Application

This unit describes the skills required to review briefs for mentions, communicate with stakeholders, present a case and complete mention duties. This includes performing prosecution duties in a professional, ethical and accountable manner that ensures public confidence in the police.

This unit applies to police prosecutors undertaking mention duties.

The skills and knowledge described in this unit must be applied within the legislative, regulatory and policy environment in which they are carried out. Organisational policies and procedures must be consulted and adhered to, particularly those related to court proceedings and prosecution guidelines.

Those undertaking this unit would generally work autonomously within a court/justice system environment but may be required to work under supervision at times. They will perform complex tasks and required to demonstrate adaptability across a broad range of contexts.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to unit at the time of publication.
