

Australian Government

UEPSS00009 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine

Release 1

UEPSS00009 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine

Modification History

Release 1. This Skill Set replaces and is equivalent to UEPSS00005 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine.

Description

This Skill Set UEPSS00009 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine provides the skills and knowledge required to operate reciprocating steam engines within the Australian UEP Electricity Supply Industry - Generation Sector Training Package environment.

Pathways Information

This Skill Set UEPSS00009 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine is part of the UEP Electricity Supply Industry - Generation Sector Training Package.

This Skill Set can be a stand-alone licensing outcome, or the unit may be included in a qualification as a core or elective option.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

Personnel seeking certification as a licenced operator of a reciprocating steam engine are to comply with national High Risk Licensing requirements for operators of reciprocating steam engines.

Skill Set Requirements

A total of one unit of competency must be attained.

UEPOPL003 Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine

Target Group

This is Skill Set UEPSS00009 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine is suitable for operators who require occupational licensing by a state or territory work health and safety (WHS)/occupational health and safety (OHS) regulator.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

This Skill Set UEPSS00009 High Risk Licensing - Licence to operate a reciprocating steam engine from the UEP Electricity Supply Industry - Generation Sector Training Package meets the minimum industry requirements for High Risk Licensing of operators of reciprocating steam engines.

Custom Content Section

Not applicable.