Assessment Requirements for CUAWRT601 Write scripts

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version first released with CUA Creative Arts and Culture Training Package version 2.0.

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to:

- use a range of script-writing tools and techniques to develop scripts for creative productions or projects by agreed deadlines
- check and confirm accuracy of information and compliance with legislative requirements
- seek and incorporate feedback from other production team members to ensure scripts meet creative, technical and artistic requirements.

Note: If a specific volume or frequency is not stated, then evidence must be provided at least once.

Knowledge Evidence

To complete the unit requirements safely and effectively, the individual must:

- explain the storytelling techniques and writing conventions that are applied in a range of screen, media, performance and text contexts
- describe the script-writing narrative, structure and formats appropriate to genre and production methods
- describe codes of practice and relevant aspects of laws on defamation, vilification, breaches of privacy and court reporting to be considered when writing scripts
- identify copyright and intellectual property requirements as they relate to developing scripts for creative productions or projects
- outline health and safety requirements as they relate to working for periods of time on screens and keyboards
- describe typical challenges that arise when writing scripts and explain ways to resolve them
- describe criteria which may be used to evaluate scripts.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a safe environment where evidence gathered demonstrates consistent performance of typical activities experienced in creative arts industry environments. The assessment environment must include access to:

- script outlines and treatments
- software packages
- interaction with others.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational educational and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
