Performance Evidence

An individual demonstrating competency must satisfy all of the elements and performance criteria in this unit.

There must be evidence that the individual has:

- prepared at least three yearlings and one other horse (mare or weanling) for sale, including:
 - conditioned each horse in preparation for sales
 - prepared each horse for sale day.

Knowledge Evidence

An individual must be able to demonstrate the knowledge required to perform the tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit. This includes knowledge of:

- types and correct fit of common tack and equipment
- conditioning, grooming and washing procedures
- types and purpose of different exercise regimes and equipment
- initial early education techniques
- hand walking techniques
- pasture quality and features of stud feeds and supplements
- yearling feeding and nutrition requirements
- yearling health and disease management
- hoof care requirements and techniques
- corrective farriery and other techniques to improve conformation and saleability
- workplace procedures relating to safety, safe horse handling and biosecurity.

Assessment Conditions

Assessment of skills must take place under the following conditions:

- physical conditions:

- a workplace or an environment that accurately represents workplace conditions
- resources, equipment and materials:
 - various horses – note that young horses can be less compliant and highly reactive, and should be assessed as suitable for the experience and skill of the handlers
 - equipment for exercising, washing and grooming
 - feed program for individual yearlings
 - appropriate tack for yearlings and activity
 - personal protective equipment (PPE) applicable for task for handler.

Training and assessment strategies must show evidence of the use of guidance provided in the Companion Volume: User Guide: Safety in Equine Training.

Assessors of this unit must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
