2	Minor change to update superseded elective units of competency
1	This qualification was first released in CHC Community Services Release 6.0.

Qualification Description

This qualification reflects the role of workers in a range of community safety services settings in remote and other communities.

These services may include safety patrols, outreach services, community liaison and support roles or community networking programs in relation to specific initiatives.

At this level, work takes place under the general direction of others and supervision may be direct or indirect. Workers in community safety services roles contribute to the safety and wellbeing of their communities.

The skills in this qualification must be applied in accordance with Commonwealth and State or Territory legislation, Australian standards and industry codes of practice.

Licensing/Regulatory Information

No licensing, legislative or certification requirements apply to this qualification at the time of publication.
