Evidence Guide

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge, range statement and the Assessment Guidelines for the Training Package.

Overview of assessment

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Evidence of the following is essential:

- assesses suitability of players and other officials to participate in the match, and interprets and applies the laws and regulations of Rugby Union for the given situation
- makes accurate and consistent decisions and communicates decisions to players, other officials, coaches and spectators
- conveys a confident and friendly manner and maintains optimal position to view play throughout the game
- completes written and oral formal and informal reports for junior level game, and implements changes to improve the quality of officiating based on formal and informal feedback.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Assessment must ensure demonstration of officiating multiple junior level Rugby Union games to demonstrate competency and consistency of performance

Assessment must also ensure access to:

- a Rugby Union competition facility, with marked out fields
- groups or teams of participants playing Rugby Union at the junior or beginner level
- officiating equipment and resources
- laws and regulations of Rugby Union
- convened judiciary hearing or a mock judiciary hearing.

Method of assessment

A range of assessment methods should be used to assess practical skills and knowledge. The following examples are appropriate for this unit:

- observation of identifying breaches of laws and regulations by players and other officials
- oral and or written questioning to assess knowledge of the laws and regulations of Rugby Union as they apply to games played at the junior level
- observation of applying positioning techniques to communicate with other officials and identify and signal breaches

- a portfolio containing written reports, evidence or documentation of oral reports, relevant paperwork and analysis of feedback where required
- third-party reports from a supervisor detailing officiating performance.

Holistic assessment with other units relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role is recommended.
