

Australian Government

Assessment Requirements for RIIPRO202D Conduct screening and conveying operations

Release: 1

Assessment Requirements for RIIPRO202D Conduct screening and conveying operations

Modification History

Not applicable.

Performance Evidence

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge in conducting screening and conveying operations through:

- accessing, interpreting and applying the organisation and site requirements and procedures for;
 - safe operation of equipment
 - disposal of environmentally sensitive fluids and materials
 - site hazard identification and response
 - site risk control
 - site and equipment health and safety
 - site environmental requirements
 - site quality requirements
 - site communication
 - plant pre-start, start-up, operating and shutdown
 - plant breakdown
 - plant isolation
 - site record keeping
 - contaminant identification
 - emergency procedures
- site product characteristics
- plant components functions, characteristics, technical capability and limitations
- technical information
- being prepared for fire/accident/emergency
-

Assessment Conditions

- An assessor of this unit must satisfy the requirements of the NVR/AQTF or their successors; and Industry regulations for certification and licensing; and,
- this unit must be assessed in the context of this sector's work environment; and,
- this unit must be assessed using Resources and Infrastructure Industry sector specific policies, procedures, processes and operational manuals; and,
- assessor requirements differ between sectors as follows:
 - when assessing this unit in the context of the Metalliferous Mining sector:
 - an assessor must demonstrate the skills and knowledge of this unit through five (5) years of current and continuous work with the Industry sector and must hold the TAE Assessor Skill Set or equivalent; or,
 - when assessing this unit in the context of the Extractive sector
 - an assessor must demonstrate the skills and knowledge of this unit through five (5) years' work experience in the Industry sector; and,

- where the assessor does not have current experience a co-assessment or partnership arrangement needs to exist between the qualified assessor and an Industry technical expert/ subject matter expert. The Industry technical expert/subject matter expert must hold the unit being assessed and be currently working in the sector with a minimum of two (2) years' of current work experience.
-

Links

SkillsDMC RII Companion Volumes - <http://www.skillsdmc.com.au/>