Generic Process Skills

There are a number of processes that are learnt throughout work and life which are required in all jobs. They are fundamental processes and generally transferable to other work functions. Some of these are covered by the key competencies, although others may be added. The questions below highlight how these processes are applied in this unit of competency. Following each question a number indicates the level to which the key competency needs to be demonstrated where 0 = not required, 1 = perform the process, 2 = perform and administer the process, and 3 = perform, administer and design the process.

How can communication of ideas and information be applied?
By communicating with the customer in relation to the amount owed and identifying delivery requirements.(1)

How can information be collected, analysed and organised?
By identifying customer requirements in relation to picking up parcels or having them delivered and to where.(1)

How are activities planned and organised?
By organising the wrapping and packaging of goods and maintaining adequate supplies.(1)

How can team work be applied?
This skill may not be applicable to this unit. (0)

How can the use of mathematical ideas and techniques be applied?
Mathematical ideas and techniques need to be used when receiving money from customer and in giving correct change. (1)

How can problem solving skills be applied?
Organising delivery and packaging goods will require problem solving skills.(1)

How can the use of technology be applied?
Using various point of sale equipment requires the use of technology.(1)

Context of Assessment

Assessment Process

For valid and reliable assessment of this unit, evidence should be gathered through a range of methods to indicate consistent performance.

It can be gathered from assessment of the unit of competency alone, through an integrated assessment activity or through a combination of both.

Evidence should be gathered as part of the learning process.

Integrated Competency Assessment
Evidence is most relevant when provided through an integrated activity which combines the elements of competency for each unit, or a cluster of units of competency. The candidate will be required to:

Apply knowledge and skills which underpin the process required to demonstrate competence, including appropriate key competencies.

Integrate knowledge and skills critical to demonstrating competence in this unit.

Unit WRRCS2B can be assessed with the following units:
- WRRRP2B Minimise theft
- WRRCS3B Interact with customers
- WRRI1B Perform stock control procedures
- WRRF1B Balance the register/terminal

Evidence Gathering Methods

Evidence should include products, processes and procedures from the workplace context or from a simulated work environment. Evidence might include:

- Observation of the person in the workplace
- A simulated role play
- Third party reports from a supervisor
- Customer feedback
- Answers to questions about specific skills and knowledge

Resources Required

- A real or simulated work environment
- Relevant documentation, such as:
  - stock/inventory/price lists
  - financial transaction dockets/slips
  - lay by/credit/product return slips
  - store policy and procedures manuals
