Release: 1

SITXLAN007 Conduct basic oral communication in a language other than English

Modification History

Not applicable.

Application

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to use and understand very simple and commonly used expressions of a predictable nature in a language other than English. It covers activities such as welcoming and farewelling customers, providing face-to-face routine customer service and other routine workplace activities.

The unit applies to all industry contexts and to individuals working at different levels of responsibility. This could include frontline, supervisory or management personnel.

This unit can be used for the assessment of basic oral proficiency in any language other than English. This unit does not prepare individuals for the role of a translator or interpreter.

The skills in this unit must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State/Territory legislation, Australian/New Zealand standards and industry codes of practice.

No occupational licensing, certification or specific legislative requirements apply to this unit at the time of publication.
