Release: 1

SITXCCS001 Provide customer information and assistance

Modification History

Not applicable.

Application

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to provide customers with information and assistance on facilities, products and services.

The unit applies to frontline service personnel working in a range of tourism, travel, hospitality, entertainment and cultural contexts. Information and assistance are often provided face-to-face, but may be by telephone or other remote mechanisms.

Customer service personnel working under supervision undertake this function, but the unit is also relevant to those working in operational roles where customer service may not be the main focus of work, e.g. animal handlers in a zoo or technicians in a theatre.

No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.
