

Australian Government

Assessment Requirements for SITTTVL002 Provide advice on international destinations

Release: 1

Assessment Requirements for SITTTVL002 Provide advice on international destinations

Modification History

Not applicable.

Performance Evidence

Evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit in the context of the job role, and:

- provide tailored information to meet the requests of at least three different customers of different customer types or demographics
- for each of the above customers, provide current, relevant and accurate information on at least five different features of two different international tourism destinations
- obtain above information by accessing at least three different information sources from the following:
 - computerised reservations systems (CRS)
 - global distribution systems (GDS)
 - international government tourism authority information systems
 - internet
 - organisation-designed information systems
 - principal or supplier information
- complete above activities within commercial time constraints and deadlines determined by the customer or organisation.

Knowledge Evidence

Demonstrated knowledge required to complete the tasks outlined in elements and performance criteria of this unit:

- formal and informal research methods:
 - accessing and reading promotional information
 - accessing the internet
 - attending professional development activities
 - contact with other organisations
 - formal study
 - informal discussions with colleagues and customers
 - media
- sources of information on regions and destinations and types of product offered
- sources of information on current health and safety issues for international destinations:
 - government issued travel warning advice for Australian travellers

- health advisory notices and vaccination information issued by local and international bodies
- safety advisory information issued by police authorities and emergency service authorities
- sources of information on regulatory issues for international destinations:
 - passport and visa requirements
 - travel restrictions for destinations
- international destinations including coverage of all seven continents, and the major regions and destinations therein
- features of international destinations:
 - areas of environmental, social or cultural significance or sensitivity
 - currency information
 - facilities for customers with special needs
 - local customs
 - local economy
 - local facilities
 - major gateways for and transport networks within the region and destination
 - airports
 - cruise ports
 - tourist attractions
 - unique regional features
- sources of information for specific information relating to international travel destinations:
 - key information on geographical features of the destination
 - key information on cultural and related features of the destination
 - key information on socioeconomic features of the destination
- formats and inclusions used to present information to customers, and styles that cater for those with special needs
- different procedures for storing destination information.

Assessment Conditions

Skills must be demonstrated in a safe environment, incorporating the use of industry-realistic simulations and scenarios where required.

Assessment must ensure access to:

- computers, printers and information programs currently used by the travel industry to store destination information
- current destination and general product information
- internet
- generic computer software and applications:
 - computer operating systems
 - databases

- customers with whom the individual can interact. These can be:
 - customers in an industry workplace who are assisted by the individual during the assessment process; or
 - individuals who participate in role plays or simulated activities, set up for the purpose of assessment, in a simulated industry environment operated within a training organisation.

Assessors must satisfy the Standards for Registered Training Organisations' requirements for assessors and have worked in industry for at least three years where they have applied the skills and knowledge of this unit of competency.

Links

Companion Volume implementation guides are found in VETNet -

<https://vetnet.gov.au/Pages/TrainingDocs.aspx?q=68c40a93-e51d-4e0f-bc06-899dff092694>