of enquiry
3.3 Provide client with options and alternatives where appropriate
3.4 Ensure response is consistent with industry codes of practice and relevant legislation |
| 4. Communicate advice and information | 4.1 Present written and verbal responses in clear and simple terms so that they can be understood
4.2 Provide property information for routine and specified enquiries where these service client requirements
4.3 Promptly attend to client requirements for follow up information
4.4 Seek feedback from client to ensure satisfaction with response where appropriate
4.5 Schedule and confirm relevant bookings with client |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5. Update relevant files and records</td>
<td>5.1 Complete documentation in accordance with organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.2 Promptly advise relevant staff of work allocations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.3 Collate information on the type and source of enquiries to identify maintenance trends</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.4 Collate and analyse feedback from tenants</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.5 Recommend changes to policy or service provision as appropriate</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Business operations, budget restraints and property maintenance processes
- Organisation’s property maintenance policies and procedures
- Relevant industry codes of practice and regulations
- Organisation’s computer systems and processes
- Types of client expectations, including diversity of clients with complex needs
- Legislative constraints and timelines

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Achieve client satisfaction with manner and approach to enquiry, including the ability to change communication style where appropriate
- Review the actual work performed under normal industry operating conditions. If assessment of this is not practicable, evidence obtained in simulated environments may be substituted
- Follow asset management principles

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Access internal and external property information
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - telephone client relations
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- interpersonal interactions
- dispute resolution
- verbal and written communication
- questioning and listening

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment of competency may be made through practical demonstration in the work environment or in an industry approved simulated work environment
- Assessment should incorporate case files of work records demonstrating diversity of application of the performance criteria
- It is recommended that assessment of this competency includes handling a client enquiry from at least four different client types with different client needs
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a work environment or relevant simulated work environment where assessment can take place
  - an appropriate property recording system

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

This unit is relevant to activity within the following market sectors:
- Public housing
- Community housing
- Supported accommodation programs
- State government
- Affordable housing
- Crisis accommodation

Enquiries may include:
- Repairs to rented premises
- Lease enquiries
- Property management policy/procedures
- Repairs to rented premises
- Complaints about non-compliance with lease or contract
- Maintenance charges against tenants

Inspection may cover:
- Proposed property uses
- Site conditions
- Lease compliance
- Demonstrations
RANGE STATEMENT

Client may include:
- Management
- Business owners
- Specialist consultants and advisers
- Other property companies
- Tenants
- Contracted and casual tradespersons

Relevant bookings may include:
- Visits
- Meetings
- Inspections
- Demonstrations
- Work orders to tradespersons
- Reports from specialist consultants

Documentation may be manual or computerised and may include:
- Enquiry records
- Financial records
- Schedules
- Diary entries
- Client histories
- File notes
- Property condition records
- Tenancy records

Relevant legislation (Federal, State and Local) and industry codes of practice cover areas including:
- The market sector
- Environment
- Construction
- Land use
- Zoning
- Native title
- Utility use (water, gas, electricity)
- Freedom of information
- Consumer affairs
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH410B Manage and maintain tenancy agreements and services

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCH410A Manage and maintain tenancy agreements and services</td>
<td>CHCCH410B Manage and maintain tenancy agreements and services</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to manage tenancy agreements and associated housing services, including termination, where necessary, for application in agencies responsible for sustainable tenancy management

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit is to be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Correctly complete tenancy agreement</td>
<td>1.1 Complete all necessary clerical and administrative functions as required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Make suitable appointment time for signing and organise interpreters, if necessary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Complete property conditions report</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Inform clients of documentation and money required prior to sign-up</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Advise clients of the rebate and rental payment options when necessary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Supply clients with all relevant information</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Address all legal requirements in respect of executing agreements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.8 Organise documentation and legal representation for 'under age' client prior to signing tenancy agreement</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Explain the range of housing services provided to new tenants

   2.1 Provide information on rent payment systems and housing providers expectations with regard to tenant rent payment and arrears
   2.2 Where applicable, provide information on rental bonds, in accordance with the organisation’s policies and procedures and rental bond legislation, to new tenants
   2.3 Follow relevant organisation or department policies and procedures
   2.4 Explain the maintenance system e.g. urgent, priority, normal, after hours to new tenants
   2.5 Explain the rental rebate system and grievance procedures to new tenants
   2.6 Explain other services provided by the organisation as applicable
   2.7 Make explanations simply and clearly, taking into account cultural, mental, physical and intellectual differences of tenants

3. Recognise crisis and the need for immediate intervention

   3.1 Utilise specialist expertise of other agencies and community services as appropriate
   3.2 Apply organisation procedures to crisis situations
   3.3 Respond appropriately to individuals who are experiencing homelessness or who are at risk of becoming homeless
   3.4 Work with understanding of legal and duty of care requirements when dealing with young people who are experiencing or at risk of becoming homeless
   3.5 Make appropriate referrals for individuals who are experiencing homelessness or who are at risk of becoming homeless
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 4. Promote landlord and tenant responsibilities (per the tenancy agreement) | 4.1 Ensure maintenance of dwellings through inspections and review of complaints
4.2 Manage rental accounts in accordance with current guidelines
4.3 Manage rental bonds, if applicable, in accordance with organisations policies and relevant legislation
4.4 Monitor and act upon nuisance and annoyance incidents in accordance with organisation guidelines
4.5 Ensure clients are made aware of their rights and responsibilities, including landlord responsibilities |
| 5. Respond to tenant's changing needs | 5.1 Implement criteria for succession to proceed
5.2 Display sensitivity to client circumstances
5.3 Request and note supporting documentation
5.4 Check supporting documentation for accuracy and use in decision-making process
5.5 Consider asset management issues |
| 6. Manage tenancy termination processes, where necessary | 6.1 Apply understanding of reasons for tenancy termination
6.2 Apply correct understanding of tenancy termination processes
6.3 Follow termination procedures of organisation, including fulfilling legal requirements
6.4 Maintain client confidentiality within organisation policies and procedures
6.5 Assist tenants, where appropriate, including referrals to appropriate tenant/advocate/legal representation
6.6 Complete all documentation and filing, as required |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 7. Facilitate appeal process, where necessary | 7.1 Demonstrate understanding of appeal process and client right of appeal and use in work role
7.2 Give client a clear explanation of appeal process
7.3 Encourage clients to present all facts relevant to appeal
7.4 Gather information on changes in circumstances and use to inform appeal process
7.5 Arrange an interview if necessary and assess the need for an interpreter or advocate
7.6 Request relevant information during interview
7.7 Review facts obtained previously and make decision as per delegation
7.8 Document decision |
| 8. Take appropriate action in response to a complaint | 8.1 Investigate complaint appropriately by listening to the person lodging the complaint and visiting parties concerned and neighbours
8.2 Conduct investigation to determine if the client has attempted to resolve the problem e.g. talked to neighbours, contacted police, council, department of community services
8.3 Decide whether intervention should be taken by organisation
8.4 Document case if decision is made that the organisation should intervene
8.5 Gather information, reports, etc. from tenants, neighbours, police, tenant groups, etc.
8.6 File a comprehensive record of complaint and action taken |
ELEMENT

9. Use other agencies to assist in resolving a problem

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

9.1 Seek other relevant people's opinions via confidential interviews when necessary
9.2 Consider all options
9.3 Mediate between involved parties in an attempt to resolve situation satisfactorily
9.4 Adhere to legal responsibility of reporting alleged criminal behaviour
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- All aspects of the rental system, including knowledge of residential tenancy legislation
- Grievance procedures
- Rights and responsibilities of clients and the organisation
- Organisation’s complaints process
- Principles of sustaining tenancies
- Socioeconomic impact of homelessness
- Primary, secondary and tertiary definitions of homelessness

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Demonstrate compliance with legislative and organisation requirements
- Respond appropriately to immediate client needs, including needs of individuals who are experiencing homelessness or who are at risk of becoming homeless

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - effective customer relations
  - administration to manage tenancy arrangements
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit must be assessed in realistic workplace situations or relevant simulated work environments

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may be via observation, questioning and examination of documentation
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Relevant information may be gathered:

- From written sources
- By observation
- From inside the organisation
- From external sources

Relevant information may be delivered in the form of:

- Informal discussion
- Structured interview
- Leaflets/brochures
- Correspondence/written reports
- Audio-visual
- Newsletters/circulars
- Posters/graphic representation

Advise clients may include, but is not limited to:

- Rights and obligations - Residential Tenancy Act
- Rights and obligations in relation to policies and procedures of housing provider
- Rights and obligations under other legislation related to residential tenancies
- Location of type of housing providers and/or related support agencies available
RANGE STATEMENT

Information or advice may be provided in the form of, but not restricted to:

- Informal discussion
- Structured interview
- Telephone discussion
- Written information, pamphlets, brochures, newsletters, etc
- Posters/graphic representations
- Audio-material

Other information that may be provided to new tenants is:

- Tenant handbook
- Relevant brochures:
- Payment options
- Contact details for the organisation
- Guarantee of service
- Maintenance procedures
- Rebates process
- Mutual exchange
- Local government regulations (services provided)
- Community information
- Special services specific to allocated area

Legal requirements may be detailed in:

- Residential Tenancies Act and regulations

Eligibility criteria for tenants are outlined in:

- Current Housing Authority guidelines
- Community Housing Policy
- Public housing policy

Crisis situations may include:

- Extensive property damage
- Tenant experiencing family violence
- Deaths in the property

Tenant's changing needs may include:

- Succession
- Change in household circumstances (e.g. increase or decrease in size)
- Need for disability modifications
RANGE STATEMENT

Supporting documentation may be:
- Proof of meeting housing body eligibility requirements e.g. identification and income
- Proof of circumstance:
  - Marriage certificate
  - Death certificate
  - Search on 'rebate'
  - Custody documents
  - Statutory declaration from outgoing tenant agreeing to succession of tenancy

Note support documentation may be carried out:
- By photocopying documentation

Asset management issues may include:
- Assets 'under occupancy'
- Disposal
- Redevelopment
- Sale

Intervention may include:
- Referral to Community Justice Centre
- Referral to Community Health Centre
- Referral to housing information services
- Referral to other community support services

Options to resolve a problem may include:
- Rehouse one or more tenants
- Mutual exchange
- Referral to Community Justice Centre or other legal resources
- Involvement of Community Health Centre
- Proceed to Residential Tenancy Tribunal for orders - nuisance and annoyance

Reasons for tenancy termination may include:
- Voluntary (e.g. instigated by tenant)
- Involuntary (e.g. eviction)
- Abandonment
- Tenant no longer eligible for assistance (e.g. no longer meets eligibility criteria)
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH411A Manage housing application processes

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for processes involved in managing housing applications

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Assist client with information and provide relevant brochures/application forms organisation policy and procedures

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Provide information to clients on current organisation policies and procedures in relation to entitlements

1.2 Provide assistance to ensure equal access/opportunity to organisation services

1.3 Provide assistance within own work role/responsibilities

1.4 Provide information on other relevant welfare agencies, if required and refer as appropriate

1.5 Establish client information needs promptly

1.6 Select appropriate form/information and provide to client
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Receive and receipt application | 2.1 Accept completed application forms from client/s
2.2 Check application to determine if it has been completed correctly and fully
2.3 Identify and investigate false statements
2.4 If form is incomplete or information incorrect, take steps to obtain missing or correct information
2.5 Receipt application in a manner which is consistent with organisation requirements |
| 3. Assess application for funding | 3.1 Assess application to determine client’s choice of location, dwelling type and special requirements
3.2 Use previous records when assessing current application to determine if client has made a previous application, received assistance or been a tenant on a previous occasion
3.3 Assess household complement to determine correct bedroom entitlement within current guidelines
3.4 Ensure equal access/opportunities to organisation services
3.5 Assess application using current eligibility criteria, determine decision and documented it according to organisation procedure |
| 4. Manage waiting lists | 4.1 Place client on the appropriate waiting list
4.2 Notify clients of decision |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- A wide range of services and resources which will be useful for tenants and prospective tenants
- Organisations recording and reporting systems
- Effective communication strategies
- Allocation zones and respective waiting lists
- Knowledge of eligibility criteria
- Knowledge of eligibility procedure on computer system
- Organisation requirements for receiving and receipting applications, including use of computer systems
- Agency policies, procedures in relation to entitlements
- Computer systems in use
- Temporary and emergency accommodation protocols and procedures

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply knowledge of current policies and procedures in relation to entitlements when providing information and assessing applications for assistance
- Meet information requirements of client
- Use information sources identified in the Range Statement
- Provide appropriate forms (application, wage report, aboriginality, etc.) to clients
- Understand purpose of and carry out stamp procedures for forms
- Check completed form for accuracy, client signature and required documentation
- Use computer system to check for records of previous action
- Process application to clear checklist items
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Enter application details, admit to waiting list and queue appropriate letters
- Understand/implement FOI policy/principles/procedures

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - interview techniques
  - computer work
  - analysing information against policy and procedure

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit should be assessed in the workplace or through a relevant simulation
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a workplace where assessment can be conducted, or a realistic simulated workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Current organisation policies may include:

- First and second approvals
- 'One offer'
- Removal of people from waiting list
- Reviewing process (6-12 months)
- Number of bedrooms (eligibility criteria)
- Income (eligibility criteria)
- Queue control
- Hard to lets
- Knowledge of delegations
- Process for ineligible applications

Information will be gathered:

- By speaking to others
- From written sources
- By observation
- From inside the organisation
- From external sources
RANGE STATEMENT

Information will be delivered in the form of:

- Informal discussion
- Structured interview
- Leaflets/brochures
- Correspondence/written reports
- Audio-visual
- Newsletters/circulars
- Published material
- Posters/graphic representation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH412C Manage housing allocations

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for administration of housing allocation

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Match resources to client needs | 1.1 Interview client to organisation standards to identify level of need
1.2 Conduct interviews in a manner which meets organisation requirements and standards
1.3 Assess client needs against the organisation's products and services
1.4 Advise client of outcome according to organisation procedures |
ELEMENT

2. Manage re-housing applications

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Conduct an interview to determine eligibility for re-housing

2.2 Review client’s supporting documentation according to organisation procedures

2.3 Assess re-housing approvals to ensure they are in line with current guidelines

2.4 Advise clients of rehousing decision and appeals rights if declined

2.5 Offer alternative options to clients if rehousing is declined

2.6 Review eligibility

2.7 Document decision according to organisation procedures

3. Coordinate tenant relocation during redevelopment, decanting or emergency

3.1 Liaise with client and relevant agencies and community workers to assess options

3.2 Identify client re-location options and assess client needs so accommodation needs can be met

3.3 Organise physical re-location in accordance with organisation policy and procedures

4. Implement priority housing criteria

4.1 Identify critical elements of applications

4.2 Assess previous tenancy records

4.3 Make appropriate referrals to outside agencies according to organisation procedures

4.4 Record client outcomes in relation to organisation procedures

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Interview processes
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Communication and decision-making processes
- Relevant information management protocols
- Range of available and/or appropriate services
- Alternative 'Mutual Exchange' and the 'Mutual Exchange Register' or equivalent
- Factors and level of risk in relation to domestic violence issues and harassment
- Assessment processes to determine appropriate stock or bedroom category for household complement
- Review processes for eligibility according to organisation policy
- Asset management issues i.e. financial assets, budgetary constraints, exercising business judgement
- Processes to identify rehousing circumstances where direct, immediate relocation are required
- Alternative options such as mutual exchange, SRS, DRS subsides, rental assistance scheme or referral to support agencies or equivalent

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply policies and procedures within the organisation
- Apply appropriate policies and legislative requirements at the Residential Tenancies Tribunal or equivalent
- Involve stakeholders in evaluation of organisation’s policies in relation to housing allocation
- Apply computer systems, where available, particularly 'letting enquiry queue' to advise client of approximate waiting time in preferred area of choice
- Implement, where relevant, computer rehousing module or equivalent

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Review and develop policy
- Interpret and analyse policies, guidelines and legislation
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - interview techniques
  - negotiation, mediation and conflict resolution
  - highly developed written communication skills
  - effective verbal communication

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit should be assessed in the workplace or through a relevant simulation
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a workplace where assessment can be conducted, or a realistic simulated workplace setting

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients may include:

- New service users
- Existing service users seeking re-housing
- Clients of other housing services

Priority housing criteria may be based upon:

- Organisation policy or guidelines
- As directed by relevant departmental/funding guidelines

Relevant agencies and community workers include:

- Telstra
- Emergency services
- Gas company
- Removalists
- Welfare and community agencies
- Relevant government agencies/organisations

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH413A Manage tenancy rent, charges and rental arrears

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to manage all aspects of tenancy rent and other tenancy related charges

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Implement organisation policy and procedures re rental management | 1.1 Calculate rents using organisation procedures and appropriate computer information systems
1.2 Conduct rent reviews using organisation procedures and fulfilling legal requirements
1.3 Discuss rent calculations and rent reviews with relevant parties/tenants as appropriate
1.4 Document actions as required |
| 2. Implement organisation policy and procedures re arrears and rental management | 2.1 Regularly update rental account and tenant charge systems to maintain currency and accuracy
2.2 Discuss rental accounts in arrears and tenant debts with relevant parties/tenants and negotiate arrears and/or debt agreement/offers with tenant |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3. Manage arrears and tenant debt procedures | 3.1 Reconcile accounts taking into consideration all pending adjustments
3.2 Prioritise accounts requiring action
3.3 Apply early intervention strategies to maximise sustainability of tenancies
3.4 Contact tenant when account is in arrears
3.5 Review systems generated arrears and/or debt letters for appropriateness, alter as necessary and issue to tenant |
| 4. Review client payment history | 4.1 Access rental account and tenant charge systems to gather information on client payment history
4.2 Review client payment history
4.3 Monitor total debt
4.4 Take decision to terminate tenancy, only after all other options have been explored |
| 5. Analyse and interpret financial performance | 5.1 Collect and analyse information in required timeframe
5.2 If tenant is in arrears/debit, feasible optional identify strategies in accordance with organisation goals |
| 6. Initiate recovery actions on accounts in arrears | 6.1 Carry out recovery actions on accounts in arrears
6.2 Make referrals to other government and non-government agencies (e.g. credit and debit counselling, Salvation Army etc.), as required
6.3 Record actions taken according to organisation requirements |
ELEMENT

7. Utilise computer software, or equivalent, relating to arrears management

   7.1 Complete arrears and/or tenant debt reports which provide sufficient information to support further action
   7.2 Monitor offers to repay arrears/debts
   7.3 Update computer information systems, or equivalent, as required

8. Implement organisation/government policy/procedures re eviction process

   8.1 Maintain client confidentiality within organisation policies and procedures
   8.2 Liaise with outside agencies to ensure customer is given every opportunity for assistance
   8.3 Enlist support of outside agencies to assist in resolution of arrears
   8.4 Fulfil legal requirements in relation to termination of tenancy
   8.5 Document actions
   8.6 Consider all options available
   8.7 Negotiate tenant/advocates/legal representation
   8.8 Follow eviction procedures of organisation

9. Recognise/analyse client circumstances

   9.1 Treat clients with consideration and respect
   9.2 Respond to customer circumstances/inquiries
   9.3 Undertake office/field interviews, as required
   9.4 Conduct client service visits in accordance with organisation policies and procedures
   9.5 Complete records of visits/interviews, as required

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Key elements of rental management and rent arrears management
- Principles for sustaining tenancies and early intervention strategies
- Factors which signal difficulties in tenancies in relation to payment of rent
- Factors related to establishing clear and appropriate processes of communication with tenants in relation to rental management
- Rental account system and its operation within the organisation
- Computer systems used in the organisation
- Client confidentiality
- Eviction procedures
- Legal requirements in relation to termination of tenancies

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply policies and procedures within the organisation
- Apply appropriate policies and legislative requirements at the Residential Tenancies Tribunal or equivalent
- Involve stakeholders in evaluation of organisation's policies in relation to rental management

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Interpret and analyse legislation
- Calculate rents, rebates, other relevant subsidies
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - mediation and conflict resolution
  - policy development and review
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit should be assessed in the workplace or through a relevant simulation

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a workplace where assessment can be conducted, or
  - a realistic simulated workplace setting
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Reconcile accounts involves:

- Appropriate assessment of rent rebate entitlements (including interpretation of income statements and supporting documentation)
- Investigation of tenant charges
RANGE STATEMENT

Recovery actions may include:

- Negotiations with tenant/s
- Initiation of legal action to recover debt, if alternative forms of negotiation have been unsuccessful, as per Department of Housing Arrears Management Strategy or equivalent

Legal requirements include:

- Residential Tenancies Act
- Policies and procedures of Department of Housing or equivalent

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH414C Manage rental assistance process

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply the process used in managing rental assistance

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Determine nature of client inquiry and access, resources/services, if appropriate | 1.1 Identify referral options
1.2 Advise client of information and arrange interview
1.3 Review current/previous application and/or tenancies
1.4 Consider supporting documentation from client or relevant supporting agencies |
| 2. Explain and implement assistance policy with applicant | 2.1 Interview applicant with appropriate support people as identified
2.2 Complete assessment checklist or equivalent, explaining process to client |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. Assess eligibility against criteria</td>
<td>3.1 Apply relevant assessment guidelines to determine eligibility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Determine level of assistance to be given</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Document decision according to guidelines</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Determine and document out-of-guidelines decisions according to policy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.5 Advise applicant appropriately of assessment outcome</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Factors affecting need for rental assistance
- Relevant policy, procedures, legislation and statutory mandates
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Communication and decision-making processes
- Relevant documentation protocols
- Range of available services

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Calculate level of assistance according to assessment criteria
- Apply relevant organisation statutory and legislative requirements
- Demonstrate knowledge of factors affecting need for rental assistance

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - conflict resolution, negotiation and mediation techniques
  - facilitation
  - high level writing skills
  - interpersonal and communication
  - interview processes
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit should be assessed in the workplace or through a relevant simulation

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a workplace where assessment can be conducted, or a realistic simulated workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Rental assistance may vary according to:

- Organisation policy
- Relevant departmental guidelines

Relevant legislation, policies and guidelines may include:

- Residential Tenancies Act or equivalent
- Housing policies and procedures of relevant department
- Anti-discrimination legislation or equivalent

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH416C Manage vacant properties

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to manage rental properties which have become vacant

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Manage vacancies</td>
<td>1.1 Implement allocations management policy to ensure targets are met for rehousing, immediate housing and wait-turn housing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Minimise rent loss through prompt restoration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Determine allocation, disposal or redevelopment of a vacant property using total asset management principles</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Manage abandoned properties</td>
<td>2.1 Confirm abandonment of property by inspection, and action according to Residential Tenancies Act</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>and goods</td>
<td>2.2 Assess abandoned goods and vehicles and arrange storage or disposal in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Act</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Maintain security of property</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT  | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
---|---
3. Property condition is assessed and managed | 3.1 Undertake pre-vacation/post-vacation reports
     | 3.2 Identify client charge items and obtain commitment
     | 3.3 Maintain security of property
     | 3.4 Void property and update computer system as appropriate
     | 3.5 Prepare advice of vacant dwellings
     | 3.6 Identify necessary repairs and cleaning
     | 3.7 Raise orders on computer system
     | 3.8 Arrange repairs and cleaning
     | 3.9 Prepare final inspection and property condition report
     | 3.10 Raise debit notes, as required

4. Identify vacant properties and implement arrears management procedures | 4.1 Provide written acknowledgment of advice to tenant including balance of account at cessation date
     | 4.2 Employ police/security services regarding vandalism where necessary
     | 4.3 Recognise legal implications/status of squatters
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- The principles of housing asset management
- Organisation policy
- The key elements of a planned maintenance program
- The relevant sections of residential tenancy legislation in relation to repairs and maintenance

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake debt recovery action as per organisation guidelines
- Undertake repairs and maintenance in a manner consistent with both the policies of the organisation and the relevant residential tenancy legislation
- Take a planned approach to housing asset management
- Work cooperatively with tenants and contractors to achieve effective outcome

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - mediation and conflict resolution
  - effective interpersonal communication
  - planning and coordination of complex processes
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit should be assessed in the workplace or through a relevant simulation
- Assessment must include a variety of repair and maintenance situations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a workplace where assessment can be conducted, or
  - a realistic simulated workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Abandoned goods relates to:
- Those items remaining on a property after either tenancy termination or abandonment of property

Housing assets may include:
- Rental properties directly managed by the organisation
- Property in which organisation is located

Repairs and maintenance will include:
- Minor repairs as a result of accident or wear and tear
- Emergency maintenance, in a manner consistent with tenancy legislation
- Routine maintenance
- Major repairs

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCH419C Manage property maintenance implementation

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCH419B Manage property maintenance implementation</td>
<td>CHCCH419C Manage property maintenance implementation</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for the process of maintaining property assets

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Develop maintenance procedures</td>
<td>1.1 Develop maintenance procedures according to the organisation's long term asset planning strategy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify budget requirements to ensure funding allocation is secured</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Determine requirements for a maintenance schedule by considering both cyclical and responsive maintenance requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Ensure adequate staff resources are available to meet maintenance schedules</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Use available appropriate industry benchmarks to determine maintenance intervals and budget costs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Contract with maintenance parties</td>
<td>2.1 Develop maintenance specifications to reflect the requirements of the organisation's asset management plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Prepare and distribute tender documents according to relevant legislation and best practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Select maintenance contractors based on a transparent selection process</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Prepare contracts to meet client and legislative requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>---------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 3. Monitor maintenance performance | 3.1 Undertake regular reviews and inspections of maintenance to establish impact on performance of maintenance being exercised
3.2 Seek feedback from tenants and other stakeholders about contractor performance
3.3 Ensure maintenance is carried out in accordance with contract documentation
3.4 Collect reliable, accurate and up-to-date data
3.5 Recognise non compliance with performance requirements and act quickly to rectify position
3.6 Prepare reports to accurately reflect maintenance performance against benchmarks and budget requirements |
| 4. Maintain currency of maintenance system | 4.1 Maintain in-house maintenance systems to ensure currency of information and industry trends
4.2 Update asset maintenance plan when work is completed |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Asset management plan
- Industry benchmarks for maintenance procedures
- Work health and safety (WHS) requirements
- Relevant building service, trades and operation for maintenance operations
- Relevant legislation

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Identify effective and poor maintenance within a normal industry environment
- Prepare a maintenance contract demonstrating all principles identified in the standard

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - business written and verbal communication
  - computer skills for data management, analysis and report writing
  - data analysis as applied to asset performance data
- Negotiate contract terms and conditions
- Take into account, use and promote opportunities to address waste minimisation, environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues
- Prepare procedures documentation
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessors should review actual work performed under normal industry operating conditions
- If this is not practicable, evidence obtained in simulated environments may be substituted

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - computer based system which facilitates recording of trainee profiles and progress
  - typical property services plant

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

This unit is relevant to activity within the following social housing sectors:
- Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander housing
- Affordable housing
- Community managed capital properties
- Not for profit rental housing
- Publicly owned housing
- Short and long term crisis accommodation

This unit applies to property found in urban, semi urban and non urban environments

Assets may be:
- Dynamic
- Static

Stakeholders may include:
- Board of directors of not for profit managed property
- Government housing authority
- Maintenance contractors
- Property managers
- Real estate
- Support agencies
- Tenants
RANGE STATEMENT

Asset maintenance plan may include life cycle maintenance of:

- Air conditioning
- Electrical
- Emergency lighting
- Fire lighting
- Floor coverings
- Kitchen
- Laundry
- Painting
- Pests
- Plumbing
- Sanitary disposal
- Security systems
- Vertical movement
- Waste disposal
- Water heater
- Weather proofing
- Window screens

Maintenance procedures may include:

- Contracting to private contractors
- Contracting to public maintenance services

Maintenance parties may include:

- Building trades contractors
- Cleaners
- Painters
- Security agents
- Waste collection
RANGE STATEMENT

Relevant legislation (Federal, State and Local) and industry codes of practice cover areas including:

- Building
- Construction
- Environment
- Financial transactions
- Land use
- Native title
- WHS
- State tenancy legislation
- Utilities use (water, gas, electricity)
- Zoning

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH422B Manage a formal service level support agreement

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to develop, implement and evaluate formal client support agreements and partnerships between generalist housing providers and specialist support providers

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Investigate partnership opportunities</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.1 Gather and analyse information on potential partners</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Target partners according to the organisations needs analysis and strategic directions where appropriate</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Contact relevant partner organisations</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Negotiate support agreement terms and conditions</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1 Conduct negotiations, maintaining a partnership focus and protecting the client's interests</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2 Conduct negotiations in a flexible manner within previously determined parameters</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.3 Clearly define roles and responsibilities of each partner, including level and type of support</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.4 Address confidentiality and privacy issues where appropriate</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.5 Address dispute resolution issues</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.6 Develop and follow protocols for communication</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.7 Sign service support agreement</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 3. Implement support agreement | 3.1 Negotiate and schedule regular meetings with partners as appropriate
3.2 Consult clients at all stages of implementation
3.3 Develop and use disputes resolution strategies where necessary
3.4 Ensure all reporting requirements are met in accordance with organisation procedures |
| 4. Evaluate support agreements | 4.1 Develop criteria for evaluation of partnership
4.2 Seek client feedback in the evaluation process
4.3 Measure performance against agreed criteria
4.4 Amend and re-negotiate support agreements with partner organisation where appropriate |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Funding guidelines
- Referral networks
- Confidentiality and Privacy Act
- Support needs of clients
- Community needs and key issues
- Relationship between service providers

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Facilitate effective work relationships with relevant organisations
- Negotiate, develop and sign off on a partnership contract
- Demonstrate understanding of organisation and community needs

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - negotiation
  - analysis
  - facilitation
  - communication
  - networking
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- referral

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence must include observation in the work environment or in a simulated work setting

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment may include:

- Observation
- Written assessment
- Case studies
- Evidence of materials developed in the workplace
- Questioning

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Partner organisations may include but are not limited to:
- Women's refuges
- Social housing providers
- Youth refuges
- Aboriginal services
- Mental health teams
- Disability services
- NESB services
- Education providers
- Migrant resource centres
- Local councils
- Drug and alcohol services
- Charities and welfare agencies
- Juvenile justice
- Area health services

Documentation could include but is not limited to:
- Partnership contract/service agreement
- Promotional material
- Protocols
- Dispute process

Relevant legislation may include, but is not limited to:
- Privacy legislation
- Residential tenancy legislation

Support may include:
- Visits
- Participation in case conferences
- Telephone contact
- Education
- Exchange of reports
- Life skills training
- Emotional support
- Social support
- Legal support
- Referral to other agencies
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH423B Provide advice to tenants and clients

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide information and advice to tenants and/or clients

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Analyse relevant tenancy legislation | 1.1 Identify relevant legislation and clarify its implications regarding the tenant and landlord relationship
1.2 Explain and clearly define rights and responsibilities of landlords and tenants
1.3 Assist tenants and/or clients to identify their rights |
| 2. Develop information resources | 2.1 Identify resource requirements through consultation with networks and key people and organisations
2.2 Develop written material in easy to read English and/or culturally appropriate format
2.3 Investigate existing resources and assess their capacity to meet the needs of tenants and/or clients
2.4 Incorporate the use of new technologies in resource development, where appropriate
2.5 Ensure information provided to tenants and/or clients is researched, current, relevant |
ELEMENT

3. Develop and implement information strategies

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Plan information strategies
3.2 Identify appropriate agencies for dissemination of information
3.3 Ensure promotion supports tenant understanding of their own rights and responsibilities
3.4 Develop and maintain relevant networks
3.5 Develop information strategies within budgetary consideration
3.6 Investigate and develop strategies for dissemination of information

4. Advocate for clients on request

4.1 Advise tenants and/or clients of their rights in regards to tenancy legislation
4.2 Initiate, negotiate and implement relevant strategies for addressing client needs
4.3 Keep information in confidence unless authorisation is given to release it
4.4 Refer client to other services where appropriate

5. Provide tenancy and/or client education program

5.1 Develop education program in consultation with key people and organisations, identifying priorities and desired outcomes
5.2 Prepare and disseminate marketing materials
5.3 Prepare and distribute education/resource materials
5.4 Seek feedback on education services from tenants and/or clients

6. Collect information and contribute to policy and law reform issues

6.1 Identify, collect and analyse relevant statistical and other data
6.2 Prepare reports and distribute to appropriate stakeholders
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 7. Review and evaluate strategies | 7.1 Assess strategies against planned goals and objectives
7.2 Consult key stakeholders in developing future directions from results of review and evaluation
7.3 Document review and evaluation outcomes and distribute to relevant stakeholders |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Residential tenancy legislation
- Residential tribunal legislation
- Privacy legislation
- Social justice issues
- Housing tenure options
- Court and tribunal frameworks and systems

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - observation
  - written assessment
  - case studies
  - evidence of materials developed in the workplace
  - questioning

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate skills in:
  - confidentiality
  - communication
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- cultural awareness
- interpersonal and advocacy skills
- social justice
- tenancy rights
- conflict resolution
- interpretation and analysis of legislation
- record-keeping
- group work skills
- research skills (including web search)

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence must include observation in the work environment or in a simulated work setting
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation
- Written assessment
- Case studies
- Evidence of materials developed in the workplace
- Questioning
- Workplace project
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Legislation may include but is not restricted to:
- Tenancy legislation
- Privacy legislation
- Tribunal legislation
- Consumer law
- Anti-discrimination legislation

Appropriate resources may include but are not limited to:
- Printed material in easy to read English and/or culturally appropriate
- Video/audio
- Seminars
- Internet

Relevant statistical and other data may include but is not restricted to:
- Tenancy and/or client enquiries
- Tribunal representation
- Demographic details
- Personal details such as gender, Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person, non-English speaking background, disability, housing tenure, housing type (public, community, private)
- Nature of enquiry

Rights may include:
- Rights under tenancy legislation
- Under other legislation
- Rights under organisation's constitution
RANGE STATEMENT

Landlords may include:
- Item private landlord
- Item public housing landlord
- Community housing landlord
- Person or corporation

Education program may include but are not limited to:
- Single events - formal or informal such as an information stall at a shopping centre or a seminar
- Multi session education and skill development program
- A complex large scale series of activities

Key people and organisations may include, but are not limited to:
- Private and social housing tenants
- Potential tenants
- Social housing providers
- Funding bodies
- Staff

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCH424B Manage leasehold properties

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify, acquire and manage properties head-leased from the private rental market.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify property needs of the organisation | 1.1 Develop leasehold property acquisition strategy in accordance with organisation's needs analysis
1.2 Undertake research on market conditions to ensure strategy is achievable
1.3 Plan strategy to meet tenancy mix and income stream projections and property portfolio projections |
| 2. Identify and acquire leasehold properties | 2.1 Promote the organisation to landlords/agents to ensure an understanding of the principles of social housing, the organisation's goals and objectives
2.2 Inspect property for appropriateness and assessment against organisations budgetary requirements
2.3 Prepare head tenancy agreements with landlord
2.4 Build and maintain relationships with the landlord/agent |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3. Manage and maintain leasehold properties | 3.1 Prepare and complete tenancy documentation in accordance with relevant legislation and organisation's policies and procedures
3.2 Keep appropriate records
3.3 Identify rights and responsibilities of tenant and landlord in property maintenance issues and apply in accordance with organisation policies and procedures
3.4 Discuss and resolve relevant insurance issues with landlord
3.5 Carry out property inspections on a regular basis |
| 4. Manage vacant leasehold properties | 4.1 Negotiate end of tenancy issues with landlord/agent in accordance with relevant legislation and organisation policy and procedures
4.2 Prepare relevant reports and provide to appropriate parties |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Local property knowledge
- Residential Tenancy legislation and principles of property management
- Research and needs analysis

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate understanding of head tenancy agreements
- Communicate effectively with landlords/agents
- Implement Residential Tenancy legislation
- Maintain record-keeping of property management details

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Work within budgets
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - record-keeping
  - written and verbal communication
  - negotiation
  - liaison
  - promotion of the organisation
  - property inspection and reporting
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment of this unit will usually be conducted as part of work assignment involving negotiating with landlords/agent in the head-leasing of property

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment may include:

- Observation
- Written assessment
- Case studies
- Evidence of materials developed in the workplace
- Questioning

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Needs of the organisation may include but are not limited to:

- Special needs of tenants
- Appropriate or minimum property standards
- Location of properties
- Length of tenure of properties
- Priorities according to budgetary considerations
- Market availability
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders could include but are not limited to:

- Property owners
- Real estate agents
- Tenants
- Applicants
- Government departments

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH426B Support client participation in the organisation

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to involve service users in the organisation

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Encourage client participation in organisation's activities</td>
<td>1.1 Design activities to encourage client participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Create opportunities for comments from clients on service provision</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Seek specific feedback on activities which may directly affect clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Identify barriers to client participation</td>
<td>2.1 Create opportunities to identify client barriers to participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Refer identified barriers to appropriate people within the organisation</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Culture of community housing provision
- Issues affecting the client group
- Rights of clients and workers
- Working with individuals and groups

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate understanding of client's role and functions within the organisation
- Demonstrate support for client participation structures and activities within the organisation

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - establishing rapport
  - active listening
  - interpretation of verbal and non-verbal communication
  - observation skills
  - reporting skills
Evidence Guide

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal range of conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider client participation requirements within the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Client participation includes:

- Organisation processes which require/encourage active participation in the organisation by clients of the service

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH427A Work effectively with people experiencing or at risk of homelessness

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for working with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless, including women and children experiencing family violence

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in a range of community services work contexts, working with people who are homeless

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Develop knowledge of causes and impacts of homelessness | 1.1 Demonstrate consideration of the changing social, political and economic context in which homelessness occurs
1.2 Demonstrate understanding of the historical context of homelessness, supported housing, transitional housing and crisis housing
1.3 Demonstrate understanding of the structural causes which allow and maintain homelessness
1.4 Apply knowledge of the current issues which impact on homelessness
1.5 Identify additional barriers in accessing safe, secure housing for people in specific circumstances experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
1.6 Demonstrate understanding of the complexity surrounding family violence
1.7 Collect and use the views of key stakeholders and representatives from relevant target groups when collecting information about homelessness |
ELEMENT

2. Demonstrate commitment to the central philosophies and legal requirements of working with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Demonstrate consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophies of working with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

2.2 Work within relevant service standards and guidelines

2.3 Demonstrate understanding of the legal requirements when dealing with young people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

2.4 Demonstrate understanding of the legal requirements when dealing with people who are experiencing family violence

2.5 Demonstrate understanding of duty of care requirements and the law of negligence in delivering services to those experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

2.6 Demonstrate a commitment to access and equity principles in all work

2.7 Where appropriate, ensure opportunities are provided for client participation in service planning and support activities

2.8 Identify personal values and attitudes regarding homelessness and take these into account when planning and implementing work activities
ELEMENT

3. Develop a professional rapport with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Conduct interpersonal communication in a manner that enhances a client-centred approach consistent with organisation standards
3.2 Communicate with clients respectfully and in a manner that builds trust
3.3 Consider cultural sensitivities in communication techniques and adapt style and language to accommodate different cultural values and practices
3.4 Recognise how one's own ethnicity, religion, class and gender will affect interactions with clients
3.5 Recognise the communication needs of clients who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
3.6 Define boundaries and use communication skills that will establish a trusting and respectful relationship
3.7 Take appropriate measures to resolve conflict and interpersonal differences

4. Address issues associated with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

4.1 Evaluate personal safety of those experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
4.2 Make appropriate referrals to ensure client's safety requirements are met
4.3 Recognise trauma and refer to appropriate personnel or services
4.4 Evaluate issues impacting on the person's homeless situation and modify approach appropriately
4.5 Support clients to deal with a range of complex issues
4.6 Work with client to identify potential solutions to complex issues raised including referral to appropriate services and personnel
4.7 Support clients to deal with discrimination
4.8 Advocate as required to facilitate addressing of issues on behalf of people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
ELEMENT

5. Support people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Advocate and negotiate in conjunction with clients where appropriate

5.2 Support clients to advocate and/or negotiate on their own behalf

5.3 Effectively negotiate and create access pathways with support services and the full range of social and private housing providers

5.4 Use a range of advocacy techniques to support people from differing cultural backgrounds, in addition to gender sensitive and age appropriate practice
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Own work role within the context of delivering services to homeless people
- Organisation's role within the context of the sector
- Principles of community delivered service provision
- Primary, secondary and tertiary definitions of homelessness
- Holistic and client-centred service
- Principles of client empowerment/disempowerment
- Principles of access and equity
- Policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements include:
  - community service standards and guidelines
  - relevant guidelines and requirements
  - residential tenancy legislation or equivalent
  - legislation underpinning the principles of privacy, equal opportunity, individual rights, and freedom of information
  - Human Rights Charter or equivalent

and may include:

- housing legislation, as appropriate
- National Community Housing Standards
- waiting list guidelines
- Disability Services Act and standards
- child protection
- national housing policy
- Cooperatives Act or other equivalent governing legislation
- relevant state based legislation
- Historical and structural causes of homelessness
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Gender context of homelessness
- Political and economic context of homelessness
- Current issues facing clients and existing services to address their needs and rights
- Principles and practices of ethics and values
- Principles and practices of confidentiality
- Principles and practice of duty of care

continued ...

Essential knowledge (contd):

- Legal system:
  - courts
  - police powers
  - court reports
  - relevant state residential tenancy tribunals
- Range of issues impacting on people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
- Understanding of the case management framework
- Understanding of the pathways of the homelessness service system including crisis, transitional, community housing, public housing, housing associations, cooperatives

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the case management framework
- Work within relevant legislation
- Demonstrate a range of communication styles to engage a broad cross section of those experiencing homelessness for example young people, those with cultural differences, women and children experiencing family violence

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Conduct interpersonal communication with clients and other stakeholders
- Prepare reports so that the information and organisation of information is appropriate to its purposes and audience
- Work individually or as part of a team
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- problem solving
- effective use of relevant information technology in line with occupational health and safety (OHS) guidelines
- create access pathways for transient, marginalised clients
- recognising indicators of family violence, mental health issues, substance abuse and child protection issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- This unit is recommended to be assessed in conjunction with all other specialisation units selected as part of a qualification or skill set
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Context includes:

- Statutory framework within which work takes place
- Historical context of work e.g. changing role of social housing in the overall context of housing provision; changing approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Changing social context of work e.g. client-centred approach, changing government and societal views of not-for-profit housing, approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Political context e.g. government policies and initiatives affecting social housing work
- Economic context e.g. the current economic situation as it relates to and affects social housing and the subsequent impact on client needs
- International/United Nations conventions, such as Human Rights and Convention on the Rights of the Child - CROC
- State based Human Rights Charters

People in specific circumstances include:

- Young people
- Indigenous people
- Gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and inter-gender people
RANGE STATEMENT

Different models of work in the sector may include:
- Community development and education
- Case management
- Social housing provision
- Housing information and referral
- Outreach work

Stakeholders and representatives may include:
- Clients/service users/members/tenants
- Local community
- Community organisations
- Government representatives and service providers
- Peak bodies and networks in the sector
- Management, colleagues, team members

The underpinning values and philosophies may include:
- A social justice perspective
- Community development approach
- Housing as a right not a privilege
- A holistic and client-centred approach
- Commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of clients
- Commitment to empowering the client

A commitment to access and equity principles includes:
- Creation of a client oriented culture
- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers
- Ensuring the work undertaken takes account of and caters for differences including: cultural, physical, gender, religious, economic, social
RANGE STATEMENT

Experience of homelessness may impact:

- Those who are homeless
- Those at risk of becoming homeless
- Young people
- Older people
- Families
- Gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, inter-gender
- Those exiting institutions - prisons, hospital
- Those with mental health issues
- Those with alcohol and/or other drug issues
- Those who are experiencing financial hardship

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH427B Work effectively with people experiencing or at risk of homelessness

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCH427A Work effectively with people experiencing or at risk of homelessness</td>
<td>CHCCH427B Work effectively with people experiencing or at risk of homelessness</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for working with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless, including women and children experiencing family violence

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may be applied in a range of community services work contexts, working with people who are homeless

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Develop knowledge of causes and impacts of homelessness | 1.1 Demonstrate consideration of the changing social, political and economic \textit{context} in which homelessness occurs
1.2 Demonstrate understanding of the historical context of homelessness, supported housing, transitional housing and crisis housing
1.3 Demonstrate understanding of the structural causes which allow and maintain homelessness
1.4 Apply knowledge of the current issues which impact on homelessness
1.5 Identify additional barriers in accessing safe, secure housing for \textit{people in specific circumstances} experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
1.6 Demonstrate understanding of the complexity surrounding family violence
1.7 Collect and use the views of key \textit{stakeholders and representatives} from relevant target groups when collecting information about homelessness |
ELEMENT

2. Demonstrate commitment to the central philosophies and legal requirements of working with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Demonstrate consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophies of working with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

2.2 Work within relevant service standards and guidelines

2.3 Demonstrate understanding of the legal requirements when dealing with young people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

2.4 Demonstrate understanding of the legal requirements when dealing with people who are experiencing family violence

2.5 Demonstrate understanding of duty of care requirements and the law of negligence in delivering services to those experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

2.6 Demonstrate a commitment to access and equity principles in all work

2.7 Where appropriate, ensure opportunities are provided for client participation in service planning and support activities

2.8 Identify personal values and attitudes regarding homelessness and take these into account when planning and implementing work activities
ELEMENT

3. Develop a professional rapport with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Conduct interpersonal communication in a manner that enhances a client-centred approach consistent with organisation standards

3.2 Communicate with clients respectfully and in a manner that builds trust

3.3 Consider cultural sensitivities in communication techniques and adapt style and language to accommodate different cultural values and practices

3.4 Recognise how one's own ethnicity, religion, class and gender will affect interactions with clients

3.5 Recognise the communication needs of clients who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

3.6 Define boundaries and use communication skills that will establish a trusting and respectful relationship

3.7 Take appropriate measures to resolve conflict and interpersonal differences

4. Address issues associated with people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

4.1 Evaluate personal safety of those experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

4.2 Make appropriate referrals to ensure client's safety requirements are met

4.3 Recognise trauma and refer to appropriate personnel or services

4.4 Evaluate issues impacting on the person's homeless situation and modify approach appropriately

4.5 Support clients to deal with a range of complex issues

4.6 Work with client to identify potential solutions to complex issues raised including referral to appropriate services and personnel

4.7 Support clients to deal with discrimination

4.8 Advocate as required to facilitate addressing of issues on behalf of people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
ELEMENT

5. Support people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Advocate and negotiate in conjunction with clients where appropriate

5.2 Support clients to advocate and/or negotiate on their own behalf

5.3 Effectively negotiate and create access pathways with support services and the full range of social and private housing providers

5.4 Use a range of advocacy techniques to support people from differing cultural backgrounds, in addition to gender sensitive and age appropriate practice
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include knowledge of:

- Own work role within the context of delivering services to homeless people
- Organisation’s role within the context of the sector
- Principles of community delivered service provision
- Primary, secondary and tertiary definitions of homelessness
- Holistic and client-centred service
- Principles of client empowerment/disempowerment
- Principles of access and equity
- Policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements include:
  - community service standards and guidelines
  - relevant guidelines and requirements
  - residential tenancy legislation or equivalent
  - legislation underpinning the principles of privacy, equal opportunity, individual rights, and freedom of information
  - Human Rights Charter or equivalent

and may include:

- housing legislation, as appropriate
- National Community Housing Standards
- waiting list guidelines
- Disability Services Act and standards
- child protection
- national housing policy
- Cooperatives Act or other equivalent governing legislation
- relevant state based legislation
- Historical and structural causes of homelessness
- Gender context of homelessness
- Political and economic context of homelessness
- Current issues facing clients and existing services to address their needs and rights
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Principles and practices of ethics and values
- Principles and practices of confidentiality
- Principles and practice of duty of care
- Legal system:
  - courts
  - police powers
  - court reports
  - relevant state residential tenancy tribunals
- Range of issues impacting on people who are experiencing homelessness or risk of becoming homeless
- Understanding of the case management framework
- Understanding of the pathways of the homelessness service system including crisis, transitional, community housing, public housing, housing associations, cooperatives

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the case management framework
- Work within relevant legislation
- Demonstrate a range of communication styles to engage a broad cross section of those experiencing homelessness for example young people, those with cultural differences, women and children experiencing family violence

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Conduct interpersonal communication with clients and other stakeholders
- Prepare reports so that the information and organisation of information is appropriate to its purposes and audience
- Work individually or as part of a team
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - problem solving
  - effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
  - create access pathways for transient, marginalised clients
  - recognising indicators of family violence, mental health issues, substance abuse and child protection issues
Evidence Guide

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- This unit is recommended to be assessed in conjunction with all other specialisation units selected as part of a qualification or skill set

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Context includes:
- Statutory framework within which work takes place
- Historical context of work e.g. changing role of social housing in the overall context of housing provision; changing approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Changing social context of work e.g. client-centred approach, changing government and societal views of not-for-profit housing, approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Political context e.g. government policies and initiatives affecting social housing work
- Economic context e.g. the current economic situation as it relates to and affects social housing and the subsequent impact on client needs
- International/United Nations conventions, such as Human Rights and Convention on the Rights of the Child - CROC
- State based Human Rights Charters

People in specific circumstances include:
- Young people
- Indigenous people
- Gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and inter-gender people

Different models of work in the sector may include:
- Community development and education
- Case management
- Social housing provision
- Housing information and referral
- Outreach work

Stakeholders and representatives may include:
- Clients/service users/members/tenants
- Local community
- Community organisations
- Government representatives and service providers
- Peak bodies and networks in the sector
- Management, colleagues, team members
RANGE STATEMENT

The underpinning values and philosophies may include:

- A social justice perspective
- Community development approach
- Housing as a right not a privilege
- A holistic and client-centred approach
- Commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of clients
- Commitment to empowering the client

A commitment to access and equity principles includes:

- Creation of a client oriented culture
- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers
- Ensuring the work undertaken takes account of and caters for differences including: cultural, physical, gender, religious, economic, social

Experience of homelessness may impact:

- Those who are homeless
- Those at risk of becoming homeless
- Young people
- Older people
- Families
- Gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, inter-gender
- Those exiting institutions - prisons, hospital
- Those with mental health issues
- Those with alcohol and/or other drug issues
- Those who are experiencing financial hardship

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCH428A Work effectively within the Australian housing system</td>
<td>CHCCH428B Work effectively within the Australian housing system</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to assist people who are looking for or need assistance with housing and accommodation.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may be applied in a range of community services work contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Develop an understanding of the Australian housing system | 1.1 Work with knowledge of the context within which the system of housing has developed in Australia
  1.2 Apply knowledge of different levels of government and their role in the housing system
  1.3 Maintain an understanding of current factors which impact on the provision of housing
  1.4 Maintain awareness of ongoing changes over time in the Australian housing system and associated issues
  1.5 Develop understanding of different consumers, their needs, complex issues and types of solutions available to address these needs and issues |
| 2. Apply understanding of different types of tenure | 2.1 Work with understanding of the levels of different types of tenures
  2.2 Develop specialised knowledge of tenures in fields in which you work
  2.3 Develop and apply knowledge of key stakeholders in these fields
  2.4 Demonstrate an understanding of mix of tenures in geographic area in own work area |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3. Apply understanding of private rental system | 3.1 Work with understanding of legislative and regulatory requirements applying to the private rental sector
3.2 Develop and apply knowledge of common rental and leasing agreements and financing arrangements for rental properties
3.3 Develop and apply knowledge of management arrangements for rental properties
3.4 Develop and apply understanding of private rental sector stakeholder issues |
| 4. Provide assistance to clients with housing issues | 4.1 Apply knowledge of key agencies to provide referrals
4.2 Provide advice and assistance on housing options
4.3 Provide assistance to maintain tenancies
4.4 Demonstrate commitment to access and equity principles within the Australian housing system |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Historical, social and political context and development of the Australian housing system, including changes over time and associated issues
- Federal and state legislation and regulatory requirements relating to housing
- Levels of government in Australia and their role in the housing system
- Access and equity issues in the housing sector
- Current and historical factors which impact on the provision of housing
- Range of consumers and consumer groups in relation to the Australian housing system, their demographics, needs, complexity of issues
- Housing options available to address consumer needs and issues
- Range and mix of housing types and tenures and associated consumers
- Private rental system
- Own work role within the context of delivering services within the Australian housing system
- Consumer needs and rights including duty of care
- Cultural issues which impact on housing system for minority groups such as newly arrived refugees and for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Principles of client empowerment/disempowerment and community delivered service provision
- Current issues facing clients and existing services to address their needs and rights
- Principles and practices of ethics and values, confidentiality and duty of care

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the Australian housing system
- Determine and comply with legislative and regulatory requirements applying to own work role
- Apply knowledge of the Australian housing system within scope of work role
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Conduct interpersonal communication with clients and other stakeholders
- Work as part of a team or as a sole worker
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - problem solving
  - communication
  - effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- This unit must be assessed with all other specialisation units chosen as part of a package at a particular Australian Qualifications Framework level
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Context includes:

- Statutory framework within which work takes place
- Historical context of work e.g. changing role of social housing in the overall context of housing provision; changing approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Changing social context of work e.g. consumer centred approach, changing government and societal views of not-for-profit housing, approaches to working with clients/service users/members/tenants
- Political context e.g. government policies and initiatives affecting social housing work
- Economic context e.g. the current economic situation as it relates to and affects social housing and the subsequent impact on client needs

Different types of tenure include:

- Home ownership
- Private rental
- Social housing

Fields may include:

- Private rental
- Social housing
- Caravan parks
- Residential services
- Aged accommodation
RANGE STATEMENT

A commitment to access and equity principles includes:

- Creation of a consumer oriented culture
- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers
- Ensuring the work undertaken takes account of and caters for differences including: cultural, physical, religious, economic, social

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH518B Manage property maintenance planning

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for the development of plans and strategies for maintenance of property assets

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify a framework for asset maintenance planning in a social housing context | 1.1 Apply understanding of asset maintenance in terms of strategic asset management
1.2 Apply understanding of the role of asset management in the wider context of social housing
1.3 Identify an appropriate model for asset management which is customer focused and flexible to meet changing customer expectations and external influences
1.4 Apply legislative and regulatory requirements for preparing an asset maintenance plan based on key principles of asset maintenance planning
1.5 Identify appropriate human and IT resources to develop and document the asset management plan
1.6 Assess property condition according to relevant standards
1.7 Cost services accurately and ratify operational budgets with relevant parties
1.8 Establish planning and operating systems that enable regular monitoring of performance
1.9 Identify appropriate strategic and financial reporting and risk management processes |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Estimate life cycle performance of asset components | 2.1 Identify industry benchmarks that prescribe expected performance of assets in varying conditions
2.2 Identify specifications, conditions and manufacturers’ requirements for asset maintenance and operation
2.3 Establish user, contractual and legislative requirements for asset performance |
| 3. Establish an asset register | 3.1 Identify criteria for establishing an asset register that meet client and legislative requirements
3.2 Adopt cost effective procedures or methods for the collection and assessment of asset data
3.3 Ensure data collected on assets is quantifiable in terms of selected criteria
3.4 Maintain asset register with accurate and up to date information
3.5 Produce accurate reports of asset characteristics relevant to use in the maintenance strategy |
| 4. Specify maintenance requirements | 4.1 Clearly identify operational and maintenance requirements to achieve identified asset performance in accordance with operational plans
4.2 Ensure maintenance requirements specify priorities, conditions, method of maintenance and/or performance requirements |
ELEMENT                  PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5. Schedule activities  5.1 Schedule work allocations to maximise productivity and meet client expectations
                       5.2 Plan service activities to minimise backtracking, travel time and staff downtime in accordance with relevant legislation and company policy
                       5.3 Take into account in work allocation, specific skills, preferences and capacities of staff and licences relevant to the work being performed
                       5.4 Enable achievement of required business targets over defined period through scheduling
                       5.5 Schedule emergency and urgent work requirements for priority attention

6. Monitor and adjust schedules  6.1 Record changes and reasons for variations to schedule to enable adjustment of future work requirements
                                6.2 Minimise disruption to achievement of business targets by adjustments
                                6.3 Advise clients in advance of rescheduled work

7. Review asset performance and requirements  7.1 Determine and maintain methods and procedures for review of the asset management plan
                                               7.2 Ensure data on asset performance has integrity, appropriate accuracy and is recorded at time of inspection
                                               7.3 Undertake periodic review to meet client and legislative expectations for compliance and data integrity
                                               7.4 Rectify variations to condition and performance of assets to ensure property performance is not at risk
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Building practices in relevant property types
- Building services and operation methods and practices
- Client needs and preferences for different property types
- Industry performance benchmarks
- Maintenance procedures, including vendor specifications
- Monitoring and evaluation systems
- Relevant occupational health and safety requirements
- Relevant property and services legislation
- Standards for building equipment operation
- Understanding of the social housing context

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Conduct a performance review study on a series of assets
- Prepare a maintenance plan/strategy under normal industry operating
- Undertake condition establishment and maintain an asset register

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Develop strategies and options based on information
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- financial planning
- planning and scheduling
- suitable computer application skills
- information analysis
- risk management
- Take into account, use and promote opportunities to address waste minimisation, environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues
- Undertake decision-making against fixed and variable criteria

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment of competency may be made through practical demonstration in the work environment or in a relevant simulated work environment
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to
  - a work environment or relevant simulated work environment where assessment can take place

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

This unit is relevant to activity within the following social housing sectors:

- Affordable housing
- Community housing property portfolio
- Cooperative housing
- Private properties headleased to community housing
- Properties managed by churches
- Properties managed by public and community housing with support agreements
- Public housing assets
- Short term and medium term crisis leasehold and capital properties
RANGE STATEMENT

This unit applies to property found in urban, semi urban and non urban environments.

Maintenance strategy and asset maintenance plans may include life cycle maintenance of:

- Air conditioning
- Electrical
- Emergency lighting
- Fire lighting
- Floor coverings
- Kitchen
- Laundry
- Painting
- Pests
- Plumbing
- Sanitary disposal
- Security systems
- Vertical movement
- Waste disposal
- Water heater
- Weather proofing
- Window screens

Relevant parties may include:

- Community housing boards
- Community housing managers
- Institutions
- Owner occupiers
- Private Funds providers
- Public housing
- Real estate agents
- Social housing tenants

Specialised areas may include:

- Machinery specific maintenance requirements
- Sources of maintenance support

Asset register may include:

- Age of property
- Condition of internal and external property assets
- Construction type
- Data on all properties the provider has maintenance responsibilities for
- Geographic location
RANGE STATEMENT

Asset register may be:
- Computerised
- Manual

Asset performance criteria may include:
- Age
- Condition assessment
- Cost
- Depreciation
- Downtime
- Emergency operation and backup
- Functionality
- Life span
- Maintenance requirements and cost
- Replacement
- Safety
- Security
- Service levels

Industry benchmarks can be:
- Community housing national standards
- Government statistics
- Industry reports and indices
- Public housing asset standards
- Published analytical reports
- Published and reliable information from industry operators or other interested parties
- Social housing performance registration systems

Appropriate sources may include:
- Industry experience
- Local operating data
- Manufacturers' documentation
- Previous asset performance

Methods of maintenance may include:
- External private contractors
- In-house employee services
- Lease contractual obligations
- Outsourcing through external contracts with arms length organisations
RANGE STATEMENT

Schedules may be prepared for:

- Daily
- Weekly
- Monthly or annual timeframes

Client may include:

- Builder
- Building inspector
- Owner
- Property agent
- Real estate agent
- Tenant

Relevant legislation (Federal, State and Local) and industry codes of practice cover areas including:

- Australian Standards for construction
- Building code of Australia
- Construction
- Contracts
- Environment
- Financial transactions
- Land use
- Native title
- Property Council of Australia Codes of Practice
- Safety
- Taxation
- The market sector
- Utilities use (water, gas, electricity)
- Zoning

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH521B Develop social housing enterprise opportunities

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to investigate, negotiate and implement new business opportunities for social housing providers

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify resources for new business or project opportunities | 1.1 Investigate and identify project opportunities
1.2 Undertake feasibility study to determine likely project viability
1.3 Assess practicability of project opportunity in line with perceived risks, returns sought and resources available |
| 2. Undertake a risk management analysis for new business or project opportunities | 2.1 Assess risks associated with new projects and take steps to maximise outcomes
2.2 Involve stakeholders in risk management |
| 3. Develop business or project ideas and options | 3.1 Identify and assess financial costs and resource requirements
3.2 Develop project timeframe
3.3 Implement appropriate structures to oversee new projects/business as relevant
3.4 Establish, monitor and review policies and procedures to manage the use of staff, equipment and other physical assets, on a regular basis |
ELEMENT

4. Implement new business or project strategies

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Performance Criteria</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4.1 Communicate new business strategies to relevant stakeholders</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2 Clearly communicate roles and responsibilities of all parties</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3 Implement the project or new business in line with all relevant guidelines, legal and taxation requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4 Maintain and keep required records to ensure legal organisation and statutory requirements are met</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5 Develop and sign contracts where appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.6 Establish regular feedback mechanisms</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. Evaluate new business or project opportunities

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Performance Criteria</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5.1 Ensure that evaluation strategy and related techniques devised to collect and analyse data, meet the needs of decision-makers, funding organisations, business partners and others with a stake in the project or new business</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2 Consult all stakeholders on criteria used to evaluate the effectiveness of the project/business</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3 Use evaluation information for project or business revision, ongoing development and implementation</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Project development and management
- Submission writing protocols
- Budgeting/financial management
- Investigation of funding opportunities
- Legal and industry standards knowledge
- Change management processes
- Knowledge of the taxation environment

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake project management within principles of best practice
- Devise, initiate, manage and evaluate projects and new business
- Provide verbal and written feedback

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - submission writing
  - high level of written and oral communication
  - negotiation
  - financial management
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- consultation
- project management
- communication
- delegation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
  This may include the use of languages other than English and alternative communications systems
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation
- Written assessment
- Case studies
- Evidence of materials developed in the workplace
- Questioning
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

New business or project opportunities may include but are not limited to:
- Government funding
- Private partnerships
- Private investment
- Philanthropic opportunities
- Community partnerships
- Government partnerships

Identifying and acquiring resources includes:
- Preparing submissions
- Liaising with key stakeholders
- Assessing availability and accessibility to funding

Relevant information may include but is not limited to:
- Business plans
- Funding guidelines

Stakeholders may include but are not limited to:
- Local business
- Tenants
- Applicants
- Funding bodies
- Staff
- Board of Directors
RANGE STATEMENT

Viability may include, but is not limited to:

- Opportunities available
- Market competition
- Timing/ cyclical considerations
- Skills available
- Resources available
- Location and/ or premises available

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH522B Undertake outreach work

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCH522A Undertake outreach work</td>
<td>CHCCH522B Undertake outreach work</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to work in an outreach capacity with vulnerable or at risk groups such as those experiencing homelessness, mental health, alcohol or other drugs (AOD) issues.

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit addresses workers who are required to deliver services to people who are experiencing homelessness, risk of being homeless, mental health or AOD issues.

It includes preparation and follow up as well as working safely in an unfamiliar and potentially unpredictable environment.

Application of this unit should be contextualised to reflect any specific work requirements and practices.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Prepare for outreach work | 1.1 Establish where outreach service is to take place and purpose of service
1.2 Clarify history of service and/or client in relation to unexpected issues and needs
1.3 Identify any potential risks or issues in environment of intended visit
1.4 Prepare resources and documents required to undertake outreach activity including contingency plan
1.5 Allow time in schedule for contingencies
1.6 Ensure organisation and co-workers are aware of intended time and place of outreach activity and contact details
1.7 Develop respect for and understanding of the environment and culture of the setting where outreach is being conducted
1.8 Assess boundaries of practice |
CHCCH522B Undertake outreach work

Date this document was generated: 31 March 2017

© Commonwealth of Australia, 2017
SkillsIQ

ELEMENT

2. Undertake outreach service

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Check for hazards to own and others' health and safety and take action to control risk
2.2 Follow agency's outreach policies
2.3 Take standard safety precautions and where required, take additional precautions
2.4 Demonstrate respect for clients and each client's environment and act with sensitivity in the environment
2.5 Demonstrate respect for client's friends/associates should they be present and act with sensitivity in the environment
2.6 Identify risk management practices appropriate for outreach setting
2.7 Follow risk management practices developed to address own role in delivering services
2.8 Demonstrate and apply understanding of relevant legislation

3. Establish client relationship

3.1 Communicate with purpose of visit and confirm acceptance regarding outreach service
3.2 Communicate with client and others in the environment in a manner that builds trust
3.3 Utilise a client-centred approach when establishing a relationship
3.4 Provide opportunity for client to identify and express any issues or concerns in relation to the service and/or associated matters
3.5 Provide appropriate support and information within scope of own work role and record and report relevant issues or concerns promptly to appropriate person
3.6 Deal with difficult or challenging situations promptly, firmly and diplomatically in accordance with relevant policies and procedures
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4. Follow up outreach service</td>
<td>4.1 Document all aspects of the outreach service in line with organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Promptly report and refer any areas of concern to an appropriate person or authority</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Ensure any arrangements for follow up visits are recorded and implemented</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Evaluate overall effectiveness of outreach services provided</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Work health and safety (WHS) issues and procedures in relation to working in unfamiliar and unpredictable environments
- Best ways to contact clients and predict client movements
- Safety practices in relation to own work role and applied to working in unfamiliar and unpredictable environments
- Legislative, regulatory and organisation requirements relating to reporting issues
- Primary, secondary and tertiary definitions of homelessness
- Historical and structural causes of homelessness
- Political and economic context of homelessness
- Current issues facing clients and existing services to address their needs and rights
- Principles and practices of ethics and values
- Principles and practices of confidentiality
- Principles and practice of duty of care
- Legal system
- Courts
- Range of issues impacting on people who are experiencing homelessness, mental health issues, drug and/or alcohol issues
- Consumer needs and rights including duty of care
- Principles of client empowerment/disenpowerment
- Principles of access and equity
- Boundaries of outreach practice
- Knowledge of debates associated with public space
- Behavioural impacts of mental health conditions
- Behavioural impacts of drugs and/or alcohol
- Social justice principles
- Crisis response
- Crisis debriefing
- Personal values
- Personal boundaries
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Prepare appropriately for outreach services
- Work with others and display understanding of issues relevant to outreach services
- Communicate clearly and sensitively with clients who are experiencing homelessness, risk of homelessness, mental health or AOD issues

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use problem solving skills, including the ability to use available resources in a potentially difficult environment
- Use language, literacy and numeracy skills to:
  - communicate in English and/or community language, depending on client group
- Use oral communication skills, including:
  - asking questions
  - providing clear information
  - listening to and understanding workplace instructions
  - clarifying workplace instructions when necessary
- Demonstrate safe and effective use of workplace technology in line with WHS guidelines
- Work autonomously
- Work within a multi-disciplinary team
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Where, for reasons of safety, space, or access to equipment and resources, assessment takes place away from the workplace, the assessment environment should represent workplace conditions as closely as possible

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include:
  - access to appropriate workplace where assessment can take place
  - relevant organisation policy, protocols and procedures
  - access to equipment and resources normally used in the workplace

Method of assessment may include:

- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects
- Case study and scenario analysis
- Questioning
- Role play simulation

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Outreach service may include:

- Provision of a range of services
- Meetings with clients to establish needs
- Delivery of products, materials or equipment
- Consultation with client and/or others
- Regular or planned follow up
RANGE STATEMENT

History of service and/or client may include

- Type of service previously delivered
- Issues related to delivery of service
- Client issues, including reasons for specific issues, such as homelessness
- Accessibility to services

Potential risks and issues may include but are not limited to:

- Worker unable to obtain safe access to environment
- Interpreter required
- Unpredictable client behaviour (e.g. aggression, dementia, mental health issues, alcohol and other drugs (AOD) issues)
- Specific identified health and safety risks
- Client in need of basic supplies (e.g. food or medication)
- Hazardous environments
- Infection risks
- Client friends/acquaintances

Environment may include:

- Squats
- Empty buildings
- Outdoor areas including parks, under bridges etc
- Churches
- Food/coffee sites
- Shopping malls
- Friend's accommodation
- Boarding/community rooming houses
- Transitional housing properties

Resources and documents may include:

- Equipment
- Document relevant to outreach service
- Safety equipment such as mobile phone/radio

Hazards include:

- Safety of physical environment
- Number of people in area
- Infection control practices
RANGE STATEMENT

Areas for concern may include but are not limited to:

- Client very sick, injured or deceased
- Signs of violence or abuse (physical or mental)
- Signs of neglect
- Signs of deterioration of client's physical or mental condition
- Client in need of basic supplies (e.g. food, other consumables or medication)

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH620D Acquire properties by purchase or transfer

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to negotiate the purchase in property or transfer of property from public to community housing

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in the social housing context of community services work

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Formulate terms and conditions of contract or transfer agreement element</td>
<td>1.1 Formulate draft contract/transfer agreement terms and conditions to protect client's interests</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Issue instructions to legal consultants to prepare draft contract where appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Formulate draft contracts and/or agreements to meet relevant industry, company and legislative requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Convey draft contract/agreement terms and conditions to the relevant party or its agent before negotiations are undertaken</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Negotiate contract/agreement terms and conditions</td>
<td>2.1 Hold discussions with interested parties to enable agreement to be reached on form and contents of contract/agreement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Ensure contract/agreement is signed by all parties once agreement has been reached on the form and content</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

3. Confirm acceptability of contract

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Issue instructions to relevant consultants to enable the property inspection to be effected

3.2 Liaise with relevant parties regarding upgrades or maintenance requirements of identified properties

3.3 Convey decision to interested parties in a timely manner and in writing
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Commercial and contract law
- Due diligence processes
- Economics as they relate to the property industry
- Property appraisal methods and interpretation of findings
- Feasibility studies

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Identify terms and conditions acceptable to all parties being determined
- Successfully conduct due diligence review
- Execute a contract which reflects the relevant positions of each party

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - collection and analysis of financial performance information
  - negotiating
  - communication both verbal and written
  - planning
  - instructing consultants
  - analysing
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- decision-making

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package:

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment of competency may be made through practical demonstration in the work environment or in a relevant simulated work environment

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

This unit is relevant to activity within the following market sectors:

- Not for profit rental housing
- Retail
- Commercial
- Industrial
- Residential
- Hospitality
- Infrastructure
- Services

Contract may be initiated by:

- The purchaser or Vendor

Consultants may include:

- Legal
- Banking
- Financial
- Architectural
- Engineering
- Surveying
- Environmental
- Valuation
- Planning
- Insurance

Relevant legislation (Federal, State and Local) and industry codes of practice cover areas including:

- The market sector
- Financial transactions
- Taxation
- Environment
- Construction
- Land use
- Zoning
- Native title
- Utilities use (water, gas, electricity)
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCH621A Evaluate social housing organisation against registration standards

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to facilitate evaluation of an organisation involved in social housing work against State/ Territory registration standards.

This may include evaluation in the following areas:

- Governance
- Probity
- Risk management
- Management of the organisation
- Financial viability
- Tenancy management
- Housing management and maintenance

Application of the Unit

Application
The skills described in this unit may be applied in a social housing context across a range of community service settings.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.  The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish basis for ensuring organisation's probity | 1.1 Establish a code of conduct which takes into account:
- the conduct of the governing body and employees
- transparency and accountability in all dealings
- confidentiality of the organisation's business transactions and the privacy of individuals dealing with the organisation
- protection of the organisation's assets
- management of personal conflicts of interest or organisation conflicts of interest
- prevention of exploitation of knowledge or information about the affairs of the organisation for personal financial gain |
| | 1.2 Put in place policies and procedures to support implementation of code of conduct |
2. Ensure effective governance of social housing organisation

2.1 Develop organisation's mission, purpose, values to reflect the relevant state standards, National Community Housing Standards and legal requirements for the delivery of affordable housing services

2.2 Ensure members of the governing body have sufficient training and communication to carry out their role effectively

2.3 Develop and maintain a resource kit for members of the governing body which outlines their legal requirements, estimated time commitments, organisation expectation of the member, organisation code of conduct and division of responsibility between the governing body and management of the organisation

2.4 Establish strategies to identify, manage and mitigate potential conflicts of personal interest and conflicts of organisation interest

2.5 Identify situations which may require specialist advice and appropriate professionals to provide such advice

2.6 Establish and maintain accurate record-keeping systems

3. Manage risk effectively

3.1 Determine risks (including environmental) to the business and identify appropriate financially sustainable strategies to address these risks

3.2 Establish authority and accountability for management of risks to the business

3.3 Establish an accurate system of communicating risks to the governing body

3.4 Develop relevant and reliable reports to provide information on risks to other management staff and the governing body

3.5 Develop a continuous improvement process of evaluating risks against the business plan
4. Manage staffing issues to address organisation performance

   4.1 Develop and maintain policies on staff recruitment, development and management that reflect the signposts of good practice outlined in the National Community Housing Standards

   4.2 Develop and maintain position descriptions which include organisation's code of conduct, management objectives and role of individual employee in achieving those objectives

   4.3 Develop and maintain systems to ensure staff remuneration is commensurate with their skills and experience, scale and complexity of the organisation's operations and in line with relevant industrial awards and other like agencies

   4.4 Clearly and appropriately define the relationship between remuneration, organisation performance and individual performance to ensure transparency

5. Manage financial viability issues

   5.1 Develop long term business plan that demonstrates financial viability and solvency of the organisation

   5.2 Develop and implement policies and strategies to minimise prolonged vacancies in housing stock and subsequent loss of rental income

   5.3 Establish authority and accountability in accordance with organisation's guidelines and National Community Housing Standards in regard to financial, administrative and information management systems
ELEMENT
6. Develop and implement tenancy management strategies

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
6.1 Develop and implement systems to review rent modelling and impact of organisation policy on the tenant population and organisation's financial viability

6.2 Develop policies and strategies to sustain tenancies where the tenant faces financial difficulty with rent arrears

6.3 Develop and implement policies and strategies in line with National Community Housing Standards in relation to fair and equitable access and allocation of housing, meeting requirements of clients with complex needs on low income

7. Oversee management and maintenance of housing stock

7.1 Develop and implement systems to ensure the properties under the organisation's ownership or management are maintained to a community standard and never below habitable standards

7.2 Develop and implement policies and processes to ensure a regular program of inspection, maintenance and upgrade of properties that complies with the signposts of good practice in regard to asset management outlined in the National Community Housing Standards

7.3 Develop systems to ensure the organisation consults with tenants in relation to the acquisition and development of new housing stock
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role
These include:
- Continuous improvement principles
- Quality assurance principles
- Good governance principles
- Long term financial solvency
- National Community Housing Standards
- Risk management

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Establish and implement a code of conduct to ensure probity of organisation's dealings in the housing sector
- Develop and implement strategies, policies, procedures and supporting resources to ensure effective governance of social housing organisation
- Ensure effective risk management of an organisation working in social housing
- Develop and manage implementation of policies to support staff recruitment, development, and management to address organisation performance needs
- Manage issues to ensure organisation's financial viability
- Develop and implement tenancy management strategies
- Oversee management and maintenance of housing stock
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in a work context or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Performance can be demonstrated through assessment of evidence generated from work practice
- It is recommended that assessment take place on more than one occasion

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - relevant state/territory registration standards
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Staffing issues may include but are not limited to:

- Recruitment
- Industrial issues and work conditions
- Remuneration and associated performance expectations
- Positions descriptions and work role expectations
- Development of skills and knowledge
- Grievance processes
RANGE STATEMENT

Financial viability issues include:
- Solvency and cash flow issues
- Income variability and ongoing expenditure issues
- Financial reporting requirements

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCHILD301B Support behaviour of children and young people

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCHILD301A Support behaviour of children and young people</td>
<td>CHCCHILD301B Support behaviour of children and young people</td>
<td>Updated terminology 'challenging behaviour' to 'behaviours of concern'</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills for workers to apply strategies to guide responsible behaviour in a safe and supportive environment

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit applies to a range of community service contexts providing services to children and young people

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Contribute to a safe, supportive environment | 1.1 Identify characteristics of a supportive environment
| | 1.2 Use safe, supportive and equitable practices appropriate to the development stage and needs of the child and/or young person
| | 1.3 Identify any disabilities, learning difficulties or mental health issues of child or young person that may have potential impacts on behaviour
| 2. Use positive support techniques | 2.1 Establish expectations for behaviour in consultation with supervisor and in line with organisation expectations
| | 2.2 Provide instructions in a manner appropriate to the child or young person's need and context of the work environment and activity
| | 2.3 Use positive reinforcement to support responsible and appropriate behaviour
| | 2.4 Use age appropriate and clear non-verbal communication strategies to acknowledge responsible behaviour
| | 2.5 Employ appropriate strategies to redirect behaviour and defuse situations
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3. Observe and collect data to assist with development of appropriate strategies for support | 3.1 Observe and collect data as a basis for functional analysis of when, where and what a child or young person is doing while involved in a task
3.2 Use data to demonstrate the frequency, intensity and duration of problem behaviours |
| 4. Implement strategies to support children or young people with additional needs | 4.1 Implement strategies to support child or young person with guidance from supervisor
4.2 Implement strategies designed by a specialist according to directions and in cooperation with supervisor
4.3 Identify issues of concern for discussion with supervisor
4.4 Contribute effectively to development of personalised behaviour support plans |
| 5. Monitor and review strategies | 5.1 Closely monitor new strategies and record responses of child or young person in accordance with organisation's policy and procedures
5.2 Adapt levels of support required and provided based on need and response of child or young person, after consultation with supervisor
5.3 Confirm the parameters of additional needs through discussion with supervisor
5.4 Identify, document and offer to supervisor opportunities for additional support through observation |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Demonstrate an understanding of a safe, supportive environment
- Factors that may affect behaviour of children and/or young people
- Child development and needs of the age group
- Potential impacts of disabilities, learning difficulties and mental health issues on behaviour of children and/or young people
- Potential impacts of illness on behaviour of children and/or young people
- Communicative function of behaviour
- Impacts of environment and culture on behaviour of children and/or young people
- Definitions of and differences between disruptive and behaviours of concern
- Whole of organisation behaviour support plan
- Level of responsibilities of the work role

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use appropriate supportive behaviour techniques, in cooperation with staff and others
- Communicate to give clear directions, communicate issues, negotiate solutions use body language and tone of voice to best effect
- Maintain equilibrium in the management of inappropriate behaviour
- Use teamwork to confer with and be guided by staff and other relevant personnel
- Make accurate observation and recording of interactions of children and/or young people
- Use judgement to determine when to involve other staff for supported intervention

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE
• Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  • data collection
  • cooperative problem-solving and planning

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:
• The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
• This unit could be assessed either on the job or off the job through an appropriate workplace simulation for a range of age groups and a range of conditions over a number of assessment situations

Access and equity considerations:
• All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
• All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
• In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
• Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment requires access to a range of opportunities defined in Range Statement, including:
  - relevant policy, protocols and procedures
  - educational materials
  - access to the organisation behaviour support plan
  - organisation policies and procedures for behaviour support
  - access to copies of documentation compiled by the candidate (evidence submitted for assessment must respect the privacy of children and young people, students, parents and other staff)

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Opportunities to listen to language may include:
- Rhymes, poems, stories
- Language games
- Music
- Dramatic play
- Film, video, television
- Everyday conversations
- Discussions
- Transactions
  - greetings
  - shopping
  - directions
  - instructions

Behaviour support may be based on models such as:
- Glasser/choice model
- Applied behavioural analysis
- Limit setting/Canter and Canter
- Humanism
- Cognitive behaviour model
- Systems theory model
- Neo-Adlerian model
- Positive behaviour intervention support and work of George Sugai and Tim Lewis

Characteristics of a supportive environment include:
- Ergonomically appropriate furniture and fittings
- Accessible
- Designed to stimulate learning but to eliminate stimuli that may precipitate behaviour problems
- Caters for a variety of levels of activity, experiences and/or learning
- Resources are well maintained and appropriately stored in accordance with health and safety guidelines
- Pleasant atmosphere is the norm
- Respect is shown to all
- Individuals are valued
- Inclusiveness is practised
RANGE STATEMENT

Safe, supportive and equitable practices may include:

- Use of verbal and non-verbal positive reinforcement
- Differentiation of individual needs
- Individual learning styles are catered for
- Shared decision-making
- Inclusive language, attitudes and activities
- Provision of equal opportunities for participation
- Positive behaviour support:
  - A comprehensive set of strategies meant to redesign environments in such a way that problem behaviours are prevented or inconsequential, and to teach new skills, making problem behaviours unnecessary

Potential impacts on behaviour of disability may include:

- Short concentration span leading to disruptive behaviour
- Lack of reaction to stimuli
- Control of bodily functions may not be developed
- Unduly violent reactions to certain stimuli
- Tiredness due to extra effort needed to participate may precipitate outbursts
- Frustration caused by
  - restricted or limited capacity for sensory intake
  - delayed cognitive development
  - limited communication skills
  - limited social skills
RANGE STATEMENT

Positive support for children and/or young people may include:

- Demonstrating respect for cultural and religious beliefs of child or young person
- Structuring supportive socialisation activities
- Building self-esteem and confidence of child or young person by providing positive reinforcement, responses and encouragement
- Assisting children and/or young people to develop problem solving skills
- Modelling positive attitudes to learning
- Modelling positive attitudes to others
- Providing opportunities for extended learning or experiences
- Provision of adaptive technologies where required
- Use of child's or young person's first language as appropriate
- Use of supportive, equitable behaviour modification techniques according to organisation policy and procedures and within parameters of the job role

Expectations for behaviour may include:

- Behaviour inside and outside e.g. walk on the cement, sit while you eat, take turns to speak, listen to instructions, keep your hands to yourself, etc.
- Group rules developed with children and/or young people
- Using equipment and resources with respect
- Providing assistance to others
- Showing respect for others and other opinions
- Specific expectations for certain situations

Non-verbal communication strategies to acknowledge appropriate behaviour may include:

- Macro:
  - hand gestures
  - clap
  - touch on the shoulder
- Micro:
  - smile
  - nod
RANGE STATEMENT

Strategies to redirect behaviour and defuse situations may include:

- Use a quiet, even tone of voice
- Lowering the volume and pitch of the voice
- Calm repetition of instructions/directions
- Establish eye contact
- Providing verbal assistance to clarify misunderstandings
- Repositioning students/resources/materials
- Encouraging students to problem-solve
- Diversionary techniques
- Removal of stimuli
- Physical restraint if the safety of any student is at risk

Collect data may include:

- Anecdotal notes
- Diary entries
- Recording specific indicators determined with the supervisor
- Using formats provided by the supervisor
- Checklists
- Charts
- Observation notes
- Observation of child's and/or young person's interactions with a range of other people
- Asking other workers involved with child or young person
- Consulting resource staff or others with relevant expertise
- Consulting parents and other family members
- Talking to other children and/or young people in the service if appropriate
RANGE STATEMENT

Additional needs may include needs due to any of the following:

- Learning
- Personality
- Mood
- Disability
- Behavioural or psychological disorders
- Family circumstances and needs
- Cultural differences from the culture of his/her peers
- Communication difficulties
- Risk of not achieving identified outcomes
- Unknown diagnosis

Strategies to be implemented may be:

- Define goals and how these will be achieved
- Align with the whole of organisation behaviour support plan
- Be guided by supervisor in consultation with child/young person specialists, workers and parents as appropriate
- Be tailored to the needs of individuals and the group
- Encourage children and/or young people to learn new skills
- Ensure the safety of all children and young people
- Be consistently implemented across the organisation

Issues of concern may include:

- Unexpected changes in responses of child or young person
- Symptoms of distress or illness
- Incidents not addressed by planned strategies
- Lack of progress

Levels of support required may vary between:

- Acknowledgement
- Encouragement
- Scaffolding
- Redirection
- Intervention
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCHILD401B Identify and respond to children and young people at risk

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCHILD401A Identify and respond to children and young people at risk</td>
<td>CHCCHILD401B Identify and respond to children and young people at risk</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to address duty of care requirements, working within an ethical framework and applying relevant legislation, policies and procedures in responding to children and young people.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to workers involved in delivering services to children and young people including: community services, health, policing, juvenile justice, recreation, family services, education, alcohol and other drugs work and mental health.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.  The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Implement work practices which support the protection of children and young people

   PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

   1.1 Identify children and young people at risk of harm by observing signs and symptoms, asking non-invasive questions, being aware of protective issues and using child protection procedures where appropriate

   1.2 Respond to disclosure, information or signs and symptoms in accordance with accepted standards, techniques, and legislative obligations

   1.3 Comply with lawful instructions, regulations and duty of care in all work activities

   1.4 Routinely employ child focused work practices to uphold the rights of children and young peoples to participate in decision-making where it is age appropriate

   1.5 Employ communication and information gathering techniques with children and young people in accordance with current recognised good practice

   1.6 Ensure decisions and actions taken are within own level of responsibility, work role and legislative requirements

   1.7 Maintain own knowledge and skills as required to work effectively and participate in practice supervision processes

   1.8 Maintain confidentiality as appropriate

   1.9 Provide an appropriate response as determined by organisation procedures, legal and work role obligations

2. Report indications of possible risk of harm

   PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

   2.1 Accurately record relevant specific and general circumstances surrounding risk of harm in accordance with organisation procedures, ethics and legal requirements

   2.2 Promptly report risk of harm indicators accordance with statutory and organisation procedures

   2.3 Work collaboratively with relevant agencies to ensure maximum effectiveness of report
ELEMENT

3. Apply ethical and nurturing practices in work with children and young people

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Protect the rights of children and young people in the provision of services

3.2 Identify and seek supervision support for issues of ethical concern in practice with children and young people

3.3 Develop ethical and nurturing practices in accordance with professional boundaries when working with children and young people

3.4 Recognise indicators for potential ethical concerns when working with children and young people

3.5 Respond to unethical behaviour of others by reporting to the appropriate person
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Statutory and policy requirements relating to job role
- Ethical obligations as stated in relevant codes of practice, licensing, accreditation registration to professional bodies, service agreements
- Ethical approaches that incorporate the conventions on the rights of the child, and human rights
- Responsibilities to clearly define worker and client roles and responsibilities in regard to ethical conduct and professional relationship boundaries
- State/territory requirements and processes for notifying suspected abuse and reporting process
- Child protection system: including reporting protocols, responses to reporting, interagency policies
- Organisation guidelines and policies for responding to risks of harm to children and young people
- Duty of care responsibilities
- Ethical obligations as defined by the job specification and employing organisation
- Principles of ethical decision-making
- Recording procedures appropriate to job role
- Common risks to child's safety
- Indicators of the different types and dynamics of abuse including as they apply to age, gender, disability, culture, sexuality
- The different types of abuse: serious psychological, physical, sexual, neglect, domestic violence
- Impact of risk of harm
- Appropriate responses to disclosure
- Overview of legal system and it pertains to the job role
- Outline of common legal issues as relevant to work undertaken with children and young people such as:
  - abuse in all forms
  - domestic and family violence
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- neglect
- exploitation
- alcohol and other drugs (AOD) concerns
- systems abuse

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide an appropriate response to indications of risk of harm

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply indicators of abuse to make judgements about risks of harm
- Follow procedures and instructions
- Apply principles of ethical decision-making
- Maintain professional boundaries in work with children and young people
- Provide required reports and records, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
- Use child focused work practices including:
  - communication skills
  - awareness and sensitivity to children and young person's needs
  - inclusiveness of children and young people in participatory decision-making process
  - making special allowances to meet needs of children and young people
  - ways of engaging children and young people
  - observance and presence of children and young people as primary clients
- Distinguish between legal and ethical problems
- Work within a legal and ethical framework
- Apply problem solving and negotiation skills to resolve problems of a difficult nature within organisation protocols
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment may occur both in the workplace and in off-the-job learning contexts through methods that present workplace practice situations, using case studies, simulations etc.
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Lawful instructions and regulation may include:

- Restraining orders
- Supervision and custody orders
- Legislation
RANGE STATEMENT

Lawful instructions may include instructions received from:
- Licensing authorities
- Organisation supervisor
- Courts of Law
- Police

Child focused work practices
- Legislation
- Policies of organisation
- Client self determination

Child protection procedures will be determined and defined by:
- The specific job role
- Organisation procedures
- Interagency agreements
- Legislation within jurisdictions

Response will be determined by:
- Job role and will range from reporting to implementing disciplinary action

Accepted standards include:
- State coordinating bodies
- Interagency agreements and guidelines
- Protocols defined in legislation
- Organisation procedures
- Codes of ethics
- Practice standards
- Licensing and accreditation standards

The appropriate person to report suspected risk of harm will vary according to the legislation in the State/territory and organisation policies. The person may be:
- Ombudsman
- State Child Protection Agency
- Supervisor in the service
- Individual carer
- Individual worker
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCHILD403B Promote the safety, well being and welfare of children, young people and their families

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by workers who use a range of strategies that aim to prevent child abuse and neglect by building the capacities of individuals and communities to care for children

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit can apply to working with individuals, groups or a community
It focuses on providing access to appropriate developing information and support networks

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Provide information that promotes the safety, well being and welfare of children | 1.1 Identify sources of accurate information
| | 1.2 Disseminate accessible information
| | 1.3 Use available opportunities to provide relevant information to clients and others |
| 2. Provide support to families | 2.1 Identify support needed by families in caring for children |
| | 2.2 Identify support services available to families |
| | 2.3 Facilitate access by families to support services by providing referral and contact details |
| 3. Build community resources to care for children | 3.1 Monitor the availability of resources within the community that promotes the well being of children |
| | 3.2 Identify gaps in community infrastructure |
| | 3.3 Develop partnerships to address gaps in information provision |

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Tasks of families in raising children (physical care, emotional nurture, socialisation, education)
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Support needs of families (practical and emotional)
- The link between supporting families and promoting well being of families
- Factors that place children and young people at risk of harm
- Range of prevention strategies to address risk factors
- Strategies of family and interagency collaboration in promoting the well being of children

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Research, develop and implement strategies which promote the safety, well being and welfare of children and young people

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research
  - networking
  - providing information
  - referral

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment may occur both in the workplace and in
EVIDENCE GUIDE

demonstrate this unit of competency:
off-the-job learning contexts through methods that present workplace practice situations, using case studies, simulations etc.

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged

Method of assessment:

- This units may be assessed through a combination of observation, portfolio, supervisor's reports and checklist to ensure the full range of local relevant information sources are accessed
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Sources of accurate information include:

- Local community social plans
- Bodies with statutory responsibility for child protection
- State and national child protection coordinating bodies
- Peak bodies and interest groups related to child protection

Accessible information may include:

- Information displays within agencies
- Information displays in public locations
- Written material in a range of languages
- Material designed for those with low level reading skills
- Conduct of information sessions
- Conduct of parenting groups
- Media campaigns

Available opportunities may include:

- Request for information from an individual or group
- Respond to an issue of local or media interest
RANGE STATEMENT

Support needed by families in caring for children may be affected by:
- The informal support networks available to the family
- Particular circumstances e.g. disability or illness of child or carer
- Ability of family to access services due to financial, cultural, language or other restraints

Support services may include:
- Facilities operating in a local area e.g. playgroups, self-help groups, counselling, education and advice services
- Financial and other practical benefits to which families are entitled

Facilitate access to support may include:
- Ensuring services of own agency are known to families
- Providing information and advice about services
- Provision of appropriate referrals
- Advocacy on behalf of families

Community infrastructure may include:
- Accessible child care
- Services to assist families under stress or in crisis
- Affordable housing
- Locations for families to informally meet and create networks
- Family accessible transport systems, leisure options, shopping facilities
- Family friendly workplaces

Partnerships to address gaps can include:
- Resourcing families to lobby for change or new services
- Interagency collaboration to develop new services
- Participating in community campaigns
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCHILD404B Support the rights and safety of children and young people

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCHILD404A</td>
<td>CHCCHILD404B</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Formatting and grammatical corrections. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to address duty of care requirements, working within an ethical framework and applying relevant legislation, codes of conduct, international agreements (such as Convention on the Rights of the Child (CROC)–), policies and procedures in identifying, responding and supporting children’s and young people’s rights and safety

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to workers involved in delivering services to children and young people, including in community services, health, policing, youth work, recreation, family services, education, alcohol and/or other drugs work (AOD), mental health, youth work and other services to children

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information
Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content
Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Implement work practices which support the protection of children and young people</td>
<td>1.1 Comply with lawful instructions, regulations, duty of care and boundaries of practice in all work activities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Routinely employ child-focused work practices to uphold the rights of children and young peoples to participate in decision-making where it is age appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Employ communication and information gathering techniques with children and young people in accordance with current recognised good practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Ensure decisions and actions taken are within own level of responsibility, work role and legislative requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Maintain own knowledge and skills as required to work effectively and participate in practice supervision processes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Maintain confidentiality as appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Provide an appropriate response as determined by organisation procedures, legal and work role obligations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2. Identify indicators of abuse and act appropriately | 2.1 Identify children and young people at risk of harm by routinely implementing child protection procedures when appropriate
2.2 Respond to disclosure in accordance with accepted standards, techniques, and legislative obligations
2.3 Gather information about the child and young persons behaviour in order to identify uncharacteristic behaviour or other indicators which may indicate abuse
2.4 Monitor the circumstances of children who are identified as highly vulnerable to abuse
2.5 Identify indicators of abuse and report indications of possible risk of harm
2.6 Accurately record relevant specific and general circumstances surrounding risk of harm in accordance with organisation procedures, ethics and legal requirements
2.7 Promptly report risk of harm indicators in accordance with statutory and organisation procedures
2.8 Work collaboratively with relevant agencies to ensure the report has maximum effectiveness of report |
| 3. Apply ethical practices and safeguard the rights and interests of children and young people | 3.1 Protect the rights of children and young people in the provision of services
3.2 Identify and seek supervision support for issues of ethical concern in practice with children and young people
3.3 Develop ethical practices for implementing professional boundaries consistent with child protection legislation in relevant jurisdiction
3.4 Recognise indicators for potential ethical concerns when working with children and young people
3.5 Respond to unethical behaviour of others by reporting to the appropriate person |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Statutory and policy requirements relating to job role
- Applied knowledge of relevant child protection agencies and purpose
- Role and processes of workers as advocates for children and young peoples rights
- Ethical obligations as stated in relevant codes of practice, licensing, accreditation registration to professional bodies, service agreements and as defined by job specification
- Ethical approaches that incorporate the conventions on the rights of the child, and human rights
- Responsibilities to clearly define worker and client roles and responsibilities in regard to ethical conduct and professional relationship boundaries
- State/territory requirements and processes for notifying and reporting suspected abuse
- Child protection system, including reporting protocols, responses to reporting and interagency policies
- Organisation guidelines and policies for responding to risks of harm to children and young people
- Duty of care responsibilities when supporting the rights and safety of children and young people
- Recording procedures appropriate to job role
- Common risks to child safety and common risks and dynamics particular to young people including, violence, self-harm, abuse types, AOD use/misuse and health issues
- Indicators of the different types and dynamics of abuse including as they apply to age, gender, disability, culture and sexuality
- The different types of abuse (e.g. emotional, psychological, physical, sexual, neglect and domestic violence)
- Overview of legal system and it pertains to the job role
- Outline of common legal issues when working with children and young people including:
  - abuse in all forms
  - domestic and family violence
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- neglect
- exploitation
- family members with AOD issues
- family members with mental health concerns
- systems abuse
- refugee status and children who have experienced torture and trauma
- family law issues
- duty of care obligations

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Respond appropriately to disclosure
- Provide an appropriate response to indications of risk of harm
- Apply indicators of abuse to make judgements about risks of harm
- Work with the specific needs of children and young people of vulnerable populations including those with
  - parents/carers with a mental illness, AOD misuse, in prison, or a disability or health concerns
  - experiences of torture and trauma related to refugee status

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Follow procedures and instructions
- Apply principles of ethical decision-making
- Maintain professional boundaries in work with children and young people
- Provide required reports and records, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
- Use child focused work practices including:
  - communication skills
  - awareness and sensitivity to children and young person's needs
  - inclusiveness of children and young people in participatory decision-making process
  - making special allowances to met needs of children and young people
  - ways of engaging children and young people
  - observance and presence of children and young people as primary clients
- Distinguish between legal and ethical problems
- Work within a legal and ethical framework:
  - apply problem solving skills that will require negotiation skills to resolve problems of
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- a difficult nature within organisation protocols
- Demonstrate fair, prompt and consistent performance of duties with all children
- Undertake advocacy for young people and children's rights according to the Declaration on Rights of the child

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment may occur both in the workplace and in off-the-job learning contexts through methods that present workplace practice situations, using case studies, simulations etc.
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

• All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
• All workers should develop their ability to work in culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
• In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
• Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

• This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
• Resources required for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment may include:

• In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
• Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Child protection procedures will be determined and defined by:

- The specific job role
- Organisation procedures
- Interagency agreements
- Legislation within jurisdictions

Lawful instructions and regulation may include:

- Restraining orders
- Supervision and custody orders
- Legislation

Lawful instructions may include instructions received from:

- Licensing authorities
- Organisation supervisor
- Courts of law
- Police

Child (and young person)-focused work practices

- Legislation
- Policies of organisation
- Client self-determination
- Appropriate use of language considering the age and developmental stage of the child/young person
- Surroundings appropriate for a child
- Child and/or young person-directed communication
RANGE STATEMENT

Information gathering techniques may include:
- Observation
- Consultation with appropriate persons including child or young person
- Consulting documentation and records held by the organisation or from third party

Response will be determined by:
- Job role
- Relevant policy and legislation

And will range from reporting to implementing disciplinary action

Response types may include:
- Reporting to relevant child protection authority
- Reporting to police
- Reporting to appropriate supervisor

Accepted standards include:
- State/territory coordinating bodies
- Interagency agreements and guidelines
- Protocols defined in legislation
- Organisation procedures
- Codes of ethics
- Practice standards
- Licensing and accreditation standards

The appropriate person to report suspected risk of harm will vary according to the legislation in the state/territory and organisation policies. The person may be:
- Ombudsman
- State/Territory Child Protection Agency
- Supervisor in the service
- Individual carer
- Individual worker

Recording techniques include:
- Written
- Verbal
- Use of multi media
- Completion of appropriate forms and documentation
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCHILD504C Assess risk of harm to children and young people

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCHILD504B Assess risk of harm to children and young people</td>
<td>CHCCHILD504C Assess risk of harm to children and young people</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by designated workers who are responsible for assessing, investigating and responding to reports/notifications of risk of harm within a statutory organisation immediately following report/notification and throughout all phases of protective work.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to protective work within a statutory organisation immediately following report/notification and throughout all phases of child protection investigation.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Plan response to report/notification through assessment/investigation | 1.1 Develop assessment/investigation plan and establish timeframes with regard to assessed risks to child/young person at intake stage
  1.2 Incorporate legislative requirements and relevant legal processes into assessment/investigation plan
  1.3 Advise other workers about their role using established procedures and protocols
  1.4 Anticipate personal safety arrangements, negotiate with supervisor and incorporate into plan for contact with child/young person and/or family
  1.5 Where agencies/professionals are known to be involved, consider visiting jointly in accordance with organisation policy and procedures
  1.6 Access and analyse existing reports and other information and document appropriately
  1.7 Identify and monitor level of risk to worker and child/young person/family, and plan actions accordingly
  1.8 Contact other agencies as per established protocols and guidelines
  1.9 Facilitate rapid medical and other relevant assessments and treatment to ensure safety of child and/or young person where appropriate
  1.10 Discuss strategies for protective behaviour with child and/or family members as appropriate |
ELEMENT

2. Undertake assessment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Demonstrate clear understanding and ability to articulate risk in a child protection context

2.2 Elicit information regarding alleged harm in an holistic context and based upon an endorsed model of risk assessment as appropriate

2.3 Include all relevant family members, significant others and service providers in the assessment

2.4 Identify secondary sources of information and contact as appropriate

2.5 Include previous history of notifications/reports in risk assessment

2.6 Analyse information with reference to issues of vulnerability, resilience and consequences, in accordance with an endorsed model or risk assessment as appropriate

2.7 Make a professional judgement of assessed levels of risk, harm and well being (including immediate risk) in accordance with an endorsed risk assessment model and discuss with supervisor

2.8 Make referrals to other organisations in accordance with organisation policy as appropriate

2.9 Implement and record policy and procedures as appropriate, based on established priority ratings

2.10 Seek views of parents/caregivers regarding the alleged concerns and incorporate into the assessment of risk

2.11 Facilitate processes for engaging children/young people and families in problem solving

2.12 Organise and oversee specialist assessments as required

2.13 Observe and review all aspects of the child/young person's development and behaviour and include in the assessment

2.14 Discuss strategies for protective behaviour with child and/or family members as appropriate
ELEMENT

3. Undertake analysis and decision-making

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Gather information in accordance with principles of natural justice

3.2 Demonstrate awareness of client's social/economic/cultural context and the impact of their current situation and include in the assessment

3.3 Collect expert medical and other reports to contribute to analysis and decision-making processes

3.4 Ensure all decision-making and resultant action is in accordance with organisation policies, protocols and procedures, legal requirements and authority

3.5 Involve the child/young person and family in the decision-making processes as appropriate, and provide information through the process

3.6 Prepare recommendations consistent with the case plan, assessed risk/need and available resources
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Information collection and planning procedures
- Demonstrated knowledge of statutory and organisation requirements
- Organisation's risk of harm framework
- Indicators and effects of abuse, types of abuse, children and young people who are particularly vulnerable
- The range of legal services available to the client and protocols regarding notification of suspected abuse
- Legal implications and responsibilities of statutory work
- State and federal jurisdictions, including all courts within the jurisdictions.
- Child protection policy and procedures including inter-agency protocols.
- Legislation relevant to child protection including Family Court protocols and practice and policy guidelines including legal definitions of abuse.
- Risk assessment, comprehensive psychosocial assessment and family assessment
- Indicators of harm, types of harm, definitions and dynamics of harm.
- Theories on vulnerability and resilience of children
- The change process
- Child development (cognitive, emotional, physical and social)
- Workings of court, legal systems and legal processes
- Legal implications of material collected through interviews
- Family dynamics in different cultures
- Recording and reporting systems
- How to access interpreters for clients and their families who are from a non-English speaking background or who are hearing or speech impaired.
- Use of child centred, family focused practice approaches

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Identify goals of assessment and conduct assessment according to established criteria to meet identified goals
- Draw on relevant models, policies, and procedures to identify appropriate interventions
- Determine the level of risk using established criteria and recommend appropriate action
- Interpret statutory mandates and balance statutory power, rights of the client and significant others
- Establish rapport/working relationship with client
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - identification of problems and issues
  - information collection and planning procedures
  - participative case planning
  - appropriate use of supervision and consultation
  - monitor the impact of own values and beliefs

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Interpret policies, procedures, standards and statutory obligations
- Use communication techniques such as: active listening, reflection, summarising, questions and statements, gaining agreement on actions and explaining outcomes
- Use solution focused interviewing techniques to interview and engage children, young people and their families in communication exchange
- Effectively and impartially collect and analyse information according to risk assessment frameworks or models
- Articulate rationale for decision-making
- Interpret legalese into language understood by client and significant others
- Set boundaries for roles and actions
- Demonstrate empathy and rapport building
- Use age appropriate language and questioning techniques
- Utilise conflict resolution skills
- Manage grief and change processes
- Engage and establish a professional relationship with children and young people
- Monitor own level of stress and implement stress management strategies to demonstrate effective self management under stressful situations
- Work appropriately with cross cultural issues and address issues of cultural significance
- Prepare court reports, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
- Present factual, non-emotive information succinctly
- Engage children, young people and their families in communication exchange
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Use age/developmental appropriate language
- Interview for the purposes of gathering information and analyse information gathered
- Exercise professional judgement
- Demonstrate effective and impartial collection and analysis of evidence capacity to make informed decision under pressure

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence must be assessed in the workplace within a statutory child protection authority and under the normal range of workplace conditions and would need to include supervisor's reports and observations
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace
- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged

Method of assessment:
Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
- Demonstration of competency within the working environment in assessing risk of harm in a statutory child protection environment
- Assessment should be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all aspects of the work environment the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on ‘what if?’ scenarios
- Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
- Review of any workplace documentation produced by the candidate related to assessment of risk of harm in a statutory child protection environment
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Reports and other information may include:
- Child/young person/family records
- Health records
- Other agency records
- Agency files and records
RANGE STATEMENT

Effective communication includes:

Exercising effective communication skills, including:

- Identifying and evaluating what is occurring within an interaction in a non-judgemental way
- Making decisions about appropriate words, behaviour, posture based on the age and developmental stage of the child or young person.
- Using active listening
- Using clarifying, summarising questions
- Using open, non-leading questions
- Putting together a response that is culturally appropriate
- Expressing an individual perspective
- Expressing own philosophy, ideology and background and exploring the impact of this on the communication
- Exploring and unpacking problems
- Reflective listening
- Providing sufficient time to enable stories to be told
- Providing summarising and reflective response in conflict situations

Non-verbal communication including:

- Gestures
- Posture
- Facial expression
- Use of space
- Eye contact

Child-centred dialogue, including:

- Appropriate use of language considering the age and developmental stage of the child/young person
- Surroundings appropriate for a child
- Child-directed communication

Questioning techniques may include:

- Summarising
- Re-phasing
- Paraphrasing
- Open and closed questions
- Non-leading questioning
- Cognitive interviewing
- Free narrative
RANGE STATEMENT

Observe refers to observation which include:
- Behaviours
- Interaction with others
- Physical appearances
- Emotional appearances
- Representations thorough stories and art

Established procedures include those related to:
- Mandatory reporting processes
- Seeking medical assessments
- Seeking evidence statements
- Seeking accounts of incidents including dates, times, frequency of behaviour
- Conducting interviews
- Seeking first hand observation and statements
- Taking and recording details of notifiers
- Limits of statutory agency power and delegations
- Role and rights of notifiers
- Ways of identifying level of risk and determining appropriate priorities
- Recording information
- Privacy an confidentiality

Proof of evidence may result from:
- Observation
- Interviews
- Research/articles
- Case records
- Medical reports
- Reports from other specialist workers
- Photographs

Recording techniques include:
- Written
- Verbal
- Use of multi media
- Completion of appropriate forms and documentation
RANGE STATEMENT

Procedures for conducting interviews are defined by:

- Legal obligation
- Cultural considerations
- Natural justice
- The agency/organisation
- The age and development of the child or young person

Specialist assessments include:

- Forensic
- Medical
- Criminal
- Psychosocial
- Developmental

Responsibilities of workers may be outlined in the following regulations and guidelines:

- Statements of regulatory bodies
- Professional registration requirements
- Legal precedents
- Service standards
- Mission statements, policies and philosophies of an organisation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCHILD505B Work effectively in child protection and out of home care for children and young people

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for work in the context within which a range of child protection services are delivered.

It covers the knowledge and skills required to support the rights and interests of children/young people and families to meet duty of care and legal requirements.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit applies to work undertaken in paraprofessional child protection occupations in government and non government organisations.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Demonstrate an understanding of key issues related to work in the child protection environment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Demonstrate understanding of the history and recent developments in child protection/direct care work

1.2 Demonstrate understanding of the legal, political and social framework within which the work is undertaken

1.3 Reflect understanding of the system structure and the various roles and responsibilities of the stakeholders that operate in the child protection system in work undertaken

1.4 Demonstrate and apply understanding of practice related to effective worker safety / well being and self management activities appropriate to the professional role

1.5 Demonstrate understanding of children's court procedures appropriate to professional role

1.6 Reflect understanding of the processes for risk assessment appropriate to the professional role

1.7 Acknowledge the challenges of child protection work and manage appropriately

1.8 Reflect in all work, understanding of indicators, effects and dynamics of child abuse and neglect appropriate to the professional role

1.9 Reflect in all work, basic understanding of the relationship and practice implications of child abuse and family violence; substance use; mental illness; and disability appropriate to the professional role

1.10 Demonstrate and manage sensitively/effectively, understanding of the power imbalance inherent in child protection/out of home care work
ELEMENT
2. Demonstrate commitment to quality care for children or young people

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
2.1 Reflect in all work, understanding of key issues facing children and young people who may be at risk of harm
2.2 Reflect in all work undertaken, duty of care, context of policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements as they apply to the area of work
2.3 Apply and demonstrate organisation procedures and policies are as appropriate
2.4 Identify personal values and attitudes regarding children or young people and acknowledge their potential impact on service delivery when planning and implementing all work activities
2.5 Reflect in own work, a focus on supporting the rights, interests and needs of children, young people and families
2.6 Characterise communication with children/young people and families by sensitivity, openness, respect and warmth and appropriate to the age and ability of the child
2.7 Demonstrate understanding of issues related to the placement of children away from family in all forms of out of home care, and the practice issues for statutory child protection workers and direct care givers

3. Demonstrate ethical work practices

3.1 Routinely observe lines of accountability in all work undertaken in the child protection area, including appropriate consultation and explaining decisions and actions to those to whom the worker is accountable
3.2 Explain decisions and actions taken to children, young people and their families/carers
3.3 Use the relevant code of ethics, professional and organisation standards to guide service delivery
3.4 Plan responses to address emergency situations and other contingencies based on ethical standards and organisation requirements

Required Skills and Knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Relevant legislation
- Indicators, effects and dynamics of abuse and neglect
- Responsibilities of duty of care
- Roles and responsibilities of each of the key players in the child protection area
- Organisation protocols relating to child protection work
- Effective stress management techniques
- Legal implications and responsibilities of statutory work
- Relevant policy and procedures
- Stages of child development (Physical, cognitive, emotional and social)
- Interview processes and legal requirements
- Effects of removal, incarceration
- Parenting and family dynamics in different cultures
- Impact of Government Policies on indigenous communities, e.g. Stolen Generations
- Case management processes
- Child centred family focused practice approaches

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the legal framework to protect children
- Manage own values so they do not impede effective work and manage the stress of the work

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Interpret policies, procedures, standards and statutory obligations
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Communicate effectively with clients and significant others
- Demonstrate active listening, reflective, summarising questions and statements
- Demonstrate empathy and rapport building
- Use age appropriate language and questioning techniques
- Demonstrate conflict resolution
- Manage grief and change processes
- Work with adolescents and their significant others

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence must be assessed in the workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should be based on requirements of the range of situations of specific need encountered in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Access to an appropriate workplace or an environment capable of accurately simulating the workplace for assessment purposes

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Legal, political and social framework includes:

- Legislation including mandatory reporting (in some jurisdictions) and reciprocal reporting
- Government strategic plans
- The current political environment within the jurisdiction and any recent developments including reviews
- Significant incidents that influence policies and procedures
- Practice principles
- Standards of care
- Quality systems (e.g. licensing)
- Resourcing the industry (funding programs, information/communication networks
- Child protection orders (overview)
- The impact of relationships and integration
- Developing and implementing child safe, child friendly resources, environment and work tools

Stakeholders include:

- Children, young people and their families and carers
- State-wide services including education, health and police.
- Peak bodies
- Government departments
- Specialist teams
- Family, youth, support and placement agencies
RANGE STATEMENT

Self management activities include:

- A proactive approach to own professional development
- Identifying and appropriately managing the challenges of child protection work
- Understanding and appropriately managing stress
- Managing conflict appropriately
- A professional approach to stress and personal safety management
- Overcoming barriers to effective self care
- Developing a safety plan for direct contact with children, young people and families
- Developing, understanding and working from personal frameworks
- Taking responsibility for professional development /career long learning.
- Participating in supervision
- Accepting the responsibility of the beginning practitioner
- Developing and implementing work plans

An understanding of children's court procedures includes:

- Court processes
- Preparing for court
- Attending court
- Writing the court report
- Working as a rural practitioner/court
- Preparing and supporting children, young people and families pre and post court
RANGE STATEMENT

The challenges of child protection work include:

- Engaging and working in partnerships with families where a range of complicating risk factors exists
- Working in partnership with other professionals
- A strengths-based approach
- Using authority wisely
- Confidentiality (communication)
- Attitudes and values
- Organisation values
- Working with cultural diversity (specific unit)
- Working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people

Issues related to the placement of children (and young people) in out of home care include:

- Attachment and separation
- Sensitive responses to introducing and managing children and young people in out of home care
- The importance of maximising safe family involvement/contact during placement
- The importance of a professional partnership between protective and direct care workers, and clear placement/protective planning
- Ongoing assessment of risk whilst in placement
- The importance of pre crisis planning for young people in out of home care
- Ensuring a focus on all life dimensions whilst in placement not solely protection (LAC)
- Restoration/reunification planning for the child/young persons return home

Supporting the rights, interests and needs of children, young people and families includes:

- Child or young person is supported and encouraged to exercise their rights where appropriate
- Legal responsibilities and duty of care are complied with
- Seeking additional assistance
- Providing a child friendly environment where children and young people are welcomed, valued and respected
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM401D Undertake case management

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to participate in carrying out specific activities in a case/care plan

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Provide for client needs and monitor progress on a regular basis | 1.1 Provide for client needs and contribute to the case/care plan
1.2 Discuss feedback on case management implementation with client and relevant parties, and feed into case review processes as appropriate |
| 2. Promote client’s development | 2.1 Take appropriate action according to the skill plan
2.2 Identify opportunities for enhancing learning and take appropriate action to promote involvement of clients
2.3 Take appropriate action to remove barriers, attract learning and enhance client development
2.4 Use appropriate communication to promote involvement in learning activities
2.5 Provide all relevant parties with feedback on client progress and involvement in learning activities
2.6 Provide clients with appropriate encouragement, reinforcement and feedback to maximise learning outcomes |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:
- Awareness of overall direction of case plan
- Family structure and dynamics, communication and decision-making
- Range of services available
- Awareness of statutory requirements
- Indicators of abuse and intervention strategies

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Observe and collect feedback about behaviour, actions and progress
- Identify limits of role and taking actions to contact appropriate people
- Present information and feedback within informal and formal settings
  This may include oral communication skills and written communication skills, and will depend on the format required by the organisation for presenting feedback to supervisors

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Assess progress on goals and activities
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - objective observation of behaviour
  - stress management
  - behaviour management
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment should include a range of case management plans to reflect the normal range of workplace activities

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace or simulated environment, including written case studies

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts for monitoring activities within case plan include:
- Placement setting; e.g. home, alternative care placement, and detention facility
- Client/s involvement

Needs are identified within requirements established by:
- International, commonwealth and state legislation
- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
RANGE STATEMENT

Needs are identified for the purpose of:
- Reporting
- Planning for the full range of support e.g. day to day care, mid term care, and family support
- Planning activities and/or programs

Feedback mechanisms include:
- Communicating daily with client or significant others about meeting of needs
- Participating within a case conference
- Recording observations about progress on activities

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCM402E Establish and monitor a case plan

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCM402D Establish and monitor a case plan</td>
<td>CHCCM402E Establish and monitor a case plan</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to develop a case management plan to address specific client needs

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Develop a case management plan</td>
<td>1.1 Assess client needs in accordance with organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Collect information on a range of suitable interventions to address immediate, short and longer term needs of clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Undertake appropriate consultation with stakeholders to ensure issues and options for their resolution are explored thoroughly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Negotiate and agree common goals, objectives and processes with clients and stakeholders to ensure needs are addressed with statutory and organisation frameworks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Explore a full range of options for addressing client and stakeholder needs and include in case management plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Ensure processes for monitoring achievement of goals, timeframes and resourcing are agreed in the planning stage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Define roles, responsibilities and accountabilities for clients, stakeholders, workers and service providers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.8 Negotiate and agree processes for appeal and for the termination and/or renegotiation of intervention and include in the plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.9 Identify relevant family, community, cultural and ideological considerations and address in the case plan</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Define plan implementation procedures

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Implement practical arrangements to support clients and stakeholders
2.2 Define negotiable and non negotiable aspects of the intervention and implement processes to ensure they are maintained
2.3 Negotiate and agree ongoing case management processes with clients and stakeholders
2.4 Where appropriate, develop and agree contracts with external service providers and accurately reflect timing and resourcing constraints
2.5 Implement procedures to ensure information sharing between key stakeholders is facilitated
2.6 Implement procedures to ensure progress of specialist client service delivery is monitored in accordance with agreed procedures, against defined performance indicators
2.7 Define, and implement where necessary, procedures to deal with crisis situations

3. Establish review and evaluation systems

3.1 Negotiate case plan with supervisor
3.2 Set up appropriate evaluation processes for ongoing implementation of the plan
3.3 Complete all relevant reporting procedures in accordance with organisation requirements
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Relevant policy, procedures and legislation and statutory requirements related to the area of work
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Family structure, dynamics, communication and decision-making
- Family support and family casework strategies
- Range of community services and resources available
- Indicators of abuse and accepted intervention strategies
- Effects of abuse on human development
- Effects of different forms of intervention
- Effects of incarceration

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Interpret and apply legislation, policies and procedures
- Respond to and manage crisis
- Develop and assess actions appropriate for intervention
- Collect and assess information
- Document plans

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Develop and maintain appropriate networks
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - operational planning processes
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- report writing and documentation, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
- stress management techniques
- verbal communication including interviewing skills, negotiation and cross cultural communication
- interpersonal relationships, including establishing and maintaining relationships and networks
- meeting procedures and facilitation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include the normal range of workplace situations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace environment
- Workplace evidence can be testimonials, portfolios or copies of completed workplace records/documentation
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts for establishing a case plan could include:

- Decision to implement an intervention
- A result of a notification
- A result of a court order
- A result of a contract to provide a service
- Part of a case planning meeting or conference where clients, their families of origin, carer families and service providers establish actions for the safety, well being and development of the client

Establishment of a case plan will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Commonwealth and state legislation
- Relevant international conventions
- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards

Resources include:

- Training programs
- Staff, peers and specialist personnel
- Information and materials

Skill development includes:

- Life experience, vocational, social, recreational and personal skills

Information may include:

- All official documentation relating to client, full family history, developmental and medical history
- All available records, anecdotal material and individual interviews
RANGE STATEMENT

Considerations may include:
- Indigenous and ethnic considerations
- Power relationship structures
- Rituals, beliefs, hierarchies and practices
- Politics
- Gender

Procedures to deal with crisis situations include:
- Ensuring security and safety of all relevant parties including protection and custodial issues and the level of intervention required
- Appropriate crisis services such as counselling, respite care, debriefing

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCM404A Undertake case management for clients with complex needs

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide case management to clients who have already been assessed and whose needs have been identified as extending across a number of areas, such as aged care, community care, disability, mental health, drugs, alcohol or homelessness

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts, including aged care and home and community care

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Work within a case management framework suitable for the client's needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Identify a range of case management models that have established effectiveness

1.2 Develop or adapt and apply case management processes appropriate to implementing statutory requirements

1.3 Develop or adapt and apply case management processes appropriate to the unique case management requirements of the client

1.4 Determine, with the client and relevant others, the outcome to be achieved through case management

1.5 Provide information of the case management process to the client and relevant others

1.6 Provide information on the client's role in the case management process

1.7 Provide information on rights of appeal and avenues of complaint so that the person understands their rights
ELEMENT

2. Identify services required to deal with the client's complex needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Work with the client to identify the range of issues that will require service input
2.2 Work with the client to identify the interaction and relationships between the different presenting issues
2.3 Work with the client to identify consequences of not addressing all of the issues
2.4 Identify the full range of appropriate service and/or support options
2.5 Provide information about different service and support options with details on aspects that may be appropriate for the client

3. Develop priorities for service and support inputs

3.1 Work with the client to identify the priority for different service and support requirements
3.2 Work with the client to identify possible timeframes and overlaps of service and support requirements
3.3 Work with the client to identify their capacity to meet the logistic requirements of services and supports
3.4 Respond to concerns about client self-harm and/or harm to others within statutory and duty of care requirements
3.5 Provide information about referral procedures
3.6 Determine the level of support the client will require to self-refer
3.7 Determine the roles of the client, relevant others and the worker in the referral process
ELEMENT

4. Implement and monitor agreed upon activities and processes

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Implement strategies to continually monitor the effectiveness of case management processes against agreed goals, relevant services and programs, client and stakeholder satisfaction

4.2 Assess the need for changes in case plan, including the need for ongoing intervention, and develop strategies for alternatives as appropriate

4.3 Successfully negotiate with relevant parties, any proposed changes arising from case review

4.4 Utilise processes for case closure as appropriate, to comply with organisation procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Different approaches and models of case management
- A full range of services and supports that might be needed
- Indicators of imminence of self-harm or harm to others
- Referral requirements of services
- Organisation procedures and standards
- Formal meeting processes
- Relevant policy, procedures, legislation and statutory mandates
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Family structure, dynamics, communication and decision-making
- Relevant documentation protocols
- Range of available services and supports

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Implement case management model in line with organisation policies and procedures
- Conduct research to locate a wide range of service and support options based on individual needs
- Facilitate a person's active involvement in service planning and monitoring
- Match individual needs with service and support options
- Identify indicators of imminent self-harm or harm to others
- Identify and gain agreement on role boundaries
- Apply organisation statutory and legislative requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - planning, decision-making and goal setting
  - defining boundaries
  - planning and goal setting
  - facilitation
  - assertion
  - high level writing skills
  - interpersonal and communication
  - supervision and delegation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment should include a range of case management plans to reflect the normal range of workplace activities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace or simulated environment
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Case management models may include current practices across a range of sectors, including:

- Youth
- Home and community care
- Disability
- Mental health
- Alcohol and other drugs (AOD)
- Aged care
- Homelessness
- Trauma

Relevant others may include:

- Family members
- Primary carer
- Friends
- Neighbours
- Other services

Complex needs may include:

- Clients requiring multiple service types
- Clients with a range of needs that cannot be met by one service type
- Clients who have family and carer needs that require additional service inputs
RANGE STATEMENT

Client capacity to meet the logistic requirements of services and supports may include:

- Time to participate in services and supports
- Transport
- Cost
- Level of wellness
- Willingness to engage in services and supports

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM501A Coordinate complex case requirements

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to coordinate multiple service inputs for clients with complex needs

Application of the Unit
Application This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite

This unit of competency must be assessed after achievement of related unit:
- CHCCM404A Undertake case management for people with complex needs

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish coordination function</td>
<td>1.1 Work with the client and other services to determine the nature of service inputs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Determine the interaction effect of all service inputs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Develop a plan identifying all service inputs, their timeframes and expected outcomes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Work with the services to identify the requirements and boundaries of the coordination role</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Work with the services to establish communication requirements</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT
2. Support the client accessing multiple service inputs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
2.1 Provide information to the client to establish an understanding of the coordination role
2.2 Determine any client confusion, concerns and barriers in relation to accessing the range of services
2.3 Where appropriate, work with the client and other services to resolve client confusion, concerns and barriers
2.4 Work with the client to establish communication requirements

3. Monitor service inputs

3.1 Facilitate communication between services to identify duplication of service inputs
3.2 Work with services to manage service duplication
3.3 Work with the client and services to monitor progress toward outcomes
3.4 Work with the client and services to identify barriers to attaining outcomes
3.5 Work with the client and services to develop solutions to attaining outcomes in a coordinated manner
3.6 Work with the services to minimise client confusion and concerns in a coordinated manner
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include:

- Different approaches and models of case management
- A full range of services and supports that might be needed
- Issues faced by clients, their family and carers, accessing multiple services
- Impact of service duplication
- Principles and practices of planning complex service inputs
- Principles and practices of working across multiple services
- Range and requirements of different funding arrangements
- Indicators of imminence of self-harm or harm to other
- Referral requirements of services
- Organisation procedures and standards
- Formal meeting processes
- Relevant policy, procedures, legislation and statutory mandates
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Family structure, dynamics, communication and decision-making
- Relevant documentation protocols
- Range of available services and supports

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Plan for complex needs
- Facilitate cooperation and coordination
- Communicate complex messages to clients, family and carers
- Develop and maintain systems of communication
- Identify indicators of imminent self-harm or harm to others
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Identify and gain agreement on role boundaries
- Apply organisation statutory and legislative requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - planning, decision-making and goal setting
  - defining boundaries
  - planning and goal setting
  - facilitation
  - assertion
  - high level writing skills
  - interpersonal and communication
  - supervision and delegation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include all aspects of case planning with a range of clients
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace environment
Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Service inputs may include:
- Formal interventions
- Support services
- Services to clients
- Services to family and carers

Requirements and boundaries of the coordination role may include:
- Providing a central point of contact for the client
- Monitoring overall impact of service interventions
- Facilitating communication
- Monitoring client confusion, concerns and barriers

Communication requirements may include:
- Meetings
- Identifying triggers indicating the need for communication between services
- Defined timeframes

Client confusion, concerns and barriers may include:
- Not understanding the relevance of different service inputs
- Need to provide the same information to multiple services
- Time to commit to service demands
- Not understanding how services compliment each other
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCM503C Develop, facilitate and monitor all aspects of case management

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to facilitate all aspects of case planning

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Conduction case management meetings | 1.1 Facilitate information sharing with the client by establishing an appropriate rapport with the client and implementing appropriate procedures including:
- establish purpose, objectives and agenda of the meeting
- facilitate discussion
- resolve conflict where relevant
- identify, negotiate and record outcomes
1.2 Identify and agree boundaries and processes within service delivery, including:
- rights, roles, responsibilities, decision-making processes, accountability and outcomes
- ways of addressing experience, skills, values and development of participant
- impact of statutory mandates on interventions, the client and significant others
- the impact of value systems of worker, client and key stakeholders on outcomes
- information sharing and planning
- appropriate conflict resolution techniques to be employed
1.3 Define and explore individual family and community needs and rights, and organisation responsibilities to assure the rights are protected for all concerned |
| 2. Develop an appropriate approach to case management | 2.1 Develop and utilise case management processes appropriate to implementing statutory requirements
2.2 Implement appropriate processes to facilitate client setting of goals and participation in case management processes
2.3 Integrate appropriate cultural considerations into all aspects of case management planning
2.4 Provide information on rights of appeal and avenues of complaint so client understands their rights |
ELEMENT

3. Develop an appropriate case management plan

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Develop a case management plan to reflect initial assessment of needs

3.2 Identify the full range of appropriate immediate, short and long term needs of the client and other relevant parties

3.3 Develop action plans to reflect:
   - integration of expertise of relevant stakeholders and other service deliverers
   - negotiated and agreed goals and operational processes
   - a range of strategies to address each goal and to maximise participation in plan
   - appropriate resource allocation
   - agreed responsibility for delivery
   - realistic and agreed indicators of success
   - rights and responsibilities of client

3.4 Establish processes for monitoring and changing case plan

3.5 Identify strategies to deal with complex or high risk situations

3.6 Match requirements of case plan to experience, workload and geographical location of worker

3.7 Focus plan on assisting clients to set and achieve realistic targets for change or action and to take personal responsibility

4. Manage case work activities and processes

4.1 Implement strategies to continually monitor the effectiveness of case management processes against agreed goals, relevant services and programs, client and stakeholder satisfaction

4.2 Assess the need for changes in case plan, including the need for ongoing intervention, and develop strategies for alternatives as appropriate

4.3 Successfully negotiate with relevant parties, any proposed changes arising from case review

4.4 Utilise processes for case closure as appropriate, to comply with organisation procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Behaviour change models and practices
- Organisation procedures and standards
- Formal meeting processes
- Relevant policy, procedures, legislation and statutory mandates
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Family structure, dynamics, communication and decision-making
- Relevant documentation protocols
- Range of available services

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Access and use a range of family and community resources
- Identify and gain agreement on role boundaries
- Facilitate groups and support participants to engage in information sharing and planning
- Apply organisation statutory and legislative requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - Planning, decision-making and goal setting
  - Managing group dynamics
  - Conflict resolution, negotiation and (where required) mediation techniques
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Defining boundaries
- Planning and goal setting
- Facilitation
- Assertion
- High level writing skills
- Interpersonal and communication
- Supervision and delegation where appropriate to job role

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include all aspects of case planning with a range of clients
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace environment
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts for facilitation of information sharing and planning include:

- All formal processes included in case management e.g. case conferences, case review meetings, formal briefings on client progress

Evaluating ongoing implementation includes:

- Monitoring case plan implementation
- Facilitating review activities and feedback from workers on progress of intervention
- Liaison with service providers, clients, significant others
- Advising on how case plans can be modified, ensuring that changes are communicated appropriately
RANGE STATEMENT

Complex or high risk situations are to be defined as:

- Life threatening/high risk situations
- Cases where at least three of the following factors are combined:
  - serious/sustained abuse
  - multiple difficulties present in family
  - intellectual or psychiatric disability
  - chronic and serious drug addiction affecting individuals capacity
- Where a wide range of other agencies are involved, e.g. community services, legal, medical and police agencies
- Where involvement of protective and custodial agencies with the family has been over a lengthy and sustained period
- When age of the client creates special considerations
- Cases with high public/political sensitivity requiring sensitive and experienced case investigation and management

Negotiate actions includes:

- Gaining agreement on course of actions, goal setting, milestone setting and agreement, timeline setting, establishment of review points in case plan

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM504D Promote high quality case management

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCM504C Promote high quality case management</td>
<td>CHCCM504D Promote high quality case management</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to disseminate information and provide advice on practice issues relating to case management

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Provide a lead in case management practice</td>
<td>1.1 Implement appropriate strategies to ensure currency with accepted best practice and relevant legislation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Where appropriate, provide practice advice and direction consistent with organisation service and professional standards</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Challenge and support worker to ensure casework plans and actions are based on organisation procedures, practices and legislative requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Implement strategies to ensure worker has ready access to casework consultation with other workers to maximise their effectiveness</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Access and apply specialist practice knowledge in the workplace and provide coaching and mentoring to staff to optimise competent practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Advise worker on the full range of legislative provisions relevant to case management, and worker and organisation responsibilities</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Provide practice advice on complex cases

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Thoroughly analyse and assess case management plans and feedback on their implementation and provide expert advice on options for actions and further development

2.2 Provide workers with information on organisation processes for collecting information from key stakeholders to ensure more effective operation

2.3 Routinely provided workers with information about relevant legislation and any changes in organisation practices and procedures to promote consistency and quality in practice

2.4 Routinely monitor progress on case plan and make changes as required to enable improved service delivery

2.5 Implement strategies to ensure appropriate stakeholders are consulted about specialist information and options for future action
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Theory and practice of case management
- Provisions of all relevant legislation and statutory requirements
- Practice model of supervision
- Codes of practice/ethics
- Own value base and belief system

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Research current trends in case management
- Analyse and evaluate practices
- Plan for practice improvement

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - role modelling
  - mentoring
  - facilitation of feedback
  - team management
  - high level report writing and documentation
  - research and analysis
  - effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment is recommended to be conducted on one or more occasion and should reflect a range of information and advice that is disseminated

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace environment, including testimonials from colleagues, portfolios etc

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts for facilitation of ongoing case management practice include:

- Professional development and training programs
- Practice reviews and audits

Facilitation of ongoing case management practice will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
- Service and professional standards, including code of professional ethics or code of practice
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM506C Undertake case management in a child protection framework

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCM506B Undertake case management in a child protection framework</td>
<td>CHCCM506C Undertake case management in a child protection framework</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply the case management process in which case plans are developed and managed to address specific client needs

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish client need and/or risk</td>
<td>1.1 Assess client needs/risks in accordance with organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Develop assessment plan to reflect client needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Clearly explain worker's role and purpose to the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify, assess, and prioritise relevant information, taking into account the particular circumstances of the situation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Ensure communication with client is of a level, type and manner appropriate to the individual and the nature of the issues raised</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Identify in the case plan, support and prevention strategies that promote and meet the needs of the family</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Provide information to ensure the client understands the intervention process, their rights of appeal and how to use avenues for complaint</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Develop a case management plan

2.1 Build into the case plan client strengths and/or protective factors
2.2 Develop case plan in partnership with the client
2.3 Collect information on a range of suitable intervention strategies to address immediate, short and longer term needs of clients
2.4 Explore a full range of options for addressing client needs and integrate into planning
2.5 Prioritise case management goals and objectives and negotiate and agree processes with the client
2.6 Negotiate goals, actions and timelines for the case plan in concrete, specific terms
2.7 Define roles, responsibilities and accountabilities for clients, stakeholders, workers and service providers
2.8 Explore and develop contingency plans
2.9 Integrate cultural considerations into goal setting and negotiation of timelines
2.10 Establish communication, review and evaluation systems
2.11 Document case plan and distribute to all parties

3. Implement case plan

3.1 Implement practical arrangements to support clients and stakeholders
3.2 Utilise established communication processes and protocols to make referrals
3.3 Identify roles, responsibilities, outcomes and processes involved in intervention and articulate with the client and service provider
3.4 Where appropriate, develop contracts and agree with external service providers, including accurate timing and resourcing constraints
3.5 Identify review activities and negotiate with client, service providers, and significant others
3.6 Record information in a manner consistent with organisation procedures and policies
ELEMENT

4. Establish review and evaluation systems

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Set up appropriate evaluation processes for ongoing implementation of the plan

4.2 Assess and document progress towards achieving goals with client and service providers

4.3 Assess the need for ongoing intervention

4.4 Negotiate with relevant parties, proposed actions and timelines arising from case review

4.5 Complete all relevant reporting procedures in accordance with organisation requirements

4.6 Undertake appropriate consultation with the supervisor at key decision-making points
ELEMENT
5. Plan and participate in case conferences or protection meetings

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
5.1 Convene care meetings when they are judged to be the most effective case management decision-making strategy for the needs of the case or in line with legislative/organisation requirements
5.2 Clearly identify and articulate purpose of case conference/protection meeting to clients and other stakeholders
5.3 Establish agenda that clearly outlines purpose, participants, venue, date, time and process
5.4 Identify key persons and request their contribution by attending the conference or make reporting arrangements
5.5 Undertake work to prepare client for the meeting
5.6 Implement processes to ensure participation in the decision-making process of children, young people and their families
5.7 Anticipate areas of conflict and facilitate resolution
5.8 Identify and responded to participant needs for interpreters and other support
5.9 Arrange attendance of delegated decision-makers
5.10 Provide information equally to all parties
5.11 Prepare case history in accordance with agency requirements
5.12 Nominate and brief a chairperson and minute taker
5.13 Identify, negotiate and record outcomes
ELEMENT

6. Work with agencies to meet client needs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6.1 Identify appropriate service providers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.2 Develop and maintain working relationships with relevant community groups</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.3 Access inter-agency protocols/guidelines and integrate into case management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.4 Clarify the nature of advocacy and support required by the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.5 Explain range of interventions and reason for referral, and clarify and negotiate agreement with client, service providers and significant others</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.6 Discuss with the client all representations made on their behalf to the service provider</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.7 Ensure all information is kept in confidence according to organisation policy and legislation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.8 Maintain links with service, client and other relevant parties and evaluate progress with achievement of goals</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

7. Undertake case closure

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>7.1 Analyse achievements of case plan goals against performance indicators and documented</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.2 Identify reasons for case closures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.3 Negotiate case closure with client and relevant agencies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.4 Advise relevant parties in writing of decision to close case</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.5 Ensure case closure that is implemented takes account of the needs of the client including the need to reflect on past interventions</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Understanding of legal implications and responsibilities of statutory work
- Understanding of state and federal jurisdictions, including all courts within the jurisdictions
- Detailed understanding of child protection policy and procedures including inter-agency protocols
- Detailed understanding of legislation relevant to child protection including Family Court protocols and practice and policy guidelines including legal definitions of abuse
- Understanding of risk assessment, comprehensive psychosocial assessment and family assessment
- Understanding of indicators of harm, types of harm, definitions and dynamics of harm
- Understanding of theories on vulnerability and resilience of children
- Understanding of the change process
- Understanding of stages of child development
- Understanding of workings of court, legal systems and legal processes
- Understanding of legal implications of material collected through interviews
- Understanding of family dynamics in different cultures
- Understanding of recording and reporting systems
- Understanding of how to access interpreters for clients and their families who are from a non-English speaking background or who are hearing or speech impaired

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Interpret and apply legislation, policies and procedures and standards and statutory obligations
- Respond to and manage crisis
- Develop and assess actions appropriate for intervention
- Collect and assess information
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Document plans
- Apply all aspects of a structured case management framework to statutory child protection work

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Use communication techniques such as: active listening, reflection, summarising, questions and statements, gaining agreement on actions and explaining outcomes
- Use solution focused interviewing techniques
- Interview and engage children, young people and their families in communication exchange
- Effectively and impartially collect and analyse information according to risk assessment framework or models
- Articulate rationale for decision-making
- Interpret legalese into language understood by client and significant others
- Set boundaries for roles and actions
- Demonstrate empathy and rapport building
- Use age appropriate language and questioning techniques
- Utilise conflict resolution skills
- Manage grief and change processes
- Engage and establish a professional relationship with children and young people
- Monitor own level of stress and implement stress management strategies
- Work appropriately with cross cultural issues
- Prepare court reports
- Present factual, non-emotive information succinctly
- Demonstrate appropriate use of supervision and consultation
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
Evidence Guide

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence must be assessed in the workplace within a statutory child protection authority and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include the normal range of workplace situations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace environment.
- Workplace evidence can be testimonials, portfolios or copies of completed workplace records/documentation.
- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in undertaking case management in a statutory child protection environment.
  - assessment should be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios.
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - review of any workplace documentation produced by the candidate related to case management in a statutory child protection environment.
Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts for establishing a case plan could include:
- A result of a notification/report
- A result of a risk assessment
- A result of a placement in out of home care
- A result of a court order
- A result of a contract to provide a service
- Part of a case planning meeting or conference

Establishment of a case plan will be carried out within requirements established by:
- Commonwealth and state legislation
- Relevant international conventions
- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
- Inter-agency protocols/guidelines

Development of a case plan includes:
- Working collaboratively with the client and all stakeholders
- Identifying priority needs/target needs/risks
- Identifying and building on client strengths and/or protective factors
- Setting goals which are negotiated with the client
- Identifying strategies and actions, roles and responsibilities, timeframes and review
- Documentation using formats and procedures
RANGE STATEMENT

Client need includes:
- Developmental needs (physical, social, cultural, emotional and psychological)
- Risks
- Early intervention/prevention
- Supports in parenting
- Practical e.g. housing, income

Stakeholders include:
- Child or young person
- Family
- Significant others
- Worker
- Carers
- Supervisor and organisation
- Court and legal practitioners
- Community

Information may include:
- All official documentation relating to client, full family history, developmental and medical history
- All available records, anecdotal material and individual interviews

Client can include:
- Child/children
- Young person/people
- Parents
- Family/relative
- Significant others
- Foster cares
RANGE STATEMENT

Case management principles can include:

- Taking the least intrusive intervention necessary to ensure safety and support protection
- Safety, welfare and well being of child or young person is paramount consideration
- Using a strengths-based, partnership approach in practice
- Intervention is planned and purposeful
- Working in partnership with other service providers
- Consideration of culture, disability, language, religion, sexuality and any special needs in service provision
- Children and young people placed away from home are entitled to special protection and assistance
- Self determination of aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities
- Recognition of the importance of maintaining significant relationships and cultural identity of a child or young person when they cannot live with their family
- Working quickly to resolve permanency by planning placement stability and continuity of relationships
- Ethical practice
- Accountability for decisions and actions

Child centred practice includes:

- Engaging in direct work with children and young people
- Providing an advocacy role on behalf of children and young people
- Understanding the different, and range, of stages of development (including attachment) and how that can inform intervention and planning
- Ensuring that the child or young person is an active participant throughout the case management process
- Recognising that children and young people are part of families and communities
- Safeguarding children can not be separated from promoting their welfare
- The role of prevention and early implementation strategies in protecting and supporting children
RANGE STATEMENT

Family focus includes:

- Recognition that parenting can be stressful and challenging
- Recognition of the impact of poverty and disadvantage on families
- Recognition of the potential impact of statutory intervention on families
- Recognition of the complex issues facing the family

Exercising effective communication skills includes:

- Identifying and evaluating what is occurring within an interaction in a non-judgemental way
- Making decision about appropriate words, behaviour, posture
- Using active listening
- Using clarifying, summarising questions
- Putting together a response that is culturally appropriate
- Expressing an individual perspective
- Expressing own philosophy, ideology and background and exploring the impact of this on the communication
- Exploring and unpacking problems
- Reflective listening
- Providing sufficient time to enable stories to be told
- Provide summarising and reflective response in conflict situations
RANGE STATEMENT

Complex cases can include the presence of a number of complicating factors including:

- Multiple abuse/injuries
- Ritual abuse
- Life threatening/high risk situations
- Multiple difficulties present in family
- Intellectual or psychiatric disabled clients
- Chronic and serious substance abuse/addiction
- Family/domestic violence
- A wide range of other services involved which requires coordination
- Involvement of protective and custodial agencies in the family over a lengthy period
- Cases with high public/political sensitivity requiring sensitive and experienced case investigation and management
- Poverty including poor housing, inadequate and limited educational, health and social facilities, and high risk communities/neighborhoods

Case plan may include:

- Assessment/investigation plan
- Support and management plan
- Out of home care plan
- Restoration/reunification plan
- Protection plan

Meetings may include:

- Case conferences
- Protection planning meetings
- Family group conferences
- Alternate dispute resolution

Cultural considerations include:

- Indigenous and ethnic considerations
- Power relationship structures
- Rituals, beliefs, hierarchies and practices
- Community politics
- Gender
- Parenting practice and family dynamics
RANGE STATEMENT

Contracts for service provision include:
- Responsibilities of service/agency
- Referral service/agency and client are articulated, documented, endorsed and explained to the client and relevant stakeholders
- Agreement is sought from client and stakeholders about roles, responsibilities, timelines, actions, milestones and outcomes

Procedures used in crisis situations include:
- Ensuring security and safety of all relevant parties including protection and custodial issues and the level of intervention required
- Appropriate crisis services such as counselling, respite care, debriefing

Support and prevention strategies include:
- Provision of information
- Early intervention and prevention services
- Financial and practical benefits

Rights of appeal mechanisms may include:
- Those operating within all state departments, service provider organisations and external bodies

Record information relating to a case plan includes:
- Computer report, hand written, electronic, on file, etc

Feedback mechanisms include:
- Communicating daily with child, young person, family, significant other, about meeting of needs, participating within a case conference, recording observations about progress on activities

Each contact with client is recorded and includes:
- Telephone contact, face-to-face interviews, contact with service provider about the client, letters, anecdotal information received from others, enquiries conducted by the worker to other agencies e.g. schools, doctors etc
RANGE STATEMENT

Relevant supporting information includes:

- Example reports e.g. medical, school, family assessment, out of home care history, intake forms, referees, financial assistance record etc

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM605C Develop practice standards

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to ensure case management delivery reflects current best practice

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Promote practice standards

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Develop standards of practice and promote to staff

1.2 Identify strategies for continuous improvement mechanisms relating to case management practice and integrate into work systems

1.3 Implement improvement processes that reflect current research related to practice performance

2. Provide case work consultancy to promote best practice

2.1 Provide coaching and advice on specific casework or supervision practice as required to colleagues and co-workers

2.2 Focus coaching and advice on ensuring the objectives and principles of case work delivery are promoted and achieved

2.3 Take available opportunities to promote best practice in case management delivery

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Organisation mission, philosophy
- Professional standards/code of ethics
- Relevant legislation
- Current research in practice standards
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Practice standards development models/processes

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Maintain knowledge of latest practice
- Develop practice standards for a range of issues
- Provide consultancy on application of practice standards
- Demonstrate knowledge related to applying agency and legislative requirements
- Demonstrate use of typical processes listed in the Range Statement

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - mentoring
  - consultation
  - analysis
  - report writing
  - research
  - liaison with other agencies, professional associations

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
EVIDENCE GUIDE

demonstrate this unit of competency:

- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include both the development and promotion of best practice

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Contexts for developing practice standards include:

- Practice reviews and audits
- Responsibility for interpreting organisation mission, philosophy into practice standards

Develop standards of practice will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Organisation mission, philosophy and outcomes
- Agency policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
- Service and professional standards

Specific casework or supervision practice includes:

- Developing basic practice skills in workers
- Coaching in cases of increased complexity

Coaching and advice may utilise information gathered from:

- Current texts and journals
- Legislation
- Regulations
- Practice guidelines and procedures
- Relevant specific knowledge in key practice areas e.g. child protection, juvenile justice, adoption
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM701B Undertake advanced client assessments

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCM701A Undertake advanced client assessments</td>
<td>CHCCM701B Undertake advanced client assessments</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Formatting and grammatical corrections. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to undertake initial and ongoing client assessments, to determine eligibility, priority and need for services as part of a case management process or as part of an assessment service.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to work in a range of community sector contexts where high-level assessment skills and knowledge are required.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Prepare for initial assessment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Establish need for broad-based holistic assessment of person’s needs based on referral or other documentation in line with organisation policy and procedures

1.2 Establish rapport with person and obtain their consent to participate in the assessment process

1.3 Identify additional stakeholders, such as carers and family members, whose input is required into the assessment process and outcomes

1.4 Identify range of information, products and resources to be utilised in the assessment process

1.5 Structure the assessment process to focus on identifying opportunities to build on strengths, improve functional capacity, and participation in social and community activities

1.6 Organise appropriate time and place for assessment in conjunction with the person being assessed and associated carers, support workers and family, where appropriate

1.7 Identify appropriate assessment tools and processes according to organisation policy and procedures

1.8 Explain privacy and confidentiality principles, practices and procedures

1.9 Ensure interpreter is available and has been briefed, where required
ELEMENT

2. Conduct assessment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Ensure communication with all people involved in the assessment is in language or form they understand

2.2 Clearly explain the assessment process and how information is used, including legal requirements and organisation policy and processes for mandatory reporting

2.3 Implement risk management processes, as required, to ensure safety of person being assessed and others involved in the assessment, including workers

2.4 Ensure appropriate and empowering involvement of the person, their carer/s and family in the assessment process

2.5 Use appropriate assessment tools and processes to identify, clarify and prioritise needs of the person, their carer/s and family, especially where there are multiple and complex issues involved

2.6 Collect and document information about the person, using an assessment tool if appropriate, including their:
   - family, housing, financial situation, health
   - social relationships
   - ability to undertake activities of daily living
   - relevant problems, if any

2.7 Where multi-organisation assessments are undertaken, take steps to ensure coordinated and streamlined approach to assessment, with consultation to avoid duplication and support sharing of information

2.8 Ensure those involved in the assessment are assisted to identify and prioritise the person's goals, needs and any risk factors

2.9 Ensure the assessment provides an effective basis for establishing a care plan to provide required services whilst optimising the person's independence and self-management capacity

2.10 Where carers are involved, ensure the assessment focuses on and empowers the care relationship rather than treating the individual in isolation

2.11 Ensure carers are informed about their role and rights in the assessment and decision-making processes, where appropriate, including their right to assessment of
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. Undertake ongoing assessment and review</td>
<td>2.12 Identify and assess work health and safety (WHS) risks and issues potentially associated with service and resource delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.1 Respond appropriately to informal monitoring of health and well being of the person and/or their carer by workers, volunteers, carers or family</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Undertake regular and systematic reviews to ensure assessed needs of clients are being addressed effectively</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Use regular reviews to re-prioritise client needs for service and to ensure equitable access based on ongoing appraisal of prioritised needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Undertake reassessment of client needs in response to changes in client or carer health, review of risk management and/or WHS needs as specified in person's care plan or as required by personal circumstances</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Respond appropriately to diversity</td>
<td>4.1 Ensure equitable access and culturally sensitive assessment processes are provided for culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) and Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Ensure appropriate interpreter support is provided in line with organisation protocols</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Where appropriate, build and maintain relationships with ethno-specific and multicultural organisations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Where appropriate, build and maintain relationships with Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander communities and organisations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.5 Recognise and support the role of ethno-specific, multicultural, Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander organisations in linking their communities into the service system</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.6 Use assessment processes and practices designed to build trust and confidence in mainstream services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.7 Where appropriate involve Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander community and/or organisation representatives in the assessment process</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

5. Respond appropriately to people with different levels of need including people with complex needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Recognise the significant needs of people in complex circumstances in relation to supporting their access to assessment

5.2 Facilitate access to assessment for people with different levels of need including those in complex circumstances and identified as having high levels of need

5.3 Develop and maintain inter-organisation relationships and agreements as appropriate to address client, family and carer needs

5.4 Recognise the need for secondary consultation, medication administration/monitoring or additional specialist assessment, such as to be undertaken by a specified health professional, where the person's health is unstable to ensure the appropriate multi-disciplinary approach is applied

5.5 Identify and build on person's motivation to improve their functional capacity and set their own goals
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Roles, responsibilities and boundaries of own work role and of other organisations and personnel providing assessment and related services
- Validity and reliability requirements for assessment
- Assessment tools, processes and protocol requirements
- Range of relevant assessment approaches and practices related to identifying needs for delivery of services and resources in the community sector
- Organisation policy and procedure associated with individual assessment
- Processes applying to multi-organisation assessments and relevant inter-organisation relationships and agreements
- Reporting requirements of individual assessment
- Consent requirements for dissemination of a person's assessment results and associated privacy and confidentiality principles and practices
- Characteristics and needs of identified client population
- Understanding of the policy and planning context and systems of funding and providing services
- Professional standards/code of ethics
- Government legislation, regulations, standards and policies
- Awareness of own values
- Documentation requirements and practices
- Current research in assessment practice
- Relevant WHS risks and issues and associated risk management practices and how to assess these
- Strategies to provide equitable access and culturally sensitive assessment processes for CALD and Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people
- Relevant ethno-specific, multicultural and Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander organisations
- Understanding the significance of setting, such as working in the client's home

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake broad-based assessments of people, involving their carers and family members with a focus on service delivery within the community sector to optimise their functional capacity and participation in social, community and daily living activities

- Communicate effectively using interviewing, observation, negotiating, problem solving and motivating skills

- Record and report on assessment results within and across organisations as required to address complex needs in line with client requirements

- Work within professional standards and applicable legislation, regulations, policies and standards

- Implement WHS and risk management practices, as required, to ensure safety of person being assessed and others involved in the assessment

- Use appropriate assessment tools and processes to identify, clarify and prioritise needs of the person, their carer/s and family, especially where there are multiple and complex issues involved

- Apply aware reasoning and judgement based on knowledge, experience and skills

- Engage people in a problem solving approach to their issues

- Work individually and in multi-disciplinary and multi-organisation situations

- Undertake and respond appropriately to ongoing assessment and review, including informal monitoring and formal review and reassessment

- Work effectively with CALD and Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander individuals and communities

- Practise in an ethical manner noted by professional discipline or defined ethical standards

- Work within guidelines for currently identified best practices

- Apply communication and leadership skills appropriately in work with other organisations

- Maintain client confidentiality when engaging stakeholders

- Identify and consider duty of care issues

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - interviewing
  - appropriate home visit behaviours
  - use of assessment tools and other tools where relevant
  - communicating with a wide variety of people at different levels of functioning
  - analysis of social and other situations and relationships
  - report and case note writing
  - research
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- liaison with other organisations and service providers
- facilitation
- advocacy

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace using case examples, role plays etc
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
- Where, for reasons of safety, space, or access to equipment and resources, assessment takes place away from the workplace, the assessment environment should represent workplace conditions as closely as possible
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in CALD environments
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting
- Feedback from peers/other participants

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Complex circumstances and identified as having high levels of need may include:

- Families with children with disabilities where a number of different organisations are providing support
- People with disabilities with a diverse range of needs arising from physical and behavioural causes
- People with disabilities with a diverse range of needs arising from the type or types of disability
- People with disabilities requiring the development of appropriate responses for personal and/or respite care
- People with complex medical issues which may pose critical issues for assessment and care planning
- Older people with chronic illness and unstable health conditions requiring coordinated management across acute, sub-acute and community health sectors
- Older people with dementia and/or other brain disorders
- Older people who are extremely socially isolated and withdrawn
- Circumstances involving difficult WHS issues for community sector workers
- People with mental health issues, whose functional limitations may fluctuate substantially over time
- People with psychiatric disabilities where inter-organisation agreements may be required to access specialist assessment expertise
- People with family and carer needs that require additional service inputs

Inter-organisation relationships and agreements may relate to:

- Access to specialist expertise for secondary consultations, advice or assessment
- Extent and type of information provided on referral
- Joint assessment
- Case conferencing
- Care planning and ongoing support
- Use of specialist assessment tools
- Involvement in assessment of family members and other organisations providing services
- Receiving relevant information from health practitioners and/or from support workers
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM702B Implement goal directed care planning

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCM702A</td>
<td>CHCCM702B</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to plan care for clients through provision of services and resources aimed at maximising and enhancing their independence and quality of life.

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply to work in a range of community sector contexts where high level care planning skills and knowledge are required.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills.
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Undertake care planning to address identified client needs and goals | 1.1 Work with client to identify realistic and relevant goals as a basis for care planning
1.2 Undertake care planning to address identified goals and in line with needs assessment and document in line with organisation requirements
1.3 Undertake consultation with other organisation representatives to plan care in complex situations where multi-organisation involvement is required
1.4 Ensure care plan recognises and supports person's strengths and abilities as well as addressing their needs
1.5 Recognise and respect person's right to self-determination within legal parameters
1.6 Plan care in consultation with the person, their carer/s and family, friends or others involved in advocacy or decision-making on their behalf
1.7 Support person to make informed decisions about their care, reflecting understanding of their current situation, probable future situation and ensuing care needs
1.8 Investigate range of options available to address client-identified needs and achieve their goals
1.9 In conjunction with client, structure a range of services in a manner that supports informal care arrangements such as family support, and support of friends and/or neighbours
1.10 Devise alternative strategies to meet identified client needs when specific services are not available
1.11 Provide the person with cost details as required and work with them to ensure care plan is within their financial resources
1.12 Identify work health and safety (WHS) risks and plan for their management
1.13 Write care plan and clearly identify all work tasks and who is to perform them |
ELEMENT

2. Implement care plan in conjunction with relevant others

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Seek and obtain person's consent before undertaking any referrals

2.2 Provide person with clear understanding of available services and choices, so they are an informed participant in all stages of care planning

2.3 Work in collaboration with appropriate professionals and organisations to ensure services are provided in a manner that maximises person's potential for achieving their goals and addresses identified needs

2.4 Ensure planning clearly articulates roles and responsibilities of each service provider, including coordination role/s

2.5 Maximise involvement of client and carer/s in care planning processes and decision-making

2.6 Ensure effective involvement of relevant health/community services professionals in care planning where clients have chronic or complex needs

2.7 Establish and maintain communication strategy and processes to ensure effective implementation of care plan

2.8 Ensure mechanisms are in place to support sharing of information between organisations and maintenance of updated information to all involved organisations

2.9 Support and develop person's ability to independently access alternative resources to ensure their needs are addressed in an appropriate manner
ELEMENT

3. Monitor implementation of client care plan

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1 Regularly monitor planned services, support and resources against client-identified goals to ensure effective implementation of their care plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2 Ensure appropriate level of rapport and communication with client is maintained as required to support disclosure of information regarding delivery of services and resources in line with care plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3 Maintain collaborative relationships with clients, carers and other service providers to support people with complex needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.4 Promptly identify problems with implementation of care plan and make adjustment as necessary to best meet person's needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.5 Document and report any variations to care plan in line with organisation requirements and communication strategy</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Undertake review of care plan

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4.1 Respond appropriately to informal monitoring of health and well being of the person and/or their carer by volunteers, carers or family</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2 Undertake regular and systematic reviews to ensure assessed needs of clients are being addressed effectively</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3 Use regular reviews to re-prioritise client needs for service and to ensure equitable access based on ongoing appraisal of prioritised needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4 Contribute to adjustments in care plan in response to changes in client or carer health; review of risk management/WHS needs; or as specified in person's care plan or as required by personal circumstances</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

5. Respond appropriately to diversity

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Ensure care planning for CALD and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients is culturally sensitive

5.2 Ensure appropriate interpreter support is provided in line with organisation protocols

5.3 Where appropriate, work in conjunction with ethno-specific and multicultural organisations and with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and organisations

5.4 Recognise and support the role of these organisations in linking their communities into the service system

5.5 Where appropriate involve Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community and/or organisation representatives in the care planning process

6. Respond appropriately to people with different levels of need including those with complex needs

6.1 Facilitate access to assessment for people with different levels of need including those in complex circumstances and identified as having high levels of need

6.2 Maintain and promote inter-organisation relationships and agreements as appropriate to address client, family and carer needs

6.3 Ensure care planning builds on person's strengths and motivation to improve their quality of life
ELEMENT

7. Evaluate client outcomes

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1. Undertake periodic evaluation of care planning based on analysis of outcomes

2. Obtain information from clients, carers, families and other service providers to determine progress and evaluate against identified goals in care plan

3. Take into account adjustments made to services and resources to better address person's ongoing situation and changing needs

4. Ensure evaluation includes determination of client satisfaction, comparison of costs against benefits received and assessment of quality and effectiveness of service delivery and case management components

5. Work with person to evaluate ongoing support needs to meet their goals, including review of parameters for disengagement, where applicable

6. Demonstrate accountability for adjustments to the care plan and associated financial outcomes

7. Identify opportunities for person to maintain or develop independence within any aspects of their overall care

8. Document and report quantifiable impacts experienced by person as a result of implementation of care plan and indicate how client-centred outcomes have been achieved
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Literature on models and practices in goal-directed care planning
- The range of services, resources and holistic solutions available to clients with complex needs
- Components of service delivery system
- Gaps in the service system
- Characteristics and needs of identified client population
- Significance of the service setting, such as working in the client's home
- Organisation policies and practices relating to care planning
- Professional standards/code of ethics and relevant legislative requirements
- Government legislation, regulations, policies and standards
- Documentation requirements and practices
- Duty of care requirements when developing and implementing care plans
- Current research in area of practice

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within professional standards and applicable government legislation, regulations, policies and standards
- Use data drawn from a range of client needs assessment information as a basis for planning care services to address client needs
- Review and apply outcomes data as a means to continually improve practice and make adjustments to care plan
- Practise in an ethical manner noted by professional discipline or defined ethical standards
- Work within guidelines for currently identified best practices
- Minimise client dependency by developing their self-management skills
- Examine issues related to sustainability of care to address client's level of need
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate actions to support improvement/maintenance of quality of life for clients
- Navigate the service delivery system to meet client needs and support encouragement of client independence where possible
- Apply communication and leadership skills with providers to services and resources to meet client needs
- Maintain client confidentiality when engaging stakeholders

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - consultation, liaison and negotiation
  - analysis of assessment and other data
  - report, case note and care plan writing
  - liaison with other organisations and service providers
  - facilitation
  - advocacy
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions e.g. writing care plans based on case studies, writing case notes based on case studies
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include both the development and promotion of best practice

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place
  - simulation of realistic workplace setting

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting
- Examination of written examples of care plans and written examples of case notes

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Care planning may include, for example:

- Identifying range and type of specific services to be provided
- Planning details of each specific service to be provided, such as
  - domestic assistance
  - respite
  - nursing care
- Consideration of WHS and risk management issues and strategies to address these
- Referral strategies as required to address breadth of client needs
- Information about services, resources or activities the client may follow up independently, such as:
  - Health promotion
  - Local social or active living opportunities
  - Self management strategies and activities
  - Self-referral to other services

Complex needs may refer to:

- Client needs requiring multiple service types with heightened needs for collaboration between service providers
- Clients with a range of needs that may not be met by available services and resources
- Clients who have family and carer needs that require additional service inputs
- People who have broad range of care needs related to chronic and/or multiple health issues and who require assistance to access the service system as well as a high level of ongoing advocacy
RANGE STATEMENT

People in complex circumstances and identified as having high levels of need may refer, for example, to:

- Families with children with disabilities where a number of different organisations are providing support
- People with disabilities with a diverse range of needs arising from physical and behavioural causes
- People with disabilities requiring the development of appropriate responses for personal and/or respite care
- People with complex medical issues which may pose critical issues for assessment and care planning
- Older people with chronic illness and unstable health conditions requiring coordinated management across acute, sub acute and community health sectors
- Older people with dementia and/or other cognitive impairment
- Older people who are extremely socially isolated and withdrawn
- Circumstances involving difficult WHS issues for community sector workers
- People with mental health issues, whose functional limitations may fluctuate substantially over time
- People with psychiatric disabilities where inter-organisation agreements may be required to access specialist assessment expertise
- People with family and carer needs that require additional service inputs

Inter-organisation relationships and agreements may relate to:

- Access to specialist expertise for secondary consultations, advice or assessment
- Extent and type of information provided on referral
- Joint assessment
- Case conferencing
- Care planning and ongoing support
- Use of specialist assessment tools
- Involvement in assessment of family members and other organisations providing services
- Receiving relevant information from health practitioners and/or support workers
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCM703A Apply effective case management practice

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to undertake complex case management

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work in a range of community sector contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

© Commonwealth of Australia, 2017
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Initiate complex case management process | 1.1 Confirm eligibility of persons for case management by matching client profile against service criteria
1.2 Obtain person's consent to their involvement in case management, ensuring the client understands their rights and responsibilities
1.3 Collect information about person, ensuring confidentiality and privacy and minimising any duplication
1.4 Work with person to identify and prioritise their needs to inform more comprehensive assessment and to identify relevant goals that are achievable within an identified timeframe
1.5 Recognise and respect person's right to self-determination within legal parameters
1.6 Identify social, economic, housing, personal and family factors that may influence person's health, well being and level of dependence/independence
1.7 Explain case management process to person, ensuring their understanding of relevant complaint/appeal processes and service criteria for disengagement
1.8 Ascertain specific cultural needs of person as a basis for providing appropriate services and support for their development |
| 2. Identify and document complex client needs | 2.1 In conjunction with person, identify their needs as a basis for planning an intervention and identifying appropriate resources
2.2 Document and confirm identified needs with person, using language that is understood by them
2.3 Work with person to identify and analyse risk factors and determine needs that may have greater impact on their well being
2.4 Estimate the level of case management support required to implement person's care plan and discuss this with those involved in aspects of case management |
ELEMENT

3. Identify and consider possible solutions to complex issues

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Identify complex legal and ethical issues and questions pertaining to aspects of case management and resolve in line with organisation guidelines and regulatory requirements or seek appropriate resources to assist with their resolution as required

3.2 Identify complex issues relating to funding of service provision and administer resources within relevant regulatory framework

3.3 Ensure ethical standards are addressed to protect the autonomy, dignity, privacy and rights of individuals

3.4 Advocate for client-oriented solutions to complex identified needs at service delivery and policy-making levels

3.5 Draw on established collaborative relationships as required to provide care and optimise outcomes for clients with complex needs

3.6 Use collaboration to generate innovative responses to meet person's needs where available solutions are not sufficient or effective

3.7 Maintain strong up-to-date knowledge of available resources and services within the community and area of expertise
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 4. Develop plan of action to address identified priorities | 4.1 Use client-identified goals and needs assessment as basis for developing and agreeing plan of action
4.2 Support person to make informed decisions, providing necessary information in a timely manner, reflecting understanding of their current situation, probable future situation and ensuing care needs
4.3 Support and develop person's ability to independently access alternative resources to address identified needs
4.4 Conduct research as required to establish an informed factual basis for formulating plan of action
4.5 Evaluate any barriers that may restrict person's ability to meet identified goals and determine strategies to minimise their impact
4.6 Ensure plan of action is within person's financial resources
4.7 Network with appropriate professionals and organisations to maximise potential for achieving person's goals and addressing identified needs
4.8 Convene and/or participate in case conferences with services providers and/or family carers and relevant others as required
4.9 Seek and obtain person's consent before undertaking any referrals to other services and/or organisations
4.10 Provide person with clear understanding of available services and choices, so they are an informed participant in all stages of case management process
4.11 Document person's goals, including measurable criteria, as a basis for determining effectiveness of interventions provided |
5. Monitor implementation of client care plan

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Regularly monitor planned services, support and resources against client-identified goals to ensure effective implementation of their care plan.

5.2 Ensure appropriate level of rapport and communication with client is maintained as required to support disclosure of information regarding delivery of services and resources in line with care plan.

5.3 Foster and support collaborative relationships between clients, carers, service providers and funding bodies to support people with complex needs.

5.4 Maintain professional rapport with service providers to enable objective discussion of case management plan, identification of problems and adjustment as necessary.

5.5 Advocate for service system improvements by identifying and communicating gaps and/or inadequate services to program managers.

5.6 Make adjustments to services, supports and resources as required to best meet person’s needs.

5.7 Document and report to relevant organisation or funding body, likely implications from any variations to expected care plan.
ELEMENT
6. Evaluate client outcomes

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
6.1 Undertake periodic reassessment and evaluation of outcomes against expected outcomes with reference to available evidence
6.2 Obtain information from clients, service providers, funding bodies and case managers to determine progress and evaluate against identified goals in care plan
6.3 Take into account adjustments made to services and resources to better address person's ongoing situation and changing needs
6.4 Ensure evaluation includes determination of client satisfaction, comparison of costs against benefits received and assessment of quality and effectiveness of service delivery and case management components
6.5 Work with person to evaluate ongoing support needs to meet their goals, including review of parameters for disengagement, where applicable
6.6 Demonstrate accountability for adjustments to the care plan and associated financial outcomes
6.7 Identify opportunities for person to maintain or develop independence within any aspects of their overall care
6.8 Document and report quantifiable impacts experienced by person as a result of implementation of care plan and indicate how client-centred outcomes have been achieved
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Case management models and practices literature
- Case Management Society of Australia's National Standards for Practice of Case Management
- Wide range of services and resources available to clients
- Components of service delivery system
- Funding processes and bodies related to provision of relevant services and resources
- Characteristics and needs of identified client population
- Nature and significance of service setting
- Organisation policies and practices relating to case management and client complaint and appeal processes
- Professional standards/code of ethics and relevant legislative requirements
- Government legislation, regulations, policies and standards
- Documentation requirements and practices
- Current research literature in area of practice

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within relevant case management standards, professional standards and applicable legislation, regulations and government policies
- Examine clients and aggregate data to reflect case manager performance
- Review and apply outcomes data for clients and programs as a means to continually improve practice
- Practise in an ethical manner noted by professional discipline or defined ethical standards
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Work within guidelines for currently identified best practices
- Minimise client dependency by developing their self-advocacy skills
- Examine issues related to sustainability of care to address client's level of need
- Demonstrate actions to support improvement/maintenance of quality of life for clients
- Navigate the service delivery system to meet client needs and support encouragement of client independence where possible
- Apply communication and leadership skills with providers to services and resources meet client needs
- Maintain client confidentiality when engaging stakeholders
- Identify and consider duty of care issues

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - interviewing
  - convening and participating in meetings
  - consultation, liaison and networking
  - analysis of social, economic, housing, health, personal, family and other factors
  - report and case note writing
  - literature review
  - facilitation
  - advocacy

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
  - This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
  - Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include both the development and promotion of best practice

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place
  - simulation of realistic workplace setting e.g. role plays, writing case notes based on case studies

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Complex case management process may refer to:

- Complexity of client circumstances or needs
- Complex range of issues involved in addressing client needs
- Involvement of multiple service providers
- Longevity of case management process
- Family relationship problems
- One or more of social, economic, housing and health problems

Complex client needs may refer to:

- Client needs requiring multiple service types with heightened needs for collaboration between service providers
- Clients with a range of needs that may not be met by available services and resources
- Clients who have family and carer needs that require additional service inputs
- Clients having unstable health conditions.
- Clients have housing and/or financial problems
- Substance abuse
RANGE STATEMENT

Barriers that may restrict person's ability to meet identified goals may include:

- Physical, mental or emotional issues or events
- Legal or regulatory constraints
- Incidents or accidents
- Cultural issues
- Service provider issues
- Eligibility criteria
- Unstable housing
- Financial problems
- Substance abuse
- Unstable health

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCM705C Work effectively with carers and families in complex situations

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCM705B Work effectively with carers and families in complex situations</td>
<td>CHCCM705C Work effectively with carers and families in complex situations</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Formatting and grammatical corrections. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to support the care relationship for clients with carers and families in complex situations

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to work in a range of community sector contexts, particularly in client assessment and case management, and working with clients who have complex needs requiring a range of care solutions

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.  The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify and address the needs of carers and families | 1.1 Work with carers and families of clients with complex needs to clarify their needs and identify available support options
1.2 Provide information as required to assist and meet identified needs of carers and families
1.3 Recognise the multi-dimensional and dynamic nature of caring relationships and respond appropriately to support individual relationships with each client
1.4 Observe changes in the caring relationship over time and respond appropriately to those changes to address needs of carers and care recipients
1.5 Recognise the key factors in risks to the care relationship continuing and respond appropriately to these
1.6 Ensure that each person's carer/s and family are treated with dignity and respect and with sensitivity to cultural issues and expectations in the caring relationship
1.7 Take steps to ensure all service providers are aware of and respond appropriately to address specific identified needs of carers and families
1.8 Where appropriate, identify needs of children of parents with complex needs and apply strategies to address these needs, including where children adopt the caring role (young carers) |
ELEMENT

2. Involve carers and families in assessment and care planning processes

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Consult with care recipient to clarify the role and involvement of primary carer/s and other family members in the decision-making and service delivery processes

2.2 Ensure assessments are undertaken in the context of the care relationship and address the needs of both care recipients and carers, and address any areas of conflict

2.3 Ensure carers are well informed about their role and rights in assessment of the care recipient and care planning decision-making and that they are aware of their right to a carer assessment, which may be undertaken separately

2.4 Ensure carer assessment is empowering and builds carer relationships with service providers over time

2.5 Provide carers with clear understanding of available services and choices, so they are informed participants in the care planning process

2.6 Consult with all organisation representatives involved in assessment and care planning in complex situations to ensure carer and family involvement is clear

2.7 Ensure services are provided in a manner that recognises and optimises the caring relationship to maximise each person's potential for achieving their goals and addresses identified needs

2.8 Maximise agreed involvement of carer/s and family in assessment and care planning processes and decision-making

2.9 Ensure mechanisms are in place to support sharing and updating of information with carer/s and family
ELEMENT

3. Involve carer/s, family and other informal support persons in monitoring client care plan implementation

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Ensure carer/s have a clear understanding of client-identified goals and the role planned services, support and resources have in achieving those goals

3.2 Ensure carer/s have identified their own goals and the role planned services, support and resources have in achieving those goals

3.3 Listen to observations of client, carer/s and family about aspects of care and services provided in relation to achieving those goals

3.4 Maintain appropriate level of rapport and communication with carer/s to support disclosure of information about delivery of services and resources in line with care plan

3.5 Maintain collaborative relationships with carers and other informal supporters (e.g. neighbours or friends), to ensure they can continue to provide the desired support to people with complex needs

3.6 Involve carer/s in identifying problems with implementing care plans and potential adjustments to best meet each person’s needs
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Characteristics and needs of identified client population
- Components and relationships of service delivery system
- Documentation requirements and practices
- Government legislation, regulations, policies and standards
- Models and practices in assessment and goal-directed care planning
- Organisation policies and practices
- Professional standards/code of ethics and relevant legislative requirements
- Relevance of the work role and functions to maintaining sustainability of the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
- Service and practitioner role boundaries
- Significance of service delivery setting, such as working in the client's home
- The nature of the family care relationship and family dynamics
- The range of services, resources and holistic solutions available to clients with complex needs

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Demonstrate appropriate inclusion of carers and families in assessment, planning, implementation and review processes related to provision of services and resources to support the care relationship in complex situations
- Examine issues related to sustainability of care to address needs of care recipient and carer/s
- Identify and manage competing needs and conflict, when necessary to improve care outcomes for client
- Maintain client confidentiality when engaging stakeholders
- Navigate the service delivery system to meet needs of care recipient and carer/s and to encourage independence where possible
- Practise in an ethical and professional manner
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Support the care relationship to minimise client dependency by developing their self-management skills
- Use complex data drawn from a range of needs assessment information as a basis for planning care services to address complex needs of care recipients and their carer/s
- Work within guidelines for currently identified best practices

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - advocacy
  - consultation
  - engagement
  - facilitation
  - identification of stakeholders
  - liaison with other organisations and service providers
  - negotiating / problem solving
  - observation
  - report and case note writing
  - situation analysis
- Recognise, act upon and promote opportunities to enhance sustainability in the work context, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competence will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include both the development and promotion of best practice

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place
  - simulation of realistic workplace setting, using case study examples, role plays etc

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting
- Feedback from peers/other participants may inform assessment

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Care planning may include:
- Planning range and type of specific services to be provided
- Planning details of each specific service to be provided, such as
  - domestic assistance
  - respite
  - nursing care
- Consideration of work health and safety (WHS) and risk management issues and strategies to address these
- Referral strategies, as required, to address breadth of client needs
- Information about services, resources or activities the client may follow up independently, such as:
  - health promotion
  - local social or active living opportunities
  - self-management strategies and activities
  - self-referral to other services
- Communication strategies for ensuring clarity of responsibilities and effective coordination of service delivery

Complex needs may refer to:
- Client needs requiring multiple service types with heightened needs for collaboration between service providers
- Client with unstable or deteriorating health where service needs for both client and carers are changing frequently
- Clients who have family and carer needs that require additional service inputs
- Clients with a range of needs that may not be met by available services and resources
- Clients with diminished capacity to make own decisions
- Situations where there is suspected abuse or competing, conflicting needs between clients and carers
RANGE STATEMENT

Risks to the care relationship may include:

- Conflict in relationships with family or service providers
- High intensity care
- High levels of carer stress
- Loss of formal or informal supports
- Multiple competing role demands
- Worsening carer health
- Worsening health or behaviour of the person with care needs

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCN301C Ensure the health and safety of children

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCN301B Ensure the health and safety of children</td>
<td>CHCCN301C Ensure the health and safety of children</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for a worker to ensure the health and safety of children

Application of the Unit

Application

The application of skills and knowledge described in this unit relates to the health and safety of children in a variety of child care contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Maintain a clean and hygienic environment | 1.1 Ensure cleaning occurs as an ongoing process as per recognised state/territory regulations and requirements
1.2 Use appropriate cleaning agents as per recognised state/territory regulations and requirements
1.3 Follow standard precautions for infection control
1.4 Adequately maintain ventilation, lighting and heating/cooling
1.5 Adhere to personal hygiene/health procedures as per recognised state/territory regulations and requirements
1.6 Ensure beds and bedding conform to health, hygiene and safety requirements as relevant
1.7 Ensure food preparation, handling, storage and serving areas comply with recognised state/territory food safety and handling requirements |
2. Recognise and respond to signs of potential illness

2.1 Report signs of potential illness
2.2 Seek medical assistance as necessary according to policies and procedures
2.3 Inform child's parents as soon as possible
2.4 Separate child from other children as required and as practicable
2.5 Comfort and settle child
2.6 Identify, manage and monitor food allergies and medical food conditions such as coeliac disease and diabetes

3. Provide a safe environment

3.1 Implement sun protection procedures
3.2 Ensure tools, equipment, toys and games are appropriate to the age of the child
3.3 Select, check and maintain equipment to ensure safety
3.4 Set up the environment to ensure safety
3.5 Check area for hazards and implement risk reduction strategies
3.6 Ensure fire exits are kept unobstructed
3.7 Ensure disposal of waste materials occurs in a safe and hygienic way
3.8 Ensure cleaning materials are stored safely
3.9 Implement infection control procedures where required
3.10 Ensure adequate food and drinks are served appropriate to age and developmental status
ELEMENT

4. Supervise the safety of children

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Supervise children in accordance with legal requirements and regulations

4.2 Explain rules for safe play to children and implement them

4.3 Maintain direct contact with individuals/group

4.4 Identify potential injury hazards and risks and take action to minimise/reduce risk

4.5 Explain hazards and potential hazards in the environment to children

4.6 Discuss emergencies and practise evacuation procedures with children

4.7 Use supervision as an opportunity to interact with children

4.8 Record and report accidents and incidents in accordance with organisation guidelines

4.9 Ensure age-appropriate provisions are made for children to be seated and supervised at meal and snack times

5. Travel with children safely

5.1 Implement procedures for safety on excursions

5.2 Supervise children as closely as required for their ages, abilities, the contexts

5.3 Monitor children's behaviour during travel and reinforce safe, appropriate behaviour

5.4 Instruct/remind children to follow relevant legal requirements

5.5 Identify risk situations and develop and implement strategies to minimise risk

5.6 Observe potential hazards and develop strategies to increase safety

5.7 Implement set procedures to ensure all children are accounted for <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 6. Administer medication within guidelines | 6.1 Administer medication according to organisation policies and legislative requirements
6.2 Store medication according to requirements
6.3 Check medication for name, instructions and use by date
6.4 Document all medication administration in accordance with requirements |
| 7. Manage and respond to allergy/anaphylaxis | 7.1 Identify and recognise signs, symptoms and key characteristics of allergy/anaphylaxis
7.2 Apply organisation risk management strategies for children with allergy/anaphylaxis
7.3 Administer medication for anaphylaxis according to organisation policies and legislative requirements |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Anaphylaxis and related food allergies
- Appropriate toys and equipment for the developmental stage of the child including an assessment of safety and risks
- Current and applicable regulations on work health and safety (WHS), hygiene and administration and storage of medication
- Current knowledge of recognised state/territory food safety and handling requirements
- Guidelines for administration of medication
- Legal requirements for supervision including worker - child ratios
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Potential hazards to children
- Relevance of the work role and functions to maintaining sustainability of the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
- Risk minimisation strategies and risk reduction strategies
- Road safety awareness and procedures
- Safety issues and risk management strategies for children's health and safety in a variety of contexts:
  - allergies and related medications
  - appropriate meal preparation and provisions based on most current national guidelines for nutrition of children and adolescents
  - basic home fire safety
  - excursions and travel situations
  - hazards in home environment for home based care
  - outdoor and indoor play areas
  - safe and hygienic food preparation and storage practices
  - safe food temperature storage
  - Strategies to minimise the spread of infectious diseases
  - The spread of infectious diseases and cross infection
  - Traffic hazards and risk for children
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Up to date state/territory child care regulations

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Administer medication to children according to organisation policies and legislative requirements, including responding to allergic reactions
- Demonstrate provision of a clean and safe environment for children
  - observing personal hygiene to prevent cross infection e.g. hand washing
  - modelling safe behaviours and hygiene practices
- Ensure children are transported safely
- Implement legal requirements in work practices

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply interpersonal skills
- Demonstrate safe use of equipment and materials
- Develop children's road safety awareness
- Ensure children are seated and supervised during meal and snack time
- Ensure safe and hygienic food preparation, storage, handling and serving areas in line with the recognised state/territory food safety and handling requirements
- Implement risk minimisation strategies and risk reduction strategies
- Implement strategies for developing responsible behaviour by children in cars and buses
- Implement strategies to minimise the spread of infectious conditions
- Maintain required documentation in accordance with organisation guidelines
- Take into account and use opportunities to address waste minimisation, environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit could be assessed either on the job or off the job through an appropriate workplace simulation for a range of age groups, and a range of conditions over a number of assessment situations
- In relation to the administration of medication further guidance may be sought from unit CHCCS305A Assist clients with medication
- In relation to the health, safety and nutrition further guidance may be sought from unit CHCCN303D Contribute to provision of nutritionally balanced food in a safe and hygienic manner

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to range of opportunities defined in the Range Statement, including access to:
  - a childcare workplace
  - children's services, resources and equipment
  - the local environment
  - cleaning equipment and materials
  - occupational health and safety policies and procedures
  - food safety and nutrition policy

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Related units:

The unit is recommended but not required to be assessed in conjunction with related unit:

- HLTWHS300A Contribute to WHS processes
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Legal requirements and regulations regarding supervision may include:

- Babies are never left unattended in the bath or on change table
- Staff/children ratios

Cleaning may include:

- Cleaning food preparation areas as appropriate and outlined in the recognised state/territory food safety and handling requirements and regulations
- Disinfecting nappy change areas
- Disinfecting toilet areas
- Vacuuming
- Washing floor

Disposal of waste materials may include:

- Nappies
- Soiled tissues/wipes

In remote and isolated areas:

- Alternative methods for rest e.g. Hammocks

Implement procedures for safety on excursions may include:

- Legal/legislative requirements
- Organisation policies regarding excursions.
RANGE STATEMENT

Basic home fire safety includes knowledge of:

- Behaviour that may contribute to fire injury and/or fatality
- High fire risk groups
- Optimum placement of smoke alarms
- Referring client for smoke alarm installation and maintenance
- Role of a working smoke alarm
- Smoke alarm testing and cleaning
- Types of smoke alarms

Check area for hazards may include:

- Checking for animal droppings in outdoor areas
- Checking for needles/sharp implements in outdoor areas
- Use of a hazards identification checklist

Maintain direct contact with child will vary according to:

- Ability of child
- Activity child is involved in
- Child's age
- Child's level of independence/dependence
- Child's safety/risk taking behaviours

Contact can include:

- Glass viewing windows
- Line of sight
- Sight
- Sound
- Within physical reach
RANGE STATEMENT

Potential injury hazards and risks may be related to:

- Babies going to sleep with a bottle
- Babies learning to eat solid foods
- Children eating
- Children learning new skills such as walking, balancing
- Particular ‘combinations’ of children playing together
- Risk of dehydration on very hot days
- SIDS
- When children are attempting an activity that may be beyond their previous ability

Rules for safe play may include:

- How children play together
- Use of equipment

Provide a safe environment and risk reduction strategies will vary according to whether the location is:

- A home
- A purpose designed and built centre
- Appropriate for the age range of children
- Non purpose built centre

Explain hazards and potential hazards to children may be done in a range of ways, including:

- By signs
- By symbols
- Verbally
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk reduction strategies may include:

- Children being seated and supervised at meal and snack times
- Close supervision of any children in kitchens
- Covers on electrical sockets
- Fences and gates, locking mechanisms
- Gates on stairs
- Implementing child safe, child friendly policies and work practices
- Out of bounds areas
- Particularly close supervision in some areas
- Placing babies/infants to sleep in positions recommended for prevention of SIDS
- Removal/locking away of dangerous substances.
- Vacuuming/sweeping floors to remove small or dangerous objects

Children may be required to be transported:

- During fire/emergency evacuations
- For excursions, outings
- From school to service
- To activities
- To and from care provider

Children may be transported by:

- Car
- Foot
- Mini bus
- Public transport
- Push bike

Legal requirements that children are to follow may include:

- Appropriate behaviour in public transport
- Child/adult ratios
- Regulatory requirements for each sector and state
- Sector specific legislation and standards e.g. child protection and best practice, child care regulations and standards
- Wearing of bike safety helmet
- Wearing seat belts in cars
RANGE STATEMENT

Legal requirement that workers are to follow include:
- Car restraints are fitted properly
- Child/adult ratios
- Ensure safety seats and baby capsules are secure
- Ensure seat belts are done up
- Holding current drivers licence
- Regulatory requirements for each sector and state

Risk situations include:
- Crowding
- Distractions
- High traffic spots
- Poor visibility
- Poor/dangerous driving

Risks vary according to:
- Children's ages/stages of development
- Composition of group
- Size of group

Requirements for the administration of medication may include:
- Jurisdictional guidelines relating to management of allergic and anaphylactic reactions
- Legislative guidelines
- Organisation procedures

Requirements for storage of medication may include:
- Legislative requirements
- Level of security required
- Organisation policies and procedures
- Temperature required

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCN302A Provide care for children

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by those working with children to ensure the child's physical and emotional well being is maintained and their self sufficiency is nurtured

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work with children in a range of community service contexts
Workers may be under direct supervision or working autonomously

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Provide physical care | 1.1 Organise opportunities and type of rest according to child's needs and context
1.2 Create an environment conducive to rest
1.3 Provide quiet area for children to access as needed
1.4 Assist children with hygiene according to child's need
1.5 Deal with toileting accidents in a manner that protects the child's self-esteem and privacy
1.6 Provide appropriate food and drink to children in a hygienic manner and supervise children in eating and drinking
1.7 Dress children according to the need and prevailing whether conditions and acknowledge their clothing preferences whenever possible
1.8 Ensure children's nutritional needs are addressed by food provided meeting children's nutrition requirements |
2. Create opportunities for children to develop their understanding of physical needs

2.1 Explain nutritional needs to children in a suitable language
2.2 Explain hygiene practices and demonstrate through positive staff practices and daily routines
2.3 Explain safety issues and demonstrate procedures
2.4 Support children to understand the relationship between physical activity and good health
2.5 Offer opportunities for children to participate in food preparation and procurement

3. Establish an environment that encourages children to complete tasks themselves

3.1 Make required materials accessible for children
3.2 Make available sufficient time for the child to do the task in an unhurried way
3.3 Encourage all attempts and speak about them respectfully
3.4 Make available sufficient time, if wanted by the child, for children to practise and develop their skills

4. Respond to the emotional needs of children

4.1 Develop routines appropriate to the child's developmental stage and provide a stable and predictable environment
4.2 Identify and respond to children's feelings openly, appropriately and with respect
4.3 Encourage children to communicate, listen and treat them with respect
4.4 Encourage opportunities to express feelings and emotions appropriately
4.5 Deal with emotional outbursts in a calm and consistent manner whilst minimising disruption to other children
4.6 Comfort children when hurt or distressed
4.7 Ensure children are informed appropriately and prepared for any change
ELEMENT
5. Settle new arrivals

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Observe parents and children for signs of stress/distress on arrival

5.2 Begin interaction with the child while parents are still present to minimise abruptness of separation

5.3 Encourage parents to take as much time as needed to have a relaxed, unhurried separation from their child

5.4 Establish routines to minimise distress at separation of parent and child

5.5 Respond to child's distress at separation from parent in a calm reassuring manner
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Individual differences of children in need for rest and sleep/rest patterns
- Different practices and routines used by different families and their underlying cultural or personal rationale
- Nutrition needs of children at all ages and awareness of contemporary issues of childhood obesity, health with physical activity and balanced nutrition
- Policies, regulations and guidelines about hygiene standards for food handling
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Storage of food - temperatures
- Child development
- Impact on children of a range of social, environmental, health and family issues, including long or frequent periods of hospitalisation
- Importance of self-esteem/competence and how to foster it
- Effect of organising the environment
- Link between care environment and home
- Importance of individuality
- Expectations about a range of self help skills within cultural backgrounds of children
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Impact of changes for children
- How emotional needs are expressed - directly and indirectly
- Children's responses to grief, loss and separation
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Children's physical development and skill development

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide quality physical care for children including ensuring adequate rest, food and drink and using and promoting hygienic practices
- Provide food according to nutrition adequacy guidelines
- Ensure opportunities for rest are provided and are varied according to the age of the child, their cultural background, development and needs
- Implement and promote hygiene taking into account child's age, development, cultural background and needs
- Provide all aspects of physical care to children, including:
  - provision of food and drink
  - provision of adequate food and drink, which is varied according to age, culture, development and needs of the child
- Provide a range of experiences and an environment which encourages independence
- Set up environments and equipment to facilitate physical experiences and play
- Promote physical activity to children
- Provide a safe and secure environment which enables children to be themselves and to manage change
- Respond to children's emotional needs, giving due regard to child's age, culture, development and need, including children with severe illness or long/frequent periods of hospitalisation

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - food preparation including cooking
  - time management
  - interpersonal relationship
  - organising environment and time management
  - effective communication (staff, children, parents)
  - evaluation and promote problem solving
  - observation
  - willingness to be reflective
  - empathy with child's feelings
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a realistic simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions, for a range of age groups, a range of conditions and over a number of assessment situations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to range of opportunities defined in the Range Statement, including access to:
  - a childcare workplace
  - children's services, resources and equipment
  - the local environment

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Rest may include:
- Sleep
- Time sitting quietly

Rest provisions may vary according to:
- The venue at the time child needs rest
- The child's need for rest
- Other children's needs
- Space available

Bedding preferences may vary due to:
- Cultural practices e.g. hammock
- Child's preferences e.g. soft toy

Adjusting the environment for children's rest may include adjustments to:
- Level of noise
- Light, temperature and ventilation

Personal hygiene may include:
- Hand washing
- Toileting
- Blowing nose
- Bushing teeth/rinsing mouth after meal

Hygiene practices taught may vary with child's age, and may include:
- Flushing toilet paper after use
- Discarding tissues in bin after use
- Washing hands before eating, after toileting
- Cleaning teeth or rinsing mouth after eating

Different family and cultural practices which may be relevant to hygiene include:
- Age to commence toilet training
- Eating food with utensils or fingers
- Hair care practices

For children with a physical or developmental disability:
- A hygiene plan is developed according to the needs of the child
RANGE STATEMENT

For clothing, weather conditions that may need to be considered are:

- Heat
- Cold
- Rain

Preparation of food in hygienic manner will be according to:

- Appropriate regulatory requirements relating to food handling and hygiene
- Alternative methods of cooling food and drink may need to be developed in remote or isolated areas (e.g. Hessian cooling bag)

Appropriate washing and drying of utensils and crockery and cutlery may include via:

- Hand washing in hot, soapy water
- Dishwashing

Organisation procedures for food preparation may include:

- Use of gloves when handling some foods
- Procedures for supervision
- Use of planners such as 'Lunchbox Checklist for Food Brought from Home' and 'Nutrition Checklist for Long Day Care Menu Planning'.
RANGE STATEMENT

Relevant life skills related to their physical needs will vary with the child’s age/stage of development:

For toddlers:
- Toileting
- Eating independently
- Care of own possessions
- Preparing drinks
- Sun safety practices

For 3 to 5 year olds:
- Nutrition
- Meal time
- Dressing and undressing
- Selecting clothes to wear
- Fastening shoes
- Washing hands
- Who to turn to for assistance
- Bathing
- Doing up/undoing shoes
- Putting away bedding
- Making choices

continued ...

Relevant life skills related to child’s physical needs (contd):

For 6 to 12 year olds:
- Responsible for care of own possessions
- Knowing when to act and when to wait
- Decisions regarding use of pocket money on excursions, within parental guidelines and limits
- Who to turn to for assistance and advice
- Preparing snacks and drinks
- Care of own health and physical needs
- Basic cooking
- Relaxation
- Stress management
- Time management
- Prioritising
- Nutritional needs
RANGE STATEMENT

Ways of fostering the development of self help skills will vary according to the age of the child:

For infants:
- Encourage responding to matching while dressing/undressing e.g. arm to sleeve
- Through care routines and daily experiences

For toddlers:
- Provide sufficient time e.g. Undressing before rest
- Encourage efforts
- Children may choose from a range of clothes
- Give support when necessary
- Encourage all attempts at self help

For 3 to 5 year old children:
- Provide opportunities for children to learn to fasten their shoes
- Store clothes so that they are accessible to children
- Personal belongings are stored accessibly

For 5 to 12 year old children:
- Explanation
- Demonstration
- Debate and discussion
- Jointly participating in task
- Use of written instructions

Explanations of nutritional needs will vary according to the age of the child - for the older child explanations may include:
- Healthy eating patterns
- Body image
- Anorexia
- 'Diets'
- Menstruation
- Sexual development

Understanding of physical needs may be promoted through:
- Discussions
- Demonstrations
- Pamphlets
- Guest speakers
RANGE STATEMENT

A child may display their distress by:

- Withdrawal
- Aggressive behaviour
- Tears

Behaviour which is out of character for an individual child may be:

- Quiet behaviour in a boisterous child
- Noisy behaviour in quiet child

Routines to minimise distress at separation of parent and child may include:

- Opportunities for a relaxed and unhurried separation of parent and child
- Repeated prior visits to the service prior to parent’s departure
- Routine of short separation times prior to lengthy separations
- Comfortable chairs where parents can relax with child prior to departure

Respond to child's distress may be by:

- Physical comfort
- Sitting and listening
- Talking through a problem
- Giving child their comforter e.g. Dummy, toy
- Distraction

Emotional needs of children may be due to:

- School problems
- Changes in family circumstances
- Accidents that may occur during care
- New to child care, separation from familiar people and places
- Family relationships
- Interactions with other children
- Major changes in child's life e.g. Migration, losses
- Death of a pet
- Loss of special toy
- Ill health
- Embarrassing events that occur during time in care or just prior
RANGE STATEMENT

Children may be involved in decisions about:
- The layout of equipment
- Routines
- Choice of activities

Changes may include:
- Change of countries
- New children/workers starting in the service
- Children/workers leaving the service
- Visitors
- Students

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCN303A Contribute to provision of nutritionally balanced food in a safe and hygienic manner

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor: This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to ensure babies, children and young people are provided nutritionally balanced, safe and hygienically prepared food.

Application of the Unit
Application: This unit supports the implementation and application of national and state food safety legislation, regulations, infant feeding guidelines and dietary guidelines for children and adolescents in Australia.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills: This unit contains Employability Skills.

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Plan food and drink provision</td>
<td>1.1 Within scope of own work role, ensure children are provided with food and drink consistent with current relevant dietary guidelines for infants, children and/or young people</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Ensure children's individual needs are met to promote optimal growth and development, respecting cultural requirements, appetites and food and drink preferences</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Encourage children to develop healthy eating habits</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Ensure meals and snacks are nutritious, attractive and an appropriate serving size for children</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Promote healthy eating through role modelling, positive food awareness and mealtime experiences</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Provide education and support to families and children around healthy eating, including how to foster this</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Plan and develop cycle menus of foods for each meal and/or snack to display for information of staff, parents and older children</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.8 Within scope of own work role, ensure nutrition policy includes identification, management and monitoring of special dietary needs related to food allergies and medical food conditions such as coeliac disease and diabetes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Maintain food safety while carrying out food handling activities

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Within scope of own work role, carry out food handling, preparation and storage according to organisation guidelines, legislation and licensing requirements for food safety

2.2 Identify and remedy processes or practices which are not consistent with the guidelines according to local, state/territory legislation within scope of own work role

2.3 Address health conditions and/or illness that may impact on safe and healthy food handling

2.4 Wear clothing and footwear that is appropriate for the food handling task
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- The importance of healthy eating and physical activity for the promotion of healthy growth, development and weight and reduced risk of lifestyle related diseases such as cardiovascular disease and diabetes.
- Recommendations for healthy eating - Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents, Infant Feeding Guidelines (NHMRC) and the Australian Guide to Healthy Eating, including:
  - food groups and serving sizes as per current Australian dietary guidelines for children and adolescents and infant feeding guidelines (NHMRC).
  - the different types of fat found in food and the importance of dietary fats for children under 2 years of age and ability to identify which foods contain these fats.
  - dietary requirements for infants and children according to age and developmental stage.
- Relationship between food and nutrition and oral health and hygiene.
- Infant feeding requirements, including:
  - importance and benefits of breast feeding.
  - role of the service in supporting continued breast feeding.
  - safe infant formula use.
  - age-appropriate introduction of solids.
- Anaphylaxis and related food allergies.
- Specific risks to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and other children who are at risk of underweight and nutrition deficiencies.
- Importance of addressing individual dietary needs (e.g. cultural and religious practices/beliefs, allergies etc).
- Recognised state/territory food preparation, cooking, handling and storage requirements.
- Understanding the importance of individual needs in provision of food.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate that the provision of food (by parents/carers or service) is consistent with the current Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents in Australia and the services nutrition policy
  - In particular to ensure that:
    - children are provided with food and beverages that are appropriate for the service type and are consistent with the current Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents in Australia
    - children are provided a variety of foods (tastes, textures, colours, temperatures, cultures etc.) consistent with Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents in Australia
    - food is prepared, presented and stored in accordance with the recognised state food safety and handling requirements
    - food is promoted through role modelling, food awareness experiences, and the provision of resources to children and families
    - food provided for babies:
      - breastfeeding is encouraged and supported
      - breast milk and formula are stored and prepared appropriately
      - food and milk is warmed and tested for temperature
      - solid food is introduced appropriately in accordance with the Australian dietary guidelines for children and adolescents
  - Explain and address dietary requirements for different ages and developmental stages
  - Contribute to menu planning and implementing healthy food and drink choices appropriate to the service type and that is consistent with the current Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents in Australia and the services nutrition policy

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - menu planning, cooking and preparation of appropriate food and drinks suitable for children and babies and that is consistent with the current Dietary Guidelines for Children and Adolescents in Australia and the services nutrition policy
  - safe food handling including the handling and storage of food and drink (including expressed breast milk) provided by parents and/or carers
  - label reading to identify nutritional value of foods and selection of healthier choices with respect to foods low in saturated fat and salt and high in fibre
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Contribute to policy development on healthy eating and nutrition

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit could be assessed either on the job or off the job through an appropriate workplace simulation for a range of age groups and a range of conditions over a number of assessment situations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - a childcare workplace
  - children’s services, resources and equipment
  - the local environment
  - food safety and nutrition policy

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Planning for nutritional needs will include:

- Provision of food and drinks consistent with the current dietary guidelines for children and adolescents in Australia and infant feeding guidelines
- Relevant to nutritional needs for age and developmental status

Health needs of children to be considered may include:

- Medical advice and diet
- Allergies to certain foods
- Underweight (failure to thrive) and iron deficiency anaemia
- Overweight or obesity

Culturally based food requirements and preferences may include:

- Religious observations
- Meal patterns
- Foods used
- Hot or cold meals
- Spices and flavourings used

Food and drink preferences will vary according to:

- Age
- Culture
- Dietary requirements
- Religion
- Family patterns
- Individual tastes
- Stage of the day
- Appetite
- Food allergies

Menus relevant to each service and type may include:

- Breakfast
- Lunch
- Dinner
- Snacks
- Drinks
RANGE STATEMENT

Appetising food may consider:

- Colour
- Shape
- Texture
- Variety

Maintain food safety includes:

- Maintenance of clean and tidy areas for food handling, preparation and storage
- Compliance with personal hygiene standards
- Compliance with workplace measures to prevent pests entering food premises
- Identification and reporting of any indicators of pest presence
- Safe disposal of food according to food safety program requirements

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCN305B Provide care for babies

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by anyone working with babies/infants to ensure that their physical and emotional well being is maintained

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to work with babies/infants in a range of community service contexts
Workers may be under direct supervision or working autonomously

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Respond to cues and needs of babies/infants

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Respond to babies/infants in an unhurried, gentle and sensitive way to promote a relationship of trust

1.2 Closely monitor babies/infants for signs of hunger, distress, pain and tiredness, and signs that they are ready for solids

1.3 Provide babies/infants with physical comfort as appropriate

1.4 Meet needs of babies/infants for consistent and secure care, in a timely manner

1.5 Respect and fulfil rituals of babies/infants

1.6 Provide for meeting the nutritional needs of babies
ELEMENT

2. Develop and maintain a nurturing relationship with babies/infants

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Undertake both planned and spontaneous interactions with babies/infants

2.2 Use routines of physical care as opportunities to positively interact with babies/infants

2.3 Take time to get to know the baby/infant, their individual routines, rhythms, preferences and cues

2.4 Accommodate individual routines of daily care, rest and play for babies/infants whenever possible

3. Settle new arrivals

3.1 Observe primary caregiver and babies/infants for signs of stress or distress on arrival

3.2 Begin interaction with the babies/infants while primary caregiver is still present to minimise abruptness of separation

3.3 Encourage primary caregiver to take as much time as needed to have a relaxed, unhurried separation from their baby/infant

3.5 Establish routines to minimise distress at separation of primary caregiver and baby/infant

3.6 Respond to distress of babies/infants at separation from primary caregiver in a calm reassuring manner

4. Provide an environment that provides security for babies/infants

4.1 Clearly communicate expectations to babies/infants and apply consistently

4.2 Set up the physical environment to provide a relaxed and flexible atmosphere

4.3 Set up the physical environment to accommodate individuality of the baby/infant

4.4 Create a safe and secure environment both in and out of doors with equipment of a suitable scale for babies/infants

Required Skills and Knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- 5 food groups and identification of foods high in fat, sugars, salt and fibre
- Attachment and separation anxiety and appropriate responses
- Babies/infants games
- Care giving practices within different cultural groups
- Child protection policy of service
- Cultural practices and beliefs about food provision
- Current understanding of use of licensed and approved equipment e.g. cots, pushers, walkers etc and the appropriate and safe use of restraints
- Definition of baby/infant
- Dietary requirements for infants
- Different practices and routines used by different families and their underlying cultural or personal rationale
- Different types of child abuse
- Disease spread and transmission
- Fat contents of foods
- Fibre content of different foods
- Food and formulae preparation and cooking
- Guidelines for infection control
- Impact of foods and drinks on dental health
- Impact of poor nutrition on infant and baby health, including dental health and childhood obesity
- Indicators of child abuse
- Individual babies/infants needs and wants
- Individual differences of babies/infants need for rest and sleep/rest patterns
- Introduction of solids
- Nutritional needs of babies/infants
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures
- Policies, regulations and guidelines about hygiene standards for food handling
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

continued ...

Essential knowledge (contd):

- Road safety awareness
- Road safety procedures
- Role of breast feeding for meeting the nutrition needs of babies
- Role of formulae feeding to meet the nutrition needs of babies
- Social development of babies/infants
- Storage of food - temperatures
- Storage of food - temperatures
- The dependent nature of babies/infants
- Undertake risk assessment for the prevention of injury
- State/territory requirements about responding to indications of abuse and reporting process
- Unintentional injury patterns amongst babies, infants and children

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Assess and report appropriately to babies' needs
- Provide a secure and safe environment for babies and infants
  Needs for secure and consistent care will be met in a range of ways, depending on factors within the setting

A range of provisions may include:

- consistent care giving
- consistent practices
- consistent responses
- use of routines

Responses to hurt baby/infant may include:

- application of ice packs, antiseptic cream, band aid
- comfort, cuddle

Responses to distressed baby/infant may include:

- cuddles, comfort
- listening, talking to quietly
- use of transition object

The physical environment may need:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- spaces for quiet and seclusion
- to allow movement between different areas
- to be able to change to adapt to different needs
- Provide quality physical care for babies/infants including ensuring adequate rest, nutritionally adequate food and drink and using and promoting hygienic practices
- Provide nutritionally adequate food and drink which vary according to age, culture, development and needs of the baby/infant
- Provide opportunities for rest and vary according to the age of the baby/infant, their cultural background, development and needs

continued ...

Essential skills (contd):

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide all aspects of physical care to babies/infants, including:
  - the provision of food and drink
  - provides adequate food and drink which is varied according to age, culture, development and needs of the baby/infant
  - apply organisation accepted procedures for nappy changing
  - apply safe sleeping practices for babies/infants including prevention measures for Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)
- Prepare food which is nutritious and suitable for babies/infants
  Assessors are recommended to particularly look for:
  - food is nutritious and the 5 food groups are provided over a day, as suitable to baby/infant
  - food is fresh wherever possible

Food provided for babies/infants

- food and milk is warmed and tested for temperature
- correct preparation and handling of formulae and expressed breast milk
- solid food is introduced appropriately
- Respond quickly to emergencies and implement correct procedures including administering first aid

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - appropriate response to attachment and separation anxiety
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- care giving practices within different cultural groups
- common childhood illnesses - recognition, management strategies
- food preparation including cooking
- interpersonal relationship
- making decisions under pressure
- menu planning
- nurturing
- time management
- writing incident records
- Maintain a calm, reassuring manner with babies/infants
- Take into account opportunities to address waste minimisation, environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a realistic simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions, for a range of age groups, a range of conditions and over a number of assessment situations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to range of opportunities defined in the Range Statement, including access to:
  - A childcare workplace
  - Relevant services, resources and equipment
  - The local environment

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Interactions with babies/infants may include:
- Dancing and gentle bouncing
- Finger games
- Holding
- Imitating babies' vocalisations
- Laughter
- Rhymes
- Singing
- Talking

Babies may show distress or pain by:
- Appearing withdrawn
- Crying
- Lack of eye contact
- Sleep difficulties
- Squirming

Non-verbal cues of a baby/infant may include:
- Cues to indicate distress
- Response to an interesting activity
- Smiling cues that express a desire to engage in an activity or interaction
RANGE STATEMENT

A baby's/infant's signs of distress may indicate:
- Anxiety
- Boredom
- Discomfort
- Fear
- Frustration
- Hunger
- Loneliness
- Pain
- Tiredness

Comforters may include:
- Blankets
- Dummies
- Special toys

Signs of stress or distress of primary caregivers and babies/infants on arrival may be indicated by:
- A rushed entry or exit by parent
- Child is unusually quiet or passive
- Child teary or crying
- Clinging behaviour
- Parent 'running late'

Responses to a distressed baby/infant may include:
- Cuddles, comfort
- Distraction to an activity
- Listening, talking with the child quietly
- Use of transition object

Routines of physical care may include:
- Clothing changes
- Feeding
- Nappy changes

Individual routines of babies/infants may include:
- Eating/drinking patterns
- Interactions and play with adults
- Nappy change routines
- Sleeping routines and rituals
RANGE STATEMENT

Rituals of babies/infants which are to be respected and fulfilled where practical may include:
- Particular method of being put to bed e.g. wrapped tightly and laid on side
- The need for a special toy/dummy

Legal requirements and regulations regarding supervision may include:
- Babies are never left unattended in the bath or on change table
- Staff/children ratios

Cleaning may include:
- Disinfecting nappy change areas
- Disinfecting toilet areas
- Vacuuming
- Washing floor

Disposal of waste materials may include:
- Nappies
- Soiled tissues/wipes

In remote and isolated areas:
- Alternative methods for rest e.g. hammocks

Organisation procedures implemented for safety on excursions can include:
- Legal/legislative requirements
- Organisation policies regarding excursions.

Checking area for hazards may include checking for:
- Animal droppings in outdoor areas
- Needles/sharp implements in outdoor areas

Maintaining direct contact with baby/infant will vary according to:
- Ability of baby/infant
- Activity baby/infant is involved in
- Baby/infant's age
- Baby/infant's level of independence/dependence
- Baby/Infant's safety/risk taking behaviours
RANGE STATEMENT

Contact can include:
- Glass viewing windows
- Line of sight
- Sight
- Sound
- Within physical reach

Potential risks may be:
- Babies learning to eat solid foods
- Babies/infants going to sleep with a bottle
- Babies/Infants learning new skills such as walking, balancing
- Particular 'combinations' of babies/infants playing together
- Risk of dehydration on very hot days
- SIDS
- When babies/infants are attempting an activity that may be beyond their previous ability

Rules for safe play may include:
- How babies/children play together
- Use of equipment

Providing a safe environment and risk reduction strategies will vary according to whether the location is:
- A home.
- A purpose designed and built centre
- Appropriate for the age range of babies/infants
- Non purpose built centre

Hazards may be identified to babies/infants in a range of ways:
- By signs
- By symbols
- Verbally
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk reduction strategies may include:
- Close supervision of any babies/infants in kitchens
- Covers on electrical sockets
- Fences and gates, locking mechanisms
- Gates on stairs
- Out of bounds areas
- Particularly close supervision in some areas
- Placing babies/infants to sleep in positions recommended for prevention of SIDS
- Removal/locking away of dangerous substances.
- Vacuuming/sweeping floors to remove small or dangerous objects

Rest may include:
- Sleep
- Time sitting quietly

Rest provisions may vary according to:
- Other babies/infant's needs
- Space available
- The baby/infant's need for rest
- The venue at the time baby/infant needs rest

Bedding preferences may vary due to:
- Baby/infant's preferences e.g. soft toy
- Cultural practices e.g. hammock

Adjusting the environment for baby/infant's rest may include adjustments to:
- Level of noise
- Light, temperature and ventilation

Personal hygiene may include:
- Blowing nose
- Brushing teeth/rinsing mouth after meal
- Hand washing
- Toileting
RANGE STATEMENT

Hygiene practices taught may vary with babies/infants age, and may include:

- Cleaning teeth or rinsing mouth after eating
- Discarding tissues in bin after use
- Flushing toilet paper after use
- Washing hands before eating, after toileting

Different family and cultural practices which may be relevant to hygiene include:

- Age to commence toilet training
- Eating food with utensils or fingers
- Hair care practices

For babies/infants with a physical or developmental disability:

- A hygiene plan is developed according to the individual needs of the baby/infant

For clothing, weather conditions that may need to be considered are:

- Cold
- Heat
- Rain
- Sun safety measures

Preparation of food in hygienic manner will be according to:

- Alternative methods of cooling food and drink may need to be developed in remote or isolated areas (e.g. Hessian cooling bag)
- Appropriate regulatory requirements relating to food handling and hygiene

Appropriate washing and drying of utensils and crockery and cutlery may include via:

- Dishwashing
- Hand washing in hot, soapy water
- Sterilisation

Organisation procedures for food preparation may include:

- Procedures for supervision
- Protective clothing such as aprons
- Use of gloves when handling some foods
RANGE STATEMENT

Nutritional needs will need planning to include:
- Balanced diet
- Nutritious food
- Relevant to nutritional needs at that age

Health needs of children to be considered may include:
- Allergies to certain foods
- Medical advice and diet

Cultural requirements and preferences about food may include:
- Drinks provided
- Foods used
- Hot or cold meals
- Inclusion of sweets
- Meal patterns over a day
- Spices and flavourings used

Menu may include:
- Breakfast
- Lunch
- Dinner
- Snacks
- Drinks

Food and drink preferences will vary according to:
- Age
- Appetite
- Culture
- Dietary requirements
- Family patterns
- Individual tastes
- Religion
- Stage of the day

Appetising food may consider:
- Colour
- Shape
- Texture
- Variety
RANGE STATEMENT

Procedures for the prevention of the spread of infection may include:

- Cleaning equipment
- Cleaning of utensils after use
- Disinfection of nappy change areas after each use
- Disposal of unused foods/milk
- Hand washing
- Regular disinfecting of soft toys
- Removal and disposal of infected articles
- Removal of body waste products (e.g. faeces, urine, saliva, vomit) and disinfection of area affected
- Sterilisation of equipment and utensils where necessary
- Use of disposable gloves when cleaning up body wastes
- Use protective aprons when changing babies

Requirements for the administration of medication may include:

- Legislative guidelines
- Organisation procedures
- Primary caregiver instructions

Requirements for storage of medication may include:

- Legislative requirements
- Level of security required
- Organisation procedure and procedures
- Primary caregiver instructions
- Temperature required

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCN511B Establish and maintain a safe and healthy environment for children

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCN511A Establish and maintain a safe and healthy environment for children</td>
<td>CHCCN511B Establish and maintain a safe and healthy environment for children</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for a worker to establish, manage and monitor the implementation of a safe and healthy environment when working with children.

Application of the Unit

Application

The application of skills and knowledge described in this unit relates to the health and safety of children in a variety of child care contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assess and improve the safety of environments</td>
<td>1.1 Assess environments for suitability and safety against relevant criteria and make decisions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify hazards and potential risks in the environment with others involved</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify and clearly communicate the level of response required to address a hazard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Facilitate strategy development among others involved</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Develop, implement and review a plan with others</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Coordinate the response to accidents and emergencies</td>
<td>2.1 Develop, maintain and practise evacuation procedures with all workers and children</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Review steps already taken by workers and implement additional actions required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Seek medical assistance as required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Implement a plan to meet the emotional needs of children and others in the situation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Allocate tasks to different people and give directions about how to proceed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.6 Sensitively and calmly provide accurate information to parents</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.7 Use policies and procedures of the organisation to inform people of actions required of them</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.8 In light of the incident, review service's policies and procedures with others and change as required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Plan and monitor supervision</td>
<td>3.1 Develop safety limits and guidelines with others involved</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Plan, implement and review appropriate levels of supervision to suit a range of experiences and situations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Develop strategies for the service which can be used to address specific incidents</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Regularly and carefully monitor implementation of supervision plan and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Promote hygiene and safety practices</td>
<td>4.1 Explain and monitor policies for medication administration, storage and documentation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Monitor and reinforce the safe storage of hazardous materials with workers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Demonstrate and effectively communicate guidelines for safe food handling and storage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Promote and demonstrate practices for managing children's hygiene needs</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT  PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5. Promote appropriate practices to respond to illnesses

5.1 Regularly and clearly communicate infection control and medication guidelines to others
5.2 Suggest specific practices to address situations as they arise
5.3 Inform parents of infections
5.4 Develop procedures for responding to sick children
5.5 Report notifiable diseases/infections to the appropriate government organisation according to guidelines

6. Monitor travel and excursions

6.1 Establish and communicate procedures for safety in relation to excursions and transport
6.2 Monitor travel practices in relation to service procedures and regulations
6.3 Organise responsibilities during excursions

7. Provide guidance to workers when abuse is identified or investigated

7.1 Explain policies and procedures clearly and calmly
7.2 Support workers to provide information to appropriate bodies

8. Monitor care provided by others

8.1 Observe care practices and give specific instruction as required
8.2 Regularly review care routines with workers
8.3 Review practices to ensure policies regarding care are met
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Up to date knowledge of regulations on safety, health and hygiene
- Potential hazards to children, including traffic and the spread of infectious diseases and cross infection
- Strategies to minimise the spread of infectious diseases
- Developmental stage appropriate toys and equipment
- Legal requirements for supervision including worker - child ratios
- Food preparation, cooking and storage of food - temperatures
- Child protection policy of service
- State/territory requirements about abuse and reporting process
- Common childhood illnesses recognition, management strategies
- Incident records
- Indicators of different types of child abuse
- Organisation procedures
- Strategies for developing responsible behaviour by children in cars and buses
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply a thorough understanding of dangers and hazards for specific age groups
- Make informed and appropriate decisions under pressure to ensure the safety of children, including in the home environment, and in particular:
  - personal hygiene to prevent cross infection e.g. handwashing
  - modelling safe behaviours and hygiene practices
  - risk identification in relevant environments
  - risk reduction strategies in that environment
  - risk minimisation strategies in response to specific incidents
  - ways of supervising appropriate to the age of the child
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- supervision systems e.g. an area/ a group of children/ floater
- Address issues in planning supervision according to the ages of children - For 5 to 12 year olds:
  - absences of children booked in need to be investigated
  - older children may be able to assist in responding to an incident if directed clearly and supported to do so
  - developing children's capacity to monitor their own safety
  - developing children's capacity to develop strategies with staff
- Assess additional supervision requirements for a child due to - child's disability:
  - level of risk taking behaviour
  - age/stage of development of child
  - child's level of competence in the activity selected
  - child's level of responsibility
  - child's familiarity with environment/equipment/materials

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - strategies for developing responsible behaviour by children in cars and buses
  - decision-making under pressure
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a realistic simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance is best assessed for a range of age groups, a range of conditions and over a number of assessment situations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to a range of opportunities, including access to:
  - a childcare workplace
  - children's services, resources and equipment
  - the local environment

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Environments may be assessed for safety in relation to:
- Hazards
- Noise
- Pollution
- Fences
- Buildings
- Grounds

Relevant criteria for assessing environments may include:
- Regulations
- Policies of organisation
- Industry standards e.g. QA and IS principles
- Work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Criteria for assessing safety of environments may include:
- Legislation and regulatory requirements
- Safety criteria developed by service
- Own judgement and experience

A plan to meet the emotional needs of people involved in an accident or emergency may include:
- Reassurance/comfort
- Counselling
- ‘Debriefing’

Areas where close/additional supervision may be required include:
- Hazards e.g. Water
- Specified equipment
- Areas without fences
- Toilets

Plan for supervision may include:
- Limit setting for children
- Deployment of workers
- Programming
- Separating different aged children
- Placement of equipment
- Staff/child ratio
RANGE STATEMENT

Limits and guidelines related to supervision may include:
- Out of bounds areas
- Rules for safe play

Additional supervision may be required for:
- Excursions
- Boisterous activities e.g. Touch football
- Swimming
- Younger children
- Children with additional needs e.g. ADD

Supervision strategies on excursions include:
- Head counts
- Developing and maintaining group norms that foster safety

Practices to respond to sick children may include:
- One to one care
- Separation from other children
- Contacting parents
- Requesting parent to take child home

Government organisation which may need to be consulted/ notified include:
- Work Cover, if worker situation
- Public health unit

Guidelines for reporting may include:
- Public health guidelines e.g. a number of cases, timeframe for reporting
- Organisation guidelines e.g. who is to write and set report

Procedures for safety in travel may include:
- Regulations are followed e.g. children are appropriately restrained
- Restraints are effectively installed
- Behaviour guidelines and limits for children during travel

Supervision of travel and care practices may be monitored by:
- Observation
- Discussion with worker
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCN520C Advocate for the rights and needs of children and young people

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor  This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to advocate for the child with family/community members, other services/workers and the general public

Application of the Unit
Application  This unit may apply to work with children in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Advocate for the child about a specific right or need | 1.1 Strongly represent the child's rights and needs to those involved
1.2 Seek the child's point of view and represent it clearly to those involved
1.3 Clarify the issue, focus on it and address it with relevant others
1.4 Negotiate options with the child and others involved
1.5 Collect comprehensive background information and evidence and present it clearly
1.6 Identify and discuss competing rights
1.7 Use assertive and persistent communication when required |
| 2. Promote the rights, interests and needs of children | 2.1 Widely promote the rights of children
2.2 Challenge people to act in ways that further children's rights/interests/needs as appropriate
2.3 Promptly investigate reports of breaches or suspected breaches of children's rights within the service |
ELEMENT

3. Challenge stereotypes

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Challenge stereotypes about children when they are communicated

3.2 Challenge unrealistically high or low expectations about children's behaviour

3.3 Provide information to challenge stereotypes

3.4 Promote children's abilities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Statements of rights
- Advocacy approach and advocacy services including self advocacy approach
- Awareness of discriminatory actions
- An understanding of the vulnerability of children to exploitation
- Referral procedures
- Empowerment principles and strategies
- Organisation standards, policies and procedures

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Advocate or promote the rights and needs of children

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply high level communication skills in:
  - listening
  - focusing
  - empathy
  - negotiating
  - probing
  - clarifying information
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- providing clear information
- influencing
- assertiveness
- Demonstrate responsiveness and sensitivity to child's concerns, rights and responsibilities
- Demonstrate sensitivity to parent's concerns, rights and responsibilities
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - problem solving
  - seeking appropriate advice

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a realistic simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance is best assessed for a range of age groups, a small range of advocacy issues and over a number of assessment situations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - a childcare workplace
  - children's services, resources and equipment
  - the local environment

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects of this unit in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Advocacy on behalf of the child may be directed to:

- Other workers
- Parents
- Schools
- Management of services
- Family members
- Community members
- Government departments

Rights include:

- Right to be heard and believed
- Continuity of care
- A safe environment
- To be accepted
- Freedom from criminal acts
- Protection from abuse
- Protection of their property
- Freedom from discrimination

Needs include:

- Health
- Emotional and psychological well being
- Social participation and development
- Development of skills and abilities
- Development of personal and cultural identity
- Safety
RANGE STATEMENT

Concerns include:

- Troubles and issues expressed by the child such as unmet needs, worries, family problems, practical difficulties and social issues

Stereotypes include those in relation to:

- Disabilities
- Gender
- Culture and race
- Familial expectations
- Cultural expectations about children's place/abilities
- Family structure/composition
- Appearance

Challenging stereotypes may be via:

- Allaying concerns based on misunderstanding
- Providing information to parents and others about the range of expectations about children
- Interpreting children's behaviour in a different way

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCOM201C Communicate with people accessing the services of the organisation

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by community services workers who may have limited contact with clients in terms of content and timing and operate under direct supervision

Application of the Unit
Application
The basic communication skills described in this unit may be applied across a range of workplace contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Communicate appropriately with clients of the organisation | 1.1 Use verbal and non-verbal communication as appropriate
1.2 Conduct short interpersonal exchanges to clarify meaning and understand request/inquiry
1.3 Provide information relevant to accessing the service
1.4 Take time to listen for relevant information concerning inquiry/request
1.5 Demonstrate respect for diversity when communicating with clients
1.6 Respond to messages appropriately
1.7 Refer to appropriate person within organisation guidelines and procedures |
| 2. Present a positive image of the service to the public | 2.1 Conduct communication with the public in a courteous manner and respecting privacy
2.2 Demonstrate standards of personal presentation appropriate to the organisation |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Organisation policies and procedures for referral within the organisation
- Roles and responsibilities of workers within the organisation
- Organisation policies and procedures for privacy and confidentiality of information provided by clients and others
- Knowledge of cultures relevant to the particular service
- Cultural diversity in Australia

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Follow relevant policies, protocols, guidelines and procedures of the organisation
- Develop conversations about appropriate topics
- Communicate in a manner that is non-discriminatory, supportive and inclusive
- Listen and respond to communication initiatives of client
- Demonstrate respect for client
- Introduce self appropriately
- Demonstrate non-judgemental attitude in work role

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills:
  - using an appropriate communication style
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- using appropriate verbal and non-verbal communication
- language, literacy and numeracy competence required to fulfil the job role and appropriate to the organisation and clients
- language may be English or community language as required by the organisation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a realistic simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment should include a range of clients, reflecting the diverse nature of those who may access the service
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or appropriately simulated environment where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients and others may include:
- Family members and friends of the client
- Existing clients who do not know what other services are available or how to access those services
- People making general inquiries of the service

Communication may be in:
- English
- Sign language
- Community language as required by the service/organisation

Diversity may relate to differences and may include:
- Physical
- Cultural
- Religious/spiritual
- Social
- Age

Organisation guidelines for referral may be:
- Written or verbal
- By phone

Communication may be via:
- Verbal conversations either in person or via telephone
- Written notes
- Worker, family member or friend who has second language

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCOM302D Communicate appropriately with clients and colleagues

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCOM302C</td>
<td>CHCCOM302D</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to exercise effective communication skills in the workplace

Application of the Unit

Application

The communication skills described in this unit may be applied across a range of workplace contexts involving various levels of social and cultural diversity

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Exercise effective communication techniques | 1.1 Reflect an understanding and respect for individual differences and needs in all forms of communication with clients and colleagues
1.2 Introduce oneself appropriately
1.3 Ensure communication is clear and relevant to situation/activities undertaken
1.4 Use touch and other non-verbal means of communication as appropriate
1.5 Seek, obtain and implement advice about communication difficulties with clients or colleagues from supervisor or appropriate person |
| 2. Follow routine instructions | 2.1 Carry out workplace instructions within agreed timeframes
2.2 Seek clarification to understand work instructions, when required
2.3 Refer difficulties in carrying out instructions to supervisor or appropriate person |
ELEMENT

3. Complete reports as required

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

- 3.1 Complete reports to the standard expected in the workplace
- 3.2 Complete reports within identified timeframes
- 3.3 Ensure reports are clear and accurate
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Principles of effective communication
- Dealing with cultural diversity
- Referral processes of organisation
- Effect of sensory loss and cognitive impairment
- Relevant guidelines and procedures
- A range of written material relevant to the job role

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate competency over the range of communication methods used in the workplace (e.g. oral, written notes, memos, letters etc) and include communication with both clients and colleagues

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Adjust communication to meet differing needs
- Use assertive communication
- Use active listening and recognise non-verbal triggers
- Provide feedback
- Minimise conflict and tensions
- Use reading and writing skills required to fulfil job roles as specified by organisation/service:
  - the level of skill may range from the ability to understand symbols used on workplace health and safety (WHS) signs, to reading workplace safety pamphlets or procedure
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- manuals, to reading and handling chemicals such as cleaning fluids
- literacy support available in the workplace may range from having access to support and assistance from expert/mentor/supervisor, to having no communication supports available
- literacy may be required in English or a community language depending on the client group
- Use oral communication skills required to fulfil job roles as specified by the organisation/service:
  - skills in asking questions, providing clear information, listening to and understanding workplace instructions, and clarifying workplace instructions when necessary
  - service/organisation may require competence in English or community language, depending on client group

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions. This may include the use of languages other than English and alternative communications systems
- Assessment may be conducted on one or more occasions and must include the normal range of workplace situations with clients and colleagues
- Competency should be demonstrated over the range of communication methods used in the workplace (e.g. oral, written notes, memos, letters etc) and include communication with both clients and colleagues
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace environment
- Workplace evidence can include testimonials from clients and colleagues, portfolios etc

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Diversity may relate to individual differences and needs and may include:

- Age
- Behavioural
- Cultural
- Developmental
- Emotional
- Intellectual
- Physical
- Religious/spiritual
- Social

Communication includes:

- All verbal and non-verbal interaction with clients and colleagues in a range of appropriate interpersonal contexts

Communicating effectively will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Anti-discrimination legislation
- Accepted cultural protocols
- Accepted language protocols and systems

Exercise effective communication skills includes:

- Being non-judgemental
- Active listening, where culturally appropriate
- Non-verbal behaviour to indicate understanding of what is being said
- Clarifying what is said
- Responses that are culturally appropriate
- Participating in group processes

Appropriate person may be from within or outside the organisations may be:

- Colleagues
- Immediate supervisor
- Other health workers
- Consultant
- Clients and families/carers
RANGE STATEMENT

Instructions may include:

- Manufacturer's/operating written instructions
- Work unit guidelines, procedures and protocols including WHS procedures and protocols for using interpreters
- Supervisor's or management instructions

Instructions may be:

- Written
- Verbal

Reports may be verbal or written and may include:

- Notes
- Records
- Memos
- Letters
- Clients records
- Verbal 'hand overs' at the end of a shift
- Case file notes

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCOM403A Use targeted communication skills to build relationships

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply specific workplace communication techniques to build and maintain relationships with clients and colleagues based on respect and trust.

Application of the Unit
Application
The communication skills described in this unit should be applied to target specific communication issues and may be applied across a range of workplace contexts involving application of a range of communication strategies to address specific needs and issues, working with various levels of social and cultural diversity.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT
1. Communicate effectively with clients and staff

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Identify and use appropriate communication strategies to:
   - establish rapport
   - exchange information
   - facilitate resolution of issues
   - defuse potentially difficult situations

1.2 Conduct interviews according to established procedures

1.3 Give feedback and advice in a way which reflects current identified good practice

1.4 Demonstrate respect for individual, cultural and social differences, needs and rights in communicating with clients and colleagues

1.5 If communication break down occurs, respond appropriately and refer to other staff or specialist services if required to ensure duty of care responsibilities are met

1.6 Respond to enquiries in a manner that promotes achievement of mutual outcomes

1.7 Respect and consider differences in views in a way that values and encourages the contributions of others

1.8 Ensure communication represents the organisation effectively where appropriate
ELEMENT

2. Contribute to the implementation of effective communication strategies

   2.1 Implement strategies to check on the effectiveness of communication with clients and colleagues
   2.2 Facilitate access to interpretive and translation services as required
   2.3 Regularly review established channels of communication to ensure clients and co-workers are informed of relevant information in a timely way
   2.4 Provide coaching in effective communication to colleagues and clients as required
   2.5 Maintain relevant work-related networks and relationships as required to ensure client needs and organisation objectives are met

3. Use specific communication techniques to maintain constructive interaction

   3.1 Put in place strategies to develop a trusting relationship that will enable negotiation of communication barriers
   3.2 Use communication skills and processes to identify and address barriers to communication and facilitate identification of individual issues
   3.3 Use effective skills in listening and providing feedback to ensure stories are heard and to support exploration and validation of issues raised
   3.4 Seek agreement on processes to be followed to address issues within scope of own abilities, skills and work role
   3.5 Make referral for conflict resolution and mediation as appropriate
ELEMENT  | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
--- | ---
4. Facilitate discussions | 4.1 Provide opportunities to fully explore all relevant issues
 | 4.2 Routinely use strategies that encourage all group members to participate equally, including seeking and acknowledging contributions from all members
 | 4.3 Routinely contribute to and follow objectives and agendas for meetings and discussions
 | 4.4 Provide relevant information to groups as appropriate to facilitate outcomes
 | 4.5 Evaluate group communication strategies to promote ongoing participation of all parties
 | 4.6 Implement strategies to ensure the specific communication needs of individuals within the group are identified and addressed

5. Identify communication strategies to build relationships with clients who are involuntary or present communication challenges | 5.1 Identify and address specific communication barriers such as:
* closed or unreceptive attitudes
* mistrust or misunderstanding of people, organisations, systems and/or processes
* emotional states, such as fear, anger and frustration
 | 5.2 Identify areas of mistrust or conflict that may require resolution
 | 5.3 Identify the need to include additional parties
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate knowledge of:

- Effective communication strategies and techniques to address barriers and build and maintain relationships
- Recognition of communication styles of individuals
- Basic group dynamics and facilitation of group discussion

The candidate must also be able to demonstrate relevant knowledge required to effectively perform task skills; task management skills; contingency management skills and job/role environment skills as outlined in elements and performance criteria, such as knowledge of:

- Cross cultural communication protocols
- Non-verbal communication strategies
- Communication techniques to maintain constructive interactions
- Barriers to communication

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide evidence that all communication with clients and colleagues is appropriate to individual needs and the situation and promotes achievement of organisation objectives
- Use strategies to meet particular communication needs/difficulties
- Address individual issues in a timely way and in a manner which maintains the integrity of the individual
- Know when to provide referrals to conflict resolution and mediation

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:
CHCCOM403A Use targeted communication skills to build relationships

Date this document was generated: 31 March 2017

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Apply a full range of communication techniques including:
  - reflective and active listening, respectful responding, empathy, feedback and rapport
  - addressing communication barriers through application of a range of strategies
  - recognition of non-verbal triggers
  - clarification of boundaries of work role
- Apply oral communication skills required to fulfil job roles as specified by the organisation/service:
  - skills in asking questions, providing clear information, listening to and understanding workplace instructions, and clarifying workplace instructions when necessary
  - service/organisation may require competence in English or community language, depending on client group

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in a work context or in simulated work environment and under the normal range of work conditions
- Assessment is recommended to be on more than one occasion and must include the range of clients who access the service
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities.

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place.

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace and/or simulated work environment, including written work.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Communicate effectively includes:

- Effective use of questioning, speaking, and listening and non-verbal communication techniques
- Identifying and evaluating what is occurring within an interaction in a non-judgemental way
- Making decisions about appropriate words, behaviour, posture
- Using clarifying, summarising questions
- Putting together a response that is culturally appropriate
- Expressing an individual perspective
- Expressing own philosophy, ideology and background and exploring the impact of this on the communication
- Exploring and unpacking problems
- Using active and reflective listening appropriately
- Providing sufficient time to enable stories to be told
- Providing summarising and reflective responses in conflict situations
- Confirming that required information is accessed or message communicated

Non-verbal communication includes:

- Gestures
- Posture
- Facial expression
RANGE STATEMENT

Interviews may include:
- Discussion of staffing issues
- Routine information collection
- Maintaining confidentiality
- Evidential-based
- Non disclosure
- Disclosure

Established procedures may refer to:
- Commonwealth and State legislation
- International conventions relating to the rights of individuals
- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
- Duty of care and ethical practice

Presentation of information includes:
- Clarity
- Appropriate sequencing
- Delivery within an appropriate time
- Utilising media to enhance presentation, if appropriate
- Addressing audience needs

Opportunities will include:
- Allowing sufficient time to hear individual stories
- Encouraging a full exploration of issues
- Encouraging validation of individual issues

Additional parties may include:
- Trusted friends
- Case workers
- Family members
- Nominated adults

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCOM504B Develop, implement and promote effective workplace communication

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCOM504A Develop, implement and promote effective workplace communication</td>
<td>CHCCOM504B Develop, implement and promote effective workplace communication</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Formatting and grammatical corrections. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply higher level communication skills that underpin effective workplace operations

Application of the Unit

Application

The high level communication skills described in this unit may be applied across a range of workplace contexts involving development, application and evaluation of communication strategies to effectively address identified client needs and promote the organisation

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Contribute to the development of effective communication strategies | 1.1 Develop, promote, implement and review strategies for internal and external dissemination of information, as required, to maximise individual and organisation effectiveness
1.2 In developing and implementing strategies, address special communication needs to avoid discrimination in the workplace
1.3 Establish channels of communication and review regularly to ensure staff are informed of relevant information in a timely way
1.4 Provide coaching in effective communication to staff as required
1.5 Use negotiation and conflict resolution strategies where required to promote effective operation of the organisation
1.6 Negotiate issues with key stakeholders, clients and staff to facilitate mutually acceptable outcomes
1.7 Maintain relevant work-related networks and relationships to meet client needs and organisation objectives
1.8 Ensure all communication with clients and colleagues is appropriate to individual needs and the situation and promotes achievement of organisation objectives |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Represent the organisation to a range of groups</td>
<td>2.1 Present relevant, appropriately researched material in internal and external forums, in a manner that promotes the organisation and is adjusted as required to meet audience needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Ensure presentations are clear and sequential and delivered within a predetermined time, and utilise appropriate media to enhance the presentation and address audience needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Respond to questions from the audience in a manner consistent with organisation standards</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Respect and consider differences in views in a way that values and encourages contributions of others</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Facilitate group discussions</td>
<td>3.1 Define and implement mechanisms that enhance effective group interactions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Routinely use strategies that encourage all group members to participate, including seeking and acknowledging contributions from all members</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Routinely set and follow objectives and agendas for meetings and discussions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Provide relevant information to groups as appropriate to facilitate outcomes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.5 Evaluate group communication strategies to promote ongoing participation of all parties</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.6 Identify and address the specific communication needs of individuals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Facilitate work group interaction</td>
<td>4.1 When conducting meetings, clarify purpose, agree procedures, negotiate roles and responsibilities, adhere to agreed timeframes and maintain equality of participation and input by group members</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Seek feedback on operation of group processes, encourage suggestions for change and implement appropriate action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Provide feedback in a supportive manner appropriate to individuals and the group</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 5. Use specific communication techniques to assist in resolving conflict | 5.1 Use strategies to facilitate conflict resolution
5.2 Use communication skills and processes to identify and address barriers to communication and explore issues and background to the conflict
5.3 Use effective skills in listening, reframing, providing feedback and negotiating to support exploration and clarification of issues
5.4 Seek agreement on processes to be followed to resolve conflict within scope of own abilities, skills and work role
5.5 Make referral for conflict resolution and mediation as appropriate |
| 6. Produce quality written materials | 6.1 Ensure writing is succinct and clear and presented in a logical and sequential way to match audience needs and the purpose of the document
6.2 Ensure all written documentation produced addresses organisation guidelines and current accepted standards of writing in line with purpose
6.3 Prepare and provide appropriate and timely advice to management and clients as required
6.4 Where individual skill levels do not match workplace requirements, take appropriate remedial action, including seeking assistance and additional training |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>7. Conduct interviews</td>
<td>7.1 In conducting interviews and formal discussions, make an effort to ensure that</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>appropriate structures, timeframes and protocols are mutually agreed and adhered to</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7.2 Use effective questioning, speaking, listening and non-verbal communication</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>techniques during discussions and interviews, to ensure the required information is</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>accessed or message communicated</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7.3 Give feedback and advice in a way which reflects current identified good practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7.4 Conduct interviews and formal discussions with due regard to individual</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>differences, needs and rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7.5 Use appropriate complaints management, grievance and counselling procedures to</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>deal with serious problems</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Knowledge of different communication styles and techniques
- Different interview techniques
- Effective interpersonal, written and oral communication
- Negotiation techniques
- Group development processes
- Conflict resolution strategies and techniques
- Research techniques, including for social research

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Establish and maintain an appropriate network of clients
- Incorporate the requirements of specific groups in all client service work
- Communicate professionally with other professionals

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Work effectively with clients and service providers
- Assess cultural communication protocols
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - self-reflection
  - principles and practices of client service delivery
  - effective workplace writing
  - effective presentation techniques
  - effective communication techniques
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- effective interviewing
- effective group management processes
- conflict resolution and negotiation
- Use relevant information technology effectively in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment is recommended to be conducted over more than one occasion and include communications with individuals and groups
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations: • All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
• All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
• In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
• Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment: • This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
• Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment: • Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace, including testimonials from clients and colleagues etc

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Oral, written and non-verbal communication in the organisation can occur with:
- Clients and stakeholders
- Representatives of client groups or organisations
- Members of the public
- Managers and staff in own and other organisations
- Private organisations and consultants
- Academic institutions, public sector and community organisations
- Colleagues in different locations (e.g. regional/central offices)

Audience needs may require adjustments, such as:
- Alternative format for written materials, such as large print, braille, audio or in another language
- Assistive technology, such as audio loops
- Interpreters, including signers

Written communication can involve both handwriting and operation of word processing equipment. It may take the form of:
- Case notes and reports
- Minutes of meetings
- Routine as well as complex reports
- Proposals, project plans and spreadsheets
- General internal and external correspondence
- Speeches, journal articles and marketing materials
- Instructions, procedures and policies
- Submission writing

Oral communication can take the form of:
- Seeking and conveying information
- Consulting and advising
- Formal and informal presentations to different audiences
- Structured interviewing for selection or counselling purposes
- Leading discussions and briefings
- Negotiating
- Chairing and participating in meetings
- Conflict resolution
- Coaching
- Advocacy
- On-the-job training
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients are defined by the work of the organisation and can include:
- Individual members of the public
- Other organisations, community groups and individuals
- Other work areas of the organisation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCONS401C Facilitate changeover

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCONS401B Facilitate changeover</td>
<td>CHCCONS401C Facilitate changeover</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required for workers to facilitate the safe changeover of children between resident and non resident parents in the context of contact arrangements

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit applies to core Children's Contact Service work
The context of facilitated changeover may be either voluntary (initiated by the family) or involuntary (result of court order)

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish the changeover arrangements | 1.1 Establish rapport with children and parents to gain their confidence
1.2 Explain the changeover process to all parties including children, resident and non resident parent
1.3 Approach both parents with neutrality without compromising effective communication and rapport building
1.4 Observe child and parent risk factors and assess for substance use and/or safety concerns
1.5 Create a safe conducive environment in which changeover is to occur
1.6 Listen to and acknowledge parents feelings and concerns about facilitated changeover and contact
1.7 Identify any health issues or significant concerns to be monitored |
2. Monitor the changeover process

2.1 Follow organisation policies and procedures to ensure client and worker safety during changeover

2.2 Assist the child/and or young person to move from one parent to another for contact to occur

2.3 Respond appropriately to, and in accordance with organisation policy and procedure to abusive and hostile parents at changeover

2.4 Respond appropriately to, and in accordance with organisation policy and procedures to early and late parents

2.5 Manage conflict to ensure the safety of child/and or young person, parents and colleagues

2.6 Ensure the environment is contextually appropriate, safe, secure and supportive

2.7 Maintain confidentiality of parents as required by the organisations privacy policy

2.8 Model appropriate cooperation and parental behaviour and cultural sensitivity

2.9 Facilitate parent child interaction at changeover

2.10 Relieve the parent of the child at the arranged time

2.11 Manage and respond appropriately to child refusal in accordance with organisations policies and procedures
ELEMENT

3. Assess the effectiveness of changeover

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Ensure debriefing is provided to the child and/or young person according to organisation procedures

3.2 Respond to any incidents or concerns as a result of the facilitated changeover according to organisation policy

3.3 Complete documentation requirements according to organisation policy

3.4 Seek supervisor support according to organisation policy

3.5 Inform relevant persons or authorities of any safety concerns

3.6 Refer parents to other support systems when appropriate

3.7 Inform senior staff of concerns about the continued appropriateness of facilitated changeover according to emotional and physical safety of the child
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Understanding reactions of children experiencing re victimisation and who are affected by trauma
- Awareness and understanding of the implications of confidentiality policy and procedures and necessary limitations of confidentiality in cases of harm or abuse
- Awareness of work health and safety (WHS) policy and procedures in the context of changeover
- Relevant legislation that impacts on the provision of changeover and facilitated contact including, Child Protection Legislation, Family Law Act, Domestic and Family Violence Laws within the jurisdiction of the service provision
- Factors affecting family dynamics and particularly children, with incidents or history of high levels of parental conflict, violence, abuse or mental health concerns
- Understanding the impact of high conflict in post separation involving children
- Emergency response procedures in situations of critical incidents eventuating from a breakdown in the changeover process
- Understand child developmental norms at different ages and stages
- Recognise how the observer role influences interaction and behaviour of others
- Boundary expectations of the worker in the role of facilitating changeover or contact
- Awareness of family systems and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the changeover and contact process
- Working knowledge of separation anxiety and attachment theory, child development, loss and grief issues and family violence and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the changeover and contact process, particularly observing child’s emotional reaction and interactions with carers/parents
- Awareness of case work practices and how to contribute to these process through documentation and consultation with senior staff or supervisors
- Local support services available to clients needing external information, support or interventions

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Debrief children and young people after contact
- Demonstrate:
  - empathy to parents/carers and children
  - non-judgement approaches and attitudes towards all clients
  - neutrality and impartiality when engaging in practices with both the resident and non-resident parent/carer
  - age appropriate communication when working with young people and children, people with disabilities, cultural diversity
- Record case notes, including recording only relevant information and objective information
- Discriminate between what is factual observation and what is personal interpretations and subjective information
- Write incident reports where necessary and in accordance with policies of the organisation
- Identify and respond to real and/or potential risks associated with changeover processes and high risk client groups including substance use, violence and or mental health concerns

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Communicate effectively with vulnerable or hostile parents and children in crisis using effective interpersonal skills and conflict resolution skills:
  - listening and understanding
  - speaking clearly and directly
  - negotiating responsively
  - persuading effectively
  - being appropriately assertive
  - empathising
- Engage involuntary or resistant children and facilitate the process
- Comply with codes of conduct of the organisation
- Communicate in a cross cultural context with a diverse client group, promote access and equity to service users
- Work with interpreters effectively to facilitate the changeover process
- Create and maintain a child friendly environment
- Apply data entry skills for input of client statistical information
- Communicate effectively with children to ensure rapport is established and trust in the process of changeover is achieved and maintained
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Use observational skills and interpret this information into objective recordings of client interactions which may inform the preparation of court reports
- Model and implement appropriate boundaries for interacting with families
- Work in a team environment and contribute as a team member to work practices and processes

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Observation of workplace performance is essential for assessment of this unit
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace on more than one occasion

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of workplace settings, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Method of assessment:

- Observation in the workplace.
- Written assignments/projects or questioning should be used to assess knowledge.
- Case study and scenario as a basis for discussion of issues and strategies to contribute to best practice.

The assessment environment should not disadvantage the candidate.

Assessment practices should take into account any relevant language or cultural issues related to Aboriginality, gender or language barriers other than English.

Where the candidate has a disability, reasonable adjustment may be applied during assessment.

Language and literacy demands of the assessment task should not be higher than those of the work role.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Establish rapport with children and parents may include:
- Actively listening to each persons concerns
- Acknowledging feelings yet remaining impartial
- Demonstrating empathy
- Establishing trust with each person
- Modelling effective communication skills
- Explaining process and expectations including responsibilities and rights of each person
- Creating a friendly and welcoming environment

Explain the changeover process may include but is not limited to:
- Client rights and responsibilities
- Expectations on behaviour
- Limitations of the changeover process
- Communication strategies related to late arrival, non attendance, review of the process, concerns and complaints
- Clarification of client's expectations of the changeover service
- Provision of written and other forms of information to meet specific communication need of clients

Neutrality and impartiality must involve:
- Absence of personal bias and prejudice
RANGE STATEMENT

Child and parent risk factors may include:
- Parents presenting under the influence of substances
- Parents with unmanaged mental health issues
- Displays of volatile behaviour
- Aggressive physical and verbal behaviour
- Unmanaged physical and mental illness
- Indicators of violence or family abuse
- Child protection concerns
- Social, geographical and emotional isolation of family members
- Financial difficulty

Safe conducive environment may include:
- Ensuring parents do not interact during changeover
- Monitoring and observing behaviour of all parties at points of handover
- Ensuring parents are aware of the limitations of the organisation and expected client behaviour
- Confidently activating incident response when needed
- Commitment to child safety measures in all aspects of work practices
- Ensuring the physical environment of the changeover site is free from hazards and potential risk for clients

Organisation policies and procedures may include:
- WHS workplace procedures
- Risk management policy
- Confidentiality policy
- Changeover policy and procedures
- Reporting policy and procedures
- Account keeping procedures for the collection of fees

Documentation may include:
- Observational case notes
- Records of contact
- Memos
- Case notes
- Child protection notifications
- Incident reports
- Receipt for payments
RANGE STATEMENT

Parental behaviour may include:

- Communication with children
- Seeking clarification on what the child wants to have happen, how they think this might happen, how they feel about the situation, seeking understanding from the child's perspective about any changes that might assist with contact refusal
- Encouraging and respecting children's views and ideas
- Appropriate management of child behaviour
- Appropriate content for discussion with children
- Expressing feelings and emotions

Other support systems for parents and children may include:

- Counselling and family support services
- Dispute resolution services
- Health and medical services
- Child support agency
- Centrelink
- Drug and alcohol services
- Domestic violence services
- Legal Aid
- Mental health services

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCONS402C Facilitate and monitor contact

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCONS402B Facilitate and monitor contact</td>
<td>CHCCONS402C Facilitate and monitor contact</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor: This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to facilitate and monitor the contact between the child/children and the non resident parent.

Application of the Unit

Application: This unit applies to core Children's Contact Service work. The context of facilitated contact can be either voluntary (initiated by the family) or involuntary (result of court order).

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish and commence the contact visit</td>
<td>1.1 Establish rapport with parents and child/young person and parents at commencement of contact visit</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Reinforce parameters of facilitated contact with parents including reporting processes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Clarify contact or court orders with supervisor before contact occurs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Conduct risk assessment with both parties upon commencement of contact visit</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Seek agreement from both parties to establish a plan for facilitated contact using negotiation skills</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Plan, in consultation with parents and child/young person for the facilitated contact to occur with age appropriate activities</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Monitor contact between child/young person and non resident parent

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Monitor behaviours and safety of the child/young person during contact with non resident parents with minimal intervention

2.2 Manage any challenging behaviour of both parents and child/young person

2.3 Intervene in contact between child/young person and parent where appropriate

2.4 Seek support of peers or senior staff as needed

2.5 Refer family or individuals to other services according to organisation policy and assessed client needs

2.6 Demonstrate ability to communicate effectively with parents and children in a consistent, and culturally appropriate way to model respectful parenting and relationships

2.7 Direct the contact and keep interaction flowing between parent, child and or young person

2.8 Respond to complaints from either party according to organisation policy

2.9 Terminate contact when necessary in line with organisation procedures and reporting actions to immediate supervisor

3. Document information about facilitated contact

3.1 Prepare reports according to organisation policy

3.2 Create files and write case notes according to organisation policy

3.3 Complete incident reports when required

3.4 Revise arrangements for facilitated contact

3.5 Demonstrate confidentiality and privacy policy of the organisation in when recording and managing client information
ELEMENT

4. Participate in strategies to improve services for families

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Attend regular staff meetings and debriefing sessions with peers
4.2 Undertake regular professional development to ensure procedures reflect legislative and industry requirements
4.3 Consult on all difficult operations with senior staff according to organisation requirements
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUERED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Understanding reactions of children experiencing re victimisation and who are affected by trauma.
- Awareness and understanding of the implications of confidentiality policy and procedures and necessary limitations of confidentiality in cases of harm or abuse.
- Awareness of work health and safety (WHS) policy and procedures in the context of changeover.
- Relevant legislation that impacts on the provision of changeover and facilitated contact including, Child Protection Legislation, Family Law Act, Domestic and Family Violence Laws within the jurisdiction of the service provision.
- Factors affecting family dynamics and particularly children, with incidents or history of high levels of parental conflict, violence, abuse and/or mental health issues.
  - Understanding the impact of high conflict in post separation involving children.
  - Emergency response procedures in situations of critical incidents eventuating from a breakdown in the changeover process.
- Understand child developmental norms at different ages and stages.
- Recognise how the observer role influences interaction and behaviour of others.
- Boundary expectations of the worker in the role of facilitating changeover or contact.
- Awareness of family systems and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the changeover and contact process.
- Working knowledge of separation anxiety and attachment theory, child development, loss and grief issues and family violence and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the changeover and contact process, particularly observing child's emotional reaction and interactions with carers/parents.
- Awareness of case work practices and how to contribute to these process through documentation and consultation with senior staff or supervisors.
- Local support services available to clients needing external information, support or interventions.

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Debrief children and young people after contact
- Demonstrate:
  - empathy to parents/carers and children
  - non-judgement approaches and attitudes towards all clients
  - neutrality and impartiality when engaging in practices with both the resident and non-resident parent/carer
  - age appropriate communication when working with young people and children, people with disabilities, cultural diversity
- Record case notes, including recording only relevant information and objective information
- Discriminate between what is factual observation and what is personal interpretations and subjective information
- Identify and respond to real and potential risks associated with changeover processes and high risk client groups including alcohol and other drug use, mental health and violence

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Communicate effectively with vulnerable or hostile parents and children in crisis using effective interpersonal skills and conflict resolution skills:
  - listening and understanding
  - speaking clearly and directly
  - negotiating responsively
  - persuading effectively
  - being appropriately assertive
  - empathising
- Engage involuntary or resistant children and facilitate the process
- Comply with codes of conduct of the organisation
- Communicate in a cross cultural context with a diverse client group, promote access and equity to service users
- Work with interpreters effectively
- Create and maintain a child friendly environment
- Apply data entry skills for input of funding services statistical information
- Communicate effectively with children to ensure rapport is established and trust in the process of changeover is achieved and maintained
- Use observational skills and interpret this information into objective recordings of client interactions which may inform the preparation of court reports
- Use modelling and demonstrate cooperative behaviours
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Model and implement appropriate boundaries for interacting with families
- Work in a team environment and contribute as a team member to work practices and processes
- Assess child's need in relation to facilitated changeover and parental contact

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Observation of workplace performance is essential for assessment of this unit
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace on more than one occasion

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of workplace settings, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate person.

Method of assessment:

- Observation in the workplace.
- Written assignments/projects or questioning should be used to assess knowledge.
- Case study and scenario as a basis for discussion of issues and strategies to contribute to best practice.

The assessment environment should not disadvantage the candidate.

Assessment practices should take into account any relevant language or cultural issues related to Aboriginality, gender or language barriers other than English.

Where the candidate has a disability, reasonable adjustment may be applied during assessment.

Language and literacy demands of the assessment task should not be higher than those of the work role.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Contact or court orders may include:
- Provisions or orders specified by the family law court process

Risk assessment may include:
- Processes for evaluating the nature of specific risks to safety for individual clients using tools and structured judgement
- The content of risk may relate to:
  - Exposure to violence or parental conflict
  - Mental health issues
  - Children's and parenting issues

Document may include:
- Court reports if specified within job role
- Case notes and observational recordings
- Incident reports
- Notifications
- Data entry requirements according to service agreements

Age appropriate activities may include:
- Childs chosen activity - play (individual and group)
- Outdoor activities and indoor activities
- Developmentally appropriate
- Child self determined activity
RANGE STATEMENT

Other services may include:
- Counselling and family support services
- Dispute resolution services
- Health and medical services
- Child support Agency
- Centrelink
- Drug and alcohol services
- Domestic violence services
- Legal Aid
- Mental health services

Communicate effectively with parents may include but is not limited to:
- Use of empathy
- Congruence
- Being non-judgement
- Ensuring neutrality
- Culturally appropriate communication and observation of protocols
- Negotiation
- Assertiveness
- In languages other than English
- Indigenous languages
- Visual languages such as sign language and allow for the use of assistive technology

Termination of contact may be a result of:
- Safety concerns for child and/or adult
- Actual incident of breach of agreed standards
- Parent self selects to terminate
- Child distress
- Issues of a legal nature arise
- Senior worker determines it appropriate or necessary to terminate the contact

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCONS403C Support families to develop relationships

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCONS403B</td>
<td>CHCCONS403C</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Support families to develop relationships</td>
<td>Support families to develop relationships</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to assist children and parents to achieve positive relationships in situations of separation or divorce.

Application of the Unit

This unit applies to staff working in Children's Contact Services and within the regulations of Family Law legislation associated with facilitated contact.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Engage with families to determine relationship issues | 1.1 Use appropriate communication techniques to assess the relationship dynamics of both parents and child/young person
1.2 Identify the needs of each party and discuss appropriate support and response options
1.3 Document family relationship goals, plans and actions according to organisation policy |
| 2. Support relationship building | 2.1 Model positive parenting and interactions with children
2.2 Demonstrate use of play techniques for interacting with child/and or young person
2.3 Model cooperation, negotiation and assertion skills to resolve relationship conflict
2.4 Encourage the child and/or young person to interact with the parent through role modelling and demonstration of appropriate behaviour
2.5 Provide feedback and positive affirmations to support families in relationship building |
ELEMENT

3. Activate referrals

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Refer to services that will support specific issues impacting on the development of relationships

3.2 Identify community resource options for family interactions and relationship development

3.3 Advocate for community support services to meet family's needs

4. Respond to inappropriate parental behaviour

4.1 Debrief the residential parent and non residential parent

4.2 Debrief the child and/or young person

4.3 Be diplomatic in responses to inappropriate behaviour. Direct conversations to parents appropriate responsibilities

4.4 Be aware of the relationship issues between the parents and refer where necessary

4.5 Respond to any issues of a legal nature according to organisation policy and legislative requirements

4.6 Discuss with the parents the ramifications if behaviours have breached the Service Level Agreement
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Understanding reactions of children experiencing re-victimisation and who are affected by trauma
- Working knowledge of the intentions of the Shared Parenting provisions of the Family Law Act and practices that will support families to achieve these goals where appropriate
- Awareness and understanding of the implications of confidentiality policy and procedures and necessary limitations of confidentiality in cases of harm or abuse
- Awareness of work health and safety (WHS) policy and procedures in the context of changeover
- Relevant legislation that impacts on the provision of changeover and facilitated contact including, Child Protection Legislation, Family Law Act, Domestic and Family Violence Laws within the jurisdiction of the service provision
- Factors affecting family dynamics and particularly children, with incidents or history of high levels of parental conflict, violence or abuse
- Understanding the impact of high conflict in post separation involving children
- Awareness of adult and juvenile sexual offending behaviour types, cycles of offending behaviour and appropriate responses to allegations of offending behaviour in accordance with organisation policy and legislation
- Understand child developmental norms at different ages and stages
- Awareness of domestic and family violence cycle, indicators and appropriate responses
- Awareness of family systems and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the development of relationships in extended and blended families
- Working knowledge of separation anxiety and attachment theory, child development, loss and grief issues and family violence and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the changeover and contact process, particularly observing child's emotional reaction and interactions with carers/parents.
- Awareness of case work practices and how to contribute to these process through documentation and consultation with senior staff or supervisors
- Local support services available to clients needing external information, support or interventions
- Cross cultural issues in child parent relationships
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate:
  - empathy to parents/carers and children
  - non-judgement approaches and attitudes towards all clients
  - neutrality and impartiality when engaging in practices with both the resident and non-resident parent/carer
  - age appropriate communication when working with young people and children, people with disabilities, cultural diversity
- Record case notes, including recording only relevant information and objective information
- Discriminate between what is factual observation and what is personal interpretations and subjective information
- Write incident reports as required and in accordance with WHS policies of the organisation
- Identify real and potential risks associated with developing relationships with high risk client groups
- Communicate effectively with vulnerable or hostile parents and children in crisis using effective interpersonal skills and conflict resolution skills:
  - listening and understanding
  - speaking clearly and directly
  - negotiating responsively
  - persuading effectively
  - being appropriately assertive
  - empathising
- Engage involuntary or resistant parents and children in planning for the future
- Communicate effectively with children to ensure rapport is established and trust in the process of changeover is achieved and maintained
- Use observational skills and interpret this information into objective recordings of client interactions which may inform the preparation of court reports
- Use modelling and demonstrate cooperative behaviours
- Model and implement appropriate boundaries for interacting with families

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Comply with codes of conduct of the organisation
- Communicate in a cross cultural context with a diverse client group, promote access and equity to service users
- Work with interpreters effectively
- Create and maintain a child friendly environment
- Apply data entry skills for input of funding services statistical information

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills.
- Observation of workplace performance is essential for assessment of this unit.
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace on more than one occasion.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of workplace settings, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment

- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects or questioning should be used to assess knowledge
- Case study and scenario as a basis for discussion of issues and strategies to contribute to best practice.

The assessment environment should not disadvantage the candidate

Assessment practices should take into account any relevant language or cultural issues related to Aboriginality, gender or language barriers other than English

Where the candidate has a disability, reasonable adjustment may be applied during assessment

Language and literacy demands of the assessment task should not be higher than those of the work role

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Relationship dynamics may include but is not limited to:
- Power imbalances and intimidation
- Past or present family violence or abuse
- Intergenerational issues of appropriate communication, behaviour management
- Critical factors of substance misuse, abuse
- Past or present issues of child abuse and neglect
- Socioeconomics, financial, geography, isolation
- Mental illness
- Grief and loss
- Attachment issues
- Learned behavioural responses

Appropriate support and response options may include but are not limited to:
- Facilitate referral to support services
- Advocacy within the guidelines of the organisation
- Provision of critical information about client rights, matters of legal nature, safety and essential care services
- Planning processes
- Mediation and/or other conflict management
- Referral to counselling services

Document family relationship goals may include:
- Case plans
- File records
- Case reviews or planning processes
- Case reports

Model positive parenting may include:
- Communication with children
- Seeking clarification on what the child wants to have happen, how they think this might happen, how they feel about the situation, seeking understanding form the child's perspective any changes that might assist with any contact refusal
- Encouraging and respecting children's views and ideas
- Appropriate management of child behaviour
- Appropriate content for discussion with children
- Expressing feelings and emotions
RANGE STATEMENT

Activate referrals may include referring to support services including:
- Housing
- Income support
- Domestic violence support services
- Recreational and support groups
- Centrelink
- Child support
- Family relationship centres
- Men's help services
- Cultural support services
- Family focused specialist groups

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCONS504C Assist families to self manage contact

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCONS504B Assist families to self manage contact</td>
<td>CHCCONS504C Assist families to self manage contact</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to work with families to achieve the greatest level of self management of safe contact arrangements.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to staff working in Children's' Contact Services and within the regulations of legislation associated with facilitated contact under the Family Law Act.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Assess suitability for self managed contact | 1.1 Review existing court orders
1.2 Explain options for community support outside of the children's contact service
1.3 Respectfully engage parents in the planning process for self managed contact to occur |
| 2. Plan with parents to establish self managed contact | 2.1 Help parents to identify issues and barriers to self manage contact
2.2 Develop a case plan to assist the family achieve self managed contact according to organisation policy
2.3 Model time management and planning skills to parents seeking self managed contact
2.4 Model parenting skills and appropriate child behaviour management
2.5 Use negotiation skills to assist parents to reach agreement about self managed contact
2.6 Ensure that plans for self managed contact are in accordance with court orders |
ELEMENT

3. Monitor and review transition plan

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Review the transition into self management plan regularly
3.2 Revise the plan as determined by family and/or worker assessment of new or existing information
3.3 Maintain a child focused approach in transition planning
3.4 Encourage parents to remain child focused in all aspects of transition form the support of Children's Contact Service
3.5 Follow revised plans to assist families achieve self managed contact
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Understanding reactions of children experiencing re victimisation and who are affected by trauma
- Working knowledge of the intentions of the Shared Parenting provisions of the Family Law Act and practices that will support families to achieve these goals where appropriate
- Understand adhere to legal responsibilities and duty of care under legislative requirements
- Awareness and understanding of the implications of confidentiality policy and procedures and necessary limitations of confidentiality in cases of harm or abuse
- Awareness of work health and safety (WHS) policy and procedures in the context of changeover
- Relevant legislation that impacts on the provision of changeover and facilitated contact including, Child Protection Legislation, Family Law Act, Domestic and Family Violence Laws within the jurisdiction of the service provision
- Factors affecting family dynamics and particularly children, with incidents or history of high levels of parental conflict, violence or abuse
- Understanding the impact of high conflict in post separation involving children
- Awareness of adult and juvenile sexual offending behaviour types, cycles of offending behaviour and appropriate responses to allegations of offending behaviour in accordance with organisation policy and legislation
- Understand child developmental norms at different ages and stages
- Awareness of domestic and family violence cycle, indicators and appropriate responses
- Awareness of family systems and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the development of relationships in extended and blended families
- Working knowledge of separation anxiety and attachment theory, child development, loss and grief issues and family violence and how this is relevant to the role of contact worker in the changeover and contact process, particularly observing child's emotional reaction and interactions with carers/parents
- Awareness of case work practices and how to contribute to these process through documentation and consultation with senior staff or supervisors
- Local support services available to clients needing external information, support or
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Cross cultural issues in child parent relationships

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate:
  - empathy to parents/carers and children
  - non-judgement approaches and attitudes towards all clients
  - neutrality and impartiality when engaging in practices with both the resident and non-resident parent/carer
  - age appropriate communication when working with young people and children, people with disabilities, cultural diversity
  - Record case notes, including recording only relevant information and objective information
  - Discriminate between what is factual observation and what is personal interpretations and subjective information
  - Write incident reports as required and in accordance with WHS policies of the organisation
  - Identify real and potential risks associated with developing relationships with high risk client groups
  - Communicate effectively with vulnerable or hostile parents and children in crisis using effective interpersonal skills and conflict resolution skills:
    - listening and understanding
    - speaking clearly and directly
    - negotiating responsively
    - persuading effectively
    - being appropriately assertive
    - empathising
  - Engage involuntary or resistant parents and children in planning for the future
  - Communicate effectively with children to ensure rapport and trust is established
  - Use observational skills and interpret information into objective recordings of client interactions which may inform the preparation of court reports
  - Use modelling and demonstrate cooperative behaviours
  - Model and implement appropriate boundaries for interacting with families
  - Apply case management processes
  - Use a problem solving approach where issues prohibit the planning of self managed contact
  - Use assessment skills for establishing client needs and planning to ensure these needs can be most appropriately met
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Comply with codes of conduct of the organisation
- Communicate in a cross cultural context with a diverse client group, promote access and equity to service users
- Work with interpreters effectively
- Apply data entry skills for input of funding services statistical information

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills.
- Observation of workplace performance is essential for assessment of this unit.
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace on more than one occasion.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of workplace settings, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment

- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects or questioning should be used to assess knowledge
- Case study and scenario as a basis for discussion of issues and strategies to contribute to best practice.

The assessment environment should not disadvantage the candidate

Assessment practices should take into account any relevant language or cultural issues related to Aboriginality, gender or language barriers other than English

Where the candidate has a disability, reasonable adjustment may be applied during assessment

Language and literacy demands of the assessment task should not be higher than those of the work role

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Court orders may include:

- Parental contact and residency
- Child protection
- Domestic and family violence issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Options for community support may include but is not limited to:
- Counselling and family support services
- Dispute resolution services
- Health and medical services
- Child support agency
- Centrelink
- Alcohol and other drugs (AOD) services
- Domestic violence services
- Legal aid
- Mental health services
- Cultural community services

Respectfully engage parents must include:
- Impartial and objective attitudes of workers
- Acknowledge individuality and experiences
- Respects the rights of parents to choose to participate
- Respects culturally diverse range of parenting skills and choices

Issues and barriers may include:
- Domestic and family violence past or present
- AOD issues
- Mental health issues particularly unmanaged
- Physical, verbal or emotional and psychological abuse
- Social and geographic isolation
- Physical and/or intellectual disability
- Health matters
- Accommodation issues
- Other legal matters

Self managed contact may include:
- Contact arrangements that are agreed to by both parents and managed without the support of the Contact Service and are considered to be in the best interest of the child

Child focused approach:
- Practice is aimed at facilitating information about the child's needs/wants to the parents, acting in the 'best interests of the child'
RANGE STATEMENT

Model parenting skills and appropriate child behaviour management includes:

- Effective and respectful communication with children
- Seeking clarification on what the child wants to have happen, how they think this might happen, how they feel about the situation, seeking understanding from the child's perspective any changes that might assist with any contact refusal
- Encouraging and respecting children's views and ideas
- Appropriate management of child behaviour
- Appropriate content for discussion with children
- Expressing feelings and emotions

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS200D Deliver service to clients

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for new entrants to the community services industry as an orientation to how services are delivered within an established client service plan

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to service delivery in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify responsibilities within client service plan | 1.1 Identify responsibilities to client and follow according to the client service plan
1.2 Obtain advice and direction when appropriate
1.3 Report difficulties in carrying out client service plan and seek advice |
| 2. Implement plan to deliver client service | 2.1 Establish rapport with clients and enable high quality service delivery
2.2 Ensure dealings with clients are consistent with accepted practice, duty of care responsibilities and the code of conduct of the organisation.
2.3 Ensure individual work is carried out within the client service plan
2.4 Ensure service delivered to clients is consistent with relevant statutory or legislative requirements
2.5 Ensure service delivered to client is to the standard required by the organisation
2.6 Report information about client needs and service provided according to organisation practice |
ELEMENT

3. Respond to changes in client needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Maintain records of changes in client need as required
3.2 Identify potential areas of difficulty in client service delivery and refer to appropriate person
3.3 Identify situations of risk, potential risk or urgent need and report to appropriate person promptly
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Principles of effective client service delivery
- Specific services available and provided

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Understand and adhere to own job role and responsibilities concerning client services
- Work within client service plan
- Establish rapport with clients

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Apply oral communication skills required to fulfil the job role in the organisation/service:
  - oral skills may include listening to instruction, clarifying worker responsibilities in care/case plan, and providing simple factual information relevant to the workplace and client need
  - language used may be English or community language depending on the client group
- Apply literacy competence required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service, and according to the support available in the workplace:
  - writing skills may range from the need to fill out a simple form to completion of a short report
  - reading skills may range from reading and understanding the names and day on a
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

'blister' medication pack to reading the case/care plan
- language used may be English or community language depending on the client group
- Apply numeracy competence required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service, and according to the support available in the workplace:
  - numeracy tasks may range from the need to count supplies to recording the number of times a service was delivered to a client, and providing this information on an organisation form
- Use basic workplace technology and equipment in line with workplace requirements and instructions

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
  This may include the use of languages other than English and alternative communications systems
- Assessment may be conducted on one or more occasions but must include the normal range of different client groups/needs
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from a workplace environment

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Client service plan may include:
- Case plan
- Care plan
- Service delivery plan

Clients may include:
- Self referring or referred
- Individual members of the public
- Other organisations and community groups
- Other work areas of the organisation
- Individual members of the organisation
- Senior management

Report may refer to:
- Notes
- Records
- Memos
- Letters
- Clients records
- Verbal 'hand overs' at the end of a shift

Note: not all organisations/services require the completion of written records

Changes in client needs could relate to:
- Physical/health status
- Mental/health status
- Cognitive/health status
- Family circumstances
- Language
- Cultural/beliefs
- Family circumstances
- Age/stage of life
- Remote location/physical surroundings

Service delivery is to occur within:
- Protocol
- Duty of care responsibility
- Codes of conduct and ethical performance
- Organisation standards
RANGE STATEMENT

Client service delivery includes:

- The full range of services offered by the organisation including direct care and support, provision of information, referral to relevant organisations and application of existing organisation services

Appropriate person may be:

- Supervisor
- Administrator
- Nurse
- Coordinator

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS211B Prepare for work in the community sector

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS211A Prepare</td>
<td>CHCCS211B Prepare</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Formatting and grammatical corrections. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>for work in the</td>
<td>for work in the</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>community sector</td>
<td>community sector</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by those people who may be undertaking preliminary training to enter the community services industry.

It requires the ability to access industry information and applicable legislative guidelines as well as knowledge of identifying and accessing future learning opportunities.

Application of the Unit

Application

These work functions would be carried out under direct supervision within organisation guidelines.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify and apply industry information</td>
<td>1.1 Identify current issues that impact on the work area/organisation and different models of work in community services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Access a range of legislation and procedural requirements relevant to employment in the community services industry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify key community services industry organisations able to provide information and assist individuals and enterprise</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify various roles and demonstrate an understanding of rights and responsibilities of employee and employer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Demonstrate commitment to comply with applicable legislative and procedural requirements through own conduct and/or ethics</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Demonstrate commitment to values and philosophies underpinning work in the sector

2.1 Demonstrate in work undertaken, consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophy of the sector

2.2 Demonstrate a commitment to access and equity principles in work in the sector

2.3 Identify personal values and attitudes and take into account when implementing work activities

3. Identify future career opportunities

3.1 Identify key industry sectors and occupations

3.2 Identify possible career directions in the community services industry or organisation and discuss with appropriate persons

3.3 Take into account personal values and attitudes regarding work and business when planning future work/career directions

3.4 Assess current skills and knowledge against a checklist of target competencies

3.5 Identify opportunities for additional skills in consultation with appropriate persons

4. Work in a team

4.1 Display courteous and helpful manner at all times

4.2 Complete allocated tasks as required

4.3 Seek assistance when difficulties arise

4.4 Use questioning to clarify instructions or responsibilities

4.5 Identify and display non-discriminatory attitudes

4.6 Identify work and personal priorities and demonstrate a balance achieved between competing priorities

4.7 Apply time-management strategies to work duties

4.8 Observe appropriate dress and behaviour in the workplace
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Approaches to work in the industry and a range of activities which support this
- Holistic and client-centred care
- Client needs and rights including duty of care
- Principles of access and equity
- Current issues facing clients and the sector
- Basic knowledge responsibilities in relation to child protection
- Awareness of own biases and beliefs
- Basic understanding of legal and ethical framework in the community services industry
- Limitations of work role and responsibilities
- Legislation, regulations and codes or practice applicable to specific community services functions
- Types of community services organisations and functions
- Organisation structure and reporting channels
- Terms and conditions of employment
- Workplace communication channels and procedures
- Principles of effective communication
- Work health and safety (WHS) issues and requirements

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate interpersonal communication with clients and other stakeholders
- Accurately interpret organisation information to ensure an effective understanding of various roles and responsibilities and organisation processes and procedures
- Access, interpret and comply with a range of relevant legislative and procedural requirements
- Develop effective and personal relationships through the application of organisation social, ethical and operational standards and use of appropriate interpersonal styles and techniques
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Work on an individual basis and within a team

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:
- Communicate in a clear and concise manner in both written and verbal modes
- Request advice or further information
- Seek and receive feedback
- Use information technology appropriate to specific tasks
- Source, organise and record information
- Process workplace documentation
- Estimate time to complete activities and prioritise tasks
- Relate to people from a range of social, cultural and ethnic backgrounds and varying physical and mental abilities
- Apply literacy skills to identify work requirements and process basic, relevant workplace documentation
- Apply communication skills to request advice, receive feedback and work with a team
- Apply problem solving skills to solve routine problems related to the workplace under direct supervision

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:
- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit may be assessed on the job or through simulation
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to human resources consistent with those outlined in the Assessment Guidelines

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Different models of work in the sector may include:
- Developmental
- Service delivery
- Client-centred
- Participatory
- Community development
- Community education
- Case management
- Working with families

Values and philosophies underpinning work in the sector may include:
- A holistic and client-centred approach (i.e. promotion of health and well-being; early identification of problems; delivery of appropriate services; commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of clients; commitment to empowering the client and ethical behaviour)

Commitment to access and equity principles must be demonstrated by:
- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers

Applicable legislation, codes and national standards may relate to:
- Relevant Commonwealth/state/territory legislation which affect organisation operation:
  - WHS
  - equal employment opportunity
  - industrial relations
  - anti-discrimination and diversity
- Australian standards, quality assurance and certification requirements
- Relevant industry codes of practice
- Award and enterprise agreements

Industry procedures may involve legislation relating to:
- Duty of care
- Emergency and evacuation procedures
- Privacy
- Workplace practices
- Human and civil rights

© Commonwealth of Australia, 2017
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights and responsibilities of employee may relate to:
- Obeying lawful orders
- Confidentiality and privacy rights
- Safety and care with respect to WHS requirements
- Knowing the terms and conditions of own employment
- Protection from discrimination and sexual harassment

Rights and responsibilities of employer may relate to:
- The right to dismiss you if you (see the Commonwealth Workplace Relations Act 1996):
  - commit a criminal offence
  - are negligent, careless or cause an accident
  - commit acts of disloyalty, such as revealing confidential information
- Responsibility for providing a safe environment free from discrimination and sexual harassment (see relevant state/territory and Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation)

Appropriate persons may include:
- Supervisors
- Colleagues
- Trainer
- Assessor

Opportunities for additional skills may include:
- Coaching, mentoring and/or supervision
- Formal/informal learning programs
- Internal/external training provision
- Work experience/exchange opportunities
- Personal study
- Career planning/development
- Workplace skills assessment
- Quality assurance assessments and recommendations
- Recognition of prior learning assessment
- Recognition of current competency assessment

Non-discriminatory attitudes may include:
- All contacts with other staff, clients or management
- Verbal or non-verbal communication
RANGE STATEMENT

Work and personal priorities relate to a work/life balance and may include work and other commitments including:

- School/homework
- Home/family/parties/friends
- Other jobs
- Culture
- Disability

Appropriate dress and behaviour may include:

- Personal dress, presentation and hygiene
- Demeanour in the workplace and attitude displayed to customers and other team members

And may vary according to:

- Organisation requirements
- Type of work
- Degree of client/customer contact

Additional skills may be acquired by:

- On-the-job coaching or mentoring
- Presentations/demonstrations
- Formal course participation
- Work experience

The organisation goals and objectives may be:

Stated or implied by the way the organisation conducts its business including:

- Organisation values and behaviours
- Flexibility, responsiveness and financial performance
- Work procedures and/or procedures manuals
- People management and interpersonal communication
- Business planning, marketing and customer service

Behaviour which contributes to a safe work environment may include:

- Discussing and negotiating problems and tasks with other team members
- Sharing knowledge and skills
- Identifying and reporting any risks or hazards
- Using business equipment according to instructions
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS305C Assist clients with medication

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS305B Assist clients with medication</td>
<td>CHCCS305C Assist clients with medication</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by care or support workers to assist clients with medication

The unit addresses the provision of physical assistance with medication or supporting clients with self medication in response to an assessed need identified by the client or their substitute decision-maker for assistance with medication, in accordance with the health/support/ care plan and in line with jurisdictional requirements

It may involve distribution and administration of prescribed and over the counter medications within a residential care facility, or in a home or community setting

Application of the Unit

Application

This function is undertaken in accordance with legislation, regulations, government policy and industry guidelines including:

- Relevant Commonwealth and State/territory legislation including the Drugs and Poisons Act, Disability Services Acts (Commonwealth and State) and/or Aged Care Act and associated regulations
- Organisation procedures and guidelines written in accordance with the relevant legislation and reflecting the scope of role and accountability for the level of worker in that jurisdiction

- Other relevant guidance such as the Australian Pharmaceutical Advisory Council (APAC):
  - Guidelines for medication management in residential aged care facilities and
  - Guiding principles for medication management in the community 2006

This function is undertaken in accordance with legislation, regulations, government policy and industry guidelines including:

- Relevant government policies and industry standards and guidelines
- Job role and job description which may include assistance with self medication and/or assistance with medication administration

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite

This unit must be assessed after achievement of the following related unit:

- HLTAP301B Recognise healthy body systems in a health care context

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Prepare to assist with medication

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Establish authority to provide assistance with administration of medication in line with organisation guidelines and protocols and jurisdictional legislative and regulatory requirements

1.2 Demonstrate an understanding of organisation policy and guidelines relating to assisting with medication within work role responsibilities

1.3 Identify lines of authority, accountability and actions to be taken to handle contingencies

1.4 Identify level and type of physical assistance required by the client to address their personal needs in taking medications

1.5 Identify level and type of supervision required by the client to self administer medications

1.6 Identify and report to a supervisor and/or health professional if there are any circumstances or changes in the client's condition or personal needs that may impact on assisting the client with their medication

1.7 Confirm that all forms of medication to be administered, including dose administration aids are complete, ready for distribution and up to date, confirm with supervisor and obtain authority to proceed

1.8 Confirm the procedure to be used for medication to be administered

1.9 Implement personal hygiene procedures according to organisation policy and procedure to minimise cross infection

1.10 Identify and implement duty of care procedures in relation to addressing individual client needs
ELEMENT

2. Prepare the client for assistance with administration of medication

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Implement all necessary checks to ensure the client and their medications are correctly identified according to organisation procedures and care plan

2.2 Clarify specific assistance required to address personal needs of each client in line with organisation procedures listed in the Range Statement and within work role responsibilities

2.3 Correctly identify and greet each client and prepare them for medication

2.4 Check client medications according to the procedures identified in the organisation guidelines defined in the Range Statement

2.5 Explain the administration procedure to the client in line with requirements and organisation procedures and ensure their needs are met

2.6 Prior to giving medication, observe the client to check for any physical or behavioural changes that may indicate a need to report to supervisor or health professional in accordance with organisation policies and procedures

2.7 Recognise circumstances when appropriate action is to report observed client health status rather than proceeding with administration of medication and seek advice of supervisor or health professional
ELEMENT

3. Assist/support client with administration of medication

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Remind and prompt client to take medication at correct time

3.2 Assist clients with administration of medications as required in accordance with legislation, organisation policies and the level of support needed as identified in their care/support plan

3.3 Supervise and observe clients when taking medication and confirm with them their ingestion or completion

3.4 Complete documentation/record of medication administration according to organisation procedures

3.5 Observe client for any changes in their condition listed in the Range Statement and seek assistance from a health professional, supervisor, medical officer or emergency services as indicated in the organisation's policies

3.6 Discard waste products according to organisation procedures and/or manufacturer's instructions
ELEMENT

4. Assist/support medication administration according to prescription/instructions

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Prepare medications and administer to the client or support their self-administration according to the specific requirements of the form of medication, in strict accordance with defined legislation and organisation procedures and written prescription instructions.

4.2 Implement all necessary checks to ensure the right medication is given at the right time, to the right person, in the right amount, via the right route.

4.3 Assist the client to take the medications as required, in accordance with their needs and documented procedures.

4.4 Supervise and observe the client when taking the medication and confirm with the client their ingestion or completion.

4.5 Implement documented procedures for medication not being administered or absorbed, such as through expelling/vomiting, refusal or damage to medication and report to supervisor and/or health professional.

4.6 Record all required details of medication administration and other details in the appropriate documents according to the legislation and organisation's procedures.

4.7 Observe the client for any possible medication effects listed in the Range Statement and report to a supervisor or health professional.

4.8 Collect used equipment, discarded medications/applicators and rubbish and place in appropriate/designated receptacle according to instructions.
ELEMENT

5. Comply with organisation's procedures for handling the range of issues/contingencies which may arise

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Report to supervisor and/or health professional all concerns with the administration of medication (such as: client refusal to take some or all medications, incomplete ingestion, missed or missing doses) according to organisation procedures and protocols

5.2 Identify, report, record and address individual's reactions to medication according to organisation guidelines and health professional's instructions

5.3 Clearly identify contaminated or out of date medication and implement organisation's procedures for ensuring safe and appropriate disposal

5.4 Identify, report and record changes in individual's condition, including within essential timeframes where relevant, according to organisation guidelines

5.5 Identify procedures to address/respond to changes in the client's condition or needs according to the organisation's guidelines

5.6 Promptly report to the supervisor or health professional any inconsistencies observed with the medication or client and take action in accordance with the organisation's procedures or health professional's instructions

5.7 Document all inconsistencies and address according to organisation guidelines and procedures

6. Complete the distribution and administration of medication

6.1 Clean and store unused and/or used medications, containers and administration aids in accordance with industry and the organisation's infection control guidelines

6.2 Follow the organisation's arrangements and procedures to replenish dose administration aids and supplies of medications

6.3 Securely store medication charts/care plans/treatment sheets according to organisation procedures to ensure safety, security and confidentiality

6.4 Follow the organisation's procedures to ensure medication storage complies with legislation and manufacturers instructions, maximises security and prevents medication deterioration
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include knowledge of:

- Administrative procedures for medications listed in the Range Statement
- Appropriate storage of medications
- Basic knowledge of body systems and how illness affects people in the context of their life stage and support needs (e.g. age, intellectual disability, sensory disability, etc)
- Basic knowledge of commonly used medicines/drugs, including prescribed and over the counter medications
- Basic knowledge of some of the terms and abbreviations used in relation to medication such as PRN
- Correct handling of medications
- How and when to use the equipment listed in the Range Statement
- Organisation procedures related to medication, including documentation of medication and the use of medication charts
- Relevant commonwealth and jurisdictional legislative, regulatory, policy and industry guidelines and requirements relating to the provision of assistance with medication administration
- Standard and additional infection control procedures
- The difference between prescribed medication and over the counter medication
- The expected effect of medications being administered, the consequences of incorrect use of medication and of main reasons for errors in medication administration
- Understanding of duty of care in assisting clients with medication administration within scope of own work role
- Understanding of potential hazards in the environment including use of appropriate cleaning and sanitising procedures in relation to medication residue in containers
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide assistance with administration of medications for clients in accordance with the client's individual support needs, including providing physical assistance to take the medication or supporting a client to self-administers medications. This assistance is to be provided in accordance with the worker's defined job role and always in compliance with legal and organisation policies and procedures including principles of best practice relating to:

  - all work to be in accordance with health professional's instructions
  - applying standard and additional precautions in infection control
  - correct documentation of medication administered
  - following instructions for assisting with administration of medication as per the client's health/care/support plan
  - following work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
  - medication provision including managing and reporting contingencies which may arise
  - observing, recording and reporting on the client's state of health and well being

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate the following skills, including specific levels of literacy and numeracy and physical capabilities as required to:

  - accurately use dose administration aids
  - correctly read and follow all documentation relevant to the administration of medication, including: client's health/care/support plan, information sheets, treatment sheets, instructions from pharmacy and health professional for administration and storage requirements of medications
  - discuss the self-medication process with the client and the support needed
  - negotiate the level and type of physical assistance to be provided to address the client's needs
  - observe, report and record discrepancies in the medication, instructions and administration procedures
  - recognise possible changes in condition of the client through observation or as communicated by the client
  - report and record any changes in client's condition as listed in the range statement before, during and after medication has been taken, to a supervisor and / or health professional so action can be taken
  - undertake required communication and documentation tasks
  - verbally report relevant details by telephone or face-to-face
  - Distribute medications in a timely, appropriate and effective way to clients with differing needs and according to the form of medication

  Take into account opportunities to address waste minimisation, environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues

- Use equipment listed in the Range Statement effectively and appropriately
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills.
- This unit must be assessed in the workplace under the normal range of work conditions.
- Prior to application of skills in the workplace, assessments should be undertaken in a simulated environment as an appropriate risk management strategy.
- Assessment must be conducted on more than one occasion to cover a variety of circumstances and medication types.
- Assessment must be undertaken by a person with higher order medication management/administration qualifications and current knowledge of practices relevant to medications in the health and community services sectors.
- Employers should endeavour to maintain currency of skills and knowledge in line with specific workplace and/or jurisdictional requirements, through annual workplace skills assessments.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Competency in this unit should be assessed using all the relevant resources commonly provided in community and residential care service settings
  Specific tools may include:
  - medication charts and documentation
  - medications and equipment
  - relevant policies and procedures manuals
  - other documentation relevant to the work context such as:
    - organisation charts
    - floor plans
    - instructions for the use of equipment
    - specific instructions for staff, reporting procedures, organisation documents
    - client list
    - relevant guidelines and legislation
- relevant equipment and cleaning agents currently used in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment: Assessment will include:

- Observation of work performance
- Supporting statement of supervisor/s
- Authenticated evidence of relevant work experience and/or formal/informal learning
- Case studies and scenarios as a basis for discussion of issues and strategies to safely support the administration of medication in specific work environments and communities
- Written assessment of functional English language, literacy and numeracy skills appropriate to the level of responsibility of the care worker
- Annual reconfirmation of the essential knowledge (including written or oral assessment) and competency by the employer within a performance management framework is desirable

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Health professional includes: Health professionals relevant to medication administration in specific area of work:

- Complementary medicine therapist (subject to government and organisation policies)
- Dentist
- Dietitian
- Medical practitioners (General Practitioners and medical specialists)
- Occupational therapist
- Pharmacist
- Physiotherapist
- Podiatrist
- Psychiatrist
- Psychologist
- Registered nurses

Commonwealth and State/ Territory legislation may include:

- Aged Care legislation
- Community care legislation and policies
- Disability Services legislation (Commonwealth and State)
- Drugs and Poison's Act and Regulations and other relevant State/territory legislation, regulations and policies
- Legislation, regulations and policies relevant to each State or Territory
- Nurses Registration legislation
RANGE STATEMENT

Authority to proceed refers to:

- Ensuring all organisation guidelines are followed
- Ensuring that all documentation in relation to a client's medication has been checked
- Ensuring that the prescribing health professional has documented all medications and instructions
- Ensuring the client has been assessed by a health professional for the level of assistance required and they or their decision-maker understands and can make the request for assistance
- Ensuring the client has up to date / current documentation on the level of assistance and support required in relation to medication

Supervisor may include:

- Health professional
- Supervision may be provided on site or through an on call system
- Supervisor or team leader with experience and appropriate qualification/s in administration of medication and/or assistance with self medication at a higher level than the worker

Required medications may include:

- Medications prescribed for a client by a health professional and dispensed by a pharmacist in dose administration aids
- Medications purchased over the counter and identified in the client's health/care/support plan or drug/treatment sheet
- PRN medications:
  - as prescribed and instructed by the health professional
  - in response to staff observation of need as identified in drug sheet and/or health/care/support plan and according to relevant legislation, organisation guidelines and clear written instructions from a health professional
  - in response to specific information provided by client, where the medication is documented in the client's health/care/support plan
RANGE STATEMENT

Industry standards include:

- Aged Care Accreditation Standards and policies
- Disability Service Standards and policies
- Home and Community Care National Service Standards and policies
- State or Territory government policies

Required equipment may include:

- Administration aid / medication pack
- Applicator for lotions / ointments
- Aprons
- Container for dirty spoons/dishes
- Cotton wool / gauze
- Drug/treatment sheet or case record
- Gloves
- Health/care/support plan
- Key to medication storage/cupboard/area
- Measuring cups
- Medicine dishes/cups
- Mortar and pestle
- Nebuliser / spacer
- Paper towels and tissues
- Spoons
- Tablet divider
- Tea towel
- Tumblers
- Water jug and cup

Organisation guidelines for client identification may include:

- Actions to be taken if a client who is self-administering fails to identify themselves correctly
- Confirmation from nursing/care staff or client's family or friends
- Referral to identification such as photographic identification of client in client cards
- Response by client
- Visual recognition
RANGE STATEMENT

Organisation policy for checking medications with clients who are self-medicating may include:

- Confirming the following with the client:
  - the amount of medication (e.g. number of tablets or amount of gel)
  - the time for self-medicating (e.g. once a day with food)
  - the route of self-medicating (e.g. by mouth)
  - any alterations authorised by the pharmacist, registered nurse or health professional (e.g. crush tablets or mix with water or food)
  - Checking the medication for expiry date and any obvious discrepancies such as colour changes, disintegration or deterioration

Dose administration aids may include:

- Blister packs - single dose packs and multi-dose packs
- Dosettes
- Sachets

Organisation guidelines for checking medication may include:

- Checking dose administration aids for evidence of tampering
- Checking medication is free from contamination or deterioration
- Checking that administration, instructions and the identity of the client correlate with documentation
- Checking that discrepancies in administration are documented appropriately
- Checking the procedure for infection control, storage and disposal

Prepare the client for assistance with administration of medication may include:

- Discussing the procedure
- Encouraging client's participation
- Adjusting posture and position
- Seeking assistance from other staff if available and required
- Providing privacy
- Appropriate exposure of treatment area (in the case of lotion application)
RANGE STATEMENT

Circumstances when appropriate action is to report observed client health status rather than proceeding to administer medication may include but are not limited to:

- Changes in condition of the client that must be immediately reported
- Client refusal
- Client unconscious

Current needs may include:

- Assistance in securing client cooperation
- Posture or positioning of client including physically supporting the client
- Provision of approved PRN order according to relevant legislation, organisation guidelines and doctors orders

Prepare medications may include:

- Assistance provided in taking medication by grinding or dividing tablets where there are clearly written instructions
- Dissolving powder medication in water
- Measuring liquid medications into measuring cup / spoon
- Placing medication in nebuliser / spacer
- Placing tablets/capsules from dose administration aids into a medicine cup

Necessary checks include:

- Checking client details
- Checking for authorisation
- Checking medication against the requirements
- Checking the chart
- Checking the client's health/care/support plan
- Checking the treatment sheets

References may include:

- Drugs hotline/Drug Information Line
- MIMS annual or drug reference guide
RANGE STATEMENT

Forms of medication may include:
- Capsules
- Ear-drops
- Eye-drops
- Inhalants
- Liquid
- Lotion and cream
- Nose-drops
- Ointments
- Patches
- Powder
- Tablets
- Wafers

Possible changes in condition of the client that must be immediately reported to a supervisor or health professional may include, but are not limited to:
- Anything that appears different from the client's usual state
- Blurred vision
- Changes in behaviour
- Changes to airway (e.g. choking), changes to breathing (including slowed, fast or absent breathing), changes in person's colour (e.g. pale or flushed appearance or bluish tinge), or changes to circulation (including unexpected drowsiness, loss of consciousness, and absence of pulse)
- Confusion
- Feelings of dizziness
- Headache
- Inflammation or redness
- Nausea and vomiting
- Others as advised by health professional
- Rash
- Skin tone
- Slurring of speech
- Swelling
RANGE STATEMENT

Incomplete ingestion includes:
- Ejection of medication
- Inability or difficulties in swallowing tablets, capsules or liquids
- Refusal to take medications
- Vomiting

Document all inconsistencies may include:
- Adverse drug incident reports
- Client's record of medications according to organisation guidelines
- Incident reports
- Medical charts
- Progress notes

Medication storage procedures include:
- Acting in accordance with defined job role
- Locking and storing drugs according to organisation policy and procedure
- Referring to instructions from health professional/manufacturer

Industry guidelines may include:
- Australian Pharmaceutical Advisory Council (APAC):
  - Guidelines for medication management in residential aged care facilities and
  - Guiding principles for medication management in the community 2006
- State and Territory legislation, policies and guidelines
- Organisation policies and procedures
- WHS industry guides
RANGE STATEMENT

Physical assistance provided to administer medication or support self medication may include:

- Discussing the process and addressing any likely difficulties
- Confirming the time and type of medication
- Establishing the type and level of support required by the client to take / receive the medication
- Adjusting posture or position
- Opening bottles or dose administration aids
- Removing tablets or capsules from dose administration aids
- Measuring the amount of liquid required into a medicine cup or a cream onto the affected area
- Crushing or dividing tablets where indicated by pharmacist or health professional
- Placing medication into nebulisers or spacers
- Dissolving medication in water
- Ensuring that fluids are available to assist with swallowing
- Providing privacy

NB Medication dose must be prepared by a pharmacist

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS308B Provide first point of contact

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to follow organisation guidelines in the exchange of routine information with clients, to establish a priority of needs, and identify and to respond to their immediate needs including the providing information about services available

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to service delivery in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Greet and observe client</td>
<td>1.1  Listen to and acknowledge client in a pleasant and accepting way</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2  Respond to distressed people in a relaxed and calm manner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3  Report observations about client to appropriate person/s within the organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Collect routine information from the client</td>
<td>2.1  Collect and document identifying information in accordance with organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2  Discuss reasons for contact with the service with client in accordance with organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3  Maintain client confidentiality in accordance with organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4  Explain and observe client rights and responsibilities in accordance with organisation policy</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
3. Identify priority of need for service

   3.1 Refer client to appropriate persons according to urgency and nature of need and organisation guidelines

   3.2 Assess personal safety of self, client and others in accordance with organisation procedures and policies and within own role

   3.3 Seek assistance as appropriate

4. Provide information to clients about the service and other relevant services

   4.1 Provide client with current, relevant and culturally appropriate information on the service and other relevant services and what each provides

   4.2 Assist clients to contact other agencies/services as appropriate to obtain further information
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Stigma/prejudice
- Local community needs
- Normal behaviour/unusual behaviour/impact of cognitive impairment on behaviour
- Agency role, agency target group in the community
- Basic knowledge of culturally specific behaviour
- Agency procedures and policies relating to provision of first point of contact for potential clients
- Understanding of relationships between service providers
- Other services and networks
- Requirements for client registration
- Waiting times for the service
- Organisation polices and procedures for confidentiality
- Organisation storage and recording systems
- Organisation activities and timetables
- Organisation requirements for monitoring services and/or attendance
- Clients rights and responsibilities in the organisation
- Workers' rights and responsibilities in the organisation
- Knowledge specific to working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- Knowledge specific to working with people at risk of self-harm

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of staff responsibilities in the organisation and own role
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

within this, in terms of obtaining information from clients and referring them to workers within the organisation

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate a non-judgemental approach to working with people
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - reporting skills
  - observation skills
  - cultural sensitivity
  - verbal and non-verbal communication
  - liaison/referral
  - confidentiality
  - resolving aggression
  - basic negotiation
  - safety awareness
  - predicting violence
  - listening and referral

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider the range of clients and situations encountered in the
EVIDENCE GUIDE

workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Observations about client may include:
- Orientation to person, place, time
- Level of coherence
- Ability to communicate
- Unusual behaviour/communication
- Aggression - physical or verbal
- Signs of physical injury/distress
- Levels of personal distress and anxiety

Appropriate persons may include:
- Immediate supervisor
- Case manager
- Clinician
- Representative of other services

Identifying information may include:
- Name
- Contact information

Information may be collected:
- By speaking to others
- From written sources
- By observation
- From inside the organisation
- From external sources
- From clients
RANGE STATEMENT

Service may include:

- Making an appointment to see someone in the agency/organisation
- Providing information on existing services
- Referral e.g. doctor, financial counsellor, women’s refuge, youth services

Safety takes into account:

- Body language
- Tone of voice
- Location
- Proximity to other people
- Stress/anxiety
- Aggression

Assistance may be sought from:

- Other staff
- Consumer groups
- Clinical mental health services
- Acquired brain injury services
- Specialists
- Other community based support services
- Hospitals
- Ambulance
- Police

Response to requests for information will take into consideration the inquirer’s:

- Language and style
- Literacy level
- Cultural factors
- Previous contact
- Disabilities

Provide information is:

- Current
- Relevant
- Culturally and linguistically appropriate
- Supportive of the reduction of stigma and discrimination
RANGE STATEMENT

Information on the service and other relevant services may be delivered in the form of:

- Informal discussion
- Leaflets/brochures
- Correspondence/written reports
- Audio-visual
- Newsletters/circulars
- Published material
- Posters/graphic representation

Information may be given about the following types of services:

- Carer/consumer groups
- Government and non-government services e.g. Health, accommodation, education/training, employment, social/recreation, counselling, financial, self-help, advocacy, transport, torture/trauma
- People with relevant special qualities, knowledge and/or expertise
- Government allowances, pensions and benefits
- Program activities/timetables
- Clinical mental health services
- Acquired brain injury services
- Cross cultural

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS310A Support inclusive practice in the workplace

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for individuals to apply inclusive practices and to work effectively with a diverse range of people.

It includes recognising and valuing individual differences and working effectively with diverse clients and colleagues.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit applies to a range of community service work contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Recognise and value individual differences | 1.1 Explore diversity to identify attributes that may be of benefit to the organisation, clients and colleagues
| | 1.2 Assist colleagues and clients to acknowledge and use their diverse attributes to contribute to work teams and delivery of services
| | 1.3 Use work practices that are inclusive and benefit service delivery outcomes, community relationships and the work environment
| | 1.4 Identify and respond to client diversity in accordance with legislation, policy and guidelines
| 2. Support the principles and practices of inclusivity in work with colleague and client diversity | 2.1 Develop and use a range of communication styles to respect and reflect the inclusive practices of the organisation
| | 2.2 Comply with the requirements of legislation, policies and guidelines relating to workplace diversity to demonstrate inclusive practice through personal conduct in the workplace
| | 2.3 Seek and act upon feedback from colleagues and supervisors to continuously improve personal effectiveness in working to maintain inclusivity
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Requirements of anti-discrimination legislation
- Principles and practices of inclusivity
- Understanding of the benefits of diversity of the organisation
- Principles and practices of cultural awareness and cross-cultural communication
- How to locate legislation, policies and guidelines related to diversity and inclusivity
- Direct and indirect discrimination, such as dress codes that exclude certain groups (e.g. requiring male staff to be clean shaven would indirectly discriminate against Sikhs)
- Own cultural assumptions and their effect on work practices and behaviour
- Legislative definitions of diversity and inclusivity
- Principles and practices of cultural awareness and cross-cultural communication
- Equal employment opportunity, equity and diversity principles
- The benefits of workplace diversity and inclusivity

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use a range of communication styles to suit different audiences and purposes
- Communicate effectively with people from diverse backgrounds
- Respond to diversity, including gender and disability
- Seek feedback and act upon it

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE
These include the ability to:

- Access and read formal documents such as legislation and polices related to educational work environments
- Access legislation and codes of conduct electronically or in hard copy

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider the range of clients and situations encountered in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment requires access to:
  - appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace environment for assessment
  - relevant organisation policy, protocols and procedures relating to inclusive practice
  - legislation, regulations, policies and guidelines
  - definitions and benefits of workplace diversity
  - organisation’s values and codes of conduct for inclusive practices
  - organisation’s procedures and protocols
  - current information on diversity issues

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Observations about client may include:

- Orientation to person, place, time
- Level of coherence
- Ability to communicate
- Unusual behaviour/communication
- Aggression - physical or verbal
- Signs of physical injury/distress
- Levels of personal distress and anxiety
RANGE STATEMENT

Diversity may include:

- Age
- Cultural background
- Disability
- Educational level
- Ethnicity
- Expertise
- Family responsibilities
- Gender
- Interests
- Interpersonal approach
- Language
- Learning styles
- Life experience
- Marital status
- Personality
- Physical capability
- Political orientation
- Race
- Religious belief
- Sexual orientation
- Sexual identity
- Socioeconomic background
- Thinking styles
- Work experience
- Working styles

Colleagues may include:

- Peers
- Trainees
- Support staff
- Work experience personnel
- Supervisors and management
- External stakeholders including parents, community groups etc.
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislation, policy and guidelines may include:

- Racial Discrimination Act 1975
- Sex Discrimination Act 1984
- Disability Discrimination Act 1992
- Workplace Relations Act 1996
- Privacy Act 1988
- State/territory legislation addressing diversity issues
- Public sector management acts
- Workplace diversity guidelines
- Codes of conduct/ethics
- The organisation's plans strategies and policies relating to diversity
- Community guidelines, policy and practices that may exist within specific cultural or ethnic communities

Communication styles may include:

- Pace of delivery varied to audience needs
- Clear articulation
- Checking that the message is understood
- Use of eye contact or no eye contact, dependant on the situation
- Non-verbal communication techniques e.g. gestures, facial expressions, signing, positioning
- Written communication in a language other than English
- Speaking in a language other than English
- Use of telephone translation services
- Use of Braille materials
- Use of pictures/diagrams

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS311D Deliver and monitor services to clients

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS311C Deliver and monitor services to clients</td>
<td>CHCCS311D Deliver and monitor services to clients</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply defined organisation guidelines in identifying client needs and matching them to services provided by the organisation

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply to service delivery in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify client needs by collecting routine information</td>
<td>1.1 Identify client needs and rights, and assessed opportunities for a targeted service to meet them</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify and select appropriate service to meet client needs within the scope of area of responsibility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Where it is required, take appropriate immediate action to address urgent needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify special needs of clients and consider in providing and targeting services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Identify potential areas of difficulty in client service delivery, and take appropriate actions to address them</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Maintain records of client interaction in accordance with organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Deliver client service

2.1 Establish appropriate rapport with clients to enable high quality service delivery

2.2 Ensure all dealings with clients are consistent with accepted practice, duty of care responsibilities and the code of conduct of the organisation

2.3 Plan and carry out individual work to ensure client service delivery is prompt and to the standard defined by the organisation

2.4 Ensure service delivered to clients upholds the reputation of the organisation and is consistent with relevant statutory or legislative requirements

2.5 Collect and maintain required information about client needs, issues, rights and the range of services available

3. Review client service

3.1 Monitor procedural aspects of service delivery and maintain records as required

3.2 Implement mechanisms to collect, record, analyse and report client service feedback

3.3 Modify client service as required within the area of responsibility
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Principles of effective client service delivery
- Specific services available and provided
- Differences in client needs and how to accommodate these needs in service delivery

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Establish rapport with clients
- Incorporate requirements of a diverse range of clients into service delivery

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply oral communication skills required to fulfil the job role in the organisation/service
  Oral communication skills may include listening, asking questions, providing encouragement
  Language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
- Apply literacy competence required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service, and according to the support available in the workplace
  Language used may be English or community language depending on the client group
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one occasion but must include a range of client needs

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from a workplace environment
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Client service delivery includes:
- The full range of services offered by the organisation including direct care and support, provision of information, referral to relevant organisations and application of existing organisation services

Clients may include:
- Self referring or referred
- Individual members of the public
- Other organisations and community groups
- Other work areas of the organisation
- Individual members of the organisation
- Senior management

Special client needs could relate to:
- Disabilities
- Language
- Gender
- Culture
- Age
- Remote location

Service delivery is to occur within:
- Protocol
- Duty of care responsibility
- Codes of conduct and ethical performance
- Organisation standards
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS312A Use electronic learning materials

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit deals with the skills and knowledge required to provide basic organisation and support of learning through the use of electronic learning materials.

It involves the worker constructing and sustaining support processes to allow for learner engagement and management.

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit applies to work in a variety of learning contexts in the community sector.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Prepare learning environment for use of electronic materials</td>
<td>1.1 Identify and access organisation resources to support learning with electronic materials</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Adapt and accommodate the management of learning programs to the use of electronic materials</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify support mechanisms for learners</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Organise access to electronic learning materials according to organisation requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Locate information to deal with potential contingencies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Support the use of electronic learning materials</td>
<td>2.1 Confirm management processes for electronic learning materials with supervisor</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Obtain access to required technology according to individual requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Provide assistance to learners through a range of support processes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Use a management system to track learner progress in using electronic learning materials</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Maintain records/checklists of learner's progress to identify any learning difficulties</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Approved

© Commonwealth of Australia, 2017
SkillsIQ
ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3. Mentor learners' technical competencies to effectively use electronic materials

3.1 Use file management processes to enable the effective use of electronic learning materials

3.2 Use plug-ins, drivers and utility software as required to support learning activities

3.3 Use appropriate communication technologies in taking an electronic approach to learning

4. Support the review of the effectiveness of electronic materials

4.1 Obtain feedback from learners on their level of satisfaction with electronic materials using set criteria

4.2 Gather feedback from other stakeholders on the use of electronic materials within the organisation

4.3 Document identified areas for follow up or improvement and recommended changes in accordance with organisation requirements

4.4 Use feedback to provide reports to management and developers of electronic learning materials
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Relevant legislation that affects organisation operations, especially in regard to occupational health and safety and environmental issues, equal opportunity, anti-discrimination and copyright
- Use of the internet
- Technology requirements for use of electronic learning materials
- Culture of electronic materials use versus classroom based learning
- Barriers to learners successfully using electronic materials
- Integrating use of electronic learning materials into organisation culture and processes

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Support learning using technology
- Use basic computer skills, including use of main programs and software endorsed by the organisation
- Use communication skills to gain feedback from learners and other stakeholders and to request support
- Use literacy skills to document learning outcomes
- Use problem solving for differing hardware/software profiles/hardware malfunctions

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit could be assessed either on the job or off the job through an appropriate workplace simulation for a range of age groups and a range of conditions over a number of assessment situations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment requires access to a range of opportunities defined in the range Statement, including:
  - access to appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic workplace environment for assessment
  - relevant school/centre policy, protocols and procedures
  - electronic learning materials
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Organisation resources may include:

- Equipment
- Electronic resources such as cds, dvds, memory cards, software, online courses
- Instruction manuals
- Supervisor's instructions
RANGE STATEMENT

Management of learning programs may include:

- Introduction to new work practices
- Introduction to new technology
- Application of new information
- Development and update of existing knowledge and skills
- Development of competencies to access and use information and communication

Electronic learning materials may include:

- Virtual schooling
- Online courses
- Learning objects
- E-learning programs
- Interactive software
- Computer games

Organisation requirements may include:

- Loan schedules
- Mail schedules
- Responsibility for replacement or repairs
- Purchasing requirements
- Materials management processes packaging
- Communication procedures
- Ordering processes

Contingencies may include:

- Technological failure
- Inaccurate or irrelevant electronic content
- Difficulty of content within electronic materials
- Insufficient dedicated time available
- Management/business priorities taking precedence
- Differing hardware/software profiles
RANGE STATEMENT

Support processes for learners may include:
- Communication with support staff
- Online tutor/facilitator
- Workplace mentor/coach/buddy
- Technical experts/help desk
- Learning/assessment partners
- Print-based materials
- Off-site learning environment

Communication technologies may include:
- Email
- Teleconferences
- Discussion boards
- File transfer protocol

Set criteria may relate to:
- Content
- Presentation
- Technologies
- Team outcomes
- Personal outcomes
- Organisation outcomes

Stakeholders may include:
- Management
- HR personnel
- Teachers
- Learners/students
- Support services
- Others in workgroups/teams
- Host school

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS314B Deliver services to meet personal needs of clients

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to undertake assessments of clients’ needs and match to services available

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to service delivery in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
--- | ---
1. Assess client needs to ensure they can be met | 1.1 Use appropriate language and interpersonal skills to ensure the diverse needs of clients are identified
1.2 Employ appropriate mechanisms to ensure that all relevant client information is collected
1.3 Seek additional information from specialists as required to assist in assessment of clients
1.4 Ensure all dealings with clients are consistent with organisation standards and practices
1.5 Record and store information collected in accordance with organisation procedures
1.6 Document information about client needs in accordance with accepted organisation procedures to enable professional decisions about provision of relevant services to best address client needs
1.7 Assess client information for complexity, urgency and eligibility to identify priorities for service delivery
1.8 Provide clients with all relevant information about the range of services required and available to them
1.9 Base decisions about client needs on full range of available relevant information
ELEMENT

2. Identify and provide for the delivery of services to meet client needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Identify services which match to client needs from within and outside the organisation

2.2 Establish and maintain relevant networks to ensure referral of clients to appropriate services

2.3 Assist clients to access targeted services from within and outside the organisation

2.4 Provide clients with information about the services available to them in accordance with organisation procedures

2.5 Work within scope of responsibility, to ensure clients have access to services that meet their needs

2.6 Ensure decisions about targeting client services are based on up to date information about the client and available services

2.7 Identify own limitations in assessing and addressing client needs and, where appropriate, seek assistance from colleagues, senior staff and experts in the area

2.8 Make appropriate referrals to specialist services based on the assessment of client needs
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Accepted organisation procedures, systems and practice for client assessment and allocation of services
- Accepted practices for delivery of services to particular clients
- Issues affecting particular client groups including:
  - income/economic
  - health
  - social
  - community support and interaction
  - education and training
  - employment
  - impact of assessment
  - client needs
  - local services available for clients

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Administer organisations’ instruments and mechanisms to assess client needs
- Select appropriate services from a range of services provided by the organisation to match client needs
- Select from other services available in the broader community to address client needs
- Develop and maintain appropriate networks
- Provide referrals to relevant organisations or providers of specialist services
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply oral communication skills required to develop rapport with client
  - Oral communication skills may include listening, asking questions, providing encouragement
  - Language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
- Apply literacy competency required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service
  Language used may be English or community language depending on service/organisation
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - High level interpersonal skills
  - Analysis and judgement
  - Risk management

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include a number of clients
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients include:
- Individual members of the public
- Referred or self referred
- People with specific needs seeking access to services

Language and interpersonal skills include:
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Means for communication with people in particular communities
- Communication with different age and gender groups

Client services include:
- Income, financial and community support services
- Employment services
- Access to recreation services
- Care and support services
- Transport and communication services

Complexity includes:
- Combinations of physical, social, economic and personal factors

Information collection mechanisms include:
- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from service providers

Networks include:
- Specialist providers in the community services and health areas including physical assessments
- Specialist services to assist communication with client and identification of their needs
- Providers of any of the identified client services required by clients of the organisation
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS400C Work within a relevant legal and ethical framework

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS400B Work within a relevant legal and ethical framework</td>
<td>CHCCS400C Work within a relevant legal and ethical framework</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Minor changes to range statement. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to work within a legal and ethical framework that supports duty of care requirements.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit is to be assessed in relation to the specific legal and ethical context of the work role/s and requirements to which it applies.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Demonstrate an understanding of legislation and common law relevant to work role | 1.1 Demonstrate in all work, an understanding of the legal responsibilities and obligations of the work role
1.2 Demonstrate key statutory and regulatory requirements relevant to the work role
1.3 Fulfil duty of care responsibilities in the course of practice
1.4 Accept responsibility for own actions
1.5 Maintain confidentiality
1.6 Where possible, seek the agreement of the client prior to providing services |
| 2. Follow identified policies and practices | 2.1 Perform work within identified policies, protocols and procedures
2.2 Contribute to the review and development of policies and protocols as appropriate
2.3 Work within position specifications and role responsibilities
2.4 Seek clarification when unsure of scope of practice as defined by position description or specific work role requirements
2.5 Seek clarification of unclear instructions |
ELEMENT
3. Work ethically

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Protect the rights of the client when delivering services
3.2 Use effective problem-solving techniques when exposed to competing value systems
3.3 Ensure services are available to all clients regardless of personal values, beliefs, attitudes and culture
3.4 Recognise potential ethical issues and ethical dilemmas in the workplace and discuss with an appropriate person
3.5 Recognise unethical conduct and report to an appropriate person
3.6 Work within boundaries applicable to work role
3.7 Demonstrate effective application of guidelines and legal requirements relating to disclosure and confidentiality
3.8 Demonstrate awareness of own personal values and attitudes and take into account to ensure non-judgemental practice
3.9 Recognise, avoid and/or address any conflict of interest

4. Recognise and respond when client rights and interests are not being protected

4.1 Support the client and/or their advocate/s to identify and express their concerns
4.2 Refer client and/or their advocate/s to advocacy services if appropriate
4.3 Follow identified policy and protocols when managing a complaint
4.4 Recognise witnessed signs consistent with financial, physical, emotional, sexual abuse and neglect of the client and report to an appropriate person as required
4.5 Recognise and respond to cultural/linguistic religious diversity, for example providing interpreters where necessary
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate knowledge of:

- Distinction between ethical and legal problems
- Importance of ethics in practice
- Importance of principles and practices to enhance sustainability in the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
- Work health and safety (WHS) requirements
- Outline of common legal issues relevant to the workplace
- Overview of relevant legislation in the sector and jurisdictions
- Principles and practices for upholding the rights of the client
- Principles and practices of confidentiality
- Relevant standards and codes of practice in the sector
- Rights and responsibilities of clients
- Rights and responsibilities of workers
- Specific principles underpinning duty of care and associated legal requirements
- Strategies for addressing common ethical issues
- Strategies for contributing to the review and development of policies and protocols
- Strategies for managing complaints

The candidate must also be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role, such as knowledge of:

- Overview of the legal system
- Principles and practices for upholding the rights of the children and young people
- Principles of ethical decision-making
- Reporting mechanisms for suspected abuse of a client
- Strategies for managing abuse of a client
- Types of abuse experienced by client (including systems abuse)
- Types of law

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate understanding of and adherence to own work role and responsibilities
- Follow organisation policies, protocols and procedures
- Work within legal and ethical frameworks

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Apply reading and writing skills required to fulfil work role in a safe manner and as specified by the organisation
- Apply oral communication skills required to fulfil work role in a safe manner and as specified by the organisation
- Apply problem solving skills that require negotiation to resolve problems of a difficult nature within organisation protocols
- Consult with a variety of stakeholders in order to achieve service objectives

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - An appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic workplace setting where assessment can take place
  - Relevant organisation policy, protocols and procedures

Method of assessment may include:
- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects
- Case study and scenario analysis
- Questioning
- Role play simulation
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients may include but is not limited to:

- Children and families using children's services
- Children and young people
- Individuals living in government funded services and/or institutions to 'clients'
- Individuals living in residential aged care environments
- Individuals living in residential disability environments
- Individuals living in the community
- Job seekers
- People seeking advice and assistance
- Prospective individuals to the service or services

Contexts of work role may include but is not limited to:

- Work undertaken in:
  - client's own dwelling
  - independent living accommodation
  - residential aged care facilities
  - residential disability facilities
  - community centres
  - children's services centres
  - carer's home
- Work in the context of:
  - community, government or private agency or organisation
  - services delivered as a sole trader
  - providing telephone advice and assistance
RANGE STATEMENT

Identified policies, protocols and procedures refer to:

- Guidelines and practices developed to address legal, ethical and regulatory requirements, including:
  - formal, documented guidelines of an organisation
  - informal practices used by a small organisation or individual owner/operator

Key statutory and regulatory requirements may include those related to:

- Aged care standards
- Building standards
- Care and education of young children
- Child protection and guardianship legislation
- Criminal acts
- Disability standards
- Discrimination and harassment
- Equal employment opportunities
- Freedom of information
- Health records legislation
- International and national standards
- Mental health legislation
- Pharmaceutical benefits
- Poisons and therapeutics
- Privacy legislation
- Public health
- Registration and practice of health professionals
- Residential and community services
- Restrictive practices
- WHS

Report may be, and include:

- Verbal:
  - telephone
  - face-to-face
- Non-verbal (written):
  - progress reports
  - case notes
  - incident reports
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights may include:
- Access to services
- Confidentiality
- Dignity
- Freedom of association
- Informed choice
- Privacy
- Right to express ideas and opinions
- To an agreed standard of care
- To lodge a complaint

Rights are detailed in:
- Accreditation standards
- Industry and organisation codes of conduct, practice and ethics
- Industry and organisation service standards
- International and national charters
- Legislation

Principles of access and equity may include:
- Creation of a client orientated culture
- Non-discriminatory approach to all individuals using or accessing the service
- Respect for individual differences

Appropriate person may include:
- Advocates/family members
- Colleagues
- External agencies (complaints and advocacy services, professional registering authorities, child protection authorities)
- Health professionals
- Law enforcement officers
- Legally appointed guardian
- Member of senior management

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS401C Facilitate responsible behaviour

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS401B Facilitate responsible behaviour</td>
<td>CHCCS401C Facilitate responsible behaviour</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Changes to terminology ‘challenging/difficult behaviour’ to ‘behaviours of concern’. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to respond to behaviours of concern and support responsibility for behaviour management and change

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Monitor behaviour of the client</td>
<td>1.1 Use formal and informal methods to observe and monitor client behaviour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Assess behaviours of concern for potential conflict and use a range of preventative and defusing strategies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Evaluate client behaviour and interactions in a fair, objective and consistent manner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Ensure decisions on action are consistent with all available evidence and organisation practice/ procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Seek specialist advice and make referrals where required</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Use communication strategies to de-escalate conflict

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Conduct interactions with clients in a fair, just, humane, equitable and positive manner

2.2 Use communication strategies with individuals for effective interaction and problem solving

2.3 Consider cultural sensitivities in communication techniques and adapt style and language to accommodate different cultural values and practices

2.4 Identify potential causes of conflict and use a range of appropriate and effective defusing responses

2.5 Use negotiation techniques to divert and minimise aggressive behaviour

2.6 Use negotiation to examine cause and effect and encourage appropriate responsibility and accountability for behaviour and its outcomes

3. Respond to behaviours of concern

3.1 Challenge behaviours of concern and outline options and opportunities to change clearly and with positive encouragement

3.2 Confirm the implications of continuing behaviours of concern clearly, calmly and objectively

3.3 Use techniques according to organisation’s procedures to ensure personal safety and safety of clients/colleagues.

3.4 If physical force must be used to ensure safety, apply the minimum level of force required and report in accordance with policies and procedures

3.5 Select strategies to address aggressive and unacceptable behaviour, that are accurate, clear and comply with procedures

3.6 Select strategies and responses for their potential to provide role models and examples of confident assertive behaviour

3.7 Carry out intervention strategies according to an analysis of the situation and organisation policies and procedures.

3.8 Report incidents in a manner that complies with policy, procedures and legislation
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- The organisation's policies, guidelines and procedures relating to responses to behaviours of concern, safety and security, delegations, duty of care, including dealing with conflict and critical incidents
- Principles of effective communication for conflict management
- Defusing and negotiation strategies
- Specific statutory requirements related to treatment of clients with special needs and requiring special support
- Reporting procedures and practice, internal and external
- Support and referral services and specialists
- Principles of responding to human behaviour relating to violence, aggression and suicide
- Principal cultural practices and customs of the client population and their impact on behaviour in the particular environment

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply organisation policies and procedures related to conflict and critical incidents
- Check the accuracy of information from different sources
- Identify the causes of aggression/violence
- Use a range of conflict management strategies
- Apply communication and negotiation skills under pressure
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment of this competency will require human resources consistent with those outlined in the Assessment Guidelines

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The application of this unit will depend on the work roles and responsibilities and the nature and requirements of the work environment
RANGE STATEMENT

Client may be:
- Individuals or
- Groups

Communication strategies will include examples from the following:
- Use of positive assertive language
- Non-verbal gestures / body language
- Constructive questioning/listening
- Tone of voice
- Awareness of cultural values and sensitivity
- Defusing verbal aggression
- Negotiating agreements

Behaviours of concern include a significant selection of examples of individual and group behaviour from the following:
- Changing behaviour patterns
- Personal friction
- Expressions of anxiety and high level concern
- Serious and chronic complaints
- Provocative/threatening behaviour
- Intent to harm self
- Intent to harm others
- Forceful refusal to cooperate
- Abusive language
- Apathy, loss of interest, withdrawal
- Rejection of family, friends, support networks
- Threatened suicide
- Irrational behaviour
- Hyperactivity/depression
- Racism
- Bullying behaviour
- Behaviour consistent with mental health conditions
- Behaviour consistent with developmental issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Referrals will include at least four examples from different support:
- Social/welfare worker
- Psychologists
- Culturally identified support workers
- Medical
- Drug and alcohol services
- Behaviour management programs
- Mental Health Teams
- Registered Nurses
- Counsellors
- Supervisor
- Religious/spiritual advisers
- Program coordinator
- Case manager
- Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Liaison
- Welfare organisations
- Legal advisers
- Family
- Personal and community support networks
- Emergency/incident response

Report will include work relevant selection from:
- Incident reports
- Case notes
- Special reports
- Inquiries
- Reports required by or used by courts and judicial processes

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS403C Provide brief intervention

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS403B Provide brief intervention</td>
<td>CHCCS403C Provide brief intervention</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify, implement and monitor brief intervention strategies for use in a variety of community health contexts.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Explain what brief intervention is and how it can be effectively used | 1.1 Define features of brief interventions and give examples
1.2 Explain reasons for using brief interventions, who can use them and when they may be appropriate
1.3 Describe stages of behaviour change model, including elements of pre-contemplation, contemplation, action and maintenance
1.4 Describe step by step process for undertaking brief interventions |
| 2. Assess a client's need for intervention and the type of brief intervention required | 2.1 Assess client's need for intervention
2.2 Elicit issue/s of concern and determine client's stage in his/her decision to change
2.3 Identify resources required to support the brief intervention
2.4 Identify and plan appropriate brief intervention strategies to match client need |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3. Practise and use brief intervention strategies which match a client's stage of change | 3.1 Raise awareness of the health issue with a client who is not contemplating change
3.2 Conduct brief motivational interview with a client who is contemplating change
3.3 Support client who expresses motivation to change in exploring choices, setting goals and identifying relapse prevention strategies
3.4 Take opportunities to support and encourage a client who has made a change
3.5 For a client who has lapsed or relapsed into prior behaviour, identify current needs and sources of assistance, and give support as appropriate |
| 4. Monitor brief intervention activities | 4.1 Keep notes are kept in the client's file in accordance with organisation policies and procedures
4.2 Ensure client's file notes include the client's stage of decision-making on each occasion
4.3 Maintain confidentiality and security of information
4.4 Regularly review client's progress or outcomes
4.5 Discuss outcomes with the client in an appropriate manner
4.6 Discuss the use of brief intervention as a public health strategy with others in the organisation within the context of service evaluation procedures |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Brief intervention scope and process
- The wider physical, social, community and cultural environment within which the client lives
- Knowledge of facts and approaches relating to nutrition, environmental health, use of alcohol, tobacco and other drugs as relevant to the client and worker context
- Options to support behaviour change
- Referral resources
- Importance of confidentiality and privacy
- Organisation policies and procedures for record-keeping and security
- Workplace code of conduct or code of practice
- Work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Consistently complete course tasks and materials, workshop notes, diagrams and/or lists
- Orally present accurate information about brief intervention
- Undertake practical demonstration and/or role play
  - In the case of workplace delivery, elements of brief intervention could be practised sequentially
  - For example, starting by assessing intention to change in several clients, then doing more harm reduction for pre-contemplators, and so on to build up confidence and competence
- Complete log book of cases, including self assessment
- Complete client file notes and records

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate interpersonal communication, including ability to listen, observe, speak and behave in a respectful and sensitive manner
  - it is necessary for the worker's manner to be non-judgemental and non-confrontational
  - this ability is crucial as the health information shared may be confronting to the client
  - language used may be English or a community language depending on the client and worker
- Undertake screening and assessment of client needs
- Clearly present health information in one-to-one situation
- Demonstrate facilitation and negotiation to the level required to assist client decision-making
- Apply literacy competence required to satisfy record-keeping and referral requirements
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with WHS guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- It is recommended this unit be assessed after, or in conjunction, with the attainment of competency in other communication unit(s) within qualifications
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit of competency is designed to stand alone
- It is designed to be offered to workers of broad ranging professional background, engaged in a variety of settings and may be, but is not required to be assessed in conjunction with other units
- Assessment may take place during a training workshop or in the workplace, depending on the mode of delivery
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment: Assessment should include a combination of methods such as:

- Observation and listening
- Individual/group discussion
- Discussion of participants' self-assessment and evaluation
- Assessment of written exercises, displays and presentations

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Workers may be engaged in a working environment in which they:

- Seize opportunities to do brief interventions with clients as they arise
- Work with a client on a one-to-one basis and have limited opportunity for supervision of the brief intervention process
- Are communicating in a language other than their first language
- Are required to make clients' file notes and fulfil administrative requirements in a language other than their first language
- Must comply with cultural obligations which influence their use of brief intervention with particular clients
RANGE STATEMENT

Features of brief interventions include:
- One-to-one approach, private
- Takes short period of time
- May be done by a health team member
- Client led process
- Opportunistic
- To raise awareness
- To share knowledge
- To help client to think about making changes to improve health

Reasons for using brief interventions may include:
- Harm reduction
- Facilitating behaviour change
- Any behaviour which affects health, such as
  - Diet and exercise
  - Personal hygiene
  - Smoking
  - Excessive drinking of alcohol
  - Use of other drugs such as cannabis, kava or illicit drugs

Resources required to support the brief intervention may include:
- Displays
- Electronic media
- Brochures or pamphlets
- Books and other publications, see reference list
- Other health workers
- Community health stories
RANGE STATEMENT

Brief intervention strategies may include:

- Applying a range of assessment tools to determine the brief intervention needed
- Raising awareness of link between behaviour and personal health/social well being
- Raising awareness of link between personal behaviour and the affect on family and community
- Sharing relevant information about health
- Exploring the client's expressed concerns
- Motivational interviewing techniques
- To help the client to weigh up the good/not so good things about the health issue or behaviour
- To help the client express his or her reasons for concern and the arguments for change
- Highlighting the benefits of changing
- Setting personal goals and exploring personal change strategies
- Identifying a hierarchy of personal change strategies
- Identifying strategies for lapse/relapse prevention
- Assessing potential harmful outcomes, such as withdrawal
- Giving the client resources, such as written information, appropriate to the stage of change
- Giving positive feedback and encouragement
- Offering time and support

Organisation policies and procedures include those relating to:

- Record-keeping and filing
- Security
- Confidentiality
- Workplace code of conduct or code of practice
- Broader legislative requirements

Monitoring and feedback may be:

- Verbal
- Written
- Pictorial
- Audio visual
- Electronic, e.g. computer files
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS404B Facilitate family intervention strategies

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to facilitate a broad range of programs to meet the needs of families within a specific community

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assess needs of families in the community</td>
<td>1.1 Assess family's level of need having regard to broad social and cultural perspectives in the area</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Ensure assessment includes criteria relevant to needs of culturally and linguistically diverse families, Aboriginal families and families from diverse socioeconomic backgrounds</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Apply the family law framework as an integrated part of family</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Utilise appropriate assessment tools to obtain information about the needs of families within a specific community</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Consult industry networks to inform assessment of the needs of families in the community</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CHCCS404B Facilitate family intervention strategies

Date this document was generated: 31 March 2017

ELEMENT

2. Facilitate the delivery of a family inclusive service

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Ensure demographic research informs response to community needs for early family intervention

2.2 Develop and implement organisation guidelines containing current policies for early family intervention and crisis support

2.3 Provide educational services to facilitate sound parenting practices

2.4 Ensure the process of service delivery aims to increase active and positive participation of families in the community

3. Review and monitor practice

3.1 Monitor approaches to family support service delivery and programs and adjust procedures to ensure ongoing effectiveness

3.2 Ensure programs and procedures incorporate changes to address consumer and other feedback
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Models of family intervention theory and practice
- Family intervention strategies, scope and process
- The wider physical, social, community and cultural environment within which the client lives
- Needs of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander families
- Cultural and linguistic diversity within a specific community
- Options to support behaviour change
- Community capacity building and community development
- Referral resources
- Importance of confidentiality and privacy
- Organisation policies and procedures for record-keeping and security
- Workplace code of conduct or code of practice
- Occupational health and safety guidelines

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake, implement and evaluate an assessment of family need
- Demonstrate interpersonal communication, including ability to listen, observe, speak and behave in a respectful and sensitive manner:
  - it is necessary for the worker's manner to be non-judgemental and non-confrontational
  - this ability is crucial as the health information shared may be confronting to the client
- language used may be English or a community language depending on the client and worker
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Screen and assess client needs
- Demonstrate facilitation and negotiation to the level required to achieve change in the community
- Apply literacy competence required to satisfy record-keeping and referral requirements

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Assessment may take place during a training workshop or in the workplace, depending on the mode of delivery

Method of assessment:

Assessment should include a combination of methods such as:

- Observation and listening
- Individual/group discussion
- Discussion of participants' self-assessment and evaluation
- Assessment of written exercises, displays and presentations

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Assess family's level of need includes:

- Range of possible assessment methods (e.g. interviews)
- Ethical issues in assessment (e.g. confidentiality)
- Identifying 'needs'
- Recognising diversity within a community in relation to needs
RANGE STATEMENT

Networks may include:
- Development of networks relevant to a particular community
- Referral networks
- Consultation mechanisms

Needs of families include:
- Range and scope of 'parenting skills'
- Factors which promote/inhibit parenting skills
- Cultural differences in parenting
- Impact of gender expectations
- Psychosocial developmental needs of children

Crisis support includes:
- Crisis intervention methods
- Community resources
- Prioritising needs
- Utilising family strengths to resolve crises

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS405C Identify and address specific client needs

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to establish the first point of contact between the client and the organisation/service.
It will involve collecting routine information from clients to enable a matching of services to meet their needs.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply to service delivery in a range of community service contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Establish and maintain an appropriate relationship with clients

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Employ appropriate language and interpersonal skills to establish rapport with clients

1.2 Ensure interactions with clients are in accordance with organisation’s standards and procedures

1.3 Conduct interviews and interact with clients in a manner that promotes positive client participation

1.4 Introduce self appropriately

1.5 Demonstrate courtesy towards the client

1.6 In all dealings with the client, aim to generate a trusting relationship

1.7 Demonstrate respect for the individual differences of the client

1.8 Support the client’s own interests, rights and decision-making

1.9 Maintain confidentiality and privacy of client within organisation guidelines

1.10 Take part in short interpersonal exchanges with client to establish, maintain and develop relationships
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Extract and analyse information about client needs | 2.1 Apply organisation mechanisms to identify and assess client needs
2.2 Collect information on relevant environmental issues affecting clients and utilise in assessment
2.3 Ensure decisions about the matching of services to client needs are based on up to date information |
| 3. Match services to client needs | 3.1 Identify services from within the organisation to match client needs
3.2 Where client needs are complex or there are issues outside the area of responsibility, seek immediate support and make appropriate referrals according to organisation procedures
3.3 Provide clients with relevant information about the services available to them, in a timely manner
3.4 Working within own scope of responsibility, ensure clients have access to services that meet their needs
3.5 Ensure all advice to clients about available services is consistent with current relevant, legislative and statutory framework and the practices of the organisation
3.6 Undertake appropriate record-keeping and reporting in accordance with defined procedures |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
These include knowledge of:

- Legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Organisation procedures, protocols and practice for client assessment and allocation of services
- Relevant assessment instruments

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Administer the organisation's instruments and information gathering mechanisms to assess client needs and their eligibility for specific services
- Conduct an assessment interview within defined area of responsibility
- Select an appropriate service from a range provided by the organisation to match to client needs

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate oral communication skills required to fulfil the job role in the organisation/service
  - oral communication skills may include listening, asking questions, providing encouragement
  - language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate literacy competence required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service
  - language used may be English or community language depending on the service/organisation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include clients with a range of different needs

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace e.g. testimonials from clients or colleagues, completed client records etc.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Introduce self may need to involve consideration of the following:

- Cultural background of client
- Customs familiar to client
- Any physical, cognitive or mental problems which may hinder communication, such as deafness, dementia, acquired brain injury
RANGE STATEMENT

Individual differences may be:
- Culture
- Age
- Economic
- Social
- Gender
- Physical
- Emotional
- Intellectual
- Cognitive
- Language
- Spiritual

Rights may be detailed in:
- Service/outcomes standards documents
- Legislation
- Organisation policies and practices

Short interpersonal exchanges will be appropriate to the cultural and individual differences of the client and may include:
- Chatting in friendly manner
- Inquiring about the client's health
- Short casual exchanges

Client needs may include:
- Physical, sexual, physical and emotional support and care
- Financial
- Household assistance and maintenance
- Religious
- Cultural
- Spiritual
- Ceremonial
- Recreational
- Social
- Housing

Assistance may include:
- Providing information and advice
- Accompanying or providing specific services
- Encouragement and support for decisions and actions
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients may include:
- Individual members of the public
- Referred or self referred
- People with specific needs seeking access to services
- Family members and significant others

Organisation’s standards and procedures include those relating to:
- Duty of care
- Client interviews and client/staff relationships
- Administration of questionnaires and other testing instruments and checklists
- Completion of forms and applications

Interviews cover:
- Telephone and in person
- Through an interpreter or other specialist assistance
- Scheduled and impromptu

Client information includes:
- Personal and confidential information provided by the client and/or referring agency/person
- Client feedback data
- Internal organisation information resulting from meetings and assessment panels

Client services include:
- Income support (including disability, aged and sole parent support)
- Financial and community support services
- Training and employment services
- Recreational activities
- Care and support
- Transport and communication
- Referrals to specialist services
- Referrals to community support and/or education groups
- Community participation
RANGE STATEMENT

Accepted organisation procedures and practice include those related to:

- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Client communication protocols
- Assessment for eligibility to access particular services

Work undertaken includes:

- Accessing and providing information about services available from within, and outside the organisation
- Assistance in completing forms e.g. Applications, and other written materials/submissions
- Assistance in seeking access to specific services
- Establishing contact with appropriate people to provide support to clients
- Setting up meetings and interviews for clients
- Acting as spokesperson, as required, for clients

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS407C Operate referral procedures

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS407B Operate referral procedures</td>
<td>CHCCS407C Operate referral procedures</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to confirm the needs of clients, advise them of referral options and arrange the referral

Application of the Unit

Application

The support may be provided in a one to one service delivery mode or in a group

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Confirm client needs</td>
<td>1.1 Discuss client presenting needs with the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Confirm client history and records</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Document client's service expectations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Develop a plan of action is confirm with the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Advise on referral options</td>
<td>2.1 Outline services to assist the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Discuss process of referral with the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Outline client's responsibilities and any conditions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Arrange referral</td>
<td>3.1 Clarify timeframes and procedures for accessing services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Follow referral procedures with all providers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Inform clients of progress towards meeting agreed service expectation and plan of action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Communicate to service provider and client, processes to review and manage service provision</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Available services and constraints on delivery
- The broader service delivery and training networks in the local area
- Process of referral and documentation of the referral

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Identify presenting needs and respond appropriately within the guidelines of the service
- Interpret and apply relevant policies
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - appropriate one to one communication process
  - record-keeping and documentation processes, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence must include observation of performance in the work environment or in a simulated work setting
- Evidence must include demonstration over a period of time to ensure consistency of performance

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - equipment and resources normally used in the workplace

Method of assessment may include:

- Observations
- Questioning
- Evidence gathered from the workplace environment
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Presenting needs refers to:

- Those readily observable or easily communicated needs prior to any counselling service
  Examples include:
  - unemployment
  - lack of benefit payment
  - difficulty in communicating
  - cognitive impairment
  - financial difficulties

Service expectations refers to:

- The type of assistance the client considers they require and includes a comment on urgency and breadth of the requirement.

Process of referral may:

- Differ between agencies, however in the context of this unit it is implied that there is a formal process which is applied and communicated

Plan of action refers to:

- The agreed responsibilities and actions to support the client move towards increased interaction and engagement with the community

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS408B Establish and monitor participation plans

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to work with the customer to establish and monitor an agreed participation plan that meets short and longer-term needs

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Research all current information on the customer</td>
<td>1.1 Review records of any previous interaction with Centrelink</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify potential issues for discussion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Research information to assist in providing advice for accuracy and relevance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Assessment of circumstance and capacity</td>
<td>2.1 Assess barriers to workforce participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Estimate readiness for increased economic participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Demonstrate support and understanding of the customer's capacity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Promote specific benefits to the customer</td>
<td>3.1 Identify future goals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Discuss opportunities for increased participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Consider concerns about changes in patterns of participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Provide information and advice to support courses of action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
<td>Develop a plan of action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.1</td>
<td>Develop achievable and agreed steps</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2</td>
<td>Confirm areas of responsibility for each step</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3</td>
<td>Clarify and agree to involvement of other services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4</td>
<td>Ensure customer agrees to commit to all aspects of the participation plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5</td>
<td>Record the participation plan in the agreed format</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.</td>
<td>Monitor the participation plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1</td>
<td>Monitor delivery of appropriate Centrelink services to ensure agreed services are provided</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Monitor customer's commitment to agreed actions against the participation plan</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3</td>
<td>Check the longer term arrangement to support ongoing progress</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.4</td>
<td>Check customer progress and satisfaction with the level of support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>Make improvements to participation plan and service delivery as required</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Knowledge of the broader service delivery and training networks in the local area
- A good level of understanding of Centrelink systems and technology;
- Knowledge to enable interpretation and application of policy and legislation

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Research complex situations including the interpretation and application of policy and legislation
- Work independently or in a team based environment
- Engage the customer as a partner in the process
- Assist the customer develop their own understanding of what they could achieve through further economic and social participation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence must include observation of performance in the work environment or in a simulated work setting
- Evidence must include demonstration over a period of time to ensure consistency of performance

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - equipment and resources normally used in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:
- Observations
- Questioning
- Evidence gathered from the workplace environment

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Potential issues refers to:
- Broad circumstances of the client such as:
  - length of time on benefits
  - changes from type of benefit
  - language and literacy issues
  - change in living arrangements
  - ethnicity
  - health
  - age

Information refers to:
- The Centrelink services and other related local services that may assist the client to develop a participation plan
RANGE STATEMENT

Barriers refers to:
- Any circumstance or characteristic that makes participation particularly difficult and requires additional assistance or support
  Examples of barriers may include:
  - mental and physical health issues
  - geographic issues
  - skills issues

Circumstance and capacity refers to:
- The interaction between the current situation and the individual's ability to establish and monitor a participation plan

Areas of responsibility refers to:
- The need to identify the service or person who will carry out each step ensuring that the customer has areas of responsibility

Centrelink services refers to:
- The Centrelink services available at that location and in other areas

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS410A Facilitate client participation in the organisation and its management

Modification History

Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to involve service users in organisation's management

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Develop and promote organisation policies and opportunities for client participation in organisation management | 1.1 Develop policies to encourage client participation in the organisation, its management and board of management
1.2 Create opportunities for regular feedback from clients on service provision
1.3 Seek specific feedback on proposals which may directly affect clients |
| 2. Identify and address barriers to client participation | 2.1 Consult with clients to identify barriers to participation
2.2 Develop and implement processes for addressing identified barriers
2.3 Develop and implement strategies to receive and address client complaints
2.4 Review processes at regular intervals in conjunction with clients |
ELEMENT

3. Support formation of client association

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>Identify need for client association</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>Develop and implement strategy for communication between client association and the organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3</td>
<td>Provide on-going support and training for association as appropriate</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Principles of client participation
- Principles of community development
- Dealing with cultural diversity
- Principles of effective communication

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply functional client-participation structures within the organisation

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Facilitate decision-making processes
- Adjust communication to meet differing need
- Facilitate inclusive meetings
- Facilitate conflict resolution

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider client participation requirements within the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients may include:

- Consumers
- Tenants
- Families of clients
- Other relevant stakeholders

Client participation includes:

- Organisation policies/procedures which require/encourage active participation in organisation decision-making by clients of the service.
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS411C Work effectively in the community sector

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS411B Work effectively in the community sector</td>
<td>CHCCS411C Work effectively in the community sector</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to work effectively in a community work or service delivery setting with communities, clients, carers, staff, visitors, suppliers and others to meet established work requirements.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to work in a range of community work or service delivery settings such as:

- specific communities
- community, regional or remote service provider
- department of a large institution or organisation
- specialised service or organisation
- private provider
- non government services

Application of this unit should be contextualised within the qualification in which it is being delivered to reflect specific workplace requirements and practices.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Work ethically</td>
<td>1.1 Follow ethical guidelines in decision-making in all work undertaken with an awareness of potential ethical complexity in own work role</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Reflect understanding and compliance with the principles of duty of care and legal responsibilities in all work undertaken</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Refer any breach or non adherence to standard procedures or adverse event to appropriate personnel</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4 Maintain confidentiality of any client matter in line with organisation policy and procedure, regulatory requirements and/or code of practice</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5 Show respect for rights and responsibilities of others through considered application of work practices</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.6 Reflect current working knowledge and understanding of employee and employer rights and responsibilities in all work undertaken</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.7 Recognise, avoid and/or address any conflict of interest</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Communicate effectively in a community work or service delivery setting

   2.1 Develop, review and revise personal skills in communication as an ongoing priority to address work role requirements

   2.2 Exercise caution in communicating personal information by oral and written means to ensure confidentiality of client and staff matters

   2.3 Routinely apply workplace protocols and procedures in all workplace communication to support accuracy and understanding of information provided and received

   2.4 Recognise individual and cultural differences and make any adjustments in communication needed to facilitate the achievement of identified outcomes

   2.5 Conduct interpersonal communication with clients and colleagues in a manner that enhances a person-centred or community-centred approach consistent with work role requirements

   2.6 Take appropriate measures to resolve conflict and interpersonal differences in the workplace

3. Work effectively within the community services system

   3.1 Develop knowledge of different sectors involving community work and/or service delivery and how inter-relationships between these sectors affect own work

   3.2 Work with awareness of the roles of various organisations involved in community work and/or service delivery

   3.3 Demonstrate respect for workers from different sectors, levels and agencies within the industry

   3.4 Gain and maintain awareness of current issues influencing community work and/or service delivery, including issues for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples
4. Demonstrate commitment to relevant values and philosophy underpinning work in the sector

4.1 Demonstrate consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophy of the sector and the work area

4.2 Demonstrate a commitment to access and equity principles in work in the sector

4.3 Identify personal values and attitudes and take into account when implementing work activities

5. Maintain work standards

5.1 Identify relevant organisation policies and procedures relating to awards, standards and legislative requirements of own work role and clarify any uncertainties with appropriate personnel

5.2 Contribute to identifying and implementing improved work practices

5.3 Comply with relevant accreditation and standards applying to work undertaken

5.4 Demonstrate understanding and focus on achieving organisation goals and objectives in all work undertaken

5.5 Respond positively to changes to improve work practices and procedures in accordance with organisation requirements

5.6 Identify issues requiring mandatory notification and report to supervisor and/or an appropriate authority

5.7 Reflect and identify own scope of practice within each work context
ELEMENT

6. Take responsibility for personal skill development

   6.1 Seek advice from appropriate persons on areas for skill and knowledge development
   6.2 Identify options for accessing relevant skill development opportunities and initiate action in consultation with manager
   6.3 Undertake designated skill and knowledge development and maintenance activities of the organisation
   6.4 Identify and prioritise personal work goals in accordance with organisation requirements

7. Reflect on own practice

   7.1 Undertake self-evaluation in conjunction with supervisors and/or peers
   7.2 Provide and receive open and evaluative feedback to and from co-workers
   7.3 Actively seek constructive feedback relevant to work role and accept it non-defensively
Required Skills and Knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Awareness of own biases, beliefs and emotional issues
- Basic knowledge of contemporary employment terms and conditions in the workplace
- Broad knowledge of legal and ethical framework in community work and/or service delivery, including:
  - work health and safety (WHS)
  - access, equity and anti-discrimination
  - privacy
  - responsibilities in relation to child protection and other mandatory reporting requirements where relevant
- Broad understanding of relevant organisation procedures, policies, awards, standards and legislation and how to access them
- Contemporary approaches to work in the industry, associated rationales and supporting behaviours
- Current issues facing people and the sector
- Knowledge and understanding of professional boundaries and need to refer appropriately
- Meaning of duty of care, confidentiality of information and ethical decision-making in relation to specific work role duties and responsibilities, as well as understanding of what constitutes a breach of these and potential ramifications of such a breach
- Organisation procedures relating to:
  - safety issues and prevention in community services work, including basic home fire safety
  - emergency response
  - security
- Own responsibilities within the workplace
- Purpose of accreditation process and quality improvement practice and their application in specific work area
- Relevance of the work role and functions to maintaining sustainability of the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
- Role, function and objectives of the organisation, and relevance to specific work role
- Understanding of difference and diversity in relation to individual needs, discrimination and social vulnerability
- Values, principles and ethics underpinning work in the sector including:
  - holistic and person-centred support and services
  - community work
  - people's needs and rights including duty of care
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- principles of access and equity and human rights
- principles of client safety

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of the ramifications of breaches of duty of care, confidentiality, ethical guidelines and other relevant policies and legislation
- Identify own responsibilities and role within the workplace

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Accurately follow organisation procedures relevant to own role
- Address safety issues relevant to own work role
- Apply decision-making and problem solving skills as required to constructively achieve identified outcomes in line with work role
- Communicate effectively about the importance of issues relating to environmental responsibility and sustainable practice and opportunities to address them
- Demonstrate interpersonal communication with people
- Demonstrate functional literacy skills needed for written and oral information about workplace requirements
- Demonstrate communication skills as required by specific work role, including:
  - interpreting and following verbal and/or written instructions
  - seeking clarification of tasks
  - providing information
  - reporting incidents in line with organisation requirements
- Participate in appropriate professional development activities on an ongoing basis, including:
  - maintaining own skills and knowledge and ongoing development
  - being open to learning new ideas and techniques in a range of settings
  - sharing workplace information with others
- Use initiative in responding to challenging situations and individuals
- Work as part of a team or as a sole worker
- Work in a non-judgemental manner
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Assessment should relate to an identified work role and associated workplace conditions
- Resources essential for assessment include any documents specific to the work context such as:
  - instructions for the use of equipment
  - specific instructions for staff
  - emergency response procedures
  - fire safety policies and procedures
  - security procedures
  - relevant accreditation standards
  - waste management policies and procedures

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Requirements of own work role may include:
- Accreditation standards
- Individual awards and benchmarks
- Legislation relevant to work area
- Level of responsibility
- Organisation guidelines

Organisation policy on confidentiality may relate to:
- Access to records
- Destruction of records
- Release of information
- Storage of records
- Verbal and written communication

Organisation policies, protocols and procedures refer to:
- Guidelines and practices to be applied in the work role, such as:
  - Formal, documented guidelines of an organisation
  - Informal practices used by an organisation or individual owner/operator

Organisation procedures, policies, awards, standards and legislation may relate to:
- Accreditation and service provision standards of other relevant industry organisations
- Current Australian standards
- Employment and vocational training standards
- Federal and state legislation
- Quality management policy and practice
- Sector specific legislation and standards, for example:
  - home and community care standards
  - aged care accreditation standards
  - disability service standards
  - housing regulation and standards
  - Service delivery standards

Client may include:
- Communities or groups
- Family, carers, significant others, legal guardians
- Individual person
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders and representatives may include:

- Clients
- Community organisations
- Families and care givers
- Friends, peers and target group
- Government representatives and service providers
- Local community
- Management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Peak bodies and networks in the sector
- Services
- Specialists/experts

Different sectors within community services may include but are not limited to:

- Aged care
- Alcohol and other drugs
- Child protection
- Children's services
- Community development
- Community work
- Disability services
- Employment services
- Family and domestic violence
- Home and community care
- Housing
- Mental Health
- Youth work and juvenile justice

Different models of work in the sector may include:

- Advocacy
- Case management
- Community development
- Community education
- Developmental
- Inter-agency approach
- Participatory
- Person-centred
- Service delivery
- Working with families
RANGE STATEMENT

Values and philosophy underpinning work in the sector may include:

- A holistic and person-centred approach, embracing:
  - promotion of well being of staff, clients and communities
  - early identification of problems
  - delivery of appropriate services
  - commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of people
  - commitment to empowering the person and/or the community
  - ethical behaviour
  - preventative strategies
  - exercise of responsibilities and accountabilities within the context of duty of care for clients

A commitment to access and equity principles must be demonstrated by:

- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers

A person-centred approach includes:

- Putting people and carers at the centre of service delivery
- When the person is a child or young person, service delivery strategies may need to be modified to ensure child safety and provide a child friendly, supportive environment
- Including people in decision-making relating to their care
- Involving people in discussions about service delivery options and issues
- Obtaining the person's consent to examine, treat or work with them
- Effective customer service
- Listening to and addressing complaints within scope of own work role
RANGE STATEMENT

Employee rights and responsibilities may relate to:

- Adherence to WHS
- Attendance requirements
- Confidentiality and privacy of organisation, client and colleague information
- Duty of care responsibilities
- Leave entitlements
- Obeying lawful orders
- Organisation policies and procedures
- Protection from discrimination and sexual harassment in the workplace
- The right to union representation

Issues requiring mandatory notification may include:

- Issues defined by jurisdictional legislation and/or regulatory requirements
- Issues specifically identified by under organisation policies
- Protection of children and others identified to be at risk

Identifying and implementing improved work practices may include:

- Application of safety practices, including for work in a range of contexts, such the person's home
- Assessing/observing/measuring environmental factors
- Checking equipment
- Developing and implementing child safe, child friendly resources, environment and work tools to support staff and volunteers working with people under 18 years of age
- Monitoring tasks
- Reporting and implementing suggested improvements
- Responding to surveys and questionnaires
- Seeking and addressing customer feedback
RANGE STATEMENT

Basic home fire safety includes knowledge of:

- Behaviour that may contribute to fire injury and/or fatality
- High fire risk groups
- Optimum placement of smoke alarms
- Referring client for smoke alarm installation and maintenance
- Role of a working smoke alarm
- Smoke alarm testing and cleaning
- Types of smoke alarms

Employer rights and responsibilities may relate to:

- Enterprise workplace agreements
- Legislative requirements for employee dismissal i.e. Workplace Relations Act
- Legislative requirements to provide a safe work environment free from discrimination and sexual harassment (see State and Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation)
- Relevant State and Territory employment legislation i.e. wage rates, employment conditions
RANGE STATEMENT

Designated skill and knowledge development may, for example, relate to:

- Cardiopulmonary resuscitation emergency response and notification protocols
- Child protection
- Communication, conflict resolution
- Cultural awareness
- Customer service, including the provision of a child friendly environment that values, respects and welcomes children and young people
- Discrimination, harassment and bullying in the workplace
- Fire emergency response procedures for notification and containment of fire, use of fire fighting equipment and fire safety procedures
- First aid
- Formal and informal resolution of grievances
- Hazard control
- Manual handling
- Quality improvement policy and practice
- Security procedures
- Waste management
- WHS

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS412E Deliver and develop client services

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS412D Deliver and develop client services</td>
<td>CHCCS412E Deliver and develop client services</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to meet the specific needs of a broad range of existing and new clients within a defined framework

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Target client services | 1.1 In identifying and assessing client needs, give due consideration to individual rights, relevant community requirements and the organisation statutory and legislative environment
1.2 Establish and maintain client profiles in accordance with organisation and legislative requirements and use to monitor delivery of appropriate services
1.3 Develop client service delivery plan to address client needs and rights, including aims and objectives, resourcing implications, evaluation strategies and contingency plans
1.4 Identify and select appropriate client service to meet client needs within the scope of area of responsibility
1.5 Implement a range of mechanisms to ensure regular client service feedback is sought to gauge levels of satisfaction
1.6 Record and analyse client service feedback and report to appropriate personnel to ensure any problems are resolved and improvements implemented
1.7 Where client data and profiles indicate inability of the organisation to meet client needs, redesign services or refer clients to another organisation as required |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Deliver client service</td>
<td>2.1 Ensure dealings with clients are consistent with their needs and rights, with accepted practice and codes of conduct of the organisation and duty of care responsibilities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Ensure service delivered to clients upholds relevant statutory and legislative requirements, the reputation of the organisation and the area of work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Base client service delivery on accurate and up to date information about client, service options and the service being delivered</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Complete and maintain all appropriate documentation related to client service delivery according to organisation standards</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Implement strategies to ensure client services are routinely reviewed in the light of client needs and rights and organisation policies and capabilities, and implement remedial action as appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Develop and promote client services</td>
<td>3.1 Promote the service delivery of the organisation wherever opportunities arise</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Promote services to existing and/or potential clients to ensure that the details of the full range of services are understood</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Develop, document and promote a range of service options for clients to facilitate informed client access to services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Assist clients to identify their needs and rights and select the best available service</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role
These include knowledge of:
- Principles of effective client service delivery
- Organisation specific client services provided
- Promotion and marketing of services
- Service delivery skills

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Establish and maintain a network of service providers
- Incorporate the requirements of all groups in client service delivery
- Demonstrate responsiveness to client needs

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role
These include the ability to:
- Apply oral communication skills required to fulfil the job role in the organisation/service:
  - oral communication skills may include listening, asking questions, providing encouragement
  - language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
- Apply literacy competence required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service:
  - language used may be English or community language depending on the service/organisation
- Utilise relevant information technology effectively in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include assessment of competency in dealing with a range of existing and new clients

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace e.g. testimonial from clients and colleagues, promotional material etc.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Client services are:
- Specific to the organisation

Clients may include:
- Self referral or referred
- Individual members of the public
- Other organisations, community groups and individuals
- Other work areas of the organisation
- Senior management

Special client needs could relate to:
- Disabilities
- Language
- Gender
- Culture
- Age
- Location
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS413B Support individuals with autism spectrum disorder

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS413A Support individuals with autism spectrum disorder</td>
<td>CHCCS413B Support individuals with autism spectrum disorder</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to work with individuals with an autism spectrum disorder (ASD), with regard for their needs and within the context of support work.

Application of the Unit

Application
Work performed requires a range of well developed skills where some discretion and judgement is required and individuals will take responsibility for their own outputs.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Apply basic knowledge of autism spectrum disorder to support work | 1.1 Demonstrate an understanding of the historical context and current research relating to autism spectrum disorder
1.2 Demonstrate an understanding of processes of establishing a diagnosis, including assessment tools, diagnostic categories and core areas of functional impact, in relation to individual clients |
| 2. Apply a knowledge of the impact of autism spectrum disorder | 2.1 Apply knowledge of key issues affecting individuals with autism spectrum disorder, their carers, families and siblings
2.2 Implement interventions and support strategies in the context of psychological profiles and learning styles
2.3 Implement interventions and support strategies according to the principles for evaluating possible intervention and support strategies |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. Respond effectively to the needs of individuals with autism spectrum disorder</td>
<td>3.1 Conduct support activities in the context of the underpinning values, philosophies and legal requirements of the sector</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Identify personal values and attitudes and take into account when planning and implementing support activities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Conduct support activities in a manner that minimises the effects of stereotypical attitudes and myths</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Provide a range of interventions and supports that are effective for the specific needs of individuals, carers, families and siblings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Operate within the policies, procedures and professional standards of the sector</td>
<td>4.1 Identify relevant organisation policies relevant to job roles and responsibilities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Conduct work in a manner according to relevant statutory and legislative requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Undertake ongoing professional development and awareness of professional boundaries</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Historical context of autism spectrum disorders
- Current research on autism spectrum disorders, including:
  - causes
  - treatments, therapies and interventions
  - coexistence with other disabilities
  - prevalence, gender ratios and demographic data
- Awareness of assessment tools and their use, including:
  - DSM-IV TR
  - ICD-10
  - FOSPAC
  - CARS
  - Atwood scale of asperger's syndrome
- Standards and process of diagnostic assessment
- Basic understanding of diagnostic categories of autism spectrum disorder
- Impact of autism spectrum disorder on individual functioning, family and siblings
- Key issues associated with autism spectrum disorder for clients, carers, families and siblings
- Intervention strategies (as per the Range Statement)
- Values and philosophies (as per the Range Statement)
- Principles of best practice in the treatment and support of autism spectrum disorder
- Facts and myths associated with autism spectrum disorder
- Legislative framework and professional boundaries relevant to working with individuals with autism spectrum disorder
- Task analysis
- Prompting, principles of prompting and fading prompting
- Strategies to create independence
- Reinforcers
- Motivators to learn
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Common de-motivators and blocks
- Understanding of maintenance techniques and generalisation
- Understanding of incidental learning
- Instructional strategies, in particular discrete trial and hierarchy of prompts

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide a range (as per the Range Statement) of interventions and supports
- Access relevant information
- Work collaboratively with clients, families and service providers
- Use organisational and time management skills
- Use communication skills to work with individuals with autism spectrum disorder, their carers, families and siblings
- Apply basic problem solving skills to resolve issues within organisation's protocols
- Relate effectively to clients and staff
- Adhere to professional standards, guidelines and practice standards
- Collaborate and network with a variety of personnel in order to achieve learning and development objectives
- Demonstrate appropriate task breakdown
- Apply communication techniques that encourage and motivate
- Use appropriate prompting during training session
- Apply reinforcers appropriately during training session
- Demonstrate appropriate use of incidental learning opportunities
- Demonstrate the use of instructional strategies, in particular discrete trial and hierarchy of prompts

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment of this unit must occur in a real or simulated workplace
- The specific assessment context will be defined by the workplace
- Where, for reasons of safety, space, or access to equipment and resources, assessment takes place away from the workplace, the assessment environment should represent workplace conditions as closely as possible
- Assessment should not require a higher level of communication competency than that required by work responsibilities

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment requires access to:
  - appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace environment for assessment
  - relevant policies, procedures and protocols for work in the sector
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.

- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.

- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Autism spectrum disorder refers to:
- The term autism spectrum disorder is an umbrella term that describes autism and asperger's syndrome
- There are no diagnostic criteria for autism spectrum disorder; it is a term used to describe individuals with a diagnosis of autism, asperger's syndrome or associated pervasive developmental delays
- Individuals diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder may display difficulties in three areas:
  - communication
  - social interaction
  - flexible thinking and behaviour
- In addition, some people with autism spectrum disorder may also have sensory processing difficulties - unusual perception of sounds, sights, smell, touch and taste

Historical context includes:
- Original research conducted by Leo Kanner (1943) and Hans Asperger (1944)

Current research includes, but is not limited to:
- Current, reliable references
- Causes, including:
  - neurological/biological
  - environmental toxins
  - viral
- Treatments, therapies and interventions
- Coexistence with other disabilities
- Prevalence, gender ratios and demographic data

Assessment tools may include:
- DSMIV-R
- ICD-10
- FOSPAC
- CARS
- Attwood scale of asperger's syndrome

Diagnostic categories must include:
- Autism
- Asperger syndrome
RANGE STATEMENT

Diagnostic categories may also include:
- Childhood disintegrative disorder
- Pervasive developmental disorder not otherwise specified (PDD-NOS)
- Rett's Disorder

Core areas of functional impact include:
- Communication:
  - verbal
  - non-verbal
  - receptive language
  - expressive language
- Social:
  - theory of mind/relationships
  - executive functioning
- Behaviour:
  - central coherence deficit
  - rituals/obsessions/routines
  - sensory processing

Individual clients may include:
- Individuals at any stage of the life span

Key issues may include:
- Loss and grief
- Stress (individual and family)
- Service access
- Meeting individual needs and personal needs
- Education
- Economic constraints
- Social isolation
- Community acceptance
- Information overload
RANGE STATEMENT

Interventions and support strategies may include:

- Documented individualised plan, including:
  - individual lifestyle plan
  - individual program plan
  - individual education plan
  - individual futures plan
- Visual strategies:
  - social stories
  - comic strip conversation
  - visual stories
  - checklists
  - picture exchange communication system (PECS)
- Augmentative communication
- Sensory strategies - calming or alerting:
  - visual strategies
  - auditory strategies
  - tactile strategies
  - gustatory strategies
  - olfactory strategies
  - proprioceptive strategies
  - vestibular strategies
- Relaxation techniques
- Connection with social groups and activities
- Behaviour support:
  - functional assessment of behaviour
  - identification of triggers and if possible modification of environment
  - known reinforcers - reinforcement assessment
  - positive reinforcement
  - non aversive approach
  - token economy
RANGE STATEMENT

Principles for evaluating possible intervention and support strategies may include:

- Impact on the client and family
- Reliable evidence of positive results
- Sustainability
- Useful and transferable
- Philosophical match with client/family ethics
- Financial cost
- Resource availability

Values and philosophies may include:

- A holistic and person-centred approach
- Developmental approach
- Advocacy
- Community education
- Family sensitive approaches
- Promotion of quality of life
- Early intervention
- Delivery of appropriate services
- Commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of clients
- Encouragement of personal growth and development
- Rights of individuals
- The social model of disability
- The impact of social devaluation on an individual’s quality of life
- Competency and image enhancement as a means of addressing devaluation

Legislative and legal requirements may include:

- Commonwealth and relevant state/territory disability services acts
- National Standards for Disability Services
- Duty of care
- Guardianship and administration
- Quality assurance framework (federal and state)
- Equal Opportunity Act
- Disability Discrimination Act
- Privacy Act
- Organisation policies
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Medication regulations
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS414A Provide education and support on parenting, health and well being

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide education and support in a small group or one to one setting and or for community members on for effective parenting behaviour, general health and well being issues

Application of the Unit

Application
The support may be provided in a one to one service delivery mode or in a group

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify clients particular needs and interests in relation to health, well being and parenting</td>
<td>1.1 Assess needs of client or group for education and support on health, well being and parenting</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Elicit key issues of concern to determine the nature and scope of education program to be provided</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify and plan for appropriate strategies to match client educational needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Seek additional assistance and expertise as required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Identify and discuss resources required to support implementation of the program and changed practices</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Determine stage in client's decision to seek information or change</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT 2. Lead a group to communicate about parenting

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Acknowledge what is working well with families and identify their strengths
2.2 Outline stressors and how these impact on families capacity to function effectively
2.3 Outline key knowledge and skill sets
2.4 Encourage group members to share parental experiences and seek additional information and support as required
2.5 Review current skills and expectations for skill development
2.6 Ensure program delivery demonstrates responsiveness to the needs of the group and the community
2.7 Ensure program content reflects current policy and practical application of theory
2.8 Implement processes to ensure assessment of the skill, knowledge and attitudes of group is ongoing during the program
2.9 Discuss parenting behaviour, attitudes and beliefs and how they have an impact on health and well being of children

3. Identify and respond to group and individual needs

3.1 Raise awareness of health and well being issue with clients not contemplating change
3.2 Conduct brief motivational interview/presentation to guide changes when required
3.3 Ensure educational information and support is responsive to needs of individual and community
3.4 Ensure program content reflects current policy and practical application of theory
3.5 Undertake ongoing assessment of client skills, knowledge and attitudes during the program
ELEMENT

4. Support the practice of new behaviours

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Encourage participants to develop an active support network during the program

4.2 Support modelling of effective parenting techniques and healthy lifestyle

4.3 Provide clear feedback on progress in skill development to participants

4.4 Encourage participants to access further development options as required

4.5 Identify issues that may require referral to professional support and discuss with the client
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Demonstrated understanding of stages of child development
- Healthy lifestyle and the effect of an unhealthy lifestyle, including but not limited to the impact of childhood obesity (physical and psychological effects)
- Nutrition and a healthy diet
- Impact of positive parenting in regards to formation of healthy lifestyle behaviours of children
- How to plan and evaluate a community education program

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Plan a community program
- Facilitate a group education session
- Communicate to specific groups, key principles and practices related to:
  - healthy lifestyle
  - nutrition and a healthy diet
  - effective parenting techniques
  - child development
  - infection control
  - promoting child development
  - safety and supervision of children

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate high level and effective communication including in a multi cultural context
- Demonstrate skills in leadership and change management

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence must include observation of performance in the work environment or in a simulated work setting
- Evidence must include demonstration over a period of time to ensure consistency of performance
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
• All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
• All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
• In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
• Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
• This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
• Resource requirements for assessment include access to:
  • an appropriate workplace where assessment can be conducted or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  • equipment and resources normally used in the workplace

Method of assessment:
• Observations
• Questioning
• Evidence gathered from the workplace environment

Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Stressors within the community that may have specific impact on families include:

- Financial
- Employment
- Alcohol and other drugs issues
- Accommodation and homelessness
- Risk of abuse, neglect and harm
- Access to education

Key knowledge and skill sets:

- Stages in child development
- Importance of supporting the early years to ensure subsequent educational success
- Relationship development and management
- Impact on the health of individuals and communities of neglect, violence and abuse
- Impact on the health of individuals and communities of alcohol and drugs
- Nutrition and food handling
- Models of parenting
- Features of a healthy lifestyle
- Indicators of well being

Active support network may include:

- Others within the local community
- 'Virtual' communities linked by Information Technology
- Community leaders and elders
- Other parents
- Family members
- Local community groups and play groups
- Special interest groups
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS416B Assess and provide services for clients with complex needs

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS416A Assess and provide services for clients with complex needs</td>
<td>CHCCS416B Assess and provide services for clients with complex needs</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Updated terminology 'challenging behaviour' to 'behaviours of concern'. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to undertake assessments of more complex client needs and match to services available

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Assess and analyse client needs | 1.1 Employ appropriate language and interpersonal skills to ensure diverse needs of clients are identified
1.2 Employ appropriate mechanisms to ensure that all relevant client information is collected
1.3 Seek additional information from specialists as required to assist in assessment of clients
1.4 Ensure all dealings with clients are consistent with organisation standards and practices
1.5 Record information collected and store in accordance with organisation procedures
1.6 Assess information about client needs in accordance with accepted organisation procedures to inform decisions about the relevant services which can be provided to best address client needs
1.7 Assess client information for complexity, urgency and eligibility so priorities for service delivery can be identified
1.8 Provide clients with all relevant information about the range of services required and available to them
1.9 Ensure decisions about client needs are based on a full range of relevant information |
ELEMENT

2. Identify and provide for the delivery of services to meet client needs

   2.1 Identify services that match client needs, from within and outside the organisation
   2.2 Establish and maintain relevant networks, to ensure referral of clients to appropriate services
   2.3 Assist clients appropriately to access targeted services from within and outside the organisation
   2.4 Provide clients with information about the services available to them in accordance with organisation procedures
   2.5 Work within own scope of responsibility, to ensure clients have access to services that meet their needs
   2.6 Ensure decisions about targeting of client services are based on up to date information about the client and available services
   2.7 Consider service delivery and referral options from strengths-based perspective
   2.8 Identify own limitations in assessing and addressing client needs, and where appropriate, seek assistance from colleagues, senior staff and experts in the area
   2.9 Make appropriate referrals to specialist services based on the assessment of client needs

3. Evaluate client service delivery

   3.1 Review the allocation of services delivered to meet client requirements routinely, or as required, to ensure a continuing match
   3.2 Review changes in circumstances, environmental factors or urgency of client needs in accordance with organisation practices and procedures to ensure client needs continue to be met
   3.3 Collect client feedback on adequacy of service delivery as required by the organisation, to inform revision of service delivery arrangements
   3.4 Routinely seek feedback on individual performance in client service delivery from colleagues and clients
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Accepted organisation procedures, systems and practice for client assessment and allocation of services
- Strengths-based approach
- Accepted practices for delivery of services to particular clients
- Issues affecting particular client groups including:
  - income/economic
  - health
  - cognitive
  - social
  - community support and interaction
  - education and training
  - employment
  - impact of assessment
  - client needs
  - local services available for clients

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Administer organisation's instruments and mechanisms to assess client needs
- Select appropriate services from a range of services provided by the organisation to match client needs
- Select from others services available in the broader community to address client needs
- Develop and maintain appropriate networks
- Provide referrals to relevant organisations or providers of specialist services
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Apply a strengths-based approach to client intake, assessment and referral
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - high level interpersonal skills
  - analysis and judgement
  - risk management
- Demonstrate oral communication skills required to develop rapport with client
  - oral communication skills may include listening, asking questions, providing encouragement, minimising the impact of behaviours of concern
  - language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
- Demonstrate literacy competency required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service
  - language used may be English or community language depending on service/organisation
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include a number of clients with complex needs

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients include:
- Individual members of the public
- Referred or self referred
- People with specific needs seeking access to services
- Family members and significant others

Language and interpersonal skills include:
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Means for communication with people in particular communities
- Communication with different age and gender groups

Client services include:
- Income, financial and community support services
- Employment services
- Housing services
- Access to recreation services
- Care and support services
- Transport and communication services

Complex issues include:
- Combinations of physical, social, economic and personal factors
RANGE STATEMENT

Mechanisms for information collection include:

- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionaries
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from service providers

Networks include:

- Specialist providers in the community services and health areas including health and cognitive assessments
- Specialist services to assist communication with client and identification of their needs
- Providers of any of the identified client services required by clients of the organisation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS417B Provide support and care relating to suicide bereavement

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS417A Provide support and care relating to suicide bereavement</td>
<td>CHCCS417B Provide support and care relating to suicide bereavement</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide support for individuals who are experiencing bereavement in relation to suicide.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit of competency may be applied in a range of community services contexts involving supporting individuals dealing with suicide bereavement.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Recognise the impact of the aftermath of suicide</td>
<td>1.1 Outline and recognise shared features of all loss</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Outline and recognise distinctive features of suicide loss and trauma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Outline and recognise the additional features of suicide bereavement after a mental illness</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Recognise the elevated risk of suicide and other harm behaviours that may be associated with suicide loss</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Recognise the increased risk of developing adverse impacts on health and well being after suicide loss</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Identify and understand needs of and provide support for those bereaved by suicide

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Demonstrate an understanding of suicidal ideation and other risk taking behaviours

2.2 Recognise the importance of proactive measures that facilitate early access to suicide bereavement support as required by the bereaved

2.3 Identify essential immediate and ongoing resources and processes for support of persons bereaved by suicide

2.4 Apply understanding of the difference and boundaries among education, support and therapeutic approaches

2.5 Apply understanding of the principles of working with persons bereaved by suicide, including bereavement support and suicide prevention

2.6 Address the needs of the individual, family and community in a plan for dealing with the aftermath of suicide, including the identification of external support agencies

2.7 Recognise the impact of lifespan and developmental issues on suicide bereavement

2.8 Recognise the impact of cultural, social, ethnic and spiritual issues impacting on people bereaved by suicide

2.9 Identify the role and value of diverse mourning practices and rituals

2.10 Recognise the use and power of language and communication

3. Identify suicide prevention strategies in the aftermath of suicide

3.1 Identify the main areas to be considered in the aftermath of a suicide

3.2 Apply knowledge of suicide prevention and post-vention skills

3.3 Identify and apply intervention responses to address elevated suicide risk and increase safety
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4. Identify appropriate self-care resources</td>
<td>4.1 Monitor own stress level in relation to working in the area of suicide bereavement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Use appropriate self-care strategies to develop and maintain physical and emotional well being</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Distinctive features of suicide bereavement and related issues
- Recognition of the impact of trauma
- Principles of working with persons bereaved by suicide (including bereavement and suicide prevention)
- Awareness of how suicide bereavement can impact the health and well being of an individual
- Awareness of how the presence of a mental illness in an individual before a suicide can complicate reactions to loss and grief of those bereaved
- Differences and boundaries among education, support and therapeutic approaches
- Knowledge at the jurisdictional level of police and coronial procedures and those of other relevant agencies
- Health promotional approach to adversity, including the awareness and value of community capacity building
- Understanding of the impact of lifespan and developmental issues on reactions to suicide bereavement (e.g. children and the elderly)
- Awareness of the Mindframe guidelines
- Awareness of national and state/territory suicide prevention strategies and frameworks
- Knowledge and use of evidence-based approaches to suicide bereavement support

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Take proactive measures that facilitate early access to suicide bereavement support when required
- Address needs of the individual, family and community in planning to deal with the aftermath of suicide, including the identification of external support agencies as well as individual strengths
- Apply intervention responses to address elevated suicide risk, and other risk taking behaviours, and increase safety
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply verbal and non-verbal approaches to effectively deal with and respond to each individual
- Use effective communication skills, including:
  - use empathic listening skills
  - use appropriate communication techniques to respond to individual needs
  - provide information clearly and sensitively
  - obtain feedback to confirm understanding
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- Assessment should be gathered on one or more occasions but must reflect the normal range of client situations encountered in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged

Method of assessment:
- Consistent performance and development would be expected to be demonstrated involving a combination of oral and written tasks while also featuring simulated and actual practice
  Examples might include:
  - group exercises
  - written (e.g. journal) and verbal responses to questioning
  - simulated exercises

Related units:
This unit is recommended to be assessed in conjunction with related unit:
- CHCCS426B Provide support and care relating to loss and grief
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Features of suicide loss may include:

- Feelings of rejection, abandonment and blaming
- Feelings of remorse, guilt and responsibility
- Feelings of anger and/or helplessness
- Feelings of relief
- Feelings of stigma and shame (depending on cultural context)
- Denial
- The need to understand why the search for motive and acceptance when there may not be a motive
- Difficulty acknowledging the cause of death
- Fear of hereditary susceptibility
- Loss of basic trust
- Loss of sense of safety
- Increased risk of suicide
- Trauma

Support for those bereaved by suicide may include:

- Individual grief counselling
- Group grief counselling
- Self-help support group
- Psycho-educational support group
- Social network
- Recognised telephone and web-based counselling services
- Psychological services
- Mental health services
- Suicide prevention services
- Pastoral/spiritual care support
RANGE STATEMENT

Education approaches may include:
- Information about aspects such as
  - psychological processes
  - practical needs
  - coping strategies
  - emotional needs
  - physical needs
  - social needs
  - spiritual needs

Support approaches may include:
- Psychological support
- Emotional support
- Therapeutic methods
- Health promotional support including community capacity building approach

Therapeutic approaches may include but are not limited to:
- Therapeutic methods such as
  - rational emotive therapy
  - systematic desensitisation
  - person-centred therapy
  - group therapy

Principles of working with persons bereaved by suicide may include:
- 'Above all, do no harm'
- Duty of care
- Confidentiality and privacy
- Cultural safety
- Sensitivity and respect
- Acceptance and non-judgement
- 'Rights of Persons bereaved by suicide'
- Risk management
RANGE STATEMENT

Needs of the individual, family and community may include:

- Information about general grief and loss theory
- Information about trauma
- Understanding of individuality of grief
- Understanding of cultural diversity in grief and loss
- Statistics about suicide and suicide bereavement
- Information about possible cognitive restrictions of the individual
- Dealing with stigma (e.g. psychosocial, legal and religious) and isolation
- Understanding of feelings of rejection, abandonment and blame
- Understanding of feelings of remorse, guilt and responsibility
- Understanding of feelings of anger and/or helplessness
- Understanding of feelings of relief
- Understanding of feelings of stigma and shame (depending on cultural context)
- Understanding the need to understand why the search for motive and acceptance that there may not be a motive
- Dealing with denial
- Dealing with difficulty acknowledging the cause of death
- Dealing with fear of hereditary susceptibility
- Dealing with contagion
- Working with family dynamics
- Understanding loss of basic trust and loss of sense of safety
- Assessing increased risk of suicide and other risk taking behaviours
- Logistical and legal issues
- Information about coping strategies and interpersonal tactics
- Acknowledging strengths
- Supporting therapeutic process of hope
- Working towards resilience and integration
- Developing potential for growth
- Lifespan approach to suicide prevention
- A continuum of care
- Identifying individual strengths
RANGE STATEMENT

Lifespan and developmental issues may include:

- Children's development level
- Adolescents
- Elderly
- Intellectual disabilities
- Developmental disabilities

External support agencies may include, but are not limited to:

- Coroner's office
- Housing services
- Financial management services
- Funeral services
- Legal services
- Translation services
- 24 hour crisis services
- Recognised telephone and web-based counselling services
- Grief counselling services
- Psychological services
- Disability services
- Domestic and family violence services
- Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander health services
- Emergency services
- Mental health services
- Mental health community teams
- Suicide prevention services
- Government agencies, such as Veterans' Affairs

Use and power of language and communication refers to:

- Reactions to specific words such as 'committed suicide'
RANGE STATEMENT

Suicide prevention and post-vention skills and intervention responses may include:
- Identifying warning signs
- Risk assessment
- Counselling skills
- Intervention responses
- Engaging people
- Life sustaining actions
- Helping actions
- Protective factors
- Developing safety plans

Self-care strategies may include:
- Personal management and self-monitoring
- Supervision
- Follow-up support and defusing
- Reflection on practice
- Recognition of negative emotions and well being
- Peer support
- Ongoing professional development and formal training
- Knowing when and how to ask for back up support

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS419C Provide support services to clients

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS419B</td>
<td>CHCCS419C</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Amended related unit HLTFA311A. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Provide support services to clients</td>
<td>Provide support services to clients</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to apply the basic elements of implementing services for people accessing community services organisations issues in a range of settings

It may be within an established plan of care

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish a working relationship with clients to assist them to identify their needs | 1.1 Routinely use effective strategies to ensure:
   - clients identify their needs and goals
   - individual and cultural differences are addressed
   - areas of resistance/conflict are identified and appropriately resolved
   - appropriate levels of consultation are implemented
   - the experience and life skills of the client are appropriately addressed
   - relevant information is collected
1.2 Implement processes to reach agreement on meeting procedures, consequences of actions and cooperative relationship
1.3 Clarify negotiable and non-negotiable aspects of intervention
1.4 Define and maintain boundaries between client and worker, including roles, responsibilities and accountabilities, to ensure compliance with statutory requirements and duty of care responsibilities
1.5 Implement strategies to ensure all dealings with clients reflect appropriate expression of value systems and consideration of emotional impact of intervention
1.6 Use appropriate communication and relationship building processes
1.7 Discuss possibilities and options for responding to client needs, determine preferred actions and prioritise
1.8 Assist client to evaluate and select strategies to achieve their goals
1.9 Promptly and supportively respond to clients in distress or crisis, in accordance with organisation policies and procedures |
ELEMENT | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
---|---
2. Support clients to meet their needs | 2.1 Identify information and skills required by the client to meet their needs
| 2.2 Provide or develop opportunities to obtain information and develop skills
| 2.3 Provide individual and group support in accordance with resources and procedures
| 2.4 Explain the client's rights and responsibilities
| 2.5 Maintain confidentiality in accordance with organisation policies and procedures

3. Promote preventative strategies | 3.1 Provide a full range of opportunities for clients to engaged in identification of problems and solutions
| 3.2 Employ a range of strategies to assist clients to meet specific targets and to gain control over their lives
| 3.3 Identify, develop and initiate an appropriate range of opportunities in accordance with organisation policies and procedures and client needs
| 3.4 Encourage and monitor client progress and involvement in activities and appropriate action taken to maximise individual skill development

4. Review work with clients | 4.1 Review work with client within organisation policies and procedures and adapt strategies as appropriate
| 4.2 Review outcomes of client work with supervisor and/or colleagues in accordance with organisation policies and procedures
ELEMENT

5. Use self-protection strategies as required

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Use conflict resolution and negotiation as appropriate

5.2 Take appropriate action to ensure the safety of self and others

5.3 Acknowledge limits of own abilities and make referrals as appropriate

5.4 Seek emergency assistance as required

6. Refer clients

6.1 Check services the client is already accessing with the client and the service/s

6.2 Discuss suitability of other services with the client

6.3 Support client to make contact with other services

6.4 Provide follow up to determine the effectiveness of the referral

7. Provide specialist services to clients

7.1 Complete all appropriate documentation and maintain in accordance with organisation and statutory standards and requirements

7.2 Implement procedures to ensure information sharing between key stakeholders is facilitated

7.3 Ensure all dealings with the client/s reflect:
   - accepted organisation standards of behaviour
   - mutual respect
   - commitment to information sharing and dissemination
   - adherence to agreed plan
   - sensitivity to cultural, family and individual differences
   - ability to work with the client in the context of the family and broader community
   - application of the organisation’s philosophy
   - compliance with statutory requirements and duty of care responsibilities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Understanding of role and responsibilities of self and other workers within the organisation
- Organisation policies and procedures as listed in the Range Statement
- Agency role, agency target group
- Issues affecting the client group
- Understanding relevant terminology related to the sector
- Awareness and understanding of issues relating to work in the sector
- Stigma, prejudice and common stereotypes relating to client issues
- Culture of service provision in the sector
- Relevant policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements relating to service provision
- Appropriate protocols and cultural systems relevant to work area
- Theories and methodologies related to work in the sector
- Child protection, mental health and AOD issues as they relate to work in the sector
- Working with individuals and groups
- Motivational interviewing techniques
- Service role and target groups
- Related agencies and referral procedures used by the organisation
- Awareness of own biases and beliefs
- Ethical obligations re: helping relations, confidentiality
- Rights of workers and clients
- Principles and practices of duty of care
- Knowledge specific to working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- Knowledge specific to working with people at risk of self-harm
- Relationships between service providers
- Relevant systems/networks in the local area
- Statutory requirements
- Where clients have mental health issues the following specific knowledge is required:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- community correctional orders and mental health issues
- mental health promotion
- signs and symptoms of major mental illness
- Where clients have mental health issues the following specific knowledge is required (contd):
  - impact of mental illness and/or psychiatric disability on self-esteem, motivation, daily living skills
  - common medications for mental illness and their side effects
  - psychosocial treatment approaches
  - psychiatric disability
  - basic understanding of psychosocial rehabilitation processes
  - basic understanding of the range of clinical treatment and support services
- Where clients have housing issues the following knowledge is required:
  - understanding of language used in the community housing sector
  - awareness of housing issues
  - relationships between service providers
  - community housing systems/networks in the local area
  - culture of community housing provision
  - policy, regulatory, legislative and legal requirements including:
    - residential tenancy acts or equivalent
    - Privacy Act
    - legislation underpinning the principles of equal opportunity
    - Freedom of Information Act
    - Individual rights
    - National Housing Policy
    - National Housing Service Standards
    - Disability Services Acts and standards
- Where clients have AOD issues the following knowledge is required:
  - first aid certification or equivalent skills (as per unit HLTFA311A Apply first aid) including cardio pulmonary resuscitation (CPR), bandaging, managing toxic substances, managing bleeding, managing broken bones, managing consciousness, managing choking and knowledge of coma positions
  - working with a range of different clients with AOD issues
  - conducting work role within established plans, procedures or programs
  - range of AOD specific services delivered by the organisation
  - AOD use, general effects on body systems and their functions and general social and psychological effects
  - drugs/substances most commonly used in local area
  - relationship between suicide and AOD use
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Effectively provide support to clients within organisation procedures
- Facilitate exploration of issues
- Establish role definitions
- Identify and work constructively with conflict and resistance
- Monitor own positions and reactions
- Clarify differences in perception
- Demonstrate problem exploration within a pro-active framework

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply strategies for self-protection and self care
- Apply strategies for dealing with aggressive or distressed people
- Demonstrate a non-judgemental approach to working with people
- Devise and develop tasks to help clients understanding and problem solving efforts
- Demonstrate constructive use of personal and professional authority and influence to support or confront
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - establishing rapport
  - effective active listening including questioning
  - interpretation of verbal and non-verbal communication
  - conflict resolution
  - problem solving
  - interpersonal relationship
  - networking and liaison with other services
  - crisis situation responses
  - report writing
  - supportive counselling
  - goal clarification
  - working with conflict, resistance and levels of risk
  - empathy, engagement and rapport building
  - communicating interest, respect and concern
  - articulating clearly boundaries of own role
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- recognising signs and triggers for dependency
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider particular requirements of support provision delivered in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients include:
- Individual clients and families and support network of the client
- Members of the public seeking information

The contexts of working with clients include:
- Contact with a service on a voluntary or involuntary basis
- Contact with a statutory activity e.g. Notification, first juvenile offence
- Within an intervention
- Within a support activity or service
RANGE STATEMENT

Organisation policies and procedures may include:
- Emergencies
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Referrals
- Reporting
- Goals, objectives and targets
- Accountability
- Code of conduct
- Confidentiality
- Grievance procedures

Establish a working relationship will be carried out within requirements established by:
- Commonwealth and State legislation
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young persons
- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
- Organisation codes of conduct, ethics

Work with clients may:
- Occur at established premises or at other locations used by outreach, street, remote or off-site services
- Other locations may include the client's home, public places, workplaces or mobile service centres

Needs may include:
- Emotional support
- Social support
- Financial advice
- Cognitive/behavioural support
- Food and clothing
- Transport
- Emergency relief
- Legal advice
- Accommodation support
- Referral to other agencies
- Harm minimisation
- Financial device
- Consumables
- Legal advice
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate communication and relationship building processes may include:

- Engagement
- Empathy
- Non-judgemental manner
- Active listening
- Listening to the person
- Acknowledging the person in a pleasant and accepting manner
- Treating the person as an individual with their own life history, skills and interests
- Rapport building
- Warmth
- Genuineness
- Respect

Possibilities and options for responding to client needs may include:

- Referral of the client to a colleague within the organisation
- Referral of the client to other agencies in accordance with organisation policies and procedures

Respond to clients in distress and crisis will include:

- Enlisting support and/or assistance from colleagues or emergency support as appropriate
- Using calm and calming behaviour
- Reporting incidents promptly and accurately

Services should promote the client's independence and abilities and take into account their:

- Preferences
- Ability to communicate
- Level of stress or anxiety
- Behavioural disturbance e.g. tears, agitation, despair, elation, mood swings, disinhibition caused by acquired brain injury
- Verbal or physical aggression
- Inappropriate responses
- Family and peer support/self help
- Need for encouragement
- Cultural/linguistic background
- Social circumstances e.g. family and social support
RANGE STATEMENT

Client service processes may be informal and/or formal and may include:

- Problem solving techniques
- Evaluation
- Interviewing techniques
- Information provision
- Group work
- Individual support
- Working with carers and others
- Relaxation management
- Stress management
- Anger management
- Coping strategies
- Counselling and support groups

Work with clients may occur in any environment including:

- Social settings
- Home
- Drop in centres
- Workplace
- Vehicles/transport
- Cafes, shopping centres
- Structured programs
- Legal settings
- Other agencies or services

Supervisors and/or colleagues may include:

- People from other services
- Team members
RANGE STATEMENT

Assistance may be sought from:

- Other staff
- Clinical mental health services
- Acquired brain injury services
- Community based support services
- Legal services
- Hospitals
- Ambulance
- Police
- Interpreters
- Consumer consultants
- Transcultural consultants

Other services may include:

- Carer/consumer groups
- Psychosocial rehabilitation
- Accommodation
- Specialist disability
- Legal
- Day support
- Employment and/or skill development service e.g. Life or living skills
- Pre-vocational
- Leisure
- Recreation
- Education
- Social activities
- Neuropsychological assessment
- Behaviour consultancy services
- Clinical treatment
- Drug and alcohol
- Health
- Advocacy
- Respite
- Pharmacies
- Financial
- Torture/trauma
- Spiritual support
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS421B Undertake community sector work within own community

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS421A Undertake community sector work within own community</td>
<td>CHCCS421B Undertake community sector work within own community</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor

This unit deals with the skills and knowledge required for workers to deal with a range of issues associated with delivery of programs and services to individual and communities within the context of community sector work in communities in which they are personally involved.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to workers involved in the delivery of community services to members of their own community.

Work who may be undertaken individually and/or as part of a team, with services delivered through visits to the community, through community-specific agencies or through mainstream services.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Address cultural issues and complexities when working in own community | 1.1 Apply an understanding of the cultural issues and complexities of working with own community
1.2 Identify historical, social, political, economic and environmental factors which currently impact on people in the community
1.3 Identify potential issues related to the delivery of programs and services to own community for self and community members
1.4 Identify current strategies, programs and models that address identified issues and apply in work practice |
| 2. Apply appropriate service frameworks and models | 2.1 Identify suitable services and organisations and clarify their potential role and approach to addressing community issues
2.2 Identify appropriate frameworks for service delivery in the community, taking into account potential issues and conflicts related to service delivery
2.3 Promote and select services and approaches that support individuals and the community to be self-determining and empowered
2.4 Demonstrate commitment to achieving access and equity to services for community members, in line with identified need
2.5 Establish and maintain networks with relevant agencies and associated services (e.g. housing agencies) to support individuals and communities |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3. Work in a culturally safe manner         | 3.1 Consider and respect local community values, beliefs and roles when providing services to individuals and the community
3.2 Apply cultural safety protocols in implementing government policies, undertaking research and data collection and delivering services to individuals and the community
3.3 Identify cultural or belief based factors that may present a barrier to behaviour change and/or adaptation to current circumstances
3.4 Identify cultural or belief based factors that may produce stress and have a potential to impact own work practices and report to organisation as appropriate to support service delivery and personal well being
3.5 Deliver services safely as limited by own level of competence and responsibility and in line with organisation policies, regulatory requirements and community protocols |
| 4. Apply strategies and policies relevant to service delivery | 4.1 Identify aspects of organisation service strategies, policies, bodies and resources relevant to work in specific communities
4.2 Apply strategies and policies to address identified needs of individuals and the community
4.3 Identify barriers to access and equity in relation to services
4.4 Take available opportunities to advocate on behalf of individuals and/or the community
4.5 Maintain confidentiality of client information |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Awareness of potential issues related to delivery of community services in own community
- Relevant community programs and services available to members of the community
- Community perceptions of major issues affecting them and underlying causes
- Perceptions of people outside the community relating to major issues and underlying causes
- Available health and social statistics related to community issues
- Social, cultural, historical and environmental determinants and strategies to address issues affecting the community, including:
  - traditional language, cultural and religious practices and lifestyle
  - impact of socioeconomic factors on health and welfare
  - social and political factors that perpetuate disadvantage
  - importance of personal achievement, education and supportive family/social networks
  - strategies community members may employ to maintain strong culture and supportive social networks and maximise educational, employment and social opportunities for their children
  - impact of environmental factors on health and well being
- Barriers to improving environmental determinants
- Lifestyle and behavioural issues, including:
  - known behaviours that pose a significant risk to the community
  - education and promotion of healthy lifestyle practices
  - principles of well being
- Relevant aspects of the community services and health care system, such as access to benefits

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work consistently in a culturally safe manner with and on behalf of clients in line with identified community needs and workplace requirements
- Work with an understanding of the impact of historical, social, political, spiritual and environmental factors on the health and well being of community members
- Take into account social, political and environmental factors that influence the health and well being of clients
- Communicate effectively and establish a relationship of trust with clients
- Initiate appropriate actions in response to assessment and in accordance with organisation procedures and protocols for commonly presented health conditions
- Engage the client in self management principles and practices
- Make appropriate referrals, providing accurate and relevant details to clients and referral agencies
- Reflect on and improve own level and application of skills and knowledge to achieve desirable outcomes and maintain own capabilities
- Determine potential relational issues and conflicts between work role and community role

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects of assessment:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must demonstrate consistency of application of skills and knowledge described in this unit of competency
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from a workplace environment

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Cultural safety refers to:
- Maintaining the protection of a community's:
  - intellectual property
  - human rights
  - resources
  - ownership of materials
- Community and self-protection

Cultural or belief based factors that may produce stress include:
- Community and/or own expectations that may involve, for example:
  - extended work hours
  - functions outside health work role
  - unrealistic accountability/responsibility for resolving community problems
  - family pressures
  - conflict between work role and community responsibilities
- Multiple accountabilities to employer, family, personal and community
- Conflict between community and family responsibilities and obligations and work role
- Motor vehicle accidents

Agencies associated services may include:
- Government health services
- Welfare agencies
- Emergency services
- Police
- Education and training organisations
- Non-government and private enterprise
- Community Government Councils
- Elected community organisations
- Churches
RANGE STATEMENT

Barriers to access and equity may include:

- Racism, including community and institutionalised racism
- Discrimination
- Socioeconomic status
- Access to essential services and infrastructure
- Lack of coordination of government at all levels
- Inadequate resources/funding
- Lack of community control and ownership
- Lack of political leverage
- Language barriers
- Disease focus of mainstream health care delivery
- Differences in concept of ill health
- Geographic access to primary health care and specialist health services
- Cultural barriers
- Language/literacy

Organisation policies and regulatory requirements may include:

- Privacy and confidentiality guidelines
- Treatment manuals
- Work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
- Infection control guidelines

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS422B Respond holistically to client issues and refer appropriately

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS422A Respond holistically to client issues and refer appropriately</td>
<td>CHCCS422B Respond holistically to client issues and refer appropriately</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Updated terminology 'challenging behaviour' to 'behaviours of concern'. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to assess a range of client issues and refer appropriately

Application of the Unit

Application

On completion of this unit, the worker will be able to respond appropriately to clients that have a range of issues outside and in addition to the area of immediate focus, expertise or interests of the worker and their organisation

For instance, a child protection worker may need to identify when alcohol and other drug issues are important in the life of a presenting client

Completion of the unit will also provide the worker with competence to make decisions as to whether to refer or retain the client

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish interpersonal relationship with client</td>
<td>1.1 Define boundaries and use communication skills that will establish a trusting and respectful relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Utilise facilitative communication skills to assist the client to identify areas of concern, to prioritise areas for immediate and longer term action and to determine options for action and workable strategies to address their priority areas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Share relevant information with client about options and services available to enable them to make informed decisions</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Identify the range of issues impacting on the client and assess client needs

   2.1 Identify indicators of harm, neglect, abuse or risk of harm
   2.2 Use observations, assessment tools and questioning to identify possible presenting issues
   2.3 Seek information from a range of appropriate sources to determine the range of issues that may be affecting the client within organisation policies and procedures regarding autonomy, privacy and confidentiality
   2.4 Apply organisation procedures for collecting and analysing client information
   2.5 Examine all client information to determine the degree to which other issues may impact on the possible services that can be provided by the organisation

3. Analyse and assess information to determine appropriate course of action to be followed

   3.1 Assess the level of risk to the client and others directly involved using tools approved or adopted by the organisation
   3.2 Follow organisation procedures and address legal requirements and duty of care obligations in responding to indicators of risk of abuse, neglect or harm
   3.3 Identify and prioritise client's current needs and available sources of assistance
   3.4 Identify organisation's capacity to meet range of client needs to be addressed
   3.5 Apply accepted procedures to assess the option of bringing in specialist support and continuing to work with the client
   3.6 Share relevant information with client about options and services available to enable them to make informed decisions
   3.7 Provide the client with resources as appropriate
   3.8 Follow relevant State/territory legislation, organisation policies and procedures and duty of care obligations and legislative requirements in responding to indicators of actual or potential risk of abuse, neglect or harm
ELEMENT

4. Refer client to other services to provide coordinated support

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Identify a client's need for support internal and external to the agency

4.2 Implement appropriate procedures to address potential emergency or crisis situation

4.3 Comply with cultural obligations when working with clients

4.4 Work with the client and significant others where relevant to motivate, support and encourage the client

4.5 Identify current needs and sources of assistance, and give support as appropriate

5. Review effectiveness of services provided to meet client needs

5.1 Review outcomes in accordance with organisation procedures and in consultation with clients, carers and significant others, case managers and other service providers

5.2 Complete document/s as required and in line with organisation procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Identification of the impact of issues relating to:
  - mental health
  - child protection - this must include essential underpinning knowledge of dynamics of child abuse, indicators of risk and risk factors
  - domestic violence
  - disability
  - homelessness
  - unemployment
  - alcohol and other drugs (AOD)

- Knowledge of accepted practices and available referral agencies for working with people experiencing issues related to:
  - mental health
  - child protection
  - domestic violence
  - disability
  - homelessness
  - unemployment
  - AOD
  - any form of crisis

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply client management skills to deal with complex needs and difficult or behaviours of concern
- Identify the range of relevant issues that may impact on service delivery
- Develop an implement a plan in conjunction with the client to address their issues
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Provide referral to appropriate services
- Evaluate effectiveness of services
- Operate within duty of care and organisation requirements to address client needs
- Apply interpersonal skills to facilitate client to identify options for change and for addressing their issues
- Demonstrate case work skills to ensure effective assessment, intervention and referral
- Manage information to ensure all records are maintained, stored and accessible

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply research skills to ensure a current and correct list of relevant services are readily available to the client
- Provide a brief intervention to raise awareness, share knowledge and help client to think about making changes to improve well being
- Apply crisis intervention and networking skills
- Utilise relevant information technology effectively in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit must be assessed after, or in conjunction, with the attainment of competency in the compulsory communication unit within the qualification
- Competency must be demonstrated in a real work environment
- Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance across contexts applicable to the work environment
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

Related units:

Although this unit requires no pre-requisite, there are a number of related units of competence both of a generic and sector specific nature that would be ideally mastered prior to undertaking this unit of competence.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Presenting issues include:

- A client with secondary or multiple issues who is most likely to present 'first' to the following types of services (for an issue relevant to those services):
  - child protection
  - juvenile justice / youth service
  - social housing
  - employment service

Indicators of harm, neglect, abuse or risk of harm

- Physical symptoms such as injuries or loss of weight
- Verbal and non-verbal cues
- Impairment to cognitive functioning caused by acquired brain injury such as loss of memory, inability to concentrate, plan, organise
- Reports from the individual, carers or other workers
- Psychological/emotional indicators

Harm, neglect, abuse or risk of harm includes:

- Physical
- Emotional
- Cognitive
- Psychological
- Sexual
- Financial

Appropriate sources (of information) include:

- Case notes
- File
- Other workers

Harm, neglect, abuse or risk of harm may be from:

- Carers
- Workers/service providers
- Self
- Family or significant others
- Community members
RANGE STATEMENT

Responding to indicators of risk of abuse, neglect or harm includes:
- Intervention to remove the risk
- Reporting to appropriate personnel
- Investigating
- Seeking specialist support/services
- Referral
- Following State/territory legislative requirements

Responding to indicators of risk of abuse, neglect or harm will be determined by:
- Legislation
- The specific job role
- Organisation procedures
- Family and cultural mores

People who are vulnerable and at significant risk may be:
- People with a disability
- People with an acquired brain injury
- Elderly people
- People with mental health issues
- Children and young people
- Babies under one year of age
- Toddlers (children under three years of age)
- People who are homeless
- People in unequal power relationships

Non presenting problems or issues are likely to be:
- Alcohol and other drugs
- Mental illness
- Developmental disability
- Acquired Brain Injury
- Abuse and risk of abuse
- Domestic violence
- Homelessness / inadequate housing
- Unemployment
- Juvenile justice issues
- Communicable disease
- Financial difficulties
- New arrival in the country
RANGE STATEMENT

Legal requirements and duty of care obligations include:
- Ethical referral
- Comply with state and territory legislation

Significant other may include
- Partners
- Family members
- Care
- Advocates

Approaches to addressing specific issues include applying accepted methodologies, underpinning values and philosophies of the specific areas

The following notes offer a guide:
- AOD may include knowledge of harm minimisation practices, of the effects of AOD on body system and social relationships, and of the signs and symptoms of intoxication:
  - knowledge of groups and agencies in the community who can respond to individuals with AOD problems by providing treatment and detoxification programs is central
  - also important is an awareness of personal bias, and models or perspectives on drug use i.e. disease perspective, moral perspective of both the client and of referral agencies
- Mental health may include recognising basic signs and symptoms of anxiety, depression, suicidal impulses, and indicators of mental illness such as hallucinations or delusion:
  - knowledge of appropriate referral and intervention services in the community is critical
- Domestic violence may include an understanding of such violence as an abuse of power perpetrated both in a relationship and after separation and that such violence takes a number of forms:
  - these include physical and sexual violence, emotional and psychological abuse and economic deprivation
  - domestic violence occurs across all groups, cultures and creeds
  - the safety and well being of individuals subjected to domestic violence should be of primary concern
  - knowledge of groups and agencies in the community who can respond to individuals with domestic violence issues is required
RANGE STATEMENT

- Child protection requires knowledge of relevant state mandatory reporting legislation and its application
- Child protection also requires knowledge of child development, dynamics of child abuse, risk factors, behavioural/physical indicators of abuse and agencies that respond to child protection matters
- It is vital to recognise that children (particularly infants) in families where abuse of alcohol and other drugs exist are more likely to be at risk of harm
- Where there other risk factors such as domestic violence and mental health co exist with AOD issues the potential risk of harm to those children increases significantly
- When working with adult clients who have children, the safety, welfare and well being of the children must be included in all case management practices
- Developmental disability may describe individuals who have a multiplicity of disabilities including difficulty learning, thinking and reasoning, retaining information and forming social relationships
  - It is vital to recognise the individuality of developmental disabled persons, their right to age appropriate consultation and to self determination
  - Needs arising from social isolation and the critical importance of primary care-givers in the lives of developmental disabled persons should also be recognised
  - Knowledge is required of groups and agencies in the community that can provide advocacy services
- Juvenile justice may include knowledge of adolescent clients and their special need as individuals, within families and as part of a group, including stages of development and social issues affecting youth
  - Recognition of the vulnerability of young people in their dealings with authority and of the protection that should operate during an investigation or proceeding in relation to an offence is required
  - Knowledge of groups and agencies in the community that can provide services such as advocacy and legal advice to young people in their dealings with the justice system is essential
RANGE STATEMENT

- Acquired Brain Injury may include:
  - awareness of the causes and effects of ABI
  - understanding of the impact of cognitive impairment on the individual and families, including associated grief and loss issues;
  - knowledge of the ABI service system; skills in working with people with behaviours of concern

Organisation procedures for collecting and analysing client information may include written and oral input to:

- Questionnaires
- Assessment tools
- Client profile forms etc

Procedures to prevent escalation of a potential emergency or crisis situation may include:

- Using calming communication skills
- Managing and containing emotional responses and escalating behaviour
- Identify and address source of the issue
- Discussing the situation with the client
- Negotiation and mediation
- Seeking assistance from other workers or client carers
- Providing physical and visual barriers
- Evaluating the potential risk of the emergency
- Implementing specific communication skills including questioning, reflective listening and body language

Appropriate procedures to address potential emergency or crisis situation may include:

- Negotiating to prevent escalation
- Seeking assistance from other people or agencies
- Immediate referral
- Intervention to ensure physical safety

Other information could include information from:

- The client’s carers and or family
- Other agencies or workers with knowledge of the client
- Client files
RANGE STATEMENT

Specialist support may include:
- Health professionals
- Careers and employment advice
- Financial counselling
- Family and relationship counselling
- Child Protection officers
- Mental health professional
- AOD detox, withdrawal and support
- Child care
- Centrelink officers

All client information would include:
- Behaviour
- Responses to questions and other information provided by client
- Physical appearance and acuity
- File information
- Information on the client provided by family, carers, other workers, other agencies

Accepted procedures to evaluate the benefit to the client of referral include:
- Discussing options with the client, carers and family
- Checking the availability of services within the organisation
- Checking the availability and accessibility of other services

Brief intervention will be focused on providing de-escalation and emotional support:
- One-to-one approach, private
- Takes short period of time
- Can be done by anyone in the team
- A client led process
- Opportunistic
- Used for harm reduction and facilitating behaviour change
- Carer respite (e.g. for clients with ABI)
RANGE STATEMENT

Organisation policies and procedures may include:

- Incident reporting and documentation
- Operational guidelines for handling cases involving difficult and behaviours of concern
- Record-keeping
- Legal responses

Decisions to provide a brief intervention will be based on:

- The issues of concern to the client and the stage of decision to change is determined
- Availability of resources to support the brief intervention
- Agency and worker mandate and focus

Documents may include:

- Data
- Case notes
- Case files
- Client reports
- Referral notes

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS424B Administer and monitor medications

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS424A</td>
<td>CHCCS424B</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to responsibly administer and monitor prescribed medications to a person with stable health conditions in a range of settings under delegation from a health professional in accordance with legislation and the organisation's medication and delegation policies and practice.

This unit is available only as part of a qualification at Certificate IV level and above or as part of the High support and complex care skill set which is available to those holding a Certificate IV qualification.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit of competency requires the application of skills and knowledge to administer medication to clients in a manner that is safe.

Competency requires an awareness of and practice consistent with health legislative requirements and codes of practice and enterprise safe workplace practices.

The unit must be applied strictly in accordance with relevant state/territory legislation and industry guidelines which include, but are not limited to:

- Aged Care Act and Regulations
The Drugs and Poison's Act and other relevant legislation in the state/territory
Disability Services Act

Legislation and industry guidelines (contd):

The organisation's procedures and guidelines written in accordance with the relevant legislation and reflecting the scope of role and accountability for the level of worker in that jurisdiction

Australian Nursing Council (2005) Guidelines on Delegation and Supervision of Registered Nurses
NSW Nurses and Midwives Board (May 2005) Delegating the Administration of Medication in Aged Care Facilities
Royal College of Nursing Australia and Australian Nursing Federation (2004) Joint Position Statement: Assistants in nursing and other unlicensed workers (however titled)

When the requirements of this standard are achieved, medications will be administered strictly in compliance with advice, instruction and relevant legislation. Where necessary, health professional support is sought to administer medication as appropriate for that environment or context

Annual reconfirmation of the essential knowledge and competency by the employer within performance management framework is mandatory

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisites
This unit must be assessed after achievement of the following related units of competency:

- HLTAP301B Recognise healthy body systems in a health care setting
- CHCCS305C Assist clients with medication
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify situations that pose a potential risk to the safe administration of medications</td>
<td>1.1 Based on care plan and/or delegation, access information to enable identification of substance incompatibilities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify environmental and/or practice issues that may impact on or contraindicate administration of medication in specific situations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Report potential risks related to medication administration to supervisor or health professional</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Confirm client identity and if any allergies exist</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Identify drugs and poisons schedules and classifications as determined by law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Identify any limitations on own capability in relation to undertaking delegated medication administration function and report to delegating health professional</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT
2. Prepare for medication administration within a variety of settings

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Establish authority to assist with medication administration in line with organisation policies, guidelines and protocols and jurisdictional legislative and regulatory requirements

2.2 Clarify role in providing assistance with medication administration in line with delegation

2.3 Confirm that all dose administration aids are complete, ready for use and up to date

2.4 Implement personal hygiene procedures according to organisation policy and procedure to ensure cross infection is minimised

2.5 Ensure practice is at all times consistent with policies, procedures and delegations in order to fulfil duty of care requirements

2.6 Gather equipment required for medication administration

2.7 Confirm medication administration route and associated terminology and procedures for medication administration

2.8 Identify from the care plan the purpose and function of prescribed medications for administration

2.9 Report environmental and/or practice issues that may impact on or contraindicate administration of medication in specific situations and seek direction from supervisor or health professional

2.10 Accurately measure and/or calculate dosages for administration of medication

2.11 Prepare medications according to delegated role and in line with legal and environmental guidelines

2.12 Demonstrate medication administration techniques and precautions specific to each client as per delegation
ELEMENT

3. Identify and prepare the client for administration of medication

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Identify the client, including clients who self administer, according to organisation procedures and delegation

3.2 Greet correctly identified client and prepare for medication administration

3.3 Check client medication according to organisation guidelines and delegation

3.4 Inform the client of the administration procedure

3.5 Prior to administration, check the client for any physical or behavioural changes that may indicate the need to report to delegating health professional, according to organisation policies and procedures

4. Administer required medications within legal parameters

4.1 Administer medications as delegated within role responsibility according to the law and environment policy

4.2 Prepare and administer medications according to specific requirements of the form of medication, in strict accordance with defined legislation and organisation procedures, according to delegation and in line with prescriber’s written instructions where available

4.3 Implement all checks to ensure the right medication is given at the right time, to the right person, in the right amount, via the right route, in the right form

4.4 Assist the client taking the medication as required and according to documented procedures

4.5 Supervise and observe the client when taking medication and confirm ingestion or completion

4.6 Dispose of all used and unused medication, containers, needles and syringes in line with organisation procedures

4.7 Identify signs that PRN medications may be required, review care plan and written instructions and act in accordance with organisation’s policies, procedures and role responsibility, in line with delegation
ELEMENT

5. Monitor client response to administered medication

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Record administration of medications according to organisation policy

5.2 Contribute to information provided to clients and carers on medication administration, including possible side effects

5.3 Identify apparent acute and delayed adverse reactions to medications, respond within role responsibility and report to supervisor or health professional

5.4 Implement emergency response for identified acute and delayed adverse reactions within role responsibility

5.5 Record and report response to emergency strategies

5.6 Identify signs of a client experiencing pain and report to supervisor or health professional

5.7 Observe and record client response to pain relieving medication and report to supervisor or health professional

6. Comply with the organisation's procedures for handling the range of issues/contingencies which may arise

6.1 Report to supervisor and health professional client refusal to take medication or incomplete ingestion according to organisation's procedures and protocols

6.2 Identify contaminated or out of date medication

6.3 Implement organisation procedures for disposal of contaminated or out of date medication

6.4 Observe and record changes in the client's condition according to the organisation's guidelines and report to supervisor and health professional

6.5 Record and report any inconsistency (e.g. with the medication, the time or the client) according to the delegation

6.6 Document inconsistencies and address according to the organisation's guidelines and procedures
ELEMENT

7. Complete medication distribution and administration

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

7.1 Manage the trolley, or other medication container and used medication containers according to industry and the organisation's infection control guidelines

7.2 Complete arrangements and procedures to replenish dose administration aids and supplies

7.3 Store medication charts according to the organisation's procedures to ensure safety, security and confidentiality

7.4 Complete medication storage procedures to maximise security, prevent medication deterioration and in compliance with legislation
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Clear understanding of principles, practices and regulatory framework underpinning delegation and supervision, accountability and responsibility
- Basic understanding of medication groups and categories and their effect on body systems and major disorders, including:
  - central nervous system
  - musculo-skeletal system
  - peripheral nervous system
  - endocrine system
  - cardiovascular system
  - respiratory system
  - gastrointestinal system
  - urinary system
  - reproductive systems
  - immune system
  - integumentary system
  - eye, ear and special senses
  - micro-organisms
  - neoplastic disease
- Principles of safe medication administration and consequences of incorrect use of medication, main reasons for errors in medication administration
- Cross infection and prevention strategies including correct hand washing techniques, glove usage and awareness of how infection is spread
- Basic understanding of major factors that affect the action of drugs, including age, disease processes, nutrition, and hydration
- Measurement and calculation requirements for medication administration
- Relevant medical/medication terminology
- Commonly accepted medication abbreviations
- Basic knowledge of commonly used medications
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Basic pharmacology of medications, including:
  - pharmacodynamics
  - pharmacokinetics
  - pharmacotherapeutics
  - toxicology
- Forms of medication, modes and routes for medication delivery
- Legal requirements of each route of administration
- Procedures for medication administration routes listed in the Range Statement
- How and when to use the equipment listed in the Range Statement
- Roles within the health care team in the administration of medications
- Role in medical emergency
- Basic understanding and knowledge of substance incompatibilities and contra-indications, such as:
  - warfarin and aspirin
  - medication and diet
  - medication and sunlight
- Basic understanding of:
  - anaphylactic reactions
  - side effects
  - precautions
- Basic understanding of complementary therapies
- Legal requirements for practice parameters including Poisons Act, Poison Schedules S4Ds and S8s
- Relevant workplace health and safety policies to ensure safe practice, including:
  - management of sharps
  - potential hazards in a health environment
  - chemical use in cleaning and sanitising in relation to medication residue in containers
- Appropriate storage of medications
- Methods of storage, handling and usage of medications
- Organisation procedures for the documentation of medication and the use of medication charts

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Read and accurately interpret delegated medication responsibilities from the care plan or other written instructions
- Ensure all work is in accordance with supervisor and health professional's instructions
- Accurately observe, report and record discrepancies in medications, instructions and/or
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Observe and record changes in the client's condition as listed in the Range Statement, during and after medication administration and report to supervisor and health professional.
- Provide administration of medications according to the specific delegation and in compliance with legal and organisation policies and procedures, including principles of best practice relating to:
  - following medication label and/or instructions
  - work health and safety (WHS)
  - infection control including correct hand washing
  - managing and reporting contingencies as they arise
  - applying standard and additional precautions in infection control
  - correct documentation of medication administered
- Demonstrate the following skills correctly, including specific levels of literacy and numeracy and physical capabilities required:
  - read and correctly interpret care plan or other written instruction from supervisor or health professional for administration requirements for medications
  - use dose administration aids
  - observe, report and record discrepancies in medications, instructions and/or client
  - report any obvious changes in client's condition as listed in the Range Statement before, during and after self-medication to a supervisor and/or health professional so remedial action can be taken
- Negotiate the physical assistance that can be provided
- Use equipment listed in the Range Statement effectively and appropriately
- Distribute medications in a timely, appropriate and effective way to clients with differing needs and according to form of medication
- Apply language, literacy and numeracy required for drug calculation, administration and documentation of medications
- Demonstrate correct preparation, administration and recording of medications via delegated routes within the range identified in the Range Statement
- Correctly administer and support self-administration of insulin by sub-cutaneous injection using pre-loaded syringes or pens
- Skills and knowledge to conduct BSL monitoring including knowledge of the acceptable and safe range of results for an individual client and operating in accordance with organisation's policy and practice and seeking advice and assessment of the health professional when results are outside the acceptable and safe range before administering insulin by sub-cutaneous injection

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake basic calculations for oral administration of tablets
- Safely measure liquids according to directions
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Respond within job role in an emergency situation where a client is experiencing an adverse medication reaction
- Oral communication skills required to fulfill job role, including:
  - interviewing skills
  - questioning
  - active listening
  - seeking clarification

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit must be assessed in the workplace under the normal range of work conditions
- Assessment must be conducted on more than one occasion to cover a variety of circumstances
- Assessment must reflect actual delegation from a health professional
- Development of assessment tools and methods may include the input of a health professional
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Competency in this unit should be assessed using all the relevant resources commonly provided in the residential care service setting
- Specific tools may include:
  - medication charts and documentation
  - medications and equipment
  - relevant policies and procedures manuals
  - other documentation relevant to the work context such as:
    - organisation charts
    - floor plans
    - instructions for the use of equipment
    - specific medication administration instructions
    - client care plan
    - relevant guidelines and legislation
- relevant equipment and cleaning agents currently used in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:
Assessment will include:
- Observation of work performance
- Supporting statement of supervisor or health professional
- Authenticated evidence of relevant work experience and/or formal/informal learning
- Case studies and scenarios as a basis for discussion of issues and strategies to achieve required infection control outcomes in specific work environments and communities
- Written assessment of functional English language, literacy and numeracy skills appropriate to the level of responsibility of the care worker
- Annual reconfirmation of the essential knowledge and competency by the employer within a performance management framework is mandatory

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Potential risk may include but is not limited to:
- Client identification
- Allergic reactions
- Immunisation status
- Medication incompatibilities
RANGE STATEMENT

Delegation refers to:

- Conferring of authority to perform specific medication administration activities to a worker not usually authorised but who has been determined as appropriate for the task by the delegating health professional
- Delegation is within the context of a care plan or other written instruction
- Where delegation is provided verbally it must be confirmed as soon as practicable according to organisation procedures in writing and incorporated in the care plan
- The authority is specific to an individual client within a specific care context and is not transferable
- Delegation instructions must include:
  - medication and its purpose
  - medication form and instructions e.g. enteric coated - do not crush
  - dosage and related instructions
  - route
  - contra-indications
  - any other relevant instructions or information, especially information specific to the client
RANGE STATEMENT

Supervision refers to:

- Instructing, advising, and monitoring another person in order to ensure safe and effective performance in carrying out the duties of their position
- Supervision may be conducted by various means including:
  - in person
  - through use of electronic communications media such as telephone or video conferencing, where necessary
- Supervision level, form and frequency must be established by the delegating health professional for all work delegated to another worker
- Frequency and form of supervision will be determined by factors such as:
  - the task maturity of the person being supervised
  - the need to review and assess client conditions and progress in order to establish or alter treatment plans
  - The need to correct and develop non-clinical aspects such as time management, organisation requirements, communication skills, and other factors supporting the provision of clinical care and working within a team

Health professional includes:

- Registered nurses
- Medical practitioners
- Pharmacist
- Complementary medicine therapist (for delegation within legislative requirements, specific to their area of expertise where included in the care plan)
- Dentist

Settings may include:

- Aged care residential
- Client's home
- Group home
- Respite service
RANGE STATEMENT

Dose administration aids may include:
- Blister packs - single dose packs and multi-dose packs

Equipment required may include:
- Aprons
- Container for dirty spoons/dishes
- Medication charts/sheets
- Gloves
- Key to medication trolley/medication cupboard
- Lubricant
- Measuring cups
- Measuring spoon
- Mortar and pestle
- Nebuliser/spacer
- Oxygen cylinder
- Oxygen mask/nasal prongs
- Pre-loaded dose administration aids for insulin
- Paper towels/tissues
- Tablet divider
- Tea towel
- Tumblers
- Water pitcher

Medication administration routes include:
- Aural
- Insulin by sub-cutaneous injection using pre-loaded syringes or pens
- Intranasal
- Ocular
- Oral
- Rectal
- Topical (including transdermal)
- Vaginal administration
RANGE STATEMENT

Measure and/or calculate dosages includes:

- 100% accurate measurement and/or calculation of medication required as per written delegation and/or prescription, including:
  - measurement of liquid medications into measuring cup or spoon
  - calculation of medication mixtures and solutions
  - use of standard formulae to calculate the number or fraction of tablets to be administered to equate to required dose
  - calculation of the number or fraction of tablets to equate to identified weight

Prepare medications may include:

- Dispensing tablets from dose administration aids into medicine cup
- Measuring liquid medications into measuring cup/spoon
- Dissolving powder in water
- Placing medication in nebuliser/spacer
- Use of lubricant

Medication administration techniques may include, for example:

- Techniques to assist clients with difficulties swallowing
- Techniques to assist clients with specific disabilities
- Techniques for managing behaviours of concern

Prepare for medication administration may include:

- Discussing procedures with client
- Encouraging client participation
- Adjusting posture and positioning client
- Seeking assistance from other staff
- Providing privacy
- Exposure to treatment area

Check client medication may include:

- Checking medication is free from contamination
- Checking that medication, time and resident/client correlate with documentation
- Checking dose administration aids for evidence of tampering
RANGE STATEMENT

Physical or behavioural changes observed in condition of the client that must be immediately reported to a supervisor or health professional may include, but are not limited to:

- Changes to airway (e.g. choking), breathing (including slowed, fast or absent breathing, colour changes) or circulation (including unexpected drowsiness, colour change and absence of pulse)
- Rash
- Inflammation or redness
- Swelling
- Headache
- Skin tone
- Feelings of dizziness
- Slurring of speech
- Nausea and vomiting
- Blurred vision
- Confusion
- Changes in behaviour
- Anything that appears abnormal about the resident/client
- Others as advised by a doctor or health professional

The form of medication may include:

- Capsules
- Ear drops
- Eye drops
- Inhalants
- Liquid
- Lotion and cream
- Nose drops
- Patches
- Pessaries
- Powder
- Pre-loaded syringes or pens
- Suppositories
- Tablets
- Wafers
RANGE STATEMENT

All checks include:
- Checking medication against the requirements
- Checking client details
- Checking the chart
- Checking for authorisation
- Checking specific delegation

Incomplete ingestion includes:
- Inability or difficulties in swallowing whole or divided tablets
- Ejection of medication
- Vomiting
- Refusal to take medications

Document inconsistencies may include:
- Incident reports
- Medical charts
- Progress notes

Drug storage procedures include:
- Acting in accordance with defined job role
- Locking and storing medications according to organisation policy and procedure

Required medications may include:
- Medications prescribed for client by doctor or health professional and dispensed by pharmacist in dose administration aids
- PRN medications as prescribed (and identified in medication chart/sheet and/or care plan) according to relevant legislation, organisation guidelines and delegations

Client identification may include:
- Referral to forms of identification such as photographs, wristbands
- Recognition by response
- Confirmation from nursing/care staff

References may include:
- MIMS annual or drug reference guide
- Drugs hotline/drug information line
RANGE STATEMENT

Industry guidelines may include:

- Australian Pharmaceutical Advisory Council
  Integrated best practice model for medication management in residential aged care facilities
- State and territory health department legislation, policies and guidelines
- Organisation policies and procedures
- Internal facility medication audits

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS425B Support health professional

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS425A Support health professional</td>
<td>CHCCS425B Support health professional</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to undertake specific tasks as delegated by and under direct supervision of a health professional.
Application of the Unit

Application

The worker operates within the scope of their defined roles and responsibilities, within delegations established by a health professional and under supervision of a health professional.

The worker is providing support delegated by a health professional to clients whose health condition is assessed by the health professional as being stable and predictable.

Competency requires an awareness of and practice consistent with health legislative requirements and codes of practice and enterprise safe workplace practices.

The unit must be applied strictly in accordance with relevant state/territory legislation and industry guidelines.

For training and assessment pathways, experience in workplace application of the skills and knowledge identified in this unit of competency should be provided as required to support health professionals.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Plan to deliver specific treatment action | 1.1 Obtain instructions about the required treatment from delegating health professional
1.2 Consult delegating health professional about the treatment requirements and desired client outcomes
1.4 Identify and confirm with delegating health professional expected impact of treatment on the client
1.5 Obtain information about medical and psychosocial conditions that may impact on the treatment and discuss with delegating health professional
1.6 Determine client readiness for the delegated treatment in line with delegation by supervising health professional |
2. Support delivery of specific treatment

2.1 Gather equipment and materials to deliver the treatment, in line with client needs, client environment and in line with delegation by supervising health professional

2.2 Check safety and efficiency of any equipment and materials and report any problems to relevant health professional

2.3 Support client in line with delegation by supervising health professional, in ways that promote safety, involvement and confidence, and adhere to cultural and spiritual beliefs and preference of client

2.4 Provide constructive feedback to client about involvement in activities

2.5 Seek immediate support from delegating/supervising health professional if client becomes distressed, is in pain and/or communicates their desire to stop or amend the treatment

2.6 Seek immediate support from delegating/supervising health professional if client shows any other adverse response to treatment

2.7 Seek immediate advice from delegating/supervising health professional if client safety issues arise

2.8 Monitor client response to treatment in line with delegation by supervising health professional

3. Comply with organisation's procedures for handling the range of contingencies which may arise

3.1 Notify delegating/supervising health professional of any difficulty with treatment according to organisation procedures and protocols

3.2 Identify, report, record and address individual’s reactions to treatment in line with delegation by supervising health professional

3.3 Identify, document any inconsistencies observed in provision of treatment and address in line with delegation by supervising health professional

3.4 Document and address all inconsistencies in line with delegation by supervising health professional
ELEMENT

4. Provide required treatment within legal parameters

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Administer treatment as per treatment plan and within role responsibility according to the law and in line with delegation by supervising health professional

4.2 Prepare and deliver treatments according to specific requirements of the treatment plan, in strict accordance with any defined legislation and in line with delegation by supervising health professional

4.3 Implement all checks to ensure the correct treatment is given at the correct time, to the correct person, using the procedures as delegated by supervising health professional

5. Clean and store materials and equipment

5.1 Clean any equipment according to manufacturer's requirements, infection control requirements and organisation protocols

5.2 Store equipment according to manufacturer's requirements, infection control requirements and organisation protocols

5.3 Report equipment faults to appropriate person

6. Document client information

6.1 Use accepted protocols to document information relating to the treatment in line with organisation requirements

6.2 Provide regular feedback to the client's care team in line with delegation by supervising health professional

6.3 Use appropriate terminology to document symptomatic expression of identified problems related to the treatment
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Working knowledge of principles and practices of rehabilitation
- Knowledge of codes of practice for delegated work
- Legal and organisation requirements on equity, diversity, discrimination, rights, confidentiality and sharing information when supporting client treatment
- Specific health issues associated with delegated work, including:
  - chronic health problems
  - health problems with older people
  - health problems relevant to specific disabilities
- Continence management
- Understanding of the physiology of ageing
- Confidentiality and privacy requirements
- Pain management principles
- Infection control principles
- Knowledge of anatomy and physiology to underpin delegated work
- A range of treatments (as listed in the Range Statement) and their impact on client well being
- Legal frameworks/requirements associated with delegated work
- Principles and practices of assessment of individuals with complex needs
- Best practice guidelines to address complex needs
- Work health and safety (WHS) policies and procedures that relate to delegated client treatments
- Infection control policies and procedures that relate to delegated treatments
- Delegation, supervisory and reporting protocols of the organisation

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Read and accurately interpret delegated responsibilities from the care plan or other
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Ensure all work is in accordance with supervising health professional's instructions
- Follow delegated treatment instructions
- Observe and record changes in the client's condition during and after delegated treatment and report to delegating/supervising health professional
- Identify requirements outside scope of role, responsibility, knowledge and skill
- Communicate effectively with clients in a treatment relationship
- Communicate effectively with supervisors and co-workers
- Work within a multi-disciplinary team
- Establish priorities, manage time effectively and demonstrate well-developed personal organisation skills

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Observation of workplace performance is essential for assessment of this unit
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace
- Where, for reasons of safety, space, or access to equipment and resources, assessment takes place away from the workplace, the assessment environment should represent workplace conditions as closely as possible
- Ability to work collaboratively with clients, carers and others
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Assessment must be completed in the workplace and reflect specific delegation by supervising health professional
- Resources essential for assessment include:
  - equipment and materials for undertaking identified treatments
  - protocols for determining client needs and goals and for measuring progress
  - infection control procedures
  - workplace health and safety guidelines
  - relevant organisation and legislative guidelines, standards and procedures
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Delegation by supervising health professional refers to:

- Conferring of authority to perform specific health support treatments and activities to a worker not usually authorised but who has been determined as appropriate for the task by the delegating health professional
- Delegation is within the context of a care plan or other written instruction
- Where delegation is provided verbally it must be confirmed as soon as practicable according to organisation procedures in writing and incorporated in the care plan
- The authority is specific to an individual client within a specific care context and is not transferable
- Delegation instructions must include:
  - specific instruction relating to the treatment and its purpose for particular client
  - expected impact of treatment on client
  - any other relevant instructions or information, especially information specific to the client
RANGE STATEMENT

Supervision refers to:

- Instructing, advising, and monitoring another person in order to ensure safe and effective performance in carrying out the duties of their position.
- Supervision may be conducted by various means including:
  - in person
  - through use of electronic communications media such as telephone or video conferencing, where necessary
- Frequency of supervision will be determined by factors such as:
  - the task maturity of the person being supervised
  - the need to review and assess client conditions and progress in order to establish or alter treatment plans
- The need to correct and develop non-clinical aspects such as time management, organisation requirements, communication skills, and other factors supporting the provision of clinical care and working within a team.

Information may include:

- Rehabilitation plan
- Client care plan
- Exercise plan
- Client treatment plan
- Instructions from the relevant health professional
- Client record
- Case notes
- Other forms according to procedures of the organisation
- Health plan
RANGE STATEMENT

Health professional may include:
- Registered nurse
- General practitioner
- Physiotherapist
- Occupational therapist
- Podiatrist
- Speech pathologist
- Dentist
- Pharmacist
- Community nurse
- Psychiatrist

Client may include:
- Adults
- Children and young people
- Older people
- Client's recovering from an illness
- People with a disability
RANGE STATEMENT

Treatment may include: Treatments delegated by a health professional, and in which the worker has had training and assessment specific to the needs of each client, including:

- Asthma management, including nebulisers and according to a plan
- Bowel management
- Colostomy care
- Continence management
- CPAP
- Enteral feeding
- Foot care
- Hot and cold packs
- Naso gastric feeds
- Oral hygiene
- Oral suction
- Oxygen therapy
- PE.G. feeds
- Physiotherapy support
- Seizure management plans
- Skin integrity
- Suppositories, enemas, pessaries
- Suprapubic catheter care (but not including insertion)
- Urinalysis
- Wound care

Document any inconsistencies may include:

- Incident reports
- Medical charts
- Progress notes
- Care plans
- Health plans
RANGE STATEMENT

Environment may include:
- Home
- Hospital
- Mental health services
- Other community setting
- Palliative care units
- Recreational setting
- Rehabilitation setting
- Residential settings
- School
- Work

All checks include:
- Checking treatment against treatment plan
- Checking client details
- Checking the chart
- Checking for authorisation
- Checking the health plan

Relevant guidelines may include:
- Organisation policies and procedures
- WHS policies and procedures
- Manufacturer specifications

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS426B Provide support and care relating to loss and grief

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS426A Provide support and care relating to loss and grief</td>
<td>CHCCS426B Provide support and care relating to loss and grief</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide support for individuals who are experiencing loss, grief and bereavement

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit of competency may be applied in a range of community services contexts involving supporting individuals dealing with loss, grief and bereavement

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify effects and impact of loss and features of grief | 1.1 Clarify the impact of specific loss(es) and common features of grief and trauma and their interplay at the individual, family and community level
1.2 Recognise common but also distinctive expressions of grief and complex grief
1.3 Take into account distinctive social, cultural, ethnic and spiritual differences in loss and grief
1.4 Recognise the elevated risk of developing negative impacts on health and well being after a loss
1.5 Recognise and understand disenfranchised grief
1.6 Identify and demonstrate understanding and respect for specific approaches and responses of individuals, families and communities to grief
1.7 Demonstrate understanding of integration of loss |
| 2. Engage empathically with people who are living with loss | 2.1 Interact with individuals with empathy, sensitivity, professionalism and courtesy
2.2 Identify and respect social, cultural, ethnic and spiritual differences which may affect grief and bereavement responses
2.3 Apply, within culturally appropriate boundaries verbal and non-verbal approaches to dealing with and responding to grieving individuals
2.4 Apply, within culturally appropriate boundaries empathic listening skills |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>Provide support for individuals who are grieving and identify potential for healing and growth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>Recognise common reactions to loss and the range of grief responses</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>Recognise common reactions to trauma and the range of responses</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3</td>
<td>Identify individuals experiencing difficulty in coping with grief and trauma and link them with options for further help as needed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.4</td>
<td>Demonstrate understanding of the role of complex grief reactions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.5</td>
<td>Identify and assess an individual's suicide risk and where necessary refer to appropriate services</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.6</td>
<td>Use, within culturally appropriate boundaries communication techniques to respond to each individual's needs in relation to their grief and bereavement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.7</td>
<td>Identify, suggest or use strategies for formal and informal grief and bereavement support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.8</td>
<td>Maintain confidentiality in line with organisation practices</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
<td>Identify, inform and refer to appropriate grief and bereavement care services and resources</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.1</td>
<td>Identify grief and bereavement care services available in the community</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2</td>
<td>Identify referral procedures in accordance with organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3</td>
<td>Identify and make accessible general grief and bereavement care information resources</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4</td>
<td>Fully inform individual about grief and bereavement care service options</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5</td>
<td>Obtain feedback from individual to determine whether options are clearly understood</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.</td>
<td>Identify and recognise risks associated with grief and bereavement support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1</td>
<td>Identify and recognise a range of risks associated with grief and bereavement support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Develop and implement appropriate strategies to minimise risks associated with grief and bereavement support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>---------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Access appropriate supervision and debriefing</td>
<td>6.1 Identify the need to access appropriate supervision</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>6.2 Identify the need to access appropriate debriefing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>6.3 Develop and implement appropriate strategies to access supervision and debriefing</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Review and evaluate grief and bereavement support provided</td>
<td>7.1 Reflect on outcomes during and after support is provided</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7.2 Identify where further support is required</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>7.3 Review practices for continuous improvement</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Potential impact of specific loss(es) and common features of grief and bereavement at the individual, family and community level
- Potential impact of specific loss(es) and common features of trauma at the individual, family and community level
- Potential impact of specific loss(es) and common features of complex grief at the individual, family and community level
- Reactions to loss and associated expressions of grief and bereavement
- Awareness of how loss, grief and bereavement can impact on social and emotional health and well being
- Integration of loss
- Distinctive social, cultural, ethnic and spiritual differences in loss, grief and bereavement
- Awareness of the context and circumstances prior to loss and their impact on grief and bereavement
- Awareness of the broad spectrum of loss
- Strategies for formal and informal grief and bereavement support
- Available grief and bereavement care services and information resources
- Understanding of a 'stress vulnerability model'

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Recognise expressions of loss, grief, trauma and bereavement
- Respond appropriately to a range of approaches and responses to loss, grief and trauma
- Engage with individuals experiencing loss, grief trauma and bereavement with empathy, sensitivity, professionalism and courtesy
- Refer individuals who show some signs of mental illness to appropriate services

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply verbal and non-verbal approaches to dealing with and responding to grieving individuals
- Use effective communication skills, including:
  - empathic listening skills
  - use appropriate communication techniques to respond to individual needs
  - provide information clearly and sensitively
  - obtain feedback to confirm understanding
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- Assessment should be gathered on one or more occasions but must reflect the normal range of client situations encountered in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities.

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.

Method of assessment:
- Consistent performance and development would be expected to be demonstrated involving a combination of oral and written media while also featuring simulated and actual practice.
- Examples might include:
  - group exercises
  - written (e.g. journal) and verbal responses to questioning
  - simulated exercises

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Loss may include:
- Primary losses
- Secondary losses:
  - losses of the internal world, such as loss of cognitive or sensory capacity
  - interaction losses
  - losses of the external world, such as material or personal losses
- Cumulative losses

Features of grief may include:
- Sadness
- Longing
- Somatic complaints
- Integration
RANGE STATEMENT

Expressions of grief may include:
- Anger
- Anxiety
- Change in worldview
- Chronic sorrow
- Confusion
- Depression
- Despair
- Drop in self-esteem
- Fear of going mad
- Feeling unable to cope
- Guilt and remorse
- Helplessness
- Hopelessness
- Loneliness
- Questioning of values and beliefs
- Relief
- Shock and disbelief
- Suicidal ideation

Social, cultural, ethnic and spiritual differences in loss, grief and bereavement may include:
- Reactions to loss
- Individual expressions of grief and bereavement
- Cultural expressions of grief and bereavement
- Spiritual and religious beliefs relating to loss, grief and bereavement
- Coping strategies

The context and circumstances prior to loss may include:
- Socioeconomic circumstances
- Presence of mental illness in the deceased
- Age of deceased
- Family relationships

Integration of loss may include:
- Dual process
- Meaning reconstruction
- Continuing bonds
- Disenfranchised grief
- Grieving styles
RANGE STATEMENT

Interact with individuals with empathy, sensitivity, professionalism and courtesy may include:

- Empathic listening
- Identifying and affirming the grieving person's strengths and opportunities
- Helping manage overwhelming feelings to facilitate coping
- Using questions and concreteness to focus on identifying immediate needs and concerns
- Facilitating informed choices by the grieving person
- Unconditional positive regard for the grieving person
- Non-judgemental approach
- Genuineness of response

Appropriate verbal and non-verbal approaches may include:

- Verbal approaches that support empathy, sensitivity, professionalism and courtesy
- Facial expressions, gestures, eye contact and personal space that support empathy, sensitivity, professionalism and courtesy

Empathic listening skills may include:

- Appropriate brief encouragers which help the grieving person relate their story and concerns
- Reflection of feelings/thoughts, behaviours and experience (content)
- Hearing the grieving person's concerns
- Paraphrasing (reflection of content)
- Using open and closed questions to expand or clarify understanding
- Understanding the grieving person's context
- Recognising when higher levels of care may be indicated
- Balancing the frequency of questions
- Summarising and closure
- Application of listening skills within culturally-appropriate boundaries

Difficulty in coping with grief and trauma may include:

- Symptoms of separation distress
- Symptoms of traumatic distress/stress
- Complex grieving
- Suicidal ideation
RANGE STATEMENT

Grief and bereavement support strategies and grief and bereavement care services may include:

- Aboriginal health services
- Coronial services
- Emergency services
- Empathic listening
- General practitioners
- Group grief counselling
- Health services
- Individual grief counselling
- Palliative care services and teams
- Practical support
- Psychological services
- Spiritual and faith care services
- Support group
- Telephone counselling services

Referral procedures may include:

- Referral information
- Referral databases
- Referral protocols

Grief and bereavement care information resources may include:

- Internet resources
- Fact sheets
- Information packs

Risks associated with grief and bereavement support may include:

- Compassion fatigue
- Vicarious traumatisation
- Burnout
- Lack of adequate supervision
- Lack of access to external expertise

Strategies to minimise risks associated with grief and bereavement support may include:

- Self care
- Supervision
- Debriefing
- Back up support
- External networks and expertise
RANGE STATEMENT

The need to access to appropriate supervision and/or debriefing may include:

- Duty of care to clients
- Self care

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS427B Facilitate adult learning and development

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS427A Facilitate adult learning and development</td>
<td>CHCCS427B Facilitate adult learning and development</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to facilitate individual learning by adults through a collaborative learning relationship.

Identifying which learners and learning contexts may benefit from individual learning forms part of this unit.

Interpersonal and communication skills to create the conditions necessary for effective individual learning and to advise, guide, support and respond to the needs of the individual learner, and so establish an appropriate relationship, are critical.

The unit provides the skills and knowledge to do this, and to work with a supervisor in facilitating adult learning and development.
Application of the Unit

Application

This unit typically applies to adult language, literacy and numeracy tutors working with the support of a program supervisor as needed, with one learner or with individual learners in a small group context.

The learning relationship may be face-to-face, online, via telecommunication, or using a combination of media.

It may take a number of forms, including structured or semi-structured activities and formal or informal agreements and may be independent of, or part of, a broad learning and delivery strategy.

Individual learning relationships may be used to help an individual or individuals meet personal or job goals, learn new skills and knowledge, or develop new learning and work behaviour.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify individual learning requirements | 1.1 In consultation with learner, identify needs and goals for individual learning in the learning area and discuss with relevant persons
1.2 Consult with supervisor to identify appropriate individual learning techniques and processes and document them to support individual learning needs and goals
1.3 Obtain organisational support for implementation, where relevant |
| 2. Establish the learning relationship | 2.1 Identify individual's learning style, learner characteristics and abilities, and context for learning and discuss with supervisor
2.2 Select or organise appropriate technique or process to facilitate individual learning and explain and discuss the basis of the technique or process with the individual learner
2.3 Clarify and agree upon boundaries and expectations of the learning relationship
2.4 Clarify additional support required in consultation with supervisor
2.5 Develop and document individualised learning plan, and discuss with learner |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>Maintain and develop the learning relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.1</td>
<td>Prepare for each meeting or session</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2</td>
<td>Grow the relationship and sustain active participation using effective communication and interpersonal skills</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3</td>
<td>As planned with supervisor, develop structured learning activities to support and reinforce new learning, build on strengths and identify areas for further development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.4</td>
<td>Demonstrate leadership and motivational skills to enable the learner to take responsibility for learning, practising ethical behaviour at all times</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.5</td>
<td>Observe learner cues and change approach where necessary to maintain momentum</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.6</td>
<td>Acknowledge, respect and value individual differences and clients with particular needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.7</td>
<td>Schedule regular meetings in consultation with both parties to monitor the effectiveness of the learning relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
<td>Close and evaluate the learning relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.1</td>
<td>Use tools and signals developed with supervisor to determine readiness for closure of individual learning relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2</td>
<td>Carry out closure using appropriate interpersonal and communication skills</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3</td>
<td>Seek feedback from the learner on the outcomes achieved and the value of the relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4</td>
<td>Evaluate whether the learning relationship met learning needs and goals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5</td>
<td>Reflect on own performance in managing the relationship, identify areas for improvement and discuss with supervisor</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.6</td>
<td>Document outcomes as required by the learning relationship</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge and understanding of:

- Change processes, for example:
  - how people work through change
  - behaviour associated with change
- Codes of practice, standards and legal requirements relating to role, such as:
  - duty of care under common law
  - recording information and confidentiality requirements
  - anti-discrimination, including equal opportunity, racial vilification and disability discrimination
- Different learning styles and how to encourage different learners
- Effects of verbal and non-verbal communication, such as:
  - how to interpret behaviour
  - how to model behaviour and values
- How to create or adapt new learning activities as well as other learning options, learning activities and referrals
- Learning cycle, including:
  - concrete experience
  - observation and reflection
  - concept formation
  - testing new learning
- Adult learning principles
- Learner cues that may reflect difficulties with individual learning relationships
- Needs and characteristics of individual learners and current techniques to facilitate individual learning
- Requirements of the support program, including administrative and WHS
- Roles and responsibilities of those providing language, literacy and numeracy support and their specialist supervisors
- Sources of external support
- Tools to evaluate learning outcomes, such as the ACSF
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Negotiate and manage a learning relationship, while working with supervisors and learners
- Demonstrate communication skills and flexibility, using a range of processes and techniques
- Use a range of methods to evaluate the learning relationship

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Communication skills to:
  - clarify and agree upon boundaries and expectations of the learning relationship
  - confirm, clarify or repair understanding
  - provide constructive feedback
  - use verbal and non-verbal language and concepts appropriate to individual and cultural differences
- Initiative and enterprise skills to:
  - inform supervisor of learner progress and issues as required
  - identify suitable learning techniques and activities for the individual learner
  - model facilitation and learning behaviour
  - manage complex situations, including conflict
- Interpersonal skills to:
  - interact with clients from a range of social, cultural, religious and linguistic backgrounds and with varying physical and mental abilities, while:
    - recognising and responding to verbal and non-verbal messages
    - recognising and responding to individual difference and diversity
    - acting without bias or discrimination
    - responding sensitively to diverse backgrounds and particular needs
  - facilitate individual learning through a collaborative and respectful relationship, keeping sessions learner-centred and drawing on the expertise and background of the learner
  - establish a supportive environment that builds rapport
  - use appropriate humour to lighten atmosphere
- Leadership and motivational skills to empower and inspire the learner
- Literacy skills to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- develop the learning plan
- maintain records and other documentation
- read and interpret relevant documentation
- Planning and organising skills to
  - organise appropriate techniques and processes to facilitate individual learning
  - prepare for learning sessions
- Teamwork skills to collaborate with supervisor to:
  - analyse learner needs
  - apply appropriate model of learning to develop learners' required skills
  - implement support strategies appropriate to learner needs
- Technical skills to:
  - determine and alter a learning plan in consultation with supervisor
  - negotiate with learners to ensure suitable learning
  - interpret information gathered and adapt own style accordingly
  - lead and motivate learners to take responsibility for their own learning
  - maintain momentum during the learning process
- Technology skills to:
  - use a range of technology to support numeracy learning
  - use software packages as part of the learning program
- Time-management skills to
  - structure sessions
  - drive the process to achieve goals

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Assessment should ensure the candidate addresses the elements and performance criteria on at least three occasions, over a period of time

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Competency must be demonstrated in a realistic simulated or real work environment
- Assessment requires access to a range of opportunities defined in the range statement, including access to:
  - individual learning plan
  - facilitation activities
  - evaluations from participants or organisation
  - evidence of self-evaluation and improvement of skills, for example, a learning journal
  - audio or video of a facilitation session
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Assessment methods suitable for valid and reliable assessment of this competency may include a combination of:
  - case studies
  - demonstration
  - observation
  - oral and written questioning
  - scenarios, simulation or role plays
  - workplace projects
  - authenticated evidence
- Assessment methods should reflect work demands, such as literacy, and the needs of particular individuals, such as:
  - people in rural and remote locations
  - people with disabilities
  - people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
  - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
  - women
  - young people
  - older people

Guidance information

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment with other units relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role is recommended

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Learning area may be:
- Generic skills
- Life skills
- Management skills
- Organisational or individual
- Program-specific
- Skills for new or changed job role, work procedures or work skills
- Technical skills

Relevant persons may include:
- Learner
- Language, literacy or numeracy specialist
- Experienced trainer, teacher or tutor
- Mentor
- Supervisor or coordinator

Individual learning techniques and processes may include:
- Coaching or tutoring techniques
- Formal or informal process
- Mentoring techniques
- Ongoing or one-off process
- Peer relationships
- Single or double loop learning approaches
- Specific circumstance or an integrated feature of the overall learning process

Organisational support may include:
- Additional time with learner
- Agreement by organisation to provide additional assistance to individuals through identified techniques
- Venue and equipment support
RANGE STATEMENT

Individual's learning style may include:

- Activist
- Auditory
- Global and analytical
- Kinaesthetic
- Pragmatic
- Reflective
- Tactile
- Theoretical
- Visual

Learner characteristics may include:

- Cultural background and needs
- Employment status
- Language, literacy and numeracy requirements
- Length of time resident in Australia
- Level of formal schooling in Australia or overseas
- Level of maturity
- Past learning experiences
- Preferred learning styles
- Specific physical or psychological needs

Context for learning may be:

- Defined by time requirements and built into learning activities
- Defined by the learning activities
- Determined by the area of learning
- Determined by the trainer and the learner
- Impacted by the health, safety or welfare of the learner
- In a classroom, tutorial room, meeting room, office, any agreed meeting place
- In a home, training and/or assessment organisation, college, community, university or school
RANGE STATEMENT

Additional support may include:
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander support
- Community support
- Counselling services
- Disability support
- English language, literacy and numeracy support
- Ethnic support services
- Interpreting services
- Support for learners affected by displacement and other trauma

Individualised learning plan may include:
- Contingency plans
- Goals to be achieved that reflect learner interests, needs and abilities
- Logistics of the learning relationship, for example:
  - period of relationship
  - frequency of meetings and length of sessions
  - location of meetings or contact
- Structure of the learning relationship, for example:
  - activities to be undertaken
  - monitoring processes
  - tools and equipment needed
  - shadowing
  - WHS considerations

Structured learning activities may include:
- Demonstrations and role plays
- Direction, guidance and mutual discussion
- Learning journal
- Practice opportunities
- Projects
- Readings and research
- Role modelling
- Video and audio analysis
- Written exercises
RANGE STATEMENT

Learner cues may include:
- Evidence of frustration, distraction, stress
- Evidence of problems or issues which may be personal or related to the individualised learning
- Level of communication and interaction
- Level of dependence or independence
- Level of ease or difficulty in undertaking learning activities
- Level of engagement or disengagement
- Regular or irregular attendance
- Stagnation in learning

Tools and signals may include:
- Agreed time period over
- Level of independence in learning
- Measure of improvement in a particular area
- Readiness to maintain learning through other means or modes
- Self-assessment by the learner
- Severe or fixed blockages in the relationship

Feedback may be:
- Formal and informal discussion with learner and others
- Interview
- Written questionnaire

Evaluation may look at:
- Achievement of other outcomes as a result of the relationship
- Development of new goals or skills
- Development of or increase in the self-confidence and capacity to learn of the learner
- Increased or new motivation to learn
- Level of attendance by learner
- Successful achievement, rate of achievement, or lack of achievement of identified goals
RANGE STATEMENT

Reflection may include:

- Asking critical questions about own ability, what worked, what did not work and how the relationship building process could be improved
- Reviewing feedback from learner and identifying critical aspects and areas for improvement
- Reviewing records and journals on sessions and critically evaluating own performance

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS500B Conduct complex assessment and referral

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS500A Conduct complex assessment and referral</td>
<td>CHCCS500B Conduct complex assessment and referral</td>
<td>Updated terminology 'challenging behaviour' to 'behaviours of concern'.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to conduct an appropriate individual assessment and make appropriate referrals where multiple issues present.

Application of the Unit

Application

These skills and knowledge are to be applied by a worker independently conducting an assessment and making referrals.

It involves use of established assessment tools and/or processes, according to specified guidelines.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Prepare for the assessment</td>
<td>1.1 Establish rapport with clients, by demonstrating respect and non-judgemental attitude</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify need for assessment based on organisation policy and procedure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify and use appropriate assessment tools and processes according to organisation policy and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Organise appropriate time and place for the assessment in conjunction with the person being assessed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Explain privacy principles, organisation policy and procedure and obtain consent from the person</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Ensure appropriate interpreter is available and has been briefed</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Assess client needs

2.1 Identify own limitations in assessing and addressing client needs and, where appropriate, seek assistance from colleagues, senior staff and/or experts in the area

2.2 Use appropriate language and interpersonal skills to identify the diverse needs of clients

2.3 Clearly explain to clients the assessment process and how information is used, including duty of care and organisation policy and processes for mandatory reporting

2.4 Implement risk management processes, as required, to ensure safety of client and worker

2.5 Identify the needs of people who have multiple and complex issues

2.6 Ensure clients are assisted to identify their own needs and any risk factors

2.7 Demonstrate understanding of the potential impact of dual/multiple issues on identifying and prioritising need

3. Analyse client needs as a basis for meeting them

3.1 Work with the client to analyse and prioritise their needs

3.2 Seek secondary consultation from specialists as required to assist in assessment with clients

3.3 Assess information about client needs in accordance with accepted organisation procedures to inform decisions about relevant services which can be provided to best address client needs

3.4 Assess client information for complexity, urgency and eligibility so priorities for service delivery can be identified

3.5 Ensure decisions about client needs are based on a full range of relevant information and made in conjunction with the client
ELEMENT

4. Identify and refer to appropriate services to meet client needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Identify services which match client needs from within and outside the organisation

4.2 Identify and access relevant networks, to ensure referral of clients to appropriate services

4.3 Undertake appropriate work to assist clients to access targeted services from within and outside the organisation

4.4 Provide information about other services to clients to assist their decision-making about referral to other agencies

4.5 Empower clients to identify services they prefer for referral

4.6 Gain consent and document for referral to other services

4.7 Provide assistance to complete referral forms and access services, if required

4.8 Encourage clients to advocate on their own behalf to access services

4.9 Make active referrals to services identified in conjunction with the client

4.10 Make referrals to protective services in accordance with mandatory reporting legislation and organisation policy and procedure

5. Evaluate assessment and referral processes

5.1 Review the allocation of services delivered to meet client requirements routinely, or as required to ensure a continuing match

5.2 Review changes in circumstances, environmental factors or urgency of client needs in accordance with organisation practices and procedures to ensure client needs continue to be met

5.3 Collect client feedback on adequacy of service delivery as required by the organisation to inform revision of service delivery arrangements

5.4 Routinely seek feedback on individual performance in client service delivery from colleagues and clients
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Understanding of own work role and responsibilities
- Understanding of validity and reliability requirements for assessment
- Understanding of assessment process requirements
- Basic understanding of types of assessment, including:
  - domain based assessment
  - norm based assessment
  - competency based assessment
- Communication skills required to conduct an individual assessment
- Organisation policy and procedure associated with individual assessment
- Reporting requirements of individual assessment
- Consent requirements for dissemination of a person's assessment results

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Conduct an assessment within defined guidelines
- Report on assessment results

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Follow organisation policies and protocols
- Liaise and report to appropriate persons/agencies
- Adhere to own work role and responsibilities
- Apply reading and writing skills required to fulfil work role in a safe manner and as specified by the organisation/service:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- this requires a level of skill that enables the worker to follow work-related instructions and directions and the ability to seek clarification and comments from supervisors, clients and colleagues
- industry work roles will require a literacy level that will enable workers to interpret international safety signs, read client service delivery plans, make notations in client records and complete workplace forms and records
- Apply oral communication skills required to fulfil work role in a safe manner and as specified by the organisation:
  - this requires a level of skill and ability to follow work-related instructions and directions and to seek clarification and comments from supervisors, clients and colleagues
- Apply verbal and non-verbal communication skills:
  - industry work roles will require effective verbal and non-verbal communication skills to ask questions, clarify understanding and meaning, recognise and interpret non-verbal cues, adapt communication styles to meet specific needs, provide information and express encouragement and support including active listening and empathy
- Apply basic problem solving skills to resolve problems within organisation protocols
- Work effectively with clients, social networks, colleagues, supervisors and other services/agencies

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
- Where, for reasons of safety, space, or access to equipment and resources, assessment takes place away from the workplace, the assessment environment should represent workplace conditions as closely as possible

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace or simulated workplace where assessment can take place
  - relevant organisation policy, protocols and procedures
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment

- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects
- Case study and scenario analysis
- Questioning
- Role play simulation

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Assessment tools and processes include:

- Strengths-based assessment
- Domain based assessment
- Norm based assessment
- Competency based assessment

Safety of client and worker may refer to:

- Domestic violence
- Unpredictable client behaviour (e.g. aggression, dementia, mental health issues, alcohol and other drugs (AOD) issues)
- Hazardous environments
- Specific identified health and safety risks
RANGE STATEMENT

Multiple and complex issues may include:

- Mental health
- Drug and alcohol
- Family violence
- Poverty
- Disability
- Behaviours of concern
- Age
- Aboriginality
- Cultural diversity

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS502C Maintain legal and ethical work practices

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS502B Maintain legal and ethical work practices</td>
<td>CHCCS502C Maintain legal and ethical work practices</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to maintain the application of legal and ethical work practices by monitoring, coordinating and promoting their importance in providing community services and supporting duty of care requirements.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit is to be assessed in relation to the specific legal and ethical context of the work role/s and requirements to which it applies.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.          The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Promote the importance of applying legislation and common law relevant to work role | 1.1 Identify and explain legal responsibilities and obligations relating to identified work role/s
1.2 Identify and explain key statutory and regulatory requirements relating to identified work role/s
1.3 Encourage staff to clarify and fulfill duty of care responsibilities in the course of practice, to accept responsibility and be accountable for own actions and to maintain confidentiality in line with organisation guidelines
1.4 Identify and promote opportunities for staff to involve clients in decision-making and to seek client agreement prior to service provision |
ELEMENT

2. Monitor application of organisation policies and practices

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Monitor work performance to ensure organisation policies, protocols and procedures are appropriately and consistently addressed

2.2 Provide information and support to initiate and contribute to the review and development of policies and protocols in line with work role

2.3 Clarify scope of work for staff to address requirements of position specifications and role responsibilities

2.4 Provide clarification for any uncertainty with regard to scope of practice in line with organisation requirements and legal and ethical guidelines

2.5 Monitor work instructions provided to staff to ensure their clarity and appropriateness in line with organisation requirements and legal and ethical guidelines

3. Monitor ethical work practices

3.1 Monitor service delivery to ensure client rights are protected and services are delivered to clients with respect for diversity of personal values, beliefs and attitudes

3.2 Monitor staff ability to use effective problem solving techniques when exposed to competing value systems

3.3 Identify potential ethical issues and ethical dilemmas in the workplace and discuss with staff to ensure maintenance of ethical work practices

3.4 Use codes of ethics to recognise and report unethical conduct according to established protocols
ELEMENT

4. Take corrective action when client rights and interests are not being protected

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Ensure client and/or their advocate/s are supported to identify and express their concerns

4.2 Instigate and monitor referral of client and/or their advocate/s to advocacy services as appropriate

4.3 Manage client complaint/s in line with organisation policy and protocols

4.4 Take action in line with organisation protocols to address witnessed signs or evidence consistent with financial, physical, emotional, sexual abuse and/or neglect of the client

4.5 Work with an understanding and appreciation of the role and responsibilities of legal guardians
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Application of duty of care principles and codes of ethics to a relevant range of work roles
- Basic understanding of key concepts in Australia's legal system
- Definitions and explanations of the terms 'ethics, ethical thinking and morality'
- Distinction between ethical and legal problems
- Implementation of strategies for contributing to the review and development of policies and protocols
- Implementation of strategies for managing abuse of a client
- Implementation of strategies for managing complaints
- Importance of ethics in practice
- Knowledge of key statutory, legislative and regulatory requirements relevant to work area, specifically including work health and safety (WHS)
- Management of common legal issues relevant to work area, such as:
  - assault and battery
  - bailment
  - consent
  - defamation
  - negligence
- Overview of relevant legislation in the sector and jurisdictions including contracts
- Principles and practices for upholding the rights of the children and young people
- Principles and practices for upholding the rights of the client
- Principles and practices of confidentiality
- Principles of access and equity relevant to provision of community services
- Principles of ethical decision-making
- Relevant standards and code of practice in the sector
- Reporting mechanisms and corrective actions appropriate to managing suspected abuse of a client
- Rights and responsibilities of clients
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Rights and responsibilities of workers
- Role and responsibilities of legal guardians
- Strategies for addressing common ethical issues
- Types of abuse experienced by clients (including systems abuse and unintentional injury)

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply knowledge of responsibilities, constraints and issues relating to a range of work roles in line with work area and organisation policies, protocols and procedures
- Monitor and manage application of legal and ethical work practices
- Provide information and support to staff to enhance the application of legal and ethical work practices and correct misunderstanding and/or inappropriate application of legal and ethical guidelines
- Provide support to staff in resolving and dealing with legal and ethical issues arising in the workplace
- Recognise and manage unethical conduct in the workplace

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply reading, writing and oral communication skills required to fulfil work role in a safe and appropriate manner and as specified by the organisation/service:
  - this requires a level of skill that enables the worker to access, interpret and provide oral and written explanations relating to legal documentation re workplace issues and to clarify information and express encouragement and support
- Apply problem solving skills that require negotiation and mediation skills to resolve problems of a difficult nature within organisation protocols
- Collaborate and network with a variety of stakeholders in order to monitor and enhance the achievement of service objectives

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit may be assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Essential knowledge covered in this unit is to be assessed before application in a work context, especially where client safety issues are involved
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic workplace setting where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation and regulations, organisation policy, protocols and procedures

Method of assessment may include:

- Case study and scenario analysis
- Observation in the workplace
- Questioning
- Role play simulation
- Written assignments/projects

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients may include:

- Children and young people
- Individuals living in government funded services and/or institutions to 'clients'
- Individuals living in residential aged care environments
- Individuals living in the community
- Job seekers
- Prospective individuals to the service or services
RANGE STATEMENT

Contexts may include:
- Client's own dwelling
- Community centres
- Community, government or private agency or organisation
- Independent living accommodation
- Residential aged care facilities

Key statutory and regulatory requirements may include those related to:
- Building standards
- Criminal acts
- Discrimination and harassment
- Equal employment opportunities
- Freedom of information
- Health records legislation
- International and national standards
- Mandatory reporting
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Pharmaceutical benefits
- Poisons and therapeutics
- Privacy legislation
- Public health
- Registration and practice of health professionals
- Residential and community services

Report may include:
- Non-verbal (written):
  - case notes
  - incident reports
  - progress reports
- Verbal:
  - face-to-face
  - telephone
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights may include:
- Access to services
- Confidentiality
- Dignity
- Freedom of association
- Informed choice
- Privacy
- Right to express ideas and opinions
- To an agreed standard of care
- To lodge a complaint

Rights are detailed in:
- Accreditation standards
- Industry and organisation codes of ethics and/or codes of conduct and practice
- Industry and organisation service standards
- International and national charters
- Legislation
- Units of competency

Principles of access and equity may include:
- Creation of a client orientated culture
- Non-discriminatory approach to all individuals using or accessing the service
- Respect for individual differences

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS503B Develop, implement and review services and programs to meet client needs

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS503A Develop, implement and review services and programs to meet client needs</td>
<td>CHCCS503B Develop, implement and review services and programs to meet client needs</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify, develop, implement, monitor and review programs to meet the needs of clients

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts and may focus on services and programs to address specific client issues, in areas of work such as: aged care, disability, mental health and alcohol and/or other drugs

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify programs and service requirements to meet client needs</td>
<td>1.1 Use client information to target service provision for clients and to enable quality service to be provided</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Investigate the needs of clients according to organisation procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Establish and apply procedures to monitor, assess and report client satisfaction with service delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Interact and consult with clients as required to monitor changing needs so they can be addressed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Seek advice or services from other workers or agencies or primary health practitioners as required</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Develop and implement programs for meeting client needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Undertake appropriate planning to ensure client needs are met

2.2 Put in place mechanisms to ensure client service information is recorded, maintained and applied to future client dealings so service developments are well informed and appropriate

2.3 Develop programs as required

2.4 Review client services in consultation with clients and other relevant people including primary health practitioners

2.5 Monitor client service delivery to ensure it upholds the organisation’s reputation, addresses individual client differences and meets duty of care responsibility

2.6 Identify and address problems in addressing client needs in accordance with organisation procedures

2.7 Maintain all relevant documentation relating to clients and service delivery and communicate in accordance with organisation procedures

2.8 Maintain high standards of client service delivery in line with procedural and legislative requirements

2.9 Seek provision of services from other workers, agencies or primary health practitioners as required

2.10 Facilitate strategies and opportunities to meet the needs of people and develop according to organisation policies and procedures

2.11 Facilitate individual differences, rights, needs and preferences within programs

2.12 Incorporate special needs in the development of programs and services

2.13 Communicate the needs of clients to carers and other workers as required

2.14 Make available appropriate program resources
ELEMENT: Monitor and review programs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA:

3.1 Ensure changes to client service are within policy and budgetary frameworks

3.2 Ensure the provision of training as required for implementation to meet changing client needs and community expectations

3.3 Modify specified aspects of the service or service delivery as needed to meet changing client and service requirements

3.4 Ensure changes to client service are within procedural and legislative requirements and maintain high standards of delivery

3.5 Undertake appropriate planning to ensure client needs are met

3.6 Develop required programs

3.7 Make referrals to external services as appropriate
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Design and development of client services and principles of effective service delivery
- Specific client services provided by the organisation and associated policies and procedures
- Strategic planning and organisation development
- Evaluation principles and practices
- Local, Commonwealth or State services and associated Commonwealth or State regulations, acts or guidelines re service provision
- Community resources
- Cultural differences and practices
- Common health problems encountered in clients
- Depending on the work role or services provided, specific knowledge of particular groups or issues may be required, such as:
  - alcohol and other drugs (AOD)
  - cultural and linguistic diversity
  - risk of self-harm
  - gender issues and specific needs of women and/or men
  - community education
  - Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
  - mental health
  - homelessness
- Where clients are aged the following specific knowledge is required:
  - maximising independence
  - health promotion
  - emotional, psychological and spiritual needs
  - cultural, religious and ceremonial needs
  - maintenance of an adequate diet
  - dementia
  - personal hygiene
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- dressing and grooming
- mobility and exercise

Where clients may have disabilities the following specific knowledge is required:
- relevant legislation relating to disability issues
- relevant specific culture and language used by people with disabilities
- knowledge specific to working with families and family systems
- understanding different client requirements according to different disabilities
- networks in the disability sector

Where clients may have disabilities the following specific knowledge is required (contd):
- consumer needs and rights including duty of care
- principles of empowerment/disempowerment in relation to people with disabilities
- principles of access and equity
- current issues facing clients and existing services for addressing needs and rights
- principles and practices of confidentiality
- knowledge specific to working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- knowledge specific to working with people at risk of self-harm
- organisation policies, practices and programs relating to the work role
- organisation work health and safety (WHS) policies and procedures
- organisation philosophy and guidelines
- rights and responsibilities of people with disabilities
- understanding of stereotypes of people with disabilities
- available client services
- awareness of own attitudes to people with disabilities
- awareness of discriminatory actions
- common risks to safety

Where clients experience mental health issues the following specific knowledge is required:
- structural, political and other social factors which operate to maintain discrimination against people affected by mental health problems
- structural, political and other social factors which can be addressed to improve mental health promotion, such as:
  - gender
  - language
  - culture
  - ethnicity
  - age
  - socioeconomic status
- broad knowledge of mental illness and disability issues
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- internal structure of the mental health system and its relationship within the broader context of health services, welfare services and government
- policies relevant to mental health at national, state and local level
- relevant agencies and services which may assist in promoting and advocating for mental illness and/or psychiatric disability issues
- political lobbying processes
- use of media for advocacy purposes
- key stakeholders and how to access them
- understanding of the balance between the rights of the general community and the rights of people with a mental illness and/or psychiatric disability
- relevant regulatory, legislative and legal requirements relating to mental health issues

Where clients experience mental health issues the following specific knowledge is required (contd):

- knowledge specific to working with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- knowledge specific to working with people at risk of self-harm
- knowledge specific to the following areas:
  - working with clients with alcohol and other drugs issues
  - working with women
  - working with men
  - working with children and young people
  - working with aged clients
  - working with corrective services clients
  - working with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients
  - community education

Where clients experience AOD issues the following specific knowledge is required:

- legal and organisation knowledge:
- legal and organisation requirements for client registration, allocation and referral
- organisation policies on reporting and confidentiality
- organisation policies and procedures for documenting work with clients
- understanding agency role, agency target group and the impacts on the local community
- range of AOD specific treatment intervention options including detoxification, in-patient treatment programs, outpatient treatment services, and brief interventions
- effects of AOD use:
- signs and symptoms of medical risk associated with AOD use
- stages and symptoms of AOD withdrawal
- basic health issues relating to alcohol and/or other drugs use e.g. malnutrition, blood borne diseases, skin infestations, effects of drug use on health, cognitive, social, emotional development and impact on others
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- basic pharmacology - types of drugs; dose levels; effects of specific drugs; tolerance; treatment approaches broadly
- the effects of alcohol related brain injury
- consequences and effects of drug substitution/replacement
- effects of prescribed drugs on the use of other drugs
- patterns of drug use in Australia and the local community
- range of use and use scenarios e.g. lifestyle context of illegal drug use
- legal issues:
  - legal status of drugs
  - legal issues surrounding AOD use
- policy:
  - public health model - interaction of impact of drugs, individual and the environment
  - harm minimisation including a range of approaches: prevention, early intervention, abstinence, specialist treatment, supply control and safer drug use
- Where clients experience alcohol and other drugs issues the following specific knowledge is required (contd):
  - working with clients:
  - common relapse precipitants
  - a range of strategies for working with clients
  - strategies to promote participation in programs
  - range of cultural contexts - lifestyle, set of beliefs, customs
  - client empowerment/disempowerment
  - rights of workers and clients
  - different lifestyles
  - self-esteem, abuse issues, self-awareness, own biases, ethical obligations re: helping relationships
  - types of counselling e.g. motivational interviewing, brief and intensive intervention, relapse prevention
  - protocols around use of interpreters
  - client-centredness
  - case management principles
  - working with clients at risk of self-harm:
    - suicidal or self-harming behaviour, ideation or intention
    - no-suicide contracts and other protective strategies
    - links between predisposing factors for self-harm, drug use and mental health problems
    - legal and ethical obligations regarding clients at risk of self-harm or with mental illnesses
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Consult effectively with the client/s
- Respond to specific client needs
- Establish and maintain a network of service providers, including health practitioners

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Analyse client needs
- Demonstrate oral communication skills required to fulfil the job role in the organisation/service:
  - oral communication skills may include:
    - listening, asking questions, providing encouragement, clarifying meaning, clarifying a situation, explaining the needs of aged people to other workers
    - language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
- Demonstrate literacy competence required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service:
  - language used may be English or community language depending on the service/organisation
- Demonstrate written communication skills required to fulfil the job role as specified by the service/organisation:
  - Written skills may include:
    - completion of reports or documentation, selecting appropriate language and detail depending on the purpose of the report and the intended audience (e.g. documentation for funding, accreditation documents, client notes etc)
    - language used may be English or a community language depending on client group and organisation
    - communication support is incorporated as required (e.g. using dictionaries, medical books, other reports)
- Demonstrate reading skills required to fulfil the job role as specified by the service/organisation:
  - skills may include reading written material such as policies, procedure manuals and program materials, understanding and interpreting their content
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - Consultation
  - Strategic planning
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Organisation development
- Review and evaluation
- Safe and effective use and coordination of relevant technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment should include all aspects of service provision i.e. analyse, review, plan and develop service etc

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace e.g. testimonials from clients

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Client services are:

- Specific to the organisation

Clients may include:

- Individual members of the public
- Other organisations, community groups, individuals and health providers
- Other work areas of the organisation
- Senior management
- Service users

Relevant people may include:

- Clients
- Family and personal network of clients
- Other workers including health providers
RANGE STATEMENT

Special needs may relate to:
- Disabilities
- Language
- Gender
- Culture
- Age
- Remote location

Training as required for implementation may be identified by:
- Relevant program manager
- Supervisor

Appropriate program resources may include:
- Aids and equipment
- Qualified and/or specially trained staff

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS504B Provide services to clients with complex needs

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS504A</td>
<td>CHCCS504B</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. Updated terminology 'challenging behaviour' to 'behaviours of concern'. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required by community workers to provide services to people with complex needs.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to workers in the community services sector who may be working with people who have complex and multiple needs. Workers may include social housing workers, mental health workers, family violence workers, drug and/or alcohol (AOD) workers, disability workers, forced migrant workers and generalist support.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Work with clients facing a range of issues

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Apply a demonstrated understanding of issues that client may face including:
- mental health
- AOD
- imprisonment
- family violence
- homelessness
- child protection
- disability
- trauma/grief
- acquired brain injuries
- cultural issues

1.2 Apply a demonstrated understanding of associated and impacting issues:
- access and equity to services in the wider social environment
- trauma/grief
- health
- cognitive/social
- personal safety

1.3 Recognise the impacts complex issues may have on significant others
ELEMENT

2. Develop strategies to engage clients with one or more identified needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Recognise impacts of stigma associated with complex needs on an individual, their family and significant others and on the community

2.2 Undertake a work health and safety (WHS) assessment of the environment and personal safety

2.3 Apply appropriate personal boundaries

2.4 Demonstrate rapport building techniques and trust development with the client

2.5 Use appropriate strategies and procedures to identify and respond to potential behavioural issues

2.6 Observe and monitor behaviour to identify behavioural risk

2.7 Respond to behavioural risk to ensure safety of client and self and report and/or refer appropriately

3. Assess and prioritise need

3.1 Identify needs in conjunction with the client

3.2 Assess client safety needs in conjunction with the client

3.3 Determine priorities in conjunction with the client

3.4 Coordinate a plan in conjunction with the client to address identified needs

3.4 Recognise circumstances in which a service and/or worker is no longer able to provide the level of service required
ELEMENT

4. Refer and follow up identified needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Access and/or negotiate resources in order to deliver identified services

4.2 Communicate with other organisations and share information in accordance with appropriate protocols and relevant legislation

4.3 Determine all service providers' understanding of the service delivery plan and their roles and responsibilities within that plan

4.4 Seek feedback from the client and/or their advocate when evaluating effectiveness of the service delivery plan

4.5 Seek advice and assistance from relevant professionals where appropriate when the client's goals are not being reached
Required Skills and Knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Legislative requirements:
  - relevant acts
  - privacy
  - duty of care
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Customer service principles
- Personal values
- Access and equity principles
- Social justice principles
- Psychological first aid principles
- Consumer rights and responsibilities
- Broad understanding of community services sector including:
  - mental health
  - AOD
  - gambling
  - torture/trauma/grief/loss
  - disabilities
  - behavioural disorders
  - family violence
  - child protection
  - prison system
  - social housing/homelessness

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Prioritise and manage the changing service needs of the client with complex and multiple
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Recognise own limitations and need for assistance
- Recognise agency's limitations
- Work collaboratively with colleagues, professionals and other services

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - negotiation and persuasion
  - liaising and networking
  - safety assessment
- Demonstrate oral communication skills required to develop rapport with client
  - oral communication skills may include:
    - listening
    - asking questions
    - providing encouragement
    - minimising impact of behaviours of concern
  - language used may be English, sign language or community language depending on client group
- Demonstrate literacy competency required to fulfil the procedures of the organisation/service
- Safely use and coordinate the use of relevant technology effectively in line with WHS guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- This unit may be contextualised to reflect its application to:
  - a range of age related areas such as youth work and aged care
  - a range of 'issue' types
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
- Where, for reasons of safety, space, or access to equipment and resources, assessment takes place away from the workplace, the assessment environment should represent workplace conditions as closely as possible

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- In particular, assessment is recommended in conjunction with:
  - CHCCS500B Conduct complex assessment and referral
  - CHCNET501C Work effectively with other services and networks
- Resources required for assessment include:
  - access to appropriate workplace or simulated workplace where assessment can take place
  - relevant organisation policy, protocols and procedures

Method of assessment may include:

- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects
- Case study and scenario analysis
- Questioning
- Role play simulation

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Safety of client and self may refer to:
- Domestic violence
- Unpredictable client behaviour (e.g. aggression, dementia, mental health issues and AOD issues)
- Hazardous environments
- Specific identified health and safety risks

Complex issues may include:
- Mental health
- AOD
- Family violence
- Poverty
- Disability
- Behaviours of concern
- Age
- Aboriginality
- Cultural diversity

Complex needs with associated stigma may include but are not limited to:
- Mental illness
- Homelessness
- AOD use
- Family violence

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS505B Provide supervision support to community sector workers

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS505A Provide supervision support to community sector workers</td>
<td>CHCCS505B Provide supervision support to community sector workers</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide supervision as a support for workers in the community services industry, including providing backup support, performing a range of administrative tasks and providing a structured debriefing process.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit of competency is to be applied in the context of providing support for community services workers.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Provide supervision support for community service workers | 1.1 Maintain regular contact with workers to demonstrate availability for back-up at all times
1.2 Monitor workers to ensure their conduct maintains physical and psychological safety of clients, self and other workers
1.3 Promote and maintain a high level of care consistent with work role practice and ethical guidelines
1.4 Provide coaching as required to support work strategies in line with organisation and/or practice guidelines
1.5 Assist worker to provide referral support for clients as required and within organisation guidelines
1.6 Instigate interventions as required to address emergency situations
1.7 Collaboratively establish the goals and purpose of each supervision event with the worker
1.8 Ensure supervision is used in a way that best helps clients and fulfils duty of care obligations |
ELEMENT

2. Provide administrative assistance in community service work context

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Provide administrative support if required to ensure availability of services in line with organisation policy

2.2 Monitor technical aspects in the workplace and report on related issues in line with organisation policies and procedures

2.3 Complete supervision reports after each contact to reflect significant interventions

2.4 Maintain ongoing communication with workers' line manager as required regarding supervision contacts

3. Provide structured debriefing

3.1 Evaluate worker's supervision needs and identify any areas for skills development

3.2 Provide a structured debriefing process for workers requiring assistance to address needs and within organisation guidelines

3.3 Provide constructive feedback about the worker's performance and the supervision process as appropriate within organisation guidelines

3.4 Review the supervision process with the worker and seek feedback about effectiveness

3.5 Provide limited and structured skills-based supervision as appropriate in line with scope of own work role and organisation guidelines

3.6 Refer workers for further skills-based supervision where needs identified in line with organisation policies and procedures

3.7 Report any breach of ethics or professional practice, or significant disagreement regarding supervision to manager (or equivalent) in line with organisation's dispute resolution policy
4. Maintain professionalism and skills development

4.1 Regularly update own knowledge and skills in supervision practice and procedures in line with organisation guidelines

4.2 Regularly attend supervision meetings, seek additional supervision and undergo performance appraisals as required to maintain necessary skills and up-to-date knowledge of organisation policies and procedures

4.3 Ensure own supervision practice is in keeping with and promotes the values, ethical guidelines, policies and procedures of the organisation

4.4 Consistently set and maintain boundaries between workplace and supervision processes, so performance responsibility remains with worker

4.5 Ensure supervision process remains confidential in relation to information pertaining to worker, client and workplace

4.6 Take all reasonable steps to ensure that any personal or social contact with workers does not adversely affect the supervision process

4.7 Work with respect for the value and dignity of workers and clients with due regard for policy and standards relating to discrimination of all forms, and equal rights and opportunities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role
These include knowledge of:

- Awareness of the advantages and limitations of on call duty supervision
- Regularly updated knowledge of the organisation's procedures, policies and resources
- Awareness of best practice interventions and appropriate skills suitable for work role
- Updated knowledge of referral sources and other general government and community services that may assist the worker and client
- Demonstrated knowledge of organisation's crisis procedures
- Knowledge of crisis intervention techniques and structured debriefing techniques
- Knowledge of organisation's supervision model, including:
  - model of procedures (i.e. how to go about supervising)
  - need to routinely cover these procedures during each supervision contact
- Awareness of links between work role and legal/ethical dilemmas that have implications for the organisation
- Awareness of the limitations of supervision as carried out in relation to the work environment
- Limited knowledge of the developmental models of supervision
- Knowledge of basic indicators that signify mental health concerns or potential child abuse

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide work-based and structured debriefing support to workers in the community services industry
- Guide workers through organisation policy and procedure
- Demonstrate a high level of professional ability and display a calm attitude in emergency situations
- Demonstrate competency in applying supervision models and practices, and well developed communication skills
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

• Consistently apply relevant technical knowledge to the supervision situation, including:
  • identify core skills required for service delivery in the sector
  • model these skills for the worker
• Identify concerns related to work practice and skills that may need to be assessed by staff during follow up supervision
• Facilitate emergency interventions, including:
  • conduct risk assessments decisively
  • evaluate situations
  • minimise risk
  • act appropriately
• Identify basic indicators that signify mental health or child abuse concerns
• Identify workers' support needs on-the-job or after an incident, including assessing when a worker may require further debriefing or supervision
• Assist worker with the referral needs of clients
• Deliver constructive feedback to workers

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

• Use relevant workplace technology safely and effectively in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines
• Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with WHS guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The candidate must provide evidence of a high level of experience in the workplace prior to undertaking assessment in this unit of competency
- This unit is best assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace under the normal of range conditions
- Assessment should be gathered on one or more occasions but must reflect the normal range of client situations encountered in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources for training in and assessment of crisis intervention competencies needs to be available to:
  - provide initial and ongoing training
  - ensure baseline knowledge and skills following basic training
  - observe implementation of these competencies in actual work situations and simulated role plays
  - facilitate learning through reflection on practice and integration of supervisory feedback
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Consistent performance and development would be expected to be demonstrated involving a combination of oral and written media while also featuring simulated and actual practice
  Examples might include:
  - group exercises
  - written (e.g. journal) and verbal responses to questioning
  - simulated exercises
  - observation of work practice
  - response to and integration of supervisory feedback

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Significant interventions may include:

- Crisis concerns
- Emergency interventions
- Debriefing

Structured debriefing may be provided, for example:

- After a difficult interaction with a client
- At the end of a program, project or work period
- During implementation of a new program or service

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS506A Promote and respond to workplace diversity

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to value, promote and respond to diversity in the workplace.
It enables the worker to identify and understand the role, benefits and challenges of diversity in their workplace, and to contribute to organisation diversity policies and processes.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit of competency is to be applied in workplaces and job roles which involve managing the impacts of a significantly diverse client base and workforce.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Research diversity in the workplace</td>
<td>1.1 Collect and analyse quantitative and qualitative workplace diversity data</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify and analyse potential benefits of diversity in relation to the workplace objectives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Share research outcomes with colleagues and include them in practice where appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Promote an appreciation for diversity workplace</td>
<td>2.1 Integrate principles of diversity into work duties in the workplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Identify and adapt professional development opportunities to address the needs of a diverse workforce in accordance with diversity objectives and resource constraints</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Generate a supportive workplace by valuing and promoting the benefits of a diverse workforce to those working in the workplace according to relevant policy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Identify and use diversity factors associated with clients and colleagues to address diversity objectives of the workplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Value and encourage the experience of working with diverse clients and colleagues</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT
3. Communicate within a diverse workplace

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
3.1 Manage barriers to inclusivity to facilitate full participation of all members of the workplace and client group
3.2 Use a range of communication strategies to meet the diverse needs of individuals within the workplace
3.3 Implement tailored communication strategies for targeted individual and group needs
3.4 Identify and/or develop and use resources that facilitate effective communication in the workplace
3.5 Reflect upon use of communication strategies with regard to workplace diversity

4. Contribute to workplace diversity policies and procedures

4.1 Develop diversity strategies in consultation with stakeholders including people from key target groups
4.2 Advocate for diversity strategies to be implemented in accordance with workplace policies and procedures
4.3 Develop measures of effectiveness to evaluate the outcomes of workplace strategies, policies and procedures for diversity
4.4 Report upon workplace diversity strategies within appropriate context
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUiRED SKiLLS aND KNOwLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Requirements of anti-discrimination legislation
- Definitions of diversity within legislation
- Benefits of workplace diversity
- Direct and indirect discrimination
- The profile of own workplace diversity data
- Own cultural assumptions and their effects on behaviour and work practices
- Ways to ensure effective and equitable activities to diverse clients
- Barriers to inclusivity
- EEO, equity and diversity principles
- Principles and practices of cultural awareness and cross cultural communication

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Access and reference workplace information relating to diversity
- Analyse workplace diversity information
- Plan an approach to facilitate workplace diversity and address barriers to inclusion
- Respond to workplace diversity in accordance with workplace objectives
- Integrate diversity into planned activities
- Promote diversity in the workplace
- Contribute to diversity planning in range of workplace samples

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Reflect on own practice
- Monitor and improve own behaviour
- Use a range of communication styles to suit people from diverse backgrounds
- Access and implement relevant legislation
- Facilitate communication and enhance participation in the workplace and community
- Demonstrate the application of skills in:
  - undertake research and analysis
  - problem solving
  - observation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The candidate must provide evidence of a high level of experience in the workplace
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must demonstrate consistency of application of skills and knowledge described in this unit of competency
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
• All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
• All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
• In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
• Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
• This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
• Resources required for assessment include access to:
  • relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place
  • legislation, regulations, policies and procedures
  • workplace values and codes of conduct
  • workplace profile and current information on diversity issues

Method of assessment:
• Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from a work environment

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Quantitative and qualitative workplace diversity data may include:

- Distribution of equity groups
- Barriers to access and participation
- Employment status
- Comparison of client and staff data
- Comparison with the rest of the community

Diversity may refer to difference related to:

- Age
- Cultural background
- Educational level
- Ethnicity
- Expertise
- Gender
- Interest
- Interpersonal approaches
- Languages
- Life experiences
- Not fitting the dominant paradigm of the organisation
- Personality
- Physical ability
- Religious/spiritual belief
- Socioeconomic background
- Thinking/learning styles
- Working styles

Analysis of data may include:

- Comparison with historical data
- Comparison with local and national data
- Desegregation and cross referencing of data on the basis of gender, disability, ethnicity and age (to identify intersections)
RANGE STATEMENT

Potential benefits of diversity may include:

- Social justice
- Improved client outcomes
- Improved relationships
- A culture of respect and tolerance
- Cultural identity and awareness
- Acknowledgement of human rights
- Promotion of equity and fairness
- Improved access for community, clients and staff from diverse background
- Greater responsiveness to change
- Cultural enrichment
- Abilities/difference vs deficit model
- Creation of a harmonious and supportive work environment

Principles of diversity include:

- Respect for others
- Valuing difference
- Access
- Equity
- Respect for the law and system of government
- Social justice
- Human rights
- Difference vs deficit

Inclusivity refers to:

- Attitudes and environments in which all persons are treated equitably

Communication strategies may include:

- Written - electronic, letters, memos
- Verbal and non-verbal
- Presentations
- Discussions
- Conflict management
- Critical listening and questioning
- Constructive and supportive feedback
- Use of translators
- Use of languages other than English
RANGE STATEMENT

Key target groups may include:
- Older people
- People in rural and remote locations
- Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people
- People with English as a second language
- People with a disability
- A group of people that is prescribed by regulation
- Women
- Young people

Advocate may include:
- Speaking or taking active support of another person or group

Measures of effectiveness may include:
- Statistical data
- Anecdotal records
- Policy sign off
- Changes in data collection over time
- Change in behaviour
- Reduction in grievances
- Reduction in workplace conflict
- Enhanced relationships

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS512C Develop a service delivery strategy

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS512B</td>
<td>CHCCS512C</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to assess needs of clients, provide information and develop strategies to meet daily living and other support needs of clients.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Assess eligibility to access the service | 1.1 Seek determination from family, other carers or other workers as to whether the clients can articulate needs where appropriate
1.2 Collect information to facilitate client information and assessment
1.3 Observe client ability to carry out activities of daily living and assess and document level of assistance required
1.4 Consult clinical records and/or case history
1.5 Consult client's family, friends and other services where appropriate |
| 2. Provide information to clients and their carers to facilitate an informed choice | 2.1 Inform clients and carers of the range of services available
2.2 Refer to other services as appropriate
2.3 Identify options in consultation with person/carer and other relevant services |
ELEMENT

3. Determine strategy with client and relevant workers

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Discuss client expectations and needs with the person and relevant carers and document
3.2 Obtain assessment of other workers as relevant
3.3 Analyse services to be provided and determine where referral to other services may be appropriate
3.4 Establish and document priorities of the clients
3.5 Determine and document individual service delivery strategy
3.6 Establish and document case manager
3.7 Agree overall service provision with the client

4. Identify potential safety risks and minimise risk of injury

4.1 Consider risk factors for clients in relation to priority of needs, the environment and possible consequences and plan services accordingly
4.2 Assess and document the potential for mental health, confusion and other factors to impact well being and safety of client
4.3 Note and document any indicators of violence
4.4 Consider potential consequences of client behaviour and implement appropriate strategies to prevent accidents
4.5 Assess any potential risks for self and other care providers and plan service provision accordingly
4.6 Assess and document risks for family carers and others involved
4.7 Investigate and report unusual circumstances that may indicate risk
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Organisation policies and practices
- Common health problems and their effects
- Statements of rights, e.g. relevant outcomes standards documents
- Common risks to client's safety
- Own role and responsibilities
- The role and responsibilities of other health workers
- The role and availability of home maintenance and modification services
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Funding program guidelines
- Social and political context of service delivery
- Depending on the work role or services provided, specific knowledge of particular groups or issues may be required

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake consultation with clients, carers, family etc.
- Undertake consultation with other workers/services as relevant and required
- Demonstrate awareness of role of own service/organisation and that of other services/organisations

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Apply oral communication skills including asking questions, clarifying meaning, providing information and checking for understanding
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Take part in sustained interpersonal exchanges for the purpose of developing services, gathering or providing information:
  - language used may be English or a community language depending on the service/organisation and client group
- Apply written communication skills required to fulfil the job role as specified by the service/organisation:
  - written skills may include the completion of reports or documentation, matching style of writing to its purpose and intended audience (e.g. funding reports, referrals to other agencies)
  - language used may be English or a community language depending on client group and organisation
  - communication support is incorporated as required (e.g. using dictionaries, medical books, other reports)
- Apply reading skills required to fulfil the job role as specified by the service/organisation:
  - skills may include reading written material such as client records, case histories, research and information on medical conditions (e.g. latest research on dementia), policies, procedure manuals and program materials
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - interviewing and assessment
  - understanding the consumer perspective

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment could be conducted in one time period but must include a range of client needs
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Factors which affect abilities to carry out activities of daily living may include:

- Health
- Mobility and its decline
- Illness
- Smoking
- Diet
- Exercise
- Weight
- Occupational exposure
- Sexual activity
- Alcohol and other drugs
- Sunlight exposure
- Social factors
- Psychological factors
- Environment
- Behavioural difficulties
- Wandering
- Aggression
- Age

Activities of daily living are:

- All activities which assist the person to maintain or enhance their physical well being, such as mobility, nutrition, dressing

They do not include medical or clinical interventions
RANGE STATEMENT

Consult may include:
- Asking and clarifying
- Identifying and exploring the client's perception about their needs
- Consultation with family and friends
- Identification of previous patterns and preferences
- Perceptions about needs
- Confidentiality
- Privacy and dignity requirements

Observation, analysis and determination of needs may need to be:
- Made in consultation with or verified by other relevant carers and specialists carers

Provide information to clients and their carers to facilitate an informed choice may be relayed:
- Verbally or in writing

Clinical records and case history may include:
- All records related to the client's health status
- Assessments
- Plans of care
- Progress notes
- Test results
- Continence management charts
- Activities programs

Input may be provided by:
- Diverse members of a multi-disciplinary team or by
- More limited numbers of carers and health workers, internal and external to an organisation

Not all carers will have access to all or any parts of the records or responsibilities related to completing them
RANGE STATEMENT

Individual service delivery strategy may be based on:
- Behavioural difficulties
- Prevention and response to distress
- Activities of daily living
- Health

Risk factors for clients may include:
- All areas to which the clients has actual or potential access
- Obstacles and hazards
- Furniture
- Carpets
- Electrical cords and appliances
- Hot water

Risk will:
- Vary according to any degree of mental confusion and mobility and stability of clients

Risk factors for self and other carers may include:
- Physical limitation
- Manual handling (lifting and transferring clients or equipment safely)
- Deciding to proceed alone in situations where assistance is required
- Current and habitual behaviour
- Mental and physical status of clients

Unusual circumstances may include:
- Uncharacteristic behaviours
- Environmental hazards
- Accident
- Incidents

Confusion may involve decline in mental health and may be evidenced by:
- Decline in memory, intellectual functions and personality
- Disorientation of time, place and persons
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS513C Maintain an effective community sector work environment

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS513B Maintain an effective community sector work environment</td>
<td>CHCCS513C Maintain an effective community sector work environment</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required by those working at a management level to maintain an effective work environment in a community sector work context. It includes monitoring, coordinating and promoting ethical, safe and effective work practices in line with established work requirements.
Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies to work in a range of community service settings such as:

- specific communities
- community, regional or remote service provider
- department of a large institution or organisation
- specialised service or organisation
- private provider

Application of this unit should be contextualised to reflect specific workplace requirements and practices

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Promote ethical work practices

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Monitor decision-making to ensure ethical guidelines are followed and underlying ethical complexity is recognised

1.2 Ensure staff understanding and compliance with the principles of duty of care and legal responsibilities in all work undertaken

1.3 Ensure appropriate action is taken to address any breach or non-adherence to standard procedures or adverse event

1.4 Monitor work practices to ensure confidentiality of any client matter in line with organisation policy and procedure, regulatory requirements and/or code of practice

1.5 Promote respect for rights and responsibilities of others through considered application of work practices

1.6 Apply and promote knowledge and understanding of employee and employer rights and responsibilities in all work practices

1.7 Identify potential conflict of interest in the workplace and take action to avoid and/or address
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Support culture of effective communication</td>
<td>2.1 Monitor and address communication issues in the workplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Monitor oral and written communication in the workplace to ensure confidentiality of client and staff matters</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Monitor workplace communication to support accuracy and understanding of information provided and received</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Promote recognition of individual and cultural differences in the workplace and support any adjustments to communication needed to facilitate the achievement of identified outcomes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Promote and support a client-centred approach to community services work throughout interpersonal communication with clients and colleagues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.6 Promote and assist with the resolution of conflict and interpersonal differences in the workplace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Facilitate staff education relevant to the community sector</td>
<td>3.1 Contribute to staff knowledge of different sectors within community services and how the inter-relationships between these sectors may be used to enhance their work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Maintain and share knowledge of current issues which impact on community services in own work area/organisation and as related to different models of work</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Promote greater understanding of community services work and issues among key stakeholders and representatives from relevant target groups</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Facilitate staff knowledge of and commitment to the central philosophies and values of the community services industry</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Monitor professional work standards</td>
<td>4.1 Monitor implementation of organisation policies and procedures relating to awards, standards and legislative requirements of staff</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Identify areas for improving work practices and support implementation in line with organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Check compliance of work undertaken with relevant accreditation and professional standards applying to work undertaken and address issues where pertinent</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Facilitate staff understanding and focus on achieving organisation goals and objectives in work undertaken</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.5 Ensure issues requiring mandatory notification are identified and reported appropriately and within organisation's specified timeframes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| 5. Work effectively within the community services system | 5.1 Establish effective relationships with workers from different sectors and levels of the industry in line with work role requirements |
| | 5.2 Apply knowledge of the roles and functions of relevant community services structures, organisations and systems |
| | 5.3 Maintain knowledge of current issues influencing the community services system, including issues for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and contemporary cultural issues |
| | 5.4 Work with an understanding of funding mechanisms, and how the organisation's operations are financed |
ELEMENT

6. Take opportunities to develop own competence

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

6.1 Monitor own skills/knowledge in relation to ongoing and changing work requirements

6.2 Identify areas for personal development in line with community services industry developments, organisation requirements and personal interest

6.3 Take initiative to access and/or create development opportunities to support organisation need and personal career development

6.4 Undertake available formal and informal skill/knowledge development and maintenance activities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Awareness and management of personal bias, beliefs and values
- Contemporary approaches to work in the industry, associated rationales and supporting behaviours
- Current issues facing clients and the sector
- Contemporary employment terms and conditions in the workplace
- Details of accreditation processes and quality improvement practices
- Definition of duty of care, confidentiality of information and ethical decision-making in relation to specific work roles and responsibilities; what constitutes a breach of these and potential ramifications of breach and non-reporting
- Detailed implications of relevant legislation, including:
  - work health and safety (WHS)
  - access and equity
  - anti-discrimination
  - privacy
  - child protection
- Organisation procedures relating to:
  - safety issues and prevention in community services work
  - emergency response
  - security
- Own and others’ responsibilities within the workplace
- Role, function and objectives of the organisation, and relevance to specific work role
- Relevance of the work role and functions to maintaining sustainability of the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
- Responsibilities in relation to child protection and other mandatory reporting requirements where relevant
- Understanding and management of difference and diversity in relation to individual needs, discrimination and social vulnerability
- Understanding of relevant organisation procedures, policies, awards, standards and...
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- legislation and how to access them
- Understanding and application of legal and ethical framework in the community services industry
- Understanding and application of professional boundaries and need to refer appropriately
- Values, principles and ethics underpinning work in the sector including:
  - holistic and client-centred support and services
  - client needs and rights including duty of care
  - principles of access and equity
  - principles of human rights
  - principles of client safety

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Address breaches of duty of care, confidentiality, ethical guidelines and other relevant policies and legislation
- Monitor and promote professional and ethical work practices in the workplace

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Analyse implementation of workplace procedures and their outcomes to identify areas for improvement
- Apply decision-making and problem solving skills as required to monitor decision-making processes and provide constructive input to assist others
- Apply functional literacy skills needed for written and oral information about workplace requirements
- Contribute to team development where appropriate
- Monitor safety issues relevant to own work context
- Use high level interpersonal communication skills with clients and other stakeholders
- Use initiative in responding to challenging situations and individuals
- Use communication skills as required by specific work role, including:
  - interpreting and following verbal and/or written instructions
  - seeking clarification of tasks
  - providing information
  - reporting incidents in line with organisation requirements
- Take a responsible approach to professional development, including:
  - taking responsibility for accessing opportunities to expand and develop own skills and knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- supporting the discussion of new ideas and techniques in a range of settings
- sharing information and contributing to learning of others
- Take into account, use and promote effectively opportunities to address waste minimisation, environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues, including efficient use of resources
- Work in a non-judgemental manner and promote similar behaviour in others

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider the work environment, worker's role and responsibilities in the workplace

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Assessment should relate to an identified work role and associated workplace conditions
- Resources essential for assessment include any documents specific to the work context such as:
  - instructions for the use of equipment
  - specific instructions for staff
  - emergency response procedures
  - safety policies and procedures
  - security procedures
  - relevant accreditation standards
  - waste management policies and procedures
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:
- In cases where the learner does not have the opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a 'period of time' and/or in a 'number of locations', any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Work role requirements may include:
- Accreditation standards
- Individual awards and benchmarks
- Legislation relevant to work area
- Level of responsibility
- Organisation guidelines

Organisation policy on confidentiality may relate to:
- Access to records
- Destruction of records
- Release of information
- Storage of records
- Verbal and written communication

Organisation procedures, policies, awards, standards and legislation may include:
- Accreditation and service provision standards of other relevant industry organisations
- Current Australian standards
- Federal and state legislation
- Quality management policy and practice
- Sector specific legislation and standards, for example:
  - home and community care standards
  - aged care accreditation standards
  - disability service standards
  - housing regulation and standards

Client may include:
- Communities or groups
- Family and/or significant others
- Individual clients
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders and representatives may include:
- Clients
- Community organisations
- Families and care givers
- Friends, peers and target group
- Government representatives and service providers
- Local community
- Management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Peak bodies and networks in the sector
- Services
- Specialists/experts

Different sectors within community services may include but are not limited to:
- Aged care
- Alcohol and other drugs
- Child protection
- Children's services
- Community development
- Community work
- Disability services
- Employment services
- Family and domestic violence
- Housing
- Mental health
- Youth work and juvenile justice

Different models of work in the sector may include:
- Case management
- Client-centred
- Community development
- Community education
- Developmental
- Participatory
- Service delivery
- Working with families
RANGE STATEMENT

The central values and philosophies may include:

- A holistic and person-centred approach, embracing:
  - promotion of well being of staff, clients and communities
  - early identification of problems
  - delivery of appropriate services
  - commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of people
  - commitment to empowering the person and/or the community
  - ethical behaviour
  - preventative strategies
  - exercise of responsibilities and accountabilities within the context of duty of care for clients

A commitment to access and equity must be demonstrated by:

- A non-discriminatory approach to all people using the service, their family and friends, the general public and co-workers

Employee rights and responsibilities may relate to:

- Adherence to WHS
- Attendance requirements
- Confidentiality and privacy of organisation, client and colleague information
- Duty of care responsibilities
- Leave entitlements
- Obeying lawful orders
- Organisation policies and procedures
- Protection from discrimination and sexual harassment in the workplace
- The right to union representation
RANGE STATEMENT

Employer rights and responsibilities may relate to:

- Enterprise workplace agreements
- Legislative requirements for employee dismissal i.e. Workplace Relations Act
- Legislative requirements to provide a safe work environment free from discrimination and sexual harassment (see State and Commonwealth anti-discrimination legislation)
- Relevant State and Territory employment legislation i.e. wage rates, employment conditions

Issues requiring mandatory notification may include:

- Issues defined by jurisdictional legislation and/or regulatory requirements
- Issues specifically identified by under organisation policies
- Protection of children and others identified to be at risk

Identifying and implementing improved work practices may include:

- Application of safety practices, including for work in a range of contexts, such the client's home
- Assessing/observing/measuring environmental factors
- Checking equipment
- Developing and implementing child safe, child friendly resources, environment and work tools to support staff and volunteers working with people under 18 years of age
- Monitoring tasks
- Reporting and implementing suggested improvements
- Responding to surveys and questionnaires
- Seeking and addressing customer feedback
RANGE STATEMENT

Basic home fire safety includes knowledge of:

- Behaviour that may contribute to fire injury and/or fatality
- High fire risk groups
- Optimum placement of smoke alarms
- Referring client for smoke alarm installation and maintenance
- Role of a working smoke alarm
- Smoke alarm testing and cleaning
- Types of smoke alarms

Designated knowledge/skill development may relate to:

- Cardiopulmonary resuscitation emergency response and notification protocols
- Child protection
- Communication, conflict resolution
- Cultural awareness
- Customer service, including the provision of a child friendly environment that values, respects and welcomes children and young people
- Discrimination, harassment and bullying in the workplace
- Fire emergency response procedures for notification and containment of fire, use of fire fighting equipment and fire safety procedures
- First aid
- Formal and informal resolution of grievances
- Hazard control
- Infection control
- Manual handling
- WHS
- Quality improvement policy and practice
- Security procedures
- Waste management
RANGE STATEMENT

Communication strategies may include:

- Active listening
- Appropriate communication aids
- Appropriate demeanour and body language
- Appropriate language
- Appropriate modes of communication
- Appropriate tone and presentation
- Observation
- Providing appropriate and accurate information
- Questioning, clarifying, advising

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS514B Recognise and respond to individuals at risk

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS514A</td>
<td>CHCCS514B</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes basic competencies required by community service workers to recognise and respond appropriately to signs and symptoms that indicate individuals may be at risk.

The focus is on identifying and managing immediate risk in the context of a supportive helping relationship that seeks to work collaboratively with the person at risk to achieve safe outcomes.
Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to people in formal helping roles in any community service context or where caregivers encounter persons at risk.

This unit provides skills and knowledge to enable workers to contain the situation and minimise any immediate risk and to provide appropriate referral for crisis intervention and ongoing support as required.

Workers requiring skills and knowledge to provide crisis intervention support to resource an individual beyond the situation of immediate risk need additional skills and knowledge and are advised to complete in unit CHCCS521B Assess and respond to individuals at risk of suicide.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify and assess the person's current risk | 1.1 Recognise and respond to signs, (such as statements, reactions, thoughts, feelings or behaviours) indicating that a person may be at risk
1.2 Attend to any hunches, while listening as a helper, perhaps from indirect communications, that suggest the client may be at risk
1.3 Ask directly about thoughts of suicide whenever there are grounds for concern
If suicide thoughts are present:
1.4 Seek sufficient understanding of why the person is considering suicide, and what links them to life, to inform and facilitate the intervention
1.5 Assess current suicide risk guided by risk assessment considerations outlined in the Range Statement and by whether there is an imminent threat to the person's safety or the safety of others |
ELEMENT

2. Work actively with the person to reduce the immediate risk and increase safety

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Build a collaborative empathic relationship with person at risk

2.2 Listen to what contributed to the critical incident and affirm and strengthen links to safety and living implicit in the helping relationship

2.3 Work with person at risk to identify and agree actions to reduce immediate danger and mobilise access to emergency assistance, including medical help when needed

2.4 Identify and agree actions that address and reduce any risk of harm to caregivers and others potentially at risk in the situation and remain mindful of circumstances where the police may need to be involved to address safety

2.5 Seek advice and/or assistance from workplace supervisor to ensure action taken is lawful, complies with good crisis intervention practice and organisation policies consistent with that practice, ethical processes and duty of care obligations

2.6 Address work health and safety (WHS) obligations in relation to managing self and others

3. Provide referral for crisis intervention support

3.1 Encourage and enable capacity of person at risk to make informed choices about further help that deals with their crisis and associated needs for ongoing care

3.2 Acknowledge how the current helping relationship has provided foundations for further care

3.3 Explore and seek to understand and address any barriers to seeking or accepting help

3.4 Develop, with the individual, a plan and agreed first steps, to access and utilise informal supports and professional help

3.5 Refer to appropriate community services and/or health professionals as required
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Common indicators or signs of potential risk
- Principles of crisis intervention, including relevant laws, ethical guidelines and policy requirements that support good care
- Policy around critical incidents and duty of care
- Procedures for obtaining assistance and making informed referrals to other staff and/or agencies
- Procedures for facilitating emergency interventions
- Awareness of personal values, beliefs and attitudes which may facilitate or impede crisis care and suicide intervention
- Examination of common notions about suicide
- Commitment to attend to the pain of the person at risk and work towards safe, life sustaining outcomes
- Principles of self care and support-seeking relevant to involvement in work involving responding to indications of crisis and suicidality

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Recognise and respond appropriately to signs and symptoms that indicate an individual or individuals may be at risk
- Demonstrate the capacity to work competently and independently according to the principles of effective practice and within general context of supervisory relationship
- Demonstrate accountability for own professional conduct and practice including:
  - carrying out assigned tasks
  - working effectively under the pressure of crisis situations
  - maintaining the quality of services to clients
  - strengthening links to life-sustaining options and supports to individuals in crisis
  - demonstrating a commitment to attend to the pain of persons considering or affected
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

by suicide and to work toward safe, life-affirming outcomes
- Facilitate links with higher levels of care and making referrals, including access to emergency medical help when needed
- Seek, integrate and apply learning from supervision and support

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - competent skills in communication, counselling and responding to individuals in crisis
  - self-monitoring and self care
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with WHS guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:
- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to a workplace or similar environment over a number of occasions

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which must include observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the range statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
- In addition assessment methods may include
  - written questioning
  - role play
  - supervised/guided discussion
- Candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Identifying potential risk involves:

- Avoiding assumptions about who may be at risk and being alert to potential risk on an individual basis in any situation
- Recognising potential warning signs that invite help and prompt enquiry about suicide, self-harm or other issues of client or community safety
- Asking directly about thoughts of suicide when there are any grounds for concern
RANGE STATEMENT

Informed suicide risk assessments involve:

- Recognising that any suicide thoughts or acts of deliberate self-harm signal significant distress, pose potential risk of injury or death and should be taken seriously
- Assessing factors that indicate suicide risk which include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - concern is aroused by the presence of suicide thoughts and things often associated with these thoughts (such as a desire to escape pain that feels unbearable, a sense of hopelessness, current difficulty seeing alternatives to suicide and feeling alone)
  - immediate risk increases when someone has begun acting on their suicide thoughts or is preparing to do so (for example possible suicide in progress, presence of a suicide plan, available means) and / or has expressed suicidal intent
  - risk can be further exacerbated if the person is under the influence of excessive alcohol or other drug use
  - pertinent background factors, particularly prior suicidal behaviour and the presence of significant mental health problems, should be carefully assessed

A wide variety of contextual or personal considerations also help inform assessments and may include such things as significant loss, trauma, the impact of another person's suicide or a pattern of extreme agitation, anger / violent behaviour

- Identifying internal sources of safety and support (such as coping skills and beliefs) and those around them (such as family, friends and community services)
- Connections to life and living are usually present alongside thoughts of suicide and can provide foundations to build upon in increasing the safety of a person at risk
RANGE STATEMENT

Immediate risks (other than suicide) may include:

- Client threats to harm others
- Threat of harm initiated by another, directed at the client
- Disclosures of abuse
- Indicators of physical harm and/or domestic violence

Actions to reduce immediate danger and mobilise access to emergency assistance include:

Recognising that:

- Vigilance about safety with all risk related thoughts or behaviours is essential, even though the person may be influenced by a wide range of motives in considering or engaging in deliberate self-harm
- Risks to life and safety can often be greater than individuals recognise or intend, so safe outcomes are a primary focus, regardless of stated intentions

Actions appropriate to each specific situation, but typically including the following processes and tasks:

- Affirm and build on the desire for help and safety implicit in the counselling relationship
- Work with the person at risk to identify and act on clear cooperative steps that reduce the immediate risk
- Focus specifically on factors, plans and behaviours, including unsafe use of alcohol and other drugs that endanger the person at risk at this particular time and seek to engage them cooperatively in steps that safely manage and reduce immediate risk
- Enable prompt, timely action that increases informal and professional support, mobilises access to emergency medical help when needed and enhances personal safety
- Seek to create calm environment to promote safety for person at risk, caregiver and others involved in situation
- Access support and follow advice from organisation’s supervisor/ coordinator that reflect lawful, good crisis intervention practice and follow crisis management and emergency procedures
- Attend to self and others in relation to WHS in the workplace
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS521B Assess and respond to individuals at risk of suicide

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS521A Assess and respond to individuals at risk of suicide</td>
<td>CHCCS521B Assess and respond to individuals at risk of suicide</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes basic competencies required by community service workers to provide sensitive and effective intervention where risk of self-harm or suicide has been identified.

The focus is on identifying and managing immediate suicide risk in the context of a supportive helping relationship that seeks to work collaboratively with the person at risk to achieve safe outcomes.

Safe outcomes in this context include a clear safety plan for addressing any immediate danger to the person at risk or others, mobilising access to emergency medical help when needed and facilitating links with further care.

The unit relates to managing imminent risk in ways which provide opportunity for more comprehensive assessment and the provision of further help.
Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply to people in formal helping roles in any community service context or where caregivers encounter persons at risk of suicide.

The focus of this unit is to provide a comprehensive response to manage situations where risk of suicide may be indicated, noting that self-harm may itself result in death - intentional or unintentional.

The skills and knowledge included here are to be applied to minimise risk in presenting situations and refer appropriately for ongoing support where required.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify and assess the person's current suicide risk | 1.1 Recognise and respond to signs, (such as statements, reactions, thoughts, feelings or behaviours) indicating that a person may be considering suicide
1.2 Attend to any hunches, while listening as a helper, perhaps from indirect communications, that suggest the client may be considering suicide
1.3 Ask directly about thoughts of suicide whenever there are grounds for concern
If suicide thoughts are present:
1.4 Seek sufficient understanding of why the person is considering suicide, and what links them to life, to inform and facilitate the intervention
1.5 Assess current suicide risk guided by risk assessment considerations outlined in the Range Statement and by whether there is an imminent threat to the person's safety or the safety of others
1.6 Follow steps outlined in elements 2, 3 and 4.
If the person indicates she/he is not thinking of suicide and no suicidal intent, plans, or behaviour are evident:
1.7 Work collaboratively with the person to provide support and facilitate access to further care as needed - guided by elements 3 and 4
1.8 Remain vigilant about any emerging indications of suicidality, prompting careful risk assessment and safe management as outlined in elements 1 and 2 |
2. Work actively with the person to reduce the immediate risk of suicide and increase safety

   2.1 Build a collaborative empathic relationship with person at risk that acknowledges how thoughts of suicide and the pain behind them may affect their safety
   2.2 Listen to what lies behind any thoughts of suicide while affirming and strengthening links to safety and living implicit in the helping relationship
   2.3 Work with person at risk to develop and follow through on a safety plan that reduces immediate danger of self-harm, risk of suicidal behaviour and/or suicide and mobilises access to emergency medical help when needed
   2.4 Manage intervention in ways that address and reduce any risk of harm to caregivers and others potentially at risk in the situation and remain mindful of circumstances where the police may need to be involved to address safety
   2.5 Seek and act on advice from workplace supervisor to ensure action taken is lawful, complies with good suicide intervention practice and organisation policies consistent with that practice, ethical processes and duty of care obligations
   2.6 Address work health and safety (WHS) obligations in relation to managing self and others
   2.7 Refer to health professionals where appropriate

3. Facilitate and strengthen the individual's links to further care

   Having worked with the person to take any steps needed to address immediate safety:
   3.1 Encourage and enable capacity of person at risk and/or in crisis to make informed choices about further help that deals with their suicidality and associated needs for ongoing care
   3.2 Acknowledge how the current helping relationship has provided foundations for further care
   3.3 Explore and seek to understand and address any barriers to seeking or accepting help
   3.4 Develop, with the individual, a plan and agreed first steps, to access and utilise informal supports and professional help
ELEMENT

4. Provide further intervention support to resource the individual beyond immediate crisis

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

When or if it is assessed that there is no imminent risk that needs to be immediately addressed:

4.1 Maintain open rapport with individual to encourage discussion of on-going concerns related to their situation generally and any suicide risk - focusing on what most needs attention now

4.2 Affirm person's decision to seek and accept help to keep safe and address their concerns

4.3 Review how and with whom they might seek help in future to keep safe and/or get support

4.4 Support individual to develop coping strategies (both internal and external) which prepare them to safely manage any recurrence of suicidal thoughts

4.5 Identify mental health concerns or personal circumstances (such as depression, trauma, substance misuse or significant losses) that need addressing and facilitate access to appropriate help

4.6 Ensure supports and coping strategies developed are documented and communicated as necessary to other members of work team

4.7 Comply with all laws, relevant ethical guidelines and policy requirements that affect duty of care
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Common indicators or signs of potential suicide risk, including risk of any type of self-harm
- Principles of crisis intervention, including relevant laws, ethical guidelines and policy requirements that support good care
- Policy around critical incidents and duty of care
- Principles and practices of suicide intervention including risk assessment, development of safety plans and facilitation of on-going support
- Procedures for obtaining assistance and making informed referrals to other agencies
- Procedures for facilitating emergency interventions
- Awareness of personal values, beliefs and attitudes which may facilitate or impede crisis care and suicide intervention
- Examination of common notions about suicide and sound suicide intervention practice in the light of available evidence
- Awareness of how other mental health issues may impact upon intervention
- Commitment to attend to the pain of the person at risk and work towards safe, life sustaining outcomes
- Principles of self care and support-seeking relevant to involvement in crisis and suicide intervention work

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate the capacity to work competently and independently according to the principles of effective practice and within general context of supervisory relationship
- Demonstrate accountability for own professional conduct and practice including:
  - carrying out assigned tasks
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- working effectively under the pressure of crisis situations
- maintaining the quality of services to clients
- strengthening links to life-sustaining options and supports in suicidal crises.
- demonstrating a commitment to attend to the pain of persons considering or affected by suicide and to work toward safe, life-affirming outcomes
- Facilitate links with higher levels of care and making referrals, including access to emergency medical help when needed
- Seek, integrate and apply learning from supervision and support

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - competent skills in communication, counselling and crisis intervention
  - competent suicide intervention, (including recognition, assessment and safe management of immediate suicide risk and facilitating links to further emergency help or general care as needed)
  - self-monitoring and self care
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with WHS guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to a workplace or similar environment over a number of occasions

Method of assessment may include:

- Simulations
- Case scenarios
- Report writing including developing safety plans

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

General context of suicide self/harm work: Mental health or community support worker in a community, respite, residential or hospital setting

Identifying potential suicide risk involves:

- Avoiding assumptions about who may be at risk and being alert to potential risk on an individual basis in any situation
- Recognising potential warning signs that invite help and prompt enquiry about suicide
- Asking directly about thoughts of suicide when there are any grounds for concern
RANGE STATEMENT

Informed suicide risk assessments involve:

- Recognising that any suicide thoughts or acts of deliberate self-harm signal significant distress, pose potential risk of injury or death and should be taken seriously
- Assessing factors that indicate suicide risk which include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - concern is aroused by the presence of suicide thoughts and things often associated with these thoughts (such as a desire to escape pain that feels unbearable, a sense of hopelessness, current difficulty seeing alternatives to suicide and feeling alone)
  - immediate risk increases when someone has begun acting on their suicide thoughts or is preparing to do so (for example possible suicide in progress, presence of a suicide plan, available means) and / or has expressed suicidal intent
  - risk can be further exacerbated if the person is under the influence of excessive alcohol or other drug use
  - pertinent background factors, particularly prior suicidal behaviour and the presence of significant mental health problems, should be carefully assessed

A wide variety of contextual or personal considerations also help inform assessments and may include such things as significant loss, trauma, the impact of another person's suicide or a pattern of extreme agitation, anger / violent behaviour

- Identifying internal sources of safety and support (such as coping skills and beliefs) and those around them (such as family, friends and community services)
- Connections to life and living are usually present alongside thoughts of suicide and can provide foundations to build upon in increasing the safety of a person at risk

Safer outcomes include: Recognising that:

- Vigilance about safety with all suicide related thoughts or behaviours is essential, even though the person may be influenced by a wide range of motives
RANGE STATEMENT

in considering or engaging in deliberate self-harm

- Risks to life and safety can often be greater than individuals recognise or intend, so safe outcomes are a primary focus, regardless of stated intentions

Developing or reactivating suicide safety plans tailored to meet the situation, but typically including the following processes and tasks:

- Affirm and build on the desire for help and safety implicit in the counselling relationship
- Work with the person at risk to identify and act on clear cooperative steps that reduce the immediate risk of self-harm / suicide over an agreed time period
- Focus specifically, in the first instance, on factors, plans and behaviours, including unsafe use of alcohol and other drugs that endanger the person at risk at this particular time and seek to engage them cooperatively in steps that safely manage and reduce these risks
- Explore ways of engaging others in the safety plan, such as in monitoring safe use of prescription medication/s
- Enable prompt, timely action that increases informal and professional support, mobilises access to emergency medical help when needed and reduces likelihood person will act on their suicidal thoughts
- Seek to create calm environment to promote safety for person at risk, caregiver and others involved in situation
- Access support and follow advice from organisation's supervisor/ coordinator that reflect lawful, good suicide intervention practice and follow crisis management and emergency procedures
- Attend to self and others in relation to WHS in the workplace
RANGE STATEMENT

Facilitate and strengthen the individual’s links to further care includes:

- Affirming the first steps to further care already implicit the current crisis intervention relationship
- Encouraging further helping steps while acknowledging and addressing internal conflicts and external barriers to taking those steps
- Asking the person what assistance they would value most at this time
- Providing information and referral options to match the person’s needs and specifically address their suicidality along with other concerns
- Exploring achievable steps to help the person strengthen their connections, relationships and formal / informal supports
- Supporting the person to determine how and when these supports and services can best be used

Ongoing support provision may include:

- Ongoing vigilance about identifying and managing suicide risk
- Use of effective communication skills to maintain rapport and morale
- Use of strengths-based approach to identify and encourage internal and external coping strategies and supports
- Debriefing to third parties potentially affected by the crisis
- Identifying underlying significant life issues and supporting the client to seek assistance around these issues e.g. feelings of remorse, guilt, sadness, anger, addiction, abuse, trauma, other mental health issues
- Supporting the client to access another service / agency / information
- Documenting work with person to ensure all plans and safeguards are communicated in work team
- Following policy relating to documentation, duty of care, confidentiality, and support planning

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS522B Address complex legal and ethical issues in professional practice

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS522A Address complex legal and ethical issues in professional practice</td>
<td>CHCCS522B Address complex legal and ethical issues in professional practice</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to maintain the application of legal and ethical work practices by monitoring, coordinating and promoting their importance in providing community services and supporting duty of care requirements.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit is to be assessed in relation to the specific legal and ethical context of the work role/s and requirements to which it applies.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite

This units of competency must be assessed after achievement of related unit:

- CHCCS400C Work within a relevant legal and ethical framework

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Perform within legal and ethical parameters of professional practice</td>
<td>1.1 Apply a clear understanding of legal and regulatory acts/guidelines as they impact on professional practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Address the implications of current legislation as incorporated into professional practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Apply codes of ethics, code of conduct and associated standards in professional practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Function within the scope of professional practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Handle client complaints sensitively and in line with organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Handle all requests for client information as per state/territory legislation and organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Apply an understanding of the legal framework

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Work with an understanding of how the law operates in relation to professional practice with regard to legal processes, principles and penalties

2.2 Accurately apply concepts of negligence, duty of care and vicarious liability to professional practice

2.3 Apply a clear understanding of the requirement to obtain consent for treatment

2.4 Use common legal terms associated with own area of practice with a clear understanding of their meaning and implications

2.5 Apply the legal requirements and expectations in relation to documented records and reports in professional practice

2.6 Apply mandatory reporting processes in line with jurisdictional requirements

2.7 Apply client privacy and confidentiality practices in line with legislative requirements and organisation policies and procedures

3. Apply ethical concepts to professional practice

3.1 Work with a clear understanding of the concept of ethics and its place in own professional practice

3.2 Demonstrate ethical practice in all interactions with clients, relatives and carers and colleagues

3.3 Identify, document and report any potential ethical issues if and as they arise

3.4 Maintain an awareness of contemporary ethical issues that may impact on own professional practice

3.5 Develop and implement strategies to resolve ethical issues within practice

3.6 Take responsibility for addressing ethical issues and legal requirements in line with own work

3.7 Complete all documentation in accordance with state/territory legislation and organisation policies and procedures

3.8 Monitor compliance with legal obligations and requirements
4. Support the rights, interests and needs of clients and their families

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Comply with legal responsibilities and duty of care in all care activities and interactions with clients and their families and carers

4.2 Support client rights, interests and decisions

4.3 Encourage the client to exercise their rights to make informed decisions regarding their care

4.4 Demonstrate respect and support for the dignity of clients and their families

4.5 Act as an advocate for client and family in line with practice standards, guidelines and codes
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Key statutory, legislative and regulatory requirements relevant to work area, specifically including work health and safety (WHS)
- Knowledge of law - sources, types, court system, common law, statute law, civil law, precedent
- Cross-examination techniques
- Knowledge of law of torts - negligence, trespass, assault and battery, types of consent, valid consent, legal and intellectual capacity, false imprisonment and defamation
- Knowledge of the coroner, including - functions of the coroner, coronial inquests and giving evidence to the coroner
- Knowledge of contemporary ethical issues - autonomy, non-maleficence, beneficence, justice, rights
- A moral decision-making model
- Principles of confidentiality and privacy responsibilities
- Application of ethical principles to professional practice
  - definitions of terms 'ethics, ethical thinking and morality'
  - theoretical concepts informing ethical conduct
  - distinction between ethical and legal problems
  - principles of ethical decision-making
  - strategies for addressing common ethical issues
- Models of documentation
- Application of duty of care principles and codes of ethics to work role and principles and practices for upholding the rights of the client and specific client groups
- Principles of access and equity relevant to provision of community services
- Management of common legal issues relevant to own area of professional practice
- Strategies for managing complaints
- Types of abuse experienced by clients (including systems abuse and unintentional injury)
- Implementation of strategies for managing abuse of a client
- Reporting mechanisms and corrective actions appropriate to managing suspected abuse of a client
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply detailed knowledge of legal and ethical standards, processes and practices, responsibilities, constraints and issues relating to own professional practice
- Monitor and manage application of legal and ethical standards in professional practice
- Provide information as required to enhance the application of legal and ethical work practices and correct misunderstanding and/or inappropriate application of legal and ethical guidelines
- Contribute to resolving and dealing with legal and ethical issues arising in the workplace
- Recognise and address unethical conduct in the workplace

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply reading, writing and oral communication skills required to fulfil work role in a safe and appropriate manner and as specified by the organisation/service:
  - this requires a level of skill that enables the worker to access, interpret and provide oral and written explanations relating to legal documentation re workplace issues and to clarify information and express encouragement and support
- Apply problem solving skills that require negotiation and mediation skills to resolve problems of a difficult nature within organisation protocols
- Collaborate and network with a variety of stakeholders in order to monitor and enhance the achievement of service objectives

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic workplace setting where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation and regulations, organisation policy, protocols and procedures

Method of assessment:

- Observation in the workplace
- Written assignments/projects
- Case study and scenario analysis
- Questioning
- Role play simulation
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Clients may include:
- Individuals living in residential aged care environments
- Individuals living in the community
- Prospective individuals to the service or services
- Individuals living in government funded services and/or institutions to 'clients'
- Job seekers
- Children and young people

Contexts may include:
- Client's own dwelling
- Independent living accommodation
- Residential aged care facilities
- Community centres
- Community, government or private agency or organisation
- Homelessness
- State housing
- Shared housing
RANGE STATEMENT

Key statutory, legislative and regulatory requirements may include those related to:

- Privacy legislation
- Health records legislation
- Equal employment opportunities
- Discrimination and harassment
- Residential and community services
- Poisons and therapeutics
- Registration and practice of health professionals
- Pharmaceutical benefits
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Freedom of information
- Public health
- Building standards
- Criminal acts
- International and national standards
- Mandatory reporting
- Working with children/police checks

Reports may include:

- Verbal:
  - telephone
  - face-to-face
- Non-verbal (written):
  - progress reports
  - case notes
  - incident reports

Rights may include:

- Privacy
- Human rights
- Confidentiality
- Dignity
- Freedom of association
- Informed choice
- To lodge a complaint
- Right to express ideas and opinions
- To an agreed standard of care
- Access to services
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights are detailed in:

- Legislation
- Industry and organisation service standards
- Industry and organisation codes of ethics and/or codes of conduct and practice
- Accreditation standards
- Units of competency
- International and national charters

Principles of access and equity may include:

- Creation of a client orientated culture
- Non-discriminatory approach to all individuals using or accessing the service
- Respect for individual differences

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS601C Work with clients with unique needs

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| CHCCS601B Work with clients with unique needs | CHCCS601C Work with clients with unique needs | Unit updated in V4
ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation.
Changes to terminology ‘challenging/difficult behaviour’ to ‘behaviours of concern’. No change to competency outcome. |

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required by higher skill workers who undertake specialised work with clients with exceptional needs and with complex and multiple issues, including working with offenders with a disability

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

- Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
- Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>Conduct complex assessment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.1 Identify and apply appropriate assessment tools to evaluate complex clients need/s</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Apply a risk management approach to client assessment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify health implications for clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify educational and developmental needs of client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Determine the need for additional communication support for the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Access information from a range of sources to determine services available to support client needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Determine emotional, social and other needs of the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.8 Consult with the client and significant others throughout the assessment process</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Design and apply appropriate strategies and program/s

   2.1 Use the assessment outcomes to design an intervention and support strategy
   2.2 Identify and access information from a range of sources to determine services available to support client/s needs
   2.3 Design a comprehensive plan including appropriate referrals
   2.4 Incorporate contingency and risk management strategies into the plan
   2.5 Communicate appropriately with the individual, significant others, colleagues and support staff

3. Monitor and evaluate the plan

   3.1 Identify and implement strategies to monitor the effectiveness of the approaches taken
   3.2 Maintain relevant data and keep accurate records to monitor the effectiveness of the plan
   3.3 Review outcomes of the plan and make adjustments, as needed
   3.4 Review and adapt risk management strategies as required
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- A broad range of health implications associated with complex needs
- A range of disabilities with complex characteristics, including:
  - ABI
  - autism
  - cerebral palsy
  - Prader-Willi syndrome
  - sensory loss
- Appropriate and inappropriate social behaviour
- Assessment practices and models
- Complex communication skills
- Duty of care
- Ethical practices
- Harm minimisation strategies
- Human development issues
- Human relationships and sexuality
- Monitoring and review practices
- Offending behaviours
- Referral practices and protocols
- Risk management strategies
- Specialist services that support people with complex needs
- Specific sexuality issues that may be confronted
- The community services systems, including government and non-government services
- The legal system relating to offending behaviours
- The life cycle and transition stages
- The psychosocial impact of a range of complex needs
- Work health and safety (WHS) policies and practices
- Working with diversity
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate high-level judgement and autonomy to be able to:
  - apply a range of intervention strategies
  - apply relevant monitoring and review techniques
  - ensure the safety of the individual, self and the community
  - identify risks and apply risk management strategies
  - make whole of life assessments
  - provide opportunities for the person with complex needs to achieve individual needs and personal goals
  - select and apply assessment tools appropriately
  - work with people with complex and/or multiple issues

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply complex theoretical models of behaviour management
- Apply understanding of the impact on clients of frustration with the service
- Apply understanding of the impact on emotional responses of specific disabilities, such as ABI, autism, lack of sight, Prader-Willi and cerebral palsy
- Apply understanding of the impact on physical capacity of specific disabilities
- Manage the application and administration of assessment tools
- Protect themselves, the person and the community as needed
- Work under guidance of a health professional and in liaison with other health professionals
- Work with clients on a range of complex and interrelating issues, including sexuality, human development, grief and loss, aging, depression and threat of harm to self or others
- Work with offenders

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competency will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may be conducted over one or more occasions and should include both the development and promotion of best practice

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to a workplace or similar environment over a number of occasions
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observation, questioning and evidence gathered from the workplace setting (e.g. from workplace-based project or evidence portfolio)

Range Statement

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Complex issues may include:

- ABI
- Autism
- Sensory loss
- Prader-Willi syndrome
- Attention deficit disorder (ADD)/attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)
- Behaviours of concern
- Communication needs
- Complex medical needs
- Dual/multiple disabilities
- Intellectual, physical and/or neurological disability
- Language and diversity
- Offending behaviours
- Social/economic disadvantage

People with complex issues may include:

- Adolescents
- Adults
- Children
- People with a physical/sensory/intellectual/psychiatric disabilities
- Persons under court/protective/statutory orders
Appropriate assessment tools may include:
- Genograms
- Psychosocial assessments
- Risk frameworks – self and others
- Specialised assessment tools
- Taking a case history

Risk management approach may include:
- Duty of care requirements
- Established risk management frameworks/models
- Harm minimisation strategies
- Organisation risk assessment protocols and guidelines
- WHS regulations, policies and procedures

Health implications for clients may include:
- Access to appropriate health care
- Alcohol and/or other drugs (AOD) use
- Inability to manage own health and wellbeing
- Inactivity
- Neurological
- Nutrition
- Physiological
- Self-injurious behaviours
- Sexual health and lifestyle issues

Educational and developmental needs may include:
- Aetiology
- Early intervention
- Opportunity and support to access appropriate education opportunities at:
  - pre-primary
  - primary
  - secondary
  - post-secondary levels
  - support at different life stages
Additional communication support may include:

- Augmented communication aids i.e. electronic devices
- Communication aids (i.e. picture books and TTY)
- Culturally specific resources
- Family support
- Interpreting services
- Speech pathology services

Emotional, social and other needs may include:

- Equal employment opportunity (EEO), discrimination and privacy issues
- Family support
- Grief and loss
- Isolation, rural and geographical issues
- Sexuality issues
- Socioeconomic issues
- System support
- Vulnerability

Significant others may include:

- Carers
- Family
- Friends
- Other professional support persons
- Partners

Intervention and support strategy may include:

- Allied health plans/support
- Development of individual program/support plans
- General service plans
- Justice plans

Support services may include:

- Externally monitored
- Family and significant others
- Government and non government
- Individualised/tailored strategies
- Private practice
- Range of pre-determined supporting organisations and services
- Self-managed
Sources of information may include:

- AOD services
- Child protection services
- Community service networks
- Family and significant others
- Health support services
- Juvenile justice services
- Mental health services
- The person with complex needs

Maintain relevant data and keep accurate records may refer to:

- Files and file notes
- Organisation records
- Reports formal and informal
- Statutory orders

Consultation may include:

- Family members and significant others
- Formal and informal meetings
- Networks
- Professional support workers
- The person with complex needs

Review processes may include:

- Case management meetings
- Organisation review processes
- Reports (verbal, written, formal and informal)

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCS604B Manage the delivery of quality services to clients

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS604A Manage the delivery of quality services to clients</td>
<td>CHCCS604B Manage the delivery of quality services to clients</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to manage resources and systems to deliver quality client services within complex or changing circumstances.

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills
Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Manage service delivery to address client needs</td>
<td>1.1 Ensure appropriate and accurate records of client needs and service delivery options are developed and maintained&lt;br&gt;1.2 Identify barriers to client services in consultation with clients&lt;br&gt;1.3 Apply understanding of relevant options for service delivery to match services to client's needs and rights&lt;br&gt;1.4 Take all available opportunities to promote client services and their benefits&lt;br&gt;1.5 Ensure the strategic direction of the organisation, individual and community needs and external requirements guide the provision of client services&lt;br&gt;1.6 Develop and implement performance indicators to routinely monitor client service delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2. Plan client service delivery | 2.1 Ensure service delivery planning includes client involvement in negotiation and agreement on appropriate goals, strategies and outcomes
2.2 Identify strategies to deal with contingencies which may arise
2.3 Identify relevant people and organisations to provide support and expertise to maximise effectiveness of service delivery
2.4 Routinely collect and analyse information on clients and delivery options to ensure services delivered reflect client needs and rights, current best practice, organisation and legislative guidelines, ethical practices and duty of care considerations |
| 3. Review client services | 3.1 Routinely review matching between client requirements and service delivery
3.2 Involve client and all other relevant personnel in review of service delivery
3.3 Monitor changes in circumstances, environmental factors or alterations to client needs and rights and incorporate in review of service delivery
3.4 Modify client service to reflect changing needs and rights and feedback on effectiveness of service delivery
3.5 Undertake appropriate work to ensure client concerns about service are resolved and complaints of a serious nature dealt with in accordance with organisation procedures |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Design and development of client services
- Legislative and statutory frameworks influencing provision of client services
- Current development in effective client service delivery
- Marketing and promotion techniques
- Evaluation and review
- Strategic planning and organisation development

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Establish and maintain a network of clients
- Incorporate the requirements of specific groups in all client service work
- Meet quality service standards

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Communicate effectively with both staff and clients
- Effectively coordinate resources in a complex environment
- Manage a team effectively
- Manage contingencies
- Use computer and software technology, as required by the workplace
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment should include assessment of all aspects of delivery of a quality client service and with a range of new or existing clients

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace e.g. portfolios, completed records of client needs etc.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Client services refer to community services and may include:

- Provision of social housing
- Homelessness support
- Provision of accommodation support services
- Counselling
- Case work
- Referral to health services
- Family support
- Drug and alcohol services
- Mental health services

Clients may include:

- Self referral or referred
- Individual members of the public
- Other organisations, community groups and individuals
- Other work areas of the organisation
- Senior management
RANGE STATEMENT

Resources include:
- Service delivery staff
- Key organisation personnel
- Finances for system infrastructure
- Appropriate information technology

Quality service standards include:
- National community housing standards
- SAAP service standards

Legislation and policies and procedures include:
- Duty of care
- Work health and safety (WHS)
- Administrative processes
- Grievance complaints and disciplinary procedures
- Staff conditions
- Industrial award

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCS607E Coordinate in-service assessment and response to address client needs

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCS607D Coordinate in-service assessment and response to address client needs</td>
<td>CHCCS607E Coordinate in-service assessment and response to address client needs</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to coordinate programs to ensure that individual needs of clients are met within parameters of one service

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not applicable.

Pre-Requisites

Not applicable.
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.</td>
<td>The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Elements and Performance Criteria

1) Identify program requirements for individual clients

   1.1 Put in place procedures to promote consistency and adherence to organisation standards when dealing with clients
   1.2 Implement programs to promote staff use of appropriate language and interpersonal skills with a diverse client group
   1.3 Provide appropriate support to staff to implement the organisation’s accepted client service practices
   1.4 Develop and implement strategies and mechanisms to ensure that all relevant client information is collected, maintained, stored and accessible to relevant personnel
   1.5 Put in place procedures to ensure staff have access to additional specialist information and assistance when assessing client needs
   1.6 Put in place procedures to ensure staff have ready access to up to date and relevant information about the range of services available to clients

2) Coordinate program delivery to ensure client needs are addressed

   2.1 Put in place mechanisms to ensure client services delivered from within and outside the organisation can be identified by staff
   2.2 Develop organisation procedures to ensure clients will be provided with timely, accurate and relevant information about the services available to them
   2.3 Establish and maintain relevant networks, to ensure appropriate referral of clients to services from within and outside the organisation
   2.4 Put in place procedures to ensure that decisions about targeting client services is based on up to date information about clients and services available
   2.5 Put in place procedures to ensure that referrals to specialist services are based on matching of the assessment of client needs and availability of services

3) Coordinate the evaluation of client service delivery

   3.1 Develop and implement routine procedures to check that allocated service delivery continues to match client requirements
   3.2 Develop and implement procedures to monitor and address changes in circumstances, environmental factors or urgency of client needs

3.3 Put in place procedures to collect and evaluate feedback on the adequacy of client service delivery in meeting needs
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery
- Program development and evaluation
- Effective operation of networks
- Indicators of health and other complex issues outside of immediate area of client service delivery
- Accepted practices for delivery of services to particular clients in work area
- Issues affecting particular client groups including:
  - income/economic
  - health
  - social
  - community support and interaction
  - education and training
  - employment

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Administer organisations’ testing instruments to assess client needs
- Select appropriate services from a range of services provided by the organisation in the broader community to match client needs
- Develop and maintain appropriate networks
- Provide referrals to relevant organisations or providers of specialist services based on assessment of client needs
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - coordination of work teams
  - client service delivery
  - analysis of complex information
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- decision-making under pressure

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Use and coordinate the use of relevant information technology effectively in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace setting under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment may take place on one or more occasions but must include a number of clients with particular needs
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic workplace setting where assessment may take place

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace e.g. testimonials from clients and colleagues

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients include:
- Individual members of the public
- Referred or self referred
- People with specific needs seeking access to services
- Family members and significant others
- Carers

Language and interpersonal skills include:
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Means for communication with people in particular communities
- Communication with different age and gender groups

Client services include:
- Income, financial and community support services
- Employment services
- Access to recreation services
- Care and support services
- Transport and communication services

Clients with particular needs may include:
- A combinations of health, social, economic and personal factors

Information collection mechanisms include:
- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Classification tools

Networks include:
- Specialist providers in the community services and health areas including health assessments
- Specialist services to assist communication with client and identification of their needs
- Providers of any of the identified client services required by clients of the organisation
RANGE STATEMENT

Feedback may be from:

- Client questionnaires and surveys
- Experts and specialist providers
- The community
- Funding or regulatory bodies
- Organisation review

Unit Sector(s)

Not applicable.

Custom Content Section

Not applicable.
CHCCS805B Undertake professional reflection

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to analyse own professional practice as part of an ongoing review of professional effectiveness, growth and management of personal values and their influence on professional practice

Application of the Unit
Application
The knowledge and skills of this unit of competency should be used by workers involved in higher level practice and/or management in the community sector

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Review professional goals and values | 1.1 Articulate personal values in a professional context
1.2 Articulate professional goals
1.3 Assess own values and goals against organisation objectives and relevant codes of ethics, using a range of valid evidence
1.4 Analyse the coherence between job functions, values and goals
1.5 Determine strategies to enhance coherency and manage incoherency
1.6 Review coherency on an on-going basis |
2. Review effectiveness of practice

   2.1 Identify professional attainments and the skills and knowledge involved
   2.2 Identify areas where professional practice could be improved and the required skills and knowledge
   2.3 Identify impact of professional practice on self and others
   2.4 Engage in reflective dialogue as a means of generating explanations of the impact of professional practice
   2.5 Identify coherency between professional practice, values, achievement of goals and work outcomes
   2.5 Develop and implement a plan to develop required skills and knowledge and coherency
   2.6 Reassess professional practice on an on-going basis

3. Develop skills and knowledge associated with current best practice

   3.1 Seek information about current best professional practice
   3.2 Evaluate current and likely future needs and take action to keep abreast of evolving trends
   3.3 Identify current best practice applicable to job role
   3.4 Identify skills and knowledge required to implement current best practice

4. Maintain professional well being

   4.1 Identify circumstances required to operate effectively
   4.2 Evaluate requirements to maintain professional well being within the context of the circumstances required to operate effectively
   4.3 Develop strategies to maintain professional well being
   4.4 Seek support, where necessary, to maintain professional well being <table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 5. Develop relationship to sustain professional effectiveness | 5.1 Identify areas of need for professional support
| | 5.2 Identify possible sources of professional support
| | 5.3 Take action to develop appropriate relationships to meet professional support requirements |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Agency's policies, plans and procedures
- Knowledge, skills and ethics relevant to current industry and professional standards and codes of ethics and practice
- Personal development opportunities and options
- Principles and techniques of:
  - personal goal setting
  - measuring performance
  - time management
  - identifying personal behaviour, self awareness, personality traits
  - establishing a personal development plan
- Relevance of the work role and functions to maintaining sustainability of the workplace, including environmental, economic, workforce and social sustainability
- Relevant legislation and agency guidelines and codes of ethics or practice standards
- Relevant organisation goals and objectives
- Requirements for professional well being, including:
  - work/life balance
  - emotional well being
  - physical well being
  - workplace health
  - personal skills
- Types of learning style/s and how they relate to the individual
- Types of work methods and practices which can improve personal performance

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Analyse culturally different viewpoints and taking them into account in personal development and professional practice
- Analyse own performance
- Apply skills in negotiation, communication and decision-making
- Assess impact of professional practice on others
- Assess the effectiveness of own skills development
- Demonstrate understanding and implementation of relevant procedures
- Demonstrate ongoing reflection on and development of personal capability to meet professional standards, in particular to:
  - actively seek professional development opportunities
  - seek and reflect upon feedback
  - seek opportunities for supervision / mentoring
  - identify and participate in personal development
  - integrate learning into improved practice
- Develop and maintain professional supports and networks
- Elicit, analyse and interpret feedback
- Maintain professional well being
- Monitor research trends related to roles and responsibilities
- Research information to develop personal development and work plans
- Use information systems to assist establish work plans
- Work toward a balance between own values and beliefs and the requirements of the job
- Work with an awareness and sensitivity to conflict, culture and context.

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - communication skills including receiving and analysing feedback and reporting
  - interpreting written and oral information about workplace requirements
- Take into account, use and promote effectively opportunities to address environmental responsibility and sustainable practice issues, including efficient use of resources

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
- Evidence will be guided by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace

Method of assessment:

- Demonstration of competency within the working environment to learn from others and reflect on performance
- Where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
- Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
- Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
- Review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to self development

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Sources of information about current best professional practice may include:

- Books
- Journals
- Lectures
- Professional groups
- Seminars
- Workshops

Circumstances required to operate effectively may include, but is not limited to:

Ability and/or acceptance of:

- Critical thinking
- Leadership
- Long work hours
- Problem solving
- Relationships
- Travel
- Work as a member of a team
- Work autonomously
- Working in isolation.

Requirements to maintain professional well being refer to:

- Emotional well being
- Physical well being
- Time management
- Work/life balance
- Workplace health - personal skills

Sources of professional support may include:

- Colleagues
- Manager
- Mentor
- Professional group (formal and informal)

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCSL501A Work within a structured counselling framework

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to work within the agency's agreed counselling model

Application of the Unit
Application
The basic counselling skills described in this unit are intended for application in the context of delivering a range of community services
Assessment may require additional knowledge specific to a particular community services or health sector

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Use a structured approach to counselling</td>
<td>1.1 Use initial session to gather information as a foundation for counselling process</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Follow a structured approach to counselling work based on client needs and expectations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Explain counselling process to clarify client’s understanding and expectation</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Establish the nature of the helping relationship

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Enable clients to understand the nature of the counselling service on offer
2.2 Clarify, confirm or modify clients' expectations of the counselling service
2.3 Identify any anxieties about the counselling process and explore with clients
2.4 Acknowledge and respect clients' immediate concerns
2.5 Clarify both expectations and commitment to the counselling relationship and confirm with clients
2.6 Identify indicators of client issues requiring referral and report or refer appropriately, in line with organisation requirements
2.7 Develop a plan for counselling and contract with client as required to address disclosure and organisation/service requirements

3. Confirm the appropriateness of the helping relationship

3.1 Ensure own level of skill and knowledge of counselling methods and resources are appropriate to meet client needs
3.2 Explore alternatives to the proposed relationship with clients where appropriate
3.3 Affirm significance of what the client says
3.4 Promote clients' understanding of what they have a right to expect from the service
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Background knowledge of the counselling process, including:
  - purpose of counselling
  - how counselling has evolved as a helping relationship
  - place of counselling within the helping services
  - scope of counselling relationship, including professional limitations
- Ethical responsibilities in providing counselling
- Rights of clients involved in counselling
- Counselling context, process and goals
- Knowledge of theories supporting counselling process
- Human life stage development

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the counselling framework
- Manage own values so they do not impede effective work and managing the stress of the work

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Develop empathy and rapport
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- active listening
- respectful responding
- well timed challenging
- attention to counselling relationship
- contracting appropriate to context

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competency will be assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace or an environment capable of accurately simulating the workplace for assessment purposes

Method of assessment:
- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which must include observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
- In addition assessment methods may include
  - written questioning
  - role play
  - supervised/guided discussion
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Nature of the counselling service:
- Context and resources of agency
- Preferred counselling model/s of agency

Counselling methods:
- Are according to agency policy and procedures

Client issues requiring referral may include, but are not limited to:
- Indicators relating to potential:
  - Child protection issues
  - Suicide prevention/intervention
  - Domestic and family violence
  - Mental health issues
  - Alcohol and other drugs issues

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCSL502A Apply specialist interpersonal and counselling interview skills

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to use advanced interpersonal communication skills to facilitate the client-counsellor relationship in a counselling practice

Application of the Unit
Application
These skills are intended for application in a counselling interview to ensure client-counsellor communication is effective and to enhance client development and growth

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Communicate effectively in counselling practice | 1.1 Identify the components of the communication process and primary factors that impact on the communication process
1.2 Identify communication barriers and apply strategies to overcome these barriers in the client-counsellor relationship
1.3 Demonstrate effective application of micro-skills within counselling practice to facilitate the client-counsellor relationship
1.4 Ensure work practices reflect the principles of effective communication and the sequence of a counselling interview
1.5 Identify the impact of communication techniques upon the client-counsellor relationship and use effective application of communication techniques in counselling practice |
ELEMENT

2. Use specialist communication skills in counselling interviews

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

| | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.1</td>
<td>Demonstrate effective use of confrontation skills in a counselling interview</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2</td>
<td>Use confrontation skills appropriately aiming to achieve identified impacts and enhance client development and growth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.3</td>
<td>Demonstrate effective use of focusing skills in a counselling interview</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.4</td>
<td>Use confrontation skills appropriately aiming to achieve pre-determined impacts and enhance client development and growth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.5</td>
<td>Demonstrate effective use of influencing skills in a counselling interview</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.6</td>
<td>Use influencing skills appropriately aiming to achieve pre-determined impacts and enhance client development and growth</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Stages of an interview
- Communication techniques
- Communication barriers and resolution strategies
- Mechanisms that enhance effective interpersonal communication
- Aim of counselling interviewing
- Observational techniques including facial expressions, non-verbal behaviour, posture, silence/s
- Clients style of absorbing information including visual, auditory, kinaesthetic
- Cultural/other differences working against development of client
- Self-evaluation including biases, values and working from a client's frame of reference
- Potential impacts of using identified communication skills and techniques in a range of counselling contexts

Essential skills:

Ability to:

It is essential that competence be demonstrated in application of specialist interpersonal communication and counselling interview skills. The candidate must be able to:

- Demonstrate effective counsellor communication in a counselling practice
- Demonstrate the micro-skills and communication techniques within a counselling practice
- Apply confrontation skills in a counselling interview
- Apply focusing skills in a counselling interview
- Apply influencing skills in a counselling interview
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply the micro-skills in counselling practice
- Apply communication techniques in counselling practice
- Focus as an activity in an interview
- Apply techniques to elicit meaning
- Supply client feedback as appropriate

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated work context and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic work environment where assessment can take place

Method of assessment:
- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which must include observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
- In addition assessment methods may include
  - written questioning
  - role play
  - supervised/guided discussion
  - candidate’s critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Work in the industry includes:
- General counselling
- Specialist counselling

Components of the communication process must include:
- Encoder
- Decoder

Primary factors must include:
- Context
- Participants
- Rules
- Messages
- Channels
- Noise
- Feedback

Communication barriers may include:
- Environmental
- Physical
- Individual perceptions
- Cultural issues
- Language
- Age issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Micro-skills must include:
- Attending behaviours - active listening, reflection of content feeling, summarising
- Questioning skills - open, closed, simple and compound questions
- Client observation skills
- Noting and reflecting skills
- Providing client feedback

Communication techniques may include:
- The appropriate technique for the stage of interview
- The proficiency level of the counsellor as an empathic communicator
- The communication strategies (micro-skills) utilised by the counsellor
- The use of non-verbal communication

Client development and growth may include:
- Change in client behaviour that aids in the achievement of their goals
- Change in client thought patterns that facilitates the achievement of their goals
- A broadening of self-awareness as reported by the client
- A shift occurs in the client’s feelings that facilitates change in the direction of their goals

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL503B Facilitate the counselling relationship

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCSL503A Facilitate the counselling relationship</td>
<td>CHCCSL503B Facilitate the counselling relationship</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to enable clients to identify and work through concerns

Application of the Unit

Application

The basic counselling skills described in this unit are intended for application in the context of delivering a range of community services

Assessment may require additional knowledge specific to a particular community services or health sector

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Enable clients to identify concerns</td>
<td>1.1 Enable clients to express their concerns freely</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Explore presenting issues of clients in order to establish their nature and depth, and give attention to the possibility of underlying issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify situations requiring immediate action and deal with promptly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Enable clients to identify their primary concerns in relation to the presenting issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Enable clients to prioritise concerns to work on</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Assist clients to become aware of underlying issues where appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Identify and respond appropriately to strong emotional reactions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.8 Identify indicators of client issues requiring referral and report or refer appropriately, in line with organisation requirements</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2. Enable clients to work through concerns

2.1 Identify and work with uncertainty and ambivalence of clients
2.2 Support clients to experience and process difficulties
2.3 Draw attention to and discuss parallels and links in clients' experience as appropriate
2.4 Ensure that interventions have meaning for the immediate situation of the client
2.5 Reflect on and consider interventions that are most likely to facilitate client understanding and actions
2.6 Enable clients to identify and use known and previously unknown strengths
2.7 Explore perceptions of clients' feelings by reflecting back, clarification and review with clients
2.8 Assist clients to become aware of underlying issues where appropriate and begin to identify ways of dealing with them
2.9 Acknowledge and work with changes in client's life as appropriate
ELEMENT

3. Monitor the counselling process

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1 Monitor and review the counselling process with clients to ensure it remains of value</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2 Work on threats and disruptions to the counselling process with clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3 Review and compare individual perceptions and client's perceptions of the process</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.4 Work on any tension between clients' hopes and expectations and the reality of resource limitations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.5 Facilitate change at a pace the client can tolerate and assimilate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.6 Assess the appropriateness of ending the current counselling</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.7 Acknowledge, value and work with individual uncertainty in the counselling relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.8 Apply ethical codes of conduct as required in addressing counselling dilemmas</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

4. Bring the counselling process to an end

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4.1 Enable clients to identify when the process is approaching its conclusion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.2 Enable clients to identify, acknowledge and evaluate what is and is not changing, both in the counselling process and in their situation and understanding</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.3 Utilise the ending process to enable clients to understand the nature and impact of earlier issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.4 Utilise boundaries of the counselling relationship to assist the ending process</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.5 Plan, structure and contract endings appropriately with clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.6 Support clients' sense of autonomy during the ending process</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.7 Inform clients about any opportunities for further support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.8 Identify unresolved issues and discuss further work if appropriate</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.9 Complete appropriate documentation in line with organisation requirements</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Agency/organisation model/s of counselling and intervention
- Indication of physical or mental ill health
- Obstacles to counselling process
- Human life stage development
- Policies, principles and procedures to secure and maintain confidentiality including note-taking, record and log keeping and identity protection
- Relevant legislation, ethical codes of practice and statutory requirements applying to the counselling relationship
- Necessary self awareness including:
  - role within the organisation
  - limits of competence and responsibility
  - personal strengths and limitations
  - individual needs for support and supervision
  - capacity to be non-judgemental and/or difficulty with this

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the counselling framework
- Manage own values so they do not impede effective work and managing the stress of the work

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - active listening, building rapport and contracting
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- capacity to manage intensity of interaction
- elements of interpersonal counselling with problem solving skills
- respect ambivalence in client and boundaries in interaction
- capacity to assess complexity of situation
- capacity to support the client while enlisting additional resources as required
- capacity to recognise clients particular issues, situations and context
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit of competency will be assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace or an environment capable of accurately simulating the workplace for assessment purposes

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which must include observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
- In addition assessment methods may include
  - written questioning
  - role play
  - supervised/guided discussion
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Related units: This unit is recommended to be assessed in conjunction with related units:
- CHCCSL501A Work within a structured counselling process
- CHCCSL502A Apply specialist interpersonal and counselling interview skills

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Emotional reactions may be indicated by:
- Extreme withdrawal
- Labile emotion expression (rapid changes in emotion unrelated to external events or stimuli)
- Excessively talkative
- Aggressive behaviour and reaction

Interventions may include:
- Responding accurately to client situation
- Planning and collaborating with client alternative behaviours
- Reviewing with client current life stage

Client issues requiring referral may include, but are not limited to:
Indicators relating to potential:
- Child protection issues
- Suicide prevention/intervention
- Domestic and family violence
- Mental health issues
- Alcohol and other drugs issues
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCSL504A Apply personality and development theories

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit provides an introduction to the application of key concepts and constructs underlying theories of personality and human development

Application of the Unit
Application
The application of knowledge of personality and human development provides a foundation for understanding human behaviour and assisting in the facilitation of the client-counsellor relationship and the counselling process

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Apply theories of personality and human development in the counselling process | 1.1 Undertake case study/analysis drawing on a range of personality and human development theories, including:
  - Nature-nurture theory
  - Freudian concepts
  - Maslow's hierarchy of needs
  - Piaget's stages of cognitive development
  - Erikson's psychosocial stages
| 1.2 Assist client to understand their personal history drawing on a range of theories, including:
  - Nature-nurture theory
  - Freudian concepts
  - Maslow's hierarchy of needs
  - Piaget's stages of cognitive development
  - Erikson's psychosocial stages |
ELEMENT

2. Use concepts from theories of personality and human development to analyse and understand human behaviour

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Use concepts from personality and lifespan development theories to describe and analyse aspects of individual development

2.2 Analyse individual behaviour using theoretical concepts from a range of approaches to personality and lifespan development

2.3 Identify potential applications of personality and lifespan development theories in the counselling process

2.4 Identify strengths and weakness of each theory in relation to understanding human development and individual behaviour
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Nature and nurture
- Genetic inheritance
- Lifespan development theories
- Freudian concepts
- Piaget's stages of cognitive development
- Erikson's psychosocial stages
- Maslow's hierarchy of needs

Essential skills:

It is essential that competence be demonstrated in the analysis of personality and human development and their application in the client-counsellor relationship and the counselling process. The candidate must be able to:

- Explore the development of theories of behaviour
- Apply concepts of personality and development theories to counselling practice

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Apply theoretical concepts to case study
- Compare theories to evaluate the impact and contributions of each theorist to the understanding of personality, cognitive and human development
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated work context under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Consistency in performance should consider the range of clients and situations encountered in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - Observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - Observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - Where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - Candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - Written questioning
  - Relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - Role play
  - Focused discussion

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice.
- Resources required for assessment include access to relevant workplace or simulated realistic work environment where assessment may take place.

Related units:

Assessment of this unit is recommended (but not required) before or in conjunction with assessment of:

- CHCCSL505A Apply learning theories in counselling

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Nature-nurture theory may include:
- Impact of environmental influences including family, peers, culture
- Comparison of nature versus nurture
- Genetic inheritance

Freudian concepts may include:
- Id
- Ego
- Superego
- Conscious
- Unconscious
- Subconscious
- Psycho-sexual stages

Maslow's hierarchy of needs relates to:
- Physiological needs
- Safety and security needs
- Love and belonging
- Self-esteem
- Self-actualisation

Piaget's stages of cognitive development include:
- Sensorimotor
- Preoperational
- Concrete
- Formal operations
RANGE STATEMENT

Erikson’s psychosocial stages include:
- Trust vs mistrust
- Autonomy vs shame and doubt
- Initiative vs guilt
- Industry vs inferiority
- Identity vs role confusion
- Intimacy vs isolation
- Generativity vs stagnation
- Integrity vs despair

Lifespan development may include:
- Psychodynamic - Freud, Eriksson
- Behavioural - Skinner, Bandura
- Psychological, sociological and biological development and impact of individual

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL505A Apply learning theories in counselling

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to apply theory underpinning behaviourism and social learning (modelling) in counselling practice

Application of the Unit
Application
The skills and knowledge in this unit are intended to provide a foundation for applying stimulus-response and social learning theory to formulate and monitor a program for behaviour change in a counselling context

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Apply behaviourism in counselling practice | 1.1 Identify the contributions of stimulus and response theory to counselling practice
1.2 Analyse and apply stimulus and response techniques in counselling practice
1.3 Analyse and demonstrate application of principles of negative and positive reinforcement
1.4 Explain the relationship between punishment and negative reinforcement
1.5 Apply positive and negative reinforcement in counselling practice |
| 2. Analyse environmental modelling influences in counselling practice | 2.1 Explain the impact of environmental modelling influences
2.2 Identify and analyse the impact of modelling influences within a client's environment to facilitate client change |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>3.1 Analyse different reinforcement influences of siblings in relation to sequence of birth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Analyse individual responses to similar modelling/reinforcement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Analyse the effects of environmental differences and dysfunctional environments</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
<td>4.1 Identify change required to achieve identified outcomes and formulate and record a program for change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Apply and record the method of reinforcements to ensure behaviour change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Formulate a process for program monitoring, recording and intervention where appropriate</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include knowledge of:

- Operant conditioning
- Classical conditioning
- Learning theory supporting conditioning models
- Principles and procedures of reinforcement
- Thorndike's law of effect
- Concept of schedule reinforcement
  - fixed ratio schedule
  - variable ratio
  - fixed interval schedule
  - variable interval schedule
- Extinction of behaviours
- Applications of stimulus and response theory
- Bandura's social learning theory
- Modelling
- Reinforcement, positive and negative
- Punishment
- Functional and dysfunctional environments
- Earliest learning environment - family
- Childhood learning environment - school
- Pre and adolescent peer group pressures/influences

Essential skills:

Ability to:

It is essential that competence be demonstrated in the analysis of behaviourism and the application of social learning (modelling) in counselling practice.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

The candidate must be able to:

- Apply negative and positive reinforcement
- Apply the theory of stimulus and response in counselling practice.
- Analyse environmental modelling influences;
- Analyse behavioural outcomes of different modelling and reinforcement influences;
- Apply reinforcements to ensure behaviour change;
- Formulate and record a program for change.

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Analyse, evaluate and record data
- Apply theoretical concepts to case study
- Determine cause and effect
- Select mediating responses
- Formulate strategies into a program
- Devise strategies for change

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated work context and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - An appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic work environment where assessment can take place
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - role play
  - focused discussion

Related units:

Assessment of this unit is recommended (but not required) after or in conjunction with assessment of:

- CHCCSL504A Apply personality and development theories

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Reinforcement may include:
- Isolating stimulus-response
- Application of selective reinforcement - positive and/or negative
- Primary reinforcement
- Secondary reinforcement
- Reinforcement schedules

Environmental modelling influences may include:
- Strength of the influence
- Duration of the influence
- Major environmental influences from childhood
- The importance of childhood environmental influences in terms of strength
- The influence of school environment in terms of duration

Client's environment may include:
- Family
- School
- Peer group
- Workplace group

Environmental differences may include:
- Family environment
- Learning environment

Dysfunctional environments may:
- Be inadequately resourced to effectively support human growth and development
- Not be conducive to learning and/or development
- Be inadequate in providing appropriate nurturance and care for typical development

Program for change may include:
- Differential effects of modelling
- Dysfunctional environmental outcomes
- Functional environmental outcomes
- Reinforcement techniques
- Reinforcement of specific behaviours
- Mediating responses
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCSL506A Apply counselling therapies to address a range of client issues

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills relating to using a range of counselling therapies to assist clients in dealing with a variety of life issues

Application of the Unit
Application
The counselling skills described in this unit are intended for application in the context of counselling work and may require additional knowledge to address specific workplace requirements

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisite
This unit must be assessed after achievement of related unit:
- CHCCSL502A Apply specialist interpersonal and counselling interview skills

---

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1. Use techniques from a range of counselling therapies

1.1 Apply knowledge of at least five counselling therapies

1.2 Identify the applications, benefits and limitations of common counselling therapies in the context of own work role

1.3 Demonstrate the application of counselling techniques and processes from these therapies

1.4 Combine counselling techniques and processes from different therapies in an effective way
2. Confirm suitability of counselling techniques in specific situations

2.1 Clarify specific client needs and issues and agreed desired changes to be addressed, including analysis of client's developmental status and response to change

2.2 Identify application and limitations of identified counselling techniques in addressing client needs, issues and goals

2.3 Identify client and counsellor roles in therapeutic process in relation to a range of counselling techniques

2.4 Identify own level of comfort and/or issues in relation to using identified counselling techniques

2.5 Select most appropriate counselling technique/s for application in identified situations

3. Apply counselling techniques to address specific client issues and/or needs

3.1 Demonstrate appropriate and effective use of counselling techniques in assisting clients to deal with a range of issues

3.2 Use counselling skills appropriately in the context of each counselling modality and technique

3.3 Explain rationale for using specific techniques and evaluate effectiveness of the technique in context

3.4 Review own role as counsellor and in applying each technique and identify areas for improvement and/or changes in approach for the future

3.5 Identify indicators of client issues requiring referral and report or refer appropriately, in line with organisation requirements
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Historical development, terminology and underpinning concepts and principles relating to a range of counselling therapies in common use and processes used in their application
- Applications, benefits and limitations of at least five common counselling therapies
- Roles of counsellor and client in relation to a range of counselling therapies and techniques
- Indicators of client issues requiring referral
- Legal and ethical issues relating to working as a counsellor
- Government legislation, regulations, policies and standards

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply high level counselling skills in a range of counselling situations and using at least five counselling therapies
- Demonstrate the application of counselling techniques and processes from five counselling therapies relevant to own work role
- Analyse client information to clarify a range of client needs and issues
- Identify suitability of a range of counselling techniques in identified situations to address a range of client needs and issues
- Use counselling techniques appropriately and effectively when assisting clients to deal with a range of issues
- Identify indicators of client issues requiring referral and make appropriate referral
- Maintain confidentiality of client information

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate ongoing reflection on and development of capability to meet professional standards
  - In particular, assessment must confirm the ability to:
  - elicit, analyse and interpret feedback
  - reflect on feedback and integrate learning to improve practice
  - effectively use supervision and peer support to maintain self awareness and practice skills
- Work with an awareness and sensitivity to conflict, culture and context
- Analyse culturally different viewpoints and take them into account in personal development and professional practice
- Relate to people from a range of social, cultural and ethnic backgrounds and physical and mental abilities
- Maintain appropriate documentation in a counselling role

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence of competence must be demonstrated in relation to at least four client issues, using at least five counselling therapies, which must include:
  - cognitive behaviour therapy
  - person-centred therapy
- This unit of competency will be assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace.

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which must include observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
- In addition assessment methods may include:
  - written questioning
  - role play
  - supervised/guided discussion
  - candidate’s critique of their ‘performance’ to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Counselling therapies must include:
- Cognitive behaviour therapy
- Person-centred therapy

Additional elective counselling therapies may include but are not limited to:
- Behaviour therapy
- Expressive therapies
- Family therapy
- Gestalt therapy
- Narrative therapies
- Solution focused therapy
- Transactional analysis

Competence should be assessed in relation to at least four client issues which may include:
- Children/adolescents
- Domestic violence
- Family issues
- Grief and loss
- Parenting
- Pregnancy
- Relationship
- Self-esteem
- Social isolation
- Stress management

Counselling skills may include, but are not limited to:
- High level communication skills
- Advanced skills in observation, questioning and providing feedback
- Appropriate use of micro-skills for influence
- Analysis of behaviour to identify and/or clarify underpinning beliefs and values
- Accurate note taking in the counselling environment and reflection on counselling interactions
- Role modelling
- Reflection on own involvement in counselling, including reactions, responses, emotional involvement, objectivity, areas of self-deception and influencing the counselling process
RANGE STATEMENT

Client issues requiring referral may include, but are not limited to:

Indicators relating to potential:
- Child protection issues
- Suicide prevention/intervention
- Domestic and family violence
- Mental health issues
- Alcohol and other drugs (AOD) issues

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL507B Support clients in decision-making processes

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCSL507A Support clients in</td>
<td>CHCCSL507B Support clients in</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>decision-making processes</td>
<td>decision-making processes</td>
<td>ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to support clients in planning a course of action

Application of the Unit

Application

The basic counselling skills described in this unit are intended for application in the context of delivering a range of community services

Assessment may require additional knowledge specific to a particular community services or health sector

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills  This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assist clients in clarifying their aims and requirements</td>
<td>1.1 Clearly explain to clients the policy on record-keeping and confidentiality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Encourage clients to identify and explore overall aims, requirements, and ideas for meeting them</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Encourage clients to feel at ease and express themselves</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify practical goals and requirements, and discuss with clients how these might be modified</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Identify with clients potential courses of action for meeting individual aims and requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.6 Where aims and requirements of clients cannot be met, refer clients to appropriate alternative sources of guidance and support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.7 Identify indicators of client issues requiring referral and report or refer appropriately, in line with organisation requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Enable clients to explore possible courses of action</td>
<td>2.1 Explore with clients factors which could influence the preference for and ability to achieve a course of action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Explore with clients features of and likely consequences of possible courses of action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Check client understanding of what is involved in each course of action</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Help clients to assess advantages and disadvantages of each possible course of action, and their overall appropriateness for meeting particular client requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Encourage clients to decide on a course of action and to consider alternatives which could be used if necessary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.6 Document decisions and agreed support within organisation guidelines</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Referral protocols
- Necessary self awareness including:
  - role within the organisation
  - limits of competence and responsibility
  - personal strengths and limitations
  - individual needs for support and supervision
  - capacity to be non-judgemental and/or difficulty with this
- Agency/organisation model/s of counselling and intervention
- Indication of physical or mental ill health
- Key and major psychology theories
- Obstacles to counselling process
- Human life stage development
- Policy and principles and procedures to secure and maintain confidentiality including note-taking, record and log keeping and identity protection
- Relevant legislation and ethical code of practice
- Development of a range of possible interventions

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the counselling framework.
- Managing own values so they do not impede effective work and managing the stress of the work.

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - problem solving
  - counselling processes and methods
  - respect for client strengths or particular needs
  - capacity to maintain and critique realistic limits for agency service and client expectations
- Maintain documentation as required, including effective use of relevant information technology in line with work health and safety (WHS) guidelines

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resource requirements for assessment include access to an appropriate workplace or an environment capable of accurately simulating the workplace for assessment purposes
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
    - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - role play
  - focused discussion

Related units: This unit is recommended to be assessed in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCCSL501A Work within a structured counselling process

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Referral may include to specialist services/agencies such as:

- Medical
- Psychiatric
- Grief and Loss
- Various compulsions (such as gambling)
- Financial counselling

Client issues requiring referral may include, but are not limited to:

- Child protection issues
- Suicide prevention/intervention
- Domestic and family violence
- Mental health issues
- Alcohol and other drugs issues

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCSL508B Apply legal and ethical responsibilities in counselling practice

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCCSL508A Apply legal and ethical responsibilities in counselling practice</td>
<td>CHCCSL508B Apply legal and ethical responsibilities in counselling practice</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required for delivery of an ethical and legal counselling service and to ensure client rights are protected.

It addresses rights and responsibilities of client and counsellor as well as issues that may impact on the client-counsellor relationship.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit applies in relation to the specific legal and ethical context of the counselling work role, in which an ethical and legal framework is crucial to ensure that clear guidelines are available to counsellors and clients regarding their rights and responsibilities.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Address client and counsellor rights and responsibilities within counselling practice | 1.1 Identify, analyse and apply current industry standards of ethical and legal practice in counselling
1.2 Identify the responsibilities of a counsellor and apply to ensure delivery of legal and ethical counselling services
1.4 Formulate appropriate procedures to ensure rights are communicated to clients
1.4 Establish and communicate client rights in counselling practice and within the client-counsellor relationship in accordance with organisation procedures |
ELEMENT

2. Analyse issues involved in counselling practice and client-counsellor relationships

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.1 Identify and apply strategies to resolve situations of risk or potential risk</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2 Analyse and apply strategies to resolve issues involved in working with individual difference</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.3 Analyse and apply strategies to resolve issues arising from 'high need' clients</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.4 Explore personal and professional issues that may impact on the counselling practice or the client-counsellor relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.5 Formulate ways of minimising the impact of personal biases and value systems</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. Demonstrate ethical practice in client-counsellor relationships

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3.1 Use work practices that apply the responsibilities of a counsellor, including the rights of minors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2 Where appropriate, ensure clients are informed of circumstances (legislative requirements) which may override confidentiality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.3 Identify and apply strategies to minimise risk in client-counsellor relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.4 Identify the potential for litigation associated with sexual relationships between client and counsellor</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.5 Formulate processes on national and state legislation regarding sexual behaviour towards clients as part of strategy to prevent risk</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.6 Identify and apply strategies to minimise the ethical dilemmas of dual relationships</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT
4. Formulate a plan for ongoing personal and professional development

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
4.1 Identify the role and function of a professional practice supervisor
4.2 Identify areas for growth and plan ongoing personal and professional development and supervision
4.3 Reflect upon challenges that may impact on the counselling process, including own motivations for choosing a helping profession
4.4 Undertake self evaluation in relation to identified potential challenges for counsellors

5. Formulate referral procedures

5.1 Identify appropriate steps towards referral
5.2 Communicate referral issues to client
5.3 Formulate documentation for referrals containing information required by relevant agency
5.4 Clarify appropriate duration of therapeutic engagement to ensure counselling work continues to address client's interests
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Ethical behaviour
- Possible litigation
- Counsellor supervision
- Legal and statutory requirements, including:
  - Privacy Act
  - Work health and safety (WHS) legislation
  - Freedom of information
  - Equal opportunities
- Code/s of conduct
- Duty of care
- Client rights
- Counsellor responsibilities

Essential skills:
Ability to:

It is essential that competence be demonstrated in application of ethical and legal responsibilities in counselling practice. The candidate must be able to:

- Demonstrate ethical and legal responsibilities in counselling practice
- Formulate referral procedures
- Formulate a plan for professional development and counselling supervision

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Minimise risk in relationships
- Interpret ethical guidelines
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Care for self
- Analyse dilemmas

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated work context and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic work environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation and regulations, organisation policy, protocols and procedures

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
    - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
    - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - role play
  - focused discussion

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Responsibilities of a counsellor must include:

- Anti-discriminatory service
- Basic rights
- Client safety
- Commitment to ongoing training and professional development
- Duty of care
- Informed consent
- Justice to clients
- Knowledge of counsellor's approach and its limitations
- Knowledge of relevant organisation processes
- Non-exploitative service
- Privacy
- Promotion of client well being
- Right to confidentiality
- Right to privacy
- Rights of clients
- Understanding of confidentiality and the limits of duty of care
- Undertake regular supervision

Rights of minors must include:

- Informed consent
- Understanding of confidentiality and the limits of duty of care
- Knowledge of counsellor's approach and its limitations
- Anti-discriminatory service
- Non-exploitative service

Circumstances which may override confidentiality must include:

- Client safety
- Risk of harm to client, counsellor or others
- Legal subpoena (unless, for example, privileged under Family Law Act)
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL509A Reflect and improve upon counselling skills

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to evaluate own work and to undertake continuing self-development and effective supervision within an ethical code of practice

Application of the Unit
Application
The basic counselling skills described in this unit are intended for application in the context of delivering a range of community services.

Assessment may require additional knowledge specific to a particular community services or health sector

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites

Pre-requisites
This unit must be assessed after achievement of related units:

- CHCCSL501A Work within a structured counselling process
- CHCCSL503A Facilitate the counselling relationship
- CHCCSL507A Support clients in decision-making processes

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Reflect upon own counselling skills and practice | 1.1 Undertake self-evaluation in conjunction with supervisors and/or peers
1.2 Give and receive open and evaluative feedback to and from co-workers
1.3 Actively seek feedback and accept it non-defensively |
ELEMENT 2. Ensure continuing self-support and supervision

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Seek specialist supervision and advice / further training where the need is identified
2.2 Observe agency guidelines in relation to professional development
2.3 Appraise current industry developments and apply to improve practice
2.4 Regularly participate in a review mechanism as evidence of commitment to upgrading skills and knowledge
2.5 Evaluate current and likely future needs and take action to keep abreast of evolving trends
2.6 Devise, implement and regularly review a self-development plan that sets realistic goals and targets
2.7 Develop and maintain awareness of own needs and areas of vulnerability in counselling work and use appropriate means of self-protection

ELEMENT 3. Operate within an agreed ethical code of practice/ethics

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Assess own practice against identified objectives or code of ethics, using a range of valid evidence
3.2 Recognise and address the effect of values, beliefs and behaviour in work with clients
3.3 Establish realistic goals and targets for self development
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Knowledge, skills and ethics relevant to current industry and professional standards and codes of ethics and practice
- Relevant legislation and agency guidelines and codes of ethics or practice standards
- Principles and techniques of:
  - personal goal setting
  - measuring performance
  - time management
  - identifying personal behaviour, self awareness, personality traits
  - establishing a personal development plan
- The agency's policies, plans and procedures
- The types of work methods and practices which can improve personal performance
- The types of learning style/s and how they relate to the individual
- The personal development opportunities and options

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate ongoing reflection on and development of capability to meet professional standards, in particular to:
  - actively seek professional development opportunities
  - seek and reflect upon feedback
  - seek opportunities for supervision / mentoring
  - identify and participate in personal development
  - integrate learning into improved practice
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Work with an awareness and sensitivity to conflict, culture and context
- Understand and implement relevant procedures
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - negotiation
  - communication
  - decision-making
  - functional literacy to interpret written and oral information about workplace requirements
  - communication, including receiving and analysing feedback and reporting
- Research information to develop personal development and work plans
- Elicit, analyse and interpret feedback
- Analyse culturally different viewpoints and take them into account in personal development and professional practice
- Monitor research trends related to roles and responsibilities
- Use information systems to assist establish work plans
- Assess the effectiveness of own skills development
- Develop and maintain professional networks
- Relate to people from a range of social, cultural and ethnic backgrounds and physical and mental abilities

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - role play
  - focused discussion

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Knowledge refers to:

- The understanding of relevant theories, principles, practices their application and other aspects of knowledge, which may be desirable or necessary in order to practise effectively
RANGE STATEMENT

Setting: • Employees may work independently or within an agency setting

Self-evaluation includes: • Journal documentation and structured discussion and supervision with others

Specialist supervision and advice / further training may include: • Accessing on the job mentoring / professional supervision or through peer work or training

Supervision should include: • Assessment of delivery of clinical services
• Monitoring of counsellor's mental health
• Professional and educational development
• Maintenance of ethical and professional conduct and addressing of issues identified
• Evaluation of compliance with administrative procedures and requirements of professional bodies
• Where appropriate, development of business building skills

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL510A Work effectively with relationship issues

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to analyse relationship function and dysfunction and to apply techniques for developing healthy relationships

Application of the Unit
Application
The skills and knowledge in this unit are to be applied in working with clients to address interpersonal relationship issues within a counselling context

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish causes of relationship dysfunction</td>
<td>1.1 Observe, identify and document behaviour patterns and roles in relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify and document communication patterns in relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify chronic patterns of behaviour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify crisis events in the context of counselling practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Address conflict resolution needs</td>
<td>2.1 Evaluate the effectiveness of different styles and techniques of communication</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Apply therapeutic approaches to maximise conflict resolution</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

3. Apply referral processes and procedures, as appropriate

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Identify and document the range of support services available in the community

3.2 Identify and document appropriate referral opportunities to specific agencies or personnel as required

3.3 Develop referral documentation, including specific information
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include knowledge of:

- Definitions of relationship
- Divorce settlement
- Restraining order
- Injunctions
- Abuse
- Violence
- Neglect
- Bankruptcy
- Criminal action
- Types of relationships
- Values and attitudes to relationships of specific groups
- Stages in intimate/sexual relationships
- Conflict of values in relationships
- Conflict of needs in relationship
- Loss and grief in relationships

Essential skills:

It is essential that competence be demonstrated in analysing relationship issues. The candidate must be able to:

- Establish causes of relationship dysfunction
- Address conflict resolution needs
- Apply referral processes as required
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Apply communication and counselling skills
- Apply conflict resolution skills
- Analyse client information
- Refer appropriately

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated work context and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic work environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation and regulations, organisation policy, protocols and procedures

Method of assessment:
- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - continuous assessment in a setting that simulates the conditions of performance described in the elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Roles may include:
- Power behaviours
- Obsessive behaviour
- Self-deceiving behaviours
- Controlling behaviour

Behaviour patterns include:
- Withdrawal
- Aggression
- Passivity
- Passive-aggression

Communication patterns include:
- Isolation
- Alienation
- Verbal abuse
- Blame

Crisis events may include:
- Loss of income, bankruptcy
- Pregnancy, abortion, adoption
- Separation, divorce, custody
- Death, illness, disability

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL511A Provide interventions to address family issues

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to apply family therapy processes as part of counselling practice.
The application of family therapy processes is contrasted to other leading counselling approaches and differences between approaches is highlighted to enable adaptation of counselling work to suit family therapy.

Application of the Unit
Application
The skills and knowledge in this unit are to be applied in working with clients to address family issues within a counselling context.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish issues specific to family counselling</td>
<td>1.1 Identify communication transactions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify and document issues related to working in a family structure/hierarchy/organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Identify and document issues associated with using therapeutic tools</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Analyse views of leading exponents of family therapy</td>
<td>2.1 Compare the views of four major exponents of family therapy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Summarise the central features of each exponent's therapeutic approach and identify advantages and constraints in their application</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Demonstrate application of a range of these exponents' therapeutic approaches with families in counselling practice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Apply key approaches in family therapy</td>
<td>3.1 Explain three current approaches to family therapy and identify their earlier influences</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Identify and demonstrate the application of each approach to address a range of family scenarios and associated issues</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

4. Develop a therapeutic relationship with each individual within their family

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Use appropriate verbal and non-verbal communication relevant to family member's age and stage of development and to family member's cultural background

4.2 Maintain a clear and ethical relationship with family members

4.3 Support each family member to identify their concerns and participate in the process of therapy

4.4 Maintain neutrality when balancing therapeutic engagement with each family member

5. Develop a conceptualisation of the presenting problem

5.1 In a therapeutic setting, identify factors relevant to the context of the family

5.2 Develop hypotheses to explain the presenting problem

5.3 Undertake ongoing review and refinement of hypotheses when working with families

6. Implement the components of family therapy sessions

6.1 When working therapeutically, use hypotheses to generate relevant questions

6.2 Use case conceptualisations to develop therapeutic options

6.3 Track a sequence within a family dynamic

6.4 Assess onset of presenting problems and explore relationship changes around it

6.5 Explore the relationship web using a variety of questions

6.6 Explore behaviours, meaning and relationships using a variety of questions

6.7 Develop a systemic intervention
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Counselling context, process and goals
- Counselling theories
- Human life stage development
- Child protection legislation
- Extra dyadic relationships
- Cultural difference
- Self-esteem needs of family members
- Social behaviours as control
- Family life cycles
- Family values
- Differentiation of self
- Problem saturated family narrative
- Family sculpting
- Bowenian triangulation
- Coalitions subsystems
- Circular causality
- Family conflicts
- Family rules
- Recurring patterns
- Family feedback
- Gay and lesbian families

Essential skills:

It is essential that competence be demonstrated in analysing family therapy processes.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

The candidate must be able to:

- Analyse issues specific to family counselling
- Analyse the contribution of leading exponents of family therapy
- Contrast the key approaches in family therapy
- Apply systemic hypothesising
- Use effective counselling practices, including
  - establishing and maintaining appropriate counselling relationship
  - contracting appropriate to context
  - applying first session format
  - conducting second and subsequent systemic therapy sessions
  - developing of empathy and rapport
  - well timed challenging
- Use highly effective communication in a counselling context, including:
  - questioning
  - active listening
  - respectful responding
  - circular questioning
- Manage own values so they do not impede effective work
- Manage the stress of the work

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Construct genograms
- Implement plans
- Manage groups
- Formulate take-home activities

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated work context and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- It is recommended that assessment or information for assessment will be conducted or gathered over a period of time and cover the normal range of workplace situations and settings

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace and/or simulation of realistic work environment where assessment can take place
  - relevant legislation and regulations, organisation policy, protocols and procedures
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - continuous assessment in a setting that simulates the conditions of performance described in the elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Issues include:

- Small group dynamics
- Different levels of participation
- Roles adopted by group members
- Conflict resolution principles and practice
- Impact of directive, active therapist
- Family mental health

Views include:

- The purpose of the therapy
- The role of the counsellor
- The family history - genograms
- The family structure, family of origin
- Stages, phases, crises points of family therapy
RANGE STATEMENT

Central features relate to:
- Therapeutic focus
- Underpinning philosophy
- Primary intervention strategies

Leading exponents of family therapy may include but are not limited to:
- Haley
- Satir
- Bowen
- Paterson
- Brown
- Cecchin

Approaches to family therapy include but are not limited to:
- Systems theory
- Post-Milan
- Solution focused
- Narrative

Nature of counselling service may include:
- Family therapy
- Individual sessions with family members within the context of counselling the family
- Work with a variety of presenting problems including:
  - adolescent violence
  - child/young person at risk
  - family relationship problems
  - separation and divorce
  - grief and loss
  - family violence
  - behavioural issues
  - bullying and other school related issues
  - adolescent socialisation and individuation
RANGE STATEMENT

Systemic therapeutic context refers to:

- Approaches to therapy that see the client as embedded in a pattern of relationships and interactions with all significant others including immediate family members and partners, past relationships including families of origin, the wider social and cultural context including the referral and other system (legal, educational, medical) and include the relationship to and interactions with the therapist and their context.
- Using a systemic framework as a range of 'lenses' guided by hypotheses, to explore relationships and interactions that are most relevant to client's concerns and problems and must include a lens that considers the intra psychic.
- Requirement for therapist to be aware of and when necessary explore their own relationship and interaction not only with the client but also the supervision in which they are included.

Family life cycle refers to:

- Framework for understanding developmental stages which families move through (Carter and McGoldrick 1990).
- Stages in the family life cycle include:
  - leaving home: single young adults
  - joining of families through marriage: the couple
  - becoming parents: families with young children
  - the transformation of the family system in adolescence
  - families in midlife: launching children and moving on
  - the family in later life

Neutrality refers to:

- Ability of the therapist to not take the side of any one family member, but to remain curious to each individual's perspective.

Hypotheses refers to:

- Description of relationship patterns which may provide a possible explanation for presenting problem.
RANGE STATEMENT

Case conceptualisations refer to:
- Emerging understanding of the client's information and context

Sequence refers to:
- Recurring behavioural events within a relationship/family which form a circular pattern

Relationship web refers to:
- A map of existing relationships within a relationship system (e.g. a family), for which the therapist explores and measures change

Systemic intervention refers to:
- Feedback provided by the therapist at the end of an interview, which attempts to connect the presenting problem to the contradictions between meaning and behaviour demonstrated in the interview
- The intervention should positively describe each family member's behaviour and how it fits together, reframe the presenting problem, and may include a suggested task or ritual for the family to attempt between sessions

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCCSL512A Determine suitability of client for counselling services

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes a detailed knowledge of indicators of client's mental health status required to clarify client's suitability for counselling services or need for referral in the context of community services work

Application of the Unit
Application
The application of knowledge and skills described in this unit of competency may relate to functions such as providing information to clients or reporting or referring issues outside scope of practice of individual worker

Work at this level may require guidance and/or supervision from appropriately qualified personnel, especially where provision of direct client services are involved

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Obtain information about client's developmental and mental health status</td>
<td>1.1 Observe and/or question the client appropriately to obtain information about their developmental and/or mental health status</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Review any available documented information about the client's developmental and/or mental health status</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Take into account the range of factors that may have impacted on the appearance and behaviour of the client in relation to counselling services to be delivered</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Clarify client suitability for service to be provided

   2.1 Identify signs of developmental delay or mental health issues using standard methods and protocols

   2.2 Clarify suitability of community services being delivered in relation to client's developmental and/or mental health status

   2.3 Consult appropriate person to clarify implications and significance of client's developmental and/or mental health status in the case of uncertainty or limits on own capability or authority

   2.4 Where appropriate consult with the client's carer, family or significant other/s to gather relevant information

3. Check for and respond appropriately to risk

   3.1 Identify factors associated with developmental and/or mental health issues which may have potential risk for client or worker

   3.2 Recognise and refer potentially serious issues in line with organisation requirements

   3.3 Document identified developmental and/or mental health issues in line with organisation policies and procedures

   3.4 Check for any indications of issues requiring notification of authorities and report

   3.5 Check for any indications of other issues that may impact the provision of services and/or require referral

   3.6 Report and document as required by the organisation policies and procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Detailed knowledge of aspects of development of the human being throughout the lifespan, including:
  - physical
  - psychological
  - cognitive
  - social
  - affective
- Behaviours and reported emotions that may indicate presence of a mental health issue, including:
  - suicidal ideation
  - hallucinations or delusions
  - excessive fears or suspiciousness (paranoia)
  - confused thinking
  - indicators or self-harm
- Knowledge of key factors that may impact on the individual at identified stages of human development and their potential effects
- Understanding of legal obligations, particularly in relation to child protection and elder abuse issues
- Appropriate range of referral sources and associated protocols
- Legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Indicators of significant issues including:
  - child abuse (including different types of child abuse)
  - child trafficking
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- abuse, neglect or harm including self-harm
- domestic and family violence
- elder abuse
- Child protection policy of service
- State/territory requirements about responding to indications of abuse and reporting process
- Relevant organisation standards, policies and procedures

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Observe and question clients appropriately in order to obtain information relating to developmental status and actual or potential issues related to community services to be delivered
- Identify variations from normal developmental or mental health status using standard methods and protocols and recognise and refer potentially serious issues in line with organisation requirements
- Identify potential factors responsible for significant variations from normal developmental status and determine an appropriate response in terms of:
  - appropriate referral and reporting in line with organisation requirements
  - provision of appropriate services
- Refer to or seek assistance from an appropriate person or authority in relation to variations from normal functioning
- Articulate scope of practice and boundaries in relation to response to client status
- Comply with mandatory reporting requirements where appropriate

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit is most appropriately assessed in conjunction with units involving application of knowledge in a work context
- Essential knowledge covered in this unit is to be assessed before application in a work context, especially where client safety issues are involved
- Consistency in performance should consider the range of clients and situations encountered in the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - candidate's critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - role play
  - focused discussion

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Life stages include:
- Infancy
- Early childhood
- Childhood
- Adolescence
- Early adulthood
- Middle adulthood
- Late adulthood
- Old age

Signs of developmental delay may include but are not limited to:

Behavioural signs:
- Attention span or ability to focus is markedly less than others of same age
- Rare use of or avoidance of eye contact with others
- Violent behaviour
- Stares into space, rocks body or talks to self more often than others of same age
- Disinterest in seeking love or approval from a caregiver or parent

Gross motor signs:
- Has a markedly clumsy manner when compared with others of same age

Vision signs:
- Has difficulty following objects (or people) with eyes

Hearing signs:
- Fails to develop sounds or words that would be appropriate for their age
RANGE STATEMENT

Signs of mental health issues may include but are not limited to:

Changes in cognition:
- Hallucinations or delusions
- Excessive fears or suspiciousness (paranoia)
- Confused thinking

Changes in mood:
- Loss of interest in once pleasurable activities
- Thinking or talking about suicide

Changes in behaviour:
- Bizarre behaviour (strange posturing, ritualistic behaviour)
- Intention harming or killing of animals (especially in children)
- Hyperactivity

Physical changes:
- Deterioration in hygiene or personal care
- Unexplained weight gain or loss
- Sleeping too much or being unable to sleep

Stages of development may relate to:
- Stages of physical development
- Stages of psychosocial development
- Stages of cognitive development
- Psychosexual stages
- Stages of moral development
- Stages of ego development

Issues requiring notification of authorities include:
- Certain infectious diseases
- Suspected or known child or elder abuse
- Suspected or known child trafficking
- Issues deemed to be in the public's best interest
RANGE STATEMENT

Other issues may include:

- Misuse of alcohol and other drugs
- A history of mental health issues
- Indicators of abuse, neglect or harm including self-harm
- Having no accommodation, employment or money
- Indications of domestic and family violence

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCSL513A Apply somatic distress reduction techniques

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to work effectively with clients using a range of somatic distress reduction techniques

Application of the Unit

Application
The skills and knowledge in this unit may be applied in working with clients in distress, such as those unable to calm down emotionally due to high levels of unpleasant body sensations or unable to work through issues with some degree of rationality due to strong residual body distress

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Assist client to provide a history of the problem | 1.1 Provide a safe and welcoming environment for the client to begin to tell their story
1.2 Assist client to provide pertinent details of their story causing them distress
1.3 Assist client to identify predominant emotions linked to their story
1.4 Assist client to identify thought processes linked with their story including negative self statements, spoken or thought
1.5 Assist client to identify how they would prefer to feel, think and be (provide a positive target)
1.6 Assist client identify earliest memories of present emotions and negative self statements associated with other events which may link with their present story |
ELEMENT

2. Assist client to identify areas in the body that currently cause them distress

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Work with client to identify areas in the body where there are signs of tension or anxiety

2.2 Assist client to identify times in the day when these unpleasant body sensations are worst

2.3 Help client identify times when somatic distress is lessened or when it is not noticed

2.4 Assist client to identify predominant thoughts and emotions linked with the somatic distress

3. Use scaling techniques to measure effectiveness of therapeutic intervention

3.1 Select scaling technique appropriate to address diverse client needs

3.2 Assist client to identify the level of distress through utilising the scaling technique

3.3 While working with the somatic distress reduction technique use scaling techniques to provide feedback

3.4 At the conclusion of working with the client use appropriate scaling technique to clarify for client the benefit or otherwise of the technique

3.5 Use this information to either encourage home use of the method for somatic distress reduction or to refer the client for further support

4. Use appropriate somatic distress reduction therapeutic application

4.1 Select appropriate somatic distress reduction technique to address diverse client needs

4.2 Assist client to understand how the selected technique works and its benefits and limitations

4.3 Provide clear instructions to client about appropriate use of the technique selected

4.4 Work with client appropriately to address their somatic distress, providing care and assurance

4.5 Conclude session, providing appropriate suggestions to calm and ease the client into the present environment again
ELEMENT

5. Assist client to become grounded and centred after the therapy

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Assist client to move their body in a usual manner
5.2 Check with client for normality of body sensation, thought and emotion
5.3 Ask client about their plans for the rest of the day and provide appropriate support and guidance to assist client to maintain grounded and centred state
5.4 Plan with client continued sessions if required

6. Support client to utilise techniques safely in home environment to reduce stress or sadness

6.1 Assess benefits gained from using the somatic distress reduction technique for the client
6.2 Assess appropriateness of using the technique at home by the client when needed
6.3 Provide support and guidance for client using handouts or hand written notes for use in private
6.4 Provide contact opportunities for client to gain extra support at home if required

7. Provide appropriate referral for clients experiencing extremely high levels of somatic distress

7.1 Provide calming and caring presence to support clients experiencing distress after working with somatic distress reduction techniques
7.2 Successfully identify symptoms of high somatic distress in clients
7.3 Successfully identify symptoms of dissociation or unusual presentations requiring further support
7.4 Provide contact details of medical practitioners, psychologists, or hospital emergency centres and after hours counselling phone lines if required
7.5 Support client with access to safe places if they are identified as unable to adequately care for themselves
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate underpinning knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Benefits of somatic distress reduction techniques
- Appropriate application of the use of techniques
- A range of techniques for various ages and circumstances
- Suicidal ideation and somatic distress
- Services in the area for referral including medical practitioners, psychologists, hospital mental health admission procedures, after hours counselling phone lines or capacity to find this out for the client's particular location
- Signs and symptoms of dissociation or unusual presentations
- Cognitive/behavioural interventions
- Links between thought, emotion, body sensation and behaviour
- Knowledge of appropriate legislation, policy and guidelines

Essential skills:
Candidates must have had personal experience using somatic distress reduction techniques prior to using these techniques with others.

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Provide a supportive environment to assist clients to identify their current somatic issues and history of the problem
- Select and explain to clients, appropriate somatic distress reduction techniques to address a diverse range of client needs
- Identify situations in which use of somatic distress reduction techniques would be inappropriate
- Demonstrate appropriate use of somatic distress reduction techniques with a range of clients
- Evaluate effectiveness of somatic distress reduction techniques for clients with a diverse
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

range of needs and issues
- Provide appropriate and effective follow up for clients after use of somatic distress reduction techniques

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:
- Use high level communication and interpersonal relationship skills
- Make appropriate referrals
- Support clients in distress

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:
- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit may be assessed either on the job or off the job through an appropriate workplace simulation for a range of age groups and a range of conditions over a number of assessment situations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice is encouraged with other units of competency relating to counselling practice
- Assessment requires access to a range of opportunities, including:
  - simulation of realistic workplace environment for assessment
  - assessment must take place on 3 or more occasions
  - a range of somatic distress reduction techniques must be assessed (3 or more)
  - materials to support home use by clients
  - legislation, regulations, policies and guidelines
  - definitions of diversity
  - current information on diversity issues
  - organisation’s values and codes of conduct
  - organisation’s procedures and protocols
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, competency should be demonstrated in a range of situations which may include:
  - observation of performance in an actual workplace or in a setting that realistically simulates work conditions:
  - observation should include key aspects described in elements, performance criteria and relevant aspects of the Range Statement of the unit
  - where face-to-face observation is not possible, video recordings may be provided
  - candidate’s critique of their 'performance' to demonstrate cognitive understanding of theory
  - written questioning
  - relevant case studies and/or scenarios
  - role play
  - focused discussion

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Somatic distress reduction techniques may include:
- Systematic muscle relaxation
- Breathing techniques
- Emotional freedom techniques
- Thought field therapy
- Be Set Free Fast - tapping therapies
- Be Set Free Fast - positive self statement scripts
- Miscellaneous power therapies
- Hakomi - mindfulness technique
- HAMR - Hand Actuated Mental Conditioning
- Laughter therapy
- Rhythm exercises
- Rhythm exercises combined with positive self statements
- Visualisations

Signs of tension or anxiety may include but is not limited to:
- Tingles
- Jitters
- Racing heart
- Heaviness
- Sweaty palms
RANGE STATEMENT

Diverse client needs may relate to aspects such as:

- Age
- Cultural or ethnic diversity
- Disability
- Educational level
- Ethnicity
- Expertise
- Family responsibilities
- Gender
- Interests
- Interpersonal approach
- Language
- Learning styles
- Life experience
- Marital status
- Personality
- Physical capability
- Political orientation
- Religious belief
- Sexual orientation
- Sexual identity
- Socioeconomic background
- Thinking styles
- Work experience
- Working styles

Appropriate referral may include:

- Peers
- Supervisors
- Medical practitioners
- Community support groups
- After hours counselling phone lines
- Hospital emergency
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislation, policy and guidelines may include:

- Racial Discrimination Act 1975
- Sex Discrimination Act 1984
- Disability Discrimination Act 1992
- Workplace Relations Act 1996
- Privacy Act 1988
- State/territory legislation addressing diversity issues
- Public sector management acts
- Workplace diversity guidelines
- Codes of conduct/ethics
- The organisation's plans strategies and policies relating to diversity
- Community guidelines, policy and practices that may exist within specific cultural or ethnic communities

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCW301C Operate under a casework framework

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to optimise the effectiveness of interaction with client by using appropriate skills to implement a case plan

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish an appropriate working relationship with clients | 1.1 Routinely utilise effective communication strategies to ensure:
\[\begin{align*}
\text{clients identify their needs} \\
\text{individual and cultural differences are accommodated}
\end{align*}\]
1.2 Define the rights and responsibilities of clients and workers and establish and maintain appropriate boundaries
1.3 Assist clients, where appropriate, to obtain counselling or communication skills training
1.4 Identify client’s information needs and agree and implement actions to satisfy these as appropriate
1.5 Maximise interaction with clients by utilising appropriate communication, thoroughly exploring problems and possible solutions, and providing a supportive environment which encourages clients to take control of their lives |
ELEMENT

2. Uphold the rights and responsibilities of clients

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Define and agree the rights of clients and the range of options for addressing these

2.2 Discuss client responsibilities with each client to ensure common understanding

2.3 Recognise and explain individual and cultural differences relating to rights and responsibilities, and identify strategies to deal with these

2.4 Identify appropriate services required by the client and plan their delivery in consultation with the client and other relevant people
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Communication techniques and models
- Organisation policies, procedures and philosophies
- Legislative and statutory requirements
- Conventions on rights of children, young people, civil rights and basic human rights
- Service protocols, processes and models
- Basic counselling techniques
- Basic information collection techniques
- Client/worker relationship
- Range of available services
- Indicators of abuse and appropriate intervention strategies
- Family structures and dynamics

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Facilitate communication of rights, responsibilities, limits and extents of roles and service provision
- Observe and collect feedback about behaviour, actions, progress with goals
- Identify limits of role and taking actions to contact appropriate people
- Present information within an informal and formal setting
- Apply knowledge related to organisation and legislative requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - communication and establishing rapport
  - client assessment and behaviour observation
  - determining and maintaining role boundaries
  - use of personal and professional authority and influence to support or confront
  - behaviour management
  - stress management

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Establish an appropriate working relationship will include contexts such as:

- Contact with a service on a voluntary or involuntary basis
- Request for general or specific information
- Pre, during and post intervention

Establishing a relationship with clients will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Relevant international conventions on civil, human rights
- Cultural protocols, taboos and systems
- Organisation mission, philosophy and practices

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCW402C Implement a case work strategy

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to implement an effective working relationship with clients under a case management framework

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish an appropriate working relationship with clients | 1.1 Routinely use effective strategies to ensure:
- clients identify their needs and goals
- individual and cultural differences are addressed
- areas of resistance/conflict are identified and appropriately resolved
- appropriate levels of consultation are implemented
- the experience and life skills of the client are appropriately addressed
- relevant information is collected
1.2 Implement processes to reach agreement on meeting procedures, consequences of actions and cooperative relationship
1.3 Clarify negotiable and non negotiable aspects of intervention
1.4 Define and maintain boundaries between client and worker, including roles, responsibilities and accountabilities, to ensure compliance with statutory requirements and duty of care responsibilities
1.5 Implement strategies to ensure all dealings with clients reflect appropriate expression of value systems and consideration of emotional impact of intervention |
2. Promote preventative strategies

2.1 Provide a full range of opportunities for clients to engage in identification of problems and solutions
2.2 Employ a range of strategies to assist clients to meet specific targets and to gain control over their lives
2.3 Identify, develop and initiate an appropriate range of opportunities in accordance with organisation policies and procedures and client needs
2.4 Encourage and monitor client progress and involvement in activities and take appropriate action to maximise individual skill development

3. Provide a specialist service to clients

3.1 Complete and maintain all appropriate documentation in accordance with organisation and statutory standards and requirements
3.2 Implement procedures to facilitate information sharing between key stakeholders
3.3 Ensure all dealings with the client/s reflect:
   - accepted organisation standards of behaviour
   - mutual respect
   - commitment to information sharing and dissemination
   - adherence to agreed plan
   - sensitivity to cultural, family and individual differences
   - ability to work with the client in the context of the family and broader community
   - application of the organisation's philosophy
   - compliance with statutory requirements and duty of care responsibilities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:
- Relevant policy, procedures and legislation
- Cultural protocols and systems
- Statutory requirements
- Group processes
- Appropriate social work theories
- Client worker relationships
- Range of services - programs available

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Facilitate exploration of issues
- Establish role definitions
- Identify and work constructively with conflict and resistance
- Monitor own positions and reactions
- Clarify differences in perception
- Undertake problem exploration within a proactive framework

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Devise and develop tasks to help clients understanding and problem solving efforts
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- working with conflict, resistance and levels of risk
- empathy, engagement and rapport building
- effective listening
- goal clarification
- communicating interest, respect and concern
- articulating clearly boundaries of own role
- recognising signs and triggers for dependency
- constructive use of personal and professional authority and influence to support or confront
- interpersonal relationship

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts of working with clients include:

- Contact with a service on a voluntary or involuntary basis
- Contact with a statutory activity e.g. Notification, first juvenile offence
- Within an intervention
- Within a support activity or service

Working relationship will be within requirements established by:

- Commonwealth and state legislation
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young persons
- Organisation policy and procedures
- Relevant program standards
- Organisation codes of conduct, ethics

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCW503A Work intensively with clients

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to deliver targeted specialised client services based on individual case management and intervention

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Provide high quality case work | 1.1 Make available to the client appropriate strategies and activities to facilitate achievement of agreed goals and to maximise outcomes within statutory, legislative and organisation requirements
1.2 Identify and effectively communicate the rights and responsibilities of clients to them
1.3 Employ appropriate processes to optimise outcomes when working with groups
1.4 Implement appropriate strategies to continually monitor the effectiveness of approaches in achieving agreed goals, enabling client access to relevant services and programs and meeting client and stakeholder needs
1.5 Negotiate any proposed changes with clients and other relevant parties
1.6 Respond appropriately to potential and actual difficulties and crises including:
  - identifying a range of relevant strategies
  - engaging behaviour consistent with organisation standards
  - accessing relevant emergency services as required
  - providing appropriate debriefing to relevant parties
1.7 Implement appropriate mechanisms to assess the need to change case plans and strategies
1.8 Where decisions are made to implement case closure, employ procedures consistent with organisation procedures |
ELEMENT | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
--- | ---
2. Enlist specialist services | 2.1 Assess the need for specialist services, considering:
  - severity of client needs
  - agreed goals and planned outcomes
  - resources
  - the degree of community and family support
  - the workers skills and work capacity
  2.2 Where referrals are made to specialist services, implement processes to ensure progress will be monitored

3. Establish transition processes | 3.1 Negotiate with relevant people, the need for ongoing resources, services and support
  3.2 Make arrangements with relevant parties for participation in programs and other support activities
  3.3 Negotiate appropriate levels of ongoing contact with client and significant others to ensure needs continue to be met once intensive work is completed
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Professional service provision codes of conduct, ethical codes, referral protocols
- Group dynamics models/practices
- Range of services available
- Organisation procedures and program standards
- Indicators of pathology i.e. Substance use, mental health
- Cultural protocols, taboos and language systems
- Facilitation model/practices
- Statutory mandate and responsibilities
- Behaviour change models/practices
- Central ideas and frameworks for understanding love, sex and intimacy in relationships
- Different areas and levels of well being such as psychological, physiological, social, economic and spiritual.
- Theoretical developmental approaches to human development and understanding of life stages and physical, emotional, social, cognitive characteristics of human development
- Human lifespan and personality theory
- Major psychological approaches to human behaviour.
- Main approaches - psychoanalytic, behavioural, humanistic and cognitive relate approaches to social welfare work
- Links between personality theory and abnormal psychology including main definitions of health and well being
- Stress indicators
- Sociological understanding including:
  - culture and diversity
  - critique of socialisation theory
  - family, power
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work cooperatively with clients and significant others to achieve behavioural life skills changes
- Work with individuals in a range of settings to achieve maximum outcomes

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of high level communication skills, including
  - establishing a trusting relationship
  - information gathering
  - reflective listening, respectful responding, development of empathy and rapport
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - crisis intervention
  - demonstration of empathy
  - relationship building
  - communication
  - negotiation
  - assertion
  - conflict management

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment must include assessment of competence with a number of clients

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:

- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Working with clients will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Relevant legislation and statutory requirements
- International conventions relating to the rights of individuals
- Organisation policy and codes of conduct
- Relevant program standards
- Professional association codes of conduct and ethical and ethical positions

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCCW604B Design and supervise family intervention strategies

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to design and supervise a broad range of programs to meet the needs of families within a specific community

Application of the Unit
Application This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Guide the assessment of need of families in the community</td>
<td>1.1 Guide others to assess a family's level of need from a broad social and cultural perspective&lt;br&gt;1.2 Ensure that family law framework is applied as an integrated part of family assessments&lt;br&gt;1.3 Provide approaches and systems to support the identification of families needs in the community&lt;br&gt;1.4 Develop networks across agencies to inform the assessment of family needs in the community</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Facilitate the implementation of relevant policies and directions</td>
<td>2.1 Obtain and communicate research and policy directions on early family intervention and crises support&lt;br&gt;2.2 Develop and maintain sound knowledge of community demographics and community issues&lt;br&gt;2.3 Provide a responsive framework based on sound community information to inform policy direction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------------</td>
<td>--------------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 3. Design the delivery of an inclusive service | 3.1 Design programs and service delivery to support implementation of policy direction to address community needs
3.2 Design programs and service delivery to increase active and positive participation of families in the community
3.3 Design educational services to integrate education for parenting within an inclusive social perspective |
| 4. Supervise the quality of service delivery | 4.1 Guide the development of performance measures for service delivery
4.2 Coach staff to apply a holistic and systemic approach to measuring the effectiveness of family interventions
4.3 Identify areas for improvement of family intervention services through consultation with service providers and the community members
4.4 Guide the design and delivery of services to meet current and future needs of families within the community. |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Communication techniques and models
- Organisation policies, procedures and philosophies
- Legislative and statutory requirements
- Conventions on rights of children, young people, civil rights and basic human rights
- Service protocols, processes and models
- Basic counselling techniques
- Basic information collection techniques
- Client/worker relationship
- Range of available services
- Indicators of abuse and appropriate intervention strategies
- Family structures and dynamics

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Facilitate communication of rights, responsibilities, limits and extents of roles and service provision
- Observe and collect feedback about behaviour, actions, progress with goals
- Identify limits of role and taking actions to contact appropriate people
- Present information within an informal and formal setting
- Apply knowledge related to organisation and legislative requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - communication and establishing rapport
  - client assessment and behaviour observation
  - determining and maintaining role boundaries
  - use of personal and professional authority and influence to support or confront
  - behaviour management
  - stress management

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment

Method of assessment:
- Assessment may include observations, questioning or evidence gathered from the workplace

Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

The contexts for working with families include:

- Contact with a service on a voluntary or involuntary basis
- Request for general or specific information
- Pre, during and post intervention

Work with clients will be carried out within requirements established by:

- Relevant international conventions on civil, human rights
- Cultural protocols, taboos and systems
- Organisation mission, philosophy and practices

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV301A Recognise and respond appropriately to domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify and respond to domestic violence during professional contact with clients.

It requires a knowledge and understanding of domestic and family violence and an awareness of its effects together with an ability to promote confidence whilst responding appropriately, including providing relevant and timely information and referral.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills
This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Work within a domestic violence framework</td>
<td>1.1 Plan work practices to ensure maximum consideration is given to client and worker safety</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Ensure work undertaken demonstrates consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophies of domestic violence work and the nature of domestic violence, including its effects, its social, historical, political and economic context and its place in the criminal justice system</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Participate in support processes to obtain professional feedback and to monitor occupational health and stress</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Demonstrate in all work, understanding of the rights and responsibilities of the individual, the family, the community and society to minimise or prevent domestic violence</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Promote confidence with clients affected by domestic violence

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Use appropriate interpersonal skills that develop rapport and promote confidence, allowing accurate and relevant exchange of information

2.2 In all work, demonstrate sensitivity to client's specific needs and any cultural, family and individual differences

2.3 Conduct interviews and interactions with clients in a safe environment and in a manner which allows the client to explore their issues/options

2.4 Explain rights and responsibilities of client and worker and promote throughout client contact as appropriate

2.5 In all work apply organisation standards and procedures and comply with legislative and statutory requirements

3. Identify client needs

3.1 Appropriate interpersonal skills are employed to ensure that the client's safety needs and other needs are accurately identified

3.2 Mechanisms are employed to ensure that all relevant client information is collected

3.3 Information is assessed for complexity, urgency and eligibility so that priorities for service delivery and safety can be identified

3.4 Any indications of nature of risk or threats to safety are analysed and responded to

3.5 Worker's and workplace's limitations in addressing and assessing client needs are identified and assistance is sought from appropriate persons to best meet the needs of the client and their family
ELEMENT 4. Respond to client needs

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 In responding to client needs, prioritise the physical and emotional safety of clients, their family and workers

4.2 Provide client with information about available services for meeting their needs

4.3 Seek support and make appropriate referrals to cater for clients needs according to organisation standards and procedures

4.4 In all work demonstrate sensitivity to client's specific needs and any cultural, family and individual differences

4.5 Provide advice on client services in accordance with organisation standards and procedures

4.6 Undertake record-keeping and reporting in accordance with organisation standards and procedures

---

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Knowledge of the social, historical, political and economic context of domestic violence, including types and nature of domestic violence, power and gender issues, child abuse and associated criminal issues
- Understanding of the prevalence of myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices in the broader society regarding domestic violence and their effects on individuals' rights to safety and autonomy
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing, code of conduct,
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention and duty of care requirements
- Understanding of legal obligations, particularly in relation to child protection issues
- Knowledge of the various groups represented within the local community (e.g. cultural, religious, language, sexual identity, age and disability) and an understanding of the issues that arise when working with those groups
- Knowledge of the appropriate range of referral sources and associated protocols
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use appropriate interpersonal skills and general knowledge to identify and respond in an appropriate manner to domestic violence, in particular to:
  - maintain confidentiality and manage subtleties of confidentiality whilst following policy and procedures in all aspects of responding to domestic violence
  - establish confidence with clients through appropriate interpersonal styles and methods
  - identify and assess client needs including consideration of the physical and emotional safety of clients and their family
  - assist clients to select appropriate services from a range provided by the organisation and other agencies which match client needs
  - depending on the work program or services provided apply specific knowledge of particular groups or issues (e.g. alcohol and other drugs (AOD), same-sex relationships, religious, survivors/victims, users of violence, Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander issues, mental health, non-English speaking background)
  - interpret accurately and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand limitations of their own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery
  - refer clients to other relevant agencies in a professional manner giving enough relevant information to maximise the possibility of the client taking up the referral

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- response, for example, responding sensitively and appropriately to disclosure, responding sensitively to cultural issues, and maintaining confidentiality for people who have experienced domestic violence.
- questioning and active listening to establish client confidence and facilitate disclosure
- problem solving for a defined range of predictable problems, for example when client needs are identified as lying outside a worker's particular professional role the worker should offer the client accurate and current information about appropriate services and providers
- collaboration between worker, client, client’s family and co-workers and with other service providers
- validation of client's experience of violence
- literacy and communication in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and service delivery issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
  This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
- Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
- Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in identifying and responding to domestic violence
  - where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
  - review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to identifying and responding to domestic violence

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Work may relate to:

• Specific groups, issues or communities e.g. Health issues of young people from particular cultural, religious, sub-cultural backgrounds and/or geographical areas
• Monitoring, evaluation and research activities
• Policy development
• Assessment
• Individual casework
• Community development
• Referrals
• Child protection work
• Provision of information/materials
• Project development and implementation

Client may include:

• Individuals (inclusive of children, youth, adults and the aged)
• Those referred or self-referred
• Voluntary and involuntary
• People with specific needs seeking access to services
• Survivors/victims of domestic violence, their families and friends
• Users of violence and their families
RANGE STATEMENT

Underpinning values and philosophies in responding to domestic and family violence include:

- The safety and well being of those subjected to domestic violence must be the first priority of any response
- All individuals have the right to be free from violence
- The community has a responsibility to work toward the prevention of domestic violence and to demonstrate the unacceptability of all forms of domestic violence
- All forms of domestic violence are unacceptable in any group, culture or creed
- Those who use violence should take responsibility for their behaviour and have access to programs to assist them change their behaviour to ensure the safety of their family
- A commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of clients
- A commitment to empowering those affected by domestic violence
- Domestic violence is widespread and complex
- Domestic violence impacts on the physical, emotional, social, and financial well being and safety of individuals in families
- Domestic violence and abuse has devastating effects on family members and results in significant social and economic costs to the community

Social, historical, political and economic context:

- Statutory framework within which work takes place
- Historical context of work e.g. changing attitudes to domestic violence; changing approaches to working with people affected by domestic violence
- Changing social context of work e.g. previous, current and changing government and societal views of domestic violence and approaches to working with clients
- Political context e.g. government policies and initiatives affecting domestic violence work
- Economic context e.g. current economic situation as it relates to and affects domestic violence and the subsequent impact on client needs and the effects of economic deprivation and control on clients attempting to escape domestic violence
RANGE STATEMENT

Support processes will need to include at least one of the following:

- Performance feedback
- Debriefing
- Training and development
- Supervision

Rights and responsibilities may include:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters (e.g. UN declaration on rights of the child)
- Rights under the Constitution
- Rights and responsibilities under legislation (e.g. freedom of information and child protection legislation)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker's code of ethics
- Rights of victim to crime compensation
RANGE STATEMENT

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Means by which an emotionally safe and empathic environment is created
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, religious, gender and sexual identity groups
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower client to ensure safety of client and family
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Demonstrating empathy
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- The ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Using conflict management skills if appropriate
- Recognition of client/worker power differences
- Maintaining confidentiality
- If needed, use of a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client or client's family
- Active listening

Specific needs relating to clients may include, but are not limited to those:

- Who have a disability
- Who come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
- Whose preferred or main language is not English
- Who are aged or young
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Who are in same-sex relationships
- Who are of a particular gender
- With a dual diagnosis
- Whose religious beliefs or practices need to be considered
- Who have addiction or dependency issues
- Who have mental health issues
- Who come from an aboriginal background
- Who come from a Torres Strait Islander background
RANGE STATEMENT

Interviews and interactions with clients can be either informal or formal and include:

- Scheduled or impromptu
- Via telephone or in person
- Separate interviews
- Through a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client or client's family
- Other specialist assistance
- Those conducted in a safe environment which encourages disclosure when appropriate

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Client and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and rights of client to self determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Eligibility criteria for accessing particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Guidelines relating to confidentiality/client consent
- Occupational health and safety
- Debriefing and supervision
- Industry standards

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. domestic violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, child protection, legal practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of information legislation
RANGE STATEMENT

Client needs and associated services and or strategies may include, but are not limited to:

- Safety, physical and emotional security
- Assistance to gain economic support
- Protection from financial exploitation
- Immediate and appropriate responses which aim to ensure/maintain safety
- Legal or medical information and support
- Accommodation/transportation
- Access to services/information
- Counselling (individual, family or group focused)
- Referrals to specialist services
- Referrals to community support and/or education groups
- Establishment of community networks
- Domestic violence awareness raising programs
- Provision of assistance to address issues, gather information and locate other resources
- Advocacy

Mechanisms that could be used to collect information could include:

- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Classification tools
- Client consent (verbal or written)
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from service providers
- Previous file records
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk may refer to client, client's family and/or worker and be indicated by the following:

- Self identification of risk
- Evidence of physical injuries
- Threat to safety
- Current or previous criminal charges for assault of client by partner/ex-partner
- Current or previous police involvement
- Objective assessment of client's current ability to protect self and children from further assault or harm
- Threat or attempts to self-harm
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem, suicidal thoughts, emotional distress or sleep disturbances
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol, drug or substance abuse
- Intimidation and harassment
- Client being denied access to funds, resources or medications
- Existing or previous orders relating to domestic violence (e.g. Apprehended violence order), or breach of orders
- Avoidance of discussion regarding possible abuse
- Implausible explanation for injuries
- Repeated requests for financial assistance
- Other factors that may indicate a history of violence
- Children's behaviour and developmental level
- Current behaviours of user of violence
- Frequent hospital visits/admissions
- Current or previous separation
- Family court and/or relationship history
- Implied or actual threats to harm the worker by user of violence
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate persons may include:

- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Acknowledged domestic violence issue specialists
- Various community groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, sexual identity, and age groupings within the community
- Government representatives and service providers
- Police
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Specialist support services for people with specific needs
- Behaviour change groups, such as users of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups
- Support groups such as survivors/victims of violence groups, community houses, women's networks and refuges, professional associations
- Authorities responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, for example, local councils, legal services, such as legal aid, and state and commonwealth agencies

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required for individuals to manage their own performance and take responsibility for their professional development in relation to domestic and family violence

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Work within a domestic violence framework | 1.1 Plan work practices to ensure maximum consideration is given to client and worker safety
1.2 Ensure all work undertaken accords with prevention strategies and accepted models of intervention and demonstrates consideration and understanding of the underpinning values and philosophies of domestic violence work and the nature of domestic violence, including its effects, its social, historical, political and economic context and its place in the criminal justice system
1.3 In all work demonstrate commitment to assist clients to deal with their issues through enhancing skills, accessing appropriate support and working with others in the community who share client's issues and concerns
1.4 In all work demonstrate understanding of the rights and responsibilities of the individual, the family, the community, and society and the worker's limitations, strengths and professional boundaries
1.5 In all work demonstrate consideration of the interrelationship of issues affecting clients in a domestic violence context |
ELEMENT

2. Model high standards of performance

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Use own performance as a positive role model for others within the occupational group and the community as a whole

2.2 Acknowledge personal and professional values and attitudes regarding domestic violence and how they impact/conflict in practice, when planning and implementing work activities

2.3 In all work demonstrate respect and understanding of individual differences and work processes are adapted as appropriate to meet the cultural, linguistic and any specific needs of the client

2.4 Use organisation and professional standards, procedures and values in providing services to clients affected by domestic violence and reflect community needs

2.5 Recognise and report breaches of organisation codes of ethics and or practices in accordance with professional and organisation standards and procedures
ELEMENT

3. Develop and maintain professional competence

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Assess personal knowledge and skills in the domestic violence area against occupational units of competency and other relevant standards to determine development needs and priorities

3.2 Regularly use self assessment and reflection on practice to monitor own performance against established personal performance standards and to identify strengths and weaknesses

3.3 Use feedback from clients, their family and colleagues to identify and develop ways to improve competence in responding to domestic violence

3.4 Identify personal development strategies to recognise and respond effectively to domestic violence, and plan and implement to maintain currency of professional competency

3.5 Identify, acquire and apply new developments and trends in responding to domestic violence, and the associated skills and knowledge

3.6 Participate in support processes to obtain professional feedback and to monitor occupational health and stress

3.7 Use networking to identify and build relationships with associated and relevant individuals and organisations

3.8 Participate in professional networks and associations to obtain and maintain personal knowledge and networks
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Knowledge of the social, historical, political and economic context of domestic violence, including types and nature of domestic violence, its effects, power and gender issues, child abuse and associated criminal issues
- Understanding of the prevalence of myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices in the broader society regarding domestic violence and their effects on individuals’ rights to safety and autonomy
- An understanding of current organisation and professional procedures, practices, and social, ethical and business standards
- Knowledge of relevant debriefing and support processes
- An understanding of how to interpret units of competency and apply them to self, including identifying and prioritising personal learning needs
- An understanding of how to develop and maintain professional networks
- Knowledge of the principles and techniques of goal setting, measuring performance and time management
- Knowledge of self assessment and reflective strategies to assist in determining personal development needs, including preparing personal plans and establishing priorities
- Knowledge of respectful strategies that will assist in client self-determination to ensure safety of client and family
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- An understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Manage own performance and take responsibility for professional development in relation to domestic violence, in particular to:
  - consider the physical and emotional safety of clients, their family, worker and colleagues
  - display a positive role model to others
  - adapt work processes to meet the specific needs of the community, client or colleagues as required
  - monitor own performance and identify any personal development needs
  - identify ways to improve performance through seeking feedback from clients and colleagues
  - acknowledge personal values when responding to domestic violence
  - access learning opportunities to extend own personal work competencies to improve service delivery in domestic violence
  - develop and expand professional networks and participate in positive relationship building to further enhance skills and knowledge
  - interpret accurately and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand their own work role and responsibilities in relation to domestic violence issues
  - select and use available technology appropriate to the task

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - networking to enable positive participation in professional associations and networks to enhance knowledge within a domestic violence framework
  - questioning and active listening to establish confidence and facilitate accurate and relevant exchange of information
  - liaison, for example, ability to liaise with people from a range of social, cultural, sub-cultural, religious and ethnic backgrounds in individual or group contexts
  - planning and organising for determining goals and strategies
  - researching and evaluating to acquire and assess information, for example-to prepare personal plans and establish priorities
  - collaboration between worker and client, between worker and colleagues and between services and other providers
  - problem solving for a defined range of predictable problems, for example when client needs are identified as lying outside a worker's particular professional role the worker should offer the client accurate and current information about appropriate services
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

and workers in other occupational groups

- literacy and communication in relation to analysis and evaluation of feedback, and presentation of information

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
  This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
  - Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
  - Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment to manage professional development in responding to domestic violence.
  - assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to identifying and responding to domestic violence.

Related units:

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following unit:

- CHCDFV301A Recognise and respond to domestic and family violence.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Work may relate to:

- Specific groups, issues or communities e.g. Health issues of young people from particular cultural, religious, sub-cultural backgrounds and/or geographical areas
- Monitoring, evaluation and research activities
- Policy development
- Primary intervention and assessment
- Advocacy
- Individual casework
- Community development
- Referrals
- Child protection work
- Provision of information/materials
- Service development towards systems change
- Project development and implementation

Client may include:

- Individuals (inclusive of children, youth, adults and the aged)
- Referred or self-referred clients
- Voluntary and involuntary clients
- People with specific needs seeking access to services
- Survivors/victims of domestic violence, their families and friends
- Users of violence and their family
- Other organisations/service providers
- Communities
RANGE STATEMENT

Underpinning values and philosophies in responding to domestic and family violence include:

- The safety and well being of those subjected to domestic violence must be the first priority of any response
- All individuals have the right to be free from violence
- The community has a responsibility to work toward the prevention of domestic violence and to demonstrate the unacceptability of all forms of domestic violence
- All forms of domestic violence are unacceptable in any group, culture or creed
- Those who use violence should take responsibility for their behaviour and have access to programs to assist them change their behaviour to ensure the safety of their family
- A commitment to meeting the needs and upholding the rights of clients
- A commitment to empowering those affected by domestic violence
- Domestic violence is widespread and complex
- Domestic violence impacts on the physical, emotional, social, and financial well being and safety of individuals in families
- Domestic violence and abuse has devastating effects on family members and results in significant social and economic costs to the community
- Domestic violence is an abuse of power perpetrated mainly (but not only) by men against women both in a relationship and after separation
RANGE STATEMENT

Social, historical, political and economic context:

- Statutory framework within which work takes place
- Historical context of work e.g. changing attitudes to domestic violence; changing approaches to working with people affected by domestic violence
- Changing social context of work e.g. previous, current and changing government and societal views of domestic violence and approaches to working with clients
- Political context e.g. government policies and initiatives affecting domestic violence work
- Economic context e.g. the current economic situation as it relates to and affects domestic violence and the subsequent impact on client needs and the effects of economic deprivation and control on clients attempting to escape domestic violence

Community may relate to a specific location, language/cultural or social structure and include:

- Individuals and groups defined by the organisation's programs and services
- Other agencies providing services to individuals and groups
- People with specific needs and interests
- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Survivors/victims of domestic violence, their families and friends
- Funding bodies
- Professional networks and associations
- Government representatives and service providers
- Policy and decision-makers in the specific community
- Groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, sexual, gender, and age issues in the community
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights and responsibilities may include:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters (e.g. UN Declaration on Rights of the Child)
- Rights under the Constitution
- Rights and responsibilities under legislation (e.g. freedom of information and child protection legislation)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker’s code of ethics

Interrelationship of issues when responding to domestic violence may relate to clients with specific needs such as:

- Disability issues
- Cultural diversity issues
- Language issues, such as when English is not the first language
- Issues for the aged or young
- Isolation issues, such as those from remote or rural locations
- Sexual identity issues
- Gender issues
- When religious beliefs, practices or values need to be considered
- Addiction or dependency issues
- Mental health issues
- Criminal history
- Literacy issues
- Those at risk of self-harm
- Economic/transport or accommodation issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Own performance may be monitored against established personal and organisation performance requirements and may include processes such as:

- Formal/informal organisation initiated performance appraisals
- Obtaining feedback from supervisors, subordinates and colleagues
- Obtaining feedback from clients, human resource development personnel, family and other relevant community members etc.
- Monitoring of supervised staff, colleagues and/or team staff morale
- Personal reflective behaviour strategies/methodologies
- Other strategies which facilitate the identification of personal strengths/weaknesses/issues to be addressed
- Routine organisation methods for monitoring service delivery

Organisation and professional standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Client and worker safety
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Routine organisation methods for monitoring service delivery
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and rights of client to self determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Industry standards
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Eligibility criteria for accessing particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Debriefing and supervision
- Industry standards
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Occupational health and safety
RANGE STATEMENT

Units of competency are standards which measure:

- All those personal and technical knowledge, skills and attitudinal aspects (competencies) required to effectively and efficiently undertake the day to day tasks and duties of the practitioner's work function

Self assessment and reflection requires practitioners to regularly review their own performance against required and established professional performance requirements

Such performance requirements may be documented through:

- Professional bodies' competencies and codes of practice/ethics
- Organisation HRD policies and procedures
- Occupational or functional roles/units of competency
- Professional accreditation and re-accreditation requirements

Personal development strategies may include development/implementation of a personal/professional improvement program, either internal or external to the organisation including such things as:

- Development of improved interpersonal/technical skills
- Updating stress management abilities
- Adapting work rotation to facilitate changing personal/work priorities
- Formal/informal learning programs
- Utilisation of existing strengths to focus future career development
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Involvement in community activities
- Coaching, mentoring and/or supervision
- Counselling
- Updating/maintaining knowledge base on domestic/family violence issues and current context for work/professional practice
- Establishment of new career paths

Support processes will need to include at least one of the following:

- Counselling
- Performance feedback
- Debriefing
- Training and development
- Supervision
RANGE STATEMENT

Networks may be formal or informal and include:
- Regional, specialist and peak associations
- Professional/occupation associations
- Trainers, teachers and academics
- Contacts in policy and funding bodies
- Local inter-agency networks
- Interest and support groups
- Other workers

Participate in professional networks and associations may include purposes such as:
- Learning about the role, services and resources of other organisations
- Learning about the roles and resources of other workers
- Providing advice and information about own service and organisations
- Peer support and review
- Professional development
- Maintaining coordination among organisations and workers
- Supporting joint programs or activities
- Providing information for policy development
- Supporting the interests of specific groups within the community

Personal performance standards relates to:
- The practitioner's level of competency
- Professional ethics
- Integrity and behaviour
- Regulations
- Code of ethics/practice
- Organisation/agency procedures
- Community standards

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCDFV403C Provide crisis intervention and support to those experiencing domestic and family violence

Modification History

Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide domestic violence crisis intervention and support

This standard distinguishes between responses to clients in crisis and responses to clients and their families requiring long to medium term support

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Identify immediate risks and needs</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.1 Use appropriate interpersonal skills to promote confidence and rapport, allowing accurate and relevant exchange of information</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Use methods to ensure that all relevant client information is collected with client consent</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Assess information for complexity, urgency and eligibility so immediate needs can be accurately identified</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4 Analyse and respond to any indications of risk or threats to safety according to the degree and nature of the risk for client and/or worker</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5 Identify own limitations in addressing and assessing client needs and where appropriate, seek assistance from appropriate persons</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.6 Ensure all dealings with clients reflect organisation standards and procedures and comply with legislative and statutory requirements</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT
2. Explore interventions

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Explain and promote rights and responsibilities of client and worker in accordance with organisation standards and procedures

2.2 Immediately respond to incidents affecting safety according to organisation standards and procedures and in a manner designed to protect the safety and welfare of the client and the worker

2.3 Employ relevant interpersonal skills to assist clients to explore issues and identify realistic intervention options

2.4 Use relevant strategies to help empower and enable the client to maintain their own safety and welfare

2.5 Provide client with information about available services that may meet their needs and assist client to identify their preferred option

2.6 In all work, prioritise the physical and emotional safety of clients and workers

2.7 In all work demonstrate sensitivity to client's specific needs and any cultural, family and individual differences

3. Develop and implement support plans

3.1 Negotiate and agree strategies for intervention with the client before commencing work

3.2 Identify and discuss alternative strategies which may deal with contingencies that may arise

3.3 Identify, negotiate and implement strategies which address client's immediate and other needs and provide appropriate support and referrals

3.4 Undertake record-keeping and reporting in accordance with organisation standards and procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include:

- Knowledge of the social, political, historical, and economic context of domestic violence, including types and nature of domestic violence, power and gender issues, child abuse and associated criminal issues
- Understanding of the prevalence of myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices in the broader society in regard to domestic violence, and their affects on individual's rights to safety and autonomy
- Understanding of domestic violence indicators and procedures for undertaking assessment of client needs
- Understanding the differences between responding to clients in a crisis situation and those requiring long term support
- Knowledge of the various groups represented within the local community (e.g. cultural, religious, language, sexual identity, age and disability) and an understanding of the issues that arise when working with those groups
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing, code of conduct, confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention and duty of care requirements
- Knowledge of the appropriate range of referral sources and associated protocols
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Knowledge of applying community development principles and strategies
- Knowledge of effective crisis intervention strategies and their applicability to various scenarios
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use appropriate interpersonal skills and general knowledge to recognise and respond to domestic violence in an appropriate manner, in particular, to:
  - respond to incidents in a manner which promotes the client's physical and emotional safety
  - establish confidence with clients through using appropriate interpersonal styles and methods
  - identify accurately the immediate needs of clients whilst considering the degree of complexity and urgency
  - select and negotiate appropriate intervention strategies and resources which match client needs
  - interpret accurately and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - depending on the work program or services provided apply specific knowledge of particular groups or issues (e.g. alcohol and other drugs (AOD), same-sex relationships, religious, survivors/victims, users of violence, Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people, mental health)
  - understand own work roles and responsibilities in relation to service delivery

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Maintain confidentiality and to deal effectively with breaches of confidentiality especially when client safety is threatened
- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - response, for example, from responding sensitively to disclosures through to maintaining confidentiality in relation to people affected by domestic violence
  - assessment for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, and evaluation - for example, identifying domestic violence during professional contact with clients
  - questioning and active listening that establishes client confidence and facilitates disclosure
  - problem solving for a defined range of problems, for example when client needs are identified as lying outside a worker's particular professional role the worker should offer the client accurate and current information about appropriate services and workers in other occupational groups
  - collaboration between worker and client, and between services and other providers
  - literacy and communication in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

service delivery issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
  - Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
  - Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - Demonstration of competency within the working environment in identifying and responding to domestic violence.
  - Assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - Review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to identifying and responding to domestic violence.

Related units:

This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Means by which an emotionally safe and empathic environment is created
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, religious, gender and sexual identity groups
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower client to ensure safety of client and family
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Demonstrating empathy
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- The ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Using conflict management skills if appropriate
- If needed, use of a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client or client's family
- Recognition of client/worker power differences
- Maintaining confidentiality
- Active listening
RANGE STATEMENT

Methods to collect information may for instance include:

- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from service providers
- Previous file records
- Client consent (verbal and written)

Client may include:

- Individuals (inclusive of children, youth, adults and the aged)
- Referred or self-referred clients
- Voluntary and involuntary clients
- People with specific needs seeking access to services
- Survivors/victims of domestic violence, their families and friends

Immediate needs to be assessed include:

- Safety and physical and emotional security
- Safety plans
- Legal or medical information and support
- Accommodation/transportation
- Safety and welfare of any children whether with client or not
RANGE STATEMENT

Other client needs/services and/or strategies could include, but are not limited to:

- Economic support
- Protection from financial exploitation
- Access to services/information
- Ongoing assessment
- Referrals to specialist services
- Referrals to community support and/or education groups
- Establishment of community networks
- Counselling (individual, family or group focused)
- Domestic violence awareness raising programs
- Legal or medical information and support
- Provision of assistance to address issues, gather information, locate other resources
- Advocacy

Rights and responsibilities may include:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters (e.g. UN declaration on rights of the child)
- Rights under the constitution
- Rights and responsibilities under legislation (e.g. Freedom of information legislation, child protection act)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker's code of ethics
- Rights of victim to access crime compensation
RANGE STATEMENT

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Client and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and
- Rights of client to self determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Eligibility criteria for accessing particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Grievance procedures
- Industry standards
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Occupational health and safety
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk may refer to client, client's family and/or worker and be indicated by the following:

- Self identification of risk
- Evidence of physical injuries
- Threat to safety
- Current or previous criminal charges for assault of client by partner/ex-partner
- Current or previous police involvement
- Objective assessment of client's current ability to protect self and children from further assault or harm
- Threat or attempts to self-harm
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem, suicidal thoughts, emotional distress or sleep disturbances
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol, drug or substance abuse
- Intimidation and harassment
- Existing or previous orders relating to domestic violence (e.g. Apprehended violence order), or breach of orders
- Avoidance of discussion regarding possible abuse
- Being denied access to funds, resources or required medications
- Implausible explanation for injuries
- Repeated requests for financial assistance
- Other factors that may indicate a history of violence
- Children's behaviour and developmental level
- Current behaviours of user of violence
- Frequent hospital visits/admissions
- Current or previous separation
- Family court and/or relationship history
- Implied or actual threats to harm the worker by user of violence
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate persons include:

- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Acknowledged domestic violence specialists
- Various community groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, sexual identity, and age groups within the community
- Government representatives and service providers
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Specialist support services for people with specific needs
- Support groups such as survivors/victims of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups, community houses, women’s networks and refuges, church groups, professional associations
- Authorities responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, for example, local councils, legal services, such as legal aid, and state and commonwealth agencies

Specific needs relating to clients, may include, but are not limited to those:

- Who have a disability
- Who come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
- Whose preferred or main language is not English
- Who are aged or young
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Who have mental health issues
- Who are in same-sex relationships
- With a dual diagnosis
- Who are of a particular gender
- Whose religious beliefs or practices need to be considered
- Who have addiction or dependency issues
- Who come from an aboriginal background
- Who come from a Torres Strait Islander background
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislative and statutory requirements include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. Domestic Violence, Guardianship, Disability Services, Immigration, Anti-Discrimination, Child Protection, Legal Practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of Information legislation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV404C Promote community awareness of domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to identify gaps in existing information, services and resources and to promote community awareness of domestic and family violence issues which will enable the community to work towards the prevention of domestic and family violence.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify information, resource and service requirements | 1.1 Employ appropriate evaluation methods to evaluate domestic violence information, resources and services available in the community
| | 1.2 Review relevance of existing community activities and materials based on changing community needs and organisation philosophy |
| | 1.3 Accurately identify gaps and inadequacies in existing information, resources and services in accordance with organisation standards and procedures |
| | 1.4 Undertake research to ensure that information reflects the underpinning values and philosophies of domestic violence including a domestic violence prevention focus |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Support community participation</td>
<td>2.1 Support community participation in line with organisation standards and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Use appropriate interpersonal and networking skills to enlist support from key people and groups influencing community values</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Provide opportunities for key people and groups to participate in designing and evaluating programs, policies and strategies to address the changing needs of the community</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Undertake cooperative planning to develop appropriate policies and strategies which address the identified community service education needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Promote domestic violence awareness</td>
<td>3.1 Identify and utilise relevant opportunities to formally and informally communicate and promote awareness of domestic violence in line with community needs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Promote service delivery and activities in a way that facilitates understanding and gains support</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Implement strategies to address identified gaps and inadequacies in information, resources and services in accordance with organisation standards and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Identify opportunities for community education programs and/or resources/services, and clarify and evaluate with key people and groups</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.5 Evaluate and discuss community activities with key people and groups to determine future directions</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Understanding of the general principles and practices of community development, education and consciousness raising
- Knowledge of the cultural and language groups represented within the local/regional community, and a respect for their values and beliefs
- An understanding of the key people and groups within the community who are able to influence community values
- Understanding of current theory and research knowledge in the domestic violence area
- Knowledge of the processes used to formally and informally communicate the domestic violence prevention needs of the community
- Knowledge of the social, historical, political and economic context of domestic violence, including types and nature of domestic violence, power and gender issues, child abuse, and associated criminal issues
- Understanding of the prevalence of myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices in the broader society relating to domestic violence and their impact
- Knowledge of the organisation's current domestic violence activities, programs and services
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, protocols and practice for promotion of services
- Knowledge of the impacts of cultural, sub-cultural, social, sexual identity, religious, gender, age, disability, language issues etc on attitudes towards domestic violence
- Knowledge of community development principles and strategies and their application and particularly the Ottawa Charter, partnership and community consultation approaches to community development
- Understanding specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Promote community awareness of domestic violence, in particular, to:
  - research and identify strategies to address inadequacies in existing community information and resources
  - develop working relationships with key people within the organisation and other services, including the community to encourage their cooperation and participation in the promotion of domestic violence issues
  - depending on the work program or services provided apply specific knowledge of particular groups or issues (e.g. alcohol and other drugs (AOD), same-sex relationships, religious, survivors/victims of domestic violence, users of violence, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, mental health etc)
  - effectively communicate and promote awareness of domestic violence (including services and activities) using methods which are appropriate to the community

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research involving analysis and evaluation for identifying domestic violence information and resource requirements of the community
  - networking in relation to establishing and maintaining relationships with key people and groups in the community
  - facilitation and presentation in relation to transferring and collecting information and gaining agreement on concepts, for example presenting to community groups
  - facilitation relating to providing guidance to achieve outcomes and gain agreement on concepts and for enlisting support from key people and groups within the community
  - report writing requiring analysis and evaluation of information in a defined range of areas, for example when bringing together results of research for recommending policies and strategies to address community needs
  - problem solving for a broad range of problems involving analysis, assessment and evaluation for the development of new ways of addressing domestic violence issues which address changing community needs and attitudes and help to raise community awareness
  - project planning in relation to scope, time, cost, quality, and communication requirements when planning new community education activities
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment. This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.

- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment.
  - Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace.
  - Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided.
  - Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - Demonstration of competency within the working environment to promote community awareness of domestic violence and the promotion of prevention of domestic violence.
  - Where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - Review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to needs analysis and/or community development service delivery evaluation.

Related units:

This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence.

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following unit/s:

- CHCCD514C Implement a community development strategy.
- CHCCD402C Provide education programs.
Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Methods to collect information may for instance include:

- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from service providers
- Previous file records
- Client consent (verbal and written)

Evaluate methods to evaluate information, resources and services available may include:

- Qualitative and quantitative
- Consultative and participatory
- Diagnostic or summative
- Any combination of the above
- Sampling techniques such as:
- Observation of work activities
- Workshops and meetings
- Questionnaires
- Surveys
RANGE STATEMENT

Information, resources and services may include:

- Culturally appropriate literature and media that is relevant to specific needs groups e.g. Visually impaired
- Skills/administrative support
- Facilities, educational materials, equipment
- Funding
- Developmental training
- Staff development programs, community development programs

Services include but are not limited to:

- Government agencies/departments
- Non-government organisations
- Charity/voluntary organisations
- Church groups
- Service organisations
- Political parties
- Committees

Community may relate to a specific location, language/cultural or social structure and include:

- Individuals and groups defined by the organisation's programs and services
- Other agencies providing services to individuals and groups
- People with specific needs and interests
- People using the organisation's services/programs
- Groups, such as those representing cultural, sub-cultural, gender, religious, age and sexual identity
RANGE STATEMENT

Community activities are those which raise awareness of domestic violence issues and could include:

- Seminars and workshops
- Victim support groups/networks
- Public forums
- Community safety plans
- Focus groups on relevant issues
- Health promotion activities
- Users of violence behaviour change groups
- Community awareness programs
- Community education programs
- Community support programs

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Collection and storage of information
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Minimum practice standards
- Assessment for eligibility to access particular services
- Legal frameworks
- Use of interpreter or interpreter services
- Financial plan
- Community development models
RANGE STATEMENT

Underpinning values and philosophies relating to domestic violence include:

- All individuals have the right to be free from violence
- The community has a responsibility to work toward the prevention of domestic violence and to demonstrate the unacceptability of all forms of domestic violence
- All forms of domestic violence are unacceptable in any group, culture or creed
- Those who use violence should take responsibility for their behaviour and have access to programs to assist them change their behaviour to ensure the safety of their family
- Domestic violence is widespread and complex
- Domestic violence impacts on the physical, emotional, social, and financial well being and safety of individuals in families
- Domestic violence and abuse has devastating effects on family members and results in significant social and economic costs to the community

Interpersonal and networking skills may include:

- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, gender and sexual identity groups
- Cultural and sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Using appropriate body language
- Demonstrating empathy
- Liaison with regional and specialist associations
- Liaison with other service providers and key stakeholders
- Liaison with key community contacts
RANGE STATEMENT

Key people and groups within the community may include but are not limited to:

- Various community groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, sexual identity, and age groups within the community
- Policy and decision-makers in the specific community
- Funding bodies
- Service providers
- Individuals, groups or communities most likely to be affected by strategies or action plans
- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members

Policies and strategies that could be developed to meet the changing needs of the community may include:

- Strategies to increase access to facilities, services or decision-making
- Providing direction, advice and information
- Development of community facilities
- Development of community education programs
- Development of advocacy groups
- Development of support networks/groups
- Development of users of violence behaviour change groups
- Improved community liaison and networking
- Education programs to improve workers' skills and knowledge
- Simple informal communication regarding the service's activities, through internal and external networks
- Lobbying relevant persons and agencies
- Public communication, such as public speaking opportunities, local media interviews/press releases etc
- Specific materials such as flyers, brochures, 'advertisement' type articles in local newspapers
- Use of existing own or other organisation/agency information channels such as notice boards/bulletin boards, newsletters, pamphlets, etc
- Use of community meetings and meetings with community leaders, both formal and informal
- Use of audio-visual materials and web-sites
- Any combination of the above and others
RANGE STATEMENT

Community education programs may be of varying scope and scale and could include:

- Single events, such as information stalls in shopping centres
- Complex series of activities that involves coordinated elements, such as education campaigns involving mass media information
- Multi session education and skill development programs
- Peer education and mentoring programs
- Ongoing involvement with local community events (e.g. Sporting, cultural, religious events)
- Programs that promote ownership of domestic violence issues by the community/group and its leaders

Community service education needs could include but are not limited to:

- Skills development
- Preventive, pro-active strategies
- Community consciousness raising exercises
- Opportunities to reflect on attitudes and beliefs
- Knowledge building

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV406C Provide domestic and family violence support in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills, attitudes and values required to provide support to people from Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander communities who have been affected by domestic and family violence.

It requires sensitivity and an understanding of diverse cultural protocols and practices, including appropriate interpersonal and networking skills.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish and maintain relationship with community | 1.1 Establish and maintain relationships with key people within a community to promote services and to develop respect, acceptance, confidence and credibility between the community and the service
1.2 Identify and respect restrictions and protocols regarding communicating and relating with the community and its members
1.3 Support developed community programs which meet the needs identified by clients
1.4 Collect local information to identify the requirements of the community in relation to domestic and family violence issues
1.5 Provide feedback to the community and individuals in relation to information collected
1.6 Respect and encourage the value of community, elders and kinship system as a social support mechanism and use when appropriate and with client consent |
ELEMENT

2. Work within cultural requirements

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Ensure information provided is linguistically, visually and culturally acceptable to the community

2.2 Identify and recognise different views of the community and consider in planning any support activities

2.3 Adapt work processes as appropriate to meet requirements of the community and specific needs of individuals

2.4 Utilise values, issues and structures within the community to maximise outcomes for clients

2.5 Where relevant, work with the whole family including perpetrators, siblings, extended family and community members

2.6 Ensure work within the community and with individual clients is consistent with organisation standards and procedures and current legislative and statutory requirements, and gives consideration to the practices of the community

3. Support client

3.1 In all work with clients, prioritise their physical and emotional safety and the safety of their family

3.2 Use appropriate interpersonal skills to allow accurate and relevant exchange of information and to make sure individual stories are heard, accepted, understood and validated

3.3 Provide the individual with feedback to ensure accuracy and appropriate interpretation of their stories

3.4 Identify, assess and respond to any indications of risk or harm according to the degree and nature of the risk and the client’s wishes and circumstances

3.5 Explain and promote client and worker rights and responsibilities throughout client contact

3.6 Undertake all appropriate record-keeping and reporting in accordance with organisation standards and procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include:

- Understanding of effective ways to gain community acceptance
- Knowledge of the cultural and language groups represented within the local/regional community, and a respect of their values, beliefs and traditions
- Understanding of the key people and groups within the community and relevant protocols and restrictions for consultation and decision-making
- Understanding of how to communicate with the community (adaptation of language, verbal and non-verbal, local language)
- Knowledge of the impacts of cultural, sub-cultural, social, religious, gender, age, language issues etc on attitudes towards domestic and family violence
- Understanding of the prevalence of myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices in the broader society regarding domestic violence and their effects on individuals’ rights to safety and autonomy
- Understanding of domestic and family violence indicators and procedures for undertaking assessment of client needs
- Knowledge of community development principles and strategies and their application
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing, liaison, code of conduct, confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention, duty of care requirements, and community involvement and development
- Knowledge of structural barriers and their impact e.g. institutional racism and their effects on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People accessing services
- Knowledge and understanding of kinship system
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use interpersonal skills and knowledge to provide domestic and family violence support in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, in particular, to:
  - develop and maintain working relationships with key people within the community to promote domestic and family violence services and develop the confidence and support of the community and key people
  - identify the information needs of the community relating to domestic and family violence using appropriate research and evaluation techniques
  - provide services from an understanding of the Aboriginal and the Torres Strait Islander concepts of domestic and family violence
  - adapt work processes as appropriate depending on specific cultural and linguistic needs that do not compromise the safety of clients and workers
  - facilitate resolution of issues by using interpersonal methods appropriate to the community and the individuals' specific circumstances
  - depending on the work program or services provided apply specific knowledge of particular groups or issues e.g. alcohol and other drugs, same-sex relationships, religious, survivors/victims, perpetrators, ATSI, mental health etc
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research involving analysis and evaluation for identifying domestic and family violence information and resource requirements of the community
  - facilitation relating to the provision of guidance to achieve outcomes and gain agreement on concepts which are required to enlist support from key people and groups within the community
  - problem solving for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, evaluation and the development of new ways of delivering domestic and family violence services which address the specific cultural needs of the community
  - basic counselling such as questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, story telling) techniques, including non-judgemental and empathic approaches to provide a first point of contact
  - literacy and communication in relation to presentation of information in a manner appropriate to the culturally and linguistically diverse needs of the community
  - response ranging from responding sensitively to disclosures to maintaining confidentiality in relation to people affected by domestic and family violence
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- interpreting regarding social, historic, spiritual and environmental factors which have an impact on the lives of the community and which are reflected in community relationships and practices
- community development and mediation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
  This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
  - Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
  - Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by organisation from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in providing domestic and family violence support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

  - assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios.

  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.

  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.

  - review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to providing domestic and family violence support to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Related units: This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following units:

- CHCDFV403C Provide crisis intervention and support to those experiencing domestic and family violence
- CHCDFV404C Promote community awareness of domestic and family violence
- CHCAD401D Advocate for clients
- CHCCS412D Deliver and develop client service
- CHCCM402D Establish and monitor a case plan

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Key people within a community include:

- Community elders
- Members and staff of community councils
- Local interpreters/spokesperson
- Support groups such as survivors/victims of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups, community houses, women’s networks and refuges, professional associations
- Government representatives and service providers
- Acknowledged domestic violence specialists and other specialists
- Acknowledged language experts/translators and interpreters
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Community members
- Authorities/people responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, e.g. local councils, and State and Commonwealth agencies

Community may relate to a specific location, language/cultural or social structure and include:

- Traditional
- Rural, remote or metropolitan
- People with specified needs
- Individuals or groups within a community
- Groups defined by organisation programs and services
- People/groups living in 'town camps' and outstations/homelands
RANGE STATEMENT

Restrictions and protocols may relate to, but are not limited to:

- Kinship systems
- Worker's role in the community
- Land Council or Community Council permits for approval to enter Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander land
- Community leaders
- Ceremonial times and ceremonies e.g. sorry business, men's business, women's business
- Areas of coverage regarding service provision, such as local government boundaries, state/territory borders, Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander lands
- Accommodation and supplies
- Working relationships between agencies/services
- Weather conditions, physical access and transport
- Protocols between culture and language groups

Clients may include:

- Individuals including of children, youth, adults and the aged
- Referred or self-referred
- People with specific needs
- Family members and significant others
- Voluntary or involuntary
- Community groups

Specific needs relating to clients may include, but are not limited to those:

- Who have a disability
- Who are aged or young
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Who are in same-sex relationships
- Who are of a particular gender
- With a dual diagnosis
- Who have addiction or dependency issues
- Who have mental health issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Local information may relate to:

- Community structures and meetings
- Education levels of the community
- Types of work in the community
- Mobility/transience of community
- The role and impact of native title in the community
- Family interactions in the community
- Income levels
- Age groupings
- Types of dwellings
- Holistic health status of the community
- Environmental issues
- Meetings/storytelling
- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Reports by other people
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from various service providers

Support may be provided through internal or external services and could include, but is not limited to:

- Safety and physical and emotional security
- Assistance to gain economic support
- Legal or medical information and/or assistance
- Accommodation/transportation
- Access to services/information
- Ongoing assessment
- Educational materials
- Referrals to specialist services
- Community awareness programs/education
- Provision of assistance to address issues, gather information and locate other resources
- Support from community, extended family members, friends and elders
- Advocacy
RANGE STATEMENT

Work may relate to:

- Specific groups, issues or communities e.g. health issues of young people from particular cultural backgrounds and/or geographical areas
- Research activities
- Policy development
- Individual casework
- Community development
- Child protection work
- Referrals
- Project development and implementation
- Organisation standards
- Provision of information/materials

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Client and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Personnel procedures
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Organisation mission and/or philosophy
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Assessment for eligibility to access particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Principles of client and community self-determination
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant state/territory/commonwealth legislation e.g. domestic violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, racial discrimination, child protection, legal practice legislation
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of information legislation
- Legislation and practices which include identification of boundaries and how to deal with them in specific communities

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Methods of communicating with people of different age and gender, religious and sexual preference - ensuring community/individual protocols and restrictions are followed in communication
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first or main language
- Methods for establishing an emotionally safe and empathic environment
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower clients
- Demonstrating empathy
- Using appropriate body language
- Using conflict management skills if appropriate
- Reflecting and summarising
- Asking open-ended questions
- Ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Active listening
- If needed, use of a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client and/or client's family
- Recognition of client/worker power differences
- Maintaining confidentiality
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk may refer to client, client's family and/or worker and be indicated by the following:

- Self identification of risk
- Evidence of physical injuries
- Threat to safety
- Current or previous criminal charges for assault of client/others by partner/ex-partner
- Current or previous police involvement
- Objective assessment of client's current ability to protect self and children from further assault or harm
- Threat or attempts to self-harm
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem, suicidal thoughts, emotional distress or sleep disturbances
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol or illegal or legal drug/substance abuse i.e. petrol, glue
- Intimidation and harassment
- Existing or previous orders relating to domestic violence e.g. apprehended violence order, or breach of orders
- Avoidance of discussion regarding possible abuse
- Client being denied access to funds, resources or required medications
- Implausible explanation for injuries
- Repeated requests for financial assistance
- Other factors that may indicate a history of violence
- Children's behaviour and developmental levels
- Perceived or actual threats to harm the worker
- Frequent hospital visits/admissions
- Current or previous separation
- Homelessness
- Family court and/or relationship history
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights and responsibilities include those relating to:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters e.g. UN declaration on rights of the child
- Rights under the Constitution
- Rights and responsibilities
- Under legislation e.g. freedom of information, child protection
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker's code of ethics
- Rights of victim to crime compensation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV407C Provide domestic and family violence support in non-English speaking background communities

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide support to people from non-English speaking backgrounds who have been affected by domestic violence.

It requires sensitivity and an understanding of cultural protocols, including appropriate interpersonal and networking skills.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish relationship with community | 1.1 Establish and maintain relationships with key people within a community to promote the service and to develop respect, confidence and credibility
1.2 Gather information from reliable sources about some of the important cultural beliefs, values and customs of the key groups in the community
1.3 Use methods to identify the information requirements of the community in relation to domestic violence issues
1.4 Support develop community programs which meet the needs of clients
1.5 Identify and respect restrictions and protocols of communicating and relating with different members of the community
1.6 Respect and encourage the value of community, elders and extended family members as a social support mechanism, and utilise when appropriate and with client consent |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Work within cultural requirements | 2.1 Provide information which is culturally sensitive and appropriate about the services available in relevant languages and in mediums accessible to people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
2.2 Develop links with people from various cultural groups to make sure that the services available are responsive to their needs
2.3 Utilise values, issues and structures within the community to maximise outcomes for clients
2.4 Ensure work within the community and with individual clients is consistent with organisation standards and procedures and current legislative and statutory requirements, and considers community practices
2.5 Adapt work processes as appropriate to meet any specific client needs
2.6 Utilise appropriate interpersonal skills which are consistent with community practices and standards |
| 3. Support client | 3.1 Prioritise clients' physical and emotional safety in all dealings with them
3.2 Employ appropriate interpersonal skills to allow accurate relevant exchange of information and to ensure individual stories are heard, accepted, understood and validated
3.3 Analyse and respond to any indications of risk or harm according to the degree and nature of the risk and the client's circumstances
3.4 Explain and promote client and worker rights and responsibilities throughout client contact
3.5 In all work demonstrate commitment to empower individuals to resolve their issues through enhancing skills and self-esteem, accessing appropriate support and through working with others in the community
3.6 Undertake all appropriate record-keeping and reporting in accordance with organisation standards and procedures |
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include:

- Knowledge of the social, historical, political and economic context of domestic violence, including myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices, power and control, gender, child abuse and criminal issues relating to domestic violence, and their affects on individual's right to safety and autonomy
- Understanding domestic violence indicators and procedures for undertaking assessment of client needs
- Knowledge of the impacts of cultural, sub-cultural, social, gender, age, religious, sexual identity, disability, language issues etc on attitudes towards domestic violence
- Knowledge of the cultural and language groups represented within the local/regional community, and an understanding of their values and beliefs
- Understanding of how to communicate with the community (adaptation of language and dialects, verbal and non-verbal, spoken languages, use of interpreters)
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing and liaison, code of conduct, community development and involvement, confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention and duty of care requirements
- Knowledge of domestic violence and community services and ethno-specific services available and more generalist nesb services within the local/regional area
- Understanding of the key people and groups within the community and relevant protocols for consultation and decision-making
- Knowledge of structural barriers and their impact (e.g. Institutional racism) and their effects on people from non-English speaking backgrounds accessing services
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Knowledge of applying community development principles and strategies
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use skills and knowledge to provide domestic violence support in NESB communities, in particular, to:
  - develop and maintain working relationships with key people within the community to promote domestic violence services and engender their confidence and support
  - identify the information needs of the community relating to domestic violence using appropriate research and evaluation techniques
  - adapt work processes as appropriate depending on specific cultural and linguistic needs that does not compromise the safety of workers and client's
  - facilitate resolution of issues by using appropriate interpersonal methods which are appropriate to the community and the individual's specific circumstances
  - depending on the work program or services provided apply specific knowledge of particular groups or issues (e.g. alcohol and other drugs (AOD), same-sex relationships, religious, survivors/victims, users of violence, mental health etc.)
  - identify indicators of domestic violence and their likely impacts on the person affected by domestic violence
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - research involving analysis and evaluation for identifying domestic violence information and resource requirements of the community
  - leadership relating to providing guidance to help achieve outcomes and gain agreement on concepts which are required to enlist support from key people and groups within the community
  - problem solving for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, evaluation and the development of new ways of delivering domestic violence services which address the specific cultural needs of the community
  - assessment, such as to assess the need to use an interpreter/interpreting services and identify qualified and appropriate interpreters/interpreter services
  - basic counselling, such as questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, story telling) techniques, including non-judgemental and empathic approaches to provide a first point of contact
  - literacy and communication in relation to presentation of information in a manner
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- understanding and applying knowledge of cultural issues without stereotyping or homogenising the client/client group
- responding sensitively to disclosures and ability to maintain confidentiality when working with people affected by domestic violence

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
  This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
- Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
- Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by organisation from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - Demonstration of competency within the working environment in working with NESB communities to provide domestic violence support.
  - Assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on ‘what if?’ scenarios.
  - Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - Review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to working with NESB communities to provide domestic violence support.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Related units: This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following units:

- CHCDFV403C Provide crisis intervention and support to those experiencing domestic and family violence
- CHCAD401D Advocate for clients
- CHCCS412D Deliver and develop client service
- CHCCM402D Establish and monitor a case plan

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Key people within a community include:

- Community elders
- Community councils
- Various community groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, sexual identity, and age groupings within the community
- Support groups such as survivors/victims of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups, community houses, women's networks and refuges, professional associations
- Government representatives and service providers
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Authorities responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, for example, local councils, legal services, such as legal aid, and state and commonwealth agencies
- Acknowledged domestic violence specialists and other specialists
- Acknowledged language experts/translators/interpreters

Community may relate to a specific location, language/cultural or social structure and include:

- Traditional
- Rural, regional, or metropolitan
- People with specific needs
- Groups defined by organisation programs and services

Methods used to collect information could include:

- Interviews with clients, family, significant others and carers
- Questionnaires
- Applications and other forms
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Reports by other people
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports
- Information from various service providers
RANGE STATEMENT

Support may be provided through internal or external services and could include, but is not limited to:

- Safety and physical and emotional security
- Economic support
- Protection from financial exploitation
- Legal or medical information and support
- Accommodation/transportation
- Access to services/information
- Ongoing assessment
- Specialist services
- Educational materials
- Referrals to specialist services
- Community awareness programs/education
- Qualified and appropriate interpreters
- Provision of assistance to address issues, gather information and locate other resources
- Support from community, extended family members, friends and elders
- Advocacy

Clients may be:

- Individuals (inclusive of children, youth, adults and the aged)
- Referred or self-referred
- People with specific needs
- Voluntary or involuntary
- Family members and significant others
- Community groups

Restrictions and protocols may relate to, but are not limited to:

- Family relationships and structure
- Cross-gender communication
- Worker's role in the community
- Working with people whose primary language is a language other than English
RANGE STATEMENT

Work may relate to:

- Specific groups, issues, or communities e.g. Health issues of young people from particular cultural backgrounds and/or geographical areas, disability issues, mental health issues etc
- Research activities
- Policy development
- Individual casework
- Community development
- Child protection work
- Referrals
- Provision of information/materials
- Project development and implementation
- Organisation standard

Specific clients needs may include, but are not limited to those:

- Who have a disability
- Who are aged or young
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Who are in same-sex relationships
- Who are of a particular gender
- With a dual diagnosis
- Whose religious beliefs or practices need to be considered
- Who have addiction or dependency issues
- Who have mental health issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Means by which an emotionally safe and empathic environment is created
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, religious, gender and sexual identity groups
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower client to ensure safety of client and family
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Demonstrating empathy
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- The ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Using conflict management skills if appropriate
- If needed, use of a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client and/or client’s family
- Recognition of client/worker power differences
- Maintaining confidentiality
- Active listening
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk may refer to client, client's family and/or worker and be indicated by the following:

- Self identification of risk
- Evidence of physical injuries
- Threat to safety
- Current or previous criminal charges for assault of client by partner/ex-partner
- Current or previous police involvement
- Objective assessment of client's current ability to protect self and children from further assault or harm
- Threat or attempts to self-harm
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem, suicidal thoughts, emotional distress or sleep disturbances
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol, drug or substance abuse
- Intimidation and harassment
- Client being denied access to funds, resources or medications
- Existing or previous orders relating to domestic violence (e.g. Apprehended violence order), or breach of orders
- Avoidance of discussion regarding possible abuse
- Implausible explanation for injuries
- Repeated requests for financial assistance
- Other factors that may indicate a history of violence
- Children's behaviour and developmental level
- Current behaviours of user of violence
- Frequent hospital visits/admissions
- Current or previous separation
- Family court and/or relationship history
- Implied or actual threats to harm the worker by user of violence
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights and responsibilities may include:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters (e.g. UN declaration on rights of the child)
- Rights under the constitution
- Rights and responsibilities under legislation (e.g. freedom of information and child protection legislation)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker’s code of ethics
- Rights of victim to crime compensation

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Client and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and rights of client to self determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Assessment for eligibility to access particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Occupational health and safety
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. domestic violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, racial discrimination and anti-vilification legislation, child protection, legal practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of information legislation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV408C Provide support to children affected by domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to provide support and information to children and young people living in a home where domestic and family violence occurs. It requires an awareness of the potential effects of domestic and family violence on behaviour and development and an ability to engender confidence.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Establish confidence and rapport with children

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Use appropriate interpersonal skills to establish rapport and develop a trusting relationship with the child/young person and to encourage children and young people to communicate their feelings, experiences and fear

1.2 In all dealings with children, demonstrate sensitivity to cultural, family, individual differences and any specific needs

1.3 Conduct interactions with children/young people in a welcoming environment and atmosphere that could be considered safe by children/young people

1.4 Make children and/or young people aware of their rights including service and support options (as appropriate to their age and developmental level)

1.5 In all dealings with children/young people, apply organisation standards and procedures and comply with legislative and statutory requirements
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
<td>Explore issues and develop plans</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.1 Employ appropriate interpersonal skills to ensure the needs of children/young people are accurately identified</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Analyse and immediately respond to any indications of risk or threats to safety according to organisation standards and procedures and legislative and statutory requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Identify own limitations in assessing and addressing the child/young person's needs and, where appropriate, seek assistance from appropriate persons</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Ensure all relevant information is collected and assessed for complexity, urgency and safety, to identify priorities for service delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Carry out appropriate assessments to ensure the child/young person is provided with the best range of age-appropriate services and/or referrals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.6 Provide care-givers with culturally and linguistically appropriate information on domestic violence and parenting</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

3. Provide support, advocacy and information

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Ensure strategies for addressing the child/young person's needs account for their age and developmental level and their physical and emotional safety

3.2 Provide services and referrals to support key relationships for the child/young person and put in place mechanisms to ensure that appropriate parenting is supported

3.3 Provide support services and information to the family to address issues of domestic violence and the effect it has on children/young people where appropriate

3.4 Develop support plans with each child/young person which take into account their needs or wishes, and, where appropriate, the wishes of their care-giver

3.5 Provide short term follow up to the child/young person to help maintain their safety and to address any further needs

3.6 Where appropriate, advocate for the child/young person's needs and rights to safety in interactions with the care-giver

3.7 Undertake record-keeping and reporting in accordance with organisation standards and procedures and legislative and statutory requirements
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Knowledge of the effects of witnessing/experiencing domestic violence on children and young people including the effects on their overall development.
- Understanding of recognising the links between domestic violence and other forms of child abuse such as sexual abuse, physical abuse, psychological abuse and neglect.
- Understanding of legal obligations, and legislative requirements particularly in relation to child protection.
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing, code of conduct, confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention and duty of care requirements.
- Knowledge of services available for children/young people and their families that they can access within the community.
- Understanding of the factors related to domestic violence victimisation which impact upon the care-giver’s ability to parent effectively.
- Knowledge of the various groups represented within the local community (e.g. cultural, religious, language, sexual identity, age and disability) and an understanding of the issues that arise when working with those groups.
- Knowledge of the appropriate range of referral sources and associated protocols.
- Knowledge of provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility.
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities.
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on children/young people.
- Knowledge of age and developmentally appropriate resources and strategies.
- Knowledge of age, development and language levels of children.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use appropriate interpersonal skills and knowledge to provide support to children affected by domestic violence to obtain relevant client information and respond appropriately, in particular, to:
  - establish trust and confidence with children/young people through age and developmentally appropriate interpersonal styles and methods
  - provide a welcoming and safe environment for children/young people using age and developmentally appropriate resources
  - assist children/young people and their care-givers to make informed choices by providing them with age and developmentally appropriate information
  - identify and assess children/young people's needs and develop strategies to address them considering their physical and emotional safety and the wishes of their care-giver/parent, if appropriate
  - access and utilise age and developmentally appropriate communication resources (e.g. toys, puppets, drawings)
  - ensure that any further needs of children/young people are met by providing appropriate follow up actions
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - responding sensitively to disclosures/ability to maintain confidentiality within parameters of legislation and organisation's procedures when working with children/young people affected by domestic violence
  - assessment for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment and evaluation - for example, identifying varying levels of risk to a child/young person's safety
  - problem solving for a defined range of predictable problems, for example when child/young person's needs are identified as lying outside a worker's particular professional role the worker should be able to provide current information about appropriate services
  - collaboration between worker and child/young person, and between services and workers across occupational groups
  - basic age and developmentally appropriate facilitation, such as questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, story telling) techniques, including
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- non-judgemental and empathic approaches
- age and developmentally appropriate literacy and communication for presentation of information to children/young people

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
  This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace, unless child specific resources are not available
  - Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
  - Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by organisation from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in supporting children and young people affected by domestic violence.
  - assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to supporting children and young people affected by domestic violence.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Related units: This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following units:

- CHCCHILD404A Support the rights and safety of children and young people
- CHCAD401D Advocate for clients
- CHCCS412D Deliver and develop client service
- CHCCM402D Establish and monitor a case plan

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Age and developmentally appropriate communication techniques
- Storytelling
- Means by which an emotionally safe and empathic environment is created
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, religious, gender and sexual identity groups
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower the client/young person
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Demonstrating empathy
- Validating child or young persons emotions
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- Maintaining confidentiality
- The ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Active listening

Specific needs relating to children/young people, may include, but are not limited to those:

- Who have a disability
- Who come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
- Where English is not their preferred or main language
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Whose parents are in same-sex relationships
- Whose religious beliefs or practices need to be considered
- Who are in substitute care, including alternative care and residential care
- Children with special needs (e.g. who have been abused, who have learning difficulties etc.)
RANGE STATEMENT

A welcoming environment and atmosphere would include:

- Appropriate space - child friendly
- Toys, puppets, books and resources appropriate to various ages and which are culturally appropriate
- Resources for care-giver and other family members where relevant
- Where worker is able to 'control' the environment - a separate child specific and friendly space

Rights of a child or young person may include:

- Rights as described in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of the Child
- Rights under common law
- Rights under the Constitution
- Rights under legislation (e.g. freedom of information legislation)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Child protection protocols and procedures
- Child/young person and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and rights of child/young person to self determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Eligibility criteria for accessing particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Guidelines relating to confidentiality/client consent
- Occupational health and safety
- Debriefing and supervision
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. domestic violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, child protection, legal practice legislation, other legislation specific to children and young people)
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of information legislation

Needs of children/young people should be distinguishable to those of other family members and may include:

- Safety and physical and emotional security
- Accommodation
- Access to services/information
- Counselling
- Ongoing assessment
- Referrals to specialist services
- Referrals to community support and/or education groups
- Information provided to care-givers, such as parenting information
- Safety plans including protective behaviour techniques
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk may refer to client, client's family and/or worker and be indicated by the following:

- Self identification of risk
- Evidence of physical injuries
- Threat to safety
- Current or previous criminal charges for assault of client by partner/ex-partner
- Current or previous police involvement
- Objective assessment of care-givers current ability to protect child/young person from further assault or harm
- Threat or attempts to self-harm
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem, suicidal thoughts, emotional distress or sleep disturbances
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol, drug or substance abuse
- Intimidation and harassment
- Child/young person being denied access to required medications
- Existing or previous orders relating to domestic violence (e.g. apprehended violence order), or breach of orders
- Avoidance of discussion regarding possible abuse
- Being denied access to resources or required medications
- Implausible explanation for injuries
- Repeated requests for financial assistance
- Other factors that may indicate a history of violence
- Children's behaviour and developmental level
- Current behaviours of user of violence
- Frequent hospital visits/admissions
- Current or previous separation
- Family court and/or relationship history
- Implied or actual threats to harm the worker by user of violence
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate persons include:

- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Acknowledged domestic violence specialists
- Various community groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, sexual identity, and age groupings within the community
- Government representatives and service providers
- Specialist support services
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Support groups such as survivors/victims of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups, community houses, women's networks and refuges, professional associations
- Authorities responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, for example, local councils, legal services, such as legal aid, and state and commonwealth agencies
- Child protection workers, children's service workers or any worker specialising in working with children

Methods to collect information may include for instance:

- Interviews with child/young person, their family, significant others and carers
- Applications and other forms such as questionnaires
- Case documentation
- Using specialist communicators
- Classification tools
- Information from professionals including medical reports and psychological and developmental assessment
- Information from service providers including child protection authorities
- Use of specific child appropriate tools, e.g. puppets, sand-play, toys, drawing, and storytelling
RANGE STATEMENT

Follow up of children and/or young people should be conducted in their environment and may include a range of the following:

- Checks with referred agencies to ensure that they appropriately met child/young person's needs
- Contacts the child/young person via telephone, face-to-face interview
- With a qualified and appropriate interpreter if needed, or other specialist assistance

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. domestic violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, racial discrimination act, and anti-vilification legislation, child protection, legal practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of Information legislation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV505C Counsel clients affected by domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to use appropriate counselling and facilitation skills to thoroughly explore client issues and identify possible options by providing a safe and supportive environment which encourages clients to be actively involved in seeking their own solutions.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish confidence | 1.1 Use appropriate interpersonal skills to establish a professional relationship with clients based on confidence and support
1.2 Conduct interviews and interactions with clients in a safe environment and in a participatory and confidential manner
1.3 In all interactions with clients demonstrate sensitivity to cultural, family and individual differences and any specific needs
1.4 Explain and promote rights and responsibilities of client, their family and worker throughout client contact
1.5 Mutually determine appropriate structures, timeframes and protocols
1.6 In all work with clients, apply organisation standards and procedures and comply with legislative and statutory requirements |
ELEMENT

2. Explore issues

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Use appropriate questioning to encourage clients to explore and acknowledge their fears, concerns and personal capabilities

2.2 Encourage those who use violence to take personal responsibility for their actions

2.3 Use facilitation skills to encourage exploration of emotions and experiences that will assist in reflection of issues

2.4 Analyse and respond to any indications of risk or threats to safety according to the degree and nature of the risk to client, their family and/or worker

2.5 Explore appropriate range of services and resources to meet needs of client and their family in accordance with organisation standards and procedures

2.6 Provide accurate and relevant information designed to develop awareness and understanding of domestic violence

2.7 Encourage client self determination through using opportunities which assist clients to identify issues, set personal goals and make informed choices to enhance the safety of the client and their family

2.8 Encourage clients to recognise decisions and changes needed to assist them to achieve their goals

2.9 Acknowledge progress and encourage and support self management of issues
ELEMENT

3. Identify possible future directions

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Identify future services and support required by the client and plan their delivery in consultation with client, their family and other appropriate people

3.2 Jointly identify client information needs and agreed and implement actions to satisfy these as appropriate

3.3 Provide opportunities for client and their family to obtain information and develop skills in accordance with organisation standards and procedures

3.4 Use appropriate questioning and reflection to assist the client to make positive choices and changes as necessary

3.5 Maintain records of participation and progress according to organisation standards and procedures
Required Skills and Knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Detailed knowledge of appropriate counselling techniques that will explore client issues and encourage client's self determination to enhance client and client's family's safety
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing, code of conduct, confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention and duty of care requirements
- Understanding of domestic violence indicators and procedures for undertaking assessment of needs of client and client's family
- Knowledge of respectful strategies that will assist in client self-determination which enhances client and their family's safety
- Knowledge of the various groups represented within the local community (e.g. Cultural, religious, language, sexual identity, age and disability) and an understanding of the issues that arise when working with those groups
- Knowledge of the social, historical, political and economic context of domestic violence, including types and nature of domestic violence, power and gender issues, child abuse, and associated criminal issues
- Specific knowledge of the appropriate range of referral sources and associated protocols
- Understanding of the prevalence of myths, unhelpful beliefs, attitudes and practices in the broader society in regard to domestic violence, and their effects on individuals' rights to safety and autonomy
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Work within the counselling framework
- Manage own values so they do not impede effective work and manage the stress of the work - key indicators of competency
- Use interpersonal and general counselling skills and knowledge to obtain relevant client information and respond appropriately, in particular to:
  - establish confidence with clients through appropriate interpersonal styles and methods
  - use a range of questioning and interviewing techniques to facilitate exploration of client issues
  - identify and assess needs of client and client's family including consideration of the physical and emotional safety of clients and their family
  - encourage users of violence to take responsibility and be accountable for their use of violence
  - facilitate client's self determination by using appropriate interpersonal skills to encourage clients to set their own personal goals which enhance safety
  - depending on the work program or services provided apply specific knowledge of particular groups or issues (e.g. alcohol and other drugs (AOD), same-sex relationships, religious, survivors/victims, users of violence, Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander issues, mental health etc)
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - interpersonal relationship such as questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising) techniques, including non-judgemental and empathic approaches
  - response ranging from responding sensitively to disclosures to maintaining confidentiality in relation to people affected by domestic violence
  - assessment for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, and evaluation-for example, identifying domestic violence during professional contact with clients and their family
  - problem solving for a defined range of predictable problems, for example when the needs of client and/or client's family are identified as lying outside a worker's particular professional role the worker should offer the client accurate and current information about appropriate services and workers in other occupational groups
  - collaboration between worker, client and client's family, and between services and
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

other providers

- counselling which challenges violence and abuse and support the change process
- literacy and communication in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and service delivery issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
  - Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
  - Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
  - Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - Demonstration of competency within the working environment in counselling clients affected by domestic violence.
  - Assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on Essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - Review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to client needs analysis and counselling clients in relation to domestic violence.

Related units:

This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence.

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following unit:

- CHCCS607D Coordinate the assessment and delivery of services to clients with particular needs.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Means by which an emotionally safe and empathic environment is created
- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, religious, gender and sexual identity groups
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower client to ensure safety of client and family
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Demonstrating empathy
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- The ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Using conflict management skills if appropriate
- If needed, use of a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client and/or client's family
- Recognition of client/worker power differences
- Maintaining confidentiality
- Active listening
- Techniques to challenge client's behaviour and attitudes where appropriate
RANGE STATEMENT

Clients may include:

- Individuals (inclusive of children, youth, adults and the aged)
- Referred or self-referred clients
- People with specific needs seeking access to services
- Voluntary and involuntary clients
- Survivors/victims of domestic violence, their families and friends
- Users of violence and their family

Interviews and interactions with clients may be either informal or formal and include:

- Scheduled or impromptu
- Via telephone or in person
- Separate interviews
- Other specialist assistance
- Through a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client or their family
- Those conducted in a safe environment which encourages disclosure when appropriate

Specific needs relating to clients may include, but are not limited to those:

- Who have a disability
- Who come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
- Whose preferred or first language is not English
- Who are aged or young
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Who are in same-sex relationships
- Whose religious beliefs or practices need to be considered
- Who have addiction or dependency issues
- With a dual diagnosis
- Who are of a particular gender
- Who come from an aboriginal background
- Who come from a torres strait islander background
- Who have mental health issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights and responsibilities include those relating to:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters (e.g. UN declaration on rights of the child)
- Rights under the constitution
- Rights and responsibilities under legislation (e.g. freedom of information and child protection legislation)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker's code of ethics
- Rights of victim to access crime compensation

Organisation standards and procedures include those relating to:

- Client and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and rights of client to self-determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Personnel procedures
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Assessment for eligibility to access particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Occupational health and safety
- Industry standards
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. domestic violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, child protection, legal practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of Information legislation

Questioning and other communication techniques may be adjusted as appropriate according to:

- Whether client has experienced domestic violence or was a user of violence
- Client's needs
- Cultural diversity
- Religious beliefs/practices
- Disabilities
- Language
- Communication methods/styles
- Appropriate interpersonal styles
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk may refer to client, client's family and/or worker and be indicated by the following:

- Self identification of risk
- Evidence of physical injuries
- Threat to safety
- Current or previous criminal charges for assault of client by partner/ex-partner
- Current or previous police involvement
- Objective assessment of client's current ability to protect self and children from further assault or harm
- Threat or attempts to self-harm
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem, suicidal thoughts, emotional distress or sleep disturbances
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol, drug or substance abuse
- Intimidation and harassment
- Existing or previous orders relating to domestic violence (e.g. apprehended violence order), or breach of orders
- Avoidance of discussion regarding possible abuse
- Client being denied access to funds, resources or required medications
- Implausible explanation for injuries
- Repeated requests for financial assistance
- Other factors that may indicate a history of violence
- Children's behaviour and developmental level
- Current behaviours of user of violence
- Frequent hospital visits/admissions
- Current or previous separation
- Family court and/or relationship history
- Implied or actual threats to harm the worker by user of violence

Goals should be realistic and attainable and may be:

- Those set out in a case plan
- Those set out by the individual
- Related to compliance with directions/orders
- Immediate, short term, long term
- Or any combination of the above
RANGE STATEMENT

Services and support may be internally or externally provided and could include, but are not limited to:

- Safety, physical and emotional security
- Assistance to gain economic support
- Protection from financial exploitation
- Immediate and appropriate responses which aim to ensure/maintain safety
- Legal or medical information and support
- Accommodation/transportation
- Access to services/information
- Counselling (individual, family or group focused)
- Referrals to specialist services
- Referrals to community support and/or education groups
- Establishment of community networks
- Domestic violence awareness raising programs
- Provision of assistance to address issues, gather information and locate other resources
- Advocacy

Appropriate people include:

- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Acknowledged domestic violence specialists
- Various community groups representing cultural, sub-cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, sexual identity, and age groupings within the community
- Government representatives and service providers
- Behaviour change groups, such as user of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Support groups such as survivors/victims of violence groups, community houses, women's networks, church groups, refuges, and professional associations
- Authorities responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, for example, local councils, legal services, such as legal aid, and state and commonwealth agencies
Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCDFV509D Work with users of violence to effect change

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDFV509C Work with users of violence to effect change</td>
<td>CHCDFV509D Work with users of violence to effect change</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to work with and engage users of violence in assisting them to take responsibility for their violence and to work towards changing their behaviour and enhancing the safety of their family.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish and maintain professional relationship | 1.1 Use appropriate interpersonal skills to develop an open, trusting and professional relationship and to allow accurate and relevant exchange of information
1.2 Establish and maintain contact with partner and/or family of users of violence to identify and analyse their needs
1.3 Explain and promote client and worker rights and responsibilities throughout client contact
1.4 Mutually agree and adhere to appropriate structures, timeframes and protocols
1.5 In all dealings with users of violence and their family, comply with organisation standards and procedures and with legislative and statutory requirements |
ELEMENT | PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
--- | ---
2. Assess capacity for change | 2.1 Assess motivation and commitment of users of violence to change attitudes, beliefs and behaviour and encourage positive elements and aspects
 | 2.2 Respectfully challenge and constructively address violent behaviour and attitudes condoning violence in an environment that promotes positive client participation
 | 2.3 Identify and assess related issues and factors that impact directly on the user of violence, their partner and family members
 | 2.4 Identify own limitations and strengths in addressing and assessing needs, and respond to them within a supervision framework

3. Encourage personal responsibility | 3.1 Challenge users of violence and encourage them to identify their violence and its known and potential affect upon partner and family members
 | 3.2 Encourage users of violence to take responsibility for their actions, to recognise their choices to develop skills and/or knowledge and to develop non-violent and respectful relationships
 | 3.3 Assist users of violence to use personal exploration to identify and address opportunities and obstacles to change their attitudes, beliefs and behaviour
 | 3.4 Assist users of violence to establish realistic goals and strategies to enhance the safety of their partner and family members
 | 3.5 Identify and negotiate the need for specialised services or referral with users of violence and relevant people
 | 3.6 Ensure all dealings with users of domestic violence are respectful and sensitive to cultural and family issues and to any individual differences
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4. Monitor and review progress</td>
<td>4.1 Monitor progress of the user of violence through self reflection, partner and family member feedback and critical assessment by the worker and if appropriate, the criminal justice system</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Identify and challenge lack of progress in taking responsibility and any re-use of violence, and develop modified strategies to enhance the safety of the partner and family members of users of violence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Encourage users of violence to establish and maintain networks of support to assist in the development of responsible behaviour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Identify and allocate additional services and/or support needed for further progress according to availability and organisation standards and procedures</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.5 Complete and maintain all appropriate documentation in accordance with organisation standards and procedures and in compliance with legislative and statutory requirements</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Knowledge of the social context of domestic violence, including power and control, motivation for change, gender, child abuse and criminal issues
- Knowledge of behaviour and socialisation theories including those which emphasise that thinking patterns can be changed to give people acceptable and constructive alternatives to harmful behaviour
- Knowledge of the cultural, age and language groups represented within the local community, and an understanding of cultural issues that arise when working with those groups
- Understanding of the prevalence of beliefs in the broader society which condone violence, and individuals' rights to safety and autonomy
- Knowledge of internally and externally provided services particularly in the domestic violence field
- Knowledge of respectful strategies that will assist clients in changing their attitudes, beliefs and behaviours
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Knowledge which incorporates theories and concepts of planning and control procedures, resource management and risk management
- A knowledge of techniques for dealing with potentially volatile clients and group situations
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Knowledge of potential obstacles and opportunities for clients that may impact on changes in attitudes, beliefs and behaviours

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use interpersonal skills and knowledge to work effectively with users of violence to effect change and to provide appropriate support to family members, in particular, to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- accurately identify the safety needs of partners and family members of users of domestic violence
- establish clear agreements with users of violence about goals, strategies and outcomes to effect change
- comply with the organisation’s security and work health and safety (WHS) policies and operating procedures relating to contact with users of violence
- demonstrate challenging and supportive feedback techniques to maintain a focus on personal responsibility with users of violence
- refer to relevant programs which meet the needs of the users of violence, their partner and family
- accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements
- understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery
- manage own practice within a supervisory framework

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - facilitation in relation to providing guidance for behavioural change and the achievement of specified goals
  - response, which include maintaining separate confidentiality strategies when working with users of violence, their partner and family members
  - questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, relationship building and engaging) techniques to develop a trusting relationship and facilitate accurate and relevant exchange of information
  - goal setting and strategy development for ensuring safety
  - self management within a supervision framework
  - assessment to identify needs and related issues which impact on user of violence, partner and family members
  - counselling which challenge violence and support the change process
  - problem solving for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, evaluation and the ability to adjust plans and acquire additional resources to assist users of violence, their partner, and/or family
  - collaboration between worker and use of violence, partner and family, and between worker and services and workers across occupational groups
  - dealing with volatile and potentially volatile clients and group situations
  - literacy and communication in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and service delivery issues
Evidence Guide

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment. This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
- Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided
- Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by organisation from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - Demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to users of violence to effect change.
  - Assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - Observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - Where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - Review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to work done with users of violence to effect change.

Related units:

This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence.

For the purpose of integrated assessment, this unit may be assessed in conjunction with the following units:

- CHCCCM402E Establish and monitor a case plan.
- CHCCS607E Coordinate the assessment and delivery of services to clients with particular needs.
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Interpersonal skills may include:

- Means for communicating with people with disabilities or where English is not the first language
- Methods of communicating with different age, religious, gender and sexual identity groups
- Non-judgemental communication techniques
- Using strategies that empower client to ensure safety of client and family
- Assessment for motivation and capacity to change violent and abusive behaviour
- Techniques to challenge client's behaviour and attitudes where appropriate
- Cultural, sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- The ability to ask direct questions about violence in a sensitive and appropriate way
- Using conflict management skills if appropriate
- Recognition of client/worker power differences
- Maintaining confidentiality
- Active listening
- If needed, use of a qualified interpreter whose involvement will not jeopardise the safety of the client or client's family

Users of violence may be:

- Individuals who have committed domestic violence
- Referred or self-referred
- People with specific needs
- Voluntary or involuntary clients
RANGE STATEMENT

Rights and responsibilities may include:

- Rights of safety
- Rights under common law
- Rights outlined under relevant standards/principles and charters (e.g. UN declaration on rights of the child)
- Rights under the constitution
- Rights and responsibilities under legislation (e.g. freedom of information and child protection legislation)
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Worker's code of ethics

Users of violence demonstrate a range of attitudes, beliefs and behaviours which may include:

- Verbal and/or physical, or sexual abuse
- Threats or intimidation
- Economic abuse
- Social abuse
- Emotional, psychological and spiritual abuse
- Discrimination
- Gender privilege
- Committing offences
- Drug/alcohol usage or abuse
- Antisocial behaviour
- Breach of an order or condition
- Not complying with reasonable directions
RANGE STATEMENT

Services and/or support needed for users of violence, their partner and family members which enhance safety may include, but are not limited to:

- Crisis intervention services
- Legal or medical information and support
- Access to services/information
- Ongoing assessment
- Educational materials and assistance with literacy
- Living skills and problem solving programs
- Individual and group programs for users of violence, their partner and family
- Referrals to specialist services
- Referrals to community support and/or education groups
- Counselling (one-to-one, family or group orientated)
- Provision of assistance to address issues, gather information and locate other resources

Goals should aim for the cessation of violence and/or abuse and be:

- Realistic and attainable
- Open to review

These goals may be:

- Those set out in a case plan
- Those set out by the individual, partner and/or family
- Compliance with directions/orders
- Immediate
- Short term
- Long term
- Or a combination of the above
RANGE STATEMENT

Relevant people may refer to:

- Organisation management, colleagues, supervisor, team members
- Acknowledged domestic violence issue experts (including, specialised practitioners from human/community service sectors etc)
- Various community groups representing cultural, religious, social, ethnic, gender, and age groups within the community
- Government representatives and service providers
- Family members, friends, care-givers
- Behaviour change groups, such as users of violence groups, drug and alcohol groups
- Support groups such as users of violence support groups, community houses, church groups, professional associations
- Authorities responsible for provision of community and justice administration services, for example, local councils, state and commonwealth agencies
- Probation and parole officers

Skills and/or knowledge and behaviours to be developed may include but are not limited to:

- Communication skills
- Life-skills
- Self management skills
- Stress-management skills
- Personal development/self-esteem skills
- Development of constructive alternatives to current abusive behaviour
- The development of an awareness of the effects of violence and abuse
- Development of a sense of responsibility for their actions
- Insight/personal assessment
RANGE STATEMENT

Individual differences may, but are not limited to those:
- Who have a disability
- Who come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
- Whose preferred or first language is not English
- Who are aged or young
- Who live in a remote or rural location
- Who are in same-sex relationships
- Whose religious beliefs or practices need to be considered
- Who are of a particular gender
- With a dual diagnosis
- Who have addiction or dependency issues
- Who come from an aboriginal background
- Who come from a Torres Strait Islander background
- Who have mental health issues

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:
- Client and worker safety
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Eligibility criteria for accessing particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Guidelines relating to confidentiality/client consent
- WHS
- Debriefing and supervision
- Industry standards
RANGE STATEMENT

Legislative and statutory requirements may include:

- Relevant State/territory/Commonwealth legislation (e.g. domestic violence, family violence, guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, child protection, legal practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of women, children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of information legislation

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV510D Facilitate workplace debriefing and support processes

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDFV510C Facilitate workplace debriefing and support processes</td>
<td>CHCDFV510D Facilitate workplace debriefing and support processes</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit describes the knowledge and skills required to manage colleagues' occupational health and welfare.

This will involve participating in and facilitating debriefing and various support processes for self or colleagues who are providing various services to people affected by domestic and family violence.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may apply in a range of community service contexts with clients who may experience domestic and family violence.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Monitor occupational health and welfare | 1.1 Monitor occupational health and welfare, and where issues arise, take appropriate action in accordance with organisation standards and procedures
1.2 Employ appropriate feedback techniques to accurately identify workplace needs of colleagues
1.3 Readily identify required professional and personal performance standards and use to monitor occupational health and welfare
1.4 Regularly use self assessment and reflective behaviour strategies to monitor performance
1.5 Regularly or constructively seek formal or informal performance feedback and act upon it as appropriate
1.6 Plan appropriately to identify areas of need and develop proposals to support these areas |
ELEMENT

2. Conduct debriefings

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Plan, prepare and conduct debriefing in line with organisation standards and procedures

2.2 Schedule debriefing as soon as possible following the incident

2.3 Conduct debriefing in a safe environment and in a manner that facilitates open communication

2.4 Use appropriate debriefing techniques to encourage further exploration of emotions and experiences to assist in reflection on issues

2.5 Use appropriate questioning to encourage colleagues to explore and acknowledge their concerns

2.6 Analyse and respond to any indications of risk or threat to safety according to the degree and nature of the risk to self or colleagues

2.7 Where required, report and record results of deb briefings in accordance with organisation standards and procedures

3. Assist and support colleagues

3.1 Promptly deal with any issues relating to the well being of colleagues according to organisation standards and procedures

3.2 Routinely identify and implement effective ways of working to sustain ongoing health and morale

3.3 Provide encouragement, support, regular feedback and advice to colleagues as required

3.4 Clearly communicate to appropriate colleagues any additional support requirements to improve performance

3.5 Encourage and support colleagues to attend training appropriate for both professional and personal development

3.6 Hold regular meetings with colleagues to review and adjust support strategies and priorities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Understanding of legislative requirements and knowledge of best practice approach to occupational health and welfare
- Understanding of rights and obligations of employees and employers regarding occupational health and welfare
- Knowledge of debriefing techniques and processes
- Knowledge of appropriate feedback techniques to ensure the various workplace occupational health and welfare needs are accurately identified
- Understanding of techniques for effective workplace communication and team management
- Understanding of current organisation procedures, practices and standards for client assessment, allocation of services, case management, interviewing, code of conduct, confidentiality, use of resources, programmed intervention and duty of care requirements
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and delegated responsibility
- Understanding of specific limitations of work role, responsibility and professional abilities
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Understanding of how to interpret units of competency and apply them to self, including identifying and prioritising personal learning needs
- Knowledge of self assessment and reflective strategies to assist in determining personal development needs, including preparing personal plans and establishing priorities
- Understanding of role in debriefing process as a peer, supervisor or 'professional debriefer'
- Understanding of specific debriefing techniques and a colleagues' need to debrief specifically in relation to domestic and family violence including dealing with violence, rage, intimidation, threats, transference, counter-transferance and interaction with users of violence and those affected by users of violence

Essential skills:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Manage own and colleagues' occupational health and welfare by participating in and facilitating workplace debriefing and support processes, in particular, to:
  - work in accordance with the organisation's occupational health and welfare policies and procedures
  - make appropriate use of feedback and self assessment techniques to accurately identify occupational health and welfare issues
  - use appropriate debriefing techniques in accordance with organisation standards and procedures
  - accurately identify risk and issues that will affect the well being of self or colleagues
  - provide advice, encouragement and support to colleagues to ensure that the workplace occupational health and welfare needs are met
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to workplace work health and safety (WHS)

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Demonstrate application of skills in:
  - interpersonal relationship, such as questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising) techniques, including non-judgemental and empathic approaches
  - performance planning and feedback that will provide regular and constructive feedback to colleagues
  - response ranging from responding sensitively and appropriately, to providing constructive feedback on performance
  - assessment for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment and evaluation, for example, identifying levels of risk that will affect occupational health and welfare of self and/or colleagues
  - problem solving for a defined range of unpredictable problems that may affect levels of occupational health and welfare
  - collaboration between worker and client, and between services and other providers
  - literacy and communication in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to WHS and welfare issues
  - collaboration between worker, clients and colleagues and between services and other providers
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- This unit will be most appropriately assessed in the workplace or in a simulated workplace and under the normal range of workplace conditions
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment. This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit can be delivered and assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other community services units of competency is encouraged.
- Resources required for assessment of this unit include access to:
  - an appropriate workplace where assessment can take place or simulation of realistic workplace setting for assessment
- Where assessment is conducted within the workplace there are no resource implications above those normally available in the workplace
- Where assessment is conducted in a simulated or non-workplace environment then access to the necessary equipment and research resources should be provided

Access to simulated exercises, case studies related to service delivery issues will also be required if non-workplace assessment paths are utilised.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by organisation from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in facilitating workplace debriefing and support processes and managing own and colleagues occupational health and welfare.
  - assessment must be in the workplace, however, where there is not an opportunity to cover all relevant aspects in the work environment, the remainder should be assessed through realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'What if?' scenarios.
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes.
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons.
  - review of any documentation produced by the candidate related to identifying and responding to domestic violence.

Related units:

This unit should be assessed after or in conjunction with related unit:

- CHCDFV402C Manage own professional development in responding to domestic and family violence.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Organisation standards and procedures may include those relating to:

- Whether debriefing is a voluntary or compulsory component of workplace practice
- Client and worker safety
- Employment conditions (e.g. industrial agreements, employee/employer requirements)
- Training and development practices
- Administrative processes
- WHS
- Collection and storage of information
- Client interview protocols and procedures
- Code of conduct/code of ethics
- Principles and implementation of duty of care and rights of client to self determination
- Departmental, inter-departmental regulations, protocols and procedures relevant to work role and responsibilities
- Inter-agency practice and protocols
- Use of interpreter and interpreter services
- Organisation mission statement and/or philosophy
- Eligibility criteria for accessing particular services
- Completion of forms and applications
- Guidelines relating to parameters of confidentiality/client consent
- Accountability procedures
- Timeframes for reflective practice and supervision

Feedback techniques may include:

- Team briefing and planning meetings
- Performance planning and feedback systems
- Questionnaires
- Counselling
- Oral or written
RANGE STATEMENT

Colleagues may include:

- Other staff
- Unpaid workers
- Students on placements
- Resources workers
- Ancillary staff
- Staff from other related organisations/agencies
- Co-facilitators in group work

Personal performance standards relates to:

- The practitioner's level of competency
- Professional ethics
- Integrity and behaviour
- Regulations
- Code of ethics/practice
- Organisation/agency procedures
- Community standards
- Occupational accountabilities

Reflective behaviour requires practitioners to regularly review their own performance against required and established professional performance requirements. Such performance requirements may be documented through:

- Professional bodies' competencies and codes of practice/ethics
- Organisation HR development policies and procedures
- Occupational or functional roles/units of competency

Debriefing techniques may include:

- Demonstrating empathy
- Using appropriate body language
- Reflecting, summarising and paraphrasing
- Asking open-ended questions
- Active listening
RANGE STATEMENT

Indications of risk could include:

- Client contact outside service boundaries
- Poor performance
- Feelings of depression, anger, low self-esteem
- Medical problems such as overuse of tranquillisers, or alcohol, rug or substance abuse
- Emotional distress
- Transference and counter-transference of client issues on to worker and vice-versa
- Demonstration of stress related problems
- Indicators of stress could include the following:
  - Inability to concentrate
  - Health problems
  - Changes of behaviour
  - Continued focus on and re-visiting of an event
  - Frequent absences
  - Negative attitudes
  - Unaware of own stress levels

Personal development strategies may include development/implementation of a personal/professional improvement program, either internal or external to the organisation including such things as:

- Development of improved interpersonal/technical skills
- Updating stress management abilities
- Adapting work rotation to facilitate changing personal/work priorities
- Formal/informal learning programs
- Utilisation of existing strengths to focus future career development
- Cultural and sub-cultural awareness/sensitivity
- Seeking coaching
- Mentoring
- Counselling from appropriate personnel to overcome identified limitations
- Development/improvement of conflict management skills
- Establishment of new career paths within or external to the organisation
RANGE STATEMENT

Support strategies may include:
- Formal, personal and organisation debriefing and professional supervision
- Informal exploration of incidents with team members and supporters
- Counselling
- Review of practice and resources
- Conscious use of personal recreational activities
- Performance appraisal
- Training and development activities

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV811C Respond to domestic and family violence in family work

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDFV811B Respond to domestic and family violence in family work</td>
<td>CHCDFV811C Respond to domestic and family violence in family work</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to respond to domestic and family violence within the context of working with families

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1. Analyse the impact of domestic and family violence on family work

1.1 Identify and respond to the dynamics of domestic and family violence

1.2 Identify and respond to gender and power as significant dynamics in domestic and family violence

1.3 Assess and respond to the safety concerns of family members subject to violence

1.4 Recognise and respond to the impact of violent, controlling, intimidating and belittling behaviour on family members

1.5 Identify and respond to the behaviours and tactics of family members who use violence

1.6 Identify accountability frameworks and practices

1.7 Identify impact of family domestic work on family workers
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 2. Work within the legal context of domestic and family violence | 2.1 Recognise the legal frameworks that relate to domestic and family violence
2.2 Ensure staff are familiar with relevant legal responses and programs
2.3 Build relationships with the relevant police, legal services or allied program staff
2.4 Share information about the law and relevant programs in relation to domestic and family violence with clients |
| 3. Implement organisation procedures that support family members to cease violent, controlling, intimidating and belittling behaviour | 3.1 Identify accountability frameworks and practices that are relevant to the specific clients
3.2 Establish appropriate referral practices
3.3 Make information available about the impact of violence on partners, family members and children
3.4 Establish a climate in the organisation such that interactions with family members who use violence are characterised by respect, honesty and concern for safety of others |
| 4. Implement organisation procedures to promote safety for family members who are subjected to violence | 4.1 Make information available about incidence and prevalence of domestic and family violence
4.2 Make available information about the personal impact of domestic and family violence on individuals
4.3 Make available information about the impact of violence on children
4.4 Make available process for the creation of safety plans
4.5 Build networks with relevant service providers
4.6 Establish a climate in the organisation for appropriate disclosure |
ELEMENT

5. Align service interventions to specific clients

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

5.1 Analyse relevant family work models that are suitable for domestic and family violence.

5.2 Analyse gender and power relations in family work models

5.3 Utilise appropriate family work models for different client experiences and issues

5.4 Regularly review impact of interventions on specific clients
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:

- Knowledge of the social context of domestic violence, including power and control, gender, child abuse, motivation for change, and criminal issues
- Knowledge of theoretical perspectives that inform domestic and family violence work with people affected by violence
- Knowledge of theoretical perspectives informing behaviour change programs which emphasise accountability, responsibility, people's capacity for behaviour change and moves towards acceptable and constructive alternatives to harmful behaviour
- Knowledge of the cultural, age and language groups represented within the local community, and an understanding of cultural issues that arise when working with those groups
- Understanding of the prevalence of beliefs in the broader society which condone violence, and individuals' rights to safety and autonomy
- Knowledge of prevalence of domestic and family violence
- Knowledge of respectful strategies that will assist clients in changing their attitudes, beliefs and behaviours
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery
- Knowledge which incorporates theories and concepts of planning and control procedures, resource management and risk management
- A knowledge of techniques for dealing with potentially volatile clients and group situations
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Knowledge of potential obstacles and opportunities for clients that may impact on changes in attitudes, beliefs and behaviours

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Apply response skills which include maintaining separate confidentiality strategies when working with users of violence, their partner and family members
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Apply questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, relationship building and engaging) techniques to develop a trusting relationship and facilitate accurate and relevant exchange of information
- Use goal setting and strategy development skills for ensuring safety
- Apply self management skills within a supervision framework
- Use assessment skills to identify needs and related issues which impact on user of violence, partner and family members
- Use counselling skills which challenge violence and support the change process
- Apply problem solving skills for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, evaluation and the ability to adjust plans and acquire additional resources to assist users of violence, their partner, and/or family
- Collaborate with user of violence, partner and family, and with services and workers across occupational groups
- Deal with volatile and potentially volatile clients and group situations

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Apply literacy and communication skills in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and service delivery issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- Assessment must confirm sufficient ability to analyse the dynamics of domestic and family violence
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment
- In particular, assessment must confirm the ability to:
  - accurately identify the safety needs of people subject to domestic and family violence
  - appropriately identify the relevant accountability frameworks for working with domestic and family violence and family work.
  - build networks with and refer to relevant programs which meet the needs of a wide variety of clients
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - skills involving direct client contact are to be assessed initially on two occasions in a simulated setting.
    if successful, further assessment is required during 10 hours actual practice under direct observation
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Dynamics of domestic and family violence refer to:

- Power relations and controlling behaviour
- Impact of gender on domestic and family violence
- Behaviours may include:
  - Physical abuse
  - Sexual abuse
  - Social and financial abuse
  - Controlling behaviour
  - Emotional abuse including intimidation and harassment
- The blame for abuse and violence is generally attributed to the person who is subject to the violence leaving them feeling responsible
- The use of abuse and violence is often explained and/or excused by external circumstances, such as alcohol, unemployment

Accountability frameworks and practices refer to but are not limited to:

- Accountability for violence behaviour is located with the user of violence
- Transparent review of the person who uses violent behaviour in relation to the experiences of people who are subject this violence.
- Transparent review of the worker’s actions in relation to the experiences of people who are subject to violence
- Transparent review of actions in relation to the statutory and legal obligations
- Transparent review of actions in relation to funding obligations

Safety plans may refer to but are not limited to:

- Specific documents that record and document safety strategies
- Procedures that support clients who are subject to violence to attend services safely
- Organisation arrangements that allow clients who have been subject to violence to participate free from violence and intimidation
RANGE STATEMENT

Referral practices may include:
- Hot (going with client), warm (setting up appointments and direct links) or cold (information for clients to make own contact) referrals
- Referrals to:
  - crisis intervention services
  - legal or medical services
  - family domestic services
  - child support services
  - culturally specific services
  - accommodation services
  - access to services/information
  - financial services
  - child support agency
  - mediation and counselling services
  - living skills and problem solving programs
  - educational programs
  - specialist services

Legal frameworks refer to:
- Family law legislation and associated court orders
- State family and domestic violence legislation and associated programs
- Criminal assault legislation
- Child protection legislation
- Mandatory reporting
- Work health and safety (WHS) legislation
- Discrimination and equal opportunities legislation
- Any other relevant state/territory/commonwealth legislation (e.g. guardianship, disability services, immigration, anti-discrimination, legal practice legislation)
- International conventions relating to the rights of women, children and young people
- Relevant international conventions on civil and human rights
- Freedom of information legislation

Information may refer to but not be limited to:
- Verbal, written, electronic or visual materials
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV812B Assist users of domestic and family violence to accept responsibility for their behaviour

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

This unit focuses on the knowledge, skills and attributes which are used to ensure that the worker adopts a stance where the established basis for the intervention is the safety of people experiencing domestic and family violence with the recognition that users of family domestic violence are solely responsible for their behaviour and that they can choose to relate respectfully to partners and children.

The worker's primary role is assisting users of family domestic violence to accept their responsibility to cease all forms of violence and abuse, accept the consequences of their behaviour and understand the impact of this behaviour on those experiencing their abuse and themselves.

Application of the Unit

This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
CHCDFV812B Assist users of domestic and family violence to accept responsibility for their behaviour

Date this document was generated: 31 March 2017

Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assess the users of family domestic violence motivation for change</td>
<td>1.1 Explore thoroughly with the user of family domestic violence their understanding and history of how they came to be currently involved in contact with the worker/service/agency</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Engage the user of family domestic violence to explore their current dominant internal and external motivations for change</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Use questions to explore blame, minimisation and denial in order to analyse the user of family domestic violence level of ownership of responsibility for use of violence and abuse</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Examine steps that may have been taken and/or future plans to determine the extent to which they support the users of family domestic violence choice to act in respectful ways</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.5 Examine intensively and thoroughly the user of family domestic violence commitment to partner and children's safety and their willingness to comply with court orders</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Assist the user of family domestic violence to develop awareness of the choices they can make concerning their behaviour

   2.1 Contrast the users of family domestic violence understandings of the impact of violence and abuse with their goals for change

   2.2 Assist the user of family domestic violence to understand the impact of their violence and abuse on children and partners

   2.3 Explore the user of family domestic violence's beliefs, thoughts and decisions to assist them to develop an understanding of how they contribute to their behaviour

   2.4 Assist user of family domestic violence to recognise a range of choices and outcomes that are non-oppressive and non-violent

   2.5 Demonstrate respect for potential for change of users of family domestic violence and reflect this in all interactions

3. Monitor and evaluate the users of family domestic violence's change

   3.1 Establish a contract with the user of family domestic violence to employ choices and strategies that are non-oppressive and non-violent

   3.2 Assess change in user of family domestic violence by their self-reporting, others' experience of their behaviour and worker observation

   3.3 Evaluate change in the user of family domestic violence using procedures that are consistent with the goals of intervention

   3.4 Intensively analyse information from a range of stakeholders to assess and monitor progress against goals
ELEMENT

4. Critically reflect on own interactions and behaviour within the intervention

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Regularly undertake supervision including peer observation and review of work practices to obtain feedback on performance

4.2 Monitor and assess risk to own safety throughout the intervention and report any threats to personal safety according to agency/organisation policies and procedures

4.3 Identify and act upon any practices that may diminish the users of family domestic violence’s attempts to take full responsibility for violence and abuse.

4.4 Participate in ongoing activities to maintain competence including evidence-based, good practice approaches to working with users of family domestic violence

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Theory relating to domestic violence
- Social justice theory relating to domestic violence
- Criminal justice system
- Masculinities and dominant cultures
- Human and social development
- Integrated violence intervention models

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Apply counselling skills/intervention models
- Demonstrate skills in documentation including report writing
- Conduct liaison and consultation with women's domestic violence workers
- Undertake group work facilitation
- Demonstrate cross-cultural skills
- Undertake contemporary research

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

This unit requires a demonstrated ability to work with users of family domestic violence to assist them to individually acknowledge their responsibility for their violent and abusive behaviour.

In particular, evidence must be obtained on the ability to:

- Critically assess a user of family domestic's motivation for change
- Promote the user's sole responsibility for their violence and abuse and an awareness of the impact of this behaviour on children and partners
- Facilitate processes that enable the user of family domestic violence to make choices about changing thinking and behaviour
- Monitor and critically evaluate changes in the light of information from a variety of sources
- Evaluate and critically self reflect on the impact of the worker's actions throughout the intervention process
- Maintain an evidence-based, good practice basis for working with users of violence and abuse
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations

Resources may include:
- Literature and information relating to the theory and practice of providing integrated domestic violence services and interventions for users of violence and abuse
- Internet resources
- Agency/organisation policies and procedures
- Literature and information relating to the legislative and criminal justice system in relation to domestic violence
- Access to interventions for users of family domestic violence and abuse
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by family domestic violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be
  - authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Understanding and history of user of family domestic violence may include, but not be limited to, a range of issues to be explored including:

- The user blaming, minimisation and denial of their actions
- The user attributions of responsibility for their behaviour
- The user ideas in relation to provocation
- The location of the user's violence as a choice, not psychological limitations, illness, stress, a life crisis or substance abuse
- The user's minimisation and inconsistencies with other accounts about their use of violence and abuse (e.g. reports pushing partner when police or partner report criminal assault)
- The user's minimisation of the history, existence, seriousness and frequency of violent actions
- The user's minimisation of the impact of their violence/abusive behaviour

Internal and external motivations can include:

Internal:
- feelings of shame, guilt, remorse, regret, frustration, sadness, etc
- manipulative and coercive behaviour for resumption of relationship with partner, and/or children
- preference for non-violent and respectful relating with others
- desire to break historical patterns in family of origin
- desire for personal change and development

External:
- pressures/coercion from statutory authorities (e.g. prison)
- loss of relationship
- community/family/cultural/religious pressures/status (e.g. employment, social standing)
RANGE STATEMENT

Stakeholders may include:

- Woman/child's domestic violence caseworker
- Police officers
- Correctional service workers
- Police prosecutors and prosecutors
- Family law court personnel
- Other family members
- Health workers/medical practitioners
- School teachers

Feedback on performance may include:

- Impact of this work on workers
- Practice of power, control and levels of respectful practice between workers and clients
- Levels of respect shown to issues of individual and cultural diversity
- Gendered patterns of relating between workers and clients
- Evidence of participation in accountability processes

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV813B Promote accountability of users of domestic and family violence and abuse

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

This unit focuses on the knowledge and skills needed to work with people within a framework that acknowledges the broader socio-cultural context of the use of violence and abuse in relationships, including the criminal nature of some of the forms of abuse

Application of the Unit

This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish the accountability frameworks within which the intervention takes place</td>
<td>1.1 Use questioning to explore understanding of the users of domestic and family violence of how and to whom they are accountable for behaviour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Discuss with the user of domestic and family violence the public context and potential criminal consequences of behaviour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Establish a clear understanding with the user of domestic and family violence which promotes recognition of their accountability for behaviour</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ELEMENT</td>
<td>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>----------------------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| 2. Address issues relating to child protection | 2.1 Explore issues relating to the safety of children in contact with the user of domestic and family violence
2.2 Invite the user of domestic and family violence to identify and assess the impact of their actions on children in order to encourage a commitment to child safety
2.3 Clearly explain and emphasise to the user of domestic and family violence the need to comply with agency/interagency policy/protocols and laws relevant to the safety of children in issues relating to limited confidentiality
2.4 Establish on-going and effective linkages with relevant agencies/service providers to initiate and/or support child protection actions and strategies
2.5 Act upon reports and disclosures of violence and abuse to children in accordance with agency/organisation policies and statutory requirements |
| 3. Monitor the users of domestic and family violence engagement in the intervention process | 3.1 Continually assess the willingness of users of domestic and family violence to acknowledge and accept the consequences of their behaviour
3.2 Assess the attendance and participation of user of domestic and family violence for indicators of their accountability for behaviour
3.3 Monitor compliance with any legal orders and/or current legal proceedings relating to others and act according to agency/organisation guidelines or statutory requirements
3.4 Monitor the capacity of the user of domestic and family violence to self-evaluate, self-direct and initiate disclosure and discussion with less reliance on the worker over the period of the intervention
3.5 Seek relevant information from other sources to contribute to overall monitoring of the engagement in the intervention of the user of domestic and family violence |
ELEMENT

4. Establish processes with the criminal justice system that demonstrate and promote accountability of the user of domestic and family violence for their violent and abusive behaviour

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Communicate with police, prosecutors, courts and correctional services officers in accordance with the contract established with the user of domestic and family violence and agency/organisation guidelines

4.2 Identify incidents which require reporting and act upon them to ensure they are dealt with effectively

4.3 Regularly review processes to enhance accountability and safety partners and children particularly in relation to issues of non-compliance with court orders
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Gendered analysis of domestic violence and abuse
- Effects of domestic violence
- Child protection and domestic violence/family violence and family court legislation/protocols
- Court report requirements
- Dynamics of power and control in relationships
- Risk assessment

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Use group processes which recognise and act in relation to personal responsibility and challenge key aspects of behaviour (e.g. denial, minimisation, justification, blame, collusion)
- Write court reports
- Recognise suspected child abuse and neglect
- Know when and how to notify of child abuse and neglect
- Analyse and evaluate own values
- Apply group process skills which focus on utilising group dynamics, challenging/confrontation and facilitation techniques
- Use counselling skills which focus on engaging the user of domestic and family violence around issues of violence, abuse, coercive behaviours, abuse of power and controlling behaviours
- Challenge the users of domestic and family violence beliefs and attitudes about the women that support their use of violence
- Challenge users of domestic and family violence re their beliefs and attitudes about the
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Use of violence
- Refrain from adversarial challenging
- Maintain position of respect in relation to the user of domestic and family violence
- Recognise and deal with/challenge accountability and resistance to accountability for abusive behaviour
- Articulate any apply defined framework of frameworks of accountability in interventions with men
- Address issues in relation to child protection that are encountered during the course of the intervention

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Assess risks
- Critically analyse and evaluate the users of domestic and family violence re their engagement in the intervention process and take action to deal with any non-compliance in relation to legal orders and other established agreed contracts
- Work effectively with the criminal justice system in ways that promote and ensure accountability by the user of domestic and family violence for their actions

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

This unit requires a demonstrated ability to work with user of domestic and family violence to assist them to individually acknowledge their responsibility for their violent and abusive behaviour.

In particular, evidence must be obtained on the ability to:

- Critically assess a user of domestic and family violence motivation for change.
- Promote the user of domestic and family violence sole responsibility for their violence and abuse and an awareness of the impact of this behaviour on other people.
- Facilitate processes that enable the user of domestic and family violence to make choices about changing thinking and behaviour.
- Monitor and critically evaluate changes in the light of information from a variety of sources.
- Evaluate and critically self reflect on the impact of the worker's actions throughout the intervention process.
- Maintain an evidence-based, good practice basis for working with users of violence and abuse.

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.

Resources may include:

- Literature and information relating to the theory and practice of providing integrated domestic violence services and interventions for users of violence and abuse
- Internet resources
- Agency/organisation policies and procedures
- Literature and information relating to the legislative and criminal justice system in relation to domestic violence
- Access to interventions for users of violence and abuse

Method of assessment:

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Accountability frameworks refer to processes that facilitate open and transparent review of actions of users of domestic and family violence that can be subject to review by legitimated others and are directed to:

- People's experience of domestic violence
- Current knowledge about the experience of domestic violence on all persons in the community who have been abused or are vulnerable to violence and abuse
- Agencies/organisations and services that represent and assist people who experience domestic and family violence and abuse
- Statutory agencies/organisations that address domestic violence including the criminal justice system
- Funding agencies/organisations that support intervention programs

Public context of the behaviour of users of domestic and family violence may include:

- Rights to the safety of children and partners
- Criminality of some violent and abusive behaviour
- Domestic and family violence legislation including restraint orders
- Stalking legislation
- Child protection legislation
- Community attitudes to use of domestic and family violence
RANGE STATEMENT

Child protection in the context of the work includes:
- All existing child protection legislative requirements including mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse and neglect
- Agency/organisation policies and procedures for the protection of children

Child protection actions and strategies include:
- Interventions usually by statutory agency including legally required reporting to prioritise the safety of children
- Formal arrangements by agreement or law for interagency cooperation for child protection

Legal orders include:
- Apprehended violence orders (AVO) domestic violence orders (DVO) violence restraint orders (VRO)
- Probation and parole orders
- Interstate orders (ISO)
- Child protection orders
- Family court orders

Other sources of relevant information may include:
- Police officers
- Correctional service workers
- Police prosecutors and prosecutors
- Family law court personnel
- Alcohol and drug court personnel
- Other family members
- Health workers/medical practitioners
- School teachers

The criminal justice system includes:
- Any law enforcement body or agency including police, prosecutors and courts, and community corrections/probation and parole/commonwealth justice officers

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCDFV814B Establish change promoting relationship with users of domestic and family violence and abuse

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

This unit focuses on the quality and nature of the relationship that the worker establishes with the user of domestic and family violence. This relationship creates the context for the intervention. The relationship needs to be constructed within a framework that promotes the users of domestic and family violence responsibility, accountability, self-agency and direction towards change while maintaining a focus on the safety of others.

Application of the Unit

This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish the users of domestic and family violence willingness to address their violent and abusive behaviour | 1.1 Utilise questioning to explore how the user of domestic and family violence understands and locates the responsibility for their violence and abuse
1.2 Encourage the user of domestic and family violence to recognise the advantages of behaving in ways that are non-violent and non-abusive
1.3 Explore the users of domestic and family violence aspirations for future relationships in order to examine how their violence undermines fulfilment of those aspirations
1.4 Characterise all interactions with the user of domestic and family violence with respect, honesty and a concern for children and partner safety and in accordance with agency/organisation policies and procedures |
ELEMENT

2. Establish a clear focus on the users of domestic and family violence behaviour and their responsibility for change and the parameters and conditions under which the intervention will take place

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Acknowledge and challenge as the priority/focus for change the users of domestic and family violence understanding of the problems their violent and abusive behaviour cause

2.2 Establish a written contract for the intervention which clearly focuses on the users of domestic and family violence responsibility for their use of violent and abusive behaviours, the potential for change and the priority of the safety of children and partners

2.3 Clarify and agree on expectations for mutually respectful behaviours and use of language, including challenging by the worker

3. Engage in reflective practice to minimise potential for collusion

3.1 Enact and maintain accountability processes throughout the intervention process

3.2 Recognise, resist and challenge instances provided by the user of domestic and family violence for collusion

3.3 Examine own practices with the user of domestic and family violence for their potential to replicate dominant behaviours

3.4 Examine own values and attitudes towards constructions of gender to determine the potential for collusion with the users of domestic and family violence account of their use of violence and abuse

3.5 Maintain processes that ensure gender accountability between workers
ELEMENT

4. Establish practices which are sensitive to and respectful of diversity in the users of domestic and family violence experience without compromising the safety of children and partners

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Establish and maintain practices and strategies that are sensitive to the users of domestic and family violence experiences in relation to membership of a minority culture or experiences of injustice

4.2 Acknowledge respectfully the users of domestic and family violence experiences of injustice, victimisations, prejudice or discrimination while also ensuring that any attribution of causality or responsibility for abusive practices to these experiences is challenged

4.3 Assist the user of domestic and family violence to seek and acknowledge evidence of respectful, just and equitable values and practices in their culture

5. Provide opportunities for the user of domestic and family violence to plan, initiate and monitor changes

5.1 Encourage the user of domestic and family violence to make and implement realistic plans to cease all forms of violent and abusive behaviour

5.2 Provide opportunities for the user of domestic and family violence to demonstrate their responsible and respectful behaviour

5.3 Encourage the user of domestic and family violence to establish and maintain active involvement in ongoing networks of support for responsible and respectful behaviour

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

These include knowledge of:

- Understanding contemporary practices and theories of domestic violence
- Gender analysis of domestic violence
- Tactics and politics of abuse
- Restrictive constructions of masculinity
- Theories of change
- Relevant legislation
- Agency policies/protocols
- Supervision and debriefing models
- Worker self knowledge including own biases

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate awareness of potential for collusion with the client group
- Demonstrate respectful practices
- Undertake mixed gender co-facilitation
- Challenge the user of domestic and family violence
- Engage the user of domestic and family violence

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Undertake risk assessment
- Use effective group facilitation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

This unit requires a demonstrated ability to work with user of domestic and family violence to assist them to individually acknowledge their responsibility for their violent and abusive behaviour. In particular, evidence must be obtained on the ability to:

- Critically assess a users of domestic and family violence motivation for change
- Promote the users of domestic and family violence sole responsibility for their violence and abuse and an awareness of the impact of this behaviour on other people
- Facilitate processes that enable the user of domestic and family violence to make choices about changing thinking and behaviour
- Monitor and critically evaluate changes in the light of information from a variety of sources
- Evaluate and critically self reflect on the impact of the worker's actions throughout the intervention process
- Maintain an evidence-based, good practice basis for working with users of violence and abuse

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.

Resources may include:

- Literature and information relating to the theory and practice of providing integrated domestic violence services and interventions for users of violence and abuse
- Internet resources
- Agency/organisation policies and procedures
- Literature and information relating to the legislative and criminal justice system in relation to domestic violence
- Access to interventions for users of violence and abuse

Method of assessment:

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Instances provided by the user of domestic and family violence may include:

- Minimisation of their violence and abuse
- Justification for their use of violence and abuse
- Beliefs and attitudes about gender and the use of violence and abuse

Accountability processes refers to processes that facilitate open and transparent review of a user of domestic and family violence actions and the intervention that can be subject to review by legitimated others and are directed to:

- Partners and children's experience of domestic violence
- Current knowledge about the experience of domestic violence on all persons in the community who have been abused or are vulnerable to violence and abuse
- Agencies/organisations that represent and assist people subject to violence and abuse
- Statutory agencies/organisations that address domestic violence including the criminal justice system
- Funding agencies/organisations that support intervention programs

Responsible and respectful behaviour by the user of domestic and family violence may include, but is not limited to:

- Self responsibility
- Self reliance
- Self confrontation
- Separateness/independence from partner
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV815B Establish and maintain the safety of people who have experienced domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
This unit focuses on the primary goal of working with the perpetrator to promote the safety of others who may have experienced violence and abuse. It includes work-related to establishing linkages between referring agencies, services providers, and statutory agencies including the criminal justice system, in order that the safety of others is given priority.

Application of the Unit
This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish and maintain the safety of other people as the primary focus of the intervention</td>
<td>1.1 Explain clearly to the user of domestic and family violence the key principles which place the safety of other people as the primary focus of the intervention and that these reinforced as needed over the period of the intervention</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Share information relevant to the safety of other people with agencies and workers throughout the intervention</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Assess all interventions with the user of domestic and family violence for their impact on the safety of other people</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Document and prepare case notes for the user of domestic and family violence that makes specific reference to issues affecting the safety of others</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Undertake and record an assessment of responsibility with the user of domestic and family violence

   2.1 Explain the rationale for assessment to the user of domestic and family violence in terms of its contribution to enhancing the safety of other people
   2.2 Evaluate the user of domestic and family violence's acceptance of responsibility for their actions
   2.3 Explore issues of blame, minimisation and denial with the user of domestic and family violence in order to analyse ownership of responsibility for the violence and abuse
   2.4 Identify, encourage and strengthen indicators which demonstrate acceptance of responsibility with the user of domestic and family violence
   2.5 Identify in case notes areas where responsibility has been demonstrated, details of the user of domestic and family violence's goals for behaviour change and the agreed processes for change

3. Undertake ongoing risk assessment with the user of domestic and family violence

   3.1 Assess risk to safety of other people during every contact with the user of domestic and family violence
   3.2 Engage and explore with the user of domestic and family violence to whom or what they attribute responsibility for use of violence and abuse
   3.3 Reappraise over the period of the intervention current and previous behaviours and levels of risk as indicators of future risk
   3.4 Record and act upon, in accordance with policy, discrepancies between the user of domestic and family violence's account of their potential for violence and abuse and the account of risks to others safety and other workers
   3.5 Assess behaviour for evidence of recognition of responsibility and actions in minimising risk to the other people
ELEMENT
4. Develop processes to support limited confidentiality

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
4.1 Provide to relevant stakeholders, a clear and comprehensive written explanation of the limits to confidentiality
4.2 Obtain written acceptance of the parameters and need for limited confidentiality from the user of domestic and family violence
4.3 Take action in response to risk in accordance with documented protocols relating to safety of others
4.4 Maintain, over the period of the intervention, processes to respond to threats to the safety of other people

5. Establish processes to ensure that the intervention is informed by partners and children experiencing the domestic and family violence and abuse

5.1 Monitor work practices to ensure that they are consistent with statutory processes and services that promote safety of all people
5.2 Make reasonable efforts to contact the partner and children experiencing the domestic and family violence and abuse and offer information and support
5.3 Offer those that have experienced the violence and abuse opportunities to provide information to inform the intervention
5.4 Explain to those people who have experienced the violence and abuse that contact does not place them under any obligation

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include knowledge of:

- Principles for working with user of domestic and family violence who behave violently and abusively
- Tactics and dynamics of violence and abuse
- Principles of good practice in relation to providing integrated services for working with users of domestic and family violence and abuse
- Intervention practices
- Intervention models
- Limited confidentiality rationale and processes
- Domestic violence theories
- Legal and criminal issues relating to domestic violence
- Statutory requirements
- Gender and power issues/politics of abuse
- Inter and intra agency protocols and policies
- Assessment and intervention instruments
- Risk assessment
- Professional codes of ethics
- Current research relating to domestic violence

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Undertake risk and responsibility assessments
- Provide group working and facilitation skills including conflict management, mixed gender co-facilitation
- Utilise and apply counselling skills
- Provide crisis intervention skills
- Complete casework, case planning tasks
- Liaise and collaborate with other services
- Effectively apply challenging and confrontation skills when working with users of domestic and family violence and abuse
- Use a range of instruments and processes for assessment and intervention
- Communicate sensitively with diverse groups of people
- Apply critical /analytical thinking to work practices

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- Demonstrated ability to apply the key principles and good practice approaches to ensuring that the safety of people who have experienced domestic and family violence is established as the primary focus of the training program
- In particular, evidence must be obtained on the ability to:
  - articulate the principles of safety of all people and to monitor and enact these principles over the period of the intervention
  - identify any actual or potential risk to people and to act on these appropriately and within stated protocols, guidelines and legal considerations
  - monitor risk to people over the period of the intervention
  - document the processes and practices used to monitor the safety of people
  - undertake and record a responsibility assessment with the user of domestic and family violence
  - apply the principles of limited confidentiality to work with user of domestic and family violence who have used violence and abuse
  - interact with workers concerned with the safety of people
- Evidence of competency will also require demonstration of knowledge related to current accepted good practice in relation to working with people who have used violence and abuse
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations.

Resources may include:

- Literature and information relating to the theory and practice of providing integrated domestic violence services and interventions for users of violence and abuse
- Internet resources
- Agency/organisation policies and procedures
- Literature and information relating to the legislative and criminal justice system in relation to domestic violence
- Access to interventions for users of violence and abuse
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Key principles, within the context of the intervention, may include:

- The safety of the partner and children who have experienced violence is paramount
- Accountability to partner and children's experience of violence and abuse is central to the intervention process
- The user of domestic and family violence must be held responsible for their own actions, violence and abuse
- All interventions need to be respectful to other people
- A person's experiences of violence and abuse is central to and informs the intervention process

An intervention may consist of a number of processes including:

- Initial intake and assessment
- Responsibility assessment
- Risk assessments
- One on one counselling
- Group work, exit assessment
- Intervention outcome reports
- Contact with partner/previous partner
- Reporting and documentation provided to women/men and/or their advocate, women's services, courts, police, on safety matters

Information relevant to the safety of other people may relate to:

- Incidents of criminal assault
- Threats to harm another person
- Breaches of domestic violence orders
- Sentencing and other court outcomes that may impact on safety
- Child protection issues
- Concerns a worker may have about the user of domestic and family violence's behaviour or attitudes that could impact on the safety of partner and children
RANGE STATEMENT

Other agencies may include:

- Women's domestic violence services
- Men's support services
- Prosecuting Authorities
- Police
- Courts
- Child protection agencies

Acceptance of responsibility by the user of domestic and family violence may include:

- The user of domestic and family violence acknowledging their violent and abusive behaviour
- The user of domestic and family violence being able to describe all forms of their violent and abusive behaviour including coercive and controlling behaviours
- The user of domestic and family violence acknowledging their choice to behave in violent and abusive ways
- The user of domestic and family violence's demonstration of understanding the significance and impact of their behaviour
- The user of domestic and family violence's ability to demonstrate respectful thinking and relating and how they are able to interrupt own unhelpful patterns of thinking
- The user of domestic and family violence's compliance with and acceptance of any domestic violence orders
- The user of domestic and family violence's ability to demonstrate their choices for violence free relating and the development and actioning of realistic and achievable goals
- The user of domestic and family violence's ability to demonstrate their changes and own the changes
- The user of domestic and family violence abstains from attributing blame and causality for their behaviour on others
- The user of domestic and family violence's preparedness to make their past violence and abuse public knowledge
RANGE STATEMENT

Case notes may include details of:

- Attendance
- Telephone contact
- Initial assessment
- Domestic violence orders and the conditions of any statutory requirements
- Assessment of responsibility
- Signed contract to engage in the intervention including limited confidentiality agreement
- Ongoing assessment
- Risk assessments - self, partner, children and workers
- The user of domestic and family violence's strategies to promote the safety of others
- The workers actions to promote the safety of others
- Group work notes relating to participation
- The user of domestic and family violence's goals for change and implementation plans
- Summary of the efficacy of the intervention process and outcome

Risk assessment includes consideration of the following factors:

- History of criminal charges
- Changes in situational factors (e.g. separation, court orders, contact with children)
- Disclosures by the user of domestic and family violence of suicidal/self-harm thoughts or plans
- Compliance/non-compliance with orders in relation to others
- The perceptions and judgements of others in assessing any risk to safety
- Specific behaviours reported by the user of domestic and family violence which are indicative of violence and abuse (physical, financial, sexual, social, emotional, spiritual)
- Any threat to the life or person of a party
- Alleged commission of a serious crime against a person
- Possessions of firearms
- History of violence and abuse
- Substance abuse
RANGE STATEMENT

Processes to respond to threats may include:

- Memorandums of understanding between agencies/organisations
- Agreements for report/information sharing expectations between agencies/workers
- Statutory obligations (intervention orders, mandatory reporting)
- Policy and procedure guidelines/requirements or agencies/organisations

Information and support may be provided to the other person in order to:

- Inform the person about limited confidentiality and the priority given to their safety
- Inform the person of processes to warn of threats to own and others' safety throughout the user of domestic and family violence's participation in the intervention
- Inform the person of the principles of accountability and responsibility
- Inform the person of the intent of the intervention
- Give information to the person regarding services that will prioritise safety

Information provided by others (affected by the family and domestic violence) to inform the intervention may include:

- Information from others about their perceptions and judgements of any risk to their own and others' safety
- Information from others of preferences for contact with the workers
- Feedback from others on the appropriateness of the program
- Information from others of preferences for a process to inform of any further threats to their safety

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV816B Undertake safety planning with people who have been subjected to domestic and family violence

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Unit Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to assess for, implement and review effective safety plans with clients subjected to domestic and family violence

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Assess the ways in which vulnerabilities of people subjected to violence can affect safety</td>
<td>1.1 Recognise the difficulties of disclosure and planning within the dynamics of domestic and family violence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.2 Identify the impact of diversity and community obligations on the client's ability to make safety plans</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.3 Recognise the complexity of multiple vulnerabilities in the context of domestic and family violence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1.4 Identify the role of domestic and family violence in creating vulnerabilities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. Implement safety planning procedures</td>
<td>2.1 Recognise the impact of dynamics of domestic and family violence on the safety planning process</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.2 Clarify the specific safety concerns of the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.3 Identify safety concerns for children and child protection issues that need to be addressed</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.4 Create safety plans for specific clients that address their safety concerns</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2.5 Make appropriate referrals</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT
3. Review safety planning procedures

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
3.1 Analyse the variables within safety plans
3.2 Obtain feedback from clients about the effectiveness of safety plans
3.3 Obtain feedback from staff about the effectiveness of safety plans
3.4 Modify safety planning processes in response to feedback

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include:
- Knowledge of the social context of domestic violence, including power and control, motivation for change, gender, child abuse and criminal issues
- Knowledge of theoretical perspectives informing domestic and family violence work with people affected by violence
- Knowledge of theoretical perspective informing behaviour change programs which emphasise accountability, responsibility, people's capacity for behaviour change and moves towards acceptable and constructive alternatives to harmful behaviour
- Knowledge of the cultural, age and language groups represented within the local community, and an understanding of cultural issues that arise when working with those groups
- Understanding of the prevalence of beliefs in the broader society which condone violence, and individuals' rights to safety and autonomy
- Knowledge of prevalence of domestic and family violence
- Knowledge of respectful strategies that will assist clients to take steps toward safety
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery
- Knowledge which incorporates theories and concepts of planning and control
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- procedures, resource management and risk management
- A knowledge of techniques for dealing with stressed and traumatised clients
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Knowledge of potential obstacles and opportunities for clients that may impact on safety planning

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Response skills that support clients to engage with safety plans
- Questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, relationship building and engaging) techniques to develop a trusting relationship and facilitate accurate and relevant exchange of information
- Goal setting and strategy development skills for ensuring safety
- Self management skills within a supervision framework
- Assessment skills to identify needs and related issues which impact on people subject to violence

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:

- Counselling skills which promote respect and support for safety
- Problem solving skills for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, evaluation and the ability to adjust plans and acquire additional resources to assist people who are subject to violence
- Literacy and communication skills in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and service delivery issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- Assessment must confirm sufficient ability analyse the dynamics of domestic and family violence and develop relevant safety plans.
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the work environment.
- In particular, assessment must confirm the ability to:
  - accurately identify the safety needs of people subject of domestic and family violence.
  - accurately identify the vulnerabilities of people who are subject to violence and take these into consideration in safety planning.
  - demonstrate capacity to work with clients to develop safety plans that meet their needs.
  - recognise that safety planning can be an ongoing process.
  - build networks with and refer to relevant programs which meet the needs of a wide variety of clients.
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements.
  - understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations

Method of assessment:
- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on ‘what if?’ scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Dynamics of domestic and family violence refer to:

- Power relations and controlling behaviour
- Analysis of the impact of gender in domestic and family violence
- Behaviours may include:
  - physical abuse
  - sexual abuse
  - social and financial abuse
  - controlling behaviour
  - emotional abuse including intimidation and harassment
- The blame for abuse and violence is generally attributed to the person who is subject to the violence leaving them feeling responsible
- The use of abuse and violence is often explained and/or excused by external circumstances such as alcohol, unemployment etc

Disclosure may refer to:

- Giving explicit information about experiences of domestic and family violence
- Providing evidence of civil orders, e.g. DVOs or other legal or medical indicators of violence
- Indicating fear for personal safety
- Refusal to give residential address or other indicators of the need for safety
RANGE STATEMENT

Safety plans may refer to but are not limited to:
- Specific documents that record and document safety strategies
- Procedures that support clients who are subject to violence to attend services safely
- Organisation arrangements that allow clients who have been subject to violence to participate free from violence and intimidation

Variables may refer to but are not limited to:
- Separate locations/times of service
- Separate waiting rooms
- Staggered arrivals/staggered departures
- Involvement of informal support people
- Use of domestic and family violence services
- Use of medical services
- Involvement of police or other services
- How and when to offer support to the person who is subject to violence in the presence of person who uses violence
- Involvement of child protection services

Referrals may include:
- Hot (going with client), warm (setting up appointments and direct links) or cold (information for clients to make own contact) referrals
- Referrals to:
  - crisis intervention services
  - legal or medical services
  - domestic and family services
  - child support services
  - culturally specific services
  - accommodation services
  - access to services/information
  - financial services
  - child support agency
  - mediation and counselling services
  - living skills and problem solving programs
  - educational programs
  - specialist services
RANGE STATEMENT

Diversity refers to but is not limited to:

- People who:
  - have a disability
  - come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
  - have a preferred or first language that is not English
  - are aged or a young
  - reside in a remote or rural location
  - have same-sex relationships
  - have different religious beliefs or practices
  - have a dual diagnosis
  - have addiction or dependency issues
  - are of an Aboriginal background or Torres Strait Islander background
  - have mental health issues

Community obligations refers to but is not limited to:

- Cultural commitments to people within and beyond their family
- Parenting responsibilities
- Employment commitments
- Social and cultural responsibilities

Multiple vulnerabilities may refer to but is not limited to:

- Any combination of the following:
  - mental health difficulties
  - disabilities
  - poverty
  - limited literacy
  - alcohol and other drug issues
  - parenting difficulties
  - social isolation
  - lack of care for self
  - limited sense of future
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDFV817B Manage domestic and family violence and abuse screening and risk assessment processes

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to establish, monitor and review screening and risk assessment processes in relation to domestic and family violence.

Application of the Unit
This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Establish screening and risk assessment procedures | 1. Identify and assess risk for clients in relation to domestic and family violence.
2. Analyse work practices that contribute to risk for clients
3. Analyse the impact of gender and culture on screening and risk assessment procedures
4. Determine screening and risk assessment procedures appropriate for the organisation
5. Determine staff roles appropriate to conduct either screening and/or risk assessment
6. Select or develop appropriate screening and/or risk assessment tools |
| 2. Apply screening and risk assessment procedures | 2.1 Develop organisation consistency for the implementation of screening and risk assessment procedures
2.2 Ensure staff are familiar with screening and risk assessment procedures
2.3 Ensure staff are familiar with use of specific screening and risk assessment tools |
ELEMENT

3. Review screening and risk assessment practices

   3.1 Discuss and review decisions in relation to risk assessment
   3.2 Analyse impact of screening and risk assessment for clients
   3.3 Analyse impact of screening and risk assessment for staff
   3.4 Analyse and discuss impact of screening and risk assessment with external partnerships and stakeholders

4. Modify work practices and procedures to promote client safety.

   4.1 Ensure administrative practices support client safety
   4.2 Ensure service interventions promote client safety
   4.3 Ensure referral systems are in place to support client safety
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include:

- Knowledge of the social context of domestic violence, including power and control, gender, child abuse, motivation for change and criminal issues
- Knowledge of theoretical perspectives that inform domestic and family violence work with people affected by violence
- Knowledge of theoretical perspectives informing behaviour change programs which emphasise accountability, responsibility, people's capacity for behaviour change and moves towards acceptable and constructive alternatives to harmful behaviour
- Knowledge of the cultural, age and language groups represented within the local community, and an understanding of cultural issues that arise when working with those groups
- Understanding of the prevalence of beliefs in the broader society which condone violence, and individuals' rights to safety and autonomy
- Knowledge of prevalence of domestic and family violence
- Knowledge of respectful strategies that will assist clients to take steps toward safety
- Knowledge of legislative requirements and provisions relevant to area of service delivery and which incorporates theories and concepts of planning and control procedures, resource management and risk management
- A knowledge of techniques for dealing with stressed and traumatised clients
- Awareness of own values and attitudes and their potential impact on clients
- Knowledge of potential obstacles and opportunities for clients that may impact on safety planning

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate response skills that support clients to engage with safety plans
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Use questioning and active listening (paraphrasing, clarifying, summarising, relationship building and engaging) techniques to develop a trusting relationship and facilitate accurate and relevant exchange of information
- Demonstrate goal setting and strategy development skills for ensuring safety
- Apply self management skills within a supervision framework
- Use assessment skills to identify needs and related issues which impact on people subject to violence

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include the ability to:
- Demonstrate counselling skills which promote respect and support for safety
- Use problem solving skills for a broad range of unpredictable problems involving analysis, assessment, evaluation and the ability to adjust plans and acquire additional resources to assist people who are subject to violence
- Use literacy and communication skills in relation to analysis, evaluation and presentation of information including preparing documents and reports related to client needs and service delivery issues

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
- Assessment must confirm sufficient ability to analyse the dynamics of domestic and family violence and ensure appropriate screening and risk assessment is conducted
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable to the work environment
- In particular, assessment must confirm the ability to:
  - accurately identify the safety needs of people subject of domestic and family violence through the appropriate use of screening and risk assessment processes
  - accurately review screening and risk assessment procedures of the organisation
  - build networks with and refer to relevant programs which meet the needs of a wide variety of clients
  - accurately interpret and comply with legal and procedural requirements
  - understand own work role and responsibilities in relation to service delivery
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:
- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities

Context of and specific resources for assessment:
- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on 'what if?' scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
  - The assessment environment should not disadvantage the candidate
  - Assessment practices should take into account any relevant language or cultural issues related to Aboriginality, gender or language barriers other than English
  - Where the candidate has a disability, reasonable adjustment may be applied during assessment
  - Language and literacy demands of the assessment task should not be higher than those of the work role

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Risk may refer to but not limited to:

- Being physically hurt, intimidated, bullied, harassed or controlled
- Threatened with physical harm, intimidation, bullying or harassment
- Harm or threat of harm to children
- Harm or threat of harm to pets and loved ones
- Harm or threat of harm to property
- Inability or reduced ability to effectively participate in significant events such as compulsory family dispute resolution
- Inability or reduced ability to negotiate free and fair arrangements whether by reason of a history of domestic violence or otherwise
- Having residential address known by a person who uses violence against you

Screening may refer to:

- Processes for proactively enquiring about the presence of domestic and family violence with the intention of preventing further violence or harm

Risk assessment refers to:

- Processes for evaluating the nature of specific risks to safety for individual clients using tools and structured clinical judgement
- The content of risk may relate to:
  - exposure to further violence
  - mental health issues
  - children's and parenting issues
RANGE STATEMENT

Risk assessment tools refers to:
- Documented questionnaires and procedures for gathering information in relation to risk
- Scripts and preambles
- Defined questions
- Measures and rating scales of risk

External partnerships and stakeholders may refer to:
- Other agencies and service providers
- Clients
- Funding bodies

Referral systems may include:
- Hot (going with client), warm (setting up appointments and direct links) or cold (information for clients to make own contact) referrals
- Referrals to:
  - crisis intervention services
  - legal or medical services
  - family domestic services
  - child support services
  - culturally specific services
  - accommodation services
  - access to services/information
  - financial services
  - child support agency
  - mediation and counselling services
  - living skills and problem solving programs
  - educational programs
  - specialist services

Unit Sector(s)
Not Applicable
CHCDFV818C Provide programs for people who have been subject to domestic and family violence

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDFV818B Provide programs for people who have been subject to domestic and family violence</td>
<td>CHCDFV818C Provide programs for people who have been subject to domestic and family violence</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Unit Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to provide effective interventions for people affected by domestic and family violence

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit of competency applies to community services work which may involve domestic and family violence and which requires an advanced level of skills and knowledge

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability Skills

This unit contains Employability Skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Engage person in a supportive process | 1.1 Establish an appropriate physical space that conveys safety and privacy
1.2 Establish trust including explanation of the process
1.3 Use engagement and questioning techniques that invite the person to share their perspectives and concerns
1.4 Maintain an ethical relationship with the person.
1.5 Attend to an appropriate cultural context for the client |
| 2. Recognise the seriousness of domestic and family violence on individual well being | 2.1 Convey messages that acknowledge the traumatic impact of domestic and family violence
2.2 Listen for the specific safety concerns of the individual involved
2.3 Interrupt self-blame
2.4 Recognise the dynamics of domestic and family violence on the individual's ability to make decisions and plan
2.5 Recognise the impact of domestic and family violence on the health status of individuals |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>3. Prioritise safe interventions</td>
<td>3.1 Clarify the current situation and circumstances of the individual and her/his dependents</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.2 Clarify the client's perception of safety</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.3 Manage dynamics of power in worker client relationship</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.4 Prepare a relevant safety plan with the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.5 Provide legal information if relevant</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3.6 Make relevant referrals</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Identify and explore presenting problems</td>
<td>4.1 Encourage individuals to describe the presenting problems and explore their understanding of their concerns</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.2 Encourage the person to notice and discuss their concerns in relation to associated behaviours or situations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.3 Elicit the individuals understandings of attempts to previously manage their concerns in the past</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.4 Encourage the person to describe actions she/he has taken to resist, minimise and avoid violence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.5 Encourage the person to describe relationships of respect and trust he or she have experienced</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4.6 Elicit the individual's understanding of ways to build respectful and trusting relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Attend to practical concerns</td>
<td>5.1 Explore safe accommodation options for the client.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.2 Explore financial concerns and limitations that may impact on the clients situation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.3 Explore client support networks</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.4 Explore legal issues with the client</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.5 Explore impact of DFV on work relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>5.6 Make relevant referrals according to organisation policies and procedures</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

6. Promote realistic and achievable actions that support safety.

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

6.1 Recognise the impact of diversity and cultural obligations on the client’s ability to change her/his circumstances

6.2 Recognise the significance of the client’s perception and assessment of safety

6.3 Recognise the client’s ability to take appropriate actions in the timing most appropriate for the individual involved

6.4 Support and encourage actions that promote the individual’s control of her/his situation
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

These include knowledge of:

- Variety of individual and systemic therapeutic models and their application, including evidence-based therapies and culturally sensitive approaches
- Recognise strengths, limitations, and contraindications of specific therapy models, including risks of harm associated with models that incorporate assumptions of family dysfunction, pathogenesis, or cultural deficit
- Personal awareness of values, family of origin work, in depth analysis
- Understand the development of theories of intervention
- Working knowledge of the following counselling models, solution focused, narrative, image, CBT, systemic
- Working knowledge of group work models
- Advocacy, community work and community development models
- Distinguish between content and process issues
- Issues affecting family relationships, including: domestic and family violence, all abuse types, mental health, disability, post traumatic stress disorder, socioeconomics, intergenerational issues
- Interpretation of legislation relevant to job role including: family law, child protection, domestic violence, child support agency, work health and safety (WHS)
- Knowledge and application of ethical behaviour and legal frameworks for the therapeutic relationship
- Support groups available to people who have lived with family violence
- Self Awareness to facilitate a supportive intervention process in a range of settings
- Boundaries and limitations to therapeutic interventions
- Difference between supportive and interventionist counselling
- Understanding a wide range of client groups and cultural diversity including same sex couples
- Organisation policy and procedures
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Understand dynamics of intimate relationships
- Timing and appropriate termination counselling
- Knowledge of legal parameters for working with clients experiencing sexual, physical and emotional abuse, mental health issues
- Complex interpersonal interactions, power in relationships, abuse and conflict

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Manage stress and complex intervention environments
- Respond to trauma
- Undertake suicide prevention
- Screen for survivors of domestic and family violence and child abuse
- Undertake safety planning for domestic and family violence
- Undertake case planning
- Demonstrate effective report writing
- Undertake specialist communication
- Undertake risk assessment and referral
- Work in multidisciplinary team
- Use interactive skills, congruence, non-judgemental
- Seek out clinical supervision and professional development opportunities to ensure best practice and to meet duty of care requirements
- Maintain a solid theoretical base
- Provide transparent service and be accountable for actions
- Apply ethical standards
- Apply systemic conceptualisation
- Formulate hypotheses about presenting client problems
- Work with voluntary and involuntary clients
- Match intervention modalities and techniques to clients needs, goals, and values
- Deliver interventions in a way that is sensitive to special needs of clients (gender, age, socioeconomic status, culture/race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, family of origin, larger systems issues of the client)
- Set appropriate boundaries, manage issues of triangulation, and develop collaborative working relationships
- Articulate rationales for interventions related to treatment goals, plans, assessment, information, and systemic understanding of clients context and dynamics

Evidence Guide
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- Evidence of competency in this unit will need to be assessed over a period of time in order to gather evidence of performance
- This will include contexts applicable to the work environment, such as actual or simulated workplace situations involving a combination of direct, indirect and supplementary forms of evidence
- Assessment must confirm sufficient ability to analyse the dynamics of domestic and family violence and ensure appropriate screening and risk assessment is conducted
- Assessment of performance should be over a period of time covering all categories within the Range Statement statements that are applicable in the learning environment

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in community services should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in relation to their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In recognition of particular issues facing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues impacting on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues, in particular relating to factors impacting on Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients and communities
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- Evidence will be determined by selection from the Range Statement, justified in terms of work requirements, work roles and responsibilities and occupational specialisations

Method of assessment:

- Evidence for assessment of competence may be gathered by appropriate combination of the following:
  - demonstration of competency within the working environment in delivering services to clients living with and affected by domestic and family violence
  - realistic simulations, projects, previous relevant experience or oral questioning on ‘what if?’ scenarios
  - observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questions on essential knowledge and skills and consideration of required attitudes
  - where performance is not directly observed and/or is required to be demonstrated over a period of time and/or in a number of locations, any evidence should be authenticated by colleagues, supervisors, clients or other appropriate persons
  - The assessment environment should not disadvantage the candidate
  - Assessment practices should take into account any relevant language or cultural issues related to Aboriginality, gender or language barriers other than English
  - Where the candidate has a disability, reasonable adjustment may be applied during assessment
  - Language and literacy demands of the assessment task should not be higher than those of the work role
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Related units: This unit of competency should be assessed in conjunction with either of the following related units:

- CHCFDV816B Safety planning with people who have been subjected to domestic and family violence or

- CHCFDV817B Manage domestic and family violence screening and risk assessment processes

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Engagement and questioning techniques may include:

- Conversation - non problem focused
- Discuss role as worker
- Display respect and non-judgemental attitude
- Use open questioning in a non threatening manner
- Empathy and rapport

Questioning technique may include but is not limited to:

- Questioning to scan relationship web
- Reflexive questioning
- Relational questioning
- Circular questioning
RANGE STATEMENT

Presenting problems may include but are not limited to:
- Parenting issues
- Self respect and self blame
- Trauma
- Mental health issues including depression and self harming
- Alcohol and other drugs
- Social isolation
- Suicide ideation

Dynamics of domestic and family violence refer to:
- Power relations and controlling behaviour
  - Behaviours may include:
    - physical abuse
    - economic abuse
    - sexual abuse
    - controlling behaviour
    - intimidation and harassment
- The blame for abuse and violence is generally attributed to the person who is subject to the violence
- The use of abuse and violence is often explained and/or excused by external circumstances such as alcohol, unemployment etc
- The person/s subject to violence often take responsibility for the violence

Safety plan may refer to but is not limited to:
- Specific documents that record and document safety strategies identified by the client
- Procedures that support clients who are subject to violence to attend services safely
- Organisation arrangements that allow clients who have been subject to violence to participate free from violence and intimidation
RANGE STATEMENT

Interrupt self-blame may involve but not be limited to:

- Sharing information and research about the tendency for people subjected to violence to take responsibility for violence
- Outlining the way legal interpretations of domestic and family violence set community standard for non-violent behaviour
- Stating organisation principals
- Describing an accountability framework

Dependants may include but not be limited to:

- Children
- Aged parents or family members
- Grown children or siblings with a disability
- Family members who do not speak English
- Pets

Practical concerns may include but are not limited to:

- Accommodation
- Finances
- Legal situation
- Child protection and parenting arrangements
- Social obligations and explanations of circumstances

Referral may include:

- Crisis intervention services
- Legal or medical services
- Family domestic services
- Child support services
- Culturally specific services
- Accommodation services
- Access to services/information
- Financial services
- Child support agency
- Mediation and counselling services
- Living skills and problem solving programs
- Educational programs
- Specialist services
RANGE STATEMENT

Diversity refers to but is not limited to:

- People who:
  - have a disability
  - come from diverse cultural and sub-cultural backgrounds
  - have a preferred or first language that is not English
  - are aged or a young
  - reside in a remote or rural location
  - have same-sex relationships
  - have different religious beliefs or practices
  - have a dual diagnosis
  - have addiction or dependency issues
  - are of an aboriginal background or Torres Strait Islander background
  - have mental health issues

Cultural obligations may refer to but is not limited to:

- Cultural commitments to people within and beyond their family
- Parenting responsibilities
- Employment commitments
- Social and cultural responsibilities

Multiple vulnerabilities may refer to but is not limited to:

- Any combination of the following:
  - mental health problems
  - mental health difficulties
  - disabilities
  - poverty
  - limited literacy
  - alcohol and other drug issues
  - parenting difficulties
  - social isolation
  - lack of care for self
  - limited sense of future
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA401B Work effectively in the development and-or humanitarian assistance sector

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDHA401A Work effectively in the development and/or humanitarian assistance sector</td>
<td>CHCDHA401B Work effectively in the development and/or humanitarian assistance sector</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to work ethically and give appropriate regard to the social, cultural, political and religious contexts in which a development or humanitarian assistance initiative is operating in the field.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may be applied in a range of development and/or humanitarian assistance contexts and should reflect the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA).

These skills and knowledge are to be applied within the scope of the person's role and authority.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites

Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability skills  This unit contains employability skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.  The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Work effectively in a development and/or humanitarian assistance context | 1.1 Identify and apply concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development in relation to specific work being undertaken
1.2 Apply correct understanding of the goals and objectives of the organisation and/or development and/or assistance program
1.3 Address relevant organisation and/or program requirements in all development and/or humanitarian assistance work undertaken
1.4 Assess own standards and values continually and critically to ensure that they are consistent with those of the organisation being represented or program being implemented
1.5 Identify and comply with relevant duty of care and legal responsibilities in all work undertaken
1.6 Develop and maintain networks and work relationships in a manner that supports the goals and objectives of relevant organisation and/or program
1.7 Work in a professional manner and ensure own actions support and do not undermine local staff, community and partners
1.8 Recognise and work within scope of own work role and respond effectively to constraints and need to refer appropriately |
ELEMENT

2. Communicate effectively in a development and/or humanitarian assistance context

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Develop, review and revise personal skills in communication as an ongoing priority to address work role requirements

2.2 Exercise caution and sensitivity in communicating personal information by oral and written means to address privacy and confidentiality requirements

2.3 Routinely apply workplace protocols and procedures in all workplace communication to support accuracy and understanding of information provided and received

2.4 Recognise individual and cultural differences of stakeholders including differences related to disadvantage and/or disability and take these into account in communication

2.5 Make any adjustments in communication needed to facilitate the achievement of identified outcomes and maintain an open and inclusive approach

2.6 Conduct interpersonal communication in a manner that enhances a community-centred approach consistent with development and/or humanitarian assistance work role requirements

2.7 Take appropriate measures to resolve conflict and interpersonal differences

2.8 Exercise caution in using body language which might not be appropriate to local culture and customs

2.9 Ensure behaviour outside business environment reflects and supports the profile and objectives of the organisation and/or program as required to avoid misinterpretation from local community

2.10 Provide constructive feedback to others who demonstrate inappropriate cultural behaviour
ELEMENT

3. Apply ethical standards and cultural sensitivity in a field environment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Identify the range of ethical and culturally sensitive concepts relevant to field environments

3.2 Identify and adhere to relevant international code of conduct

3.3 Identify and apply relevant international standards and conventions on ethical and culturally sensitive issues in a field environment

3.4 Identify ethical and culturally sensitive issues in specific field environment

3.5 Follow ethical guidelines in decision making in all work undertaken with an awareness of potential ethical complexity in own work role

3.6 Maintain awareness of the implications of ethical and culturally sensitive issues and model ethical values and cultural sensitivity in interactions with external parties

4. Address ethical and culturally sensitive issues in programs and projects

4.1 Address ethical issues appropriately within the context of a particular program or project in the field

4.2 Contribute to and/or review program design in line with own role to ensure ethical and culturally sensitive issues are appropriately addressed

4.3 Address culturally sensitive issues appropriately within the context of a particular program or project in the field, within the operational constraints imposed by the field environment

4.4 Monitor and review program or project to ensure ethical and culturally sensitive issues are appropriately addressed

4.5 Ensure key stakeholders are made aware of the implications of ethical issues and culturally insensitive behaviour
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5.</td>
<td>Function effectively under stressful conditions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.1</td>
<td>Be calm and steady in the face of stressful and unfamiliar situations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.2</td>
<td>Accept and respond objectively to constraints, frustrations and negative behaviour from others</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.3</td>
<td>Adjust to rush situations and multiple conflicting priorities by synthesising information quickly and turning it into actions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.4</td>
<td>Maintain self-discipline under stress and remain focussed on ensuring the most important tasks are done</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.5</td>
<td>Maintain clarity of thinking under pressure to analyse situations and find solutions for problems, disaggregating complicated problems into components to resolve one at a time</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.6</td>
<td>Use effective decision making processes under pressure, demonstrating appropriate flexibility to address changing situations</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.7</td>
<td>Keep track of and communicate decisions under pressure and keep commitments on agreed actions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.8</td>
<td>Keep written documentation as required to support decision making in the field</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5.9</td>
<td>Make effective connections with people and ensure understanding of concepts, giving feedback constructively as actions proceed</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

6. Undertake operational decision making in a field environment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

6.1 Explore the facts of each situation and determine possible options within the available timeframe

6.2 Make operational decisions in line with situational requirements and own work function

6.3 Consult with community representatives to ensure decision making reflects community participation

6.4 Make discretionary decisions in new situations where specific guidelines, policy and accepted practices do not dictate specific action

6.5 Make appropriate choices in relation to difficult decisions, with awareness of the broader implications of these decisions for the community and other stakeholders

6.6 Consciously follow through on a course of action to implement decisions within a reasonable timeframe

6.7 Ensure decisions are clearly communicated to relevant people within an appropriate timeframe
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>7.</td>
<td>Reflect on own work practice in a field environment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.1</td>
<td>Monitor and prioritise personal work goals in accordance with organisation and/or program requirements and personal capabilities</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.2</td>
<td>Undertake self-evaluation in conjunction with supervisors and/or peers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.3</td>
<td>Develop awareness of own values, motivation and emotional triggers, especially in relation to the impact of work being undertaken</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.4</td>
<td>Provide and receive open and evaluative constructive feedback to and from co-workers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.5</td>
<td>Actively seek constructive feedback relevant to work role and accept it non-defensively</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.6</td>
<td>Evaluate and amend own work practices as appropriate to reflect performance feedback and continuous improvement initiatives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.7</td>
<td>Actively continue to strengthen own knowledge and skills to optimise work performance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7.8</td>
<td>Actively address personal behaviour that may compromise the safety of team members or jeopardise the mission/program</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

This includes:

- Values, principles and ethics underpinning work in the sector, including the Paris Declaration and Accra Principles
- International conventions and legal obligations and responsibilities arising from them
- Core values and standards of behaviour expected of workers in the development and humanitarian work context
- Legal and ethical responsibilities, including work health and safety (WHS) and environmental regulations, equal employment and anti-discrimination requirements as well as responsibilities in the field context
- Principles of 'Do No Harm'
- Cultural and country context of specific field projects and some knowledge of local language/s
- Awareness of a range of cultures and peoples and of cultural and political insensitivity as an issue for communities and programs
- Donor priorities and requirements in relation to worker behaviour
- Partner country's national development strategies, institutions and procedures
- Basic understanding of the country's politic and power structure
- Broad knowledge of theoretical thinking and topical issues related to humanitarian relief and development
- Broad knowledge of the general project cycle, including situation analysis, design, implementation, monitoring, evaluation and reflection
- Relief to development transition issues
- Relevant policies and procedures relating to issues such as:
  - ACFID's Code of Conduct and Effectiveness Framework
  - Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID) Development for All (Disability) Strategy and Child Protection Policy
  - access and equity in commodities distribution, project interventions and in recruiting
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE and employment
- cash management
- design, monitoring and evaluation standards
- document storage and security
- environmental management
- ethical behaviour
- financial standards, cash management and donor relations
- handling stakeholder complaints

continued ...

Essential knowledge (contd):
- Relevant policies and procedures relating to issues such as (contd):
  - issues of gender and for stakeholders with special needs and disadvantages, such as refugees, internally displaced people, children, the elderly, widowed and people with disabilities
  - personal security and safety
  - positive discrimination
  - reporting standards
  - representing an organisation and using specific protocols, templates and software
  - service standards
- Awareness of agency guidelines, such as:
  - AusAID
  - U.S. Agency for International Development Field Operational Guide (USAID FOG) and United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
  - other relevant agencies
- The Humanitarian Charter and Minimum Standards in Relief (The Sphere standards)

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:
- Identify ethical issues, concepts and standards relevant to field environments
- Effectively demonstrate ethical standards and practices in the workplace and in interactions with others
- Effectively communicate with and work safely with others in the work area, and access organisation and/or program support systems when necessary
- Comply with relevant policies, procedures and requirements on OHS, staff welfare, security and related issues
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
- Work as part of a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Initiate new ideas or work methodologies
- Accurately plan and organise work activities
- Efficiently manage own responsibilities and timelines for completion of work
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self motivation and direction
- Retain clear sense of personal values and ethics in ambiguous or stressful situations
- Identify areas for personal improvement or training in self and others
- Make situational assessments

Essential skills (contd):

- Demonstrate ethical handling of service delivery issues
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, showing sensitivity to cultural and political differences, including:
  - awareness and understanding of cultural differences and issues associated with disadvantage and disability
  - ability to express that awareness and understanding clearly and concisely
  - ability to build rapport with others, including participants, community leaders, donors, government representatives and other organisations involved in development assistance work
  - use basic strategies to overcome language barriers (fluency in more than one language would be a major asset)
  - no political bias in own conduct
  - ability to use culturally appropriate verbal and nonverbal communication
- Use emotional state control
- Cope with stressful work environment
- Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
- Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
- Use computing equipment and common software programs
- Use administration and routine office procedures
- Select and use appropriate technology
- Apply skills in:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- accessing relevant records and information sources
- adapting to different environments and responding effectively to challenges
- basic financial management
- capacity building
- communicating effectively with a wide range of different audiences
- interviewing and recording
- networking
- report writing
- setting priorities
- undertaking new tasks
- working safely and encouraging a safe workplace
- language, literacy and numeracy skills such as those required to:
  - collect, analyse and organise data
  - communicate in spoken and written form with a range of audiences
  - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
  - prepare or customise materials
  - calculate and estimate times, costs and quantities

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills.
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace.
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints.
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace.
- The circumstantial or unsolicited testimony of project participants, governments or other non-government organisations regarding ethical behaviour should be considered as significant evidence in relation to this unit.

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In particular workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged.
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - Workplace location or simulated workplace
  - Specifications and work instructions
  - Policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including sector specific manuals)
  - Relevant documents (such as project documents, trip reports, staff assessments, memos, leave records and performance reviews)
  - Relevant equipment (such as vehicles, office equipment and communications equipment)
  - Managers, co-workers and other staff
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-job assessment in the field.
- Given the nature of this unit, candidates should be expected to present evidence from within a real field environment.
- If this is not possible, demonstration of some performance criteria in this unit may be achieved through observing the behaviour and responses of the candidate under a stressful situation similar to those likely to be encountered in the field.
- While it is unethical and inappropriate to place a candidate in real danger, a life-like simulation may provide the best opportunity to observe 'near-real' responses.
- Underpinning knowledge may be assessed through:
  - written assignments
  - project reports
  - debriefings
  - action learning projects
- Assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development include:

- Ownership, including:
  - using delivery processes that support partner countries to exercise effective leadership over their development policies and strategies
  - coordinating development actions
  - involving communities and local government in decision making, implementation, monitoring and evaluation
  - encouraging community's and local government's contribution to problem solving

- Alignment, involving maintaining a comprehensive understanding of partner countries' national development strategies, institutions and procedures to guide program delivery

- Harmonisation:
  - actively seeking to collaborate with other Official Development Assistance (ODA) partners to create added value and greater development effectiveness

- Managing for results, including continuous improvement of systems to:
  - manage for development results
  - support evidence-based decision making

- Mutual accountability, involving demonstration of:
  - full transparency and accountability for the use of development resources in program delivery

Ethical concepts relevant to field environments may include:

- The right to life with dignity
- The distinction between combatants and non-combatants
- The principle of non-refoulment
- No sectarian discrimination in providing field assistance
- Non-partisanship
RANGE STATEMENT

_Culturally sensitive concepts relevant to a field situation may be very complex and include issues such as:_

- Social issues
- Gender relations
- Cultural relationships
- Religious beliefs
- Cultural practices
- Political issues and sensitivities

_Relevant international code of conduct may include, for example:_

- ACFID Code of Conduct and Effectiveness Framework
- Code of Conduct for the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in Disaster Relief
- People In Aid Code of Good Practice
- International Code of Conduct on the Human Right to Adequate Food
RANGE STATEMENT

International standards and conventions may include:

- African Charter on Human and People's Rights
- Convention against Torture and other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (1984)
- Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Discrimination Against Women (1979)
- Convention on the Elimination of all forms of Racial Discrimination (1965)
- Convention on the rights of persons with disabilities
- Convention on the Status of Refugees (1951) and the Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees (1976)
- European Convention on Human Rights (1950)
- Humanitarian Accountability Partnership - International (HAP-International)
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (1966)
- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (1966)
- People in Aid
- Principles of Aid effectiveness as embodied in the Paris Declaration (2005) and Accra principles (2008)
- The four Geneva Covenants of 1949 and their two Additional Protocols of 1977
- The Humanitarian Charter and Minimum Standards in Relief (The Sphere standards) organisation policy and procedure documents
- The Oxfam Gender handbook (which while not a formal standard or convention is clearly a well respected benchmark for many organisations)
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948)
RANGE STATEMENT

Culturally sensitive issues refer to:

- Many ways in which cultures vary
- While very different cultures present obvious challenges to those moving into them, cultures which, on the surface, appear to be more closely related can also be challenging because the differences are more subtle
- Culturally sensitive issues may include:
  - clothing preferences
  - cultural imperialism
  - decision making processes
  - directness in conversation (or not)
  - disadvantage and disability
  - evangelism or proselytism
  - food and drink preferences
  - form of government
  - gender of interviewed
  - gender of interviewer
  - gifts
  - greetings
  - identification (with self, family, community, religion, cultural or ethnic group and country)
  - introductions
  - non verbal communication such as facial expression, gestures, eye contact and personal space
  - options for expressing disagreement or disapproval
  - preferences relating to positions offered to women or elders
  - requirement of single or multiple gender team
  - role of political parties
  - role of religious authorities
  - role of royal family or traditional rulers
  - role of the military
  - sensitive topics for conversations
RANGE STATEMENT

Implications may include:

- Misunderstanding and conflict
- Real and important needs of target community may not be addressed
- Image and reputation of the organisation may be affected
- Program procedures may be less efficient and effective
- Lack of participation of affected communities

External parties may include:

- Host governments
- Donor agencies
- Project participants
- Other non-government organisations
RANGE STATEMENT

Monitor and review program or project may include:

- How identified ethical issues are considered and incorporated in the program design
  For instance, in designing a project in a conflict environment, considering if provision of aid will:
  - have a positive effect on the conflict (i.e. help people to stop fighting)
  - add to the conflict (i.e. increase competition and mistrust)

- How identified culturally sensitive issues are considered and incorporated in the program design
  For instance, in designing a program efforts are made to ensure that:
  - the program assists the affected people without political, religious or gender discrimination
  - programs are carried out in a way that uses and enhances local knowledge and skills

- Program goal and purpose
- Program outputs
- Project activities
- Implementation plan and schedule,
- Program inputs or resources required
- Program impacts
- Management of risks
- Constraints and assumptions
- Program sustainability
- Management structure and staffing requirements
- Addressing principles of development and/or aid effectiveness
- Financial management and use of resources

Culturally insensitive behaviour may refer to:

- Inability to be aware of, understand and show respect for cultural values, practices and differences, views, norms and religious beliefs
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA402B Maintain well being in a field environment

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDHA402A</td>
<td>CHCDHA402B</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maintain well being in a field environment</td>
<td>Maintain well being in a field environment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to work ethically and to maintain and promote personal welfare while under stressful conditions encountered in the field

Application of the Unit

Application

Maintaining well being in field environments primarily applies in humanitarian work environments and in community development and support work

This unit may be applied in a range of development and/or humanitarian assistance contexts and should reflect the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA)

These skills and knowledge must be used within the scope of the person's role and authority
Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information
Employability skills	This unit contains employability skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content
Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.
Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

1. Address health issues specific to field work

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

1.1 Identify adverse aspects of field living conditions and make appropriate adjustments to address them

1.2 Identify and take action to prevent or minimise general health risks associated with living in a field environment

1.3 Identify and take action to prevent or minimise risks associated with inappropriate use of drugs and/or alcohol (AOD)

1.4 Identify and take action to prevent or minimise risks associated with unsafe and inappropriate sexual activity

1.5 Undertake relevant health checks and vaccinations as required in preparation for field work in line with organisation and/or program requirements

1.6 Implement and promote healthy dietary practices within the limits imposed by the field environment

1.7 Implement and promote healthy exercise practices within the limits imposed by the field environment

1.8 Maintain and promote personal hygiene associated with living in a field environment
ELEMENT

2. Maintain own psychological health in development and/or humanitarian assistance work

   2.1 Identify the importance of maintaining own psychological well being
   2.2 Recognise and attend to personal psychological needs
   2.3 Recognise own personal motivation for undertaking work in development and/or humanitarian assistance
   2.4 Take appropriate steps to manage disillusionment in a development and/or humanitarian assistance work context
   2.5 Identify potential impacts of loss and common features of grief and trauma
   2.6 Recognise common expressions of grief and develop awareness of own response to grief

3. Address personal security risks in a field environment

   3.1 Identify and minimise personal security risks
   3.2 Take appropriate action to handle situations of personal risk
   3.3 Identify and respond appropriately to signs of stress
   3.4 Recognise and attend to signs of traumatic stress and post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)
   3.5 Take appropriate action to prevent or minimise harmful stress
   3.6 Use organisation support systems and personnel appropriately
   3.7 Seek and undertake debriefing following all placements through organisation support systems and/or externally
ELEMENT

4. Manage own security in a field environment

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Develop knowledge of risk assessment and risk minimisation procedures relevant to work being undertaken

4.2 Be clear about relevant organisation requirements of the worker in achieving organisation and/or program goals and as a basis for maintaining own boundaries

4.3 Comply with security protocols set by the organisation

4.4 Work with knowledge of organisation procedures and plans for responding to major incidents and evacuations

4.5 Be aware of and use available support mechanisms

4.6 Develop and maintain relationships in own living environment to enhance personal well being

5. Recognise and deal with trauma and vicarious traumatisation

5.1 Recognise vicarious traumatisation in self

5.2 Access available support services to assist in dealing with own vicarious traumatisation

5.3 Recognise vicarious traumatisation in others and use appropriate strategies to respond to this

5.4 Identify the overt and covert signs of trauma in others and any available support framework to address this
ELEMENT
6. Contribute to maintaining health and well being of others

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA
6.1 Use active listening and caring responses to assist in defusing stress in others

6.2 Contribute to development and maintenance of support systems with colleagues that support both them and yourself

6.3 Develop heightened awareness of indicators of health and well being issues in those participating as in-country partners and collaborators in work in development and humanitarian assistance

6.4 Contribute to specific needs of maintaining health and well being of stakeholders with special needs and disadvantages, such as refugees, internally displaced people, children, the elderly, widowed and people with disabilities
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. This includes:

- General context of relief and development environment
- Relevant organisation and/or project/program structure, including formal lines of reporting and responsibility
- Some knowledge of organisation internal politics and informal influence or power relationships
- Broad knowledge of the effects of AOD
- Basic dietary and nutritional information
- Basic psychological principles
- Organisation and/or other available support systems and personnel
- Emergency management concepts, principles and guidelines
- Problem solving and decision-making techniques
- Sectoral requirements
- Relevant policies, procedures and guidelines relating to issues, such as: staff support, employment terms and conditions, risk management, staff and asset security, benchmarks in related areas (e.g. post-placement debriefing), cross-cultural awareness and sensitivity

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Effectively maintain personal and psychological health by adjusting to field living conditions, doing healthy dietary and exercise practices and reducing risks associated with AOD use, sexual activity, security and stress
- Recognise and appropriately handle adverse aspects of field living conditions, including traumatic or harmful stress and situations of personal security risk
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Effectively communicate with and work safely with others in the work area, and access organisation support systems when necessary
- Comply with relevant organisation policies, procedures and requirements on work health and safety (WHS), staff welfare, security and related issues
- Access and address available advice (e.g. from relevant government department) on risk levels
- Register (if appropriate) through embassy/high commission to support personal safety

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role. These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
- Work as part of a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Initiate new ideas or work methodologies
- Accurately plan and organise work activities
- Efficiently manage own responsibilities and timelines for completion of work
- Apply thinking, problem solving and conceptual techniques
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self-motivation and direction
- Use emotional and psychological state control
- Undertake self-observation and reflection
- Demonstrate awareness of team members’ physical, emotional and psychological state
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds
- Communicate effectively with a range of different audiences
- Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
- Identify and communicate effectively with stakeholders
- Analyse, evaluate and prioritise risks
- Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
- Select and use appropriate technology
- Use language, literacy and numeracy skills such as those required to:
  - collect, analyse and organise data
  - communicate in spoken and written form with a range of audiences
  - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
  - prepare or customise materials
  - calculate and estimate times, costs and quantities
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) environments
- In particular workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged.
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace location or simulated workplace
  - specifications and work instructions
  - policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including sector specific manuals)
  - relevant documents (such as staff assessments, memos, leave records and performance reviews)
  - relevant equipment (such as vehicles, office equipment and communications equipment)
  - managers, co-workers and other staff
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment may include:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-the-job assessment in the field
- Given the nature of this unit, candidates should be expected to present evidence from within a real field environment
- If this is not possible, demonstration of some performance criteria in this unit may be achieved through observing the behaviour and responses of the candidate under a stressful situation similar to those likely to be encountered in the field
- While it is unethical and inappropriate to place a candidate in real danger, a life-like simulation may provide the best opportunity to observe 'near-real' responses
- The use of third party and self-reflective evidence for assessing this unit is preferred
- Underpinning knowledge may be assessed through:
  - written assignments
  - project reports
  - debriefings
  - action learning projects
- Assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations
- Completed Security and Safety training (e.g. Red-R 'Personal Security and Communication' training: http://www.redr.org.au/training/training-courses/61-personal-security-a-communications)

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

- Adverse aspects of field living conditions may include:
  - Climate
  - Communication difficulties associated with language barriers
  - Compound living
  - Crowded conditions
  - Difficulties associated with cultural differences
  - Difficulties associated with the reality of poverty in the community
  - Exposure to stressful situations (e.g. human and animal distress and death, and destruction of property)
  - Government or internal organisation bureaucracy challenges
  - Isolation
  - Lack of availability of dietary preference (e.g. vegetarian workers in pastoral community may need to eat meat as their main diet)
  - Lack of communication infrastructure (e.g. telephone and internet)
  - Lack of control over dietary practices and intake, including frequency or variety in food
  - Lack of personal security
  - Lack of privacy
  - Lack of recreational opportunities or free time
  - Lack of security of belongings
  - Limited access to safe transport
  - Long working hours
  - Poor access to fresh and/or hot water, including opportunities to bathe or wash clothing
  - Poor communications infrastructure resulting in lack of contact with support networks
  - Poor general infrastructure (e.g. roads, electricity and fuel)
  - Poor standard of accommodation
  - Possible personal injury through disease or violence

Take action to prevent or minimise various risks may include:

- Actions and strategies required or recommended by specific organisation, program and/or community contacts
RANGE STATEMENT

General health risks within the field environment may include:

- Cholera
- Dehydration
- Dengue fever
- Heat stroke
- Hepatitis
- HIV/AIDS and other sexually transmissible diseases (STDs)
- Lack of sleep
- Malaria
- Other diseases or conditions that may pose a health risk at a specific time in a specific location
- Poor food and water quality
RANGE STATEMENT

Field environment may include:

- Conditions which are encountered while living and working in a development and/or humanitarian assistance context, which may be:
  - away from a permanent base
  - relatively permanent for those working in a development context for years at a time
- Field conditions vary depending upon the infrastructure available
- In some cases, field conditions may be relatively comfortable, but field conditions to which this unit refers commonly involve adverse conditions
- The most severe sets of field conditions are likely to occur during complex humanitarian emergencies (CHE), which:
  - is characterised by large-scale deterioration in the economic, political and/or social spheres
  - may be the direct result of serious problems in only one sphere, but most often is the result of a combination of factors working together to create problems in more than one area
  - may be caused by major natural or man-made disasters and usually affect a population of more than 50,000 people
  - may be slow or sudden in their onset
  - may be declared when two of the following pre-conditions exist:
    - large scale displacement of population
    - breakdown in economic system
    - breakdown in civil order
    - famine preconditions
RANGE STATEMENT

Inappropriate use of drug and alcohol may include:

- Any use of drugs or alcohol in certain cultural and legal circumstances
- Drunkenness
- Alcoholism
- Operating in work role while under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- Use of stimulants to extend working hours or energy levels
- Use of drugs or alcohol as a field environment coping mechanism
- In some cultural circumstances, consumption of alcohol or other drugs such as kava or betel-nut may be a major aspect of social interaction, and abstinence from alcohol may reflect negatively on the individual, the organisation and staff.

Risks associated with inappropriate use of drug and alcohol may include:

- Cultural offence
- Prohibition of alcohol within certain countries
- Severity of sentencing laws in relation to drug and alcohol offences in certain countries
- Breach of contract of employment and lack of organisation's legal liability protection
- Damage to own physical health
- Inability to operate effectively while influenced by drugs or alcohol
- Damage to own reputation and freedom to operate
- Damage to organisation's reputation and freedom to operate

Unsafe and inappropriate sexual activity may include:

- Unprotected sex
- Sex with target group e.g. refugees
- Sex with co-workers
RANGE STATEMENT

Risks associated with unsafe or inappropriate sexual activity may include:

- Sexually transmitted diseases (e.g. HIV/AIDS, gonorrhoea and syphilis)
- Pregnancy
- Cultural offence
- Legal sanctions
- Damage to own reputation and freedom to operate
- Damage to organisation's reputation and freedom to operate

Healthy dietary practices may include:

- Eating regularly and attempting to achieve a balanced diet
- Maintaining adequate level of calorie intake
- Maximising variety of food eaten
- Maximising intake of fresh fruits and vegetables

Healthy exercise practices refer to:

- Physical activities that help maintain fitness, build endurance, strengthen and maintain tone of muscles for example, stretching, walking, running and swimming

Personal psychological needs refer to:

- Those particular needs which are characteristic of the individual
- They will vary from person to person, but each individual should be able to describe their own key needs, which might include:
  - daily time alone
  - social interaction with others
  - opportunity to laugh
  - maintaining a routine
  - maintaining regular contact with personal support network, such as:
    - family
    - friends
    - work colleagues
    - religious organisation
    - sporting or common interest groups
RANGE STATEMENT

_Expressions of grief may include:_
- Anger
- Anxiety
- Change in worldview
- Chronic sorrow
- Confusion
- Depression
- Despair
- Drop in self-esteem
- Fear of going mad
- Feeling unable to cope
- Guilt and remorse
- Helplessness
- Hopelessness
- Loneliness
- Questioning of values and beliefs
- Relief
- Shock and disbelief
- Suicidal ideation

_Personal security risks may include risk of:_
- Assault
- Mugging
- Kidnap or being held hostage
- Landmines
- Bombs
- Vehicle accidents
- Issues that may lead to evacuations - including threat of fire, volcano, flood, earthquake, war and civil unrest

_Appropriate action to handle situations of risk may include:_
- Building rapport
- Defusing risky situations
- Evasive action
- Disarming techniques
- Maintaining appropriate physiology
RANGE STATEMENT

Signs of stress may include:

- Physical symptoms such as:
  - gastrointestinal:
    - dry mouth
    - impression of having one's heart in one's mouth
    - nausea
    - vomiting
    - sensation of bloating
    - heartburn
    - abdominal pain
    - appetite changes
    - diarrhoea
    - constipation
  - cardiovascular:
    - elevated blood pressure
    - rapid heart beat
    - hot flushes
    - cold hands and feet
    - sweating
  - respiratory:
    - breathlessness
    - panting
    - sensation of not being able to breathe
  - musculoskeletal:
    - cramps
    - back pain
    - trembling
    - nervous ticks
    - grimacing
  - neurological - headache
- Psychological symptoms such as:
  - emotional:
    - anxiety
    - anguish
  - behavioural:
    - sleep problems
    - abuse of cigarettes, alcohol or drugs
    - modification of one's libido
RANGE STATEMENT

- intellectual:
  - concentration difficulties
  - memory difficulties
  - problems with reasoning and verbal expression

[Source: United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees or UNHCR Handbook for Emergencies, 2nd Ed. p. 321)]

- Signs of acute stress may include:
  - paranoia
  - depression
  - emotional numbing
  - hyperactivity
  - exaggerated humour
  - poor anger management
  - mood swings
  - pronounced memory difficulties
  - inappropriate risk taking
  - inability to undertake routine duties

Traumatic stress:

- Is brought on by critical incidents, especially those which are unexpected and emotionally powerful
- Responses to traumatic stress are similar to those above for stress, but may be more pronounced (e.g. vomiting instead of nausea)
RANGE STATEMENT

Post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD):

- Is a clinical diagnosis which should be made by a qualified psychologist or psychiatrist
- Signs of PTSD include:
  - invasive memories (flashback), nightmares and sleep disturbance
  - repeated reliving of the event
  - detachment
  - avoidance of trigger persons or situations
  - hyper-arousal
  - anxiety
  - depression
  - grief
  - anger
  - suicidal thoughts
  - reactions intensifying over time
  - clear alteration of personality
  - withdrawal from others
  - continued rumination about the event
  - constant expectation of a new disaster
  - persistent sleep difficulties
  - phobia formation
  - reactions continuing for 3 - 4 weeks

[Source UNHCR Handbook for emergencies, symptoms based on the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, version Four (DSM-IV)]
RANGE STATEMENT

Appropriate action to prevent or minimise harmful stress may include:

- Understanding that:
  - reactions to stress are normal
  - responses to critical incidents are sometimes delayed
  - cumulative (or chronic) stress builds up over time
  - those experiencing stress are not the best judges of their own ability to cope
- Gathering information on local conditions (language, culture) prior to arrival
- Getting enough sleep
- Eating regularly
- Controlling intake of alcohol, tobacco, medicines and/or drugs
- Taking time for rest and relaxation and for physical exercise (20 minutes per day)
- Giving expression to stress through:
  - conversation
  - counselling
  - diary-keeping
  - artistic expression
- Critical incident defusing or debriefing sessions

Critical incidents in the field may include but are not limited to:

- Being a powerless witness of violence
- Being a victim of violence, sexual assault and/or bullying
- Death or injury of a colleague
- Deaths of children
- Hostage taking
- Personal injury
- Seeing or being associated with a tragic event accompanied by intense media coverage (especially if media coverage is inaccurate or misleading)
- Undergoing great personal risk
RANGE STATEMENT

Organisation support systems and personnel may include:

- Work colleague networks
- Communication with personal support networks from the field
- Regular mail from home
- Regular news and information from home (e.g. newspapers and magazines)
- Human resources staff
- Religious leaders and/or lay workers
- Regular 'Rest and Recreation' opportunities
- Debriefing after every field placement
- Access to Post Exposure Prophylaxis (PEP) for rape treatment, if not provided by own agency, then link with the nearest United Nation office.

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA403B Apply knowledge of humanitarian assistance project work

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDHA403A Apply knowledge of humanitarian assistance project work</td>
<td>CHCDHA403B Apply knowledge of humanitarian assistance project work</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required for humanitarian project work, including understanding of key issues in sectors of humanitarian work (i.e. food aid, agriculture and health), and their interaction with one another in humanitarian project work.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may be applied in a range of humanitarian assistance contexts and should reflect the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA)

These skills and knowledge are to be applied within the scope of the person's role and authority.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information

Employability skills
This unit contains employability skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.
The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Apply knowledge of humanitarian project work | 1.1 Apply knowledge of the stages and components of the relief project cycle and their characteristics
1.2 Apply understanding of the relief-development continuum when undertaking humanitarian project work
1.3 Work within the organisation structure, with a clear understanding of key stakeholder roles, responsibilities and scope of authority in the field |
ELEMENT

2. Work with understanding of key issues impacting humanitarian interventions

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Apply broad understanding of issues impacting humanitarian interventions

2.2 Apply knowledge of interventions aiming to address health and refugee issues, to provide food aid and to address water issues in field environments

2.3 Apply knowledge of key roles and responsibilities of stakeholders involved in interventions to address each type of issue

2.4 Work with awareness of human resources, financing and diverse communication issues in humanitarian interventions

2.5 Work with awareness of differing aid modalities and their implications for humanitarian interventions

2.6 Explain how the various issues may interact with each other in the field environment when a humanitarian intervention is undertaken

3. Contribute to monitoring and evaluation of humanitarian interventions

3.1 Work with understanding of the importance of and rationale for monitoring and evaluation of humanitarian interventions as a basis for achieving aid effectiveness

3.2 Undertake monitoring using relevant tools/templates, practices and processes in line with humanitarian intervention requirements and own work role

3.3 Participate in evaluation of humanitarian intervention where appropriate in line with own work role and make adjustments to work where indicated as a result of overall evaluation outcomes

4. Address reporting requirements in humanitarian project work

4.1 Apply knowledge of contractual and organisation obligations with regards to progress reports and financial reports

4.2 Apply understanding of the importance of donor relations and opportunities to improve these relationships
Required Skills and Knowledge
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

This includes:

- General field environment
- General project cycle
- Relief to development transition issues
- Specific issues impacting on work and outcomes in development and humanitarian assistance, such as gender, HIV, environment and anti-corruption
- Organisation structure, including formal lines of reporting and responsibility
- Organisation support systems and personnel
- Legal and ethical responsibilities, including work health and safety (WHS) and environmental regulations, equal employment and anti-discrimination requirements as well as responsibilities in the field context
- Donor priorities, organisation structures and key stakeholders
- Donor funding guidelines and reporting requirements
- Broad knowledge of theoretical thinking and topical issues related to humanitarian relief and development
- Basic analysis techniques
- Organisation policies and procedures relating to issues such as:
  - cash management
  - commodities distribution
  - document storage and security
  - donor relations
  - financial standards
  - handling participant complaints
  - operational authority
  - organisation software
  - personal security
  - project design
  - project development
  - service standards
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Agency guidelines, such as:
  - Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID) guidelines, including Development for All (Disability) Strategy and Child Protection Policy
  - U.S. Agency for International Development Field Operational Guide (USAID FOG) and United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
  - other relevant agencies
- The Humanitarian Charter and Minimum Standards in Relief (The Sphere standards)

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Identify and describe basic issues and project interventions in field environments particularly with regards to health, commodity and food aid, refugees, water, human resource, communication and finance
- Explain how different project interventions in field environments interact with sectorial issues, and how an intervention may impact another
- Explain the key roles and responsibilities of relevant stakeholders working on issues and project interventions focussing on health, commodity and food aid, refugees, water, human resource, communication and finance
- Comply with relevant organisation policies, procedures and requirements on WHS, stakeholder welfare, security and related issues
- Effectively communicate with and work safely with others in the work area
- In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
- Work as part of a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Initiate new ideas or work methodologies
- Accurately plan and organise work activities
- Efficiently manage own responsibilities and timelines for completion of work
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self motivation and direction
- Retain clear sense of personal values and ethics in ambiguous or stressful situations
- Identify areas for personal improvement or training in self and others
- Make situational assessments
- Demonstrate ethical handling of service delivery issues
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, showing sensitivity to cultural differences, including:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- awareness and understanding of cultural differences
- ability to express that awareness and understanding clearly and concisely
- ability to build rapport with others, including participants, community leaders, donors and other non-government organisations
- use basic strategies to overcome language barriers (fluency in more than one language would be a major asset)
- Work inclusively, respecting community values, to address needs of stakeholders with special needs and disadvantages, such as refugees, children and people with disabilities
- Use emotional state control
- Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
- Use computing equipment and common software programs
- Use administration and routine office procedures
- Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
- Select and use appropriate technology
- Apply skills in:
  - setting priorities
  - undertaking new tasks
  - adapting to different environments and responding effectively to challenges
  - communicating effectively with a wide range of different audiences
  - working safely and encouraging a safe workplace
  - accessing organisation records and information sources
  - interviewing
  - networking
  - language, literacy and numeracy skills such as those required to:
    - collect, analyse and organise data
    - communicate in spoken and written form with a range of audiences
    - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
    - prepare or customise materials
    - calculate and estimate times, costs and quantities

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE
EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace
- The circumstantial or unsolicited testimony of project participants, governments or other non-government organisations regarding ethical behaviour should be considered as significant evidence in relation to this unit

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In particular workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace location or simulated workplace
  - specifications and work instructions
  - policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including sector specific manuals)
  - relevant documents (such as staff assessments, memos, leave records and performance reviews)
  - relevant equipment (such as vehicles, office equipment and communications equipment)
  - managers, co-workers and other staff

Method of assessment:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-job assessment in the field
- Given the nature of this unit, candidates should be expected to present evidence from within a real field environment
- If this is not possible, demonstration of some performance criteria in this unit may be achieved through observing the behaviour and responses of the candidate under a stressful situation similar to those likely to be encountered in the field
- While it is unethical and inappropriate to place a candidate in real danger, a life-like simulation may provide the best opportunity to observe 'near-real' responses
- Underpinning knowledge may be assessed through:
  - written assignments
  - project reports
  - debriefings
  - action learning projects
- Assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations
Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Project cycle is:

- A well known relief management construct used to describe the normal life-cycle of a relief project from crisis to non-crisis stages
- The project cycle generally includes the following areas:
  - assessment
  - analysis
  - design
  - marketing
  - monitoring
  - reporting
  - evaluation

Relief-development continuum is:

- A theory which proposes that relief and development are not separate activities but part of a single approach to disaster environments
- Project activities are planned depending on the stage of the disaster but all interventions incorporate gender, environmental and sustainable analysis
RANGE STATEMENT

Scope of authority may include:

- Delegation to sign cheques or authorize, purchases and payment of invoices
- Delegation to negotiate contract changes with, donors
- Delegation to authorise use of project equipment
- Delegation to recruit or direct staff
- Delegation to determine changes to project interventions
RANGE STATEMENT

Issues impacting humanitarian interventions may include:

- Health issues, such as:
  - health indicators such as infant mortality and malnutrition
  - health surveys in order to derive health data
  - health interventions such as immunisation or supplemental feeding programs
  - international standards for health
- Food aid issues, such as:
  - food for work programs
  - dietary requirements of project participants
  - international standards on food aid
  - cultural requirements of project participants
- Refugee issues, such as:
  - familiarity with The Humanitarian Charter and Minimum Standards in Relief (the Sphere standards) and with international law pertaining to refugees and their rights
  - consideration of cultural issues and of host communities' needs and rights
- Water issues, such as:
  - access to water and its management
  - water purification
  - formulas for calculating the volume of water required
  - ownership of water
  - distribution of water, including storage and plumbing infrastructure
- Human resource issues, such as:
  - hiring of local staff
  - local labour hire laws
  - local workers' demand for daily cash payment
  - staff accommodation and other conditions
  - evacuations
  - notification of next-of-kin where necessary
- Communication issues, such as:
  - dealing with local or international media
  - preparing press releases
  - hosting media visits
  - preparing non-media marketing information
RANGE STATEMENT

- A range of political and military issues
- Finance issues, such as:
  - acquittals
  - budget submissions
  - preparation of invoice and receipt books
  - cash security
  - foreign currency restrictions and transactions

Key roles and responsibilities may include:

- Operational
- Line management
- Preparation of financial reports
- Preparation of non-financial reports
- Design of project
- Monitoring of project
- Evaluation of project

Key stakeholders may include:

- Community members and representatives
- National and/or local government
- Private sector organisations - local and international
- Donors
- Other government and/or non-government organisations
- Voluntary civic and social organisations
- 'Internal' stakeholders, such as:
  - immediate managers
  - organisation's national hierarchy
  - organisation's international or regional managers
  - designated staff with specific project responsibilities
RANGE STATEMENT

Interact refers to:

- Interactions which occur when one project intervention has an impact, either directly or indirectly on another project intervention
- Interactions may also be considered to have occurred when one project intervention stops another one from being implemented
- For example, a health intervention may stop other water interventions going ahead
- This impact is considered an intervention

Aid effectiveness includes:

- Ownership, including:
  - using delivery processes that support partner countries to exercise effective leadership over their development policies and strategies
  - coordinating development actions
  - involving communities and local government in decision making, implementation, monitoring and evaluation
  - encouraging community's and local government's contribution to problem solving
- Alignment, involving maintaining a comprehensive understanding of partner countries’ national development strategies, institutions and procedures to guide program delivery
- Harmonisation:
  - actively seeking to collaborate with other Official Development Assistance (ODA) partners to create added value and greater development effectiveness
- Managing for results, including continuous improvement of systems to:
  - manage for development results and
  - support evidence-based decision making
- Mutual accountability, involving demonstration of:
  - full transparency and accountability for the use of development resources in program delivery
RANGE STATEMENT

Obligations may include:

- Regular reports
- Specific activities
- Outputs
- Inputs
- Training sessions

Progress reports may include:

- Monthly reports
- Situational reports
- Verbal presentations
- Annual plans
- Evaluations

Financial reports may include:

- Acquittals
- Budget submissions
- Preparation of invoice and receipt books

Donors may include:

- Government:
  - Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID)
  - Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA)
  - European Union (EU)
  - Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
  - U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)
- Multilateral:
  - World Food Program (WFP)
  - United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)
  - United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
- Private donor:
  - internal
  - external
- Corporate donor
- Local representatives of all of the above
- Local host government
RANGE STATEMENT

Project interventions are:

- Any activities undertaken by the organisation within a field environment funded through the project budget

Commodity may include:

- Food
- Blankets
- Temporary shelters
- Tools and equipment
- Any other items for distribution to project participants

Commodity issues may include:

- Food and non-food storage requirements
- Procurement of food and non-food goods
- Transport of food and non-food goods
- Commodity tracking
- Distribution methods

Line managers are:

- Managers with direct authority over and responsibility for staff reporting to them

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA404A Develop and maintain positive relationships with key stakeholders

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to maintain positive relationships with key stakeholders including host governments, donors, local stakeholders and government and non-government organisations.

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in relation to key stakeholders or partners in relief or development work field environments.
It may apply in a range of development and/or humanitarian assistance contexts and should reflect the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA).
These skills and knowledge are to be used within the scope of the person's role and authority.

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
Employability Skills Information

Employability skills This unit contains employability skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Establish partnership with the community and key stakeholders</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.1 Respond quickly to requests for information or participation by key stakeholders and the community</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Develop understanding of partner country’s national development strategies, institutions and procedures</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Take opportunities to explain or promote the activities, policies and values of the organisation and/or program as appropriate and in line with concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4 Effectively promote activities, policies and values of the organisation and/or program to a range of audiences, within relevant guidelines and in culturally sensitive and appropriate ways</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5 Refer non-routine requests for information to an appropriate person within the organisation or involved in the program at the local, national or international level</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
ELEMENT

2. Develop networks and working relationships

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2.1 Recognise and take account of the roles and responsibilities of key stakeholders in interactions

2.2 Develop positive working relationships with key stakeholders, and maintain them over time to encourage positive outcomes and stakeholder support

2.3 Conduct dealings with key stakeholders to develop a relationship of trust and mutual understanding

2.4 Actively seek to collaborate with other organisations involved in development and humanitarian assistance work to create added value and greater development effectiveness

2.5 Establish formal and informal networks at the local, regional and national levels to support ongoing and future liaison and collaboration

2.6 Obtain feedback from other organisations and governments to inform and improve service delivery, and to ensure that service integrates with activities of other agencies and organisations
ELEMENT

3. Build and maintain relationships within changing teams

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

3.1 Initiate contact and build relationships with new people, including those who have different experiences, perceptions and values to own

3.2 Maintain openness to change and differences between people, accepting and valuing diversity

3.3 Take responsibility for own work and where appropriate facilitate others working in the area to undertake their roles and responsibilities

3.4 Actively listen and work to understand the different perspectives of all personnel specifically to build shared understanding

3.5 Demonstrate an appropriate level of confidence in own judgment and abilities

3.6 Actively listen to ideas and opinions of others and process them objectively as a basis for expanding own ideas, approach and judgment

3.7 Take appropriate actions to provide key practical inputs to influence people over whom you may have no direct authority

3.8 Constructively challenge inappropriate behaviours by focusing on specific actions or attitudes behind the problem, not personalising them

3.9 Behave appropriately to local context and reduce vulnerability by acting in accordance with security guidelines
ELEMENT

4. Represent the organisation and/or program in the community

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

4.1 Represent to the community the activities, policies and values of the organisation and/or program through both formal communication and general conduct to gain key stakeholders’ understanding and commitment, within relevant guidelines and in culturally sensitive and appropriate ways

4.2 Represent the organisation and/or program to external bodies and agencies, where deemed strategically advantageous, and subject to relevant policies and procedures and operational availability of staff

4.3 Represent the position of the organisation and/or program on development and relief issues in appropriate forums, subject to relevant policies and procedures and operational availability of staff

4.4 Promote and apply concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development

Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

This includes:

- Analytical tools and techniques appropriate to local context and data being analysed
- Basic logical framework
- Broad knowledge of relief and development theoretical thinking and topical issues
- Capacity and Vulnerability framework (i.e. People Oriented Planning)
- Common field living conditions
- Common field operational practices
- Data collection techniques
- Development Cooperation Treaty (if working on a bilaterally funded program), and/or
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- the country program strategy (for bilateral and multilateral donor funded activities)
- Donor funding guidelines and reporting requirements
- Donor organisation structures and key staff
- Donor priorities and donor relations
- General principles of capacity development
- General project cycle
- Local Capacities for Peace (LCP) and Do No Harm framework
- Organisation and/or program structure, including formal lines of reporting and responsibility
- Organisation and/or program support systems and personnel
- Paris Declaration and Accra principles
- Partner country's national development strategies, institutions and procedures
- Relevant internal politics and informal influence or power relationships
- Relevant policies and procedures relating to issues such as relief to development transition issues
- Social, cultural and political context of the specific field environment
- Software relevant to sector
- Australian Agency for International Aid (AusAID) guidelines, including Development for All (Disability) Strategy and Child Protection Policy
- The Humanitarian Charter and Minimum Standards in Relief (the Sphere standards)
- U.S. Agency for International Development Field Operational Guide (USAID FOG)
- United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) guidelines

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Demonstrate strong rapport building skills and clear understanding of the importance of positive relationships with a wide range of stakeholders
- Effectively promote and represent the activities, policies, position and values of the organisation and/or program to key stakeholders, both formally and informally, and in culturally sensitive and appropriate ways
- Effectively communicate with, work safely and develop relationships and networks with key stakeholders
- Comply with relevant policies, procedures and requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Network and build rapport with others, including donors, local officials and community members
- Identify and communicate effectively with stakeholders
- Language, literacy and numeracy skills such as those required to:
  - collect, analyse and organise data
  - communicate in spoken and written form with a range of audiences
  - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
  - prepare or customise materials
- Participate in a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Apply thinking, problem solving and conceptual techniques
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self motivation and direction
- Use emotional and psychological state control
- Undertake self observation and reflection
- Demonstrate awareness of team members' physical, emotional and psychological state
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
- Adapt to different environments and to respond effectively to challenges
- Analyse, evaluate and prioritise risks
- Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
- Select and use appropriate technology

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace
- Assessment must confirm a reasonable inference that competency is able not only to be satisfied under the particular circumstance, but is able to be transferred to other circumstances

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In particular workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged.
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace location or simulated workplace
  - specifications and work instructions
  - policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including donor manuals)
  - relevant documents, such as interview and meeting notes, stakeholder feedback and standards documents (e.g. USAID FOG and the Sphere standards)
  - relevant equipment (such as office equipment and communications equipment)
  - managers, co-workers and other staff and other key stakeholders if available

Method of assessment:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-job assessment in the field.
- Given the nature of this unit, assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations.
- Assessment methods must be by direct observation of tasks and include questioning on underpinning knowledge.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Information may include:
- Publicity material
- Contact information
- Prevention and mitigation strategies

Key stakeholders may include:
- Target community
- Government representatives - national, provincial, district and local
- Private sector organisations - local and international
- Donors
- Other government and/or non-government organisations
- Voluntary civic and social organisations

Community may involve people of a range of ages, cultural and ethnic diversity and people with disabilities and may refer to:
- Local community
- Business community
- Refugee community
- International community
- Organisation community

Opportunities may include:
- Answering general inquiries
- Presentations at community group gatherings
- Special interest forums
- Community events and festivals
- Speaking at seminars
- Participating in conferences
- Representing organisation on associations and committees
RANGE STATEMENT

Concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development include:

- Ownership, including:
  - using delivery processes that support partner countries to exercise effective leadership over their development policies and strategies
  - coordinating development actions
  - involving communities and local government in decision making, implementation, monitoring and evaluation
  - encouraging community's and local government's contribution to problem solving

- Alignment, involving maintaining a comprehensive understanding of partner countries’ national development strategies, institutions and procedures to guide program delivery

- Harmonisation:
  - actively seeking to collaborate with other Official Development Assistance (ODA) partners to create added value and greater development effectiveness

- Managing for results, including continuous improvement of systems to:
  - manage for development results
  - support evidence-based decision making

- Mutual accountability, involving demonstration of:
  - full transparency and accountability for the use of development resources in program delivery

Appropriate forums may include:

- Inter-agency discussions
- Conferences
- Media debates
- Government hearings
- Community meetings
- Key stakeholder meetings
- Training courses
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA405B Apply knowledge of development program work

Modification History

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CHC08 Version 3</th>
<th>CHC08 Version 4</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CHCDHA405A Apply knowledge of development program work</td>
<td>CHCDHA405B Apply knowledge of development program work</td>
<td>Unit updated in V4. ISC upgrade changes to remove references to old OHS legislation and replace with references to new WHS legislation. No change to competency outcome.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor

This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required for development program work, including understanding of key issues in a range of sectors (i.e. agriculture, health, governance, education, infrastructure, economic growth, enterprise etc.), and their interaction with other programs.

Application of the Unit

Application

This unit may be applied in a range of development contexts and should reflect the concepts and principles of effectiveness in community development (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA).

These skills and knowledge are to be applied within the scope of the person's role and authority.
Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information
Employability skills
This unit contains employability skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content
Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Apply knowledge of development program work | 1.1 Apply knowledge of the stages and components of the project cycle and their characteristics
| | 1.2 Work with understanding of the difference between relief and development work and the relationship between them
| | 1.3 Work with understanding of roles, responsibilities, priorities and authority of different stakeholders involved in development program work
| | 1.4 Work with understanding of principles and practices underpinning development program work and their application |
2. Work with understanding of key issues impacting development programs

2.1 Apply broad understanding of issues impacting development programs

2.2 Apply knowledge of potential constraints on and opportunities for development in achieving program objectives

2.3 Apply knowledge of key roles and responsibilities, priorities and authority of key stakeholders involved in development program to address each type of issue

2.4 Work with awareness of human resources, financing and diverse communication issues in development program

2.5 Work with awareness of differing aid modalities and their implications for implementation of development programs

2.6 Explain how the various issues may interact with each other in the field environment

3. Contribute to monitoring and evaluation of development program work

3.1 Work with understanding of the importance of and rationales for monitoring and evaluation of development programs as a basis for achieving community development effectiveness

3.2 Undertake monitoring using relevant tools/templates, practices and processes in line with development program requirements and own work role

3.3 Participate in evaluation of development program where appropriate in line with own work role and make adjustments to work where indicated as a result of overall evaluation outcomes

4. Address reporting requirements in development program work

4.1 Apply knowledge of contractual and/or organisation obligations with regards to progress and financial reports

4.2 Apply understanding of the importance of donor relations and opportunities to improve these relationships
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

This includes:

- General field environment
- General project cycle
- Relief to development transition issues
- Specific issues impacting on work and outcomes in development and humanitarian assistance, such as gender, HIV/AIDS, environment and anti-corruption
- Organisation structure, including formal lines of reporting and responsibility
- Organisation support systems and personnel
- Legal and ethical responsibilities, including work health and safety (WHS) and environmental regulations, equal employment and anti-discrimination requirements as well as responsibilities in the field context
- Donor priorities, organisation structures and key stakeholders
- Donor funding guidelines and reporting requirements
- Broad knowledge of theoretical thinking and topical issues related to development assistance programs
- Basic analysis techniques
- Organisation policies and procedures relating to issues
- Project development, including:
  - cash management
  - document storage and security
  - donor relations
  - financial standards
  - handling participant complaints
  - operational authority
  - organisation software
  - personal security
  - program design
  - service standards
- Agency guidelines, such as:
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- Australian Agency for International Aid (AusAID) guidelines, including Development for All (Disability) Strategy and Child Protection Policy
- U.S. Agency for International Development Field Operational Guide (USAID FOG) and United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
- other relevant agencies
- Partner country's national development strategies, institutions and procedures
- General principles of participatory monitoring and evaluation

Essential skills:

It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Identify and describe basic development issues and program approaches
- Explain how different program activities interact with sectoral issues, and how individual programs may affect others positively or negatively
- Explain the key roles and responsibilities of relevant stakeholders working on development issues and programs
- Comply with relevant organisation policies, procedures and requirements on WHS, stakeholder welfare, security and related issues
- Effectively communicate with and work safely with others in the work area

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
- Work as part of a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Initiate new ideas or work methodologies
- Accurately plan and organise work activities
- Efficiently manage own responsibilities and timelines for completion of work
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self motivation and direction
- Retain clear sense of personal values and ethics in ambiguous or stressful situations
- Identify areas for personal improvement or training in self and others
- Make situational assessments
- Demonstrate ethical handling of service delivery issues
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, showing sensitivity to cultural differences, including:
  - awareness and understanding of cultural differences
  - ability to express that awareness and understanding clearly and concisely
  - ability to build rapport with others, including participants, community leaders, donors and other non-government organisations
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

• use basic strategies to overcome language barriers (fluency in more than one language would be a major asset)
• Use emotional state control
• Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
• Use computing equipment and common software programs
• Use administration and routine office procedures
• Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
• Select and use appropriate technology
• Apply skills in:
  • setting priorities
  • undertaking new tasks
  • adapting to different environments and responding effectively to challenges
  • communicating effectively with a wide range of different audiences
  • working safely and encouraging a safe workplace
  • accessing organisation records and information sources
  • interviewing
  • networking
• language, literacy and numeracy skills such as those required to:
  • collect, analyse and organise data
  • communicate in spoken and written form with a range of audiences
  • adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
  • prepare or customise materials
  • calculate and estimate times, costs and quantities

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace
- The circumstantial or unsolicited testimony of program participants, governments or other non-government organisations regarding ethical behaviour should be considered as significant evidence in relation to this unit

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In particular workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace location or simulated workplace
  - specifications and work instructions
  - policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including sector specific manuals)
  - relevant documents (such as staff assessments, memos, leave records and performance reviews)
  - relevant equipment (such as vehicles, office equipment and communications equipment)
  - managers, co-workers and other staff

Method of assessment:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-job assessment in the field
- Given the nature of this unit, candidates should be expected to present evidence from within a real field environment
- If this is not possible, demonstration of some performance criteria in this unit may be achieved through observing the behaviour and responses of the candidate under a stressful situation similar to those likely to be encountered in the field
- While it is unethical and inappropriate to place a candidate in real danger, a life-like simulation may provide the best opportunity to observe 'near-real' responses
- Underpinning knowledge may be assessed through:
  - written assignments
  - project reports
  - debriefings
  - action learning projects
- Assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations
Range Statement
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Project cycle is:

- A well-known relief management construct used to describe the normal life-cycle of a development program
- The project cycle generally includes:
  - assessment
  - analysis
  - design
  - marketing
  - monitoring
  - reporting
  - evaluation
RANGE STATEMENT

Issues impacting development programs may include:

- Human resource issues, such as:
  - hiring of local staff
  - local labour hire laws
  - local workers’ demand for daily cash payment
  - staff accommodation and other conditions
  - evacuations

- Communication issues, such as:
  - dealing with local or international media
  - preparing press releases
  - hosting media visits
  - preparing non-media marketing information

- Finance issues, such as:
  - acquittals
  - budget submissions
  - preparation of invoice and receipt books
  - cash security
  - foreign currency restrictions and transactions

- Technical issues specific to the program such as:
  - land ownership
  - sectoral coordination

- Local capacity issues
- Local ownership and management issues
- Infrastructure issues

Key roles and responsibilities may include:

- Operational
- Line management
- Preparation of financial reports
- Preparation of non-financial reports
- Design of program
- Monitoring of program
- Evaluation of program
RANGE STATEMENT

Key stakeholders may include:

- Community members and representatives
- National and/or local government
- Private sector organisations - local and international
- Donors
- Other government and/or non-government organisations
- Voluntary civic and social organisations
- 'Internal' stakeholders, such as:
  - Immediate managers
  - Organisation's national hierarchy
  - Organisation's international or regional managers
  - Designated staff with specific program responsibilities

Interact refers to:

- Interactions which occur when one program or intervention has an impact, either directly or indirectly on another
- Interactions may also be considered to have occurred when one program or intervention stops another one from being implemented
- For example, a health intervention may stop other water interventions going ahead and this impact is considered an intervention
RANGE STATEMENT

Community development effectiveness includes:

- Ownership, including:
  - using delivery processes that support partner countries to exercise effective leadership over their development policies and strategies
  - coordinating development actions
  - involving communities and local government in decision making, implementation, monitoring and evaluation
  - encouraging community's and local government's contribution to problem solving
- Alignment, involving maintaining a comprehensive understanding of partner countries' national development strategies, institutions and procedures to guide program delivery
- Harmonisation:
  - actively seeking to collaborate with other Official Development Assistance (ODA) partners to create added value and greater development effectiveness
- Managing for results, including continuous improvement of systems to:
  - manage for development results
  - support evidence-based decision making
- Mutual accountability, involving demonstration of:
  - full transparency and accountability for the use of development resources in program delivery

Obligations may include:

- Regular reports
- Specific activities
- Outputs
- Inputs
- Training sessions

Progress reports may include:

- Monthly reports
- Situational reports
- Verbal presentations
- Annual plans
- Evaluations
RANGE STATEMENT

Financial reports may include:
- Acquittals
- Budget submissions
- Preparation of invoice and receipt books

Donors may include:
- Government:
  - Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID)
  - Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA)
  - European Union (EU)
  - Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
  - U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)
- Multilateral:
  - World Food Program (WFP)
  - United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)
  - United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
- Private donor:
  - internal
  - external
- Corporate donor
- Local representatives of all of the above
- Local host government

Line managers are:
- Managers with direct authority over and responsibility for staff reporting to them

Scope of authority may include:
- Delegation to sign cheques or authorise, purchases and payment of invoices
- Delegation to negotiate contract changes with, donors
- Delegation to authorise use of program equipment
- Delegation to recruit or direct staff
- Delegation to determine changes to program
Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA406A Secure development and/or humanitarian assistance funding

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor

Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to identify possible funding opportunities, interpret and work to funding guidelines, undertake contractual negotiations and fulfil contractual obligations

Application of the Unit

Application
This unit may be applied in a range of development and/or humanitarian assistance work contexts

Its application should reflect the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA)

This unit relates to securing donor funding of less than $US500,000 per annum or securing funding for periods of less than one year

These skills and knowledge are to be applied within the scope of the person's job and authority

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable
Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable

Employability Skills Information
Employability skills This unit contains employability skills

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content
Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency. The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Clarify funding approach of potential program donors | 1.1 Identify potential donors and describe their individual funding preferences and priorities, including funding provided to other organisations
1.2 Prioritise benefits to specific target groups in relation to potential donors
1.3 Identify most effective use of individual donor funds in the design of development and/or humanitarian assistance programs
1.4 Interpret funding guidelines of potential donors and identify critical aspects
1.5 Undertake advocacy activities in order to influence future donor priorities and funding guidelines and position the organisation for future funding |
ELEMENT  PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

2. Submit funding proposal

2.1 Submit project proposal, written to donor format, to appropriate donor representative and at appropriate time, subject to donor funding cycles and other variables

2.2 Ensure submission reflects the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development

2.3 Conduct appropriate and ongoing communication after submission of proposal, to facilitate acceptance of the proposal, including revision of proposal, where feedback indicates this is required

2.4 Provide additional information promptly and accurately to donor representative, as required

3. Negotiate, agree and fulfil contract requirements

3.1 Negotiate with donor the project commencement and conclusion dates

3.2 Negotiate with donor the budget and payment schedule

3.3 Identify reporting dates and requirements

3.4 Write and submit reports on time and to required format, where specified

3.5 If required, renegotiate with donor the project conclusion date, with or without additional funding

4. Facilitate donor visits

4.1 Arrange donor visits as required, including facilitating visas, accommodation and meetings with appropriate stakeholders

4.2 Present a positive image of project and organisation to donor representative
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

This includes:

- Social, cultural and political context of relief environment
- Organisation structure, including formal lines of reporting and responsibility
- Organisation internal politics and informal influence or power relationships
- Generally accepted accounting principles
- Organisation's financial software
- Donor organisation's structure and key staff
- Grant documents including contracts and standard attachments
- Organisation policies and procedures relating to issues such as:
  - donor relations
  - financial standards
  - end of funding cycle closeout
  - end of project closeout
  - end of financial year closeout
  - closeout under emergency conditions
  - cash management
  - emergency evacuation of personnel, records and assets
  - calculation of gift in-kind values and balances
  - personal security
  - document storage and security

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Effectively submit project proposals, negotiate favourable contracts, fulfil contractual
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- obligations and maintain funding from a range of donors over a period of time
- Effectively communicate with donors and present a positive image of the organisation
- Effectively participate in donor advocacy activities and influence donor and funding priorities and guidelines
- Comply with relevant organisation and donor policies and requirements

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
- Work as part of a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Initiate new ideas or work methodologies
- Accurately plan and organise work activities
- Efficiently manage own responsibilities and timelines for completion of work
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self motivation and direction
- Apply project management and evaluation skills
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, showing sensitivity to cultural differences, including:
  - awareness and understanding of cultural differences
  - ability to express that awareness and understanding clearly and concisely
- Use language, literacy and numeracy skills such as those required to:
  - collect, analyse and organise data
  - communicate in spoken and written form with a range of audiences
  - adjust spoken and written language to suit audience
  - prepare or customise materials
- Communicate effectively with a wide range of different audiences
- Interpret and explain complex formal documents and systems and assist others to apply them in the workplace
- Prepare written advice and reports requiring reasoning and precision of expression
- Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
- Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
- Select and use appropriate technology
- Apply skills in:
  - investigation, including analysis and deduction
  - working as part of a team
  - negotiation
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- presentation
- administration
- listening

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace
- Assessment must confirm a reasonable inference that competency is able not only to be satisfied under the particular circumstance, but is able to be transferred to other circumstances
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work.
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment.
- In particular, workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working.
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working.

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged.
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context.
- Assessment must comply with relevant regulatory requirements and/or standards.
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace location or simulated workplace
  - specifications and work instructions
  - policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including donor manuals)
  - relevant documents (such as financial records, contracts with donors, assessment notes and standards documents)
  - relevant equipment (such as office equipment and communications equipment)
  - managers, co-workers and other finance staff.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Method of assessment:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-job assessment in the field.
- Assessment may be applied under project-related conditions (real or simulated) and require evidence of process.
- Given the nature of this unit, assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations.

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.
RANGE STATEMENT

Donors may include:

- Government:
  - Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID)
  - Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA)
  - European Union (EU)
  - Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
  - U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)
- Multilateral:
  - World Food Program (WFP)
  - United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)
  - United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
- Private donor:
  - internal
  - external
- Corporate donor
- Local representatives of all of the above
- Local host government

Funding guidelines may include:

- Mission and purpose statements of donor organisations
- Formats for written content
- Restrictions on length
- Budget guidelines including specifications on administration percentages
- In-kind contributions
- Requirements to match contributions

Advocacy activities may include:

- Initiating and attending meetings
- Distributing reports
- Organising training
- Submitting capacity statements
RANGE STATEMENT

Donor format may refer to:
- The design and budget formats requested by some donors
- Some donors may have no set format
- Some donors may have a range of formats, depending upon the funding being sought
- Requirements may include information on font, style, number of pages, number of copies to be submitted, submission format (e.g., electronic, fax and post)

Appropriate donor representative may refer to:
- Personnel named in guidelines or other donor organisation promotional and support material
- Donor head office staff
- Donor local representatives

Donor funding cycles may include:
- Annual call for submissions
- Ad hoc calls for submissions
- Responses to specific humanitarian emergencies
- Government reports including Foreign Affairs profiles and alerts
- Conference proceedings
RANGE STATEMENT

Concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development include:

- Ownership, including:
  - using delivery processes that support partner countries to exercise effective leadership over their development policies and strategies
  - coordinating development actions
  - involving communities and local government in decision making, implementation, monitoring and evaluation
  - encouraging community's and local government's contribution to problem solving
- Alignment, involving maintaining a comprehensive understanding of partner countries’ national development strategies, institutions and procedures to guide program delivery
- Harmonisation:
  - actively seeking to collaborate with other Official Development Assistance (ODA) partners to create added value and greater development effectiveness
- Managing for results, including continuous improvement of systems to:
  - manage for development results
  - support evidence-based decision making
- Mutual accountability, involving demonstration of:
  - full transparency and accountability for the use of development resources in program delivery

Feedback may be:

- Formal or informal
- Feedback should be sought in such a way as to maximise opportunities for it to follow best practice principles of feedback e.g. be timely and specific

Unit Sector(s)

Not Applicable
CHCDHA407A Address financial requirements of single donor in development and/or humanitarian assistance

Modification History
Not Applicable

Unit Descriptor
Descriptor
This unit of competency describes the skills and knowledge required to identify and comply with the financial requirements of a single donor, and communicate key compliance requirements to staff

Application of the Unit
Application
This unit may be applied in a range of development and/or humanitarian assistance work contexts
Complying with single donor requirements may primarily apply in work environments where donors play a key role in programs or projects
Application of this unit should reflect the concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development (i.e. ownership, alignment, harmonisation, managing for results and mutual accountability) as embodied in the Paris Declaration and Accra Agenda for Action (AAA)
These skills and knowledge are to be applied within the scope of the person's job and authority

Licensing/Regulatory Information
Not Applicable

Pre-Requisites
Not Applicable
CHCDHA407A Address financial requirements of a single donor in development and/or humanitarian assistance

Date this document was generated: 31 March 2017

Employability Skills Information

Employability skills

This unit contains employability skills

---

Elements and Performance Criteria Pre-Content

Elements define the essential outcomes of a unit of competency.

The Performance Criteria specify the level of performance required to demonstrate achievement of the Element. Terms in italics are elaborated in the Range Statement.

---

Elements and Performance Criteria

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ELEMENT</th>
<th>PERFORMANCE CRITERIA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1. Identify key donor requirements | 1.1 Identify and correctly interpret key requirements of a major external donor
| | 1.2 Identify and correctly interpret key requirements of a major internal donor
| | 1.3 Identify options for negotiation with the donor and provide examples of previous negotiations, where possible
| | 1.4 Negotiate requirements if necessary to comply with concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development
| 2. Communicate donor requirements to staff | 2.1 Communicate donor requirements to field, national office and other organisation staff, including initial briefings and ongoing communication to ensure compliance
| | 2.2 Where project is operating in a country with existing national office, specifically outline major differences between donor requirements and existing financial requirements
| | 2.3 Explain major differences between various donors to field and national office staff as required |
3. Comply with donor requirements

3.1 Meet donor reporting requirements consistently and in a timely manner, and include appropriate data in required format

3.2 Ensure variances to budget are within approved ranges

3.3 Outline circumstances where an amendment to a grant might be possible, and discuss options for grant amendments, including formal and informal, verbal and written amendments and required supporting documentation
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

This describes the essential skills and knowledge and their level required for this unit.

Essential knowledge:
The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

This includes:

- Social, cultural and political context of relief environment
- Organisation structure, including formal lines of reporting and responsibility
- Organisation internal politics and informal influence or power relationships
- Generally accepted accounting principles
- Organisation's financial software
- Donor organisation's structure and key staff
- Grant documents including contracts and standard attachments
- Organisation policies and procedures relating to issues such as:
  - donor relations
  - financial standards
  - end of funding cycle closeout
  - end of project closeout
  - end of financial year closeout
  - closeout under emergency conditions
  - cash management
  - emergency evacuation of personnel, records and assets
  - calculation of gift in-kind values and balances
  - personal security
  - document storage and security

Essential skills:
It is critical that the candidate demonstrate the ability to:

- Effectively interpret key donor requirements of a major external donor and a major
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- internal donor, and communicate and interpret these requirements (including major differences) to relevant staff
- Comply with donor requirements at a number of levels of complexity, ranging from the implementation of a simple short term grant through to multi-year or multi-donor projects
- Effectively ensure that donor requirements are met or renegotiated
- Prepare and produce reports
- Effectively communicate with donors, staff, other finance staff and other colleagues
- Comply with organisation and donor policies and requirements
  Complying with donor requirements may sometimes require monitoring of the activities of other staff, and in some cases may also require negotiation with donors over grant amendments

In addition, the candidate must be able to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role

These include the ability to:

- Use appropriate communication and interpersonal techniques with colleagues and others
- Work as part of a team environment to complete tasks
- Identify and clearly define problems and demonstrate appropriate response procedures
- Initiate new ideas or work methodologies
- Accurately plan and organise work activities
- Efficiently manage own responsibilities and timelines for completion of work
- Demonstrate personal management, including initiative, self motivation and direction
- Apply project management and evaluation skills
- Work with people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, showing sensitivity to cultural differences, including:
  - awareness and understanding of cultural differences
  - ability to express that awareness and understanding clearly and concisely
- Communicate effectively with a wide range of different audiences
- Interpret and explain complex formal documents and systems and assist others to apply them in the workplace
- Prepare written advice and reports requiring reasoning and precision of expression
- Use communications equipment, including telephone, radio, satellite phone, fax and email
- Demonstrate adaptability and the ability to deal with ambiguous situations
- Select and use appropriate technology
- Apply skills in:
  - investigation, including analysis and deduction
  - working as part of a team
REQUIRED SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

- mediation and negotiation
- coaching
- presentation
- directing and supervising others
- administration
- listening
- negotiation

Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the Performance Criteria, Required Skills and Knowledge, the Range Statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate this unit of competency:

- The individual being assessed must provide evidence of specified essential knowledge as well as skills
- The application of competency is to be assessed in the workplace or realistically simulated workplace
- Assessment is to occur under standard and authorised work practices, safety requirements and environmental constraints
- Consistency of performance should be demonstrated over the required range of situations relevant to the workplace
- The circumstantial or unsolicited testimony of project participants, governments or other non-government organisations regarding ethical behaviour should be considered as significant evidence in relation to this unit
- Assessors need to be aware of potential complexities and note that complying with donor requirements in a straightforward, small scale grant situation may not provide evidence against all performance criteria within this unit
- Assessors unable to assess through observation in a relief environment should particularly ensure the validity of evidence and determine with care the level of complexity at which management was undertaken
- Assessment must confirm a reasonable inference that competency is able not only to be satisfied under the particular circumstance, but is able to be transferred to other circumstances

Access and equity considerations:

- All workers in development and humanitarian assistance should be aware of access, equity and human rights issues in their own area of work
- All workers should develop their ability to work in a culturally diverse environment
- In particular workers should be aware of cultural, historical and current issues facing the people and culture in which they are working
- Assessors and trainers must take into account relevant access and equity issues relating to the culture in which they are working
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Context of and specific resources for assessment:

- This unit may be assessed independently, however holistic assessment practice with other related units of competency is encouraged
- Assessment of essential underpinning knowledge, other than confirmatory questions, will usually be conducted in an off-site context
- Assessment must comply with relevant regulatory requirements and/or standards
- Resources required for assessment include access to:
  - workplace location or simulated workplace
  - specifications and work instructions
  - policy manuals and procedure manuals (international and local, including sector specific finance manuals)
  - relevant documents (such as contracts, records of communications with donors, staff briefing notes and records)
  - relevant equipment (such as office equipment and communications equipment)
  - managers, co-workers and other finance staff

Method of assessment:

- Assessment needs to take into consideration the practical difficulties associated with attempting on-job assessment in the field
- Assessment may be applied under project related conditions (real or simulated) and require evidence of process
- Given the nature of this unit, assessment should be supported by supplementary evidence from a wide range of sources, preferably including evidence from one or more field situations

Range Statement

RANGE STATEMENT
RANGE STATEMENT

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that may affect performance. Add any essential operating conditions that may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts.

Key donor requirements may include:

- Reporting data and information requirements
- Reporting timeframes and frequency
- Reporting formats
- Project flexibility
- Purchasing standards
- Use of funds for overhead costs
- Restriction on purchase from certain countries
- Level of back-up documentation required to support reports
- Tracking of staff time
- Utilities
- Rentals
- Need to expend funds or percentage of funds within donor country of origin
- Budget variance allowances
RANGE STATEMENT

Donors may include:

- Government:
  - Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID)
  - Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA)
  - European Union (EU)
  - Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
  - U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)
- Multilateral:
  - World Food Program (WFP)
  - United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF)
  - United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR)
- Private donor:
  - internal
  - external
- Corporate donor
- Local representatives of all of the above
- Local host government

Options for negotiation may include:

- Reporting deadlines
- Country of origin restrictions on purchase of goods
- Overhead rates
- Disposition of assets
- Carry-forwards/project extensions (cost or no cost)
- Pre-approvals/pre-authorisations
- Amendments to budgets
- Changes in interventions
RANGE STATEMENT

Concepts and principles of aid effectiveness and community development include:
- Ownership, including:
  - using delivery processes that support partner countries to exercise effective leadership over their development policies and strategies
  - coordinating development actions
