Evidence Guide

EVIDENCE GUIDE

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge, the range statement and the Assessment Guidelines for this Training Package.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Evidence of the following is essential:

- ability to provide a total quality service experience
- knowledge of different customer preferences and ways to meet both stated and unstated requirements
- ability to use selling techniques to promote products and services within a specific tourism or hospitality context
- ability to handle and resolve complaints and difficult customer service situations.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Assessment must ensure:

- demonstration of skills while undertaking normal job tasks, e.g. up-selling while providing food and beverage service, promoting the hotel or park restaurant while at reception, advising guests of special features or events while issuing tickets to a theme park or other attraction, or promoting through the development of menus, specials or other special products or services
- work activities that allow interaction with multiple and diverse customer types to allow the candidate to respond to a range of requirements and customer service situations.
EVIDENCE GUIDE

Methods of assessment

A range of assessment methods should be used to assess practical skills and knowledge. The following examples are appropriate for this unit:

- direct observation of the candidate providing service to customers
- oral or written questions to determine product and service knowledge
- case studies to test knowledge of appropriate products and services for different contexts, customers and situations
- role-plays in which the candidate promotes products and services and demonstrates up-selling techniques
- projects to develop menus, promotional ideas or suggestions for a particular product or service
- project to research customer preferences for a particular organisation or context
- review of portfolios of evidence and third-party workplace reports of on-the-job performance by the candidate.

Holistic assessment with other units relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role is recommended, for example:

- SITXCOM002 Work in a socially diverse environment
- SITXCOM003A Deal with conflict situations.

Assessing employability skills

Employability skills are integral to effective performance in the workplace and are broadly consistent across industry sectors. How these skills are applied varies between occupations and qualifications due to the different work functions and contexts.

Employability skills embedded in this unit should be assessed holistically with other relevant units that make up the skill set or qualification and in the context of the job role.
