

Australian Government

HLTTCM004 Adapt Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) remedial massage practice to meet specific needs

Release: 1

HLTTCM004 Adapt Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) remedial massage practice to meet specific needs

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version was released in HLT Health Training Package release 2.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. Merged HLTTCM504C/HLTTCM505C. Significant changes to the elements and performance criteria. New evidence requirements for assessment, including volume and frequency requirements. Significant change to knowledge evidence. Minimum clinic hours added. Additional assessor requirements.

Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to adapt assessment and treatment strategies to meet the needs of clients of different genders and at different stages of life. It also includes the requirement to be able to identify and respond to other specific needs with which the practitioner may be unfamiliar.

This unit applies to Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) remedial massage therapists.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand standards and industry codes of practice.

Elements and Performance Criteria

ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Elements define the essential outcomes

Performance criteria describe the performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element

1. Adapt assessment and treatment strategies to stages of life

- 1.1 Anticipate and take account of varying potential client sensitivities to ensure client dignity is maintained
- 1.2 Tailor approaches that take account of different cognitive abilities of clients at different stages of life
- 1.3 Adjust physical processes to take account of client capabilities and physical body features
- 1.4 Recognise norms and deviations associated with age and gender
- 1.5 Identify when consent from others is required, and obtain and document according to legal and ethical requirements

2. Respond to unfamiliar presentations

- 2.1 Recognise situations where presenting cases or aspects of presenting cases fall outside current knowledge base or expertise
- 2.2 Refer client to other practitioners when case is not appropriate to own scope of practice
- 2.3 When appropriate to continue with the case, identify, access and interpret sources of additional information and advice
- 2.4 Enhance own capacity to deal with the case by conducting case specific research
- 2.5 Integrate findings into client treatment plans and record details

ELEMENT

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Elements define the essential outcomes

Performance criteria describe the performance needed to demonstrate achievement of the element

3. Extend and expand own knowledge base

3.1 Pro-actively identify and respond to professional development opportunities

3.2 Develop and adjust work practices as part of ongoing practice development

Foundation Skills

The Foundation Skills describe those required skills (language, literacy, numeracy and employment skills) that are essential to performance.

Foundation skills essential to performance are explicit in the performance criteria of this unit of competency.

Unit Mapping Information

No equivalent unit.

Links

Companion volumes from the CS&HISC website - <http://www.cshisc.com.au>