Performance Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate the ability to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including evidence of the ability to:

- establish and maintain at least two safe creative practices.

In the course of the above, the candidate must:

- analyse the needs of a particular practice and develop a set of systems, procedures and practices that support safety in that context
- identify key safety issues, including specific hazards and risks in the applicable area of practice
- apply general work health and safety (WHS) legislation and specific codes, standards or guidelines relevant to own practice.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate knowledge to complete the tasks outlined in the elements, performance criteria and foundation skills of this unit, including knowledge of:

- essential components of work health and safety (WHS) legislation, regulations and codes of practice applicable to the specific area of practice
- essential WHS responsibilities of employers, manufacturers, suppliers, employees and other parties with legal responsibilities
- applicable industry or process-specific safety guidelines that apply to particular fields of work and particular work environments
- hazards and their associated risks that exist in the specific professional practice
- potential impact of not addressing hazards and risks in the specific area of practice
- organisational systems, procedures and practices that support WHS management and regulatory compliance for a professional practice, including those relating to:
  - business planning, especially new technology and organisational change
  - purchasing policies and procedures
  - reporting on financial, technical and other resource needs

- maintenance of WHS systems and procedures.

Assessment Conditions

Skills in this unit must be demonstrated in a workplace or simulated environment where the conditions are typical of those in a working environment in this industry.

This includes access to general and practice-specific (WHS) information.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
