Unit Descriptor

This unit covers organisation of available resources at a senior operative rather than managerial level to facilitate achievement of work unit objectives. It includes acquiring and applying available resources, monitoring and reporting on resource usage and maintaining resources.

In practice, using resources to achieve work unit goals may overlap with other generalist or specialist public sector work activities such as acting ethically, complying with legislation, applying government processes, gathering and analysing information, etc.

This is one of 5 units of competency in the Working in Government and Management Competency Fields that deal with resources. Related units are:

- PSPGOV204B Access and use resources
- PSPGOV305B Access and use resources and financial systems
- PSPGOV503B Coordinate resource allocation and usage
- PSPMNGT602B Manage resources

No licensing, legislative, regulatory or certification requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication

Overview of evidence requirements

In addition to integrated demonstration of the elements and their related performance criteria, look for evidence that confirms:

- the knowledge requirements of this unit
- the skill requirements of this unit
- application of Employability Skills as they relate to this unit
- use and maintenance of resources in a range of (3 or more) contexts (or occasions, over time)

Resources required to carry out assessment

These resources include:

- legislation, policy, procedures and guidelines relating to resource usage, storage and maintenance
- workplace technology for resource ordering, managing and financial requirements
- case studies and workplace scenarios to capture the range of situations likely to be encountered when using resources to achieve work unit goals

Where and how to

Valid assessment of this unit requires:
assess evidence

- a workplace environment, or one that closely resembles normal work practice and replicates the range of conditions likely to be encountered when using resources to achieve work unit goals, including coping with difficulties, irregularities and breakdowns in routine
- use and maintenance of resources in a range of (3 or more) contexts (or occasions, over time).

Assessment methods should reflect workplace demands, such as literacy, and the needs of particular groups, such as:

- people with disabilities
- people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- women
- young people
- older people
- people in rural and remote locations.

Assessment methods suitable for valid and reliable assessment of this competency may include, but are not limited to, a combination of 2 or more of:

- demonstration
- portfolios
- projects
- questioning
- scenarios
- simulation or role plays
- authenticated evidence from the workplace and/or training courses.

For consistency of assessment

Evidence must be gathered over time in a range of contexts to ensure the person can achieve the unit outcome and apply the competency in different situations or environments.
