Evidence Guide

The evidence guide provides advice on assessment and must be read in conjunction with the performance criteria, required skills and knowledge, range statement and the Assessment Guidelines for the Training Package.

Overview of assessment

Critical aspects for assessment and evidence required to demonstrate competency in this unit

Evidence of the ability to:

- follow standard recipes to prepare multiple and varying appetisers and salads using a range of preparation and cookery methods
- produce food for multiple customers within commercial time constraints
- integrate knowledge of:
  - quality indicators for appetisers and salads
  - cookery methods
  - features, functions and safe use of food preparation equipment
  - appropriate environmental storage conditions
  - food safety practices for handling and storing different food types.

Context of and specific resources for assessment

Assessment must ensure use of:

- an operational commercial kitchen with the fixtures, large and small equipment and workplace documentation defined in the Assessment Guidelines; this can be a:
  - real industry workplace
  - simulated industry environment such as a training kitchen servicing customers
- industry-realistic ratios of kitchen staff to customers
- food preparation lists and standard recipes
- a variety of commercial ingredients.

Method of assessment

A range of assessment methods should be used to assess practical skills and knowledge. The following examples are appropriate for this unit:

- direct observation of the individual preparing for and producing appetisers and salads
- evaluation of the taste and visual appeal of appetisers and salads prepared by the individual
- projects that allow assessment of the individual’s ability to produce a variety of appetisers and salads
- use of visual and taste recognition exercises so the individual can identify ingredient and product characteristics
• written or oral questioning to assess knowledge of culinary terms, quality indicators for appetisers and salads, equipment, cookery methods
• and appropriate environmental storage conditions
• review of portfolios of evidence and third-party workplace reports of on-the-job performance by the individual.

Guidance information for assessment

The assessor should design integrated assessment activities to holistically assess this unit with other units relevant to the industry sector, workplace and job role, for example:

• SITHCCC103 Prepare sandwiches.
