Modification History

Application

This unit describes the skills required to provide an effective registry and information service to court clients according to the court's business plan. It includes advising on court practice and procedures, processing incoming registry work, and handling documents and exhibits lodged.

This unit applies to those working within the court system operating under procedures set by the court.

The skills and knowledge described in this unit must be applied within the legislative, regulatory and policy environment in which they are carried out. Organisational policies and procedures must be consulted and adhered to, particularly those set by the court.

Those undertaking this unit would generally work independently with occasional supervisory responsibilities. They would perform complex tasks in a range of familiar and unfamiliar contexts.

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to unit at the time of publication.
