

Australian Government

MSSSS00015 SS15 Lead Response to Corporate Social Responsibility

Release 1

MSSSS00015 SS15 Lead Response to Corporate Social Responsibility

Modification History

Release 1. New Skill Set.

Description

This Skill Set reflects the skills requirements to lead the implementation of the organisation's approach to corporate social responsibility (CSR). It includes assessing the organisation's current performance against own values, stakeholder expectations and relevant local or international standards and guidelines. It includes developing strategies to identify and address CSR risks and opportunities, and implementing, monitoring, reviewing and reporting on those strategies. There is a strong focus on stakeholder consultation and communication and the integration of social responsibilities into the organisation's work practices.

Pathways Information

These units provide credit towards the MSS50118 Diploma in Sustainable Operations.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Nil.

Skill Set Requirements

MSS014014 Implement social sustainability in work practices

MSS015024 Develop required sustainability reports

MSS015025 Develop a business case for sustainability improvements

MSS015034 Inform and educate organisation and community representatives on sustainability issues

MSS015039 Develop response to corporate social responsibility

Target Group

This Skill Set is for team leaders and managers responsible for identifying and analysing CSR risks and opportunities, developing CSR strategies and leading the implementation of CSR strategies.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies from the MSS Sustainability Training Package meet industry requirements for leading the development and implementation of corporate social responsibility in an organisation.

Custom Content Section

Not applicable.