Application

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to remove primal cuts from the leg of a small stock carcase.

This unit is applicable to workers boning small stock legs in boning rooms, food services operations, smallgoods plants, wholesale and retail operations.

All work should be carried out to comply with workplace procedures, customer requirements and product specifications.

This unit applies to individuals who work under broad direction and take responsibility for their own work including limited responsibility for the work of others. They provide and communicate solutions to a range of predictable problems.

No occupational licensing, legislative or certification requirements are known to apply to this unit at the time of publication.

This unit must be delivered and assessed in the context of Australian meat processing standards and regulations.

Pre-requisite Unit

Assessment Requirements for AMPA3048 Bone small stock carcase - leg

Modification History

Release	TP Version	Comment
1	AMPv2.0	Initial release

Performance Evidence

The candidate must remove primal cuts from the leg of a small stock carcase.

The candidate must:

- bone out the legs according to specifications and work instructions
- check the accuracy of cutting lines
- identify contamination and take corrective action
- identify primals containing contamination or abnormalities and handle according to workplace and regulatory requirements
- identify finished primal cuts
- comply with workplace health and safety requirements
- apply communication skills relevant to work instructions and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) when reporting to supervisors and interacting with team members
- use equipment correctly

Knowledge Evidence

The candidate must demonstrate a factual, technical, procedural and theoretical knowledge of:

- dropped meat procedures
- workplace health and safety requirements for boning small stock
- procedure for cuts required to maximise yields for a given carcase
- structure of the carcase and cutting lines
- work instruction for the removal of all primals to desired specifications
- workplace and customer specifications
- carcase defects and corrective actions to be taken
- sources of contamination and cross-contamination and the ways of minimising the contamination

Assessment Conditions

Assessment must be conducted in a registered operating meat processing plant or facility.

Competency must be demonstrated at a normal rate of production.

As a minimum, the following three forms of assessment must be used:

- quiz of underpinning knowledge
- workplace demonstration
- workplace referee or third-party report of performance over time

Assessors must satisfy the current standards for RTOs.
