3 Develop a personal budget

3.1 Total expenses recorded are subtracted from the total income to determine a surplus or deficit budget for the specified period.

3.2 Reasons for a deficit budget are explored and ways to reduce expenses or increase income are investigated.

3.3 Allocation of surplus funds towards saving and meeting identified financial goals is explored.

4 Implement and monitor the personal budget

4.1 The budget is followed according to plan for a period of time.

4.2 Actual expenses and income for the period during which the budget is implemented are recorded and compared to budgeted expenses and income.

4.3 Any differences in budgeted and actual amounts are looked at and the budget modified where necessary.

4.4 Handy hints for managing the personal budget are discussed.

4.5 Ongoing review of the budget is conducted to ensure it remains relevant and to ensure updates are incorporated if necessary.
Required Skills and Knowledge

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE & SKILLS

Knowledge requirements include:
- principles of budgeting
- role of credit and savings in establishing personal wealth
- understanding of the financial institutions and their savings products

Skills requirements include:
- communication skills including active listening and the ability to seek expert advice as required
- numerical and mathematical skills as relevant to calculations of interest and loan repayments and surplus or deficit funds
Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

Assessment of performance requirements in the unit may be undertaken in a range of contexts including schools, adult and community education centres, counselling services, citizens' advice bureau etc. Aspects of competency, including attainment of relevant knowledge and skills may be assessed in a formal learning environment, within the workplace or as part of another service provided to the candidate. The Evidence Guide identifies the critical aspects, knowledge and skills to be demonstrated to confirm competency for the unit. Competency is demonstrated by performance of all stated criteria including the Range Statement applicable to the learning environment.

Overview of assessment requirements

To achieve competency in this unit, a person must be able to demonstrate:
ability to explain the benefits and purposes of budgeting ability to prepare a budget spreadsheet ability to explain the difference between fixed and variable expenses ability to prepare a personal budget ability to implement the personal budget

Critical aspects of evidence

Evidence required for demonstration of consistent performance:  Competence in this unit must be assessed over a period of time in order to ensure consistency of performance over the Range Statement and contexts which are applicable to the individual learner and the learning environment.

Delivery/assessment relationship to other units:  This unit may be assessed on its own or it may be assessed with other units that cover related skills and knowledge.
Evidence is most relevant when provided through an integrated activity which combines the elements of competency for the unit, or a cluster of units of competency.

Assessment requirements

Method of assessment:  For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, evidence should be gathered through a range of methods to indicate consistent performance.
Assessment of this unit of competence will usually include observation of processes and procedures, oral and/or written questioning on underpinning knowledge and skills and other methods as required.

Context of assessment:
This unit may be assessed in a formal learning environment, in the workplace or within the environment of a related service provider such as counselling or advisory services.

Resources required for assessment:
Assessment of this unit of competency requires access to information about the budgeting process, personal financial records, software and other resources relevant to the unit of competency.
Range Statement

The Range Statement relates to the unit of competency as a whole. It allows for different work environments and situations that will affect performance.

The following variables may be present with training and assessment depending on the work situation, needs of the candidate, accessibility of the item, and local industry and regional contexts. If bold italicised text is shown in Performance Criteria, details of the text are provided in the Range Statement.

The different groups who may budget may include:

- individuals:
  - single
  - married
  - elderly
  - students
  - tourists, travellers

- families
- businesses
- Governments

Different stages of life may include:

- moving out of home
- studying
- starting a family
- buying your first home
- approaching and during retirement

Financial goals may include:

- accumulating a set amount of money by a specified date in the future for the purposes of:
  - purchasing assets
  - financing holidays, educational expenses, home renovations and other known future expenses
  - establishing a deposit for an investment such as a home or investment property

- aiming to repay existing debts and be debt free
Obstacles that might prevent financial goals being achieved may include:

- being unemployed, particularly long term unemployed
- insufficient income to afford items that are beyond the individual's means
- unexpected circumstances such as losing a job, falling ill and not being able to work

Behaviours and skills required for successful budgeting may include:

- controlled spending
- disciplined approach to money
- organisational skills
- record keeping skills

Budget refers to:

- a calculation of all projected income and expenditure for period of time (e.g., over a weekly or monthly basis)
- the budget shows all projections versus actual income and expenses for the period and should be monitored

The spreadsheet may be:

- simple or complex depending upon the extent of the individual's finances
- at the very least it should have one section for recording all money received as income and another section for expenses both variable and fixed
- there should then be a section to record the difference between income and expenses for the period, this being the surplus or deficit financial situation for the period

Sources of income may include:

- wages, commission, bonuses, tips
- interest on investments, dividends
- social security benefits, pensions, allowances, child assistance
- proceeds from sale of assets

Fixed expenses may include:

- public transport
- rent
rates
insurance
loan repayments if loan is based upon fixed interest rates (eg personal loans, car loans, credit card debts, Higher Education Contribution Scheme)
fees (school and university fees, bank fees)
travel including public transport, petrol subscriptions (eg to magazines, newspapers, clubs)

Variable expenses may include:

living expenses such as food, clothing, medical utilities such as water, gas, electricity, telephone mobile telephone mortgage repayments
loan repayments if loan is based upon variable interest rates
car maintenance
miscellaneous expenses (eg gifts, tobacco, recreation, entertainment, fines)

Ways to reduce expenses may include:

share accommodation
moving back home
reducing expenditure on discretionary items such as expensive clothing, magazines, eating out

Ways to increase income may include:

taking on a part-time job or holiday work combining part-time work with studying investigating eligibility for student allowances or other relevant Government benefits

Handy hints may include discussing:

the problems of impulsive buying particularly when under peer pressure ways to cut back on spending or change negative spending habits how to minimise fees and charges imposed by financial institutions
how to use credit card debt effectively
how to avoid getting into unnecessary financial difficulties
