Performance Evidence

To demonstrate competency in this unit, a person must prepare an appraisal report for two different businesses using suitable appraisal methodologies.

In doing this, the person must meet the performance criteria for this unit.

Knowledge Evidence

To be competent in this unit, a person must demonstrate knowledge of:

- legislation and regulations governing the conduct of business appraisals in the state or territory of operation
- required documentation to be completed and maintained when appraising businesses for sale
- appraisal methodologies suitable for different types of businesses
- basic accounting principles and techniques for checking financial statements and the ownership and status of businesses
- business appraisal processes:
 - content and format of business appraisal reports
 - factors that influence whether businesses are comparable for appraisal purposes
 - information required to be gathered and analysed for business appraisals
 - key sources of information required for business appraisals
- industry benchmarks for the appraisal of different types of businesses
- methods for estimating goodwill
- ethical standards, regulatory requirements and role of agents in appraising businesses for sale
- types and purpose of financial records to be analysed for business appraisal purposes
- types of assets required to be considered as part of a business appraisal.

Assessment Conditions

Assessors must satisfy the requirements for assessors listed in the Standards for Registered Training Organisations.

Assessment must be conducted in the workplace or in a simulated workplace environment.

Assessors are responsible for ensuring that the person demonstrating competency has access to:

- materials and equipment meeting the operational requirements for a real estate agency:
 - policies, procedures and documentation relating to appraising businesses for sale
 - legislation in the state or territory of operation relating to the appraisal of businesses for sale
 - equipment, communication and data access and storage technology required to conduct research and prepare reports for the appraisal of businesses for sale
- client briefs and financial and performance information to support the appraisal of two different businesses for sale.
