Release 1	This version was released in HLT Health Training Package release 1.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. Significant changes to elements and performance criteria. New evidence requirements for assessment, including volume and environment requirements.

Performance Evidence

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks and manage contingencies in the context of the work role.

There must be evidence that the candidate has:

- supported at least two Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander health workers to provide social and emotional wellbeing support by:
 - providing professional feedback, debriefing and support
 - using culturally appropriate and safe communication skills with the worker to:
 - build rapport and trust
 - obtain information for reviewing practices
 - support the worker to discuss personally confronting issues
 - discuss strategies and techniques to protect the worker and clients
 - maintain confidentiality of the worker and their clients
 - reviewing worker's strategies and practices to reflect on client progress and outcomes, and identify successes and areas for change.

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively do the task outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage the task and manage contingencies in the context of the identified work role.

This includes knowledge of:

- a range of strategies and practices used to achieve desired client outcomes in relation to social and emotional wellbeing work
- advanced skills, knowledge and attributes required to perform the work effectively
- potential for work to impact the Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Worker in relation to own personal, family and community issues
- strategies and practices to assist and support the Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Worker to prepare for, monitor and deal effectively with the impact of social and emotional wellbeing work.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated working:

- in a health service or centre
- as a senior member of and/or supervising a primary health care team
- with Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander clients.

In addition, simulations and scenarios must be used where the full range of contexts and situations cannot be provided in the workplace or may occur only rarely. These are situations relating to emergency or unplanned procedures where assessment in these circumstances would be unsafe or is impractical.

Simulated assessment environments must simulate the real-life working environment where these skills and knowledge would be performed, with all the relevant equipment and resources of that working environment.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015/AQTF mandatory competency requirements for assessors.

Assessment must be undertaken by a workplace assessor who has expertise in this unit of competency and who is:

an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Health Worker or:

- accompanied by an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander person who is a recognised member of the community with experience in primary health care.
