Performance Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate the ability to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including evidence of the ability to:

- produce one or more ceramic works according to at least two different work ideas.

In the course of the above, the candidate must:

- explore ideas, techniques and historical and contemporary ceramic practice and choose techniques to support own work
- identify and acquire resources required to complete chosen work
- adapt and use combined ceramic techniques that show technical proficiency and quality in chosen techniques
- handle equipment, tools and materials safely and to minimise wastage
- review and document the work process.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate knowledge to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including knowledge of:

- basic intellectual property considerations when making ceramics
- methods of exploring techniques to achieve different effects in ceramic work
- technical quality requirements associated with different ceramic works
- main aspects of historical and contemporary ceramic practice and how they can inform own design ideas
- elements and principles of design: key characteristics, key interrelationships and use in ceramics
- tools and equipment used to produce ceramic work: key physical features and uses, cleaning and maintenance techniques and storage requirements
- physical properties and capabilities of different materials and techniques used to produce ceramic work

- typical work space requirements for producing ceramic work and ways of organising space and equipment for efficient work operation
- procedures for working safely with ceramics materials, tools and equipment.

Assessment Conditions

Skills in this unit must be demonstrated in a workplace or simulated environment where the conditions are typical of those in a working environment in this industry.

This includes access to:

- equipment, tools and materials used to produce ceramic work
- applicable information sources.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
