

Australian Government

AHCSS00166 Recognise Native and Feral Fauna Skill Set

Release 1

AHCSS00166 Recognise Native and Feral Fauna Skill Set

Modification History

| Release   | Comments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Release 1 | This version released with AHC Agriculture, Horticulture and Conservation and Land Management Training Package Version 10.0.Supersedes and not equivalent to AHCSS00070 Recognise Native and Feral Fauna Skill Set . Skill Set requirements updated. |

Description

This skill set provides the skills and knowledge for workers working in bushland who may come into contact with native fauna.

Pathways Information

These units of competency provide credit towards Certificate III in Conservation and Ecosystem Management.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this skill set at the time of publication.

Skill Set Requirements

- AHCFAU202 Recognise fauna
- AHCWHS302 Contribute to workplace health and safety processes
- AHCWRK315 Respond to emergencies

Target Group

This skill set is for workers working in bushland who may come into contact with native fauna.

Suggested words for Statement of Attainment

These competencies from the AHC Agriculture, Horticulture and Conservation and Land Management Training Package Version meet the industry requirements for identifying and responding to encounters with native and feral fauna.