

Australian Government

AHCSS00111 Medicinal Cannabis Manager Skill Set

Release 1

AHCSS00111 Medicinal Cannabis Manager Skill Set

Modification History

Release	Comments
Release 1	This version released with AHC Agriculture, Horticulture and Conservation and Land Management Training Package Version 6.0.

Description

This skill set provides the skills and knowledge to implement and monitor regulatory and quality requirements in the medicinal cannabis industry.

Pathways Information

These units of competency provide credit towards a range of qualifications from the AHC Agriculture, Horticulture and Conservation and Land Management Training Package, including AHC42320 Certificate IV in Medicinal Cannabis Cultivation and Production.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this skill set at the time of publication.

Skill Set Requirements

- AHCMDC401 Apply security measures for medicinal cannabis
- AHCMDC402 Monitor medicinal cannabis production for compliance and quality

Target Group

This skill set is for of individuals who work in the medicinal cannabis industry at the supervisory or managerial level.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies from the AHC Agriculture, Horticulture and Conservation and Land Management Training Package meet industry requirements for implementing and monitoring regulatory and quality requirements in the medicinal cannabis industry.