Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge to effectively complete the task outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit. This includes knowledge of:

- learning theories and principles
- resources available to identify different learner styles
- the relevant industry area and subject matter of the delivery
- the learner group profile, including characteristics and needs of individual learners in the group
- the requirements of the learning program and/or delivery plan, and the content purpose
- different delivery methods and techniques appropriate to face-to-face group delivery

- different techniques for the recognition and resolution of inappropriate behaviours
- behaviours that may indicate learner difficulties, and the methods used to address these difficulties
- the purpose of organisational record-management systems and reporting requirements
- evaluation and revision techniques used to improve session plans
- specific resources, equipment and support services available for learners with special needs
- assessment and risk control measures relating to the facilitation of group-based learning
- policies and procedures relevant to the learning environment.

Assessment Conditions

Gather evidence to demonstrate consistent performance in conditions that are safe and replicate the workplace. Conditions must be typical of those experienced in the training and assessment environment, and include access to learning program designs in use in the learning environment.

Assessors must satisfy the requirements for assessors in applicable vocational education and training legislation, frameworks and/or standards.
