

Australian Government

ACMSS00016 Promote Animal Health in Remote Communities Skill Set

Release 1

ACMSS00016 Promote Animal Health in Remote Communities Skill Set

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version released with ACM Animal Care and Management Training Package Version 2.0.

Description

This skill set describes the skills and knowledge to work effectively in remote Aboriginal communities to provide advice and services relating to animal health and infection control, particularly community dogs.

Pathways Information

These units of competency provide credit towards a range of qualifications from the:

- ACM Animal Care and Management Training Package
- HLT Health Training Package.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

No occupational licensing or regulatory requirements apply to this skill set at the time of publication.

Skill Set Requirements

- ACMINF304 Promote environmental health and safety for companion animals in remote communities
- ACMWHS301 Contribute to workplace health and safety processes
- HLTPOP010 Monitor and maintain dog health in the community.

Target Group

This skill set is for individuals working in animal management or health roles in remote Aboriginal communities.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies meet the requirements for animal management or health workers in remote Aboriginal communities.