- managing change in services operating in a public policy environment
- maintaining supportive and effective teamwork and leadership
- promoting and maintaining the organisation's philosophies, policies, guidelines and practice standards
- establishing and developing management practice, policies and systems

Knowledge Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the depth of knowledge demonstrated must be appropriate to the job context of the candidate.

- justice system and its services and context and environment in which change is occurring
- models for organisational and system-wide change
- consultative mechanisms and protocols of the justice system
- organisational structures
- accountability and reporting systems of the justice system
- political and industrial context of the justice system
- organisational and departmental objectives and strategic plans
- key influences and decision makers in the justice system
- key political and community interests that have an impact on the justice system

Assessment Conditions

Valid assessment of this unit requires a workplace environment or one that closely resembles normal work practice and replicates the range of conditions likely to be encountered by an individual responsible for planning and implementing changes in justice services as part of a coordinated team, including coping with difficulties, irregularities and changes to routine.

Assessors must satisfy the NVR/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.
