The candidate must provide evidence that they can:

- describe the goals and activities of the enterprise
- define the legal parameters of the business organisation
- analyse the positions and power relationships for decision making within an Indigenous Community
- relate Indigenous Community and business roles to the concept of Country
- make recommendations to support the concept and implementation of Indigenous management principles

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate knowledge of:

- national, state and local legislation that relates to business operations
- legal aspects of business structures
- constitutions and other corporate documentation
- organisational structures theories
- decision-making processes
- Community structure and protocols that impact on business operations and decision making

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must comply with Community protocols and be supported by Elders and Custodians of Country.

Assessors must satisfy current standards for RTOs.
