1	These Assessment Requirements were released in CSC Correctional Services Training Package release 1.0 and meet the Standards for Training Packages.

Please refer to the advice in the CSC Assessment Guide.

Performance Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the candidate must demonstrate evidence of performance of the following on at least one occasion.

- ensuring the security and welfare of people in care and custody
- using approved restraint techniques and equipment
- searching people and confiscating unsafe articles according to organisational procedures
- correctly identifying the special needs and conditions of people in care and custody
- conducting special supervision/watch over people in care and custody
- reducing risks, hazards, confusion and distress to people in care and custody
- communicating verbally with people in care and custody to reduce distress and promote cooperation
- writing and reading reports related to monitoring activities
- interpreting assignment and instructions for people in care and custody
- arranging for the needs of people under specific conditions and categories of special needs
- responding to emergencies according to workplace procedures

Knowledge Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the depth of knowledge demonstrated must be appropriate to the job context of the candidate.

- organisation's policies and procedures related to the supervision of people in care and custody, including responsibilities of first responding officer
- duty of care
- principles and approved techniques for giving emergency first aid
- code of conduct

- likely cultural requirements that allow adjustment in the care and custody of people from different cultures
- routine assignment conditions
- emergency response procedures
- special needs and conditions and the regulations that specify how they are dealt with
- principles of effective communication, especially with uncooperative people
- specialist and support agencies available to respond to emergencies
- procedures that cover the use of security equipment

Assessment Conditions

Evidence for assessment must be gathered over time in a range of contexts to ensure the person can achieve the unit outcome and apply the competency in different situations or environments.

Valid assessment of this unit requires a workplace environment or one that closely resembles normal work practice and replicates the range of conditions likely to be encountered by an individual responsible for monitoring offenders as part of a coordinated team, including coping with difficulties, irregularities and changes to routine.

Assessors must satisfy the NVR/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors
