Performance Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the candidate must demonstrate evidence of performance of the following on at least two occasions.

- supervising escorts in both routine and non-routine circumstances dealing with emergencies, breaches of regulations and conflict
- taking action to protect the welfare of prisoners and the public
- dealing with and reporting breakdowns and incidents

Knowledge Evidence

Evidence required to demonstrate competence must satisfy all of the requirements of the elements and performance criteria. If not otherwise specified the depth of knowledge demonstrated must be appropriate to the job context of the candidate.

- organisational requirements, including:
 - sections of legislation, regulations, procedures and orders that influence the work of escorting prisoners
 - range of warrants, movement orders and court requirements relating to escorting prisoners
 - organisation's reporting requirements and information management system
 - emergency procedures

Assessment Conditions

Evidence for assessment must be gathered over time in a range of contexts to ensure the person can achieve the unit outcome and apply the competency in different situations or environments.

Valid assessment of this unit requires:

- A license to drive the vehicles used in prison escorts.
- A workplace environment or one that closely resembles normal work practice and replicates the range of conditions likely to be encountered by an individual responsible for planning and monitoring escorts as part of a coordinated team, including coping with difficulties, irregularities and changes to routine.

Assessors must satisfy the NVR/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.
