Performance Evidence

To demonstrate competency in this unit, a person must complete the sale of two commercial properties. The two properties may come from two of the following categories:

- office
- industrial
- retail
- healthcare
- leisure
- warehouses
- multi-family.

In doing this, the person must meet the performance criteria for this unit.

Knowledge Evidence

To be competent in this unit, a person must demonstrate knowledge of:

- agency and legal documentation required to be completed and maintained for the sale of commercial properties
- categories of commercial property:
 - industrial
 - office
 - retail
 - healthcare
 - leisure
 - warehouses
 - multi-family
- contracts and agreements used for the sale of commercial properties
- deposit requirements for different types of commercial properties

- factors that may impact the successful conclusion of a commercial property sale
- legislation and regulations governing the sale of commercial properties in the state or territory of operation
- negotiation techniques used to facilitate agreement between vendors and buyers and to break deadlocks
- ethical standards, regulatory requirements and role of agents in the sale of commercial properties:
 - duty of disclosure
 - maintaining client privacy and confidentiality
 - providing accurate information
- requirements for a valid contract.

Assessment Conditions

Assessors must satisfy the requirements for assessors listed in the Standards for Registered Training Organisations.

Assessment must be conducted in the workplace or in a simulated workplace environment.

Assessors are responsible for ensuring that the person demonstrating competency has access to:

- materials and equipment meeting the full industry standard for a real estate agency:
- policies, procedures and documentation relating to the sale of commercial property
- legislation in the state or territory of operation relating to the sale of commercial property
- equipment, communication and data access and storage technology required to maintain records and information associated with the sale of commercial property
- vendors, buyers and information to support the sale of two different types of commercial property.
